The Freshmen had different things to do in the event of each day. One of the relays was to get into a shopping cart and your partner pushed you to a line and then back again.

Some of the freshmen even got together to get some strategy going for the next events coming up.

SOS spent part of their time at Lake Okoboji canoeing and just having a good time. Training was the tough part for the new SOS'ers, but each minute was a new experience.

Buena Vista College's football team dropped just two Iowa Conference losses in 1983 to finish Third in the title race, with seven Beavers named to All-Iowa Conference teams. After a stunning victory over the University of Dubuque and then two straight losses to Central and Wartburg, the Beavers picked up four consecutive wins for a 5-2 conference record. Wartburg and Central took top conference honors. Under the leadership of Coach Al Lewis, who stepped in for Jim Hershberger after he suffered a heart attack during the Dubuque game, Buena Vista came out the Conference team leader in offense with a 370.1 yard average per game. Defense proved strong as well, with the Beavers finishing only an average 1.1 yards out of first place for team defense behind Central. Dan Higley (So., Emmetsburg) finished second in total rushing with 688 yards. He tallied 240 yards in 33 carries against upper Iowa, breaking three school records.

They were foremost carries in a single game, 33; rushing attempts in a season, 213; and yards in a season, 906. Beavers receiving All-Iowa Conference first team honors were defensive players Jim Ewoldt (Sr., Paullina) and Bob Larson (Jr., Ventura), and offensive lineman Tim

Saulsbury (Jr., Sioux City). Named to the all-conference second team on offense were Higley, quarterback Kevin Twait (Jr., Emmetsburg) and lineman Kevin Stumpf (So., Fonda). Defensive end John Leinbaugh (Jr., Spirit Lake) also received second team honors. With

BUENA VISTA VOLLEYBALL TEAM

Buena Vista's volleyball team ended the 1983 season with a 6-23 overall record and a 3-11 conference mark, finishing low in Iowa Conference standing. Coach Harriet Henry says the squad improved with each outing, recording most of their victories late in the season. Melissa Landsness, who missed a lot of action due to an injury, was selected to the All-Iowa Conference second team. With 16 of 24 team members being freshman or sophomores this year, Henry expects a promising season in 1984.

For this year there was only one senior and she lead the team to a good season. This senior is from Britt and is an Elementary Education Major. Her name Sue Ellen Heslay, a leader and a good friend to the girls on the team. The volleyball girls and coach wish her luck and were glad she was apart of the 1983 team.

Concert Band and the Jazz Band took a short trip this year. Touring Northern Iowa and ending up in Minneapolis, Minn. The band stayed at the Normandy Inn. Most of the Band gathered at the Pool and they enjoyed the Jacuzzi the most. Reggie then invited all the band to join him for Dinner and giving the students a choice of BB ribs or Chicken. From there the students were on their own and they went to the singing Bar. There James Paulson played a tune on the piano and most of the students sang along. The trip lasted for Five days and proved to be very interesting! Maybe next year they'll go to Chicago?

BVC Choir 1984 Directed by Robert Pfaltzgraff.

For the choir the first concert they started preparing for was the Christmas Concert. Many of the students pitched in to build the set by Scott Oder directions and final touches were added a day before the concert. The weather played an important part. Many people came and it was our best.

For the Spring Semester the Choir prepared for the Spring Break Tour. While most students were relaxing over Spring Break, the Buena Vista College Choir was busy traveling through Western and Southern Iowa enroute to St. Louis, Missouri. The choir began its annual tour on Sunday, March 18, with the first stop being Sioux City.

On Friday afternoon, March 23, the choir reached its final destination the St. Louisian Hotel in downtown St. Louis.

"All in all I think the tour was a success, despite the weather and a few other minor problems," said Robert Pfaltzgraff, choir director. "The students spent a lot of time preparing and the receptions they received at all the high schools and the churches was well deserved."

The choir finished the year with a home concert in Schaller Chapel. Singing all tour music for family and friends.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

"Charley's Aunt" is one of the most-produced plays in all of dramatic literature, which is remarkable considering that the author could not find any backers to finance the play. Brandon Thomas, and a leading London comedian, W.S. Penley, were convinced that "Charley's Aunt" would be a tremendous success — unfortunately prominent London theatre managers thought otherwise.

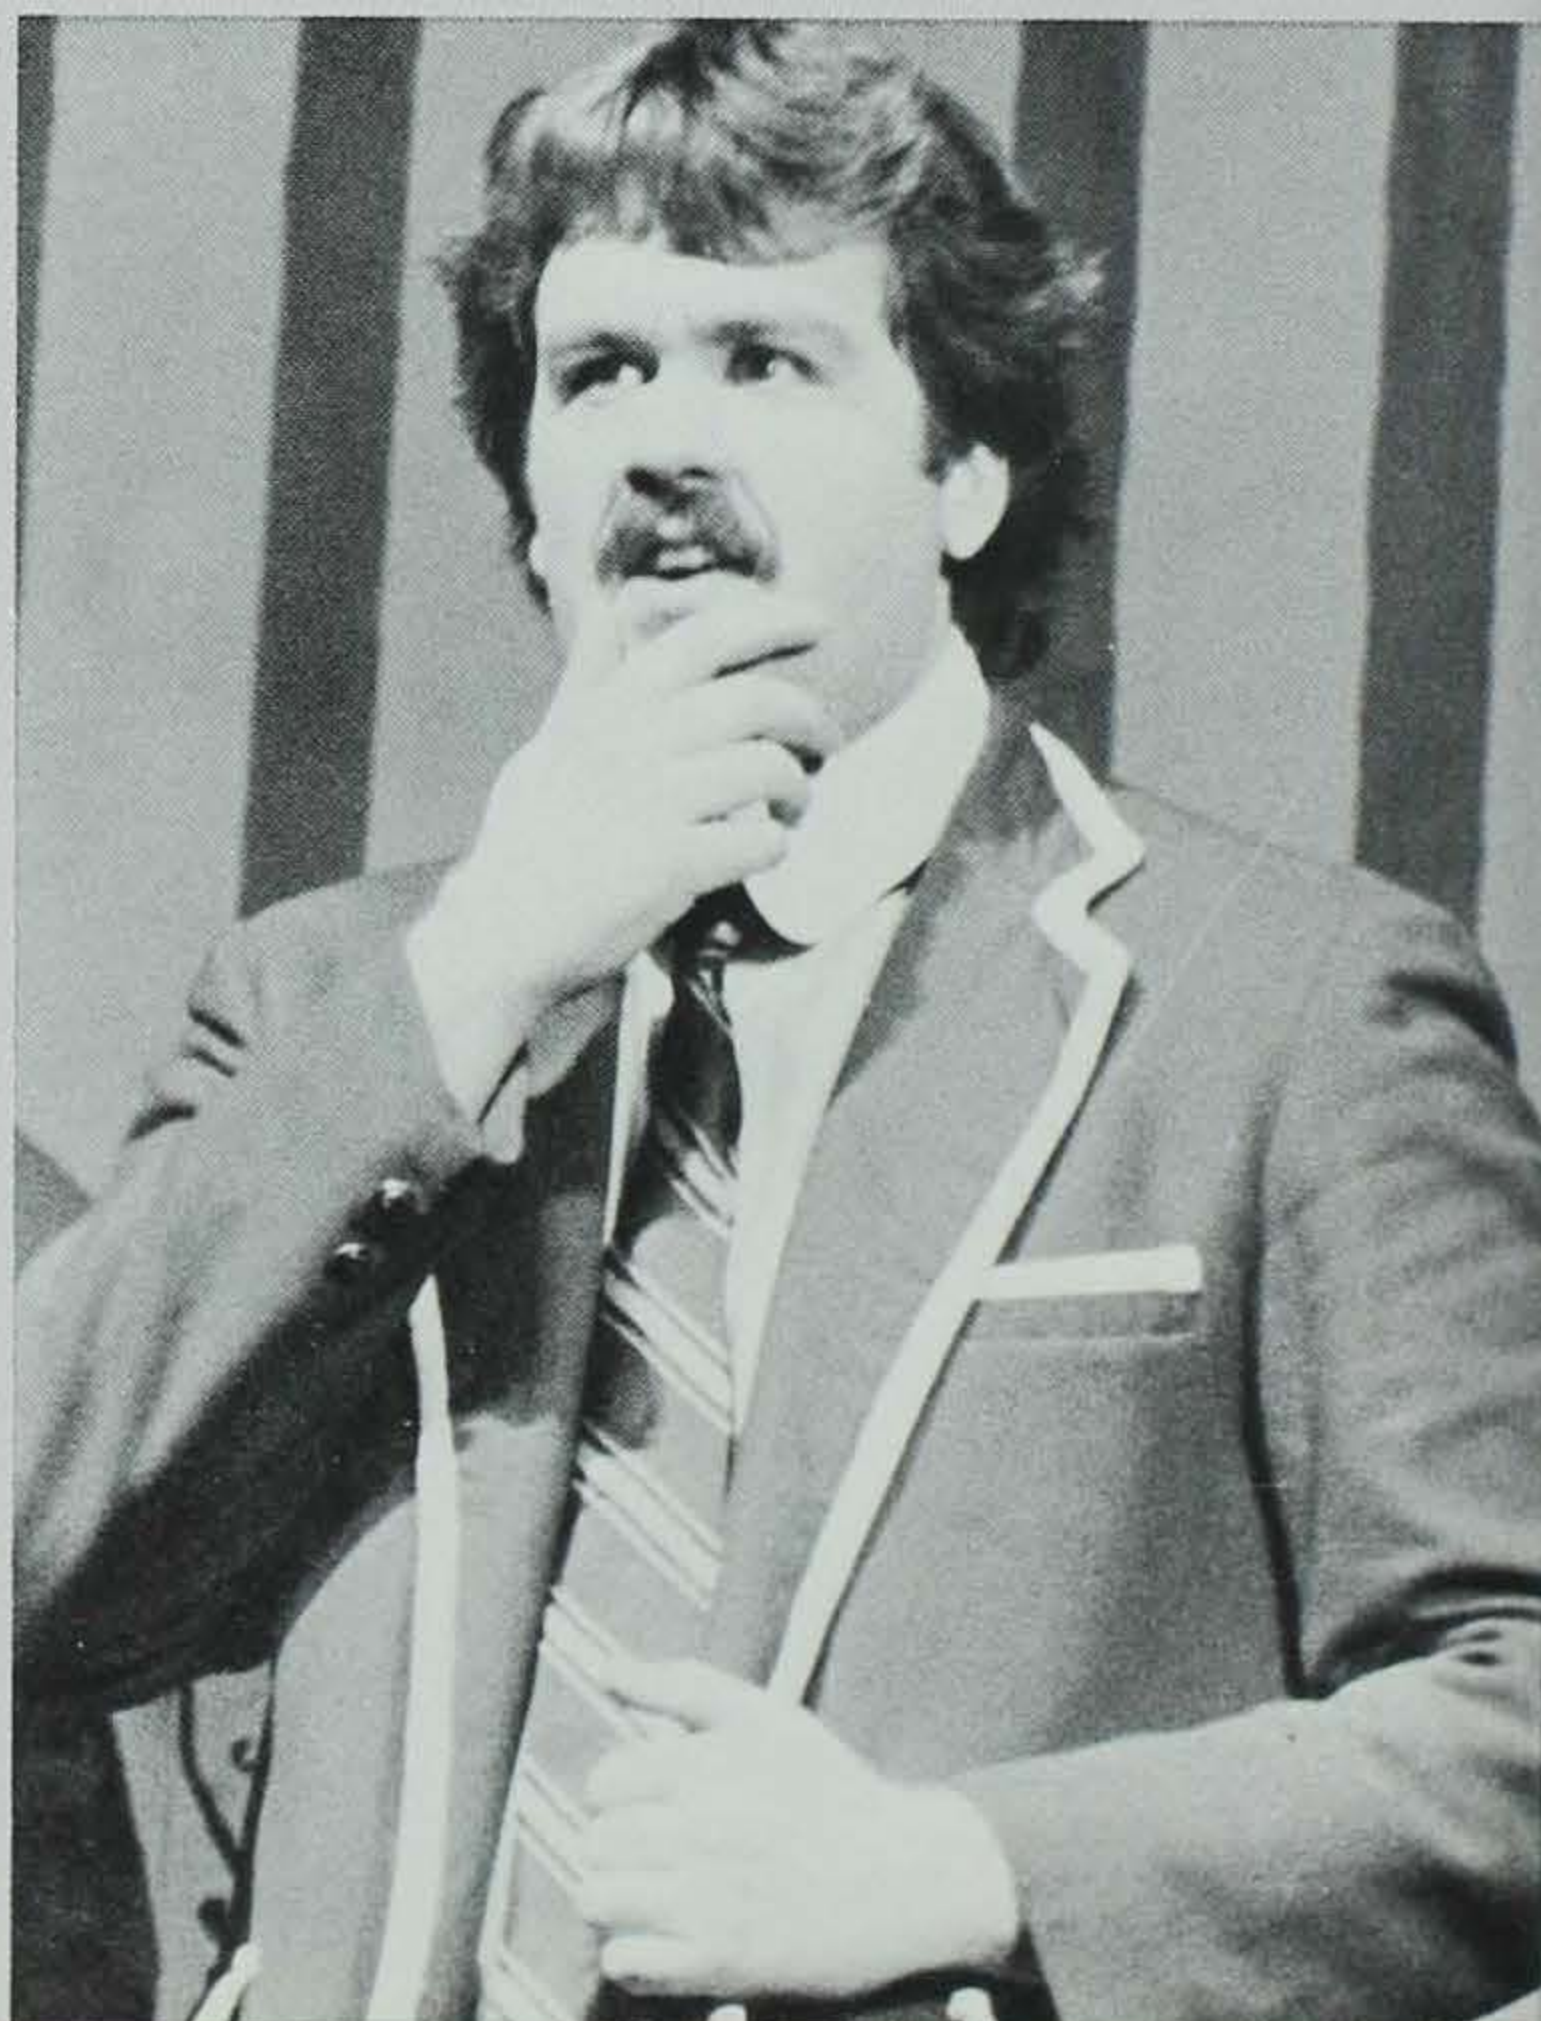

Thomas and Penley, however, were convinced that they had a gold mine on their hands and that the "experts" were wrong, so they decided to secretly try out the play away from London. The play was first presented at Bury St. Edmonds in February 1892 and "Charley's Aunt" was an immediate success.

The first London production was at the Royalty Theatre in December of 1892, where it proved so successful that it was transferred to the larger Globe Theatre. The original London run was four years — breaking all previous records. The New York premiere was at the Standard Theatre in 1893. The play has since then been translated into practically every foreign language and has been a success wherever it has been presented.

I want to thank several people for making this production possible. Tammy Said was her usual capable self in organizing the designs, and this is always appreciated. Donna Duncan, Steve Kuester, John Winkelman, Brent Schawl, and Shelly Rehder were a tremendous help in executing the designs. The Introduction to Theatre and Production and Performance classes deserve my thanks for helping to build and paint the set. Maribeth Osmanski was an invaluable help as Assistant Director, and I know the cast appreciated all of her hard work.

This will be Brent Schawl's last performance on the Buena Vista College stage. Brent has grown as a performer while at Buena Vista, and his talents will be hard to replace. This will also be Bert Peterson's last performance, and I wish he had become involved in the program much earlier. I know that Brent, Bert, and all of the cast and crew hope you enjoy the show.

NCAA DIV. III NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Buena Vista Softball and Coach Marge Willadsen are No. #1. That's right, after a second place finish in 1983 to Trenton State, the Beavers shrugged off an uneventful spring trip by rolling through the Iowa Conference schedule, tipping a tough University of California at San Diego team in the West Regionals, and then crushing Trenton State in the Championship at De Pere, Wis.

To coin the Jackie Gleason phrase, "HOW SWEET IT IS!" Buena Vista has three straight national tournament appearances in Willadsen's four years here. The loss in the final game last year may have motivated the players that little bit more they needed.

Buena Vista didn't 'rip' through the south on the annual spring trip. Willadsen likes to schedule rough opposition and this year, only one was in Division III. BV came back to Iowa with a respectable 4-6-1 record.

Nagged by the lack of hitting on the southern trip, (BV was shut out in five games), Willadsen returned a player to the roster she had cut from the team and hoped that the experience of her girls would prevent them from doubting their ability.

A doubleheader sweep of Westmar, including a 10-3 trouncing in the nightcap, appeared to give the Beavers the confidence they missed. The Beavers squashed Iowa Conference contender William Penn twice, split with Wayne State and reeled off 13 straight wins to win the conference and the league tourney. Of the 13 games, Buena Vista won nine by shutouts.

Selected as the site to host the West Regional (the west region covers everything this side of the Mississippi River), the Beaver's opposition consisted of UCSD and Augsburg College of Minnesota.

UCSD and BV quickly disposed of the Auggies by 10-0 and 2-1 scores. UCSD then put a foot up in the tournament with a solid 5-2 defeat of Buena Vista at the conclusion of the first day.

Faced with elimination going into the fifth inning of the next days game, the Beavers scored their biggest inning of the year, not in runs but in confidence.

UCSD's Vanessa Davis had handcuffed BV batters the night before. She pitched both games and the contest Saturday was her third straight.

Main Jo Ratchford walked with one out in the fifth. She was sacrificed to second base and scored when Libby Kestel ripped a 2-2 pitch for a double, BV's most important hit of the year. Jeanne Demers, with the crowd sensing the bats coming alive and on its feet, rapped a two-bagger over the centerfielder's head. Sheryl Book's single past Davis into center scored Demers and BV led 4-1. The Beavers held off UCSD, 4-2.

Chanel Finzen won it and Willadsen decided to go with the senior again. Finzen didn't fail, sending BV to the nationals by pitching a fraction over 5 innings and allowing only two runs. Buena Vista scored twice in the first and five in the second off Davis to rout UCSD 11-4.

Finzen was the story of the national tournament. Willadsen had sophomore Sam Meier on the bench. Meier was 8-2 overall, with a perfect 7-0 record in the Iowa Conference and a 0.00 era in the league. She had been roughed up by UCSD in their first meeting but Willadsen knew she could go to her in a pinch. She didn't need to.

Finzen shut down Calvin College of Grand Rapids, Michigan and Eastern Connecticut State by 1-0 tallies. Jackie Jerkovich scored the winning run against Calvin College in the fifth inning on a single by Shelly Barr, the player Willadsen asked to return to the team. Kestel beat ECS with a run — scoring double in the first inning.

Trenton State posed the next Threat to Buena Vista. The Lions had impressive numbers; a 44-1 record, 29 shutouts and a 34 game winning streak. The Lions also owned a couple of first team All-American pitchers — something which may have given the slighted, second team selection Finzen, added incentive.

The game that ensured may have been the best in the history of softball and most certainly in Buena Vista history. Fourteen innings of scoreless ball mixed with stingy defense and overpowering pitching were seen. TS had chances through six innings. They should have taken advantage of them because from the eighth through the fourteenth, Finzen retired 21-22 batters.

Trenton State's Gina Lamandra was also effective, facing more than four batters in just one inning, that due to a Trenton error. It was the Trenton defense that fell apart in the fifteenth.

Willadsen put it this way, "The best team won, our hitters made some All-Americans make the mistakes. This has to be the best game of the players' entire lives."

Willadsen was a little light on the Trenton State Defense. They didn't commit SOME errors, they blew FIVE chances. In other words they gave Buena Vista eight out in the inning and by all means, the Beavers helped the Lions to self destruct.

Three straight errors to open the inning resulted in one BV runner thrown out at the plate and runners on first and second. A sacrifice fly left people on third and first and the winner scored when Ratchford's ground ball was booted. Kestel singled for an insurance run after another error to win the game 2-0.

Trenton State eliminated ECS later that night in nine innings. Buena Vista claimed the championship the next day by whipping Trenton State's other All-American, Rose Kalisak, 3-1. The winner? Chanel Finzen. Demers gave BV a 2-1 lead in the fourth with a two-run double and she scored on a single to right by Book.

Finzen was terrific in the tournament. She pitched 36 innings, allowed one earned run and 17 hits for an ERA of 0.19. The second team All-American, first team All-Tournament, All-West Region and All-Iowa Conference selection grew stronger as the playoffs progressed.

About the tournament Willadsen said, "Records don't mean a lot at this stage, everybody that is here from the six regions is good. We put Trenton State in the same position we were in last year. I knew if we could get a couple of runs for Chanel, we would be able to hold it. She's phenomenal and should have been a first team All-American."

Honors were many for Beaver players. First team All-Americans were Demers at third base and Kestel at catcher. Named to the All-Tournament team were Finzen, Kestel and Mingus.

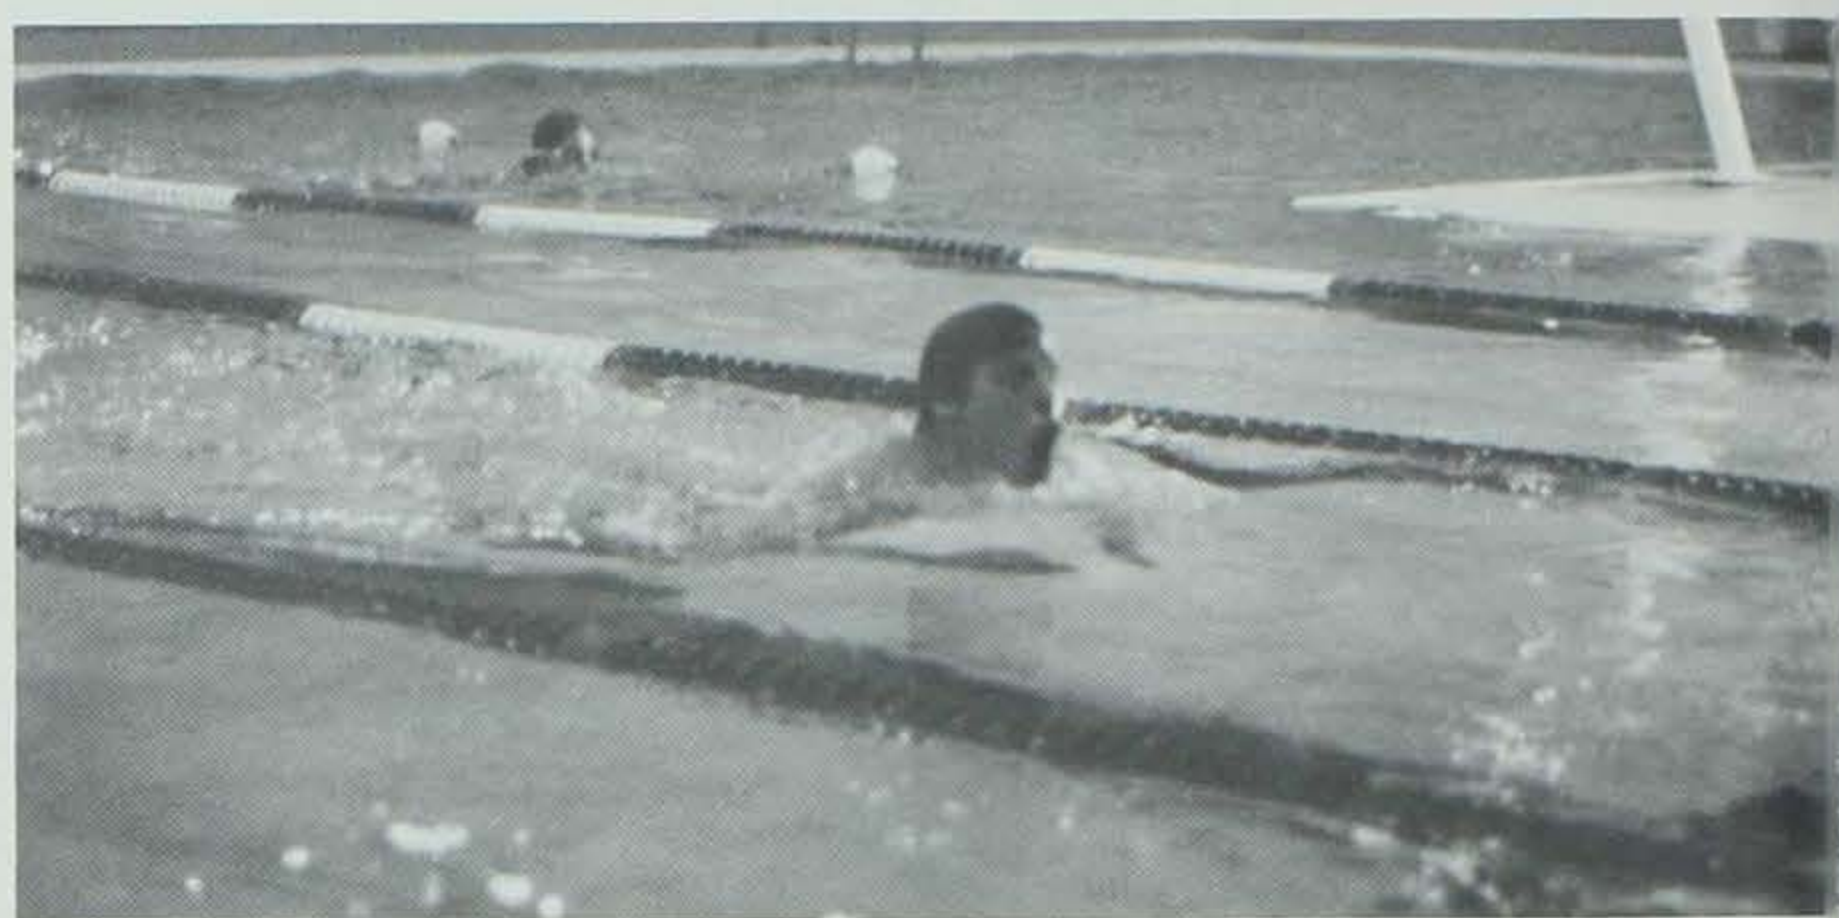

All-West Region: Finzen, Kestel, Demers, Joy Johnson, and Jackie Jerkovich. All-Conference: Finzen, Kestel, Demers, Johnson, Jerkovich, and Susan Mingus and Meier. Named to the second team All-Iowa Conference team were Barr and Ratchford.

DRILL TEAM 1983-84

This past year marked the beginning of the Buena Vista College Drill Team. The idea of a college drill team came about last year when a group of 16 girls, under the direction of Vicki Miller, gave two performances during half times of a men's and women's basketball games. Since the initial performances, the drill team presented five routines which were choreographed by co-captains Vicki Miller and Diane Raymer. The first two performances were during half time shows of the Homecoming football game and the last home game of the season. Basketball season gave the squad their next chance to perform three more of their routines. The drill team performed at West Bend's Drill Team Night and at Alta's Drill Team Night, besides hosting their own drill team night. On this night the Squad performed all routines done during the year along with a special light routine. Squads from West Bend, Alta and Storm Lake. St. Mary's also performed as well as a group of Buena Vista Guys known as Tightfeet.

HOG JAM '84

Some Wild and Crazy BV Students!!!

What can we say, We're so talented!

HOG JAM '84

Hog Jam started out with a Bang! Being held at Industrial Park and arranged mostly by Julie Lauck. There tickets sold and more than enough people came to make it a very exciting event. There were three bands that played and kept the students partying. There was an estimate of over 600 students. A lot of beer was drank and a lot of food was eaten. Once the evening sky began to appear there was a Boom-fire started. The Bands played on and the students were getting tired and many began to drift back to the dorms. What a party!

Coach John Naughton's Buena Vista College women's basketball team ended its season as the top offensive club in the Iowa Conference, averaging 75.3 points per game, with two players receiving all-conference recognition.

Freshman guard Jeannie Demers (Storm Lake) who led the league in scoring with a 24.2 average, was named to the IIAC first team. Junior forward Tara Bertram (Storm Lake) was selected as a member of the second team all-conference.

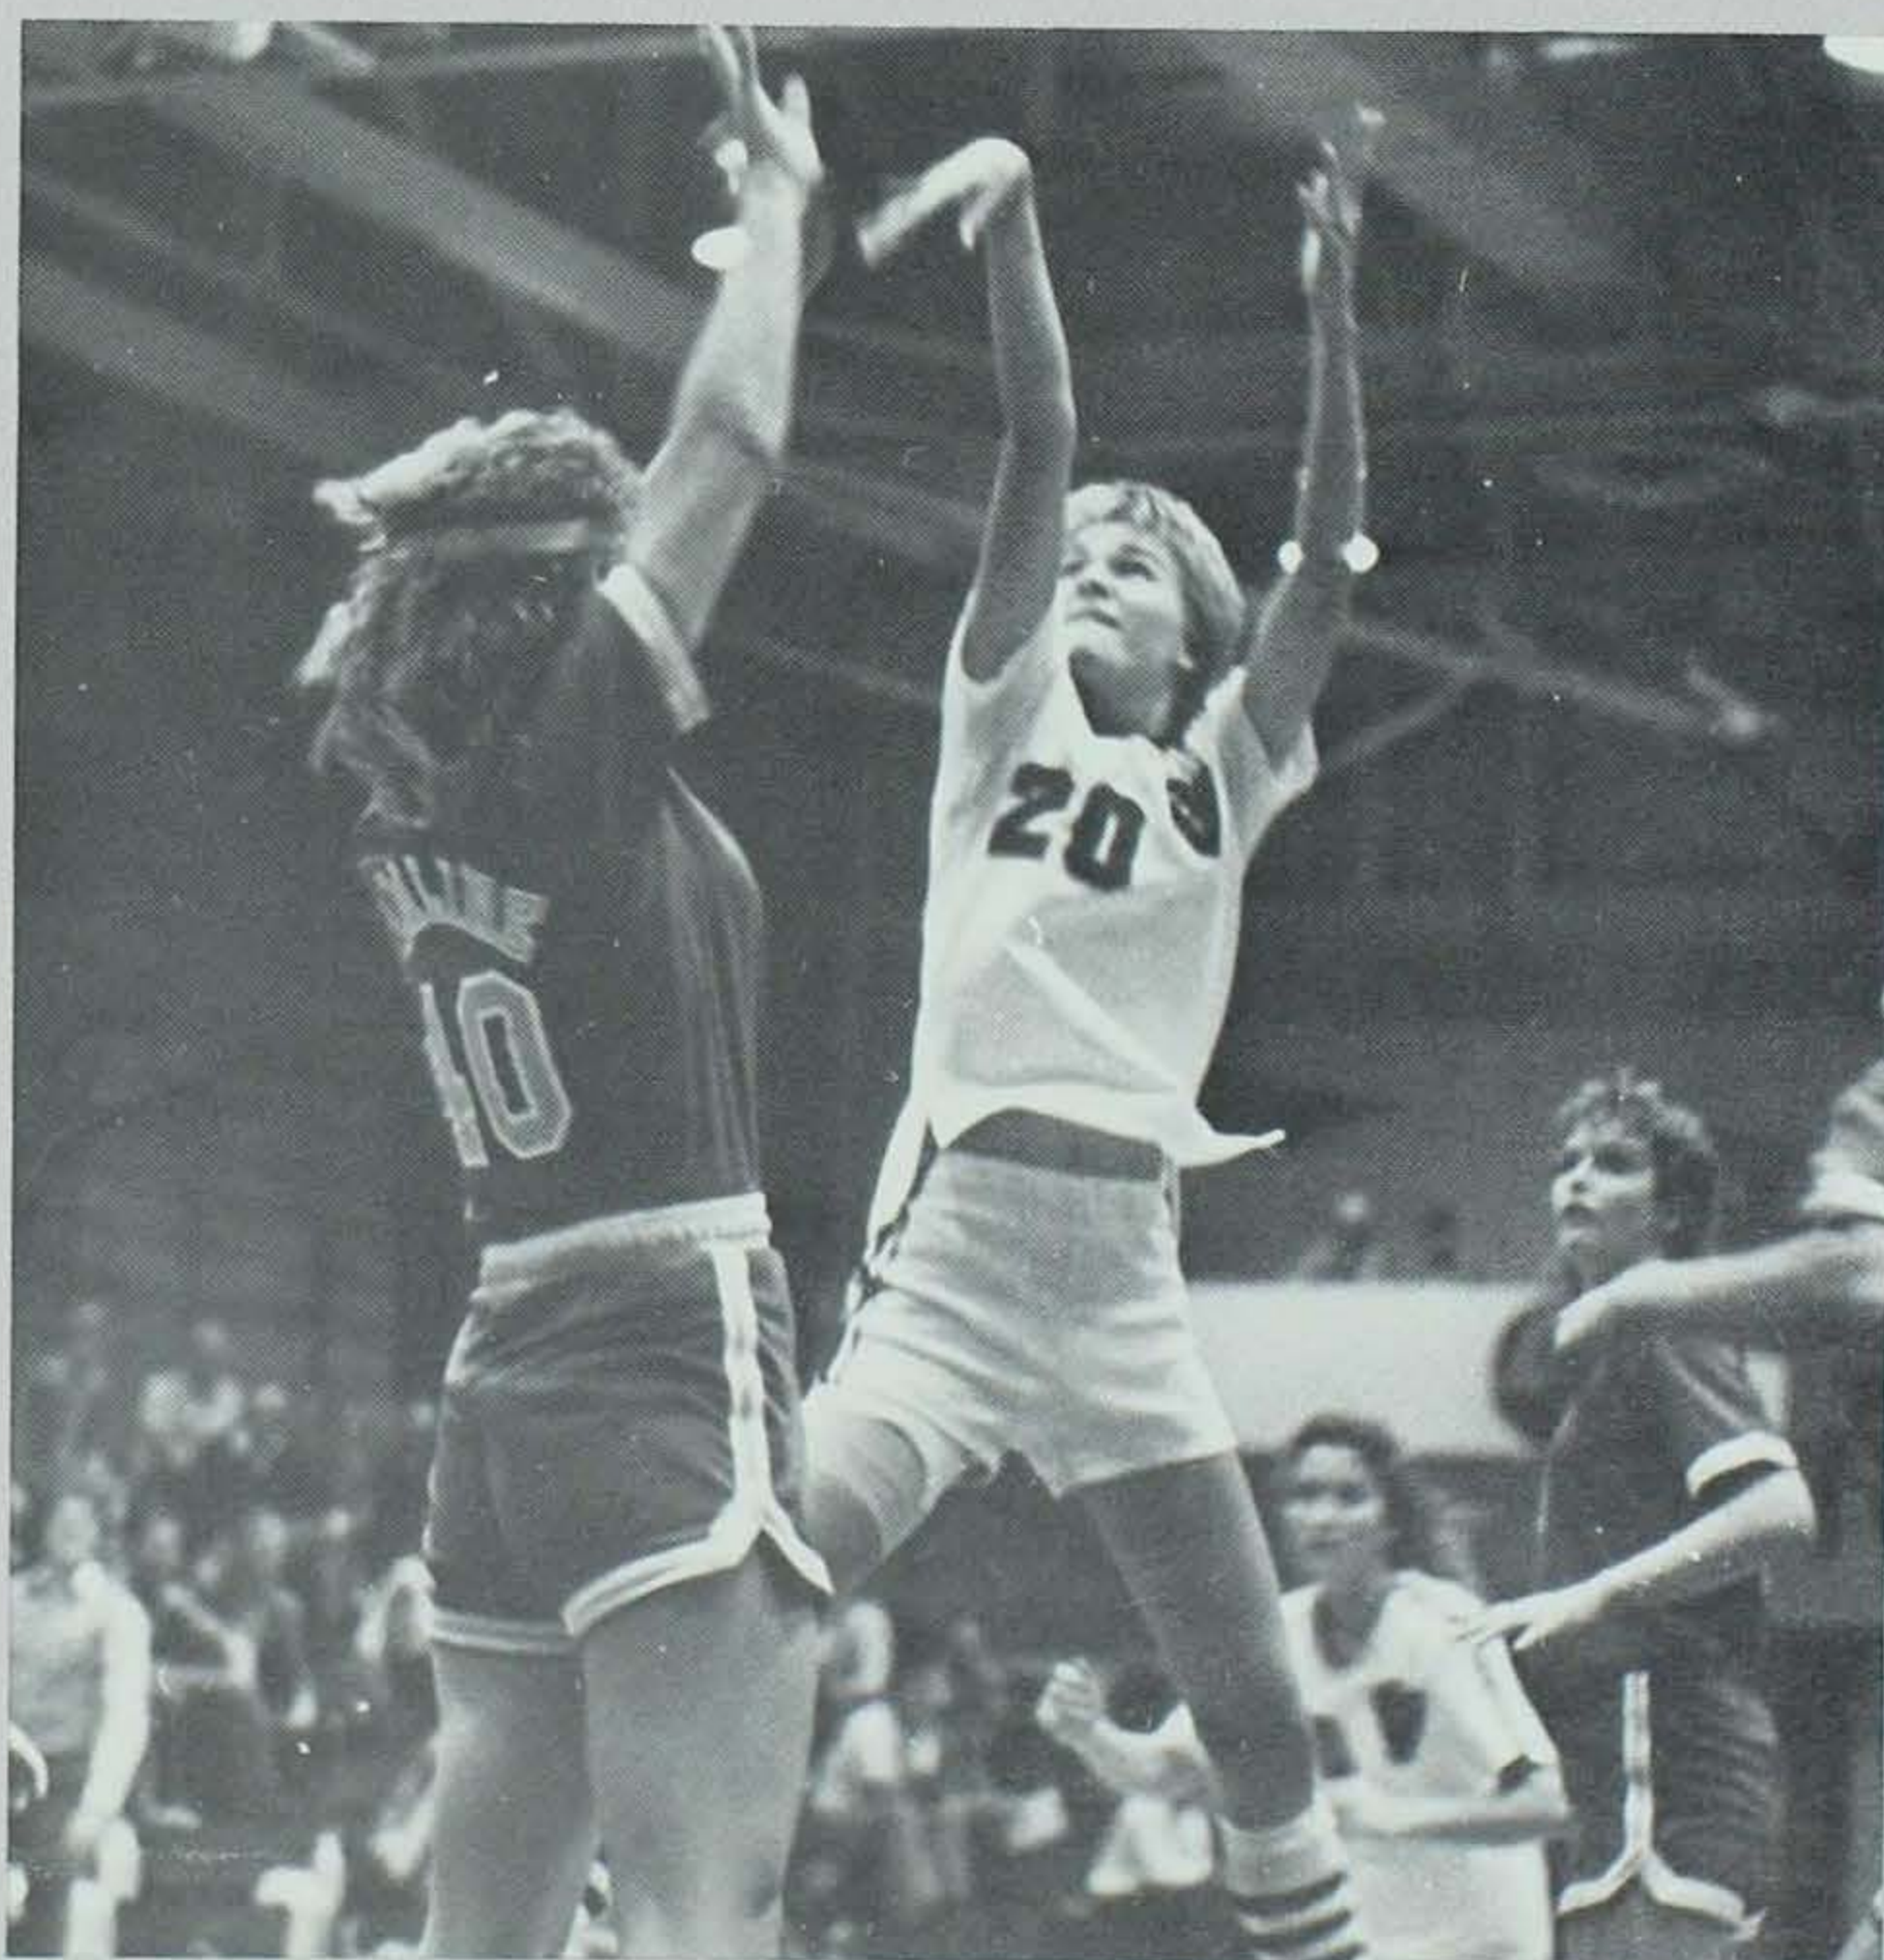

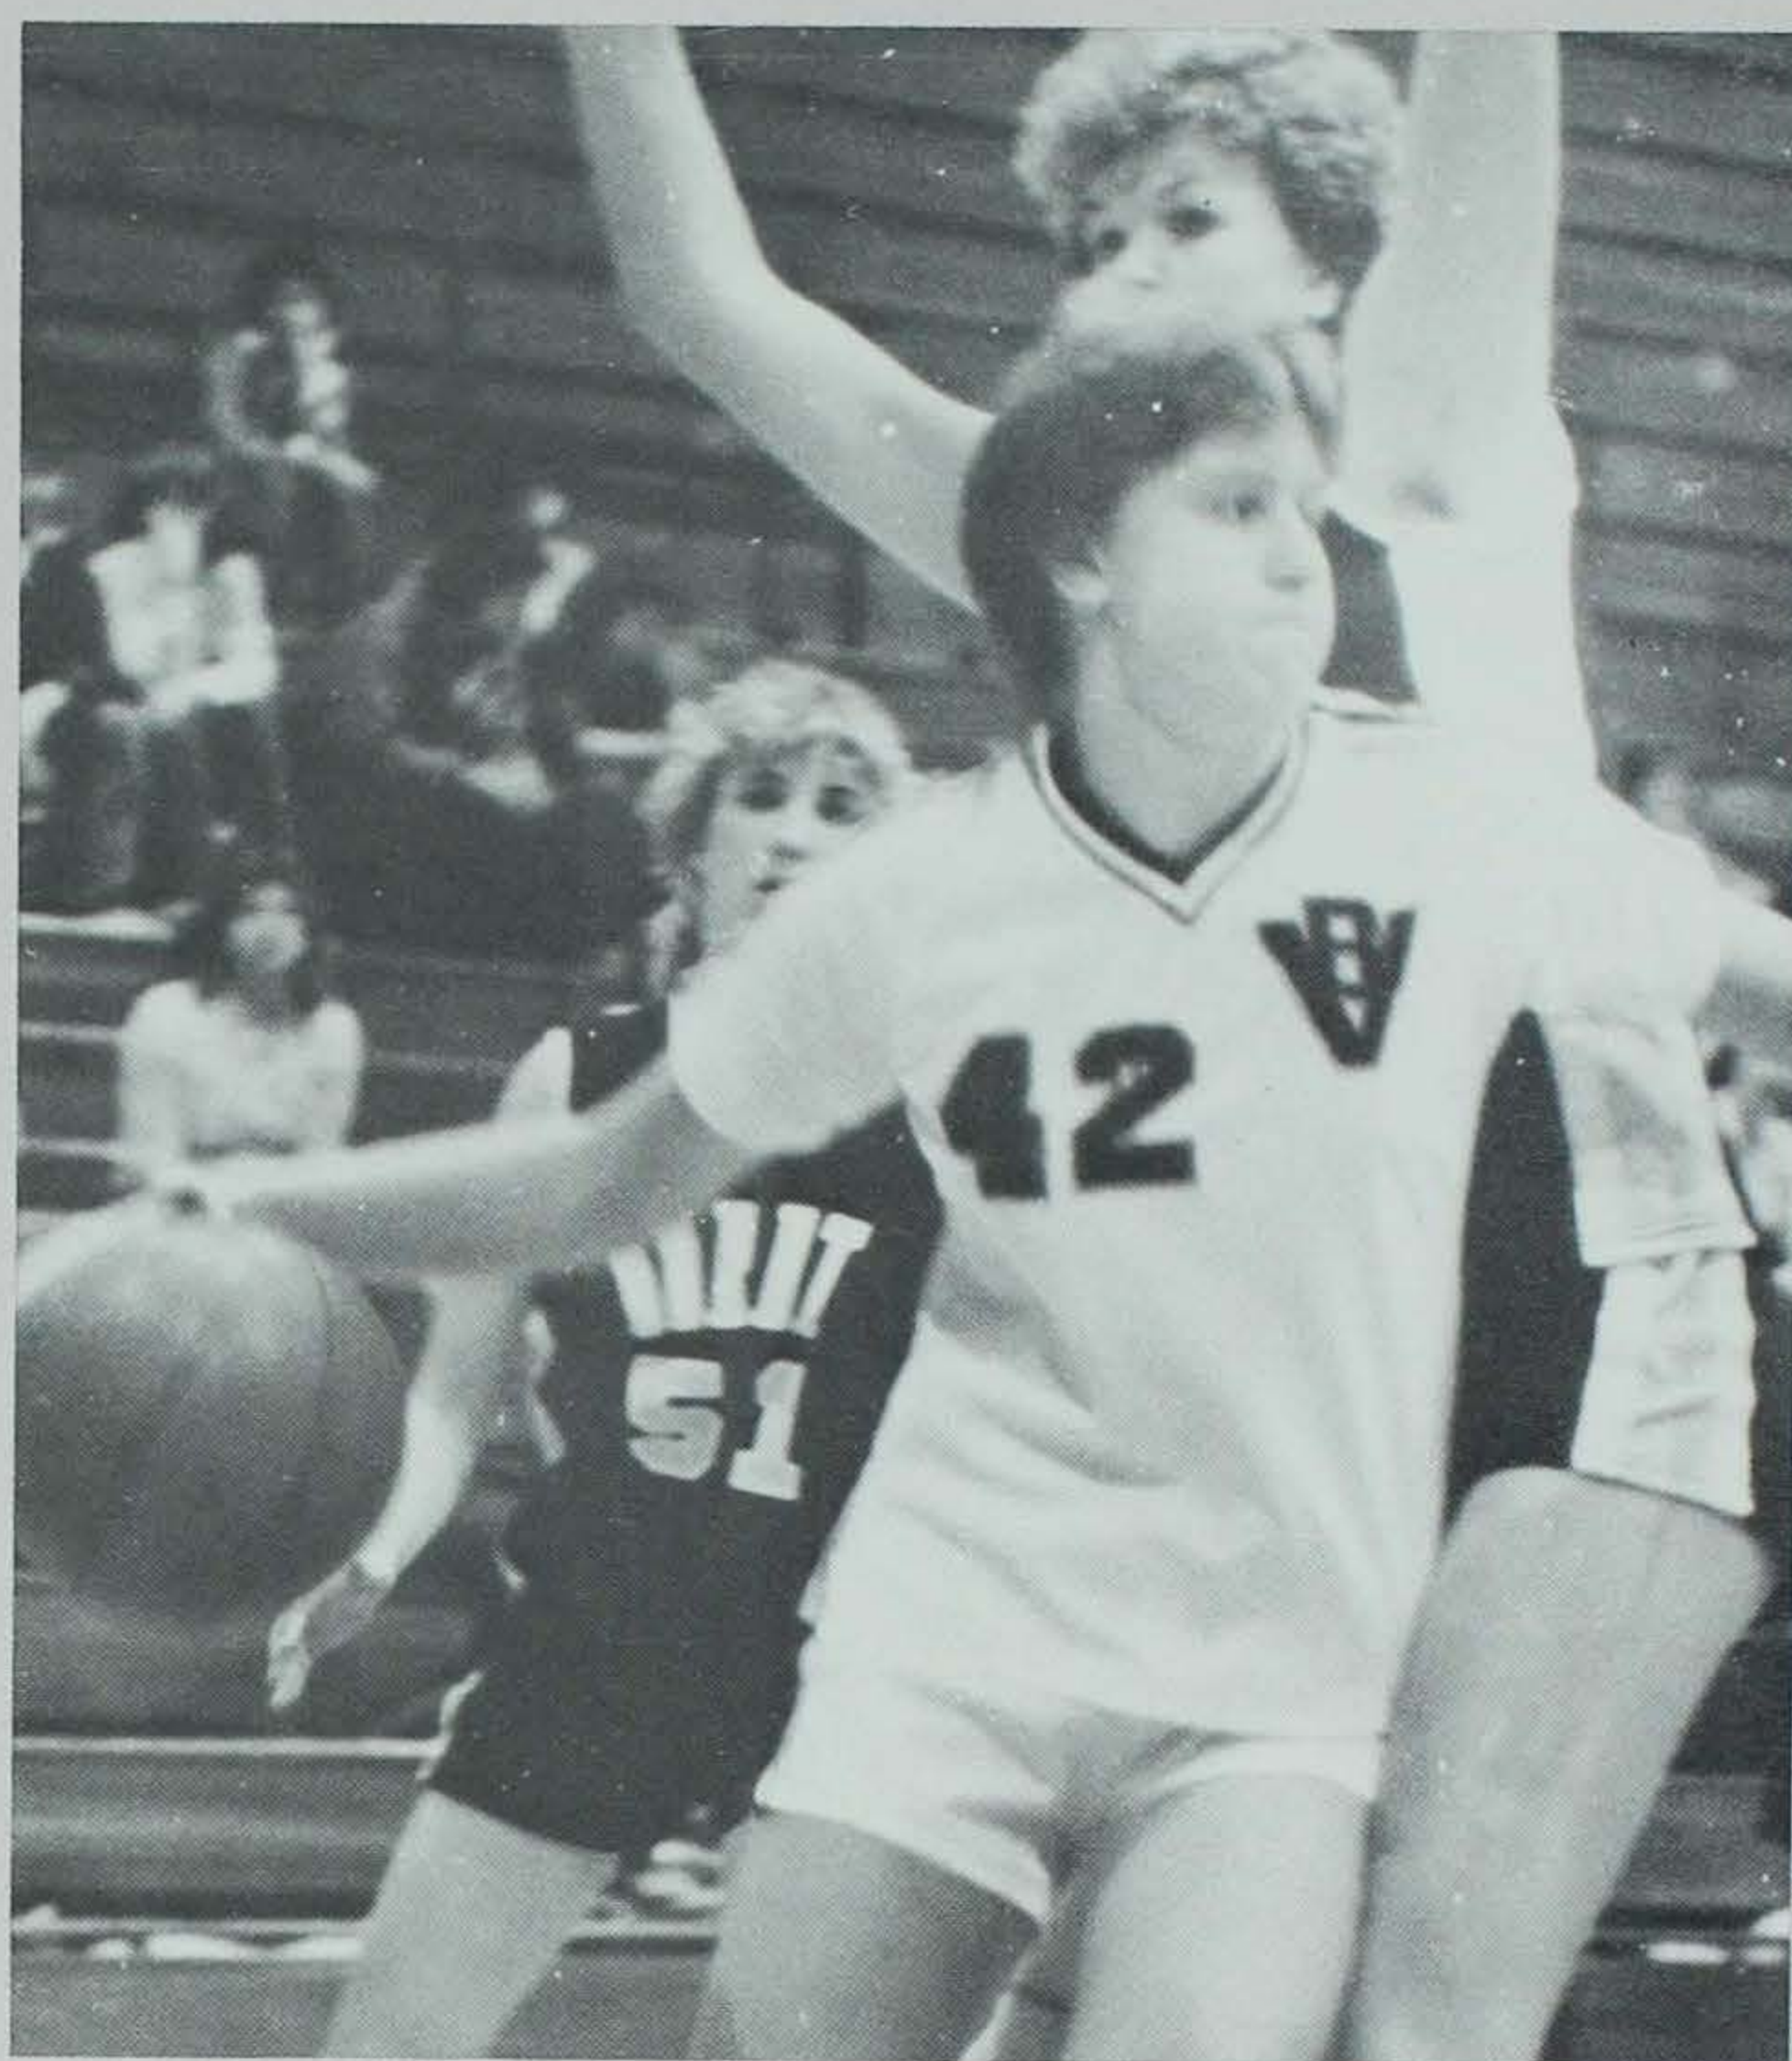

Demers set two school records during the season, with a single game high of 40 points against Upper Iowa and 20 field goals in that same contest.

The women had a chance to be spoilers in the league race as they were pitted against William Penn and Central the final week of action but were unable to pull upsets against the top two finishers.

The Beavers finished the season at .500 in the Iowa Conference with a 7-7 mark and were 16-10 overall.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

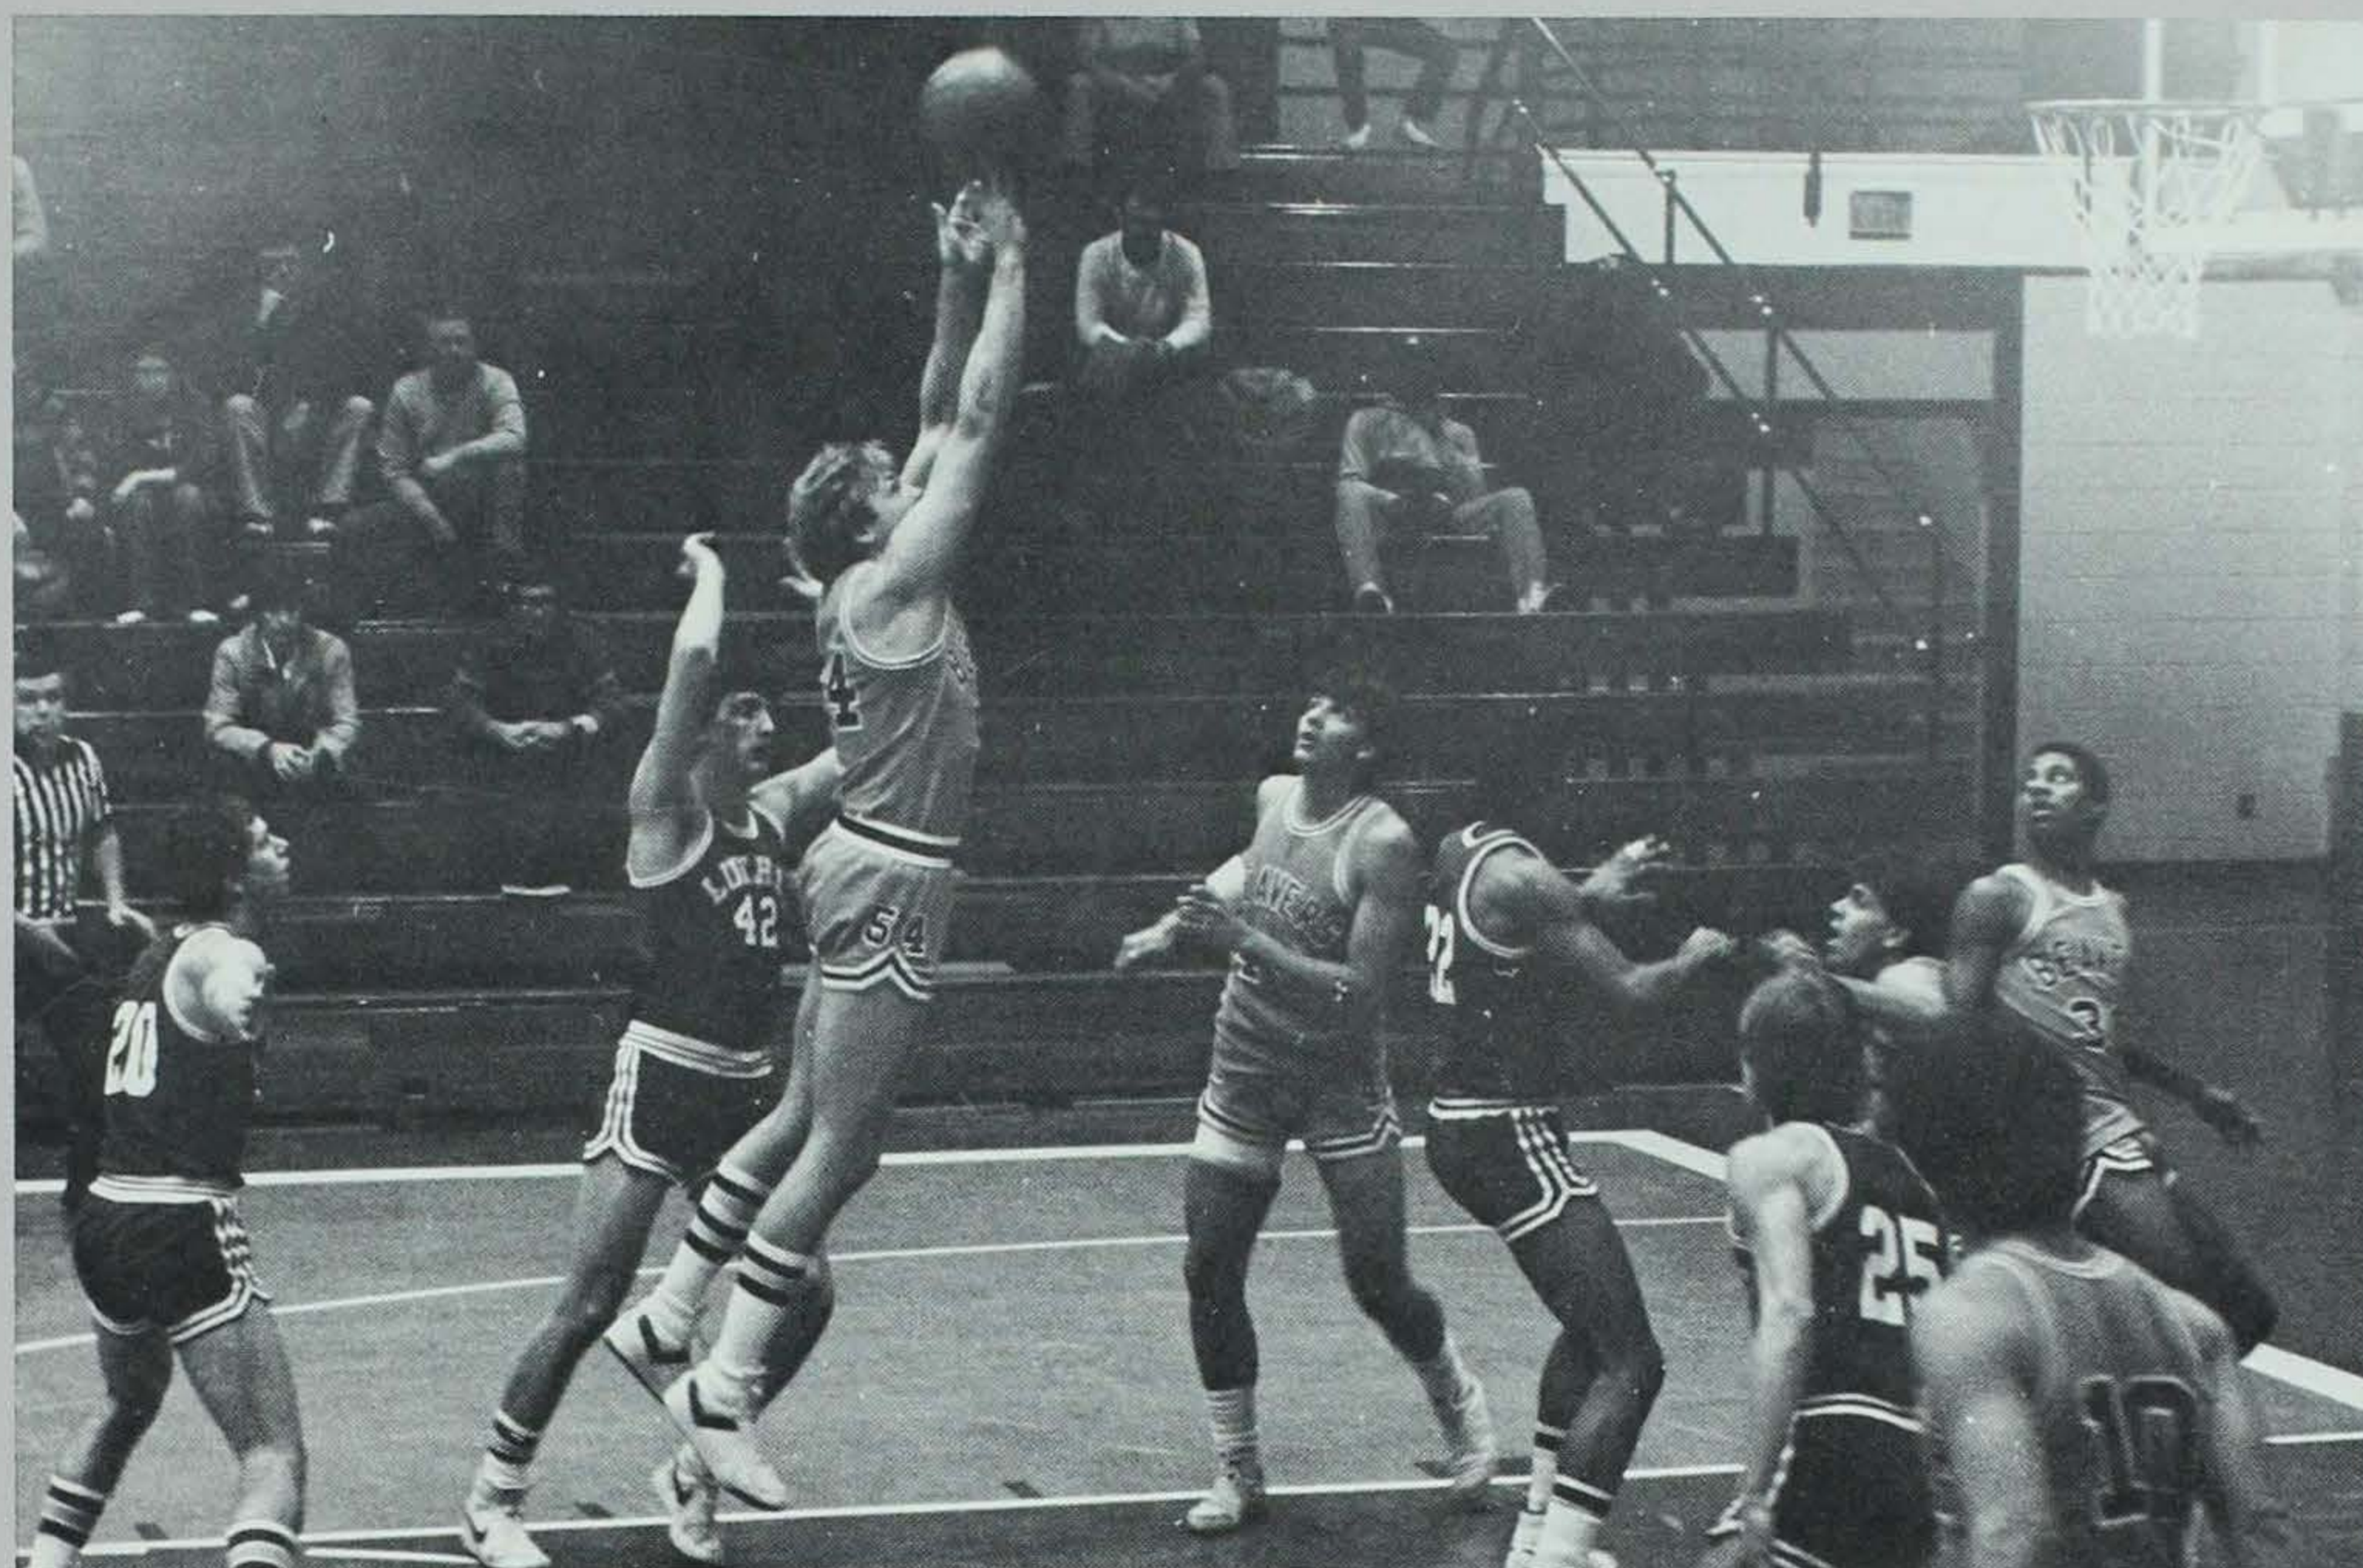

No one knew what to expect from the Buena Vista men's basketball squad heading into the 1983-84 season. With a new head coach and an almost entirely different lineup, things were bound to take on a new look.

Although the Beavers ended the 1983-84 campaign with an overall record of 4-22 and a conference mark of 4-10, their record was in no way reflective of the type of season Coach Jeff Spielman and the Beavers has as they dropped several games by narrow margins.

After going 15 games without a victory, the Buena Vista College men's basketball team swept a pair of victories from Dubuque and Upper Iowa. The Beavers picked up their third consecutive Iowa Conference win with a 70-66 tally over Simpson the following week and recorded their fourth victory late in the season on a road trip to Lafayette against Upper Iowa.

In the final game of the season, the Blue and Gold traveled to Central to take on the co-runners-up in the Iowa Conference. The Beavers lost a "heartbreaker," 71-69, but not before they had taken the Flying Dutchmen into overtime.

Buena Vista finished third in team rebounding in the Iowa Conference, while Mike Grintjes (Jr., Milwaukee, Wis.) led the league with an 8.9 average.

Grintjes also led the Beavers in scoring with a 16.8 per game average. He was rewarded for his efforts by being selected to the first team All-IIAC. Coach Spielman has 17 players returning in the 1984-85, including 13 letterwinners.

Naughton combined with Les Wolff, Paul Keen, Matt Yeager and Shawn Witcombe to help the Beavers pull a third place in the conference meet at 636. Wolff averaged 78.4; Keen, 80; Witcombe, 80; and Yeager 85.

MEN'S TENNIS

The 1984 men's tennis team ended the season on a disappointing note. The Beavers were 7-5 in duals, but were sixth in the Iowa Conference Tournament.

Brad Hill finished fourth in singles play, and the doubles team of David Coppock and Todd Kloewer also tallied a fourth. Keith Brown finished with the best singles record of 9-5. Craig Meier and Hill were each 8-7 and Jim Schuerkamp 5-2. Coppock and Kloewer combined for a 7-4 doubles record.

Brown, Meier, Hill, Coppock, Kloewer, and Brian Goerzinger return in 1985 to help Coach Carl Adkins keep his program on the rise. Adkins took over four years ago when he had only three players out. After two sub .500 seasons, he went 8-8 in 1983.

Briscoe's October Visit (STAY)

President Briscoe decided he would visit the students, so he moved on campus for a month.

He joined the students in their meetings and even got some opinions, gave many answers to questions students wanted to know about.

He enjoyed his stay very much and thanks to Rich Atkinson for letting President Briscoe stay in the assistant head residents apartment.

A Small Note From Your Editor!

To Students, Faculty and Staff:

Your 1983-84 Beaver Log is a package of memories; 168 pages of your college days at Buena Vista College. Your growth and development was reflected in the growth and development of BVC Campus. You will continue to change, as will this campus. But your memories of 1983-84 will remain here for you, unchanged over time.

I want to thank my 1985 Log staff, the Public Relations Office and Bob Lorimor for providing stories and pictures for this annual. Special thanks to Gary Musgrave for helping us complete the book. Once again, I would like to say, "Enjoy your book and may your memories be grand."

Thank you,

Dawn Steven
