The Foreword

To the students of Buena Vista College and their friends we present this yearbook with the sincere hope that it will recall to them now, and in the future, the pleasures, the friendships, and the achievements their college has given them. Treasure this Rudder as the storehouse of a year's precious experiences in Buena Vista—our greatest small college.

Dedication

TO DEAN ALFRED C. NIELSEN, who entered Buena Vista's halls when we did, who is largely responsible, because of his advice and assistance, for the success of this yearbook, and who is the friend of every student who knows him, we, the class of 1932, dedicate this volume of the

THE Rudder Staff desires to express its thanks for the hearty co-operation of the student body in helping us make this annual a success.

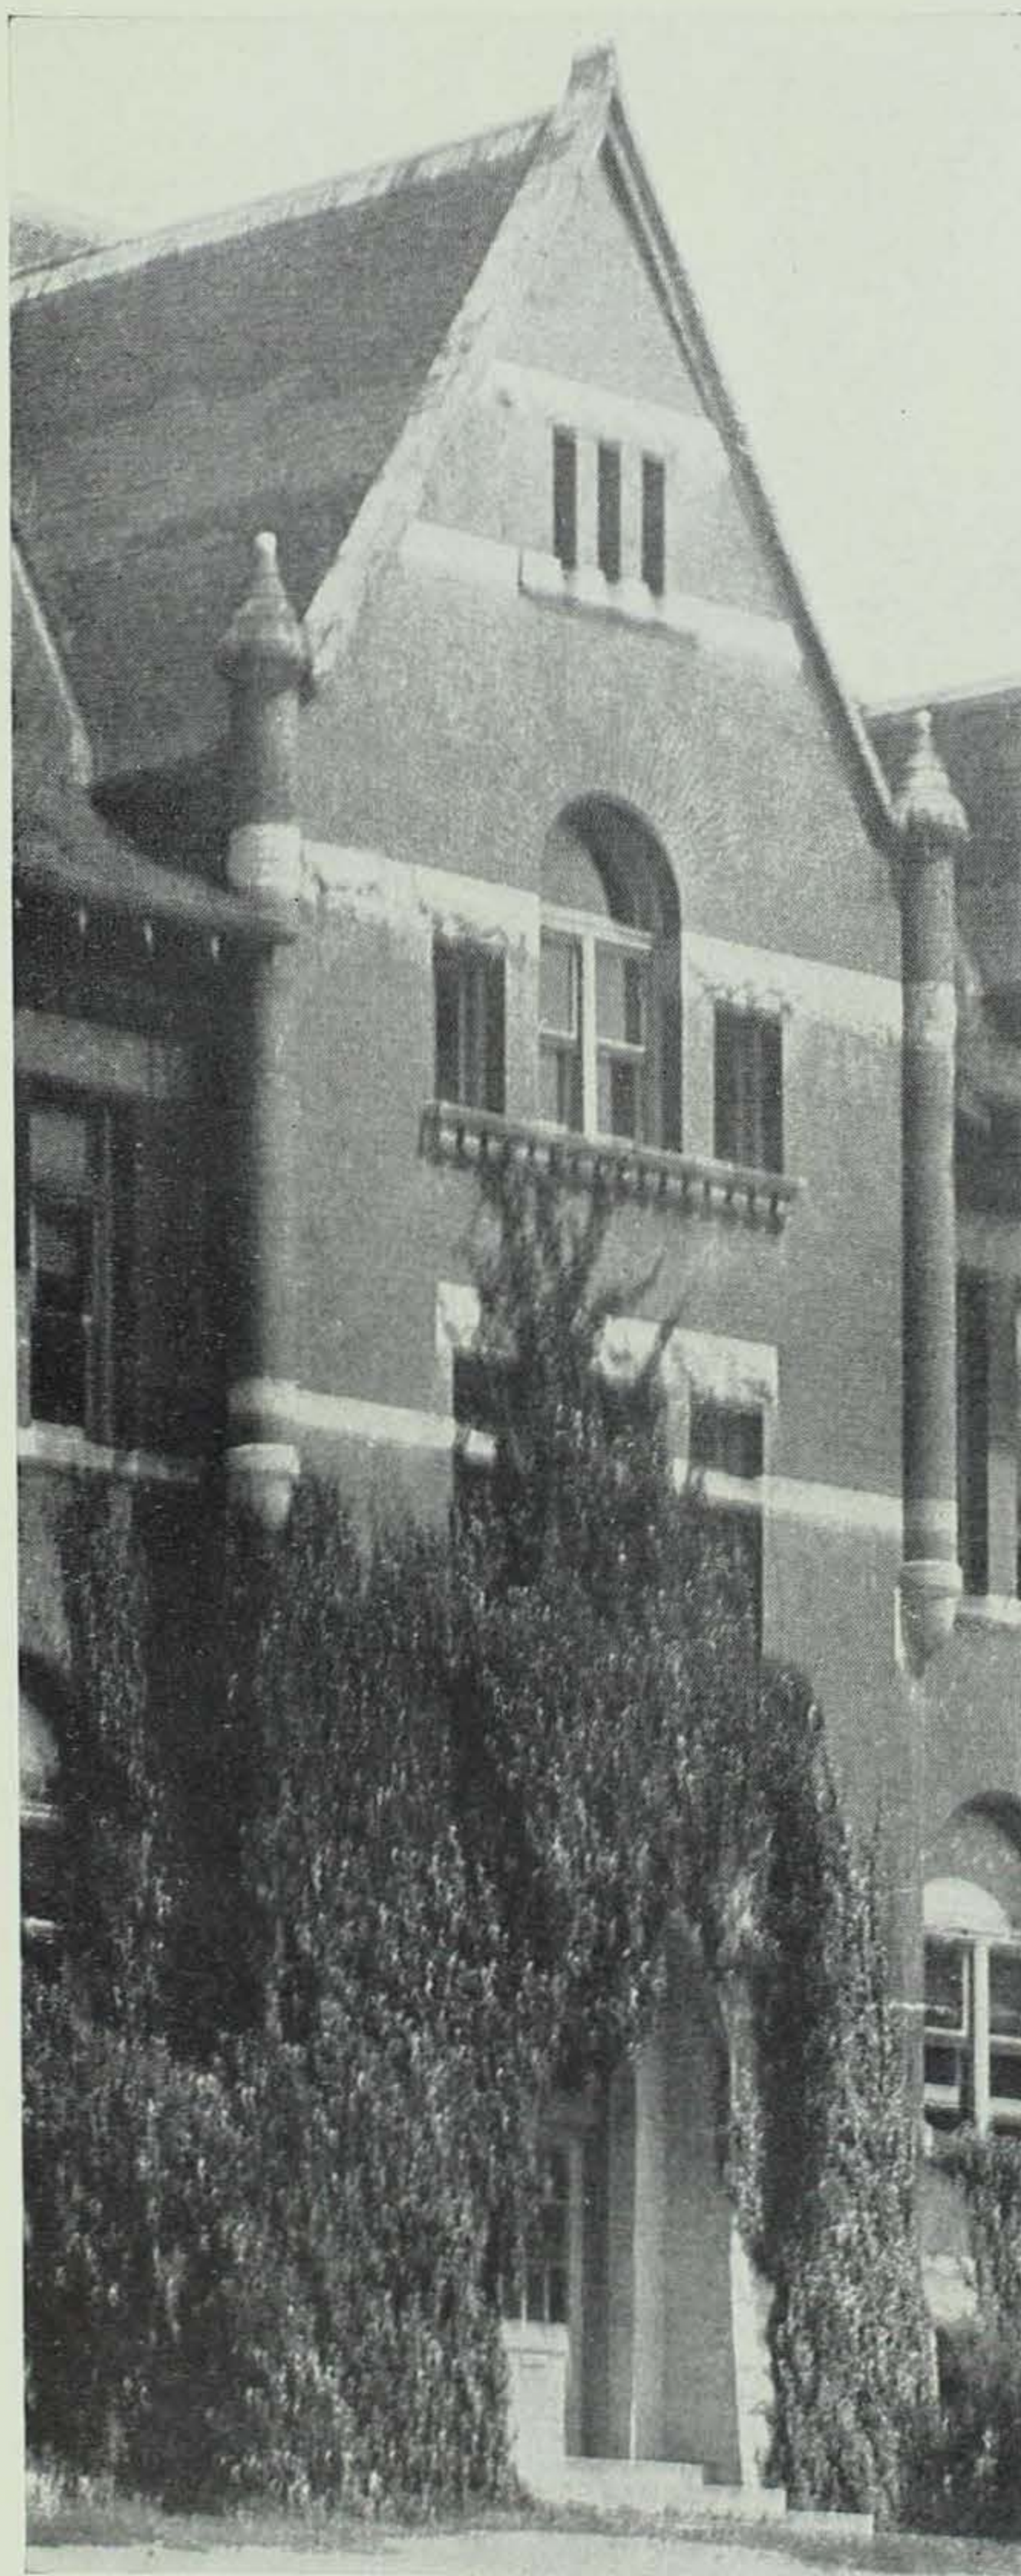

We ask your consideration of the advertisements and professional cards in the book. These men have helped in a practical way in the financing of this book and in return your patronage is due them.

We also thank the Storm Lake Chamber of Commerce for their generous gift of money to us.

FOR even the poor small college I am inclined to believe that "yet there is room." Even the small college which has a library of two or three thousand books and a faculty of ten or twelve members counting the assistant in bookkeeping and the president who writes his own begging letters on his own typewriter, which he learned to use after his beard was grey, is of perennial and undeniable service to its district. After all, a boy or girl who goes to college can read only one book at a time, listen to only one teacher at a time, learn only so many great facts in a day, whether the college be great or small; and whether it be small or great, he can dream as many dreams. And in his "education" it is the dreams that count."

—John Weber Linn.

SOMETIMES I think that the sun of promise never shines so warmly as through the plain glass windows of the small college; sometimes I think that the "dear moon-light of love" (as Bathhouse phrased it) and of association never sleeps so sweetly as on the narrow dusty paths of small college learning. What is Oxford but a collection of small, yes, even tiny colleges. The state universities are noble department stores. The smaller colleges are the "gift shops." Where shall you buy fulfillment of your dreams?

—John Weber Linn.

"The First Year"

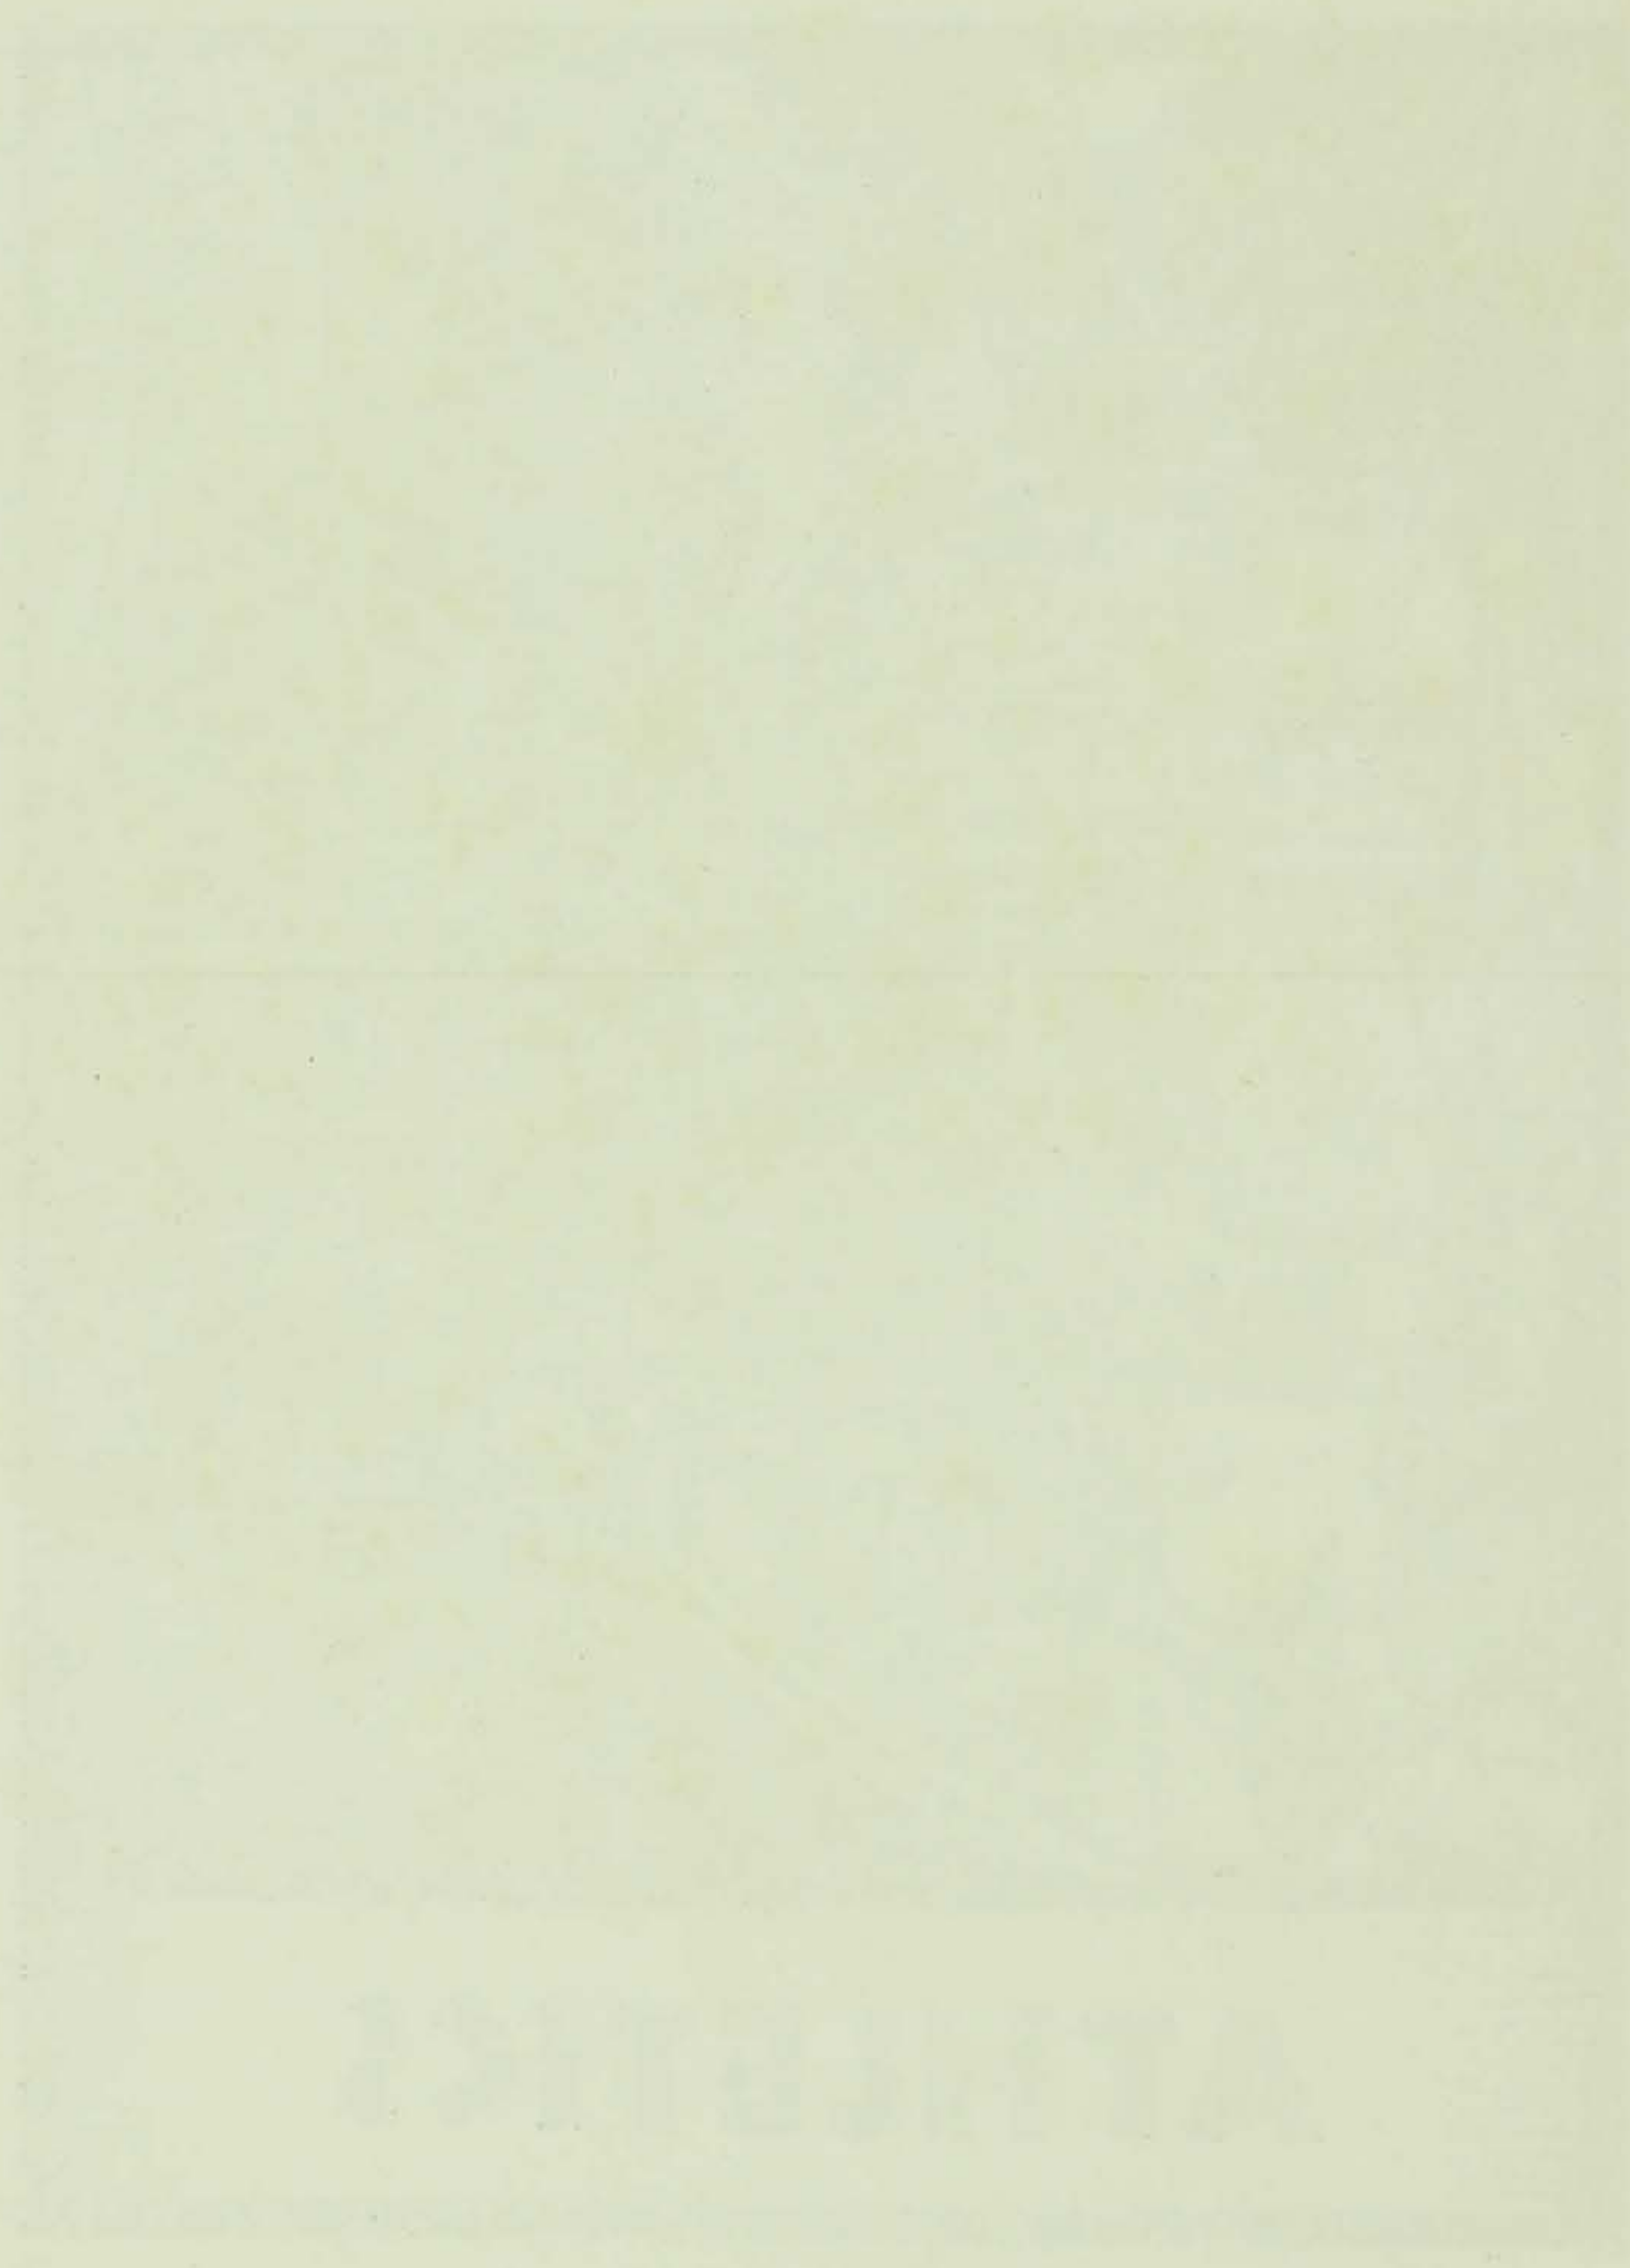

The first play of the college year was an American comedy-drama by Frank Craven, "The First Year." It was produced under the direction of Prof. Dewey Deal. The theme of the play sets forth the supposition that the first year of married life is the hardest. It is a comedy that derives its laughs from the characters and the things they say and do. They are a group of everyday small town people, intensely human and genuinely funny. The cast includes Eunice Jensen, Alfred Weber, Marion Hill, Lloyd Tymeson, Edward Rosendahl, Kenneth Reubel, Carmen Hoefle, Ruth Biggens, and James Wilfong.

The stage manager for the play was De Ette Mansfield who was assisted by Miller Cornman and a stage crew composed of Del Thayer, Phillip Vogel, Tom Johnston, and Rudy Anderson. Property Managers were Alva MacClintock, Anita Skewis, Gretchen Farmer, Gwendolyn Jones, Mona Casey, and Dorothy Ludwig. Paul Norris was light technician. Audrey Poulson proved an able business manager to the play.

The play was immensely popular and opened the dramatic season in a fitting way.

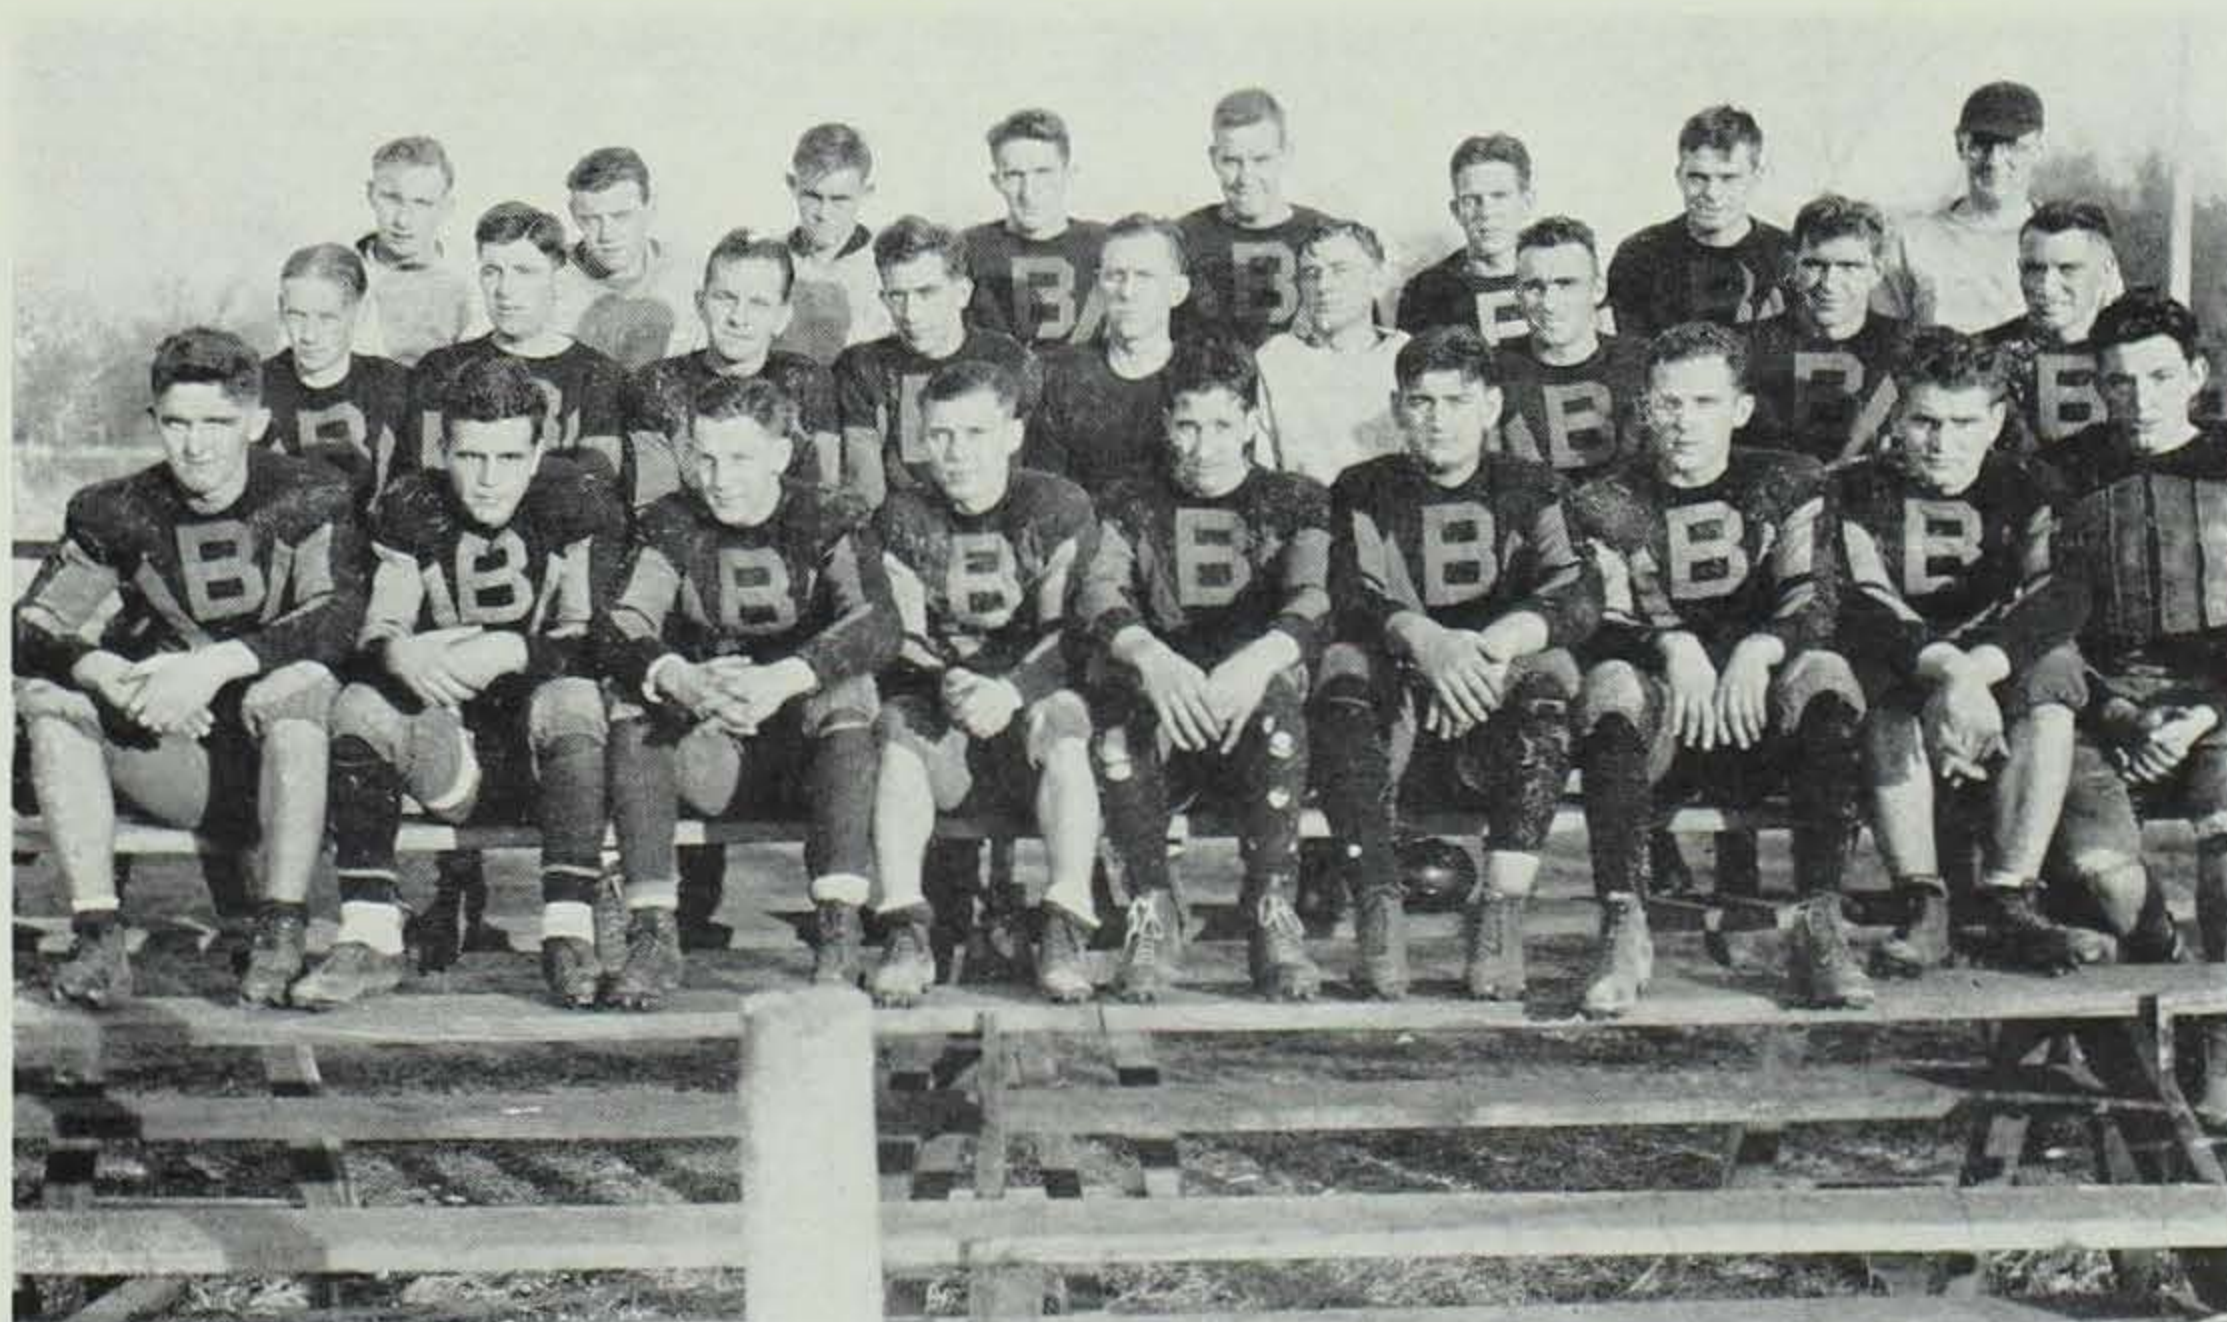

ATHLETICS

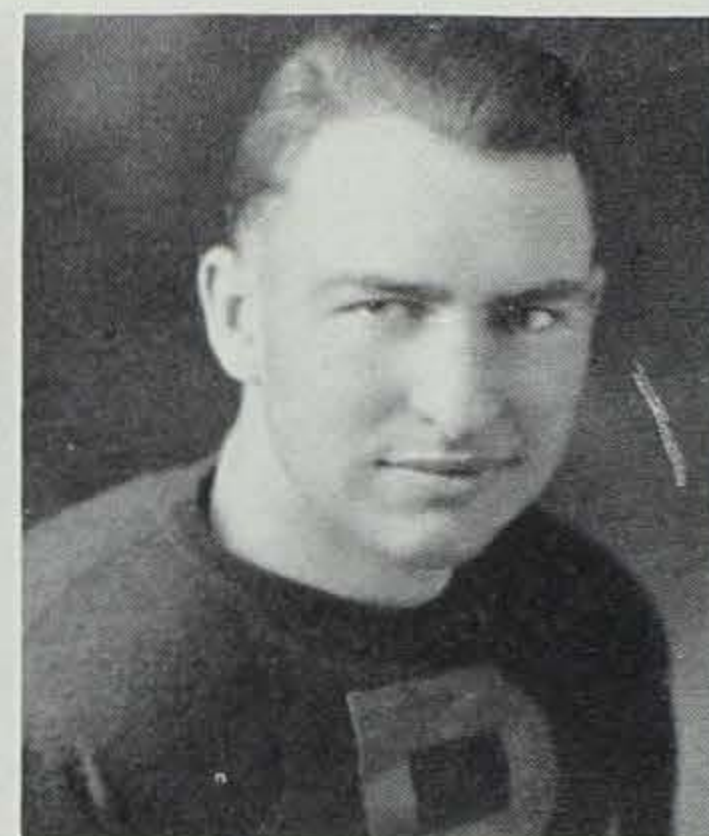

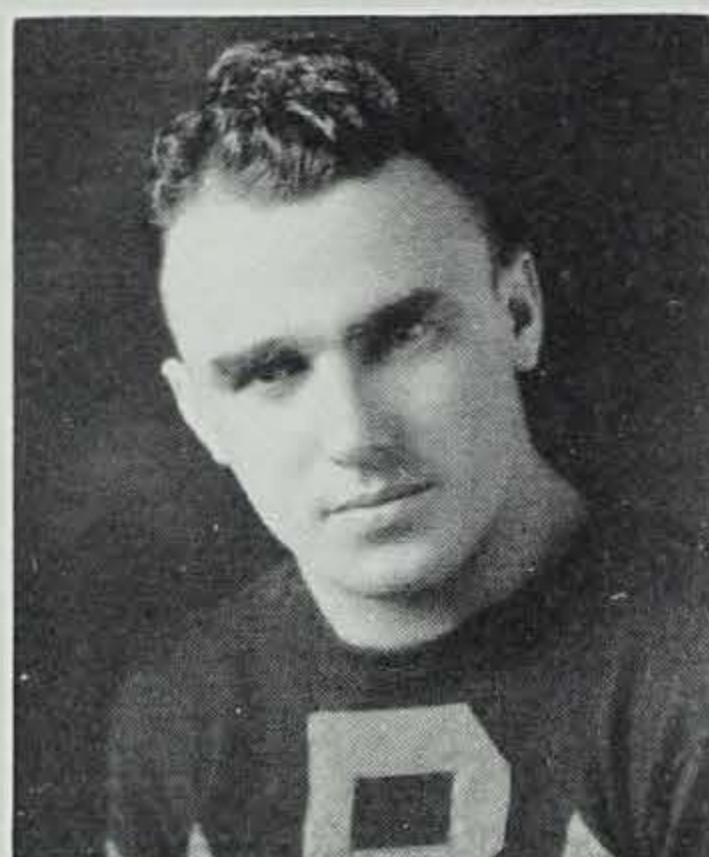

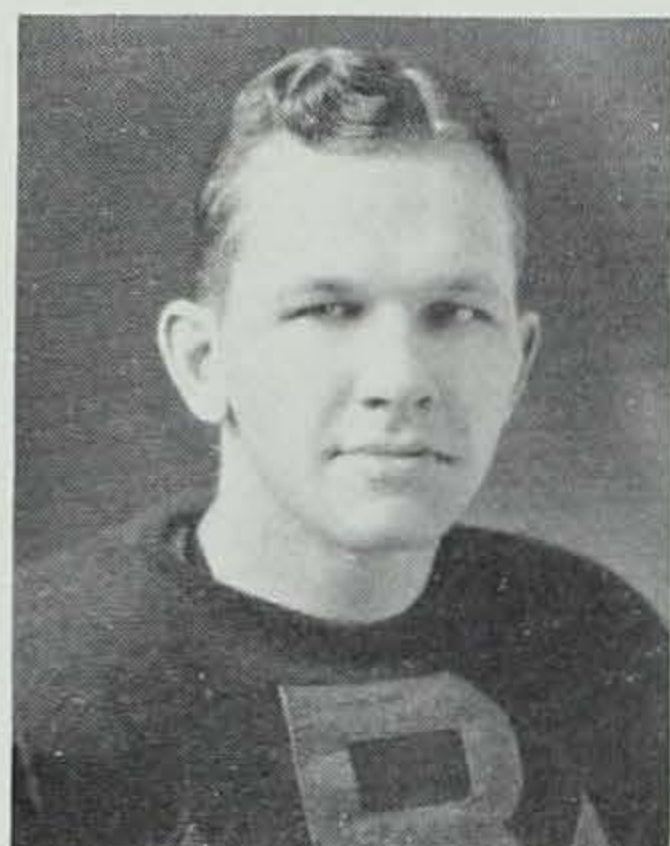

Coach Casey

We are proud to have at the head of our athletic department the finest and ablest coach in the Iowa Conference. He is a true exemplification of the "Beaver Spirit." The least we can say of him is that he is a gentleman, an athlete, and a true scholar.

Third Row—Bright, Moe, Thayer, Johnston, Lincicum, Daniels, Potter, Coach Casey.
Second Row—Salveson, Hartley, Marsh, Grant, Downing, Wilfong, Boggess, Quinet, Reinhardt.
First Row—Johnston, Arney, Berger, Kallmer, Zempke, Matzdorf, Johnson, Davis, Couch.

Football

MARSH—End

"Arch" completed his football career by playing a steady, consistent game at end. The opponents knew better than try his end because it always resulted in a loss for them. And once he had his fingers on a pass, it was good for a substantial gain. He was given Honorable Mention on the All-Conference team. We wish him luck in the coaching game.

BOGCESS—Halfback

"Boggy"—the fastest man on the gridiron. Clark's marvelous returning of punts and end runs marked him the most dangerous man in the conference. Long will the Beavers remember the work of this flash. He was high scorer for the Beavers and among the leaders of Iowa Conference. He was selected on the first Iowa Conference All-State second team. Clark finished his football activities and will graduate in the spring. "Luck to you, Boggess."

REINHARDT—Tackle

"Bud"—Another senior member of team who played that "same old steady game." He was the keynote in the forward wall and feared by all opponents. Bud was a noted "ball hawk." He was given Honorable Mention on All-Conference team. We hope Bud has as much luck coaching as he did playing.

PATRICK—End

"Pat"—Though he was handicapped by an injury, Pat played a very good game. His punting was an outstanding feature this year. He finished his career for B. V. this year and we wish him luck.

Football

KALLMER—Quarterback

"Stub"—A very "heady" little field general and ground gainer. He was a very elusive driver noted for his "piston like" leg action on those determined attempts through the line and around end. He never failed to gain. We wish little Stubber luck after graduation.

JOHNSTON—Guard

"Chuck"—A very determined lineman. Though a little light, he made up for this handicap in spirited fighting. Chuck will graduate in the spring and we wish him luck in the coaching world.

ARNEY—Halfback

"Verman"—His furious off-tackle gains never failed to warrant a first down for the team. He always "got" his man on defense too. He will graduate and he should succeed in the coaching world.

BERGER—Quarterback

"Berg"—A little light but flashy on the offense. He was on the "flipping" end of many successful forward passes and called signals with a high degree of determination of spirit. He has another year to battle for B. V.

Football

LINCICUM—Tackle

"Al" played his first year as a regular like a veteran. An injured ankle failed to slow this big fellow up and he certainly had the Beaver Fight. Great things are expected of Al in the football field next year.

DAVIS—Fullback

"Davie"—Alternated at the fullback position and hit his stride in mid-season. He was a sure ground gainer and his excellent punting in the Simpson game will long be remembered. Davis is also a yearling at B. V.

SALVESON—Halfback

"Ernie"—Though a little light, he quickly developed into a very good passer. His bullet like "Flips" were always rightly aimed at the mark. He was not a backfield man by nature, never the less, he picked up some valuable yards. He, too, experienced his first year at B. V. and a lot is expected of him next year.

ZEMKE—End

"Milt" alternated at the end position. His rangy height and determined Beaver spirit made him a very valuable asset to the team. Zemke will be one of the most dangerous men on the gridiron next fall. Watch him go. He is only a Freshman.

Football

HARTLEY—Guard

"Hart"—Started the season off in great opponent-wrecking style. A badly wrenched knee received in the Luther game, caused him to remain on the sidelines until the Simpson game when he was back in his hard driving form which meant a lot to the outcome of the game. Hartley has another year of competition, providing agricultural duties near Alta don't interfere.

POTTER—Guard

"Brute" was one of the opponent's fears. He liked nothing better than to have a play come his way because he was there to meet it. Brute is a hard fighter and he has one more year in which to help push his team to victory.

QUINET—Fullback

"Queen"—The "West Virginian" of no mean ability. Queen's ability to slip through the line was a great asset to the Beaver's offense. He was a bear on defense, knocking down passes, etc. He has another season at the institution.

MATZDORF—Center

"Mat" successfully filled the shoes of Thayer at the pivot position. This big hard driving center was hard to penetrate by opponents and his "snap back" activities were excellent. Mat has another year to hold down the center position.

TOM JOHNSTON—Tackle

"Tom"—A running mate of Al's was a hard tackle and excellent blocker. Tom has three years left to show the local Beavers that same fight he possessed this year.

Basketball

McCLINTOCK—Forward

"Mac" played a great game at the forward position. He always came through in the pinches for a needed goal. Mac has finished a very successful career at B. V. We hope he has success in the teaching profession.

MOE—Forward

"Orin" played a whirlwind of a game at forward. After a poor start, due to an injured ankle, he led the Beavers in scoring and ranked sixth in the conference. Orion was given Honorable Mention on the All-Conference team. His loss will be felt next year. Luck to Moe.

REINHARDT—Guard

"Bud," noted for his ease on the floor, played an excellent game at guard and his basket eye was above par. Bud is leaving B. V. with a great record behind him and we only hope he keeps up the good work.

MARSH—Guard

"Arch" played some good basketball in spite of an injured ankle that kept him out of half of the games. He was a very reliable man and was depended upon for points as well as some good defensive play. His loss will be keenly felt next year.

BERGER—Forward

"Berg" with his basket eye, as well as his floor work, was a great asset to the team. Berg had a little hard luck with his teeth but after that, how that boy did come back. He has another year to star with the Beavers.

MATZDORF—Guard

"Mat" played his best at all times and his defensive work stood out. His man always was watched and had a hard time getting loose for a shot. He also contributed his share to the scoring column. Mat has one more year to hold down a berth on the B. V. cage team.

SALVESEN—Center

"Ernie"—The only Freshman to make a letter. He played like a veteran at all times and was high among the scorers. He has a very good eye for the basket. Watch him go for three more years.

Track 1930

Buena Vista enjoyed a very successful track season in the spring of 1930. The Beavers were entered in eight meets, the Indoor meet at Des Moines, The Drake Relays, the Iowa Conference meet (in which they placed second), the State meet, and several smaller meets at Hastings, Wayne, Sioux Falls and Brookings. Letter men for the year were Boggess, Townsend, Moe, Hartley, and Thayer. Boggess holds the Iowa Conference record in the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes.

Track, 1931

Buena Vista is well represented this year in track by the following men:

The Y. W. C. A. girls act as "big sisters" to the new girls and do their best to make them feel at ease in their new surroundings. Any girl in a school may belong to this organization which meets regularly on Wednesdays at Chapel time.

The girls have put two Japanese girls through school and are, at present, supporting Esther Edgar, a Persian girl.

The year 1930-31 has been one of the most successful periods of activity for the College Choir. After a few local engagements, the first out-of-town recital was given in the First Methodist Church of Alta on February twenty-third. A large and appreciative audience was present.

With a brief stop at Jefferson where a short matinee program was presented at the high school, the choir made its first broadcast from WOI at Ames. A second program was offered there on March thirtieth with equal success. The annual home concert was given at the Lakeside Presbyterian Church, April nineteenth.

The members of this organization owe a great debt of gratitude to its director, Prof. Sager, and the two accompanists, Bernice DeBuhr and Kenneth Hanson. Their untiring efforts can only be measured by the success which has followed this group in its many appearances.

The B. V. Players is the dramatic production group of the college. Tryouts for front and back stage work are held twice a year and any regular student of the college is eligible for a tryout. The organization now has thirty-six members, including front and back stage crews.

The first big production of the club was "The First Year," by Frank Craven, the second will be "Sun Up," by Lula Vollmar, and the third, the Commencement play, is "You and I," a comedy-drama. The players have also produced two evenings of one-acts and have presented Professor Dewey Deal reading the modern play, "The First Mrs. Frazier," by John St. Ervin.

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

- 15-16—Registration. Everyone renewing old acquaintances, "Gee, I'm glad to see you back," and making new, "I'm sure you will like Buena Vista."
- 17—Classes start. Everything is just the same, except faces.
- 19—Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. hold a joint reception at the Gym. First football game and we defeat Doane 6 to 0.
- 30—First Sorority Rush Tea. Girls are very busy.

OCTOBER

- 4—Beavers go to Chicago and play De Paul. They only beat us 23 to 13. Pretty good for B. V. isn't it?
- 10—Have a real Pep meeting with Prof. Meek in charge. Casey says it is the first genuine Pep meeting he has seen for ages. We beat Upper Iowa 14 to 7. A. D. A. Frat celebrates by sponsoring a dance at the East End.
- 15—We have movies today. Mr. Partridge gives an illustrated lecture in Chapel on Yellowstone.
- 17—Beavers go to Decorah and are defeated by Luther 6 to 0.
- 22—Mass meeting in chapel to help B. V. Students certainly show the Beaver Spirit. Ray Mansfield to go to Cedar Rapids to see the Synod.
- 23—"I have the Beaver Spirit," on a yellow tag and otherwise. Homecoming is coming. Is everyone ready?
- 24—Homecoming begins. B. V. Players present three one-acts. Big bonfire at the Bradford Field.
- 25—Homecoming is here. Dean Benthin tells us of Russia. Parade is a sight to behold. The Campus is literally covered with those Beavers. St. Ambrose defeats the Beavers 19 to 13. Homecoming dance a huge success.
- 28—Supt. Clark and Mr. Edson talk to us this morning.
- 31—Prof. McLellan tells us of the mechanism of the Navy. Coach Casey makes a final plea for Beavers to be out to the game. Hurrah! We defeat Omaha U. 14 to 0.

NOVEMBER

- 4—Secy. of Commerce visits Chapel today. He advises us to obtain many shock-absorbers here at B. V. to serve us in the College of Hard Knocks in life.
- 6—Ethel Ingram reads two poems this morning. Coach Casey leaves with the Beavers for Dubuque. Oh, I hope we win, don't you?
- 7—Beavers are defeated by Columbia 20 to 12. Tough luck! I hear they had quite the exciting time, we'll have to ask the football men.

- 10—Mass meeting to urge students to attend the Citizens' Meeting next Wednesday evening. We will have to go and find out what it is all about.
- 11—Armistice. No school!
- 12—Drum Corps! Band! Parade! Beavers! Citizens' Mass Meeting! Is it a success? We are certain that it is. Committee of Fifteen is appointed to raise funds. B. V. must go on.
- 13—Beavers leave for Mitchell, So. Dakota. "Bon Voyage" Y. W. C. A. Pan Cake Supper and Bazaar.
- 14—Beavers are defeated by Dakota Wesleyan 12 to 7. We will take our spite out on Simpson for that.
- 17—Feminine Beavers sing to thank WA-TAN-YE for their gift of cash to B. V. It's a wonder they didn't thank us to leave.
- 18—Piersol chases the blues away and teaches us some new Pep songs.
- 20—Miss Deal gives us a very interesting reading of Green Pastures. Twilight dance.
- 21—Piersol's German band, in costume, plays for us. A future Beaver, Dicky Piersol, shows us how "Beavers Fight" will be sung, say, fifteen years from now. We have to beat Simpson.
- 22—Oh Boy, did we beat Simpson? The thrill that comes once in a life time. Score was 24 to 15. I can't write another word, would much rather yell till I'm hoarse.
- 25—What's this? We see scratched faces, black eyes, and lame legs. Oh, yes, Freshmen and Sophomore Field Day. Frosh got hard and defeated the Sophs 9 to 0. The second Twilight dance. We are having the best time.
- 26—Books, out of our way until Monday. Everyone looks hungry. They are thinking of that turkey.

DECEMBER

- 1—Tests! Juniors should be selling Midnight Oil this week. They'd make a fortune because there will be a lot used.
- 2—Dr. Bowe tells us about Brazil today.
- 4—Prof. Johnson gives us a studied picture of unemployment. Guess we will have to become mechanical men.
- 5—Inter-Sorority Dance. Good crowd! Good music! Good time!
- 8—Y. W. C. A. girls name their mouse "Peter."
- 10—Miss Deal gives an interesting reading of the play, "The First Mrs. Frazier."
- 11—High School Orchestra plays in Chapel. Cudahy's team walked all over the Beavers at a score of 46 to 11.
- 12—Mrs. Jane Caldwell presents an interesting program in Chapel.
- 16—Charles Bernheisel tells us of Korea. Conservatory of Music presents first recital.

18—Ila Welch plays violin solo. Twilight dance. Doane defeats the Beavers 32-17.

19—Dad's day. Vacation begins. So long for two weeks.

JANUARY

5—Christmas was too much for us. It seems impossible to settle down and study.

6—Howard Drury's brother tells us of B. V. back in 1914-1918.

8—Prof. Hurley gives us latest report of happenings in the scientific field. What will they do next?

9—Beavers off to Luther. Good luck!

10—Luther defeats the Beavers 31 to 19. On to St. Ambrose.

12—Beavers are defeated by St. Ambrose 32 to 22. Upper Iowa is next.

13—Defeated again by Upper Iowa 24 to 20. "Tough luck," I'd say.

14—Beavers return.

16—Juniors sponsor a very successful All-College dance in Victory Hall.

20—Prof. Johnson explains causes for business depression.

22—Second semester registration.

23—A good game if Upper Iowa did beat us 23 to 21.

24—Prof. Crawford gives us tips on preparing for exams.

25—Exams start. I wonder?

26—Tests? Please don't talk about them. Oh! what a beating Simpson takes. The Beavers show their old fight and come out victorious with a score of 38 to 21. Oh, Boy! Some game!

FEBRUARY

2—Second semester starts. We can all turn over a new leaf. B. V. Players present "The First Year."

3—Beavers and twenty-two Boosting Beaverites off to Le Mars. B. V. defeats them 29 to 24.

7—Simpson makes a comeback and defeats the Beavers 30 to 27.

9—Central defeats the Beavers 38 to 28.

10—Who named this "Hell Week?" He certainly deserves a medal.

12—Campus day. Many clever ideas. Buena Vista defeats St. Ambrose 24 to 23.

13—Rev. E. L. Smith tells us of China. Juniors sponsor another Twilight dance. Phi Alpha Pi has a dance.

14—Delta Phi Rho has formal initiation.

20—Juniors have Chapel and again earnestly make their annual plea. Of course, you're going to buy a Rudder. Beavers defeat Luther 31 to 28. Victory Hall was filled (I had to stand up). Register calls the Beavers the "Dope Upsetters."

21—Gamma Delta Chi gives a dance.

23—Chapel Choir broadcasts from WOI, also appears at Jefferson and Boone.

24—Student body elects the most representative man and woman. Jeannette Kline is chosen as Miss Buena Vista and Ray Mansfield as Mr. Buena Vista.

- 26—Twilight dance. Basketball men certainly have the Beaver Spirit. They defeat Western Union 32 to 25.

MARCH

- 3—W. A. A. sponsors Twilight dance. Those Flying Dutchmen certainly flew. Central defeats the Beavers 39 to 20.
6—Dr. Gran tells us of the trials and tribulations of a Physician. Junior Class gives a dance in the Gym.
13—Rev. Robinson gives us the ups and downs in the Ministry. Delta Phi Rho has a carnival dance.
14—Alpha Delta Alpha entertains at a dinner dance at the Bradford.
15—Morningside Chapel Choir presents splendid program at High School Auditorium.
17—Russell Sanderson from Marathon gives Les Grant's oration, "Education for the Good of Humanity." B. V. Players present three one-acts, "Rising of the Moon," "Frances or Francis," and "Rehearsal."
19—Music Conservatory presents Bernice DeBuhr in her Senior Recital.
24—Blanche Brobiel gives her oration, "For Knowledge and Godliness."
25—Buena Vista's orators and extempe speakers leave for Oskaloosa.
26—A very, very successful All-College Party.
27—Boggess, Harrison, Zemke, and Redenbaugh leave with Casey for the Drake indoor track meet.
30—Chapel Choir broadcasts from WOI.
31—Dean Trout brings us a greeting from Hillsdale College in Wisconsin.

APRIL

- 2—Easter vacation begins. Will see you again next Monday.
10—W. A. A. and Junior Class sponsor the annual Fools' Frolic.
16—Music Conservatory presents Irene Johnson in Recital. And Skip day!
17—Delta Phi Betas entertain at a dance.
20—Consecration Week begins with James Congdon of El Paso, Texas, as leader.
24—Pastors' Day. We have many visitors.
28—Faculty of Music Conservatory presents much appreciated Recital.

MAY

- 1—Mothers' day. We are trying our best to entertain them royally.
2—Y. W. C. A. has its May Day Supper. We all enjoy undertakings where eats are featured.
22—Phi Alpha Pi Spring Formal.
23—Gamma Delta Chi Spring Formal.
28—Senior Swing-out. Seniors leave B. V. for the ways of the world.
29—Farewell Chapel. Delta Phi Beta Spring Formal.
31—Baccalaureate Service. Y. M. and Y. W. have charge of evening service.

JUNE

- 1—Tree Day. May Fete. Commencement play, "You and I," by Phillip Barry.
2—Commencement and Alumni Banquet.
3-4-5—Again we have semester exams. For results we will wait. Patiently?
5—Alpha Delta Alpha Spring Formal. Delta Phi Rho Spring Formal. And another year is over. We hope the next one will be just like this. Wouldn't it be great?

Dean Banghart—"What do you know about nitrates?"
Walker—"Well, night rates are cheaper than day rates."

Nielsen—"Who said, 'We have come to bury Caesar, not to praise him?'"
Tymeson—"The undertaker."

Giegold (reading joke)—"Fancy this, Crose, a fellow here thinks that a football coach has four wheels."
Crose—"Haw! Haw! And how many has the blamed thing?"

Miss Russell—"How do you know that Byron wrote his first volume of poems while he was in college?"
Max Storck—"Easy! He entitled it 'Hours of Idleness'."

Rosie (at football game)—"Davis will be our best man before long."
Billy—"Oh Rosie, this is so sudden!"

"What are you thinking of, Bud?"
"Nothing much, Helen."
"Why don't you think about me, Bud?"
"I was, Helen."

Gwen—"Do you think you could learn to love me?"
Paul—"Yes, but the tuition is going to be high!"

Max Rinehart—"Let me have some ginger ale."
Waitress—"Pale?"
Max—"No, a glass will do."

Marsh—"Say Brute, if you found ten dollars in your pocket what would you think?"
Potter—"I'd think I had somebody else's pants on."

Prof. Smith—"What! Late again?"
Kallmer—"Yes, sir. You see, there are eight of us in our frat house and the alarm was only set for seven."

Ila Mae—"The man I marry must be square, upright, and grand."
Kennie—"You don't want a man—you want a piano!"

Billy (at 8 o'clock French class)—"Mr. Meek, may I be excused from class?"
Meek—"Why?"
Billy—"I don't feel well."
Meek—"Where?"
Billy—"In class."

Dramatics

(See also pages 52 and 68-70)

The second play of the year was "Sun-Up," a drama of the Carolina mountaineer. It was cast as follows:

Widow Cagle	Viola Keagle Wright
Emmy Todd	Ruth Biggins
Rufe Cagle	Myron Olsen
Pap Todd	Jack Giegold
Sheriff Weeks	Alfred Weber
A Deputy	Alva MacClintock
Bud	Miller Cornman
A Stranger	Lloyd Tymeson

The play was the heaviest and also the most superbly enacted play given by the B. V. Players this year. The play was very aptly cast and every character stood out as distinctive.

On Monday, May 4, 1931, the B. V. Players travelled to Sioux City to see the world-famed actress, Ethel Barrymore in a presentation of "The Love Duel." This excursion took the place of the usual dinner dance.

The closing play of the year will be "You and I," a comedy-drama, by Phillip Barry. As yet the cast has not been announced. The play will be given in connection with Commencement Week of the college.
