Ankeny Meet Valley

JENNIE GIOFFREDI

Valley earned the chance to play in the final with a victory over Ankeny Tuesday.

Ankeny defeated Grand Junction at Adel Wednesday, 53-45.

Ankeny is the defending district champion. The team advanced to the state tournament a victory over Grand Junction in the final second game.

Ankeny is a favorite over Valley in the final game.

The game was at Boone early in the season, a team that Valley defeated three weeks ago, 60-51.

Ankeny's two main scorers, Barbara Johnson and JoAnne Carlson, were regulars.

Pauline Shoeman, a long post forward, and Shirley Muehlenthaler, a guard, were playing their third regular game.

Gail Johnson, Barbara Johnson's sister, and JoAnne Carlson, a two-year starter, were regulars.

Claudine Brown and JoAnne Carlson, who were reserves last year, were regulars.

One of the early season victories for Ankeny was over Valley by seven points.

Shoeman connected on a hook shot to clinch the game.

The Ankeny guards, Muehlenthaler, Gail Johnson and Barbara

The Music Department of Ankeny High School has engaged itself in many activities during '53 and '54. The first big extravaganza was the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" which was given before Christmas. The various ensemble groups, choruses, and bands have taken part in several "500 Club" programs. This spring, the small vocal groups participated in the Pre-State and State Music Contests at Colfax and Perry, in which high honors were received. The band also spent a full day at Altoona for a music festival, in which Altoona, Ankeny, and Johnston took part. After a long and tiring day of hard practice, we gave a concert at night.

Even though we were kept pretty busy preparing ourselves for these events, I believe everyone who took part thought the effort was well worthwhile.

The Senior class is responsible for putting out the annual, but a few seniors distinguished themselves by their efforts to make this year's annual the best yet. They are Marilyn McArthur, Theo Ann Lawrence, and Jean Schmitt, who spent many long hours in deciding layouts and planning the book. Clarence Rudy was the outstanding ad salesman. His individual efforts contributed greatly to the financing of the annual.

SCHOOL MAGAZINE

This has been the first year for the "Hawk Squak", our school magazine. It has been published once a month or as near to it as possible. Monte Baugher, our art editor, was responsible for the name. The staff headed by Peg Jarvis did a fine job in producing the magazine. Mr. Troxel was the faculty sponsor.

HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

Miss Keeler has very successfully organized the library this year. With the help of student librarians, the books have been filed according to the Dewey Decimal System. The most important additions to the library are many new books, both fiction and non-fiction. We also have several new reference books. We all owe a lot to Miss Keeler for starting us on our way to a really good library.

The festivities of the evening will be long remembered by those who took part in the program and by those who attended the dance afterward.

History, Will and Prophecy - 1954

HISTORY

Thirteen years have gone by since we, the Seniors of 1954, began our school career. Eight of us have been loyal all these years: Joe Morr, Jo Anne Vickery, Marilyn McArthur, Francis Sapp, Thelma Jorgensen, Shirley Muehlenthaler, Maxine Reynolds, and "Burr" Brazelton. We were joined by Don Purdy in the first grade. Oh, almost forgot, Carl Ireland and Theo Ann also began kindergarten with us, but left in the third and first grades respectively. Carl came back again in the junior year and Theo in the fourth grade. In the second grade, "Casey" Hutton, Barb Kent, "Gracie" Baughman, Marilyn Bachman and Lois Jordan made their debut into our fast-growing class. In the third grade, we welcomed Doris Hargis and "Truman" Hildreth. Barb Johnson was the only "sweet young thing" to come in the fourth grade. In the fall of '48, came Jean and Willy Bell (alias Bill Micheal) through the prison gate. "Carrot top" Shoeman, Clarence "he man" Rudy, and Marie Simpson joined us in the seventh grade. In the eighth grade, Isolena Medici and Gail Johnson made their entrance. The only one who came in the Freshman year was Kenneth Springer. The following year, Ian, Raymond, and Lyle came to finish the last two years of their high school career with us. Marie came back also in the junior year after having attended another school. This year, our last, for most of us,--Paul Cory and Martha Frisk came to spend the last few weeks with us.

We will always remember the many memories we shared together during our school daze.

WILL

We, the Senior Class of '54, being of sound mind and healthy body, do hereby bequeath the following:

To Mr. Jorgensen: we leave the quiet halls that no longer echo the Seniors' jive or be-bop.

To Mr. Begg: we leave our southeast section, on the third floor of the Ankeny High School Building, which is still ringing from his piercing whistle.

To Mr. Whitely: our long-suffering and patient sponsor, we leave the trip we had planned to Chicago. We never could figure out why he wouldn't agree to escorting 33 adult-acting seniors on a sky-gawking trip.

To Miss Agnew: we leave our unpaid bills and the remainder of our blank checks. We can't afford to leave money.

To the remaining teachers, we bestow the different flavored gum which we have placed so conveniently to hold together the broken desks and tables.

Our personal bequests to the Junior Class are as follows:

To MaryAnn Randolph, Kenneth Springer leaves his motorcycle so she can accompany Lee on his exploits.

Mike "Casey" Hutton wills his driving ability to Lettie Packard. But, of course, Lettie doesn't need much help as she's managed to get into three wrecks on her own.

Dick Reed passes on to Don Smith what he was bequeathed in last year's will. P.S. It was his ability to park, Don.

To Kay Woods, Billy Micheal wills his hand-holding ability. She really doesn't need it, but we thought she might like it.

To Marilyn Hildreth, Doris Hargis leaves her coal black hair. Please do not peroxide this!!

To Peggy Jarvis, Gail Johnson wills her ability never to be late. Gail will never miss this outstanding trait.

To Charles Hultman, Carl Ireland leaves his "Peelin' Packard". Take good care of it, Charles, as there's many years left in it. Ha!

To Monte Baugher, Marilyn Bachman bestows her good looks and becoming smile. The better to win the girls with, Monte.

To Bob McRae, Francis Sapp wills his mouth and talkative vocal cords. Can Francis do without them?

Ian McBride donates his sideburns to Liz Uheling. This will go good with her Italian boycut.

To Louie Fontana, Isolena Medici wills her slim-trim figure. Can Isolena get along without it?

To Claudine Brown, Theo Ann Lawrence wills her ability to sew. Don't take it the wrong way, Claudine.

To Duke Gable, Maxine Reynolds wills her loud "P.J.'s". You oughta see them, Duke.

To Jo Ann Reynolds, Pauline Shoeman wills her holey socks. Good luck, Jo.

Joan Baughman leaves her henna rinse to Bob Johnson. It'll look pretty in your blonde hair, Bob.

Marilyn McArthur bestows her charleston ability to Maurice Miller. She's now taking up ballroom dancing with Dave!

Barbara Kent wills her first name "Barbara" to Bob Spahr. Bob seems to find some fascination in it.

To Marilyn Martin, Martha Frisk bequeaths her agricultural knowledge.

To Norma Golf, Daniel Brazelton wills his boots. Maybe you can grow into them, Norma.

To Ramona Jorgenson and Marlene Chesnut, Barbara Johnson wills her ability to eat. Barb eats enough for two, anyway.

To Marvin Hildreth, Billy Jo Hildreth leaves his staunch REPUBLICAN spirit.

To Larry Phelps and Max Brewbaker, Jo Anne Vickery wills her "Milk Maid" lipstick.

To Barbara Bachman and Verdel Johnson, Marie Simpson leaves her Des Moines boyfriends. We're sure there's enough for two, girls.

Clarence Rudy leaves his cowboy boots to Sue Wheeler. You can even have the spurs, Sue.

Lyle Bidler leaves his sparkling white bucks to Carl "Dirty" Foster. The name alone will keep them clean.

Raymond Moeckly bestows his pretty white teeth to Ronald Gaulke and Leland Smith.

Joe Morr bequeaths his beautifully shaped legs to Jo Anne Carlson and Louise Brugioni, as if theirs aren't shapely enough.

Thelma Jorgenson leaves her typing ability to Quinn McBride and Ed Griesert.

To Carol Medlin and Phylis Hargis, Lois Jordan leaves her always bright smile. It'll never wear out, girls.

Don Purdy----I hereby sentence my life to the Junior Class of 1954. That is including my personality, physique, athletic ability, good grades, good eyesight, legs, neatness, musical talents, and my beautiful hair. P.S. Don wrote this himself, as he was on this committee.

To Gary Shoeman, Jean Schmitt leaves her drum sticks, so he can keep better time with Virginia, as if he needed them.

Shirley Mae leaves Merrill Harvey her ability to get along with Miss Keeler. He likes young, pretty teachers.

Paul Cory leaves his middle name (Chancy) to Garold Quick. Paul found it back in Oregon.

PROPHECY

Our prophecy, as you will soon see, is different, so to read it, they've chosen me!

If Gail's theme song is still "Money, Money", she won't have anyone to call her honey.
We wonder if Lyle will have a "Secret Love". Someone small and cute, a real turtle dove.

If anyone sings, "Jeannie with the Light Blond Hair", our own Jean Schmitt had better beware.

When Don is in his barber shop, will "Peg O' My Heart" still be on top?

And Dick, you'd better "Cross Over the Bridge", or you'll be sitting alone on the ridge.
This one won't rhyme, but we like it fine:

For Carl Ireland, we've picked, "Caring for You", drop the "G" on the first and you'll see not one but Morr.

For Billy Joe we thought "A Girl, A Girl", and you know it might put him quite in a whirl.

This is a 502 on Ian McBride. He's "Wanted" and he'd better not try to hide.

Will "The Eyes of Texas" still be upon you, Jo Anne? We've heard Dickie is the cousin of Ian.

After pulling curtains on the Ed Sullivan show, Doris will have to say "Go Home" to her beau.

Because Isolena is "Young at Heart", with her, we hate to have to part.

Jo Ann is little, only "Five Foot Two". With some tall guy, will she always be blue?

Some man, in time, is certain to lose his heart to Marilyn and her "Piano Roll Blues".

"With Her Hands", Maxine will cure all aches and pains and make you pure.

Thelma, with the "Crazy Mixed Up Way", will make some guy say, "What gives, hey?"

Marilyn B. and her "Kiss Me Again Stranger", might mate up with some Texas Ranger.

Shirley says "If Love is Good to Me", she'll end up saying, "I take thee".

Our farmer, as you all know, is Bill, he'll raise "Purple Cows" on some little ol' hill.

We want Martha to have a "Wonderful Guy". We hope he's nice, yet not too shy!

A little white cottage just made for three, and old refrain, "Why, Marie".

A Johnny, a Francis, and maybe a Dean, will you always keep "Changing Partners", Pauline?

Since we don't know Paul Cory too well, we've chosen "Undecided" and it fits swell.
Intelligence is for our own Theo and "It's in the Mood", not in "Love Letters in the Sand".

Lois is our "Spanish Fireball", her sweet violent temper will conquer all.

Barbara with her "Beautiful Brown Eyes", will turn many heads and cause many sighs.

Our big game hunter will be Mike, after "Butterflies" he will hike.

Ray will say, "My Mama Dun Tol' Me", but we know different, don't we?

Barbara K. says he's not "Too Young", He's grown up to suit me, that's the song I've sung.

Is it "Amor eh"? or is it Joe? It might be King Cole for all we know.

With "Cool Water", Dan can't go wrong, His name is written in the song.

"Hello Operator" is Kenneth's theme, How he'll meet her is his only dream.

"Hot Lips" is the song for Clarence Rudy, To kiss each girl will be his duty.

The "Baby Face" of Francis Sapp, will always keep him a young looking chap.

Now look what we've done,

We've made you all one,

Of the strangest prophecies

One could ever see,

That doesn't rhyme, That isn't right,

Guess I'd better say, "Good-night".

Archimedes Had a Word for It . . .

REMEMBER Archimedes?

He was a brilliant scientist and mathematician back in the third century B.C. But for all his contributions to the study of physics and mechanics and for all his inventions and discoveries, Archimedes probably is best remembered for a trip he made—one that ranks in fame with those of Lady Godiva, John Gilpin, and Paul Revere.

That was the day Archimedes, while bathing, was fishing for the soap and came up with his famous theory of liquid displacement, which, in so many words, holds that a body immersed in a liquid gives up, or yields, as much of its own weight as the weight of the displaced liquid. It's said that he became so excited at his discovery that he forsook the tub and, sans so much as a terrycloth towel, raced through the streets, shouting "Eureka! Eureka!"

Now, even in our own radio-active age, Archimedes would be considered quite a "brain," and as such, probably would be the first to point out that his displacement theory applies to each of us in everyday life—that we get out of life just what we put into it, no more and no less. He would probably point out the holes in the tempting "the-world-owes-me-a-living" theory, and remind us that we are each charged with certain obligations to God, country and neighbor, and our success depends upon the weight we place on them or how well we fulfill those obligations. He would say that such obligations are all part of the real cost of living, and we only get what we pay for.

He might add, too, that when we've accepted his theory and put it in practice, then with him we can shout to the world, "Eureka! Eureka!"

Which is to say, translated from the Greek: "By gum, I've got it!"
