W4²412X2 Donald Mac Kay Rippey, Jr. is now Extension Agent— Resource Management with the New Jersey Corp. Extension Service, Ruthgers University in Ocean County, New Jersey, whose seat is Toms River. They live in Lakewood.

W4²412X3 John Newton Rippey is a professor, teaching journalism in the Pennsylvania State Universtiy, State College, Pennsylvania. They reside in nearby Pine Grove Mills, Pennsylvania.

W4²412X Lydia Anna Wehrman went to Town of Center and Binghamton Schools. While attending Binghamton School, she stayed with her sister, W4²4124 Antonia Wehrman Harts-worm. She took a business course and worked in Washington, D.C., where she met her husband-to-be, Donald Mac Kay Rippey, very romantically, on an excursion boat.

The following is a short background on Donald Mac Kay Rippey, Sr.: Beginning in the year 1776, Mary Orson, 18, lived with her parents in Reading Township, County of N.Y., Province Pennsylvania. She was born in 1758 and in 1776 is engaged to Jonas Lightly, who lived in the same township and acquired 124 acres of land in 1775 for the sum of 225 pounds. He was serving in the Military under Captain Albright of York Town. It is presumed that it was a Militia Unit-he died in 1776 and there is no record of cause of death. It is recorded that he willed his property and possessions to Mary Orson.

After his death, she married John Rippey, sometime before the end of 1776. It is established that the first Rippey families came west, probably from Philadelphia, to the vicinity of Shippensburg, Cumberland Co., Crossing the Susquehanna River at Harris' Ferry (now Harrisburg).

Mary Orson and John Rippey became the parents of thirteen children, namely, (twins) Anna, Margaret, Matthew, George, Rebecca, John, Hugh, Sarah, Mary, William, Isabella, Martha and Joseph, born between the years 1778 and 1799. The Rippey genealogy notes that the union of Mary and John Rippey, having produced (7) seven daughters and (6) six sons, in turn, produced (93) ninety-three grandchildren, a seven-fold increase. In 1931, there were listed 801 individuals, plus 338 joining the line by marriage, making a total of 1139 as of that date.

In 1806, John Rippey was 57, Mary was 40, when they left their home and journeyed northward, mother, father, and nine children, to Seneca Township, Ontario Co., NY. Donald Mac Kay Rippey, in his "Susquehanna Saga," speaks of this largely Scotch-Irish family. The "Saga" tells in detail of the events in the lives of this historic family, I regret that I cannot include all of it. Following is the ancestral line of Donald Mac Kay Rippey:

1. JOHN RIPPEY, b. 1749, m. 1776, d. 1826
MARY ORSON, b. 1758, d. 1832
2. WILLIAM RIPPEY, B. 1791, m. 1821, d. 1856
MARY HAYES, b. 1800, d. 1870
3. JOHN NEWTON RIPPEY, b. 1839, m. 1864, d. 1911
ANNA MACKAY, b. 1844, d. 1918
John was a Doctor of Medicine, ordained minister of the Episcopal Church, Assistant Surgeon, 31st N.Y. Volunteer Infantry-Battle of Chancellorsville, VA, and 1st N.Y. Veteran Cavalry.
4. CHARLES MAC KAY RIPPEY, b. 1865, m. 1895, d. 1953
MARY AGNES STEPHENS, b. 1868, d. 1949
Charles was a reporter, editor, editorial writer in Washington, D.C. Published the Herndon, VA, "Observer", with print shop, 1907-1917. U.S. Civil Service in war-time activity until retirement. He died at the home of his son, Donald Mac Kay Rippey. Mary Rippey lived near Ford Theater in Washington, D.C., and saw President Lincoln carried out after being shot by John Wilkes Booth.

Don was the first born of Charles Mac Kay and Mary Agnes Stephens Rippey, born 26 July 1896. On his mother's side is he the great-great-great-grandson of the Rev. John Christopher Gobrecht. The Rev. Gobrecht died on 6 Nov. 1815 in Hanover, York Co., PA. His father's name was Daniel Gobrecht, his mother, Anna Catherina, a Hessian by birth. They lived in the village of Angerstein, Amt Plesse, one hour's walk from Gottingham and near Bovenden (or Bewarden), a town about 3 miles north of Gottingen - Landgraviate of Hesse, circle of Lower Saxony, Germany. A record in a family bible tells how he embarked for America at 20 years of age, in 1753. He began in his 30th year to prepare himself for the ministry and in 1770, served four congregations in Lancaster Co., NY State. The church was the German Reformed Church of Lydia Wehrman Rippey's ancestors.

Donald Rippey lived his entire life in the east until some time after his retirement, he and his wife purchased their present home in Plantation, FL. Lydia Wehrman Rippey has been afflicted with Parkinsons Disease for the past years, but lives happily, well cared for by her loving husband. Donald Mac Kay Rippey has had eye surgery, but is in fairly good health. Their daughter, W4²412X1 Ruth Mary, lives within a short distance and is a valueable assistant in the Rippey household.

Ralph also does fine art with metals and his welder. Their home is beautified by both of their accomplishments. They have done a lot of world travel, many times renting a car and traveling on their own. They manage to visit both children, Terry on the West Coast, and Kendall on the East Coast, and usually enjoy a yearly visit from them. Betty is also a gourmet cook and they entertain frequently. They reside in a rural area, just out of Burlington, IA. Ralph is looking forward to retirement in 1981.

W4²_{412Z}¹³² Harvey Joachim Sindahl, Jr. was born in Chicago, IL. He attended Polk School and graduated from Franklin High in Cedar Rapids, IA. He also attended Coe College in Cedar Rapids for one year, graduated from Carthage, IL and Seminary, Maywood, IL in 1955 with a degree of D.D. in Theology. He served as a pastor in Kansas and in New York City. He married Mary Catherine Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garrison Champe of Wilmett, IL.

He discontinued preaching after a time and was a religious instructor. He and his first wife, Mary, are divorced and he remarried in 1979 after his children were educated and independent.

Before his second marriage he was in charge of a building with 500 offices in New York City. He handled repairs, general maintainance and arranged for the sale of the building. The property was owned by his (then) future wife and her sister as an estate. After the sale of the building, Pat and "Jay" organized their self owned Real Estate business, in Greenwich, Conn. They also make their home there. Jay makes an annual fall visit and takes care of repairs on his mother's home in Cedar Rapids, IA.
