Raejean called last night (7/24/07) saying that Doris Charleston (Hazel Wilkening's niece, Aunt Carrie's daughter) passed away yesterday, 7/24, around noon. She celebrated her 90th birthday earlier this year and had been in pretty good health up until then. She had been in the hospital a few times lately with heart problems. She had always been so active and wasn't down for long. She was even planning the Etneir Reunion which will proceed as scheduled for this Sunday because that's how she would have wanted it. Here are the arrangements:

On 28 Feb 1938 when Marion Frances was 19, she married Homer Clyde HARRISON Jr, 2, M, son of Homer Clyde Ernest HARRISON Sr, 4, M & Elsie Maude RICHARDS, 5, F, in St. Paul Lutheran Church, State Center, Marshall, Iowa. Born on 31 Jul 1917 in Agua Caliente, Sanoma, California. Homer Clyde died in Howard Hosp, Kokomo, Howard, Indiana, on 5 Mar 2009; he was 91. Buried in Sunset Memory Garden, Kokomo, Howard, Indiana.

Homer Clyde
HARRISON Jr

Homer lived in Marshall County the majority of his life after his parents returned to Iowa from California in 1920. He went to first grade in a country school on West Main St., second grade in the Franklin School, and finished through most of his ninth grade year in Melbourne. In March 1932 he left school to help his father on the dairy farm near Marshalltown. After he and Marion married in 1938 he spent the next three to four years farming at several locations on the east and west sides of Marshalltown. He worked for several local contractors and home builders from 1941 to 1947 as a laborer and carpenter. During this period he spent one year in 1945 serving in the US Army and going through basic training at Camp Walters, Texas (near Fort Worth). In 1947, while he was a journeyman carpenter with Con Jacobson, he built his first house on South First Street, near High Street. From there he was hooked in the home construction and development business. During the next 38 years, 1947 to 1985, "Harrison Homes" built over 2,000 homes and developed nine subdivisions in Marshalltown. Later in their career, between 1971 and 1989, he and Marion ran an antique dealership, "Granny's Antiques", on Highway 30, near South 12th St. Homer and Marion decided to leave their friends and relatives and move to Kokomo, Indiana in May, 1993 to be closer to their children and grandchildren.

Homer's primary cause of death (per death certificate) was Hypoxemia (low oxygen in the blood); his other causes were Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) and bilateral pulmonary fibrosis. A significant contributing conditions contributing to death was myocardial infraction, coronary artery disease (heart attack).

Homer had his first heart attack on 11/5/08 when he had his first three stents. His second heart attack occurred on 2/16/09. He took 4 nitro pills, then he was admitted to the hospital upon sharing pain information with Sharon on 2/17. Three more stents were put in his heart the evening of 2/17. He was transferred to the extended care unit of the hospital on 2/25 with the focus on being discharged to his home when he regained sufficient strength to care for himself. He was re-admitted to the main hospital on 3/2 when he was having great trouble breathing and his lung condition was made apparent to his family. There was hope at that time that he may be moved back to the extended care unit within a couple of days. His lung condition continued to deteriorate making his breathing very difficult and taking much of his energy. He took his last breath on the evening of 3/5 and was officially pronounced dead at 11:00 PM.

By Larry Wilkening 2/23/17. My father served in World War II with the Marines 4th Raiders in the Phillipines where he got shot in the leg. The military surgeons wanted to remove his leg, but he refused. He ended up serving with a Military Police group in Alaska, riding a motorcycle.

My mother and father meet at the Forest Park Ballroom in Marshalltown Iowa. He swept her of her feet and rode away with her on his motorcycle. They remained together until my father passed away.

When I was two years old they took a trip on the motorcycle to Yellowstone National Park. They rode day and night to get back home when they found out I had been run over while staying with my grandpa and grandma Holubar on their farm.

My father always took exceptional care of anything that he owned, always cleaning and shining them. He used to say that if you took care of your things they will last. When he cleaned his vehicles he would clean everything inside and out. The engine compartment of his vehicles looked almost as good as they did when he purchased them new. He even took black shoe polish and polished his radiator hose until you could almost see yourself in them.
