class prophecy

In the days of 1979, we came to Venice to dine;
While sitting at the sidewalk cafes,
We saw the seniors of the olden days.

The carnival was a gala affair;
All the people we knew were there.
They all were a part of this great big show,
Come on! let's greet these people we know.

The head gondola comes floating by;
From it we hear Lynn shouting, Hi!
Following close behind is Judy,
Man alive is she a cutie!

Here comes Kathy big and tall;
Will she get under the bridge at all?
Cliff we see in the next big boat;
We wonder if he knows how to float?

Over the bridge come Arnold and Dick,
Arnie is first because he's Quick.
Here comes Betty, carrying her mops;
She married a policeman and had little Kaups.

From here we journey to St. Mark's Square;
The carnival, you see, is centered there.
Gracefully flying through the air,
Is our trapeze artist -- Roger Blair.

From the tunnel of love comes a handsome crooner,
Sitting beside him we see Barb Spooner.
Jac Carlson came sailing to Rome;
He's disgusted, so he's going home.

As we gaze to the center ring,
We find the band with Linda Stehn.
They are dedicating Anchors Aweigh,
To good old George, who's sailing today.

Betty's here, isn't that swell?
She high dives into a big deep Well.
We see Julie coming into sight;
She bareback rides into the night.

Oh my gosh, here comes Mike;
Is he really going to lie on spikes?
Part of the carnival is a fiddler,
Who is none other than Jerry Bidler.

Now we see Harold, who is very fond,
Of a sweet little miss, named Kay LaBond.
Meet Mr. Thorson, who makes it a day,
By washing dishes in a sidewalk cafe.

Standing on the Realto Bridge,
Are Maxine and Elvin and all their kids.
Here's Linda Travis, the "Queen of the Hop";
She buys pretty clothes in a fashionable shop.

Hail Grant McMurphy in his red and white
Ford;
He's a Venetian blind cleaner who never gets bored.
Tom LeJeune, a very fine painter, is he;
Tries to resemble Leo da Vinci.

Skimming by in a souped-up gondola;
Is David Wilson eating raviola.
Susan, a professor of linguistics;
Teaches Venetians the vital statistics.

A sweet little lass named Marilyn Springer,
Journeyed to Venice and married a bellringer.
Gitta Bianchi, a connoisseur of pizza pies,
Sells her wares on the Bridge of Sighs.

John and Ken are also there;
Feeding the pigeons in St. Mark's Square.
Judy Ferguson in a sidewalk cafe, is a singer of jazz,
With a following of men which she always has.

Here we see a Hefte nurse,
Lifting her patient into a hearse.
Leroy Cornwell, known as a card,
Is now a Ducal Palace guard.

At the fair we find Miss Pierce,
Who makes the lions much less fierce.
Carla and Darla, what a pair,
But it's in Venice, so what do we care.

A pickpocket's here, his name is Bob,
I wonder who he'll try to rob?
High in the air is our rope walker Joe,
He's too scared to look at the people below.

Suzanne has so much long hair,
She could be mistaken for her pet bear.
Through the streets comes Grace DeMoss;
The way she looks she must be lost.

The genius Dutcher, now is beaming,
He straightened the Tower that was always leaning.
Our guide through the glass factory is pert
little Mert;
Besides being a guide she's also a flirt.

Coach Van again has Faye on the run;
Cause she's still chewing that doggone gum.
Here's Jo Ann Hildreth picking up a dime;
We don't know why, but it has to rhyme.

The carnival's over the sights are through!
We've seen all, and told all we know about you.
So who cares, for in a century or two;
No one will care what happened to you!

class history

In the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-six, the Senior class donned their ball and chain. Through thirteen years, our slave labor camp has been improved by the addition of the following people.

After thirteen years of hard labor in the salt mines with slave drivers lashing our backs, these forty-five Seniors will now walk down the road to freedom.

class will

We, the class of '59, wish to will the following to those teachers and members of the junior class who will be able to appreciate these items next year:

To Mr. Anderson we leave a more peaceful high school after the day of our graduation.

To Mr. Begg we leave our many late absentee blanks (Incomplete of course).

To Mrs. Pratt we leave an inscribed plaque "That's what education does for you."

To Mr. VanderLinden we will our quiet, well-conducted class meetings. In care of Mr. VanderLinden we will to the junior class our government books, complete with notes, of course.

To Mrs. Friedmeyer we leave a tape recording of "3-2-1 TYPE."

To Mr. Troxel we will our old term reports, complete with interviews???

To Mr. James the trig class wills the high school building measurements. They might come in handy some day.

To Mrs. Petersen the senior girls leave a box of S.O.S. Pads to clean up all the burned pots and pans.

To Mr. Boettcher we will our many, many problems. We hope you can solve them; we can't.

To Mr. Lantz we leave a new pair of shoes for pacing study hall.

To Mr. Belding we leave the noisy 1st semester 2nd period study hall. Hope you have better luck next year.

To Mrs. Crutcher we leave all the unclaimed gym clothes. Maybe the underclassmen can use them next.

To Mr. Carlson we will all our broken test tubes and penalty fines in hopes that the juniors will be more careful.

To Mr. Hall the seniors will their harmonious choral arrangements (corn bread and buttermilk).

To Mr. Keltner we will all our past due library fines.

To Mr. Hunter we leave this overdue will.

To Mr. Peterson the senior boys leave their well-conducted voc. ag. classes, especially the ones during the junior year.

To Mr. Scott the senior boys leave the shop, unswept of course.

To Mr. Friedmeyer we will our absence of musical talent. (Better luck with the juniors).

Linda Stehn wills her height to Bill Howe (all the better to hide from Mr. Carlson).

Judy Allen and Lynn Hall will their matching sweaters to Bill Thompson and Dorothy Thompson (now they will have a pair and a spare).

Jac Carlson wills his desk in study hall to his brother Dick. You'll have to change the first initial though Dick.

Barb Spooner wills her basketball ability to Carolyn Taylor and Minhon Kiester.

Gitta Bianchi wills her ability to get along with Mr. VanderLinden to Judy Gean and Linda Hull. It might help a little.

Faye Smith wills her eternal gum to Dennis Cory and Pat Gonner.

John Coulter wills his quietness to John Moore. Mr. Coulter's slogan is "give to the needy."

Carla DeRaad wills her pierced earrings to Mary Jane Wells. And that's a sacrifice.

Jerry Dutcher wills his head twitch to Jim Kroh. It will help you in giving speeches for Mrs. Pratt next year.

Joe Harper wills his gigantic physique to Clark Uehling.

Richard Mynatt wills his curly hair to Maurice Moeckly. Where there's life, there's hope.

Judi Ferguson wills her multi-colored hair to Gail Sphar. Experience is the best teacher.

Maxine Fugua wills her figure to Lee Ann Niday and Judy Braddock. After all, she got her man didn't she?

Suzanne Grove wills her ring to Karen Mathis. Maybe it will give John the idea.

Ken Hargis wills his lop-sided car to Paul Argetsinger. Maybe you can figure out what's wrong with it.

Martha Lewis wills her boistrous voice to Marcia Medici and Judy Wilson. And the melody lingers on.

Marilyn Hefte wills her nice smile to Richard Harvey and Donna Thimmesch.

Kathryn Johnson wills her height to Maurice Bryant and Ed Campbell.

Betty Kaup wills her good posture to Carol Johnson. Maybe it will help you in band.

Tom LeJeune wills his ability to run into trains to Marc Travis, who is doing pretty well on his own.

Grant McMurry wills his shyness to Roger Scholes. 'Nuff said?

Bob Parrish wills his little skirts to George Springer, Jim Schmidt, and Larry Stanley. They come in handy for skits, boys.

Jerry Bidler wills his false toothe to John McBride.

George Garfield Plager III wills his long name to John Brown.

Arnold Quick wills his cast to Dave Jones. It might come in handy next year in football.

Elvin Reynolds leaves Gary Baugher his war-torn Truman button. Carry on the cause!

Julie Schlenker wills her more dependable source of transportation, horses, to Ted West in case his car breaks down.

Susan Thimmesch wills her ability to be on time to Janis Howell and Jean McRae.

Bob Thorson wills his good looks to Paul Johnson. Not that Paul needs them, but Bob's charitable.

Linda Travis and Carolyn Pierce will their ability to get sick on test days to Blanche Cory, Sandra Gonner, and Barbara Johnson, and Jeff Lammert. Might as well take advantage, There's plenty to go around.

Harold Tyler wills his extra red paint to Steve Peterson. It would perk your bomb up, Steve.

Dave Wilson wills his dancing ability to Gary Heaton and Jim Rigby.

Shiek Mike Wilson leaves his harem to Bob Wilhelm and Sherman Allen. Don't push! There's enough for both of you.

Betty Wells leaves her seat by the window in the government room to Clara Lee Brugioni and Carol Mynatt. You can take turns, girls.

Clifford Baughman wills the flames on his car to Ron Williams.

Jim Crow wills good government grades to Jim Parrish and Pete Fontana. Don't know how, for there's scarcely enough for Jim C.

Roger Blair wills his car to Shirley Conkel and Jo Ann Fontana. You won't have to ride the bus now, girls.

Jo Hildreth wills her beautiful friendship with the girls' coach (Charlie) to future senior players, Karen McCabe and Fran Rowland.

Kay LaBond wills her many posters to Janet Johnson and Sue Moore. They might come in handy sometime.

Darla Davis wills her desk by Mr. Begg's office to Barbara Ault. Now you have to be good.

Grace DeMoss wills her boyfriend's initials, L. A. to Karen Fontanini. We don't know what good they will do you, but you can have them anyway.

Marilyn Springer wills her friendship with college boys to Pat Jensen.

LeRoy Cornwell wills to the entire junior class anything they want to claim.

And lastly the senior class bequeaths to the entire school the contents of its treasury after skip day, exactly $000.00.

COMMUNING WITH THE SPIRIT WORLD

a day in the

- 5:00 A.M. George gets up to study.
- 5:10 George is done studying and goes back to bed.
- 5:20 Elvin starts milking.
- 5:30 Jack, Ken and Arnold get up to do chores. (Those poor farm boys.)
- 7:00 All seniors are up except two -- you know who.
- 7:30 Grace arrives at school to watch the sun rise.
- 8:00 Kay and Harold arrive to study government????
- 8:15 Betty W. tries to start her car. It is cold this morning.
- 8:20 Elvin knocks at the Fuqua door.
- 8:30 Grant arrives in his hot Ford.
- 8:40 Jerry D. and Linda T. get up.
- 8:45 Gitta passes to her male students the daily assignments.
- 8:49 Jerry D. and Linda T. come puffing in the school door.
- 8:50 Mike arrives at his favorite class, chemistry.
- 9:15 A peculiar odor stinks up the school. Marilyn and Martha's experiment is doing fine.
- 9:30 Mrs. Friedmeyer bawls out Judy and Lynn for looking at each other.
- 9:55 Senior English Class begins.
- 9:55½ Mrs. Pratt's students begin learning that "That's what education does for you."
- 10:01 Mrs. Pratt asks for the third time, "Tom, will you please speak up?"
- 10:10 Roger Blair takes the announcements around.
- 10:30 Tom LeJeune pulls out his "Hot Rod Magazine."
- 11:00 Linda T. leaves class to get her Government book.
- 11:01 Linda gets locked out of government class by some of her loyal classmates.
- 11:10 Faye is working hard on her income tax forms.
- 11:15 Carolyn whispers to Judy F.
- 11:16 Carolyn and Judy arrive in Study Hall.
- 11:45 Ouch!! Susan Timmesch accidentally steps on Kathryn Johnson's foot.
- 12:00 P.M. The mad rush begins.
- 12:20 The seniors start another petition around for having Skip Day on Friday.
- 12:46 Mr. James' College Algebra class begins work on some "Written Material." (a fancy name for a test.)
- 12:50 Betty K. starts making eyes at the junior and senior boys in Study Hall.
- 1:45 Coach VanderLinden tells his Government class to take out pencil and paper. Since no one has studied the lesson, there are twenty-three cases of heart failure in the room.
- 1:46 The twenty-three cases of heart failure begin breathing again. Coach tells the seniors that the paper and pencil are just for notes.
- 2:30 Susan starts talking in Spanish, and Suzanne wonder what she's saying.
- 2:40 Linda Stehn is given the privelege of making up an hour after school for chewing gum.
- 3:00 "Janitor Jim" Crow begins sweeping up the daily dirt accumulation.
- 3:15 Bob P. dons his skirts for the pep meeting skit.
- 3:40 The final bell rings, but Elvin and Maxine don't seem to notice it.
- 3:46 Grant speeds by. He can't get away from school fast enough.
- 3:59 Maxine and Elvin finally notice that the last bell has rung.
- 4:00 John C. drives away in his "new" (compared to a Model T) red and black Plymouth.
- 5:00 Betty Wells and Marilyn arrive at the "Shake and Steak."
- 5:40 The Annual Staff goes home after accomplishing fifteen minutes of work in two hours.
- 6:30 Suxanne and Julie start primping for their dates.
- 6:45 The rest of the girls start getting ready for their dates.
- 7:25 The boys start getting ready. It doesn't take them as long.

Life of the seniors

- 7:30 P.M. Betty K. gets a call from Des Moines.
7:50 Coach V. begins devising a fiendish Government quiz for tomorrow.
8:00 Jerry B. accidentally dumps a can of pepper into the Breese House chicken.
8:26 Bob T. drops a stack of the Breese House's best dishes.
8:30 Boys' Basketball practice is over.
8:31 Roger arrives at Janice's house.
8:45 Clifford, LeRoy, Joe, Grant, and Dave arrive at the Plant Road to drag.
9:15 The boys drift uptown for a rumble with Saydel.
9:45 The dragsters go bushwhacking.
10:00 Gitta, Darla, JoAnn, Linda T., and Carolyn also go bushwhacking.
11:00 Roger, remember that training rules say that you're to be in bed at 10:00.
11:30 Roger, you have to run a lap tomorrow for every minute past 10:00 that you're out, if you're caught.
12:00 A.M. You're going to be awfully tired after those laps, Roger.
12:15 Roger sneaks safely home. No laps tomorrow.
12:20 Carla begins reading her eighty-sixth play for the play selection committee.
12:25 Betty K.'s Des Moines call finally hangs up. Thank Goodness it isn't a long distance call to Des Moines.
2:00 Barb wakens from a dream about basketball and boys.
2:10 Barb falls asleep still thinking about basketball and boys.
3:00 All the seniors are peacefully (we hope) slumbering, and another day in the life of the most exalted members of Ankeny High's student body ends.
