

Soil Stewardship

Observed this Week In Iowa; Nation

This week May 22-29 is being observed as Soil Stewardship Week throughout Iowa and the Nation.

The Hardin Soil Conservation District is assisting with the observance, according to Harold Marsh, Union, by furnishing materials to all ministers of the county as an aid in bringing the Stewardship message to their congregations.

The theme of Soil Stewardship Week stresses "The Spirit of the People."