

Clint Goos (middle) of Treynor was one of the eight regional finalists for the 1995 Outstanding Soil and Water Conservation District Commissioner presented during the 49th Annual Meeting for Iowa Soil and Water Conservation District Commissioners held recently in Des Moines. The award is co-sponsored by Wallaces Farmer and the Iowa Association of Soil and Water Conservation District Commissioners. Wallaces Farmer Editor Monte Sesker and Association Vice-President Jeanette Winegarden presented the award.