

2-792-B

2-792-B - Missouri. This field was plowed about 35 days before this picture was made and harrowed up and down the slope. Heavy rains followed causing gullies where stalks had been dropped in the harrows. Most of the damage was done in a few days by several heavy rains. The field was broken from sod three years ago and has been in corn straight.