JAMES P. FIGGINS

The State Center Community was shocked early Monday evening to hear of the sudden passing of James P. Figgins, former mayor of the town and a civic leader here for many years. His death resulted from an unexpected heart attack. He had complained of not feeling well during the dinner hour but his condition was not considered serious. He would have been 64 years old in March.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. today, January 24, at St. Paul Lutheran Church with the Rev. Elmer J. Braun in charge. Interment was in Hillside Cemetery.

Pallbearers were W. H. Neidert, Henry Dobbin, B. H. Grey, J. G. Gutekunst, Elmer H. Goodman and Fred Eggers. Flower bearers were Mrs. Alice Richeson, Mrs. W. H. Neidert, Mrs. E. S. Pitman, and Mrs. Evald Jensen.

James Palmer Figgins was born March 26, 1893 at Washington D. C., the son of Joseph and Agnes Yingst Figgins. He came to State Center with his parents at an early age and had spent most of his life in this community. He received his education in the public schools here.

He was married June 24, 1914 to Miss Florence Riemenschneider at State Center. They settled on a farm west of town and lived there until they moved to an acreage at the edge of town in 1929. Mr. Figgins had served as mayor of State Center for six years and before that had acted as Justice of Peace here for many years.

Mr. Figgins was appointed Justice of the Peace to succeed the late Harry E. Foote by the Marshall County Board of Supervisors only last week. He had posted bond for the office late Monday afternoon.

He was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church, the State Center Lions Club, and the Community Club. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Reuben Schaper of State Center and Mrs. Merrill Ahrendt of Los Angeles, Calif., one son, Dale of State Center, one brother, Dan Figgins of Des Moines and eight grand children.

Miss Karol Schaper, Delos Honeck Wed

Trinity Lutheran Church was the setting for a pretty Easter wedding, Saturday, April 13, when Miss Karol Schaper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Schaper, became the bride of Delos Honeck, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Honeck, all of State Center. Before an altar seasonably appointed with Easter lilies and candelabra, the Rev. Robert L. Thoeke, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, read the marriage lines for the double ring service at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Cyril Germann played the nuptial organ music and Miss Bonnie Gerke brought the message in song with "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the attractive bride was gowned in Chantilly Rose lace over white satin. The molded lace bodice was designed with a scooped neckline and long tapered sleeves and the plain, bell shaped satin skirt was floor length. She wore a pearl and aurora borealis crystal crown from which fell her silk illusion veil, fashioned of three layers which tapered to the waist in the back. She carried an arrangement of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Miss Patricia Honeck, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor and was becomingly attired in a pink brocaded satin street length dress, styled with scooped neckline, three quarter sleeves and bell shaped skirt. She also wore a low pearl and crystal veiled crown and carried pink and white carnations with white streamers.

James Ellis attended the bridegroom as best man and the guests were seated by Wayne Schaper, brother of the bride and Larry Honeck, brother of the bridegroom. The men of the bridal party wore dark suits and white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore a bone knit sheath with harmonizing accessories and the groom's mother was attired in a blue jersey sheath with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The serving table was appointed in pink and white and was centered with a tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Dale Figgins, aunt of the bride, cut the cake; Mrs. Cecil Honeck and Mrs. Russell Honeck, aunts of the bridegroom, presided as pourers at the punch bowl and coffee service, respectively.

Mrs. Rodney Davis registered the guests and Miss Peggy Riemenschneider took care of the flowers. Miss Linda Ferguson of Montezuma assisted the bridal couple in opening their gifts.

The couple will make their home near Great Lakes, Ill., where Mr. Honeck is stationed with the U. S. Navy.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of the State Center high school and Mr. Honeck graduated from the State Center high school in 1959. He entered the U. S. Navy in January and recently completed his basic training at San Diego, Calif.

Miss Gwen Dorothy and Wayne E. Schaper Marry

A pretty summer wedding took place Sunday, June 12 at the Lyons Methodist church in Clinton when Miss Gwen Ellen Dorathy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dorathy of Clinton became the bride of Wayne Richard Schaper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Schaper of State Center. Rev. Donald Forbes read the marriage lines for the impressive double-ring service at two o'clock in the afternoon before a candlelighted altar appointed with arrangements of white gladiolus, daisies and yellow roses. White satin bows marked the pews on the white carpeted bridal aisle. Bringing the nuptial message in song was James Figgins of State Center, cousin of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractively gowned in white chromespun acetate, floor-length, designed with an empire waistline, bateau neckline, long bridal point sleeves and a lace trimmed sheath skirt. Her detachable train fell from the shoulders. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was held in place with a crown of yellow daisies and she carried a cascade of yellow roses, daisies and trailing ivy.

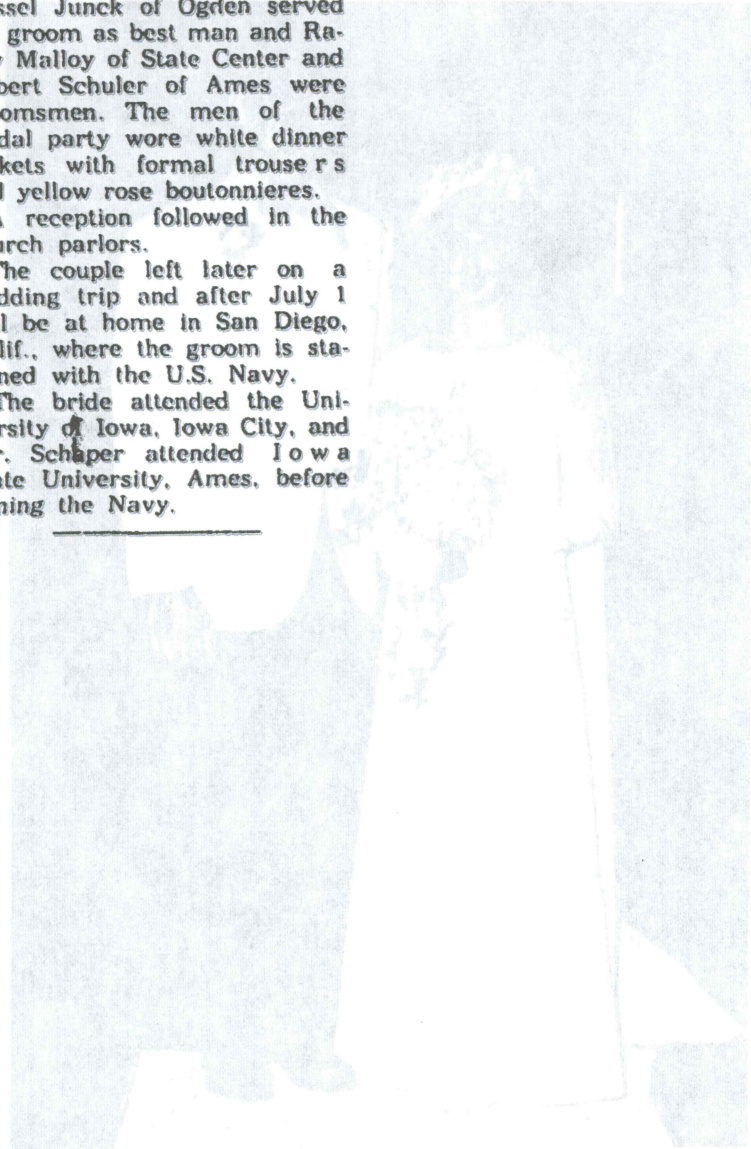

Miss Lynn Johnson of State Center served as maid of honor and Mrs. Owen Rehnblom of Lehigh and Mrs. Richard Burlingame of Clinton were brides-matrons. The Misses Debra Blanchard of Panama City, Fla., and Robin Hoy of Thousand Oaks, Calif., nieces of the bride were junior bridesmaids. All of the attendants were becomingly attired in poudre blue chromespun acetate styled with sleeveless empire waists and floor-length sheath skirts. They wore long white gloves and headpieces of nylon tulle held in place with a blue chromespun bow. Each carried a long stemmed yellow rose. Terri Ann Dorathy of Mt. Union, niece of the bride, and Roxanne Honeck of State Center, niece of the groom, were flower girls and were charming in party-length dresses of white chromespun styled with short sleeves and empire waists. They carried baskets of yellow daisies and yellow rose petals.

Chris Merritt of Clinton, nephew of the bride, carried the rings on a white satin pillow. Mark Hoy of Thousand Oaks, Calif., and Terry Blanchard of Panama City, Fla., nephew of the bride, lighted the candles. Russel Junck of Ogden served the groom as best man and Randy Malloy of State Center and Robert Schuler of Ames were groomsmen. The men of the bridal party wore white dinner jackets with formal trousers and yellow rose boutonnieres.

A reception followed in the church parlors.

The couple left later on a wedding trip and after July 1 will be at home in San Diego, Calif., where the groom is stationed with the U.S. Navy.

The bride attended the University of Iowa, Iowa City, and Mr. Schaper attended Iowa State University, Ames, before joining the Navy.

He is survived by his parents, one brother, Dale of State Center and two sisters, Mrs. Reuben Schaper of State Center and Mrs. M. E. Ahrendt of Los Angeles, Calif. A sister preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held at the Wensel Funeral Home in State Center at 2:00 p.m. Monday, November 20, with the Rev. Elmer J. Braun, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church, officiating.
