Radcliffe Man Seeking Soil Conservation Post

The Hardin County Soil Conservation District will hold an election to fill the position of a commissioner for the district on Wednesday, Feb. 5, at the Radcliffe American Legion building.

Polls will be open from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. Retiring as a commissioner, which is a six year term, is Paul Primus of Steamboat Rock. Primus has served as a commissioner for six years and two years as an assistant. For three years, he served as chairman of the commissioners.

One candidate has announced for the position, Caleb Knutson of Radcliffe. Knutson is now an assistant commissioner. The two holdover members of the commission are Carroll Hobson of Eldora and Kermit Whitehead of New Providence.

To be eligible to vote a person must be an owner or operator of land lying within Hardin county, exclusive of incorporated towns and cities.
