Virginia Lynch And Walter Zink Are Married In Candlelight Rites At Beaman

Beaman—(Special)—In a pretty candlelight service at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the Methodist church in Beaman, Miss Virginia Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Lynch, and Walter John Zink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Zink, were united in marriage by Rev. E. G. Steinman, pastor of the Methodist church in Beaman, who read the double ring ceremony. The church platform was decorated with evergreen and pine branches and chrysanthemums.

PRENUPTIAL MUSIC.

Mrs. Joseph Kinnaird gave a marimba prelude of nuptial music, preceding the ceremony, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Reuben Zink at the piano. Mrs. Carlton Lynk and Mrs. Lester Beichley, cousins of the bride sang, "Because", accompanied by Miss Lorraine Tuffree, as the tapers were lighted by Mrs. Donald Kaufmann and Miss Shirley Kaufmann. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played by Mrs. Joseph Kinnaird on the marimba as the wedding party took their places and Mrs. Carlton Lynk and Russell Lynch sang, "I Love You Truly".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white silk marquisette over taffeta, and a fingertip vell. She wore a single strand of pearls that had been worn by her mother at her wedding 23 years ago. Her shower bouquet was of Talisman roses, sweet peas and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Zink was graduated from the Beaman high school in 1938. She attended Central Iowa Business college in Marshalltown and has been employed by the Farmers Savings Bank of Beaman for the past two and a half years. Mr. Zink was graduated from the Beaman high school in 1937. He has been farming with his father four miles south of Beaman on the Beaman-Green Mountain road. The couple will be at home Jan. 1 on the Zink farm.
