

Wins Speech Contest, Advances to Regional

4-7-64

Pam Stockham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stockham, won the $10 first prize Monday night in the speech contest sponsored by the local Soil Conservation Service district. She will advance to regional competition, set for July 2 at Fairfield.

Other winners were Gene Proctor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Proctor, second prize of $7.50; and Kenneth Sidwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sidwell of Milton, third prize of $5.

Judges were Harold Baughman, DeWitt Shelton, and Miss Rosella Blunk.

All speeches were on the topic: "How Soil and Water Conservation Affect My Future."