Mr. Wayne Begg
Principal

To the student body of Ankeny High School:

We have now completed another successful year here at Ankeny. The seniors have passed an important milestone in their lives. The underclassmen still have that goal to attain. Some of us will return here next year but for some there are brighter horizons to fulfill.

I would like to leave you with one last thought by William Shakespeare. "Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them."

Our Class - The Class of 1968

That last year, they say, is the hardest. In some cases, maybe so. But to the seniors that made up our class, it was also a year of fun and true enjoyment.

Even through the sweat of unfilled requirements,
the rush of senior activities,
and pure responsibility,
this class mixed fun with business.

It is often said that you can tell a senior by—the gleam of commencement in his eye, the jokes he is brave enough to try, the assuredness with which he talks,
and the bounce he has when he walks.
The number of books he carries also reveals his attitude and how he feels about studying success knowledge and such.

The Sound of Senioritis 1968

or

A Thoroughly Modern History

"Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious,
Even though the sound of it is something quite atrocious,
If you say it loud enough, you'll always sound precocious,
Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious."

Practically perfect on the first day of school, 1955, were:

Danny Laurinas, Ricky Hornberg, Stevie Gardner,
Linda Ryan, Linda Lowe, Johnny Carlson,
Rod Lamberti, Davey Hoover, Mark Dillon,
Elaine Brazelton, Bobby Jones, Barbie Springer,
Moreno Giannasi, and Linda Schlenker.

"Let's start at the very beginning,

A very good place to start,

When you read you begin with A-B-C,

When you sing you begin with do-re-mi."

Learning to do-re-mi showed that these young ones could carry a tune:

Jerry Battani, Hogan Liechty, Harley Griffieon,
Johnny Hale, Lynn Pitts, Lois Buenz, Lois Thorson,
Kris Reynolds, Jimmy McKenna, Joe Hutton,
Mark Wilkins, Diana Durham, Suzi Dutcher,
Craig Heaton, Connie Sellers, Janice Neubauer,
Shirley Rousch, Barbie Nagle, Paula Carzoli,
Gwynne Doughten, Rodney Bennett, and Randy Harvey.

As they first tried out their wings,

These young ones brought "My Favorite Things":

Davey Harmon, Brucie Moore, Annette Zunkel,
Peggy Vogt, Randy Aunspach, Carol Gezel,
Linda Enquist, Tommy and Patty Heston,
Paula Lewis, Diane Kral, Mindy Kuhn,
Billy Randolph, Gary Suddeth, and Jeni Hawn.

"For every job that must be done,

There is an element of fun,

You find it and snap,

The job's a game!"

The "Spoons Full of Sugar" in 1956 were Dave Johnson,
The Wiuffs (Bruce and Bryan), Greg Cowan,
Sterling Lundell, and Linda Sampson.

Pam Millard and Marla Christenson brought "Something Good,"
As Derrel Hoy, Brad Wilson, and Jeff Susic also joined the brotherhood.

When the third grade basic skills tests did stun,
They "Loved to Laugh" and had the best of fun,
With Tom Burrows, Bob Rounds, Lauri Johnson,
Becky Stelpfulg, Kathy Albaugh, Wayne Johnson,
Gary Shields, Dennis Albaugh, and Warren Johnson.

Eating "Topioca" with all of the rest were:

Henry Brinkman, Steve Perry, Corlos Glover,
Mike Reese, Howard Davidson, Brian Cooper,
Lorritta Cortum, Cathy Huff, Cathy Tscherter,
Linda Smith, and Sandee Eggers.

The fifth grade was yodelingly happy when Came "The Lonely Goatherd" (Bob Terrell) and Janet Dawson.

"I'm Just an Ordinary Man" sang Sterling as he made the switch,
With Pat Cosler, Jamie Hart, Pat White, and Diane Despotovich.

"I'm a jazz baby—
Little jazz baby, that's me!"
Tom Burrows was a seventh grade jazz baby,
As were Ron Husted, Marsha Gurita, and Alice Gannaway.

"Wouldn't It Be Lovely" to have had more of these for fun:
Steve Fausch, Terry McCampbell, Tom Agan,
Pat Barrett, Cindi Davis, Pat Brazelton,
And, of course, our Andrea Nelson.

Ninth grade had "A Jolly Holiday With Mary" (Westrom), Scottie Baughman, Tom Woods, Ruth Halliday,
Don Corwin, Janet Scharnweber, Jerry Catron,
Judy Twidt, Debbie Grant, Bryan Hudson,
Georgia Gamm, Debbie Bahls, Ron Longnecker,
Doug Leavengood, Butch Marshall, and Jim Glanzer.
Jane Greer and "Jimmie" McKenna they also did prefer.

"Just You Wait" upperclassmen, just you wait!
Was their motto as these sophomores planned their fate:
Paul Kuhlman, Barbara Breen, Don Edwards,
Pat Frick, Shirley Skarda, Sandy Parsons,
Bob Shelquist, Sandi Hall, Jim Dyar,
James Case, Linda Howard, and Jim Brauer.
Jackie Plunkett was sure she knew
That "With a Little Bit of Luck," they'd all pull through.

"I could have danced all night, I could have danced all night,
And still have begged for more.
I could have spread my wings and done a thousand things
I've never done before."
Waltzing through their own special year,
These people for the seniors had not one tear:
Michelle Armel, Bob and Steve Gordon,
Frank Fritz, Steve Call, Nancy Nettleton,
Carol Pitka, Terry Smyser, Betsy Lancaster,
Sherri Hansen, Sandy Steinbach, and Martha Hunter.
They and Bill Robbins knew that when they told the seniors
They could do "Without You," they were not inferiors.

"I Have Confidence" were the words that spurred on:
Don McCanse, Jan Politsch, Linda Button,
Jim Miller, Bev Butrin, and Barb Nelson.
"I've grown accustomed to her face,
She always makes the day begin,
I've grown accustomed to the tune
She whistles night and noon,
Her joys, her woes, her highs, her lows."
Senior pictures were fun and helped them all to recall
How Mark Billings, Steve Van Oort, and Ware Grove came in the fall.
"Climb e'vry mountain, search high and low."

Out into the world went Rod Lamberti, Brenda Hute, Bob Jones, and Edna Carlo.

—Betsy Lancaster (with the aid of Pat Barrett and Mrs. George Lancaster)

Seniors in Action

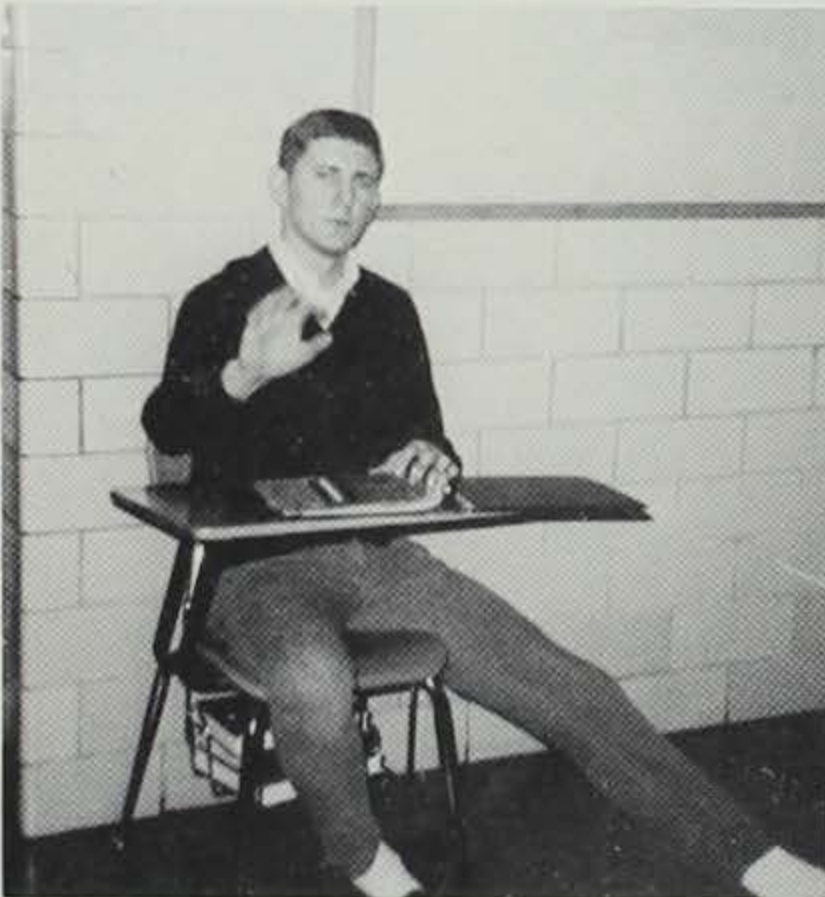

"Oh darn, my favorite fish died."

"I'm afraid of heights."

"And then she . . ."

"That's far enough. Let's see your pass."

A freshman knows naught and knows not that he knows naught;
A sophomore knows naught and knows that he knows naught;
A junior knows, but knows not that he knows;
A senior knows and knows that he knows.

"No, you can't have my locker door."

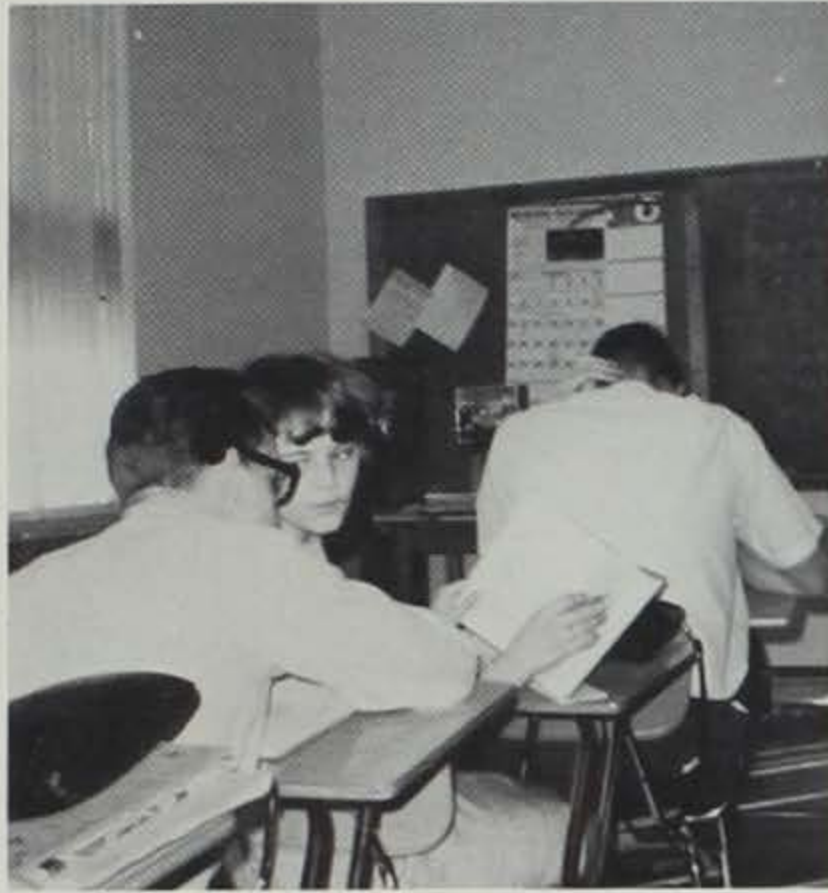

"Busy—aren't we?"

"That away Bob . . . stuff it in."

These are what little boys are made of.

"Auh, come on Bryan, help me."

Take this specimen to the Biology Room.

"My claps are louder than yours."

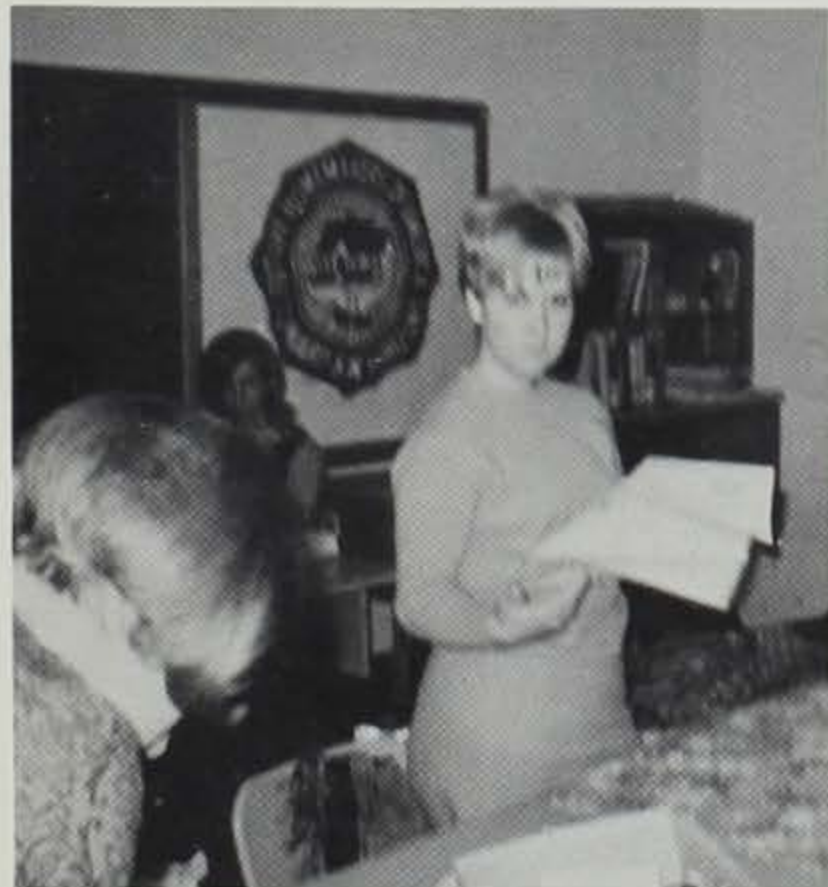

"Well, that does present a problem."

"So what if I DO like peanut butter and pickle sandwiches?"

"Heck, I don't know how to do it either."

"Oh no! I'm making a dress instead of a pair of pants."

"I must have grown in the last two weeks."

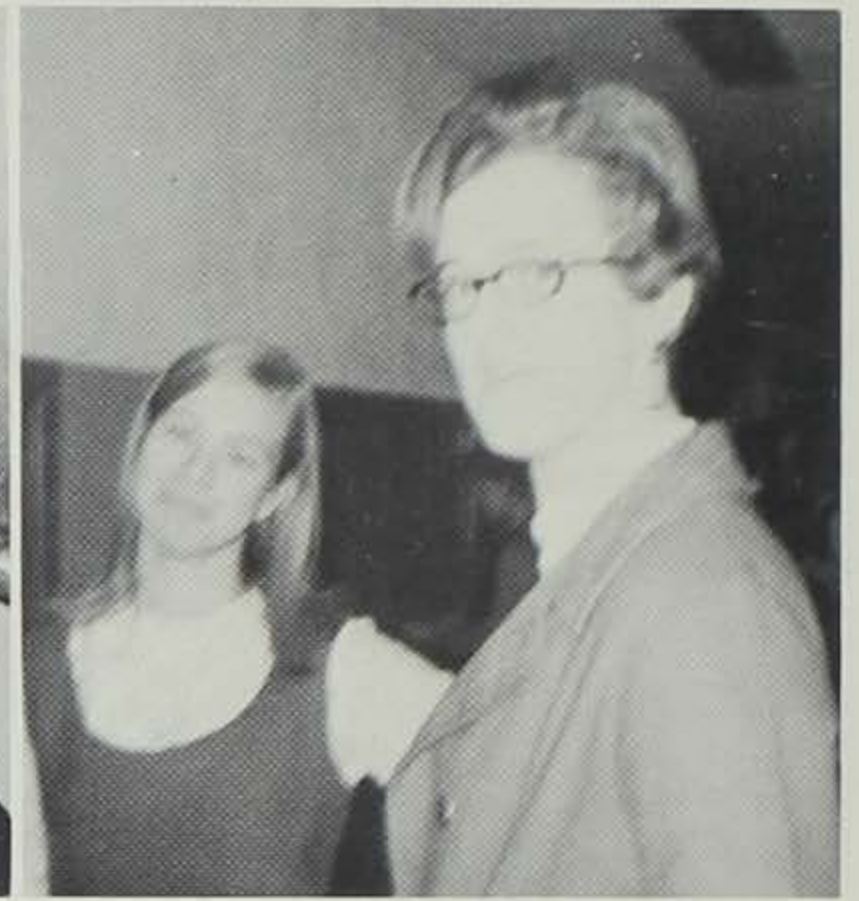

"I do NOT wear orange underwear!"

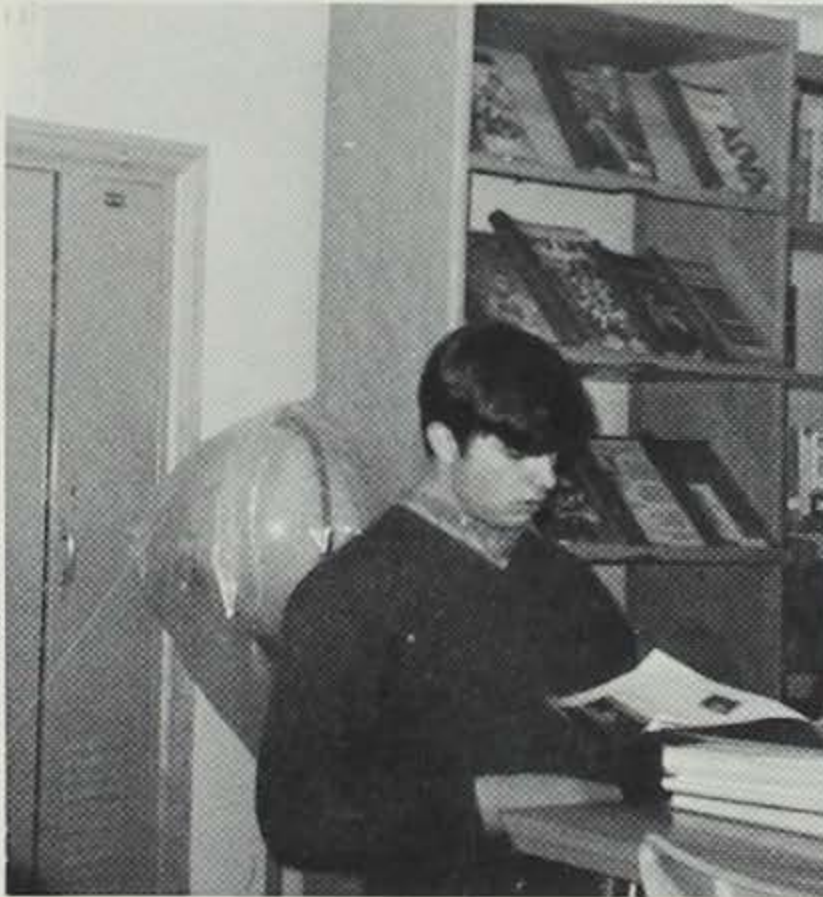

"Well, You see it's like this . . ."

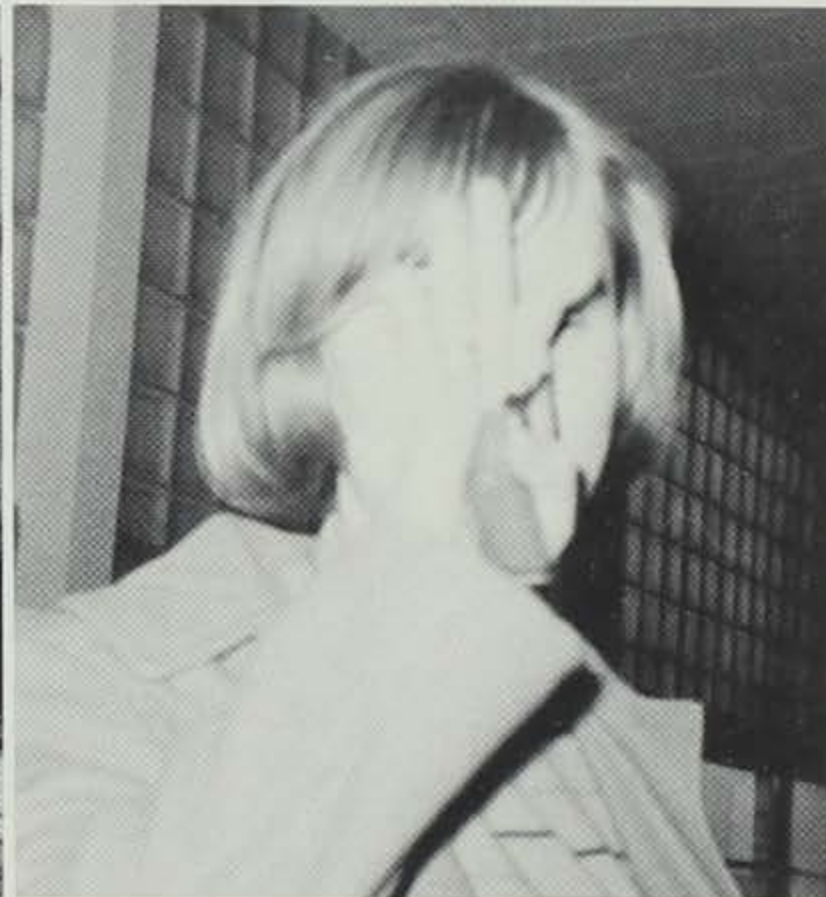

"Sure, I get help from the teacher—what better place to get the right answers?"

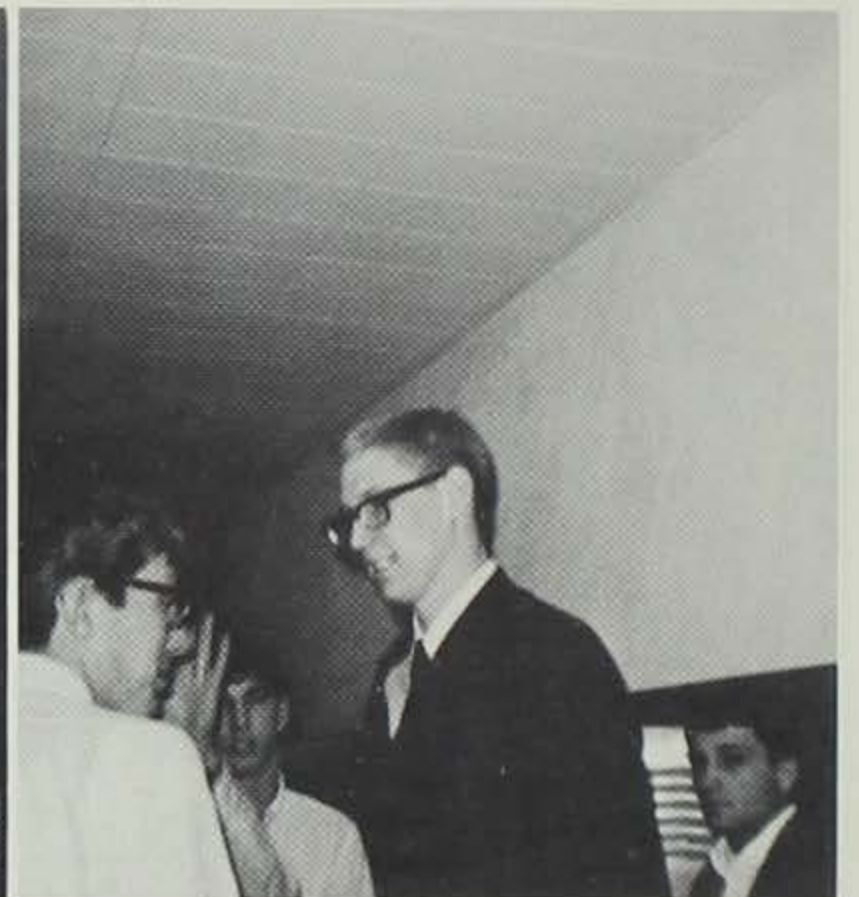

"O.K. you guys."

"Wake up Bill, Wake up."

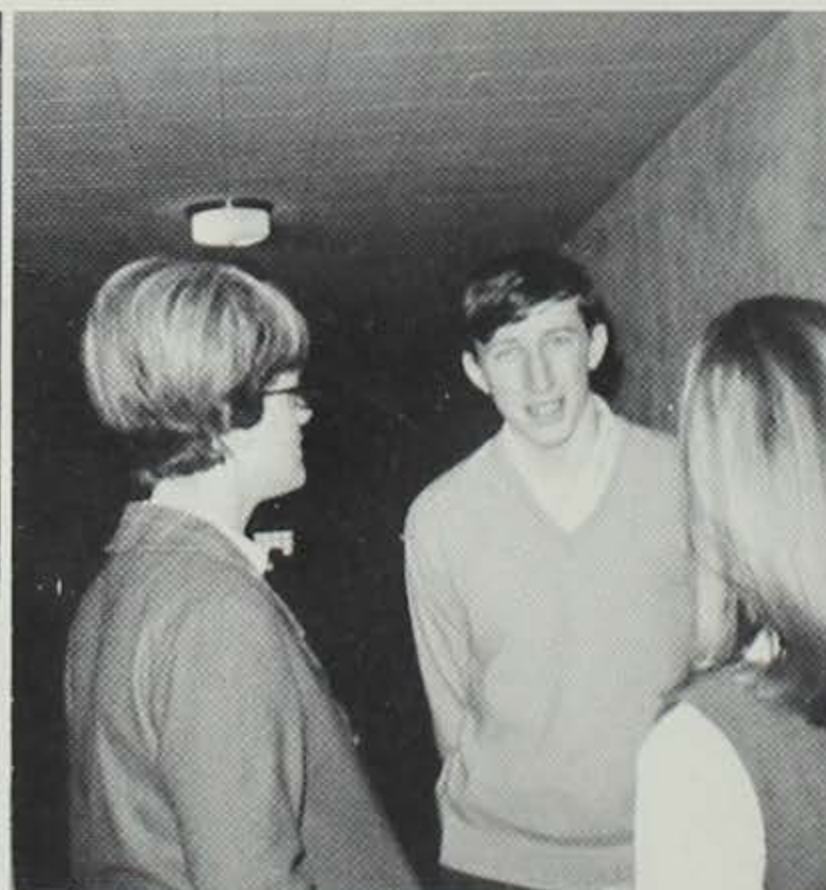

"I'm three and a half years old."

"Yea, but I'm still bigger than you are!"

"Oh, but Mr. Hunter—It's so EARLY to be artistic!"

"But . . . I didn't do it!"

"What do YOU want?"

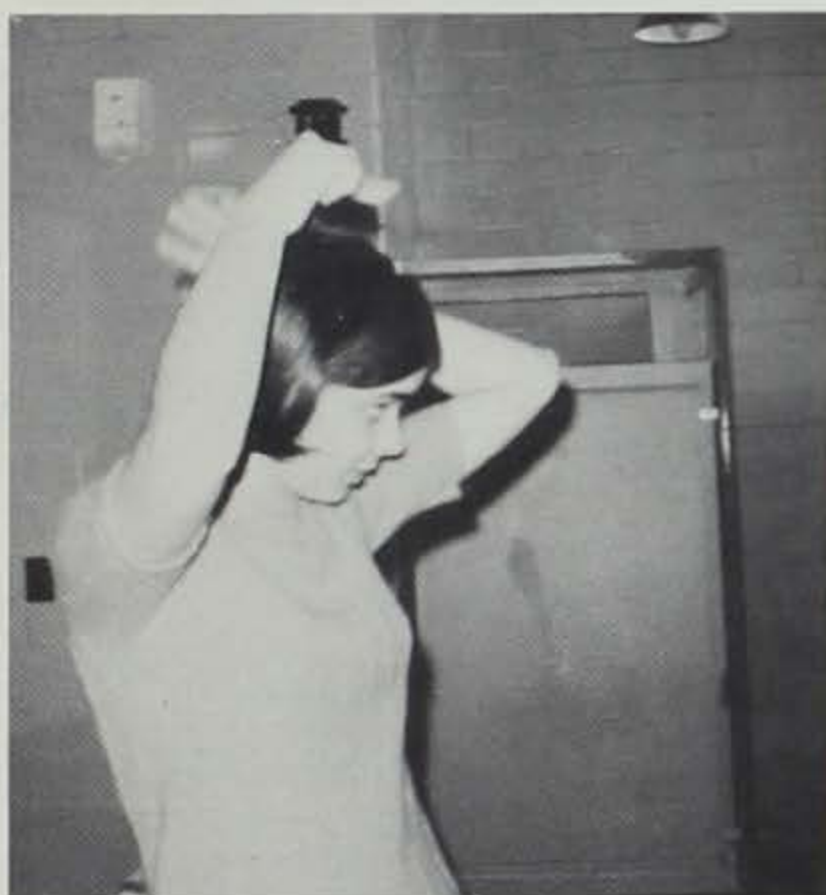

"This DARN term paper!"

"Sometimes I wonder about this class."

"Dear Maude mouse please stay out of my sack lunches . . ."

"My White Rain hairspray doesn't hold even in the shower."

"Boy, how I hate nuts with cameras."

"I'm ahawk and I'm proud of it."

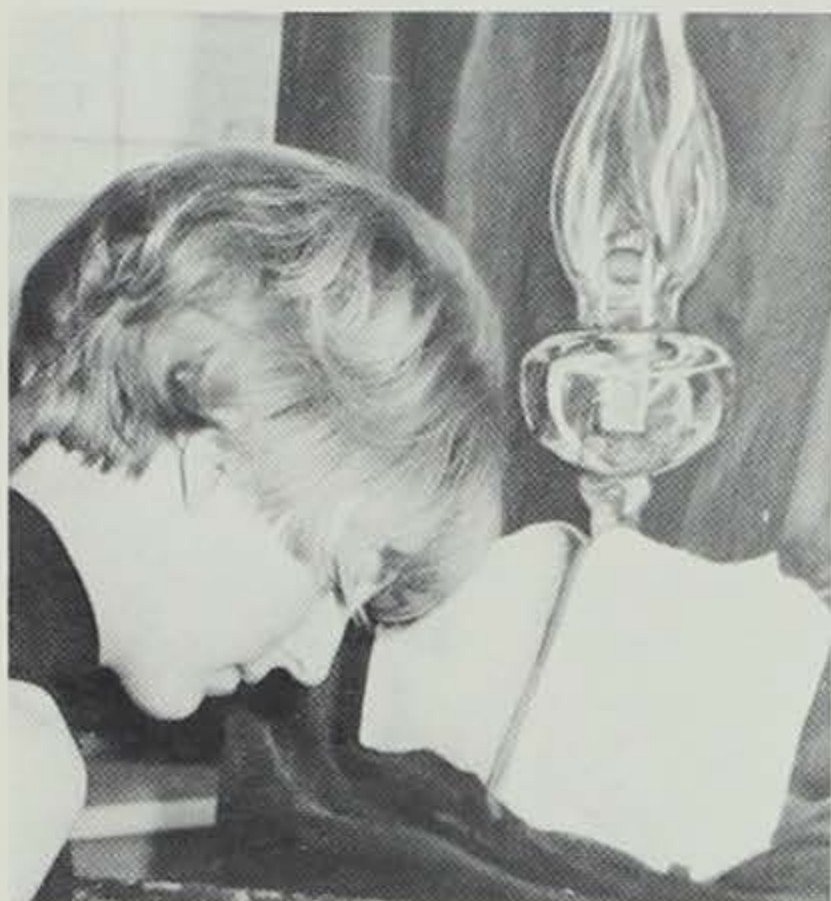

"What, sauerkraut AGAIN?"

"Hello, all you boys out there in T.V. land."

Are you bored?

The grandma moses of A.H.S.

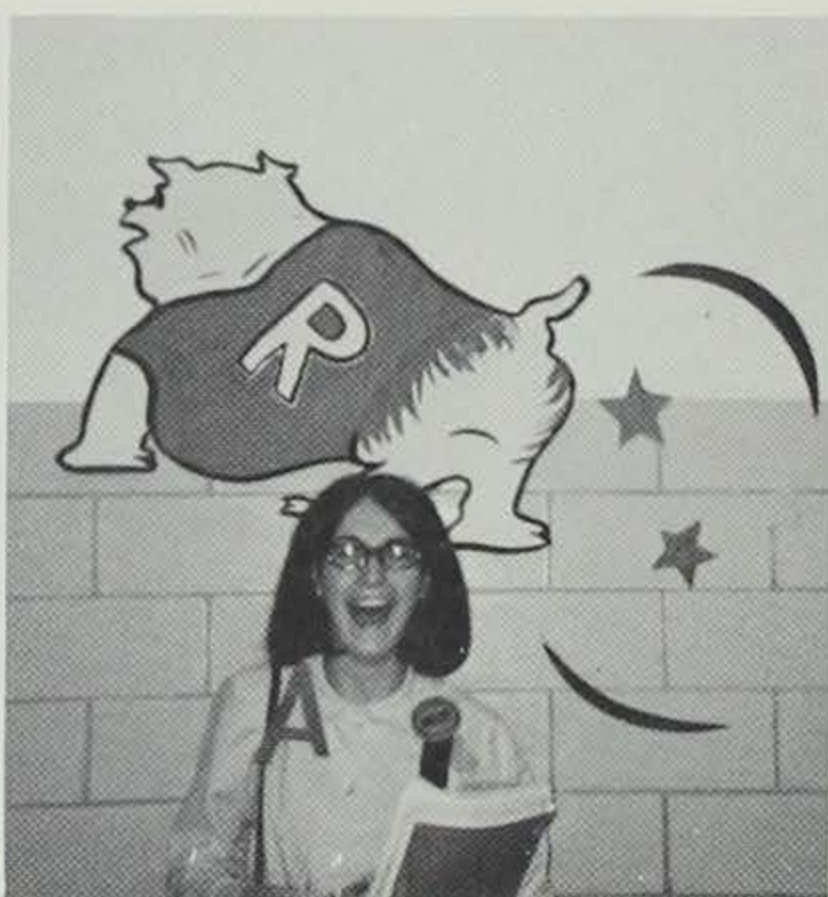

"Mr. Ireland! My how you've changed!"

"You're making what?"

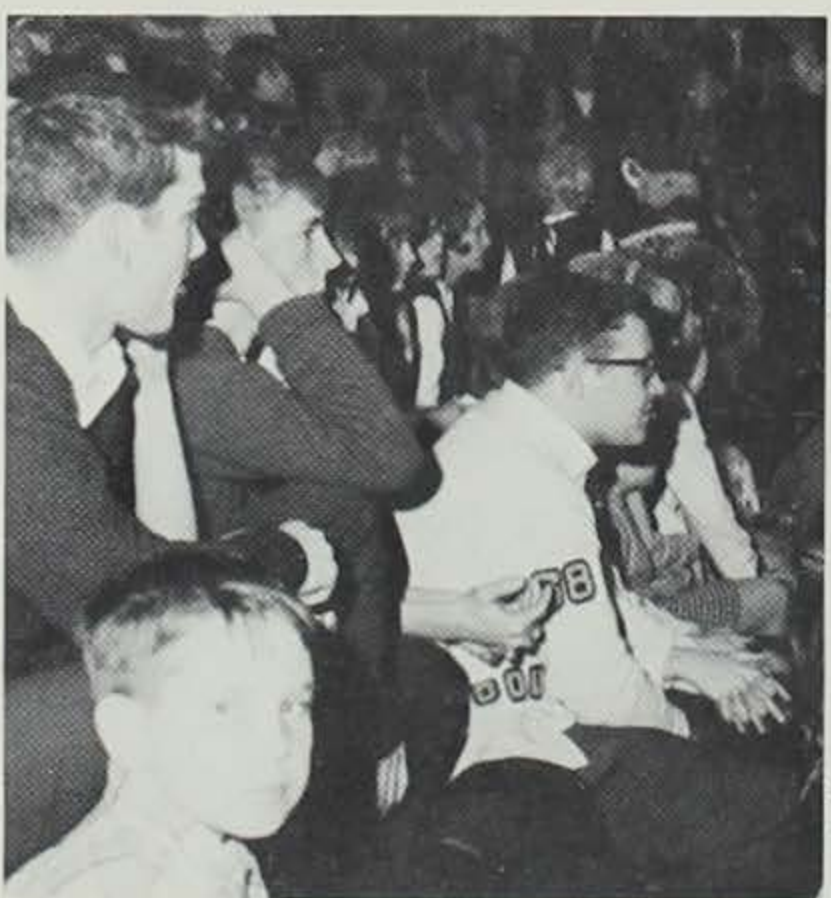

The things that run across a girl's mind when she's rolling paint!

A REAL fan!!

"That DARN hangnail!"

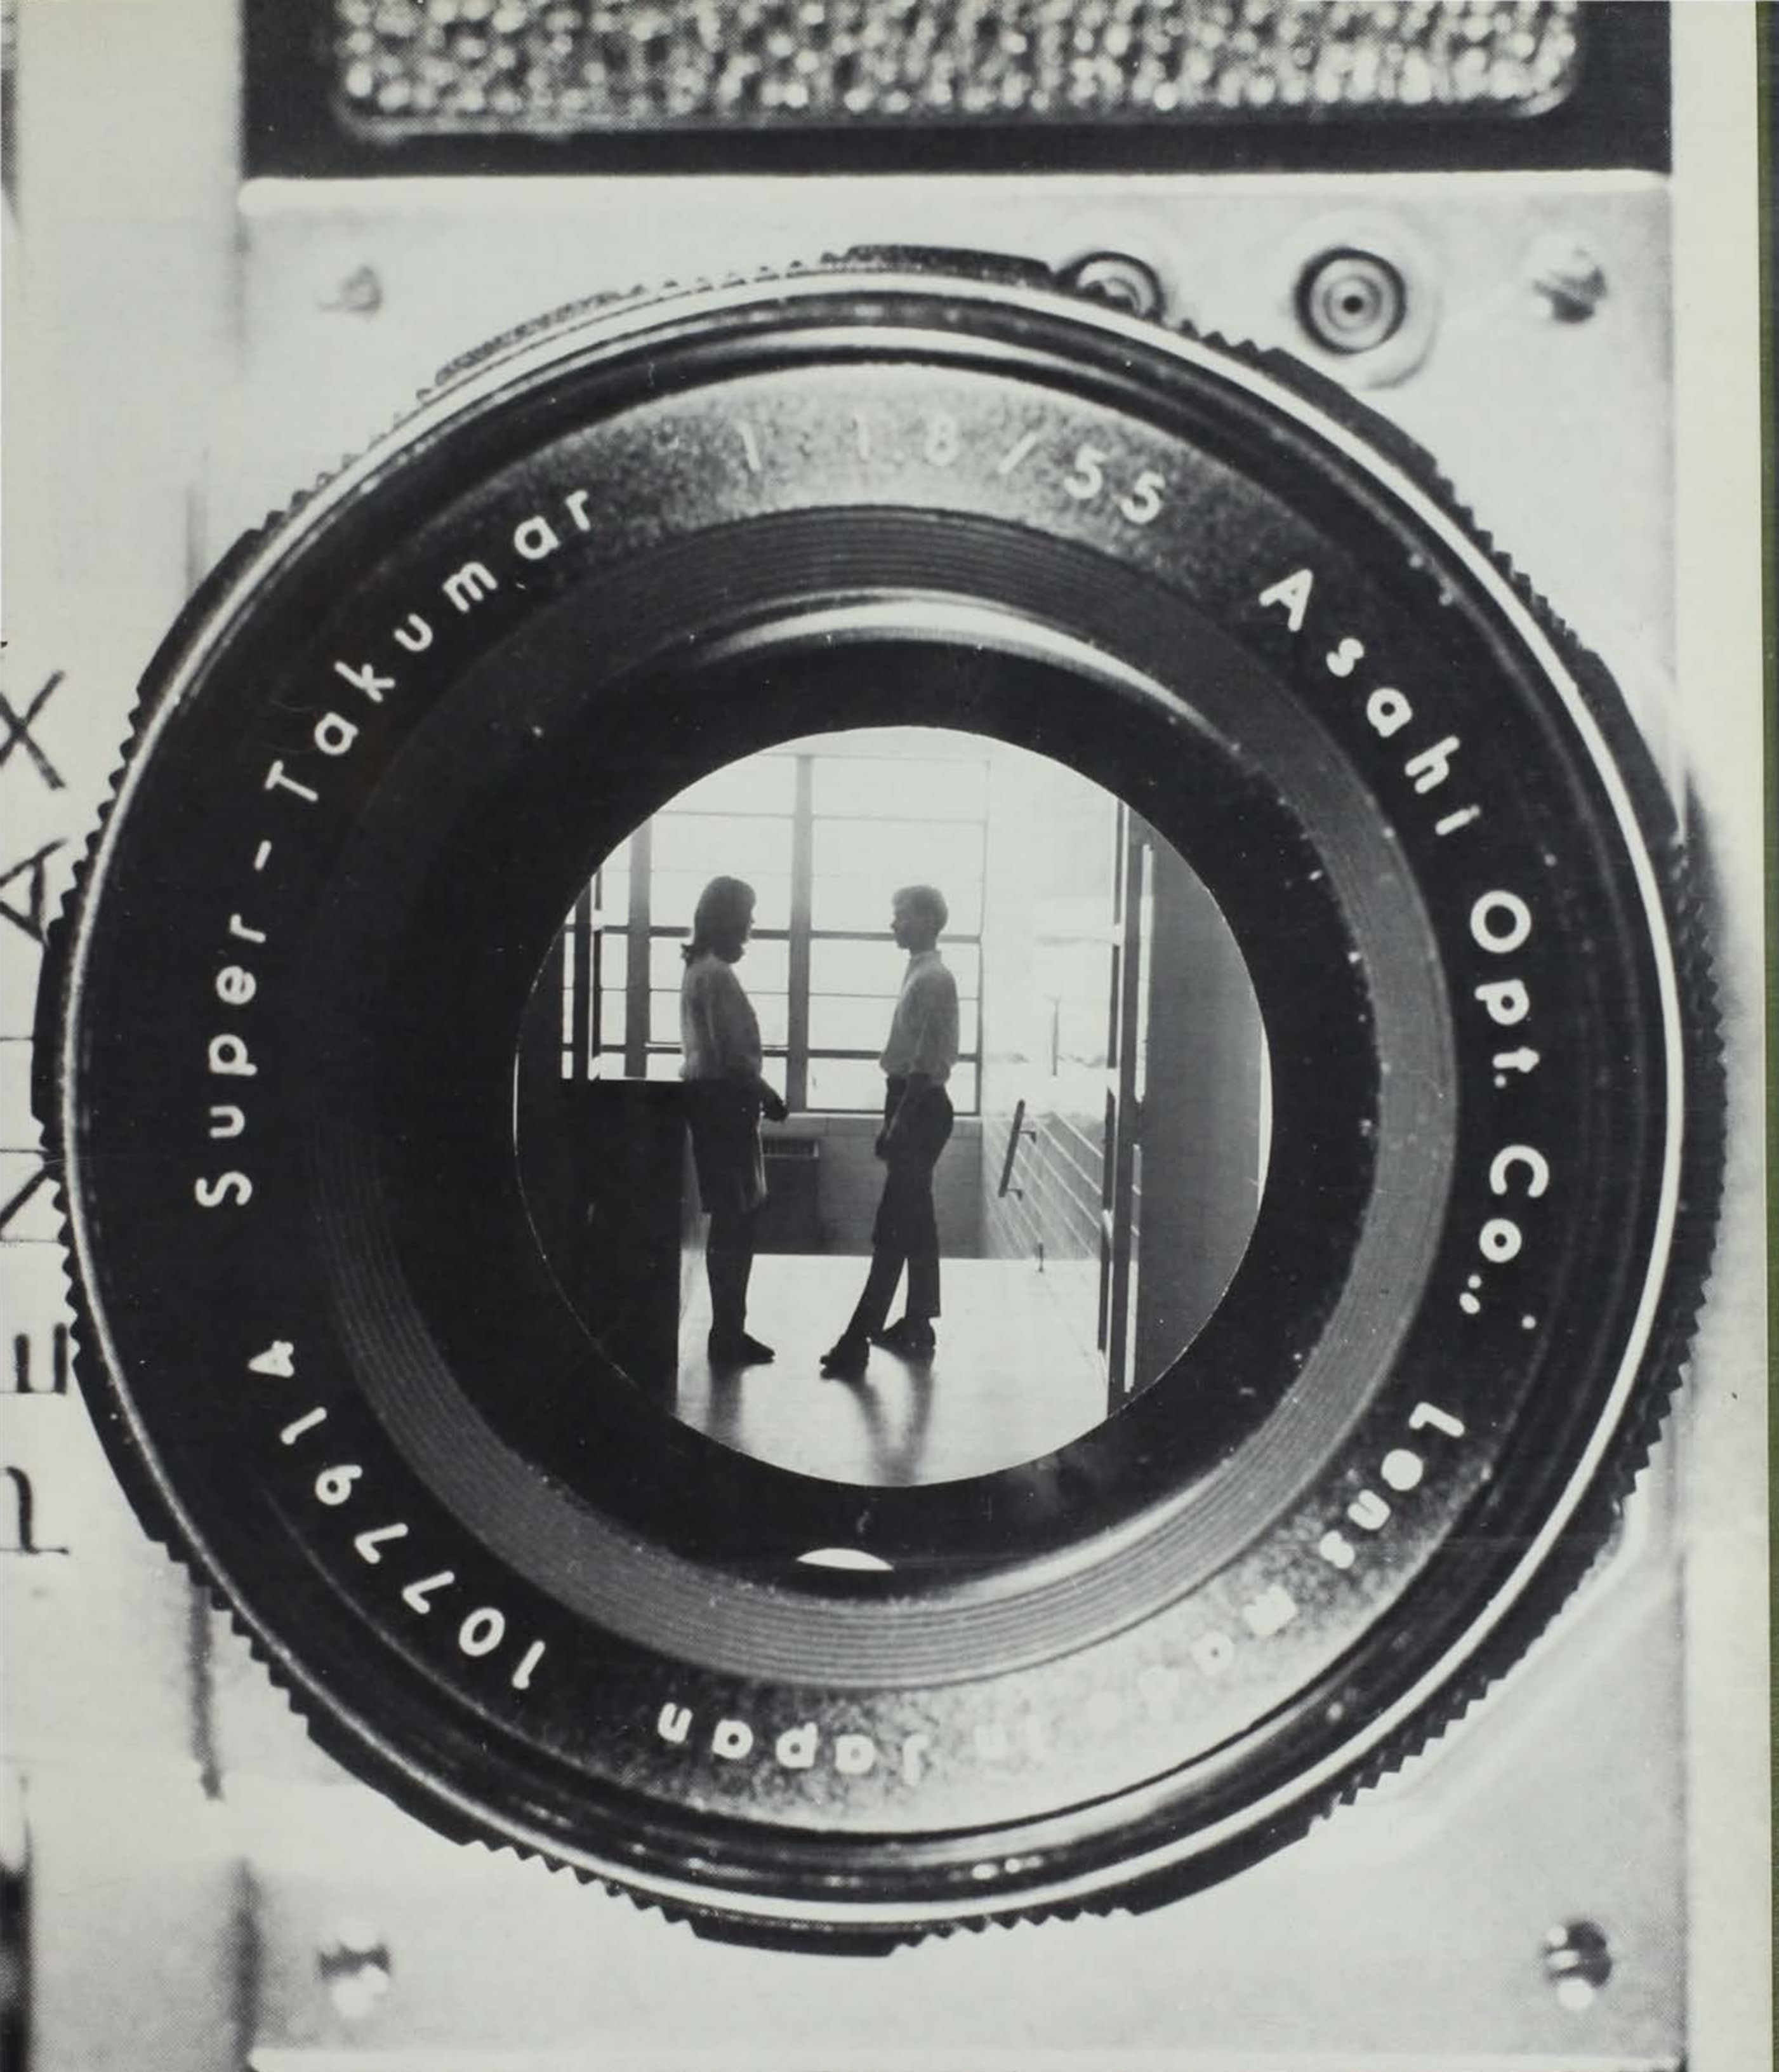

"That Doug Leavengood! He's holding her hand so tight that the circulation must be cut off."

Master at work.

"Studying goes to my head!"

"O.K., who stole my Right Guard?"

"The cat doesn't have my tongue. See!!!"

"I just love wrestling meets. Don't you?"

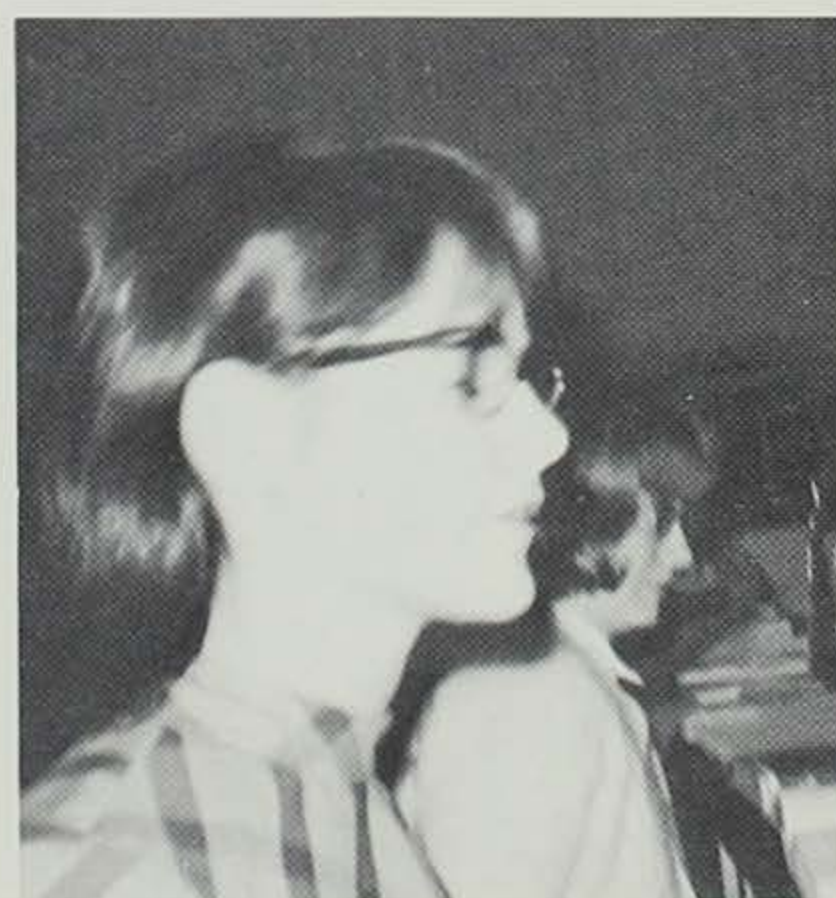

"What do you mean the bell rang 2 seconds ago?"

"Give me a bite—so I'll know whether I should buy my lunch."

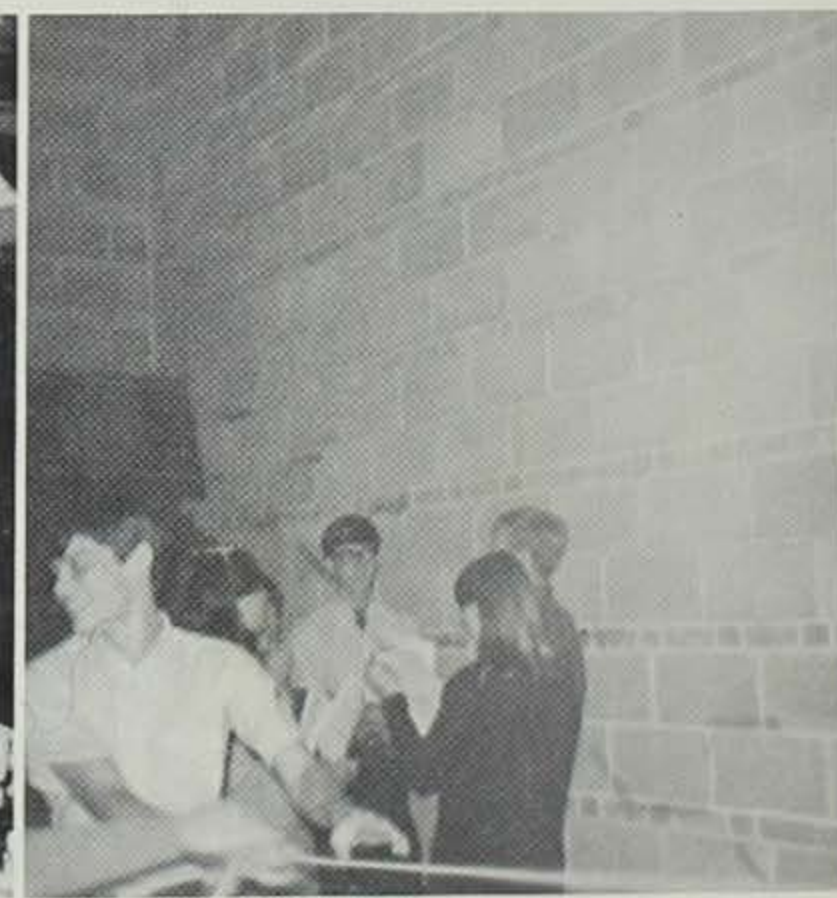

"Do you think this will fit in my mouth?"

Come on wake up, it's boring, but it's not that boring.

"What do you mean, don't feed the basketball players?"

"I've got a tiger by the tail!!"

"That's what I've been trying to tell you."

"If she thinks combing her hair will help—she has another think coming."

"We don't sell L.S.D. here."

"Happiness is . . . having a clean gym suit."

"Of course we are a lively group before 1st hour—English hasn't started yet."

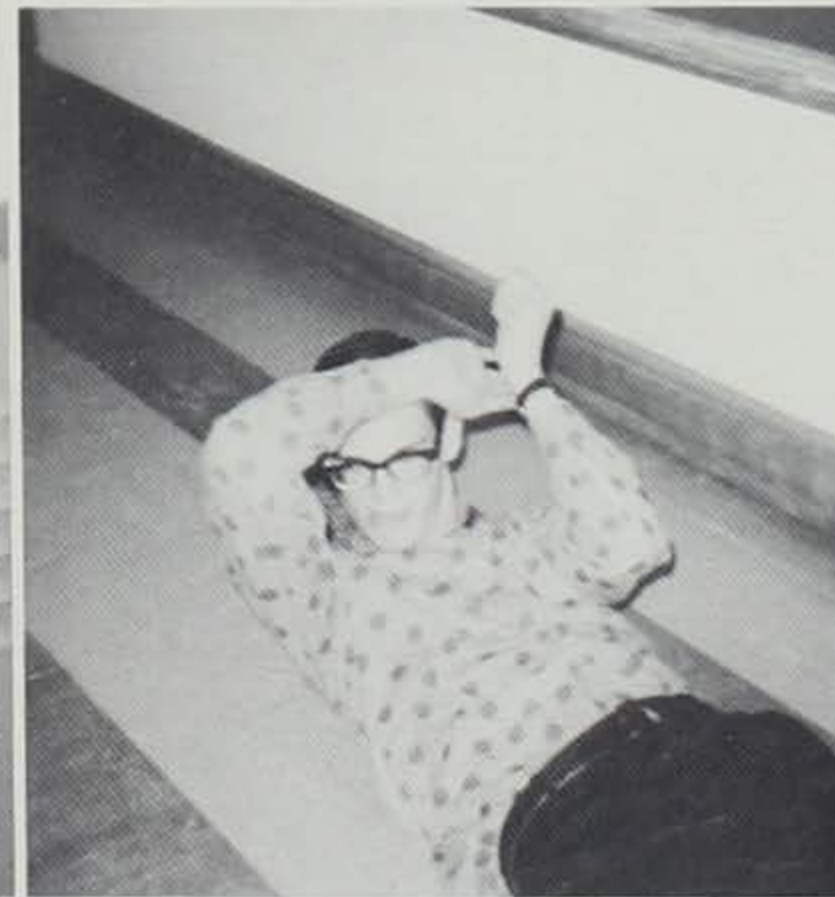

"Books, books, books . . . that's all Miss Schreiber ever thinks of."

Then Tears

A cap, a gown
A slow march
A warm hand
A crisp paper
A rose
A sigh of relief
Recessional
Then tears
Why?
The world waits
The future calls
Where will you go?
Onward, away
And leave something here,
A part of you
Your friends,
Your joy is here
Was here
Remember?
The laughter fades
The cheers—a game won
A grade made
A party planned
A smile—a song
A scrapbook
Full of memories
A scrap of paper
A faded streamer
A torn program
A treasured letter
Close the book
Turn out the light
These days have passed
Let them go.

Contemporary Christmas was the basis for decorations at the annual Crystal Ball. The dance, sponsored by the senior class, was held Saturday night, December 23, 1967. The colors chosen were blue and green, accented with white. Jerry Catron was master of ceremonies and nine senior girls sang "We Need a Little Christmas" and "Cherish". Santa Claus, the "Man of the Hour", also made an appearance.

Ankeny Pep in Action

Ankeny High School,
Ankeny High School,

Ever staunch and true
Ever loyal, ever willing,
We will stand by you.

Rah! Rah! Rah!
Maroon and Gold,
We love our colors,

Keep them ever high,
Onward and upward
Till our goal is nigh.

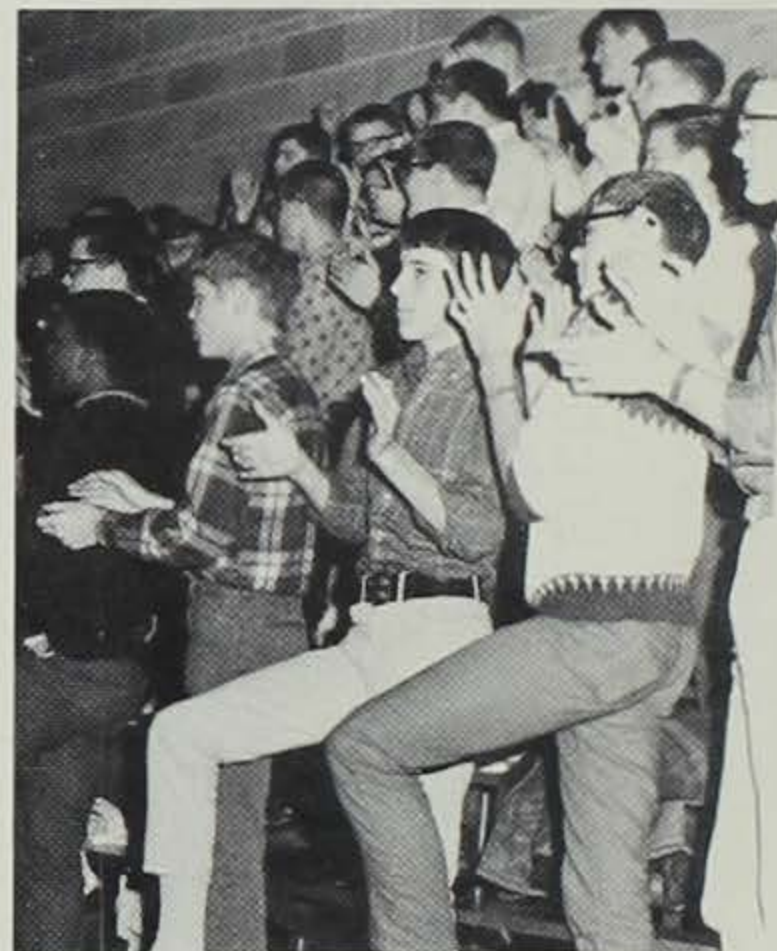

Fight!
Oorah! Oorah!
Ankeny Oorah!

Team! Team!
Fight, Team, Fight!

Cheer; cheer; for old Ankeny High
Our love for Ankeny will never die.
Send our leaders out to cheer,

So that our team will know we're here
We never fumble, we never fall.
We have the team to win over all.

We're the team from A.H.S.
So fight on to victory.
Fight!

The Gage family is seeking peace and a chance for father to write a "best-seller." So they settle down in the old farmhouse they have purchased. When the Rockwoods start to move in, the Gages are horrified. The Rockwoods have the right to live in the house according to an old deed, but since everyone thought they were dead it didn't seem important. A hilarious contest for possession begins, with neither able to turn the other out.

Dear Phoebe

Bill Hastings, a likeable young college teacher, tired of correcting freshman English themes, decides to become a newspaper man. After many tribulations, he finally gets in to see the managing editor, the redoubtable and irascible G. R. Fisdick. He feels lucky to have a job until he finds that he is the new "Aunt Phoebe Goodheart," dispenser of advice to the lovelorn. Bill falls hard for Mickey Riley, the female sports writer, and together with her, he solves a murder before the next morning's deadline. Their task is made no simpler by the arrival on the scene of many strange and wonderful characters. Somehow, virtue and true love triumph in the end.

Opening Night

After rehearsal—it’s late.

You may now kiss the bride.

“Cheesecake! You know this paper never prints cheesecake.”

And she struk a pose. . . .

“I now dub you Phoebe Goodheart!”

And this is Big Joe Moroni.

F.H.A. District Meeting (October 7, 1967)

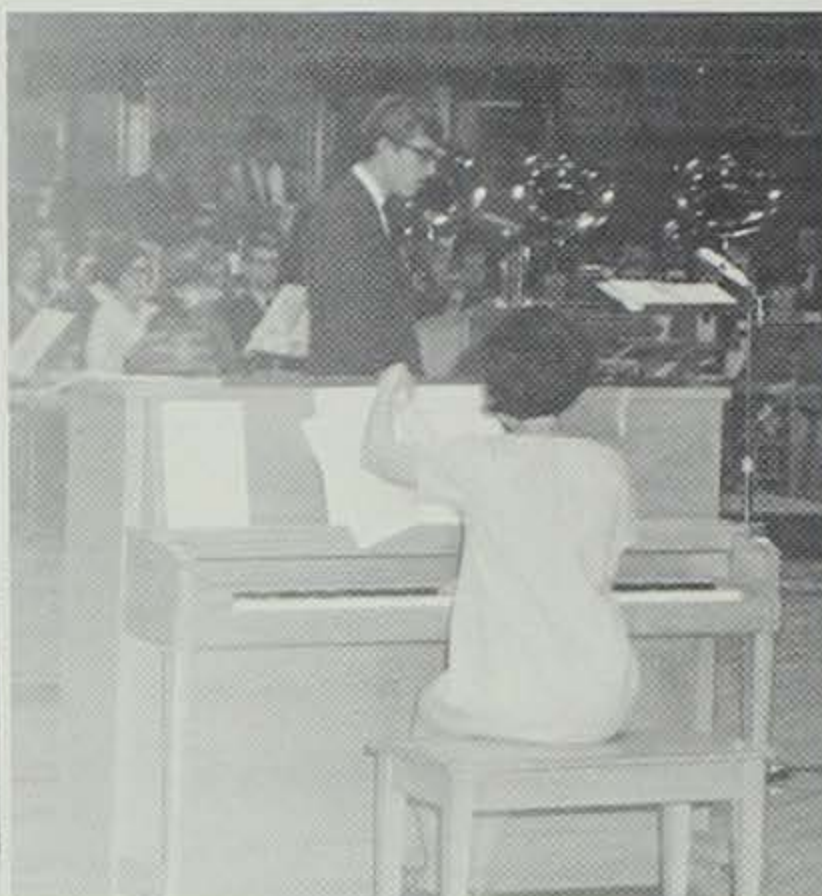

The annual F.H.A. District Meeting was held at Ankeny High School on October 7, 1967. This was the first district meeting Ankeny has ever hosted. There were approximately 400 girls present, representing sixteen chapters in district seven. The theme of the meeting was, "Citizenship Challenges You!"

“A Look at the Clubs at A.H.S.”

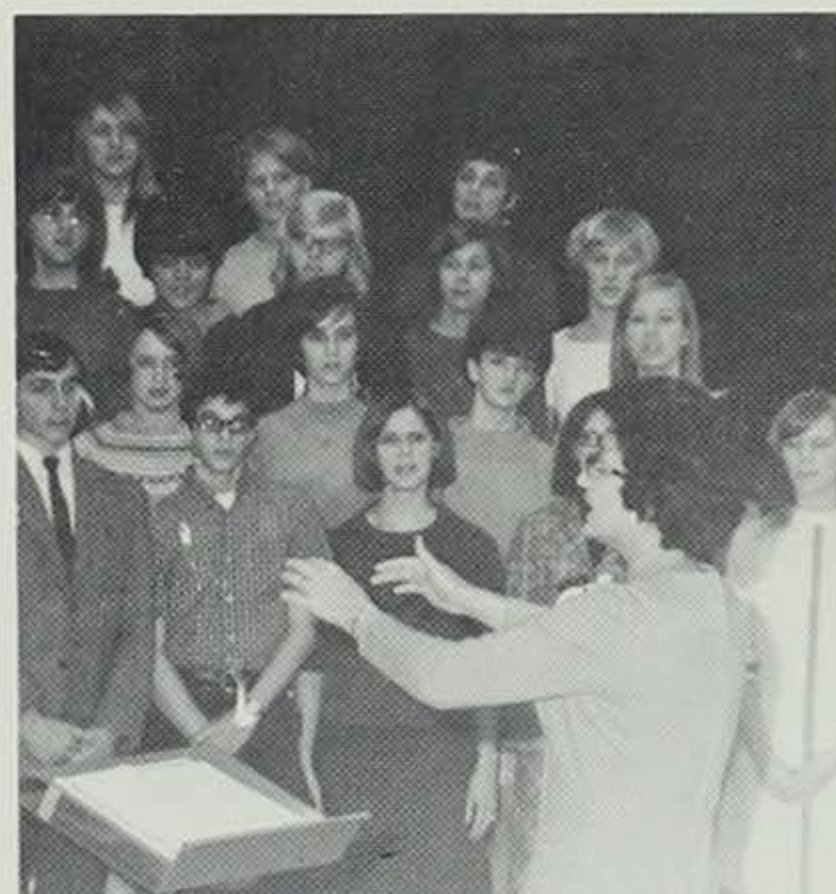

All they ever do is sit.

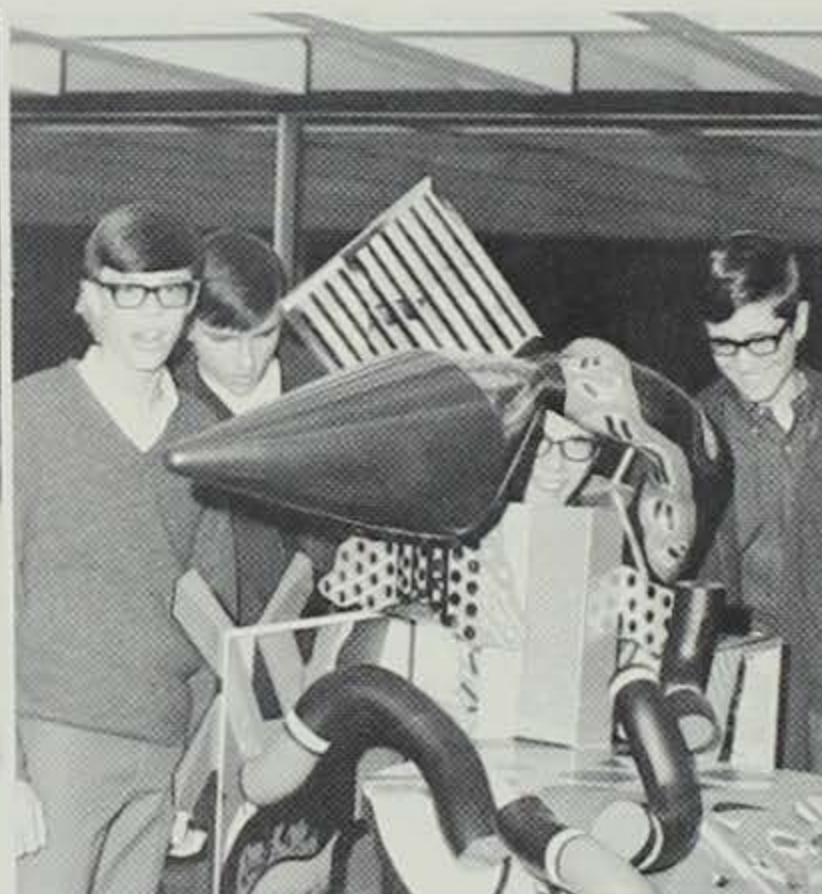

Steve's solo: "O Holy Night."

"Golly, I could do better than that."

The Mixed Chorus' Christmas Concert

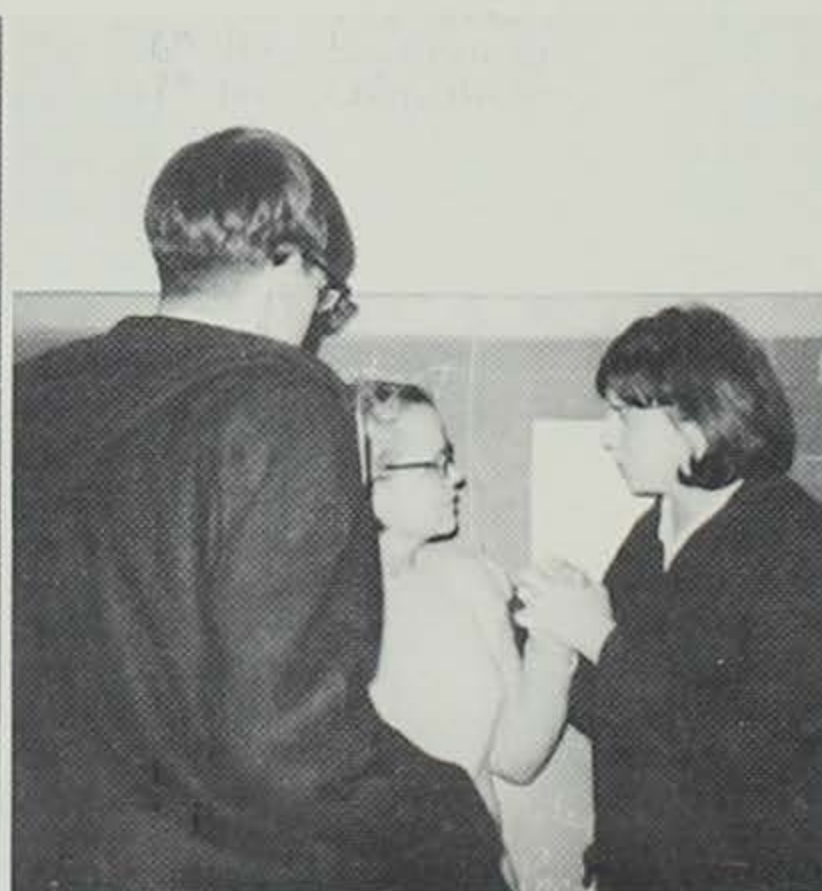

"What did you say this was called, Mr. Hunter?"

The Hawks' loyal supporters.

The loyal, but frozen Pep Band members.

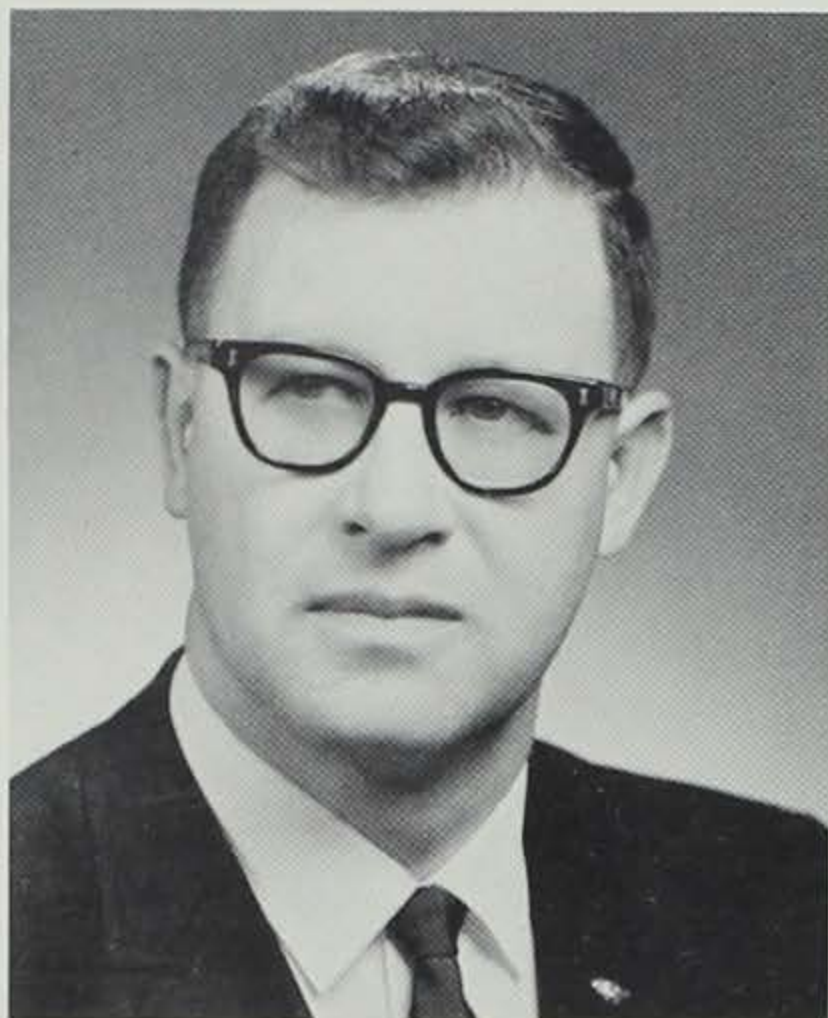

"That's o.k. Betsy. We understand."

The girls at the F.H.A. 21st. Birthday Party.

I've a future I must build

There are plans that I must draw.
Then let this timid hand of mine
Be guided, line for line,
With that steady, certain trueness
Of the Hand that planned
This universe.

There are materials I must choose.
Then let this casual mind of mine
Choose with the wisdom of the Mind
That fixed the substances
Of things like grass and trees
And mountain peaks.

There are decisions I must make.
Then let me make them with that sureness
That divided land and sea,

And day and night, the birds that fly
And beasts that roam the field.

There's a determination I must have.
Then let me bind myself unto such things
As principles, and truth, and right
With that same permanence
That holds in their celestial places
The sun, and stars,
And all the heavens' gems.

I've a future I must build.
So, let me build it with such care,
such tools, such wisdom,
And with such a rugged firmness,
That all the fiercest thrusts
Of host or elements
Cannot destroy it.

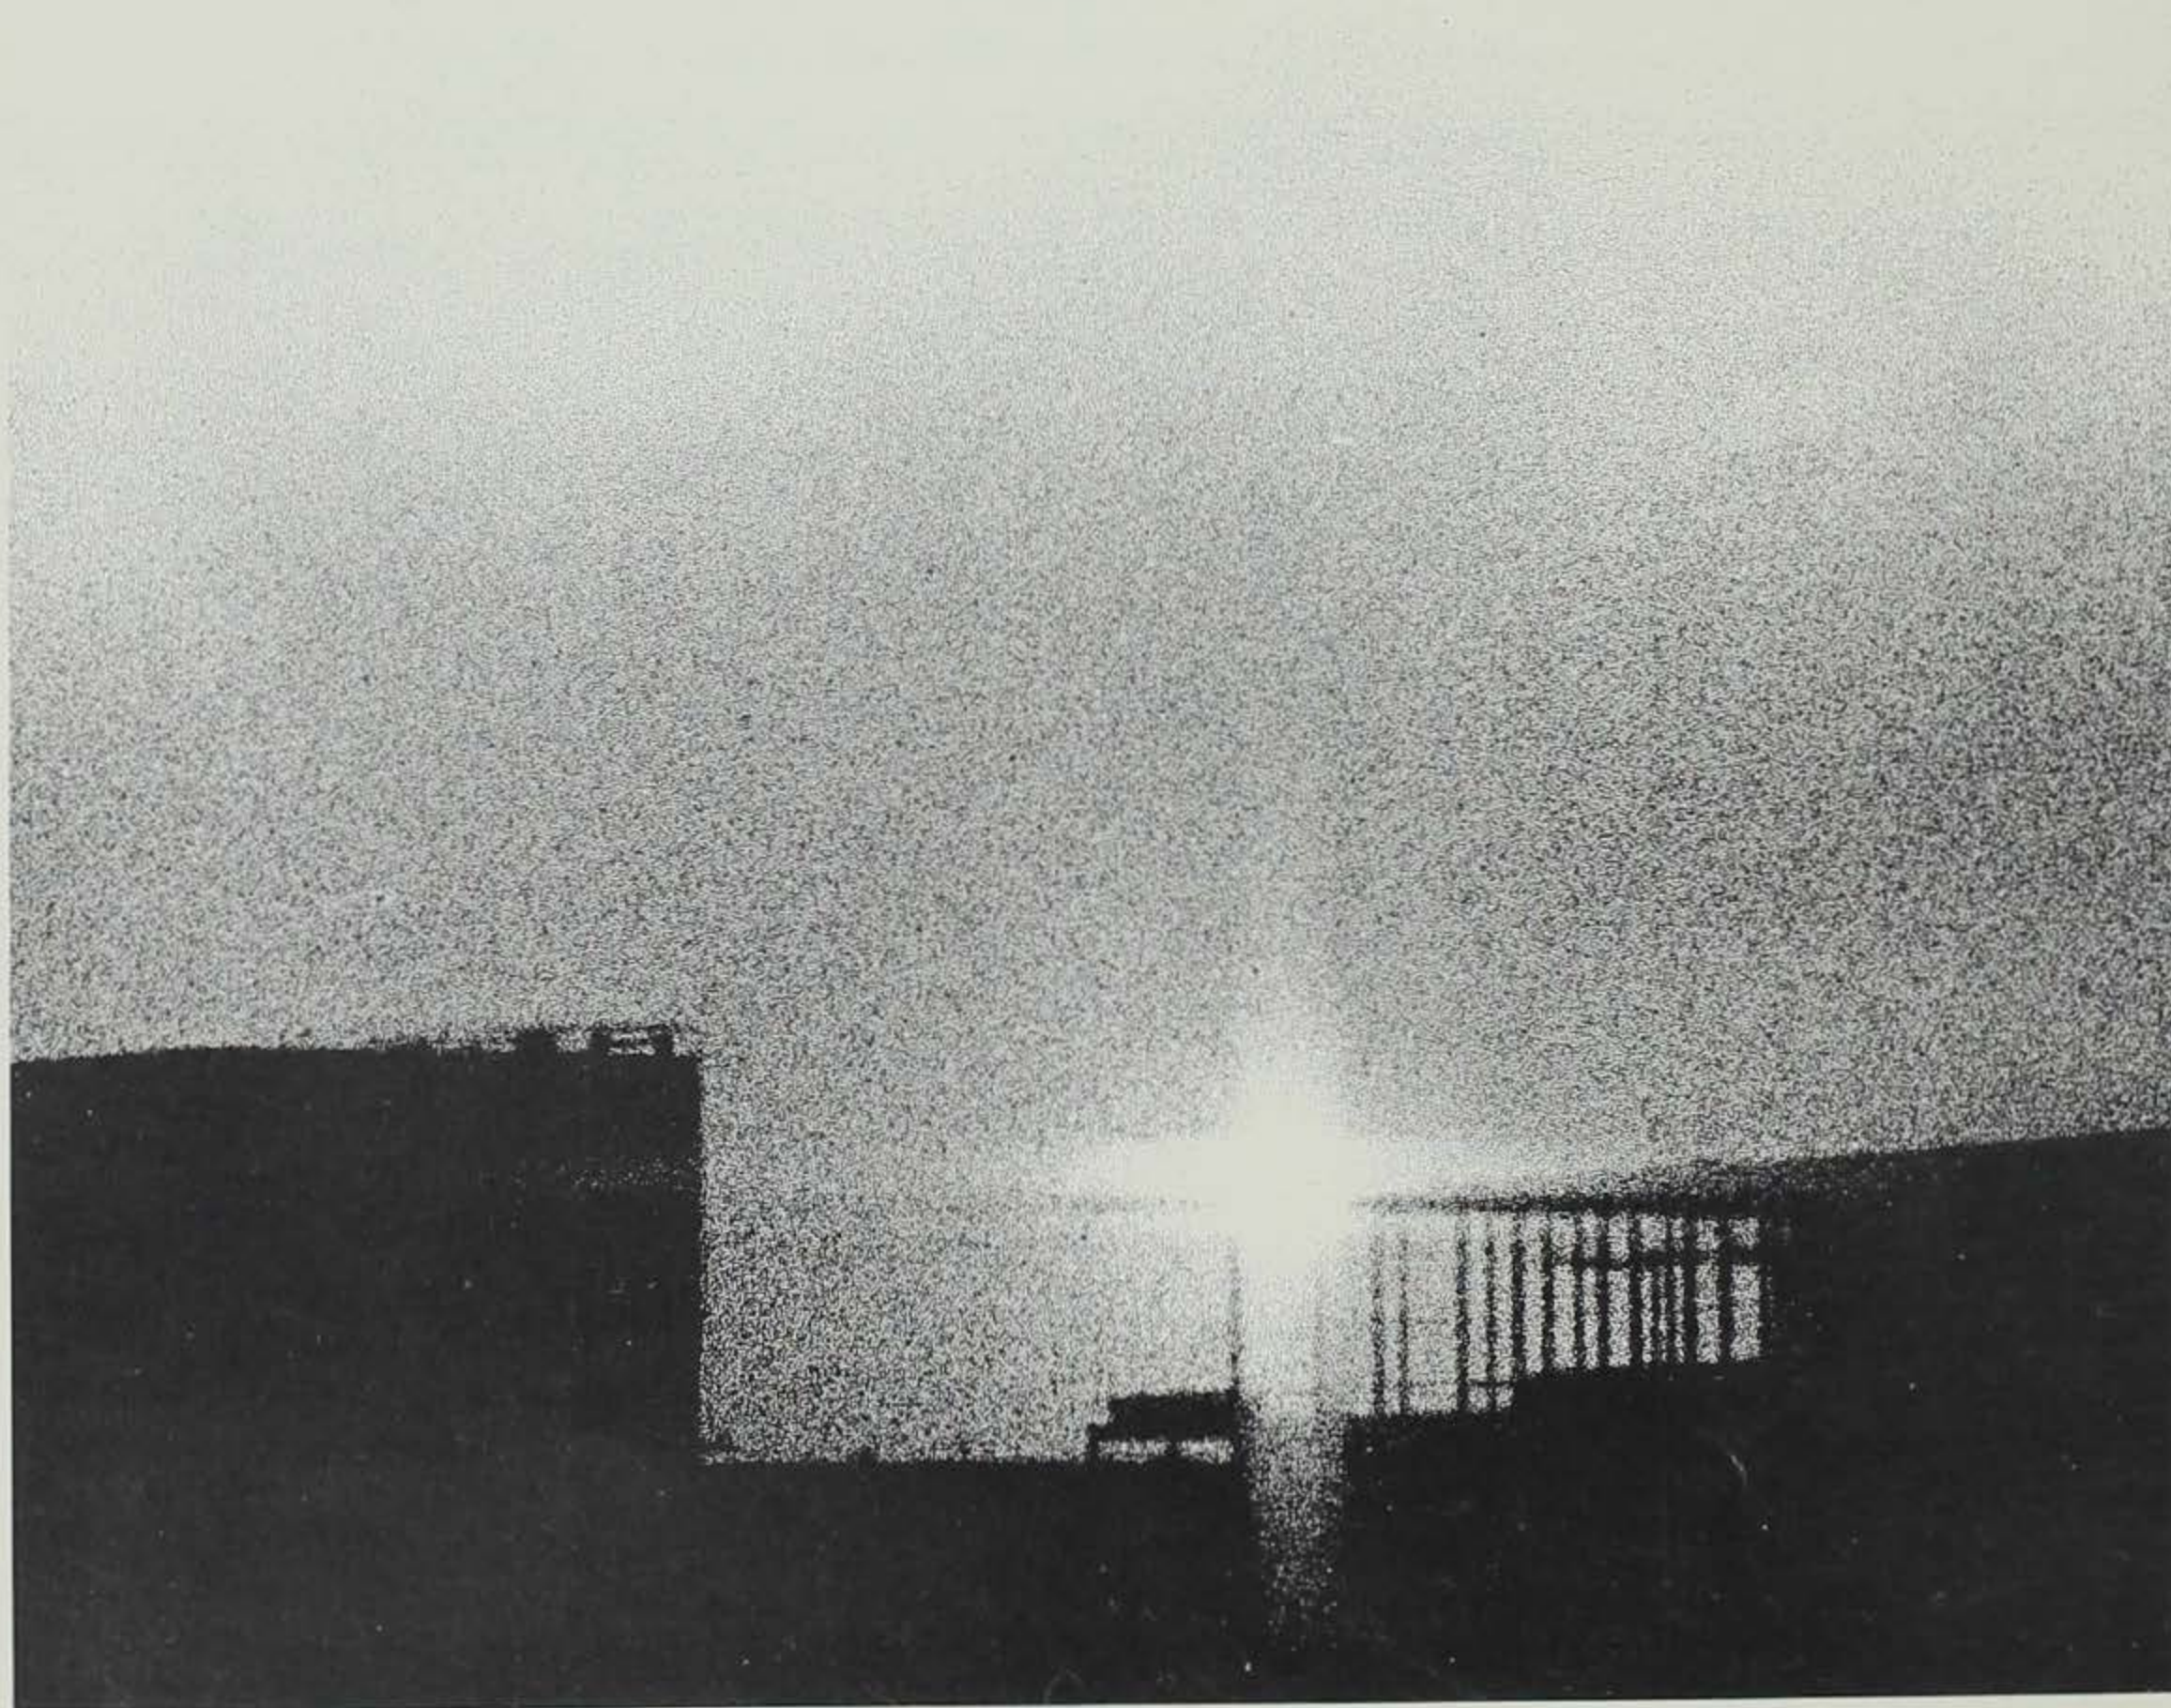

Aye, I've a future I must build . . .
Let me rise, then, to the task!

A Farewell

As the shutter closes the lens on Close-Up '68, we, as editors, feel an urge to express our gratitude to all the people who have contributed their efforts toward the "1968 Hawk". We would like to thank our photographers, Shirley Skarda and Wayne Johnson. Ruth Halliday and Linda Sampson, our typists were also of great help. Sterling Lundell handled the money and a hard-working group of people sold ads and annuals. We also wish to thank the administration, faculty, and students who were very patient when we interrupted the daily schedule with picture-taking and questions. Our biggest thanks go to Mr. Hunter, our advisor, and Roxie Hick and Bonnie Stubbe, our infinitely patient assistant editors, for their moral support and sense of humor when it seemed as though we would never make our deadlines.
