FIELD DAYS COMPETITION — —

C of C Seeks Entries For Conservation Queen

The Eldora Chamber of Commerce and Hardin County Soil Conservation District are seeking entries for a Queen of Conservation contest to be held in the community room of the First National Bank in Eldora Thursday, August 22, at 7:30 p.m.

Any single girls living in Hardin county between 16 and 21 years of age will be eligible. Contestants will wear street clothes during the contest and will be judged on personality, poise, general knowledge of conservation and beauty. Three Hardin county girls will be selected August 22.

Each girl entering the contest will be presented a corsage. The first place winner will be awarded a bracelet. Charms will be given to the second and third place winners. The contest is open to the public. Refreshments will be served following the judging.

Entries should be sent to the Hardin Soil Conservation District office in Eldora by Monday, August 19, at 5 p. m.

The first and second place winner will advance to the State Queen of Conservation contest to be held at the Plowmen's Banquet Thursday, Sept. 5, at 6:30 p. m. in the Hardin County Youth Building in Eldora to compete with girls from other Soil Con-
