Donna Ohling Wins Conservation Speech Contest

Caleb Knutson, second from right, Hardin Soil Conservation District commissioner, presents Donna Ohling, a student at Steamboat Rock High School, the first place prize for finishing tops in the annual

Hardin conservation speech contest, sponsored by the local soil conservation district. Placing second was Jesse Mann, left, with Debbie Ehman, right, third. Mann and Miss Ehman are also students at Steamboat Rock High School. The contest was held Monday night at the Youth Building in Eldora. Miss Ohling now advances to the regional contest.
