

Warren County Soil and Water Conservation District 1987 - 44th Annual Report - 1987

Conservation Activities in 1987

The District Commissioners' regular monthly meetings are held the first Tuesday of each month. These meetings are open to the public. Commissioners call special meetings for various activities, attend Regional, State and Badger Creek Watershed meetings.

The District Commissioners attended the Ames Short Course Jan. 20-21 and the Badger Creek meeting on Jan. 27.

The District provided a scholarship for Susan Ogland to attend the Teacher's Outlook Workshop on June 21-26.

The Commissioners met with the ministers and laymen of Warren County at Crouse Cafe on May 6, 1987, regarding Soil Stewardship Week held May 24-31, 1987.

The Commissioners attended the Regional Meeting at Bakers Cafeteria in Des Moines on Sept. 9.

The Mid Iowa No-Till Show was held Jan. 15-16 at the State Fairgrounds.

The District provided a scholarship for the Youth Conservation Camp.

Arlan Becker participated on a panel with other farmers at the conservation tillage exhibit at the Farm Progress Show.

On Sept. 9, the District co-sponsored a Field Day for Ridge-Till Demonstration plots on the Tom Hanks farm.

Ray Pehrson, chairman resigned as District Commissioner. Mike Finck of New Virginia was elected District Commissioner.

John Goodhue

son of Darrell and Evadne Goodhue, won the District Essay Contest in 1987. John placed first in both District and Regional competition with his essay entitled "Soil and Water — Key To Our Future."

We are proud of our youth taking a special interest in soil conservation.
