DEATH CLAIMS A PIONEER FARMER

August Funke, Sr., Died Rather Suddenly Monday of Pneumonia.

August Funke, Sr., one of the pioneer farmers in this community, and well known in the neighborhood northeast of State Center, died rather suddenly at his home, two and one-half miles from town, at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, September 30. Mr. Funke had not been in the best of health for more than a year, but last Thursday he was taken with a severe sickness which developed into pneumonia and hastened his demise. Many friends had not heard of his sickness and as they had seen him in town the first of last week as well as usual, the news of his death came as somewhat of a shock.

August Funke was born in Hanover, Germany, August 21, 1841. On September 22, 1865, he was married to Miss Caroline Hennis, and on October 3, 1880, they came to this country, settling upon the farm which has since been their home and where Mr. Funke died. Besides his wife and one son, August Funke, Jr., the deceased is survived by one brother, Conrad Funke, and a sister, Mrs. August Hennis, both of whom lived in the same neighborhood. There was another son born but he died when about five years of age.

Funeral services were held at the home at 1 o'clock and at St. Paul's Lutheran church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. G. Oltman officiating. Interment was made in Hillside cemetery.
