FOREWORD

The 1958 Beaver Log you now hold in your hands brings once more to you the graduating seniors and student body of Buena Vista College. It is intended to be a cross section of work, play, and accompanying problems of life at college.

It has been our desire to produce a yearbook that is representative of the student body and the activities at B.V. The degree of success we may have achieved will be measured in the satisfaction and enjoyment you receive from this volume, not only this year, but in future years when the Log will serve as a tie-back to your days at Buena Vista College.

Those hours in class that seemed like days and the days that seemed like weeks, but now you wonder, as you look back, where the year has gone, what you did, where you went, and what your friends did.

These things and many others will be brought to mind by the pages which follow. We hope you enjoy them.

DEDICATION

In 1954, when Buena Vista accepted us as freshmen, another special member joined our family. His name is Chung Choon Ki, and he is now a young man of fifteen.

Chung Choon Ki lives in a Pusan orphanage. His parents died within a month of each other in the early years of the war. After the tragedy of losing both parents Choon Ki began a life of wandering from place to place. Young as he was, he had an idea he should go to Seoul and he set out, all alone, to get there. In the chaos brought about by the war the child was unnoticed among the swarms of refugees filling the roads, and he survived by a miracle, begging a handful of food wherever he could. For two years he lived this way until he finally arrived in Pusan, having traveled on foot all of the way.

Through Foster Parents Plan, Inc., Buena Vista college became his foster parents. He corresponds regularly with us and intends to enter a theological school when he finishes his high school education.

Although we have never seen you, Chung Choon Ki, this is how we picture you. We extend to you our hand and are proud to have you as a part of our college family. With our love and our prayers, we dedicate this 1958 edition of the Beaver Log to you, Chung Choon Ki.

ADMINISTRATION

Dear Seniors:

In the fall of 1954 we were new arrivals at Buena Vista College. You were new freshmen; I was new to the presidency. We have had four fine years of working, playing, and praying together. We have had many mountain top experiences and have shared some sadness.

All in all they have been four wonderful years . . . years which I shall never forget.

May God be with you as you go forth into His vineyard to labor. May you continue to grow in mind and spirit and may your Alma Mater, with your help and His, continue to serve.

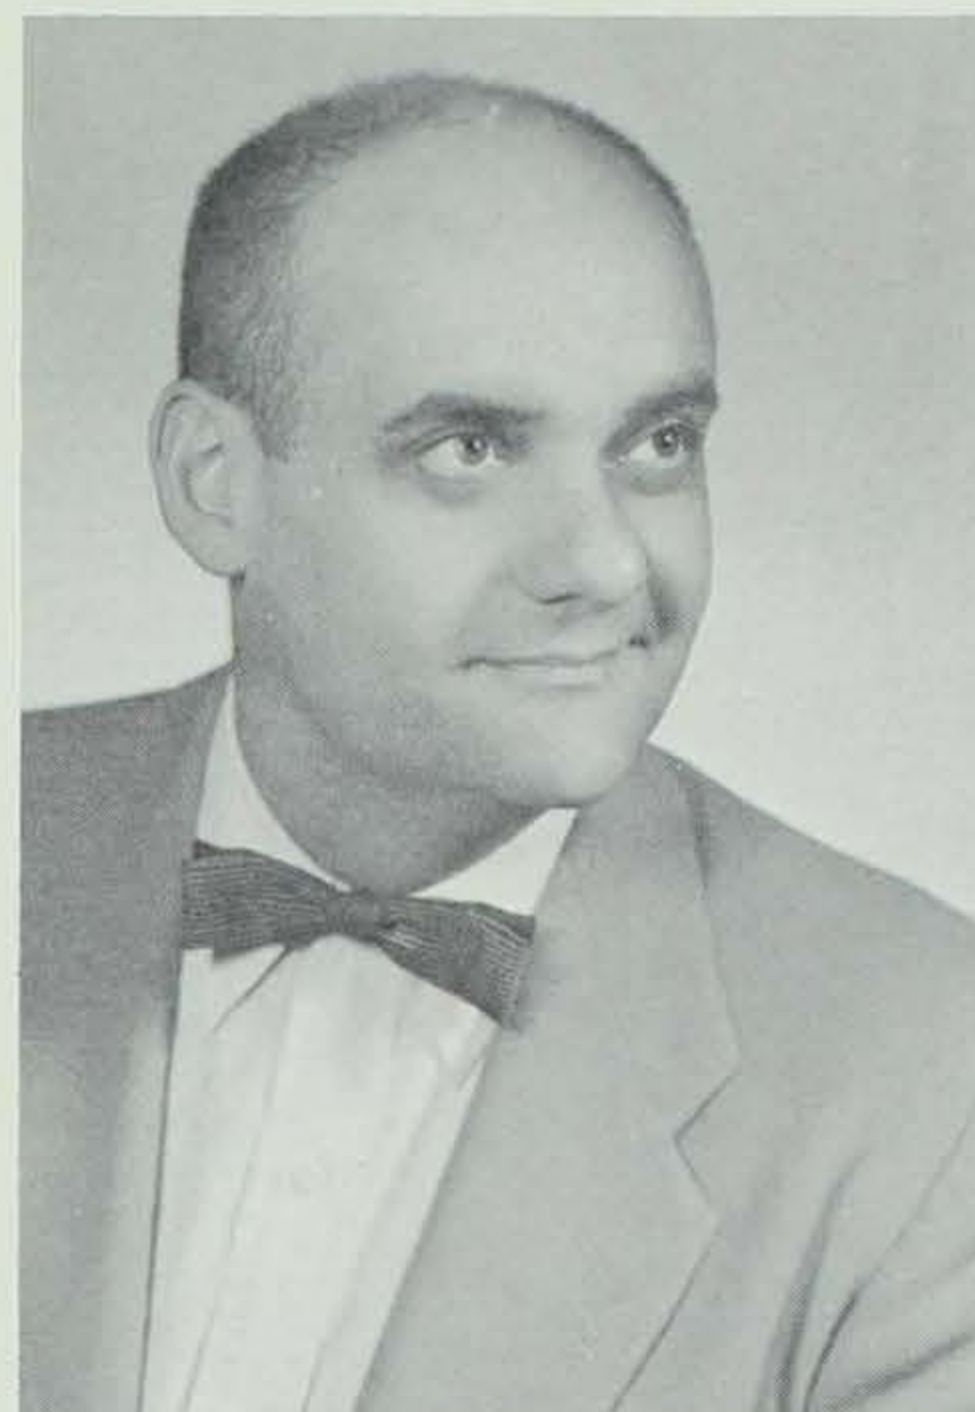

Affectionately,

John A. Fisher

Who's Who

On November 25, 1958, the names of eight Buena Vista college seniors were released from the offices of the editors of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" at Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The eight honored seniors were Alice Ahrendsen, Manning; Carolyn Claussen, Storm Lake; Jerry Ibach, Bayard; Kenneth Kannenberg, Humboldt; James Knott, Denison; Ruth Paulson, Albert City; Sylvia Swede, Spirit Lake; and Mary Ann Wixon, Ames.

These seniors were chosen by the student council from a list submitted by the faculty committee. Membership in "Who's Who" is based on scholarship, leadership, participation, and co-operation in college activities, general citizenship in the community, and promise of future success. It is one of the highest honors the college can confer on its students.

Ruth Paulson

Mary Ann Wixon

Student Council

The student council's activities began with assisting in Freshman Orientation Week. In November, the student council, together with the Panhellenic Council, sponsored an all college Queen's Ball to take the place of the cancelled Homecoming affairs.

As is traditional, the council sponsored two all college formals, one in the winter with the theme "Silver Bells," and one in the spring called "Stairway to the Stars."

The most significant task of the council was probably the organization of the whole student body into one huge effort to raise funds for the Victory Arch, through a Campus Carnival, which is to be an annual affair from now on.

The various organizations on campus were brought closer together and guided in their activities by the student council. The sponsor this year was Mr. Cox.

Swope Hall Council

The Swope Hall Council is composed of an elected representative from each suite plus the dormitory president. This board with the aid of the deans handles problems of discipline and adjustment of the girls who live in Swope Hall. It is the purpose of this organization to promote friendship and unity among the house residents, to share in the responsibilities of group living, and to maintain high standards in student life.

A number of social events were held throughout the year. In the fall there was a "Big and Little Sister Banquet" given for the new girls in the dormitory and for their college "big sisters." On December 10 the annual Yule Log Service was held in the lounge of Swope Hall, and the Christmas Banquet took place the following week, December 17. Spring events included an Open House and Dance, and a farewell party given in honor of all Swope Hall girls who were graduating.

Lorraine Boldt served as president for the 1957-1958 year. Other officers were: Jean Meyer, vice-president; Jane Wilbur, secretary; Pat Bradley, treasurer; and Marie Voss, historian.

FIRST ROW: David Oberlin, Dennis McCool, Mr. Jensen, Laird Cruzen. SECOND ROW: Ron Michener, Rodney Stafford, Garold Galvin.

Men's Dormitory Council

The Men's Dormitory Council, composed of four elected officers and four student counselors, co-operates with the administration to handle the problems of discipline and personnel adjustments of the boys living in the dormitory. This year the council has promoted several college dances and with the Swope Hall Council sponsored a Christmas banquet.

The officers of the Men's Dormitory Council this year were: Dennis McCool, president; Pat Cox, vice-president; David Oberlin, secretary-treasurer. The student counselors were Garold Galvin, Rodney Stafford, Ron Michener, and Laird Cruzen. The resident counselor for the year was Wilbert Jensen.

The Beaver Log Staff of 1958 was headed by Mary Ann Wixon as editor-in-chief and Barbara Moe as assistant editor. Professor Jeannie Lowdon served as faculty adviser.

Serving under the editor and assistant editor were Ken Kanenberg, who gathered all the material used in the sports section; Jo Jensen and Ron Martin who very capably compiled the student activities index; Connie Meeves and Kathy Nimtz, typists; Maryanna Siekmann and Gordon McConnell who aided in copy writing and Lynn Baldwin, photographer. The art drawings were done by Roger Christiansen.

We, of the staff, have put much time and hard work in the formulation of the Log for 1958, but it is work which draws a reward and a sense of satisfaction when it is completed. We hope you will enjoy reading this 1958 Log as much as we have enjoyed creating it for you. This yearbook has not only been published for you, but about you, the fun and work you have had at Buena Vista in 1958, whether you are a freshman or a senior.

Tack

"The Paper With A Point" was published every two weeks under the capable direction of Editor Ruth Paulson, who was ably assisted by Don Koebele. In its sixty-fifth year of publication, the TACK featured a picture page of campus activities, in addition to being a medium for conveying college news.

Unique and creative cartooning was featured by Wayne Halling. Maryanna Siekmann offered her talents in a column dealing with typical student foibles. Tom Hatton cleverly entitled his creative column, "The Grady Train."

Carolyn Claussen offered up-to-the-minute fashion notes in her regular column, "Fashion Silhouettes."

Lynn Baldwin acted as chief photographer for the paper and is to be commended for some interesting action shots appearing on the picture page.

Mr. Don Kelly served as faculty sponsor of the publication.

The members of the Delta Phi Beta sorority enjoyed an active year. Fall brought Rush Week and the annual rush tea, October 1, 1957, at the home of Mrs. A. G. Gran. The rush banquet was held in the Storm Lake Room at Cobblestone Inn, October 3. New pledges took their initial pledge at the home of Miss Skewis, Beta sponsor. Actives and pledges were all disappointed when Homecoming was canceled. The Beta float was entirely completed and had to be torn down. Also the fall alliance luncheon was not held. A Beta Homecoming Queen was again elected when the student body chose Carlene Skinner. Mary Ann Wixon, another Beta, was a Homecoming attendant. Carlene was crowned at the Queen's Ball, sponsored by the Student Council and decorated by the Panhellenic Council. Near the end of the fall season new members elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities were announced, and all three Beta seniors were included on this list.

Wintertime activities were highlighted by the Christmas dinner and gift exchange. The Betas also went Christmas caroling to the homes of their patronesses. In January the Betas took part in the Panhellenic skating party. Friday evening, February 14, the Beta Heart Hop was held in Beaver Hall. A Beta pledge, Sheila Burch, was chosen queen. Following the dance Beta actives and pledges enjoyed a slumber party in Swope Hall. The next week was Hell Week. Attired in red-and-white striped suits, the pledges were charming "prisoners." February 21 the new actives took their final pledge after a formal banquet at the Steak House.

The Panhellenic formal, April 11, was the first of the spring activities. The Betas next sponsored the sale of pictures and prints during Fine Arts Week. It was possible to hold the spring alliance luncheon. Also a Beta picnic for the actives was held which concluded the year. The graduating seniors were presented with gifts at this time. All seasons of the school year brought fun and activities to the Betas.

Phi Alpha Pi

The Phi Alpha Pi sorority, organized in 1906, started the year with their annual rush tea in the home of Mrs. Carl Peterson. The rush banquet was held in the Storm Lake Room of the Cobblestone Inn. The theme 'Seventh Heaven' was used combining the sorority colors of pink and white. Eighteen pledges took their first pledge at the home of Mrs. H. E. Stalcup.

All Homecoming activities were canceled because of the flu, but three active members and one pledge were chosen as Homecoming Queen attendants. They were Rosalind Bengtson, Carolyn Claussen, Barbara Moe, and Penny Morton. Panhellenic Council joined with the Student Council in sponsoring the Queen's Ball.

The annual Christmas party and stocking exchange was held in the home of Mrs. George Coulson.

Hell Week took place the third week of February. All the pledges were required to dress like clowns, and after a riotous week of stunts they took their final pledge and became active members of the sorority. The final pledge banquet was held at the Bradford Hotel. A Sock Hop sponsored by the sorority ended the week of activity.

The Phi Alphs joined with the Betas to sponsor the Panhellenic spring formal which carried out an oriental theme.

The sorority ended their activities with the annual spring picnic held at the home of Mrs. Z. Z. White.

The Entre Nous organization began the school year on October 1, 1957, with an invitational tea for prospective members at the home of Mrs. Delbert Laird. New members were initiated in the fall of the year, and their final pledge was taken on October 28, 1957. The annual Christmas party was held on December 9 with a gift exchange. Prof. William Parks, of the department of business administration at Buena Vista, spoke to the group January 13 on the subject "The Place of Women in the Future." Recreational activities included a taffy pull and a game night. In the spring of the year the group enjoyed a picnic and the annual spring banquet.

Student Library Committee

The fifth year of the Buena Vista College Student Library Committee finds it existing as the only Faculty-Student Library Committee in existence, with its duties as a liaison agency between the student body and the Faculty Library Committee.

The committee was enlarged in order to secure more adequate representation from all academic classes, professional and social organizations on campus. The committee helped with the remodeling of the library, choosing books, and sending books to foreign countries.

They presented for cultural enjoyment a trip on slides to the Bad Lands and Breadloaf, Vermont, presented by Miss Jeannie Lowdon of the English Department.

B.V. Players, as the name indicates, is the dramatics organization on campus. Originated on the campus in 1925, B.V. players has had as its aim "To stimulate progress and encourage such dramatic activity as may serve to enrich the traditions, honor, and fame of Buena Vista College." This organization not only offers a place for aspiring young actors and actresses to enrich their talents, but welcomes, too, the people "behind the scenes" — the stage crews and production staffs who are vitally important to every stage production.

Members of B.V. Players presented the play "The Solid Gold Cadillac" as their first major production of the year. The second production was the stirring presentation of "The Boy With A Cart" which was given for Spiritual Emphasis Week. The final production of the year was "Ghosts," which was presented for Fine Arts Week. The casts for these plays included, along with many stage veterans, several new students who have brought a great deal of talent to the Buena Vista College Stage. All the productions were under the able direction of Prof. Richard Siegfried.

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Psi Omega is the national dramatic fraternity on campus. Originating in 1925, it is the oldest fraternity at Buena Vista College. This year's activities were under the direction of Alice Ahrendsen. The purpose of the Chi cast of Alpha Psi Omega is to stimulate interest in dramatics and to secure, for the college, all the advantages and mutual helpfulness provided by a national fraternity.

Invitation to membership is based on a point system according to the major and minor plays and parts one has participated in, and the work done in different fields of production. Neophytes are required to learn the Greek alphabet and to recite portions of Shakespeare's "Hamlet." The pledging service is held at the annual progressive dinner in the spring.

Pi Kappa Delta, forensic honorary, chooses its members from students who have performed creditably through intercollegiate competition in debate and discussion and individual speaking events. The purpose of the organization is to stimulate progress in both intercollegiate speech activities and communication in an effort to provide functional leadership training for life and at the same time encourage a spirit of fellowship, brotherly cooperation, and incentive for achievement.

This year Pi Kappa Delta has sponsored on campus three outstanding speech events, the eighth annual invitational high school speech conference attended by over 200 students and coaches from northwest Iowa; the all-college oratory contest, won by Kenneth Green; and an after-dinner speaking contest, won by Ron Olson. Members have served the community by appearances before service clubs, study groups, and P.T.A.'s; an active Speaker's Bureau has provided talent throughout the area; advanced students have assisted as judges in high school speech contests.

Sigma Tau Delta

The purpose of Sigma Tau Delta is the advancement of appreciation of English by the study of the masterpieces. To develop and to express one's self in writing is especially emphasized.

The program theme this year was "The American Arts." Tom Hatton, Pamilla Graves, and Kay Babcock have had a total of seven manuscripts published in The Rectangle, national magazine of Sigma Tau Delta. Tom and Pamilla had the honor of having poems published in the 1957 edition of the National Anthology of Collegiate Poetry.

The Nu Delta chapter on campus again sponsored a literary supplement to the TACK during Fine Arts Week. In addition, chapter members, with the aid of their sponsor, Miss Lowdon, revived the Nu Delta magazine, publication of student writings.

The annual show again took the form of a musical comedy written, produced, and directed by Tom Hatton, aided by other students.

Organized on the Buena Vista campus in 1938, the Nu Delta chapter opens its membership to those people who have a particular interest in English and have maintained a notable average in this field. Apprentices are initiated at the annual spring banquet and breakfast.

The weekend of November 8th sixteen members attended the Iowa State Teachers Convention at Des Moines.

On March 18, the group attended the Roger Wagner Chorale presented at Wartburg College. The group also wrote and adopted a constitution for the organization during this year. The program varied from panel discussions to a talent night in which every one participated.

Student Iowa State Educational Association

Officers

The Student I S E A is an organization on campus for those who are entering the educational field. The aim of this group is to familiarize the student with the many phases of the teaching profession which he may encounter.

The members of the I S E A were divided into five groups, each group planning and presenting the program for one meeting. An interesting movie "No Teacher Alone" was shown at one of the meetings. The group enjoyed very interesting and educational speeches given by Mr. T. P. Kuehl, head of the Buena Vista Placement Bureau, and Mr. Kenneth Johnson, state adviser for I S E A.

Various members from the organization represented the Buena Vista chapter at the student I S E A fall regional meeting held at Orange City and the spring regional meeting at LeMars. Three members and the adviser, Mr. Cox, also attend the state I S E A meeting at Des Moines.

The year's activities were successfully concluded at the annual banquet given for the members of the group.

The motto of Circle K is "We Build." It offers service on the campus, to the school, and to the community. This year the group ushered for many of the college and community functions, provided a scholarship, and sponsored a pancake supper and college dances. A highlight of the year was the annual appreciation banquet held at Cobblestone Inn on April 14, 1958.

Its objectives are to aid and promote loyalty to Buena Vista College, to assist in promoting high ideals and good character in the life of the individual members, and to promote the spirit of sportsmanship in all athletic contests.

A letter jacket is awarded to every senior who has won two major letters in any sport.

An initiation is held each year, and all new members are required to wear a dress and carry some piece of athletic equipment representing the sport he lettered in.

The Lettermen's Carnival was again held on April 15 and 16. The Lettermen's Banquet was held on May 3 at Swope Hall with Jim Doran, former Buena Vista student, as guest speaker.

Football

Buena Vista College completed a successful football season in which it played the brand of ball that commanded the respect of its Iowa Conference opponents and forced the issue until the end of virtually every game.

Coach Dean Laun's Beavers defeated three conference foes and were one of the two teams who defeated favored Upper Iowa. The Beavers scored in every contest and were never completely outclassed although they did lose a pair of games by two touch-down margins.

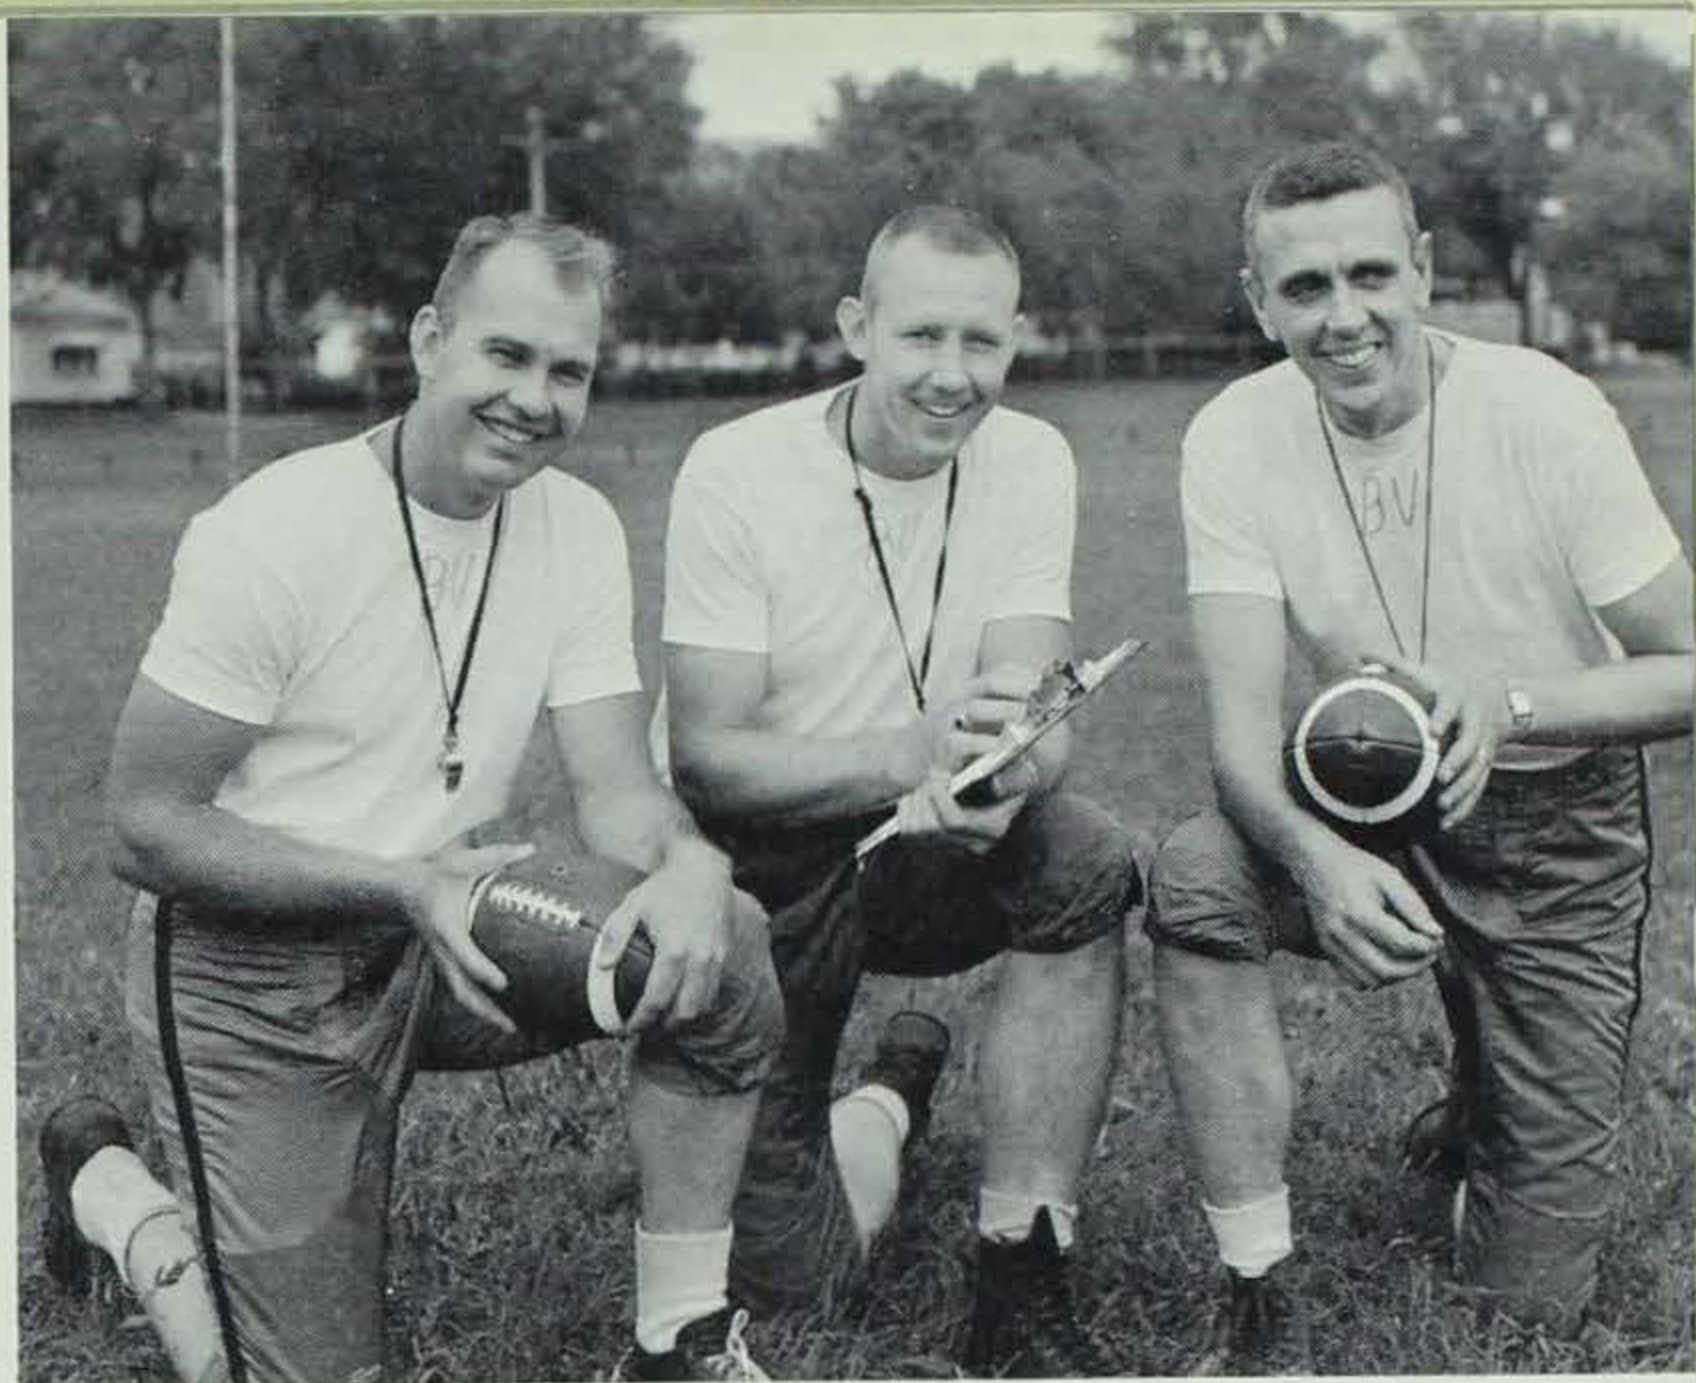

Despite the cancellation of the Homecoming game with Central, Coach Laun described the season as the most rewarding of his coaching career.

No. 12 Retires . . .

Football jersey number 12, worn by Jerry Ibach, will be retired to a place of honor on the Buena Vista College campus. Ibach, 180 pound senior back, wound up an illustrious grid career with a four-year total yardage figure of 2839 during which time he scored 26 touchdowns, passed for 10 more, and was one of the most feared all around performers in the conference.

National honors and recognition include his being named to the Associated Press Little All-America honorable mention list, the special mention bracket of the Williamson Rating System Little All-America team, and high ranking in punting.

This do-everything senior averaged 40 yards in each of 33 punts to rank tenth in the nation in the small college section of the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau statistics. The NAIA statistics chart placed him eleventh in the nation's small college punters.

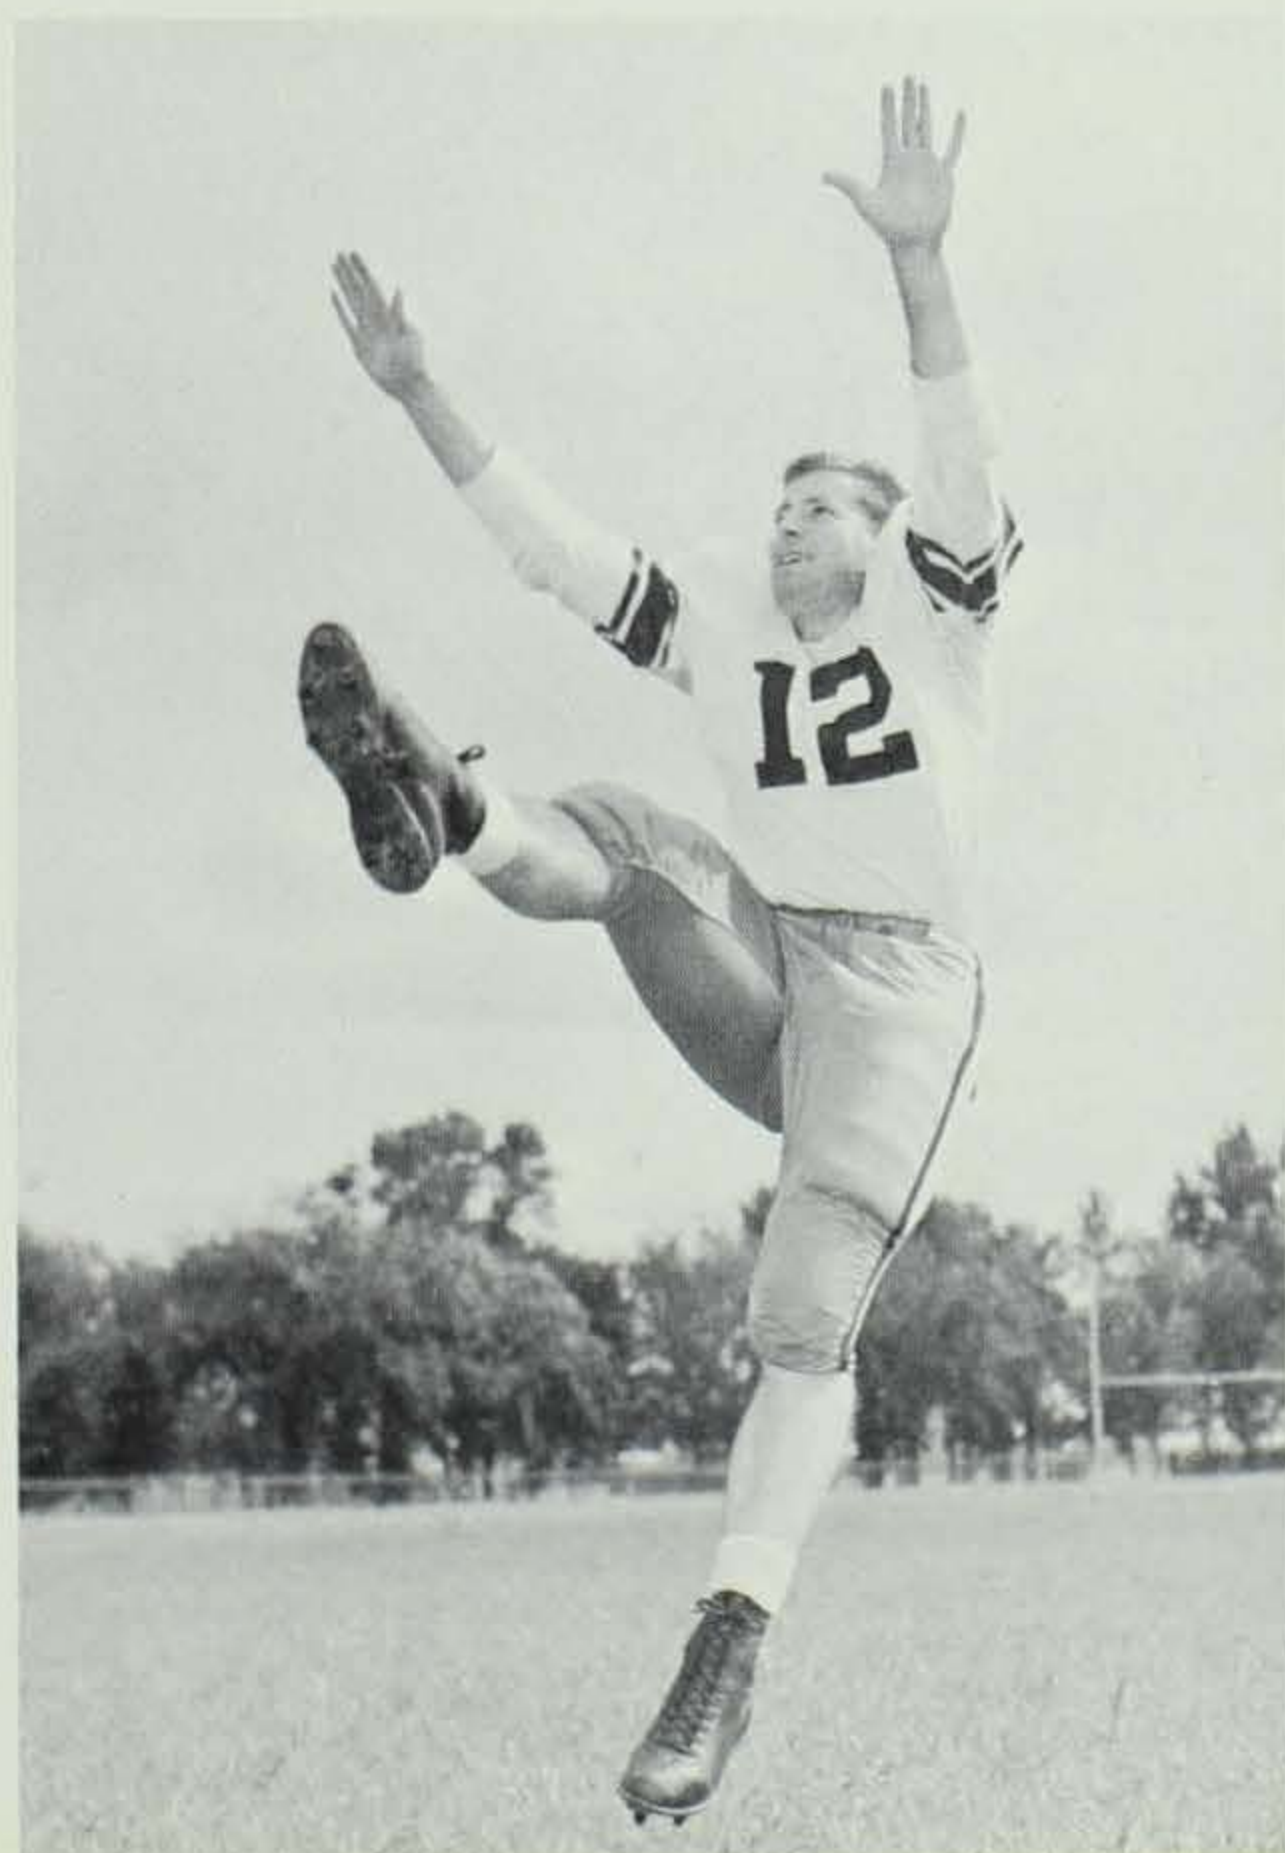

Ibach was named to the all-Iowa conference first team this fall for the second consecutive year, and was selected co-captain and the most valuable player on the squad by his teammates. He received the President's Award as the Distinguished Senior Athlete in both football and basketball. He became the first basketball player in Buena Vista history to score over 1000 points in his career.

Jerry's contribution to the athletic teams plus his general citizenship and scholastic qualities will make him greatly missed on this campus. All those who saw him play and followed his illustrious career will never forget him, probably the greatest all-round athlete Buena Vista has ever seen.

Carlene Skinner, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Skinner of Auburn, Iowa, was elected queen of 1957 Homecoming by the Buena Vista student body Thursday, October 24, ... BUT before the results of the election were even official, Homecoming of 1957 was cancelled. All homecoming activities were lost to the Asian flu.

This flu victory left Carlene a queen without a kingdom. Her pathetic plight was recognized by the residents of Swope Hall who organized a surprise coronation in the lounge after dinner that evening. Resplendent in a picture hat from an unfinished float, with a donated coat as her royal robe, Carlene reigned as Queen of the Flu.

Boo . . .

To the Flu!

The queen is crowned by Swope Hall president, Lorraine Boldt, with a make-shift crown remaining from an unfinished float.

The smiling queen and her Swope Hall attendants, Rosie Bengtson, Mary Ann Wixon, and Penny Morton.

Queen Carlene graciously proclaims the hours to the residents of Swope Hall.

The stage was nearly set and the last minute preparations of the cast were underway, but the curtain never rose. Homecoming of 1957 was a show that did not go on. It is a homecoming long to be remembered by those who worked and planned, only to see their efforts made useless by the Asian flu epidemic which swept the campus. The illness of so many students and faculty members forced the cancellation of all homecoming activities.

The consequences of the cancellation were widespread and varied. Floats in the last stages of construction were dismantled. Dormitory window decorations were washed away. Money received for chrysanthemum sales was returned, as were borrowed properties for the Variety Show. Homecoming buttons, shakers and pennants, and football programs were never sold. Alumni banquet reservations were cancelled. Everyone's plans were entirely reversed by the announcement "All Homecoming activities have been cancelled."

Sick Call . . .

Cancelled All

"Unfinished Symphony" tells the story of what happened to the Choir float when Homecoming activities were called off. These three cellos (made from mattress boxes) were left standing without a purpose.

This float, which had been completed on Tuesday, is in the process of being torn down Thursday night, before all those planning to see the parade even got a glimpse of it.

Fun for All . . .

The Variety Show was another of the Homecoming activities cancelled because of the flu. The "never-say-die" cast didn't let a little thing like that bother them. They merely set a new date, Thursday evening, October 31, and had a good time in spite of it all.

The Buena Vista Swing Band in full formal regalia combined with the sterling performance of the "Arabian Knights" quartet; an unusual couple—Cecelia and Cecil, better known as Dick Collins and Jon Putnam; and "Calamity Jane," Joyce Hall, provided the evening's entertainment.

An interesting highlight of the evening was a sneak preview of the impending basketball season. Several of the campus' most promising athletes exhibited their skill in ball handling while wearing boxing gloves. Certainly it can be said "An enjoyable evening was had by all!"

"Arabian Knights" tune up.

Don't be shy, Cecelial

Is this a basketball game or a new kind of dance?

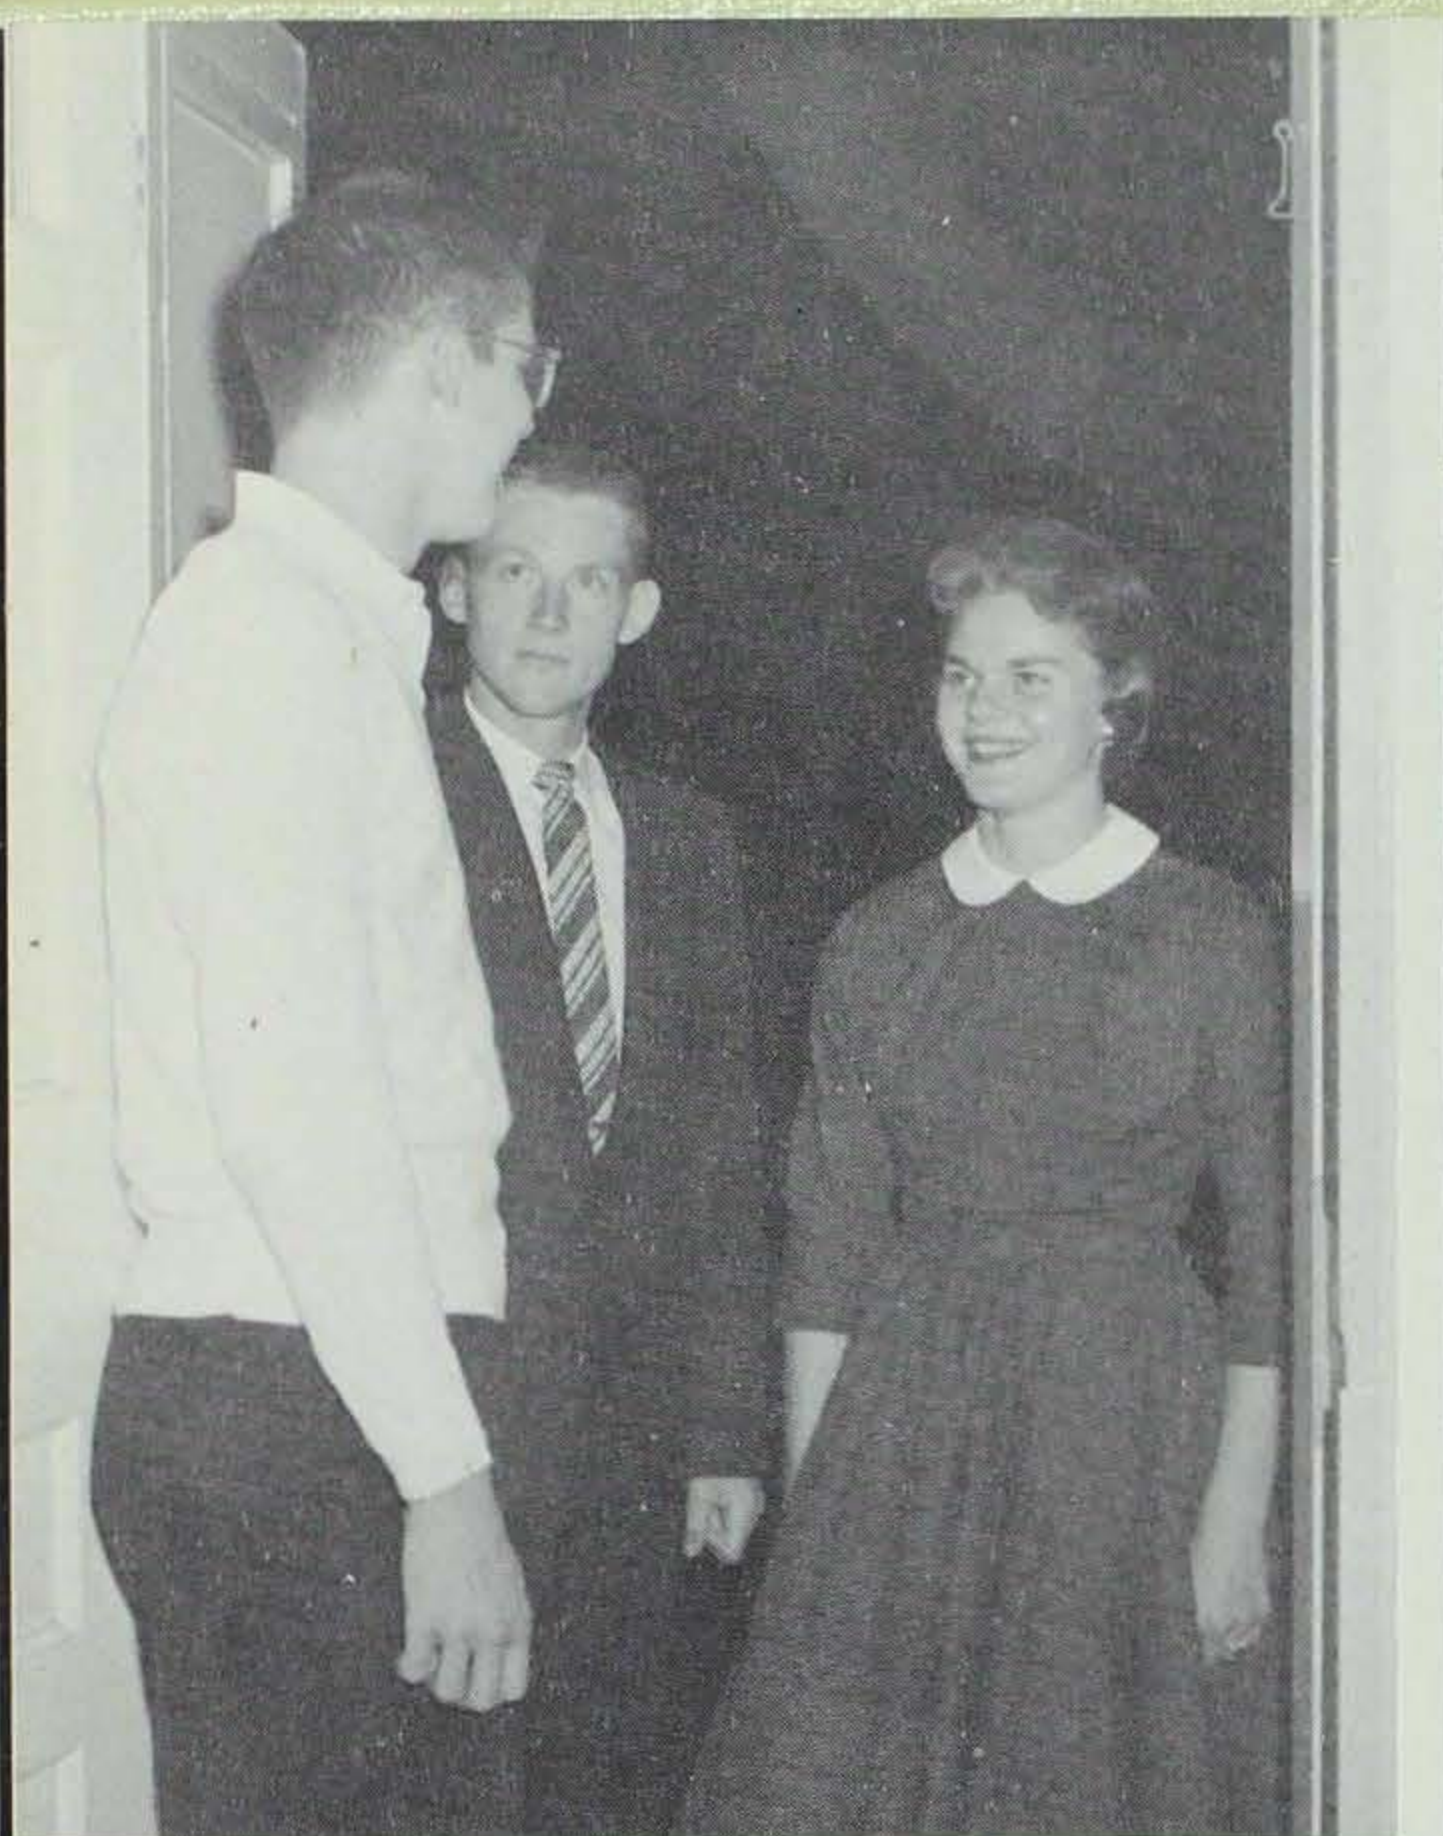

... Queen's Ball

The coronation of the 1957 Homecoming Queen took place at the Queen's Ball, an all college dance held in Victory Hall, November 16. The student council and panhellenic council combined their efforts to insure the success of the occasion as a substitution for the cancelled Homecoming dance.

The dance decorations were entirely blue and gold. Crepe paper streamers gave the illusion of a lowered ceiling and false walls. The queen's star-studded throne and background provided the main attraction.

Opening the activities was the coronation of Carlene Skinner, the queen, who graciously reigned over the evening's entertainment.

A Million Laughs . . . A Glittering Cast

The Buena Vista Players presented their first production of the year on December 3 and 4 at 8:00 p.m. in the Storm Lake high school auditorium. The play "The Solid Gold Cadillac" by Howard Teichmann and George S. Kaufman was under the able direction of Prof. Richard Siegfried of the drama department.

"The Solid Gold Cadillac," which is a comedy in two acts, may be familiar to many people because of the movie of the same name which starred Judy Holiday and Paul Douglas. The story which revolves around a corporation is full of laughs. All the action takes place in New York and Washington.

Maureen McKenna placed the wreath on the Yule Log.

Yule Log Ceremony

A second traditional Christmas activity was the Yule Log ceremony held in the Swope Hall lounge. All college women were invited to attend. The program was conducted by the presidents of the various women's organizations. The deep traditions of the ceremony created a warm, Christmas glow in the hearts of those who attended.

Voices in Song . . .

Christmas season meant a season of hard work for the Buena Vista college choir members. After weeks of practice sessions under the able direction of Mr. John Sorenson, the choir presented their annual Christmas concert Sunday evening, December 15. The program consisted of two sections, Part II of the Christmas Oratorio by Johann Sebastian Bach and a group of lighter Christmas selections.

... The Dancing Throng

The annual all college winter formal was held December 20 at Cobblestone Inn. The decorations developed the theme "Silver Bells." The dance was sponsored by the student council, and Entre Nous did the decorating. Music was furnished by Jay Belliere.

The music was smooth!

The mood was gay!

College Orations . . .

The all college oratorical contest was held Wednesday, January 15 in Smith Hall. The event was sponsored by Pi Kappa Delta. All the contestants wrote their own original ten minute orations. They were judged on presentation, content of oration, and stage presence.

First place winner, Ken Green is presented the trophy by Pi Kappa Delta president, Carolyn Claussen.

The four winners of the contest were Lynn Lewis, third; Maureen McKenna, second; Ken Green, first; Ronnie Olson, third.

These students participated in the oratory contest.

... High School Invitations

The eighth annual high school invitational speech conference was held at Buena Vista college, Friday, January 10. Over 200 students from fourteen high schools in northwest Iowa participated. The meet, sponsored by Pi Kappa Delta forensics fraternity, included events in oratory, interpretive reading, radio newscasting, and debate.

Hell Week . . . Heart Hop

"Hell Week," under the jurisdiction of the Panhellenic Council, was held the third week of the second semester. It is the climax to a semester of pledging either of the two sororities on campus. The Phi Alphas were attired in clown suits of various patterns, while the Betas were "prisoners."

The beginning of the activities was a Heart Hop, sponsored by the Beta's. Sheila Burch, a Beta pledge, and her fiance, Craig Townsend, were crowned Queen and King. The Phi Alphas had a Sock Hop to end the week.

During the week various stunts and antics were performed, as requested by the actives of each sorority. Both groups had a final pledge dinner which was formal.

Tom Hatton, author and director.

"Mistmore Towers"

"Mistmore Towers," an original musical comedy in three acts, was presented by Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity on campus. The show was written and directed by Tom Hatton, a junior from Fort Dodge.

Mistmore Towers was an English castle where the action took place during the German invasion of England. There was an American movie company attempting to make a movie in the castle which was occupied by the Wallingford family. The conflict in the story was based on efforts of the Americans to ignore the war situation and the English trying to do something about it.

Spiritual Emphasis Week

February 9-14, 1958

Spiritual Emphasis Week was again observed at Buena Vista. Dr. Ernest Remley of the Collegiate Presbyterian Church of Ames was the guest speaker. His theme was "Authority and the Christian."

Daily chapel services were held in the Lakeside Presbyterian Church with Dr. Remley delivering inspiring sermons. Each day there was a special activity for all the students and faculty to attend. Sunday, the Interfaith group had a supper at the Methodist Church, followed by the showing of a film entitled "Seventeen." Monday and Wednesday evenings the dramatics department, under the direction of Prof. Richard Siegfried, presented "Boy With A Cart." Tuesday evening the music department presented a concert including vocal and instrumental selections. On Thursday evening all students attended a fellowship dinner at the Methodist Church. Following the dinner, homes of several Storm Lake residents were opened to students for discussion groups. These groups were led by students with ministers from the surrounding area acting as resource persons.

Dr. Remley was also available for personal and group counseling. He held an informal discussion group with the college women at Swope Hall and many other groups while he was on our campus.

The Panhellenic Spring Formal was held on April 11, 1958, in Victory Hall. The Phi Alpha Pi and Delta Phi Beta sorority girls combined efforts for one of the most successful parties of the school year. Decorations included cherry blossoms, lighted lanterns, and oriental fans which created the atmosphere and carried out the theme of "Sayonara." The program also contributed to the oriental theme with an interpretative dance performed by several sorority girls. Music was provided by Alvin Frick and his orchestra.

Campus Carnival . . .

The Campus Carnival was held in the center of the campus on May 7, 1958. It was an all student project aimed at raising money for a victory arch to be constructed from the stone arch of Old Main, which was destroyed by fire. It is hoped that the victory arch, occupied by a bell, will be the center of many traditional ceremonies.

The night before the carnival an outdoor Variety Show was held at which Mrs. Jay Beekmann and Dr. Grate were crowned queen and king. Several students presented comedy acts and singing, but the highlight was a skit representing the faculty and starring Prof. Siegfried and Dr. Grate.

Despite rain on the scheduled day, the carnival took place, with each organization sponsoring a booth, and approximately $230 was raised for the victory arch.

"To the Glory of God and the Welfare of Mankind"

Just one year and one day after the laying of the cornerstone of the new administration building, the dedication took place. On graduation day, May 29, 1958, the keys of the new building were officially turned over to President Fisher, representing the administration, from Dr. Howard Pierce, chairman of the building committee of the board of trustees.

The dedication began with an academic procession from Victory Hall. The invocation was given by Rev. Arthur Mortenson, moderator of the synod of Iowa. A litany of dedication was led by Sylvia Swede, a member of the class of 1958. The short program was concluded by guided tours through the new building.

That coveted diploma is finally received.

Class valedictorian, Sylvia Swede, is graduated Summa Cum Laude.

A Parting Note . . .

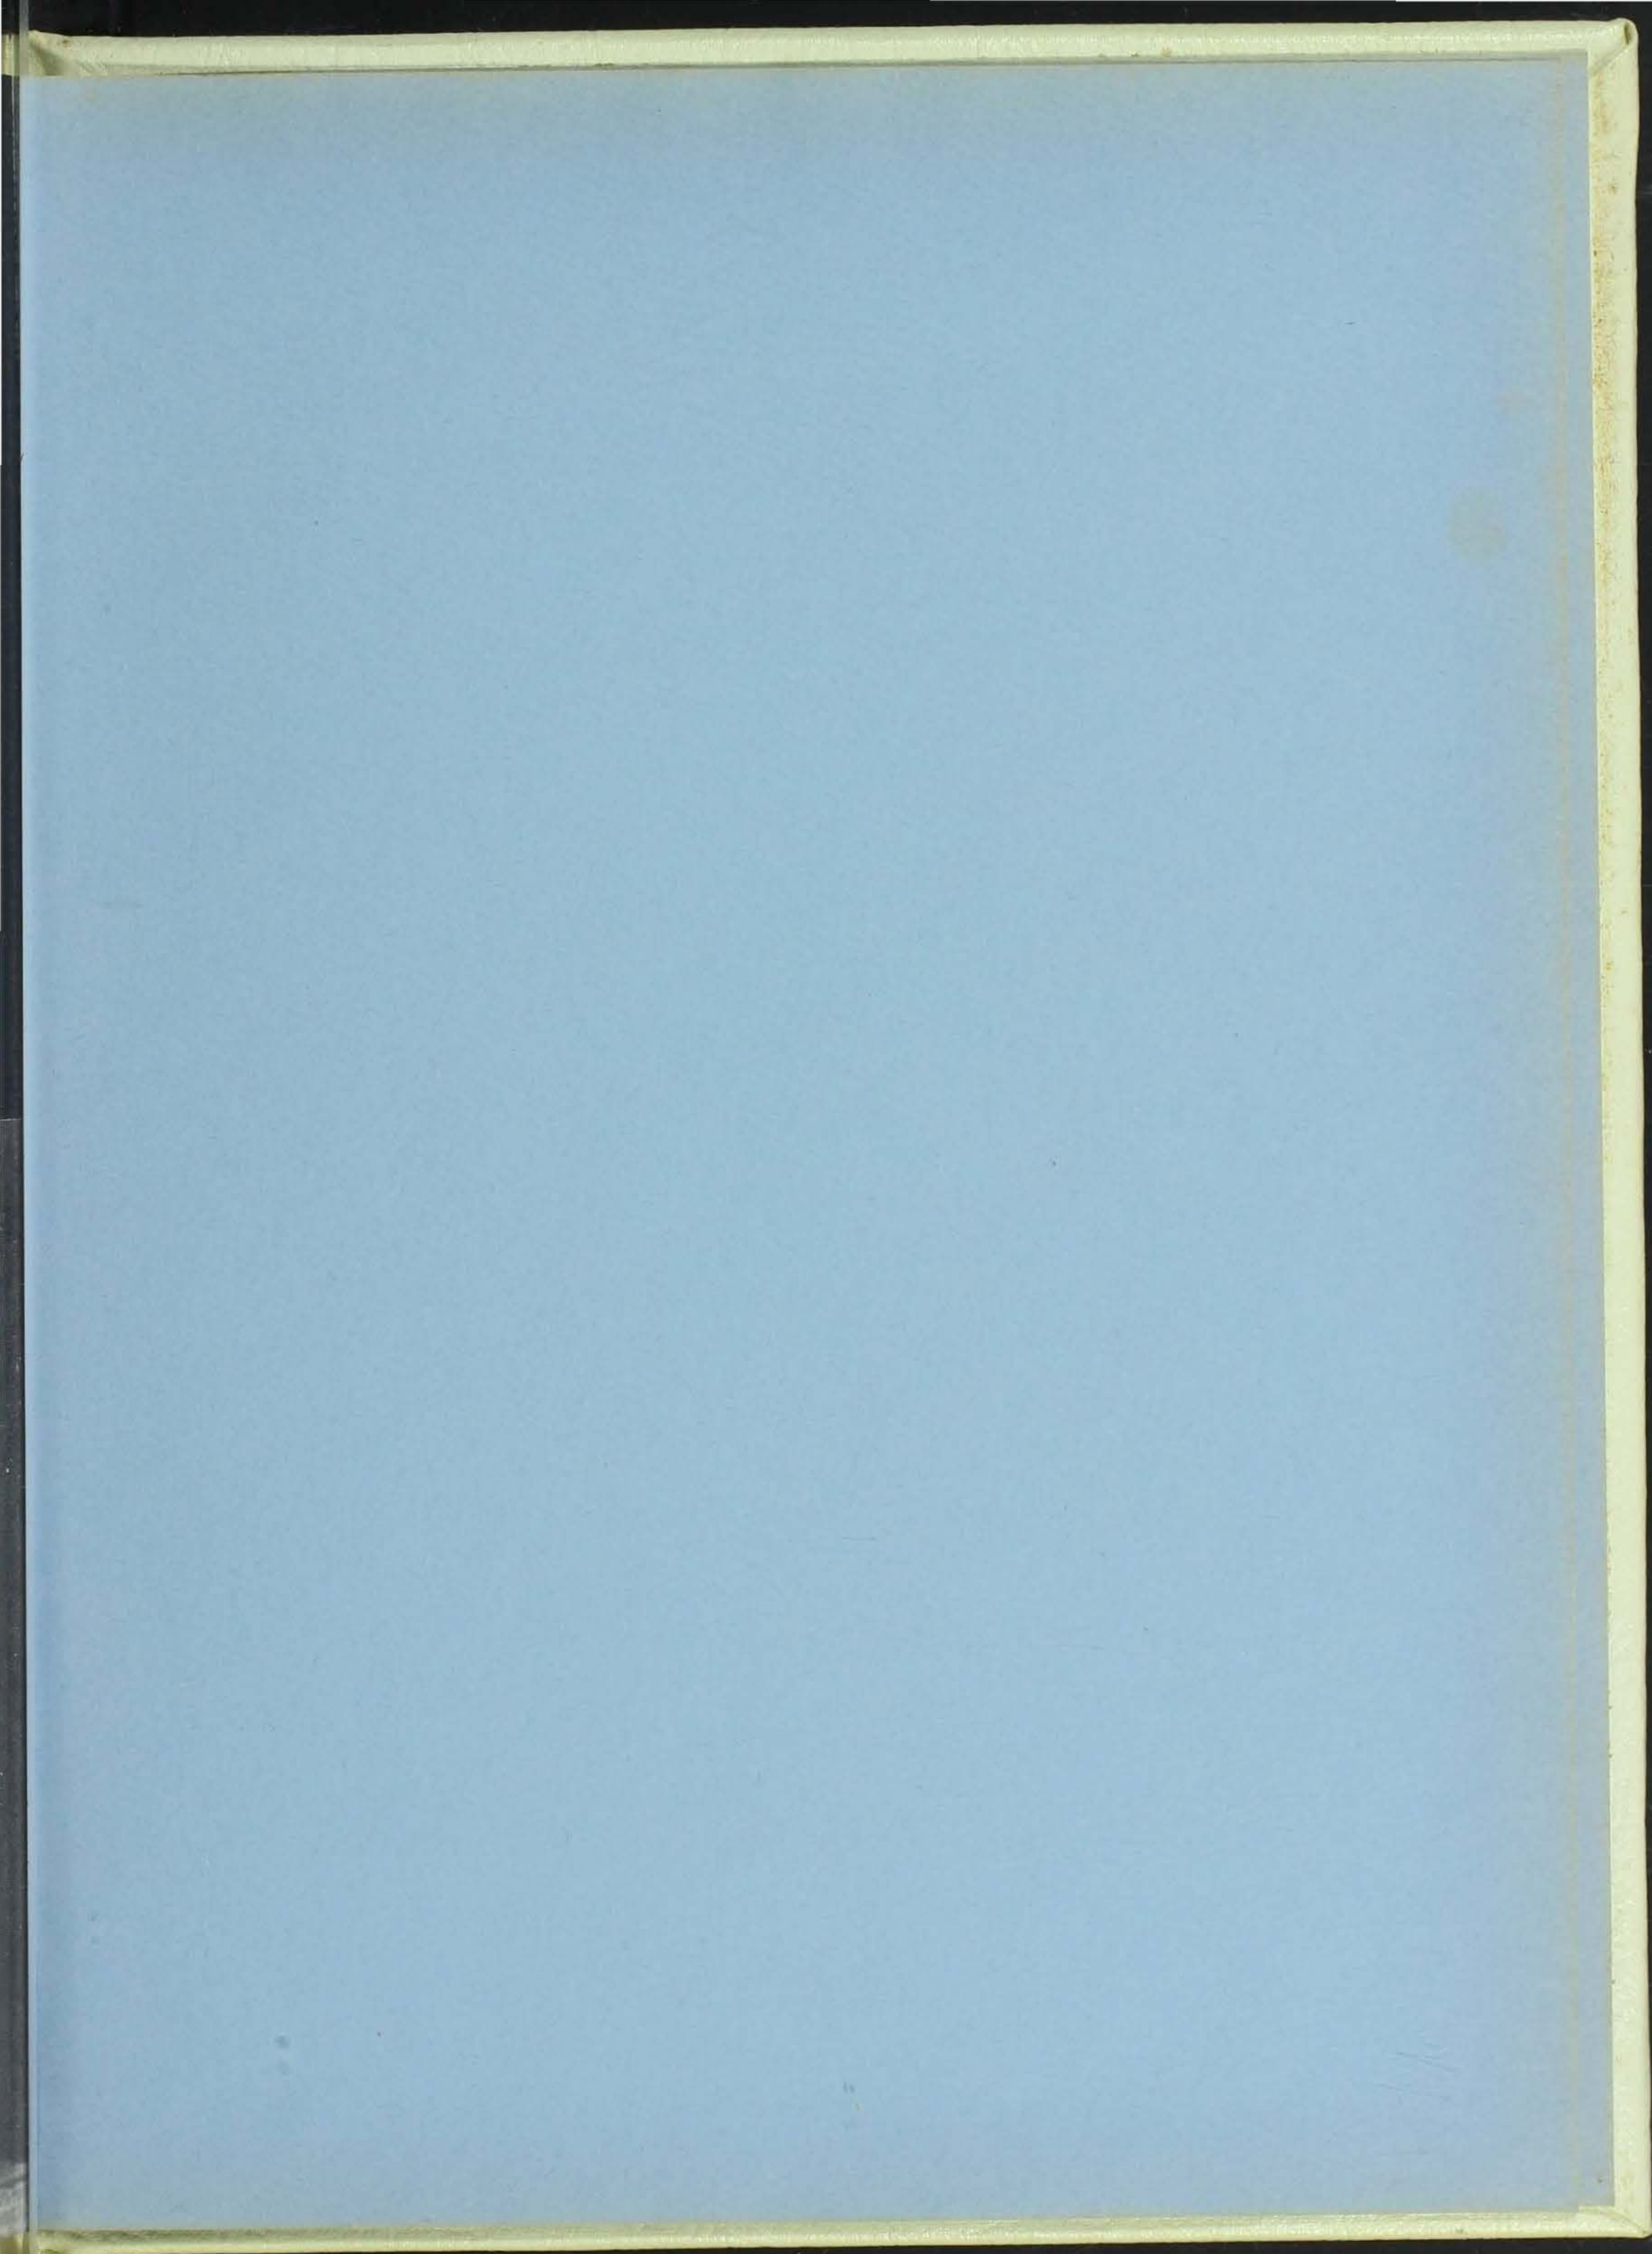

These footsteps in the snow are symbolic of the path you made at Buena Vista College this year. You walked here many times . . . maybe with your best girl toward the lights of Swope Hall at 10:29 p.m.; maybe to your physical education class at the gym, or to a game at Victory Hall; maybe to Beaver Hall for a cup of coffee or to Fracker Library to study or maybe even to the lake.

Wherever you were going, we have attempted to capture in pictures your path during 1957-58. We have tried to show your thrills and disappointments, your triumphs and let-downs, your victories and defeats. In years to come may you never forget all those special memories that are yours alone . . . but all a part of your year at Buena Vista.
