

Begin Work On Federal Office Building

11-23-66

Construction has started on a federal agricultural agency office building in Bloomfield, it was announced today.

The Davis County ASC County Committee announced that it has approved the construction of the building.

When completed, the office building, located at the corner of Locust and Dodge Streets in Bloomfield, will house the ASCS, the Soil Conservation Service, the Farmers Home Administration and the Extension Service.