

1958

GIVEN AWARDS—Farmers pictured in the above photos were the recipients of soil conservation awards at last week's 14th annual meeting of the Davis County Soil Conservation District.

Shown in the top photo are winners of awards presented by the district. From left to right they are Galen Cook, Leo Fitzgerald and Richard Birchmier. The awards were presented by Harold Baughman, a district commissioner who presided at the meeting.

1958 winner of the Bloomfield Newspapers' awards are shown in the lower photo. From left to right they are: Wendell Ernst, Harold Snowbarger, John Swartzendruber and Ed Amstutz. Ernst and Snowbarger received a landlord-tenant award. A new cooperator award went to Swartzendruber, and Amstutz' award was in the owner-operator division. Each winner received a plaque.

Spilman Honored For Service As Commissioner

1958

P. W. Spilman was honored Wednesday evening for 14 years of service as a commissioner for the Davis County Soil Conservation District. The recognition was given in conjunction with the district's 14th annual meeting. Spilman was presented a plaque. He is retiring as a commissioner. Clay Barnett was elected Wednesday as his successor.

Spilman

An estimated 100 persons attended the meeting which was held in the Bloomfield high school auditorium.

A number of awards were presented during the evening.

District conservation awards went to Galen Cook, Richard Birchmier and Leo Fitzgerald. The awards were presented by Harold Baughman, a local commissioner.

Davis county's soil conservation contest winners also received plaques. The winners were: Division I (owner-operator), Ed Amstutz; Division II (landlord-tenant), Wendell Ernst and Harold Snowbarger; Division III (new cooperator), John and Victor Swartzendruber. The plaques were presented by Keith Hawk in behalf of the Bloomfield Newspapers.