

WE REMEMBER BATAAN AND CORREGIDOR

The Story of the American & Filipino Defenders of Bataan and Corregidor and Their Captivity

Mariano Villarín

To Hubert & Verla Hough - In sincere appreciation of your lasting friendship and of the wonderful hospitality you extended to us at Aspalotsoa.
Mario & Marge Villarin
4/30/60

Lt. Col. M. Villarin USAR (Ret.)

Author Mariano Villarin was born in Manila and received a degree in Business Administration from the Far Eastern University in Manila. He also took post graduate courses at the University of the Philippines in order to complete the four-year ROTC program.

The author's first interest was a military career and he served with distinction in both the Philippine and United States Armies. He is a military retiree as well as a civil service retiree. Following his most recent retirement as a federal auditor in 1980, he moved from Minnesota to Southern California where he began to write his war memoirs.

The author is a life member of Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 17 [past commander, two terms] in Long Beach, CA; Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 279 [past commander, two terms] in Long Beach, CA; American Legion, Post 688 [past commander] in Wilmington, CA; American Defenders of Bataan and Corregidor; American Ex-Prisoners of War; Reserve Officers Association; The Retired Officers Association; and AMVETS Post 8088.