On Ship That Downed Jap Plane

John Mast Sic was on a 4-H Liberty ship which was attacked by a Jap plane in the Pacific recently. Mast was serving as a gunner with the armed guard unit on the ship and scored the hit that brought the enemy plane down. Seaman Mast's wife resides in Grundy Center.

Story of the attack as reported in a daily paper is given below: "A Liberty ship sponsored by Louisiana 4-H Club members, built at the Delta ship yards, and named after the late Floyd W. Spencer, AAA administrator for the state, was victor in a battle with a Jap plane on her maiden voyage, the War Shipping Administration announced today.

Off the Philippines the "Spencer" was attacked by an enemy dive bomber which swooped down upon the ship after the first bomb missed its mark. The Jap launched a torpedo and was preparing to strafe the ship when a burst of gunfire from the "Spencer" blew the plane to bits. Meanwhile the captain maneuvered the vessel from the path of the onrushing torpedo, it passed a bare 10 feet off the ship's stern.
