Crown Vetch Growers Meeting

ELDORA — The annual Crown Vetch Growers Association will meet from 10 a.m. - noon Wednesday at the Hardin Soil Conservation District office at the Post Office at Eldora.

Anyone interested is invited to attend. John Maddy, conservation agronomist, will lead an informal discussion on establishing and harvesting the crop.

There are 10 crown vetch growers in the county with 70 acres established. Seeding was started in 1966.
