Bridal
Bells

Bridal bells so gaily
pealing.

Echo through the country side-A tender story, they are telling

A tale as old as the world is wide,
A tale of love that's deep and lasting,

A love that skines upon life's pathway
Like a steadfast beacon light.

ANONYMOUS

Be ye kind to one another, tender
hearted forgiving
each other.

EPH. 4. 32

Live joyfully with the wife
whom thou lovest all the days

ECCL. 9-9

She openeth her mouth with wisdom and in her tongue is the law of kindness

PROV. 31-26

Love therefore is the fulfilment of the law.

ROM. 13-10

Clad all in white that seems a virgin best,
So well it her beseeems
that ye would weene
Some angel she had beene.

EDMUND SPENCER

The Bridal Bells

Across the land, across the sea,
Now soft and low, now loud and strong
A varied but beloved song.

They ring across the pure white snow
Where winter's winds so rudely blow,
Across the fragrant fields they ring
When welcomed is returning spring.

When summer
roses,
rich and
sweet,
With fragrance
fill the field
and street
On perfumed air
ring out the bells,
The glad some cheery, Bridal bells.

And when the richer
autumn tints,
Of leaf and flower
give timely hints
of coming Winter,
The Bridal bells ring loud and clear.

W. R. REYNOLDS

His heart
in me keeps
him and me in one,
My heart in him his thought
and senses guides,
He loves my heart, for once it was his own I cherish his because in me it bides.

My true love hath my heart and I have his.

SIR PHILIP SIDNEY

Across the threshold led,
And every tear kissed
off as soon as shed,
His house she enters,
there to be a light Shining within, when all without is night.
A guardian angel o'er his life presiding
Doubling his pleasures
and his cares dividing.

SAMUEL ROGERS

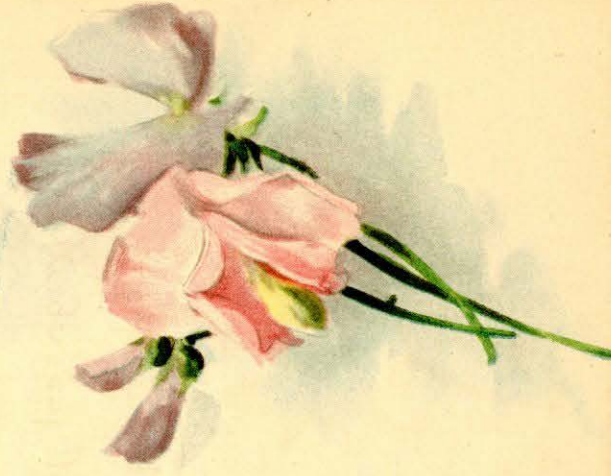

O, were I monarch
of the globe,
With thee to reign, with thee
to reign,
The brightest jewel
in my crown,
Would be my queen, would be my queen.

ROBERT BURNS.

O fortunate, O happy day
When a new household
finds its place
Among the myriad homes
of earth
Like a new star just sprung to birth.

LONGFELLOW

Never may the sunshine
cease,
But your contentment,
weal and peace,
Be deepened as the years increase.

Safe from all
adversity,
Upon the bosom
of life's sea,
Thy comings and thy goings be.

LONGFELLOW.

True love is but a humble low-born thing,
And hath its food served
up in earthen-ware,
It is a thing to walk
with hand in hand,
Through the everydayness
of this work-day
world.
