

Jeanne Strathe Wins Hardin SCD Speech Contest

Jeanne Strathe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Strathe of Hubbard, was named winner of the Hardin Soil Conservation District speech contest Tuesday night at the Youth Building in Eldora.

Douglas Petty of Eldora won second place honors in the contest and Janis Rogers of New Providence took third. The subject for the speeches was "How Soil and Water Conservation Affects My Future".

Miss Strathe will now advance to regional competition to be held July 23, at Mason City. There she will compete with other county winners in the region for top prize of $25 and the privilege of representing the region in the state contest.

Regional winner of the contest will represent this area in state contest competition with the eight other regional contestants. The state contest will be held Sept. 19, in Des Moines in conjunction with the annual conference of the Iowa Association of Soil Conservation District commissioners.
