dedication

Your 1957 HAWKEYE annual staff desires to dedicate this annual to our sometimes forgotten classmates.

It is our conviction that you, the whole student body, from the lowest, humblest freshman to the highest most self-esteeming senior, including the happy-go-lucky sophomore and sophisticated junior, deserve this annual, written for and about you. We've studied together, dated together, played on the Athletic field together, worked together, sung together, laughed together, even cried together. We've had our ups and our downs -- our good days and our bad -- but we've still stuck together, proud to tell the world we're from Ankeny High School.

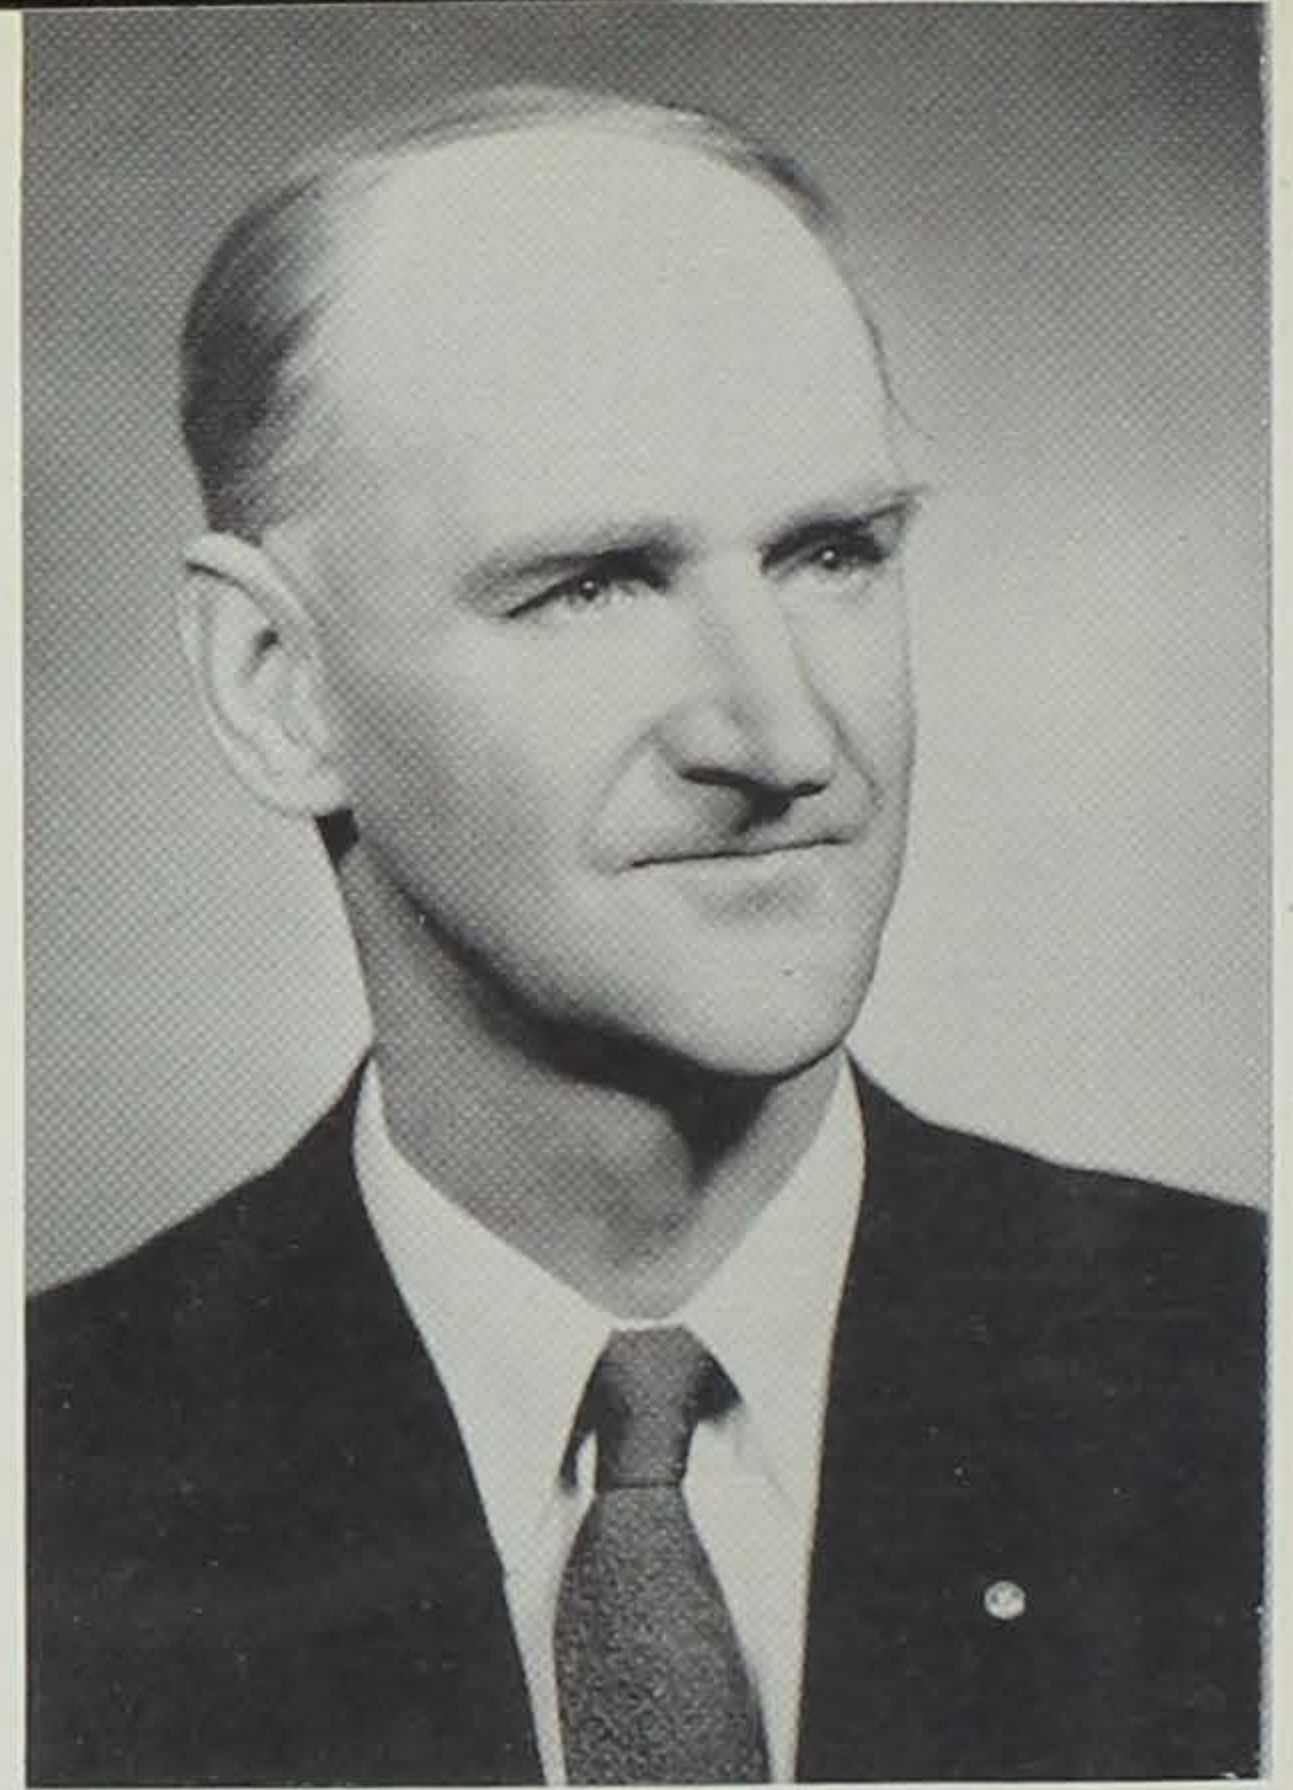

Without you as our friends and fellow students this annual would not nor could not be published. Accept it as a constant reminder of your 1956-57 school year.

class history

As the Ankeny Train pulls from the station, Mrs. Foster and the class of '44 start on their long journey through the land of education. The first stop is kindergarten, where Everett Goff, Buck Brumble, Bonnie Smith, Myrna Loveland, Virginia Fontanini, Jenny Gioffredi, Janice Griesert, Jacquelyn Dodd, Sharon Phelps, Mary Puttman, Mildred Feldman, Margie and Irene Harvey, Joann Schacht, Colleen Archer, Darlene Noe, Roland Backman, Joey Bianchi, Dan Dalasta, David Harlan, Delmar Moore, Roger Stefani, Richard Struthers, Larry Thorson, Jerry Vickory, Richard Hildreth, Albert Martin, Larry Cartar, Grace McFadden, and James Campbell, climbed aboard. After the train rounded the first bend, Mrs. Brazelton climbed aboard the first car with Dave Miller, and Betty Herring. At the foot of the steep grade we picked up Mrs. Zingler and Betty Carlson, Roberta White, and Tim Lunn, who stepped into the second car. The train rolled around the curve to station 3, Myrna Loveland changed trains. At the same station, Pat Scholes and Mrs. Hartung joined us in Car 3. During our quick journey through station 4, we picked up Ron Davis from the "mail hook." Station 5 flagged us to a stop, where Vickie Johnston and Miss Bond got on. Just as the train was ready to pull from the station, Myrna Loveland quickly hurried aboard again. As the train neared the first plateau, Verna Uehling and Judy Rogers joined our happy group. After passing the first plateau, we pulled into station 7 where Ron Breezly, Jack Lentz and Carroll Bidler hooked a ride. On the train chugged, nearing station 8, where we picked up two guys and a gal, named Harry Stout, Richard Fontana, and Kay Bjaastad. Ahead of our train loomed a big dark mountain called "High School Mountain." As we poured on more coal to make the grade to station 9, Connie Polich and Glenda Moore hopped on. At station 10, Bob Latson, Larry Owens, and Pauline Badger climbed aboard to help shovel coal so we could make it to station 11. Scott Baird and two girls that looked alike, because they were twins, later known as Cathy and Caroline Higginbottom, jumped on. As we neared the last lap of our journey, Marsha Howard joined us at station 12. As the caboose is leaving station 12, we see Roland Backman, Buck Brumble, Jennie Gioffredi, Everett Goff, Janice Griesert, Richard Hildreth, Sharon Phelps, Bonnie Smith, and Larry Thorson, the 9 original pupils who have ridden the complete trip on the Ankeny Train, waving farewell, saying, "It wasn't so tough!"

class will

We, the 1957 graduating class, being of sound mind (?) and body, would like to leave the teachers, the junior class, the school and all, something to remember us by. In that spirit we here-by bequeath the following:

As a class we will the following to:

THE TRADITION OF ANKENY: The ability to start with so many Freshmen and wind up with so few Seniors.

MR. BEGG: Footprints up the side of a certain building, and Bob "Satch" Latson's imitation of your whistle.

UNDERCLASSMEN: The tradition of a Homecoming glamorous float.

MR. CARLSON: The backroom in physics and chemistry.

COACH VANDER LINDEN: One set of slightly used ulcers, caused by the football and basketball teams, plus one set of frayed nerves, a result of Senior trips.

JUNIOR CLASS: One set of well worn Government books, with footnotes, which come in handy, and our reserved seats in the Principal's office.

MRS. PRATT: One box of broken chalk, slightly used, as a result of being thrown against a certain English blackboard.

SPONSORS: Unpaid bills from the Christmas Ball.

MR. TROXEL: The honor of working with a swell bunch of Seniors in the stand our Junior year.

MR. ROHM: The quiet, soft-spoken mixed-chorus group.

MR. BOETTCHER: Our many problems with our girl and boy friends.

MR. HUNTER: The inability to meet the deadline for the annual.

MISS JOHNSTON: Senior boys!!

MR. MILLER: Our cut fingers from the saws, and bruised thumbs from the hammers.

MR. JORGENSEN: The quiet halls, plus our initials on the desks in study-hall.

MISS BAUGHMAN: The Senior girls' cooking ability?

MR. LANTZ: The co-operation which we gave to you in study-hall.

MRS. VOTRUBA: The many blank checks with which to pay our bills.

MR. PETERSON: The chapter farm with its many problems.

MRS. KELTNER: The marks in the library books, plus any unpaid fines.

MR. JAMES: The alarm clock in 5th period study-hall.

MR. OXENREIDER: The Senior basketball girls' ball ability?

We wish to bequeath the following personal items:

SCOTT BAIRD wills his way with the teachers to Dennis (Burrhead) Brazelton and Alan Knox, hope it does you as much good as it did Scott.

PAULINE BADGER wills her conversation plus her "Hefty" voice to Ardyth Lawrence, suppose it will help her a little?

JACK LENTZ, alias "Muscles," alias "Curly," alias "Matchstick," alias "Lover," alias "The Body," alias "Legs LaRue," alias "Specs Lentz," alias "Wanna Bet?," alias "The Quiet One," wills his plainness, his favorite saying, "My dad says," "I Like Ike," and his awe-inspiring physique. We quote Jack as saying, "God has given me more than most folks, and since it is better to give than to receive, I will all the above to all the Junior girls."

KAY BJAASTAD wills her figure and dimensions to Elizabeth Pence, shall we repeat them, Kay?

CARROLL BIDLER wills his sex appeal to Dave Boring, as if he needs any.

CATHY HIGGINBOTTOM wills her half-used lipstick to Bob Floto, we are sure you will get it anyway, Bob.

PAT SCHOLLES wills her ability to place obscene articles in notebooks, and such, to Marilyn Griesert and Carolyn Fontanini, maybe it will give them a head start on the rest of the Junior girls.

JUDY ROGERS wills her "shorts" to Shirley Fontana; with these shorts and her "White Blouse," Shirley will go a long way next year, (in Basketball??)

ROLAND BACHMAN wills his free pass to Mr. Begg's office to Vernon Ault.

RICHARD HILDRETH wills his cowboy boots to Sharon Gean, so that they can sing cowboy duets.

DAVID MILLER and BONNIE SMITH will their parking place plus their two-year plan to Jack Zimmer and the Junior Girls.

RONNIE BREEZLEY wills his bulging black book (with phone numbers) to Roger Spahr, but we understand that Roger has two black books!

DAN DALASTA wills his career in the service to Kathryn and Mary Cory, whose hearts are already there.

RON DAVIS wills his headaches to Lonnie Feldman so he can bore Jean Lentz and Vizma Liepins.

ROBERT LATSON wills his imitation of Kay LaBond's cheerleading to Robert L. Brown.

BETTY CARLSON wills her height to Marilyn Textrum.

MYRNA LOVELAND wills her "Stout" will to evade deadlines to Sharon Triplett and Harriet Smith. Hope it works for you as it did for Myrna.

LARRY OWENS wills his "Tarzan" suit to Harvey Reynolds and HIS Jane, -- Julie Henderson??

LARRY THORSON wills his Church key to Sonja Hennon (treat it gently, Sonja, because it has been used many times in the past three years.)

EVERETT GOFF being too poor, financially, wills absolutely nothing to Karen Stall and Church Purdy, because they think they have everything anyway.

BUCK BRUMBLE convinced he has everything, but actually possesses nothing but his nickname, "Bucket," wills this to Alice Higginbottom. "Bucketbottom???"

RICHARD FONTANA wills his quiet ways and gentle manners to Merle Johnson.

TIM LUNN, alias Elvirus Pretzel, wills his side-burns and "gee-tar" to Richard Carzoli. Will this added weight be too much for his "old football injury?"

ROBERTA WHITE wills her famous map, fine vocabulary, and black eye to Lois Peltz.

VERNA UEHLING wills her gossip, rumors, and farm background to David Den Adel, in case he ever wants to marry a rich farm girl.

SHARON PHELPS wills her tape measure, plus what Santa said to her concerning clothes, "Don't you realize that little girls are growing up?", to Colleen Springer. Enough said I believe.

VICKIE JOHNSON wills her halo? to Janice Spahr so she can entertain Lewis Smith and Bill Oswalt.

MARSHA HOWARD wills her quotation, "Well, I have my man," to Ellen Quick.

CAROLINE HIGGINBOTTOM wills her expression, "The way we did it in Maxwell," to Bob Doubleday, just one of the gang.

BETTY HERRING wills her secluded driveway to Robert Harrison, Ken Thimmesch, and Richard Steil, it's real handy for parking until the wee hours, boys.

JENNIE GIOFFREDI wills her quotation, "I'm boss," and her "Senior-itis" to John Campbell and John Good.

GLENDIA MOORE wills one bag of rocks to Joe and "Jo," for use on all bushwhackers. Ask Glenda for complete instructions.

HARRY STOUT wills his mistaken view of his own ability to Lonnie Lamberti, although Lonnie really has what Harry THINKS he has!

STEVEN JONES wills his pick-up truck to Steve Moore and Robert E. Brown, to be used just as the name implies.

CONNIE POLICH wills her ability at "Changing Partners" to her sister, Pat.

We hope we haven't left anyone out, enough toes have been trampled without that, but in case we did; we here-by bequeath to all our unknown beneficiaries:

All the gum, waste-paper, pencil stubs, and thumb-tacks that have collected in the Senior section of the study hall during this past year.

In closing we want to leave you this thought, "Remember--This is what education did to us!!!"

prophecy

As we glanced up in the bright blue sky, 35 angels glided by.
Their wings and halos are scattered about, these fortunate seniors are on the way out.
For four long years they've struggled and strained--now they know it wasn't in vain! (HA!)

Politician Lentz is the leader of the group--
Next are Harry and Myrna with their "LITTLE" troupe.
Roland's gliding by on "Cloud #9,"
Richard's right behind him, both complaining of a fine.
Here come the twins, Caroline and Cathy;
Along with Lonnie and Bob, they're extremely happy.
Tarzan's next in step, his little rope behind--
This rope's so important, we'll grant a bonus line.
Elvirus Pretzel, Tim for short, has a love in every port.

Here comes Bonnie with her big cad-a-piller,
Dave's friendly persuasion changed her name to Miller.
Glenda's floating by, with her rocks in hand;
They're falling down on Satch who's leading heaven's band!
Betty Carlson is concentrating, a chemist still at heart.
Carroll Bidler has a restaurant (serves chicken a la carte.)
The ladder continues upward, with Pauline near the peak--
She hollers orders downward, through her little beak.

We all saw Ron Breezley--we KNOW he's not a coward;
Next in line is Marsha whose name's no longer Howard.
In the bright blue sky stands Scott in his pulpit;
He's directing his speech to Yerna, who he know's the culprit.
Kay's going to the eye doctor, her eyes badly strained;
We guess her goal in high school was finally attained.
Buck is a singer now, spins the disks for RCA;
Jennie is a top notch sec.--her high school work did pay.

Dick's taking a load off assembly now, just like he used to do,
Only now he's switched to drinking milk instead of vulgar booze.
Connie's still changing partners with a halo all aglow;
Ron D. is doing the same ole thing, about which you all should know.
Since Betty H. hates men, and inside they make her furious,
About a girl and her marriage she's extremely curious.
A pile of books, a box of cards, and behind all this sits Dan;
Next is Bert, seeking information about her found (shrug) -lost man.

When you see white, you think of Sharon and her unmentionables so numerous;
With Bev, a guitar, and a cloud beneath, Steve and his songs are humorous.
First Pat got an education, now a family with Max;
When we speak of these two gate guards, we're giving just the facts.
Larry Thorson isn't working--he has found his pot of gold???
Judy Rogers, a tender schoolmarm, has some little ones to scold.
Vickie's jumping days are over, as we spoke of them at school---
Now with Bob (and ten little ones) she jumps to keep the rule,
Little Everett, last and almost least, is bringing up the rear;
As he was always a perfect kid (???), he SHOULD have nothing to fear.

Now you've got a picture of what it's like above,
We know they're loaded with money, as well as spite and love.
It's a wonder they are up there, after all that they've been through--
But what will happen to them next, we'll leave a guess for you!!!

The Student Council is an organization of two representatives and one alternate. Homecoming and the Homecoming Dance are a couple of the many worthwhile projects of the Student Council. The purpose of this organization is to promote better student-teacher relations. The Student Council gives the students a fair chance to present their ideas and problems. Students also have the responsibility of participation in self-government. It gives the students more training in self-control. The Student Council helps to better school spirit and citizenship and to promote the general welfare of Ankeny High School.

ROW ONE: S. Triplett, M. Lewis, A. Higginbottom, Secretary; S. Baird, President; C. Higginbottom, Vice-President; M. Johnson, Treasurer; M. Griesert.

ROW TWO: Mr. Boettcher, L. Peltz, B. Spooner, L. Travis, G. Plager, J. Dutcher, T. LeJune, B. Harrison.

ROW THREE: K. LaBond, C. Higginbottom, S. Thimmesch, M. Hefte, B. Smith, P. Scholes, J. Henderson, M. Textrum.

It was a memorable occasion last October 2, 1956, when for the first time in the History of the Ankeny School system, twenty-two students of Ankeny High School were received as charter members of the Hawkeye Chapter of the National Honor Society.

To be eligible for membership in this chapter candidates must have been a student in Ankeny High School for at least one semester, must be a member of the sophomore, junior, or senior class and must have an over-all high school grade average of B or higher. When these requirements have been satisfied, they are then considered on their character, leadership and service as a member of the student body. At the end of each semester those students who have met the requirements are received into membership of the chapter and are entitled to wear the emblem adopted by the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools and to participate in all activities of the society.

Johnson, K. LaBond, J. Spahr, M. Hefte.

The annual staff this year, has worked many long hours to make what they hope is the best annual yet. With annual sales and ads, the staff made more money to cover expenses than in previous years. Mr. Hunter's patient guidance has helped us through difficult hours. Things did not always go the way we anticipated. We expended time and patience to finally bring the annual to its completion.

We sincerely hope that this annual will always bring you vivid memories of the school year 1956-1957.

DRIVERS TRAINING

The average high school student wants to learn to drive a car. Without a systematic driver education course, he may know something about an automobile and a little about traffic rules and traffic hazards. He may have had someone teach him the simple mechanical steps involved in starting, stopping, and maneuvering an automobile. He may do some of these acts in a creditable manner. But his behavior in complex and critical traffic situations is often another matter. In fact, the traffic records of young drivers prove that systematic education for driving must now be a serious concern of the public schools.

The high school course provides the most favorable opportunity for youths to acquire the knowledge, skills, and attitudes needed for safe driving. The instructional method is a two-part driver education course of school classes and supervised road practice.

The following students were in drivers training:

Element "X" of the Success Story

A quick check of the local library is sure to reveal that new volumes are constantly being added to those shelves that hold the success books. For success, as you know, is quite the popular subject. And worthwhile, too.

But even though the thousands of published formulas for success, stretched end to end, would reach from here to Utopia, and although all of them differ to a greater or lesser degree, each inevitably includes one basic ingredient. We'll call it Element "X."

Element "X" is that intangible extra which one receives in the way of reward in certain endeavors. It's a reward that is over, above, and in addition to any material recompense, a reward that is peculiar in that it can't be given or infused but must be created and absorbed out of the undertaking itself.

Element "X" is the personal satisfaction one always derives from an occupation in which he contributes not only to his own improvement but also to that of his neighbors.

There exist many fields from which this important ingredient may be drawn, not the least of which is the farm equipment industry. And throughout the John Deere organization, people are daily experiencing this great satisfaction, knowing that in supplying the farmer with quality farm equipment, they are themselves contributing to a healthier, happier people, a better nation, and a better world.

That's Element "X."
