Miss Wilma Jean Weuve And Roger L. Meier Are Wed Here

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Meier

Fall lightly touched an August day to provide an almost perfect setting for the pretty lavender and white wedding which took place Sunday afternoon, August 18th at St. Paul Lutheran Church where Miss Wilma Jean Weuve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Weuve of Colo became the bride of Roger L. Meier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Meier of State Center.

The Rev. B. O. Lokensgard of Elm Lutheran Church, Marshalltown, solemnized the double ring service at two o'clock before an altar appointed with baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums accented with lavender bows and greenery and lighted with altar candelabra.

Mrs. Charles Lampkin, sister of the bridegroom, brought the nuptial message in song with "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer". She was accompanied by Mrs. N. H. Brinkman of Colo.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her gown of Chantilly lace and tulle, fashioned with a pointed, ruffled bodice featuring a scalloped round neckline trimmed with iridescent sequins and seed pearls, long tapered lace sleeves; a bouffant skirt of tulle over ruffles of tulle and taffeta was edged at the bottom with a band of scalloped Chantilly lace. The skirt was styled with an overskirt of lace and the back fell in tiers of scalloped lace and tulle. Her butterfly length veil fell from a crown of pearls and aurora borealis crystals. She wore a strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift of the groom and she carried a white Bible topped with a lavender orchid wreathed with white carnations.

The bride's sisters, Miss Avonelle Weuve of Des Moines and Miss Linda Weuve of Colo, served as maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively. They were attractively attired in identical princess style ballerina length dresses of lavender taffeta with tiny bows accenting the waistline. They wore matching headpieces and carried Colonial bouquets of lavender and white carnations. Their small silver cross necklaces were gifts of the bride.

Larry Witte served as best man and Robert Meier, brother of the groom was groomsman. The guests were seated by Bob Gerke, Norman Weuve of Des Moines, brother of the bride and Phil Ward. The latter two also served as candle lighters. The men of the bridal party wore dark suits and white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories and the groom's mother wore a fall colored jersey dress with blue accessories. Both wore cimbidium orchid corsages.

A reception for 250 guests at the State Center Community Hall followed the ceremony. The serving table was appointed in lavender and white and centered with a four tiered wedding cake topped with nuptial emblems.

Mrs. Howard Riemenschneider, sister of the groom presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. A. W. Schaper, aunt of the bride, poured from the coffee service. Mrs. David Stuckmyer of Marshalltown, aunt of the bride cut the cake and Mrs. Harold Hilleman, aunt of the groom, served. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Robert Meier, Mrs. James Scovill, and the Misses Beverlee Weuve and Jean Hilleman.

Mrs. Norman Weuve of Des Moines registered the guests and the gifts were cared for by Mrs. Larry Stuckmyer, Mrs. David Witte, Mrs. Harper Davenport, and the Misses Sharon Hilleman, Muriel Thompson and Helen Cockerham.

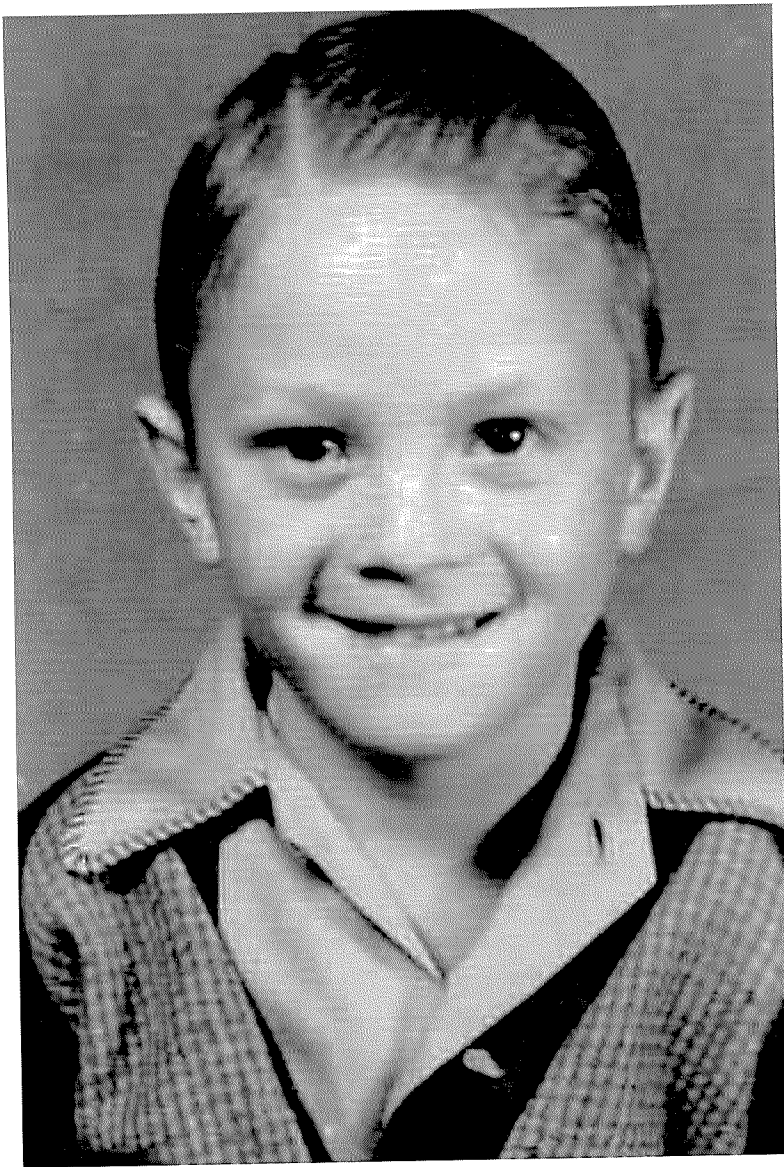

The couple left later on a wedding trip to Minnesota and the bride chose for traveling, a lavender two piece taffeta sheath with white accessories and her bridal orchid. Upon their return they will make their home in State Center.

The bride graduated from Colo High School with the class of 1962 and is employed by the Commercial State Bank in Marshalltown. Mr. Meier graduated from State Center High School in 1959 and served a three year enlistment with the U. S. Navy. He is now employed by the State Center Farmers Cooperative Creamery Association.

Guests were present from Colo, Marshalltown, Des Moines, Nevada, McCallsburg, Traer, Iowa Falls, Zearing, Albion and State Center, Ia., and Santa Ana, Calif.
