Volume 100

Ankeny High School

Ankeny, Iowa

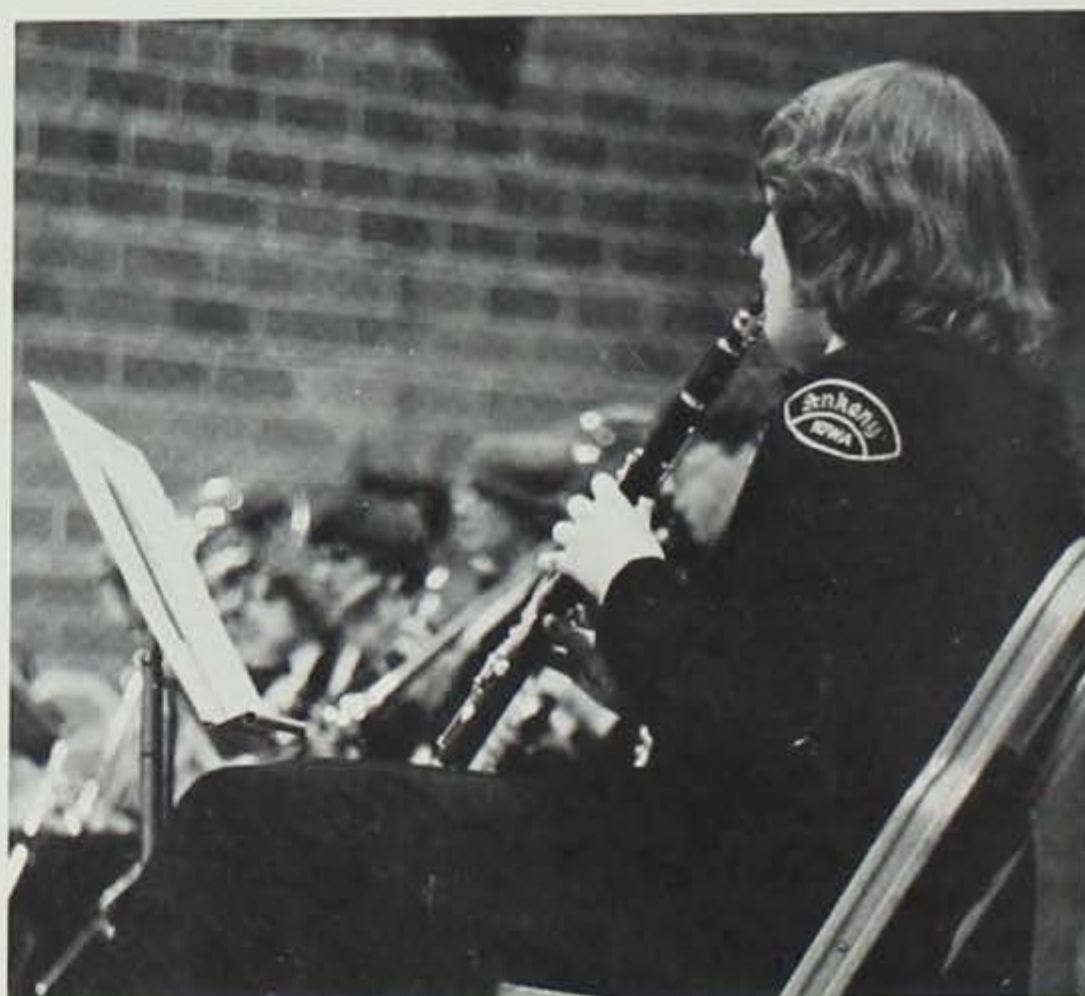

The class of 1975 is unique in three ways. It's the one hundredth class to be graduated from the Ankeny school system, it's the last class to be graduated from the Parkview high school, and the year was shared with the classes of 1976 and 1977. This uniqueness has helped us to grow into adults. Many other factors were involved in this growth-- sports activities.

friends,

opportunities for personal expression,

learning,

teachers,

new experiences,

and parents.

These things are special in different ways to each of us. We wouldn't be the same people without them. The special things are what we will remember these times by.

This could rekindle the old flame.

Homecoming week festivities started on Tuesday this year. T-shirt day began the excitement, followed by Sophomore Day. Unfortunately, Slave Day had to be cancelled. Kick-off day was Friday. A pep rally was held in the middle of the day and a car parade happened after school. We won our football game. During halftime, Kim Johnson was crowned Homecoming Queen.

Gee you guys, isn't this fun?

There is a committee of five people who select the entries that will appear in the magazine. This insures good quality.

Nancy LeMaster was the editor and Abbie Barnhill was the assistant editor.

This ain't no tea party.

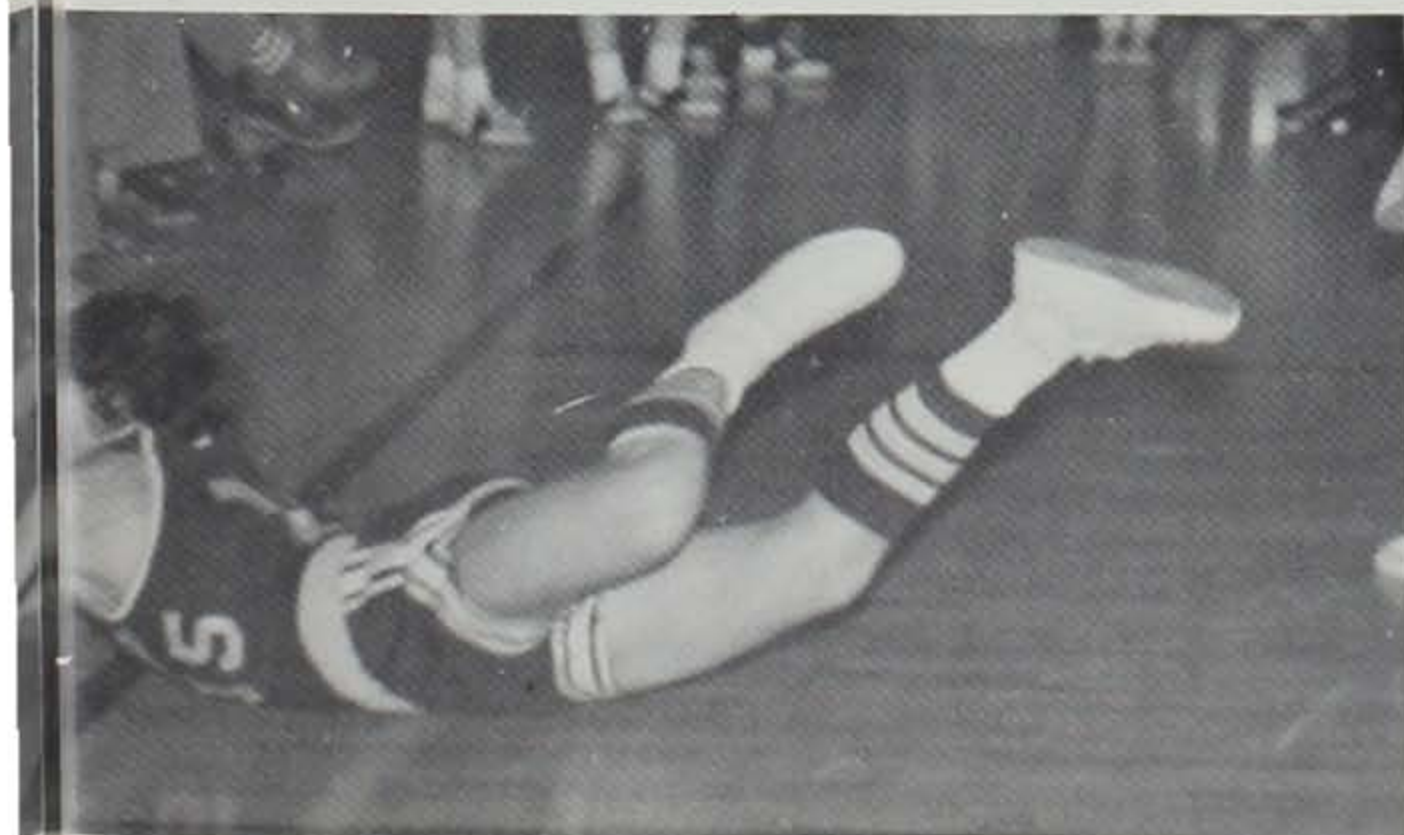

The boys had an excellent year but were stopped just short of the state tournament by Ames. They really hustled in a running-type ball game. Seniors, Copley, Gatrost, Willey, Schreiner and Gillund did exceptionally well. Shafer, a sophomore did well also.

It's my ball . . . and NOBODY ELSE!!

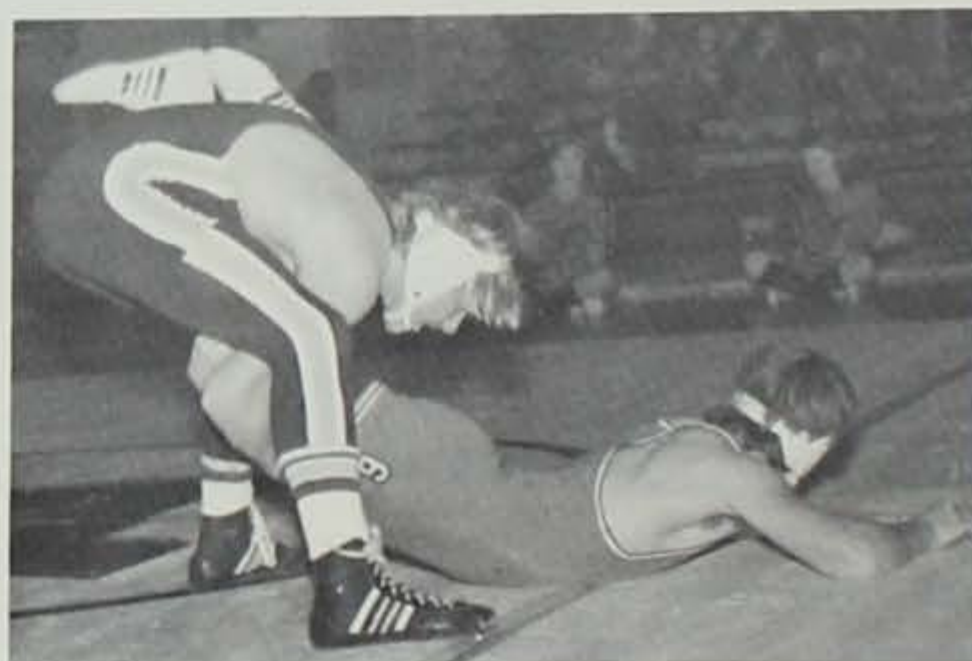

SAFE!!

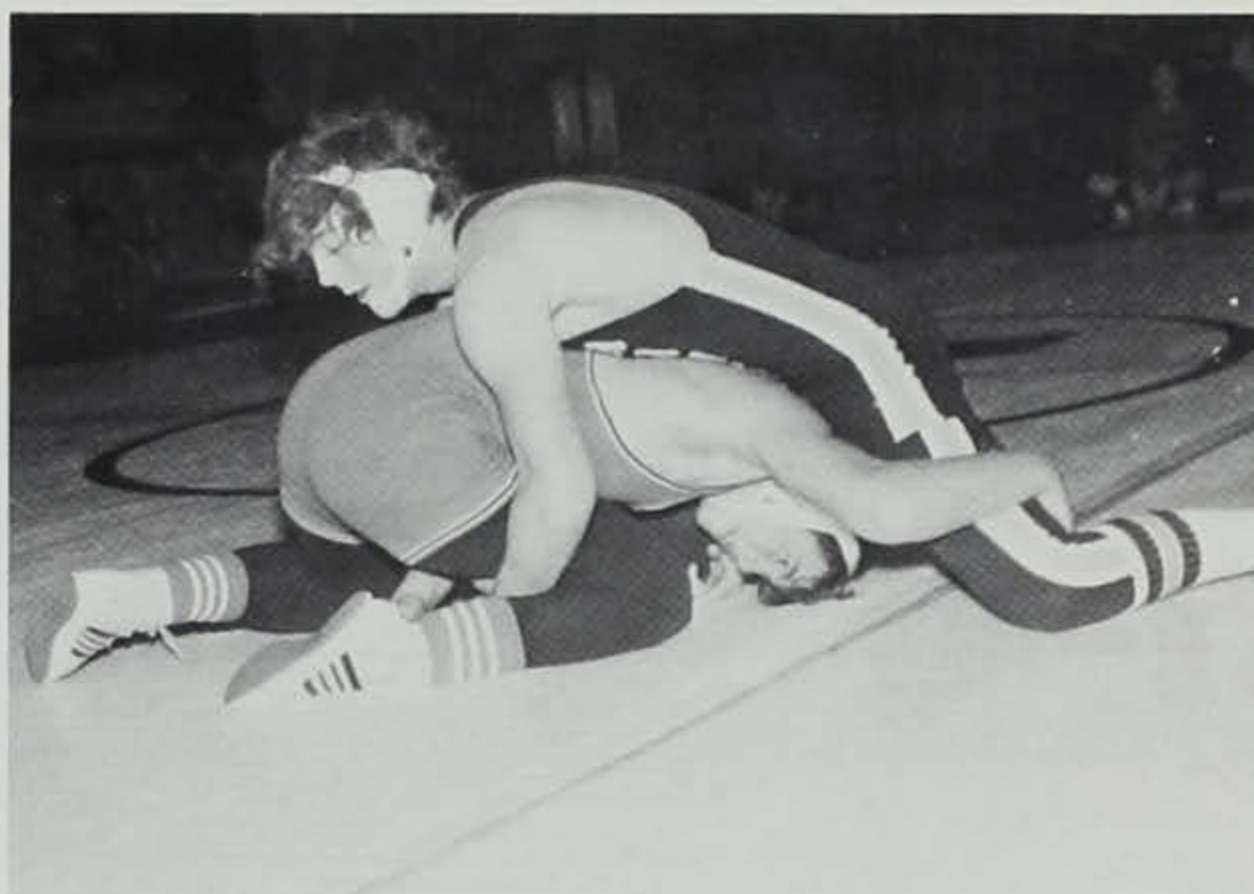

Grapplers Take Hold

The others that qualified were Kent Miller, another team captain, Mike Jones, and Terry Alexander. The team's record was 5-6 for dual meets and they were 16th in the state.

Hmmm.

Hey, who turned the lights out?

Liz and Cathy have learned many things this year, especially the advantages of being wrestling managers. They inspired the grapplers at meets and practices. The team thanks them for their helpful hints throughout the season.

Good times are always happening. Right, Greg and Annette? Although Ankeny is known for its exciting night life, these seniors have helped to add a spark to our fun.

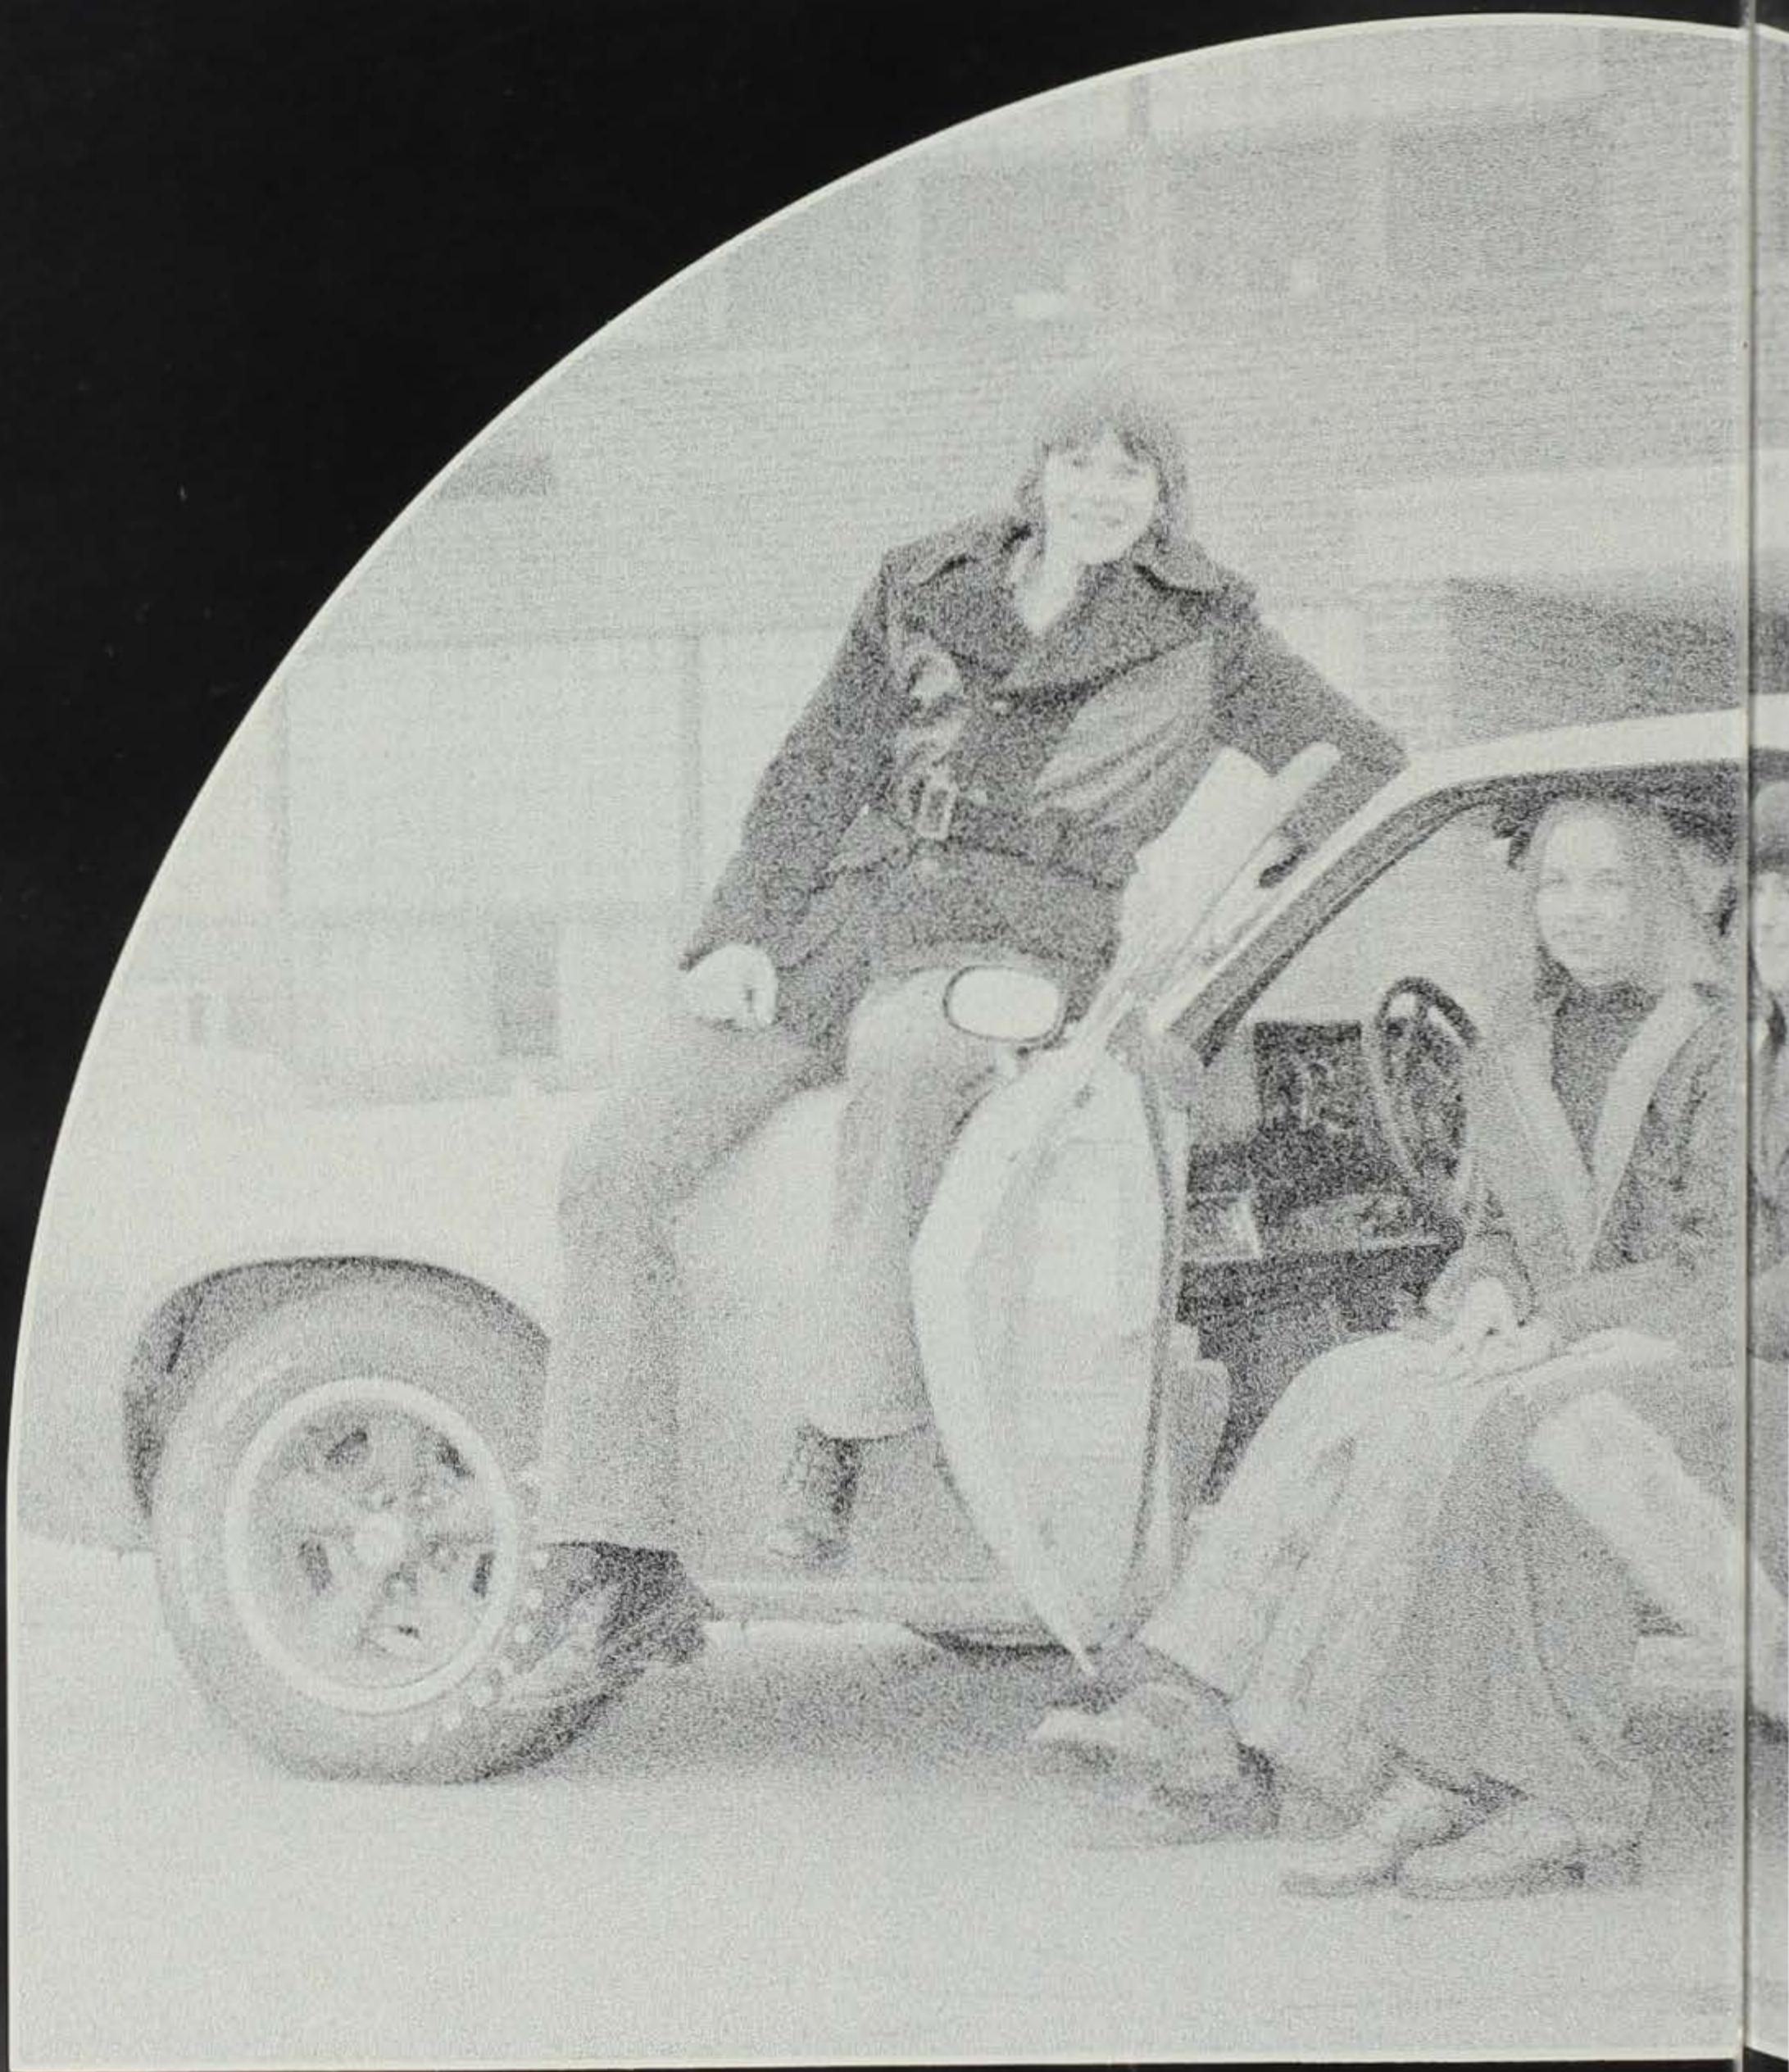

Seniors

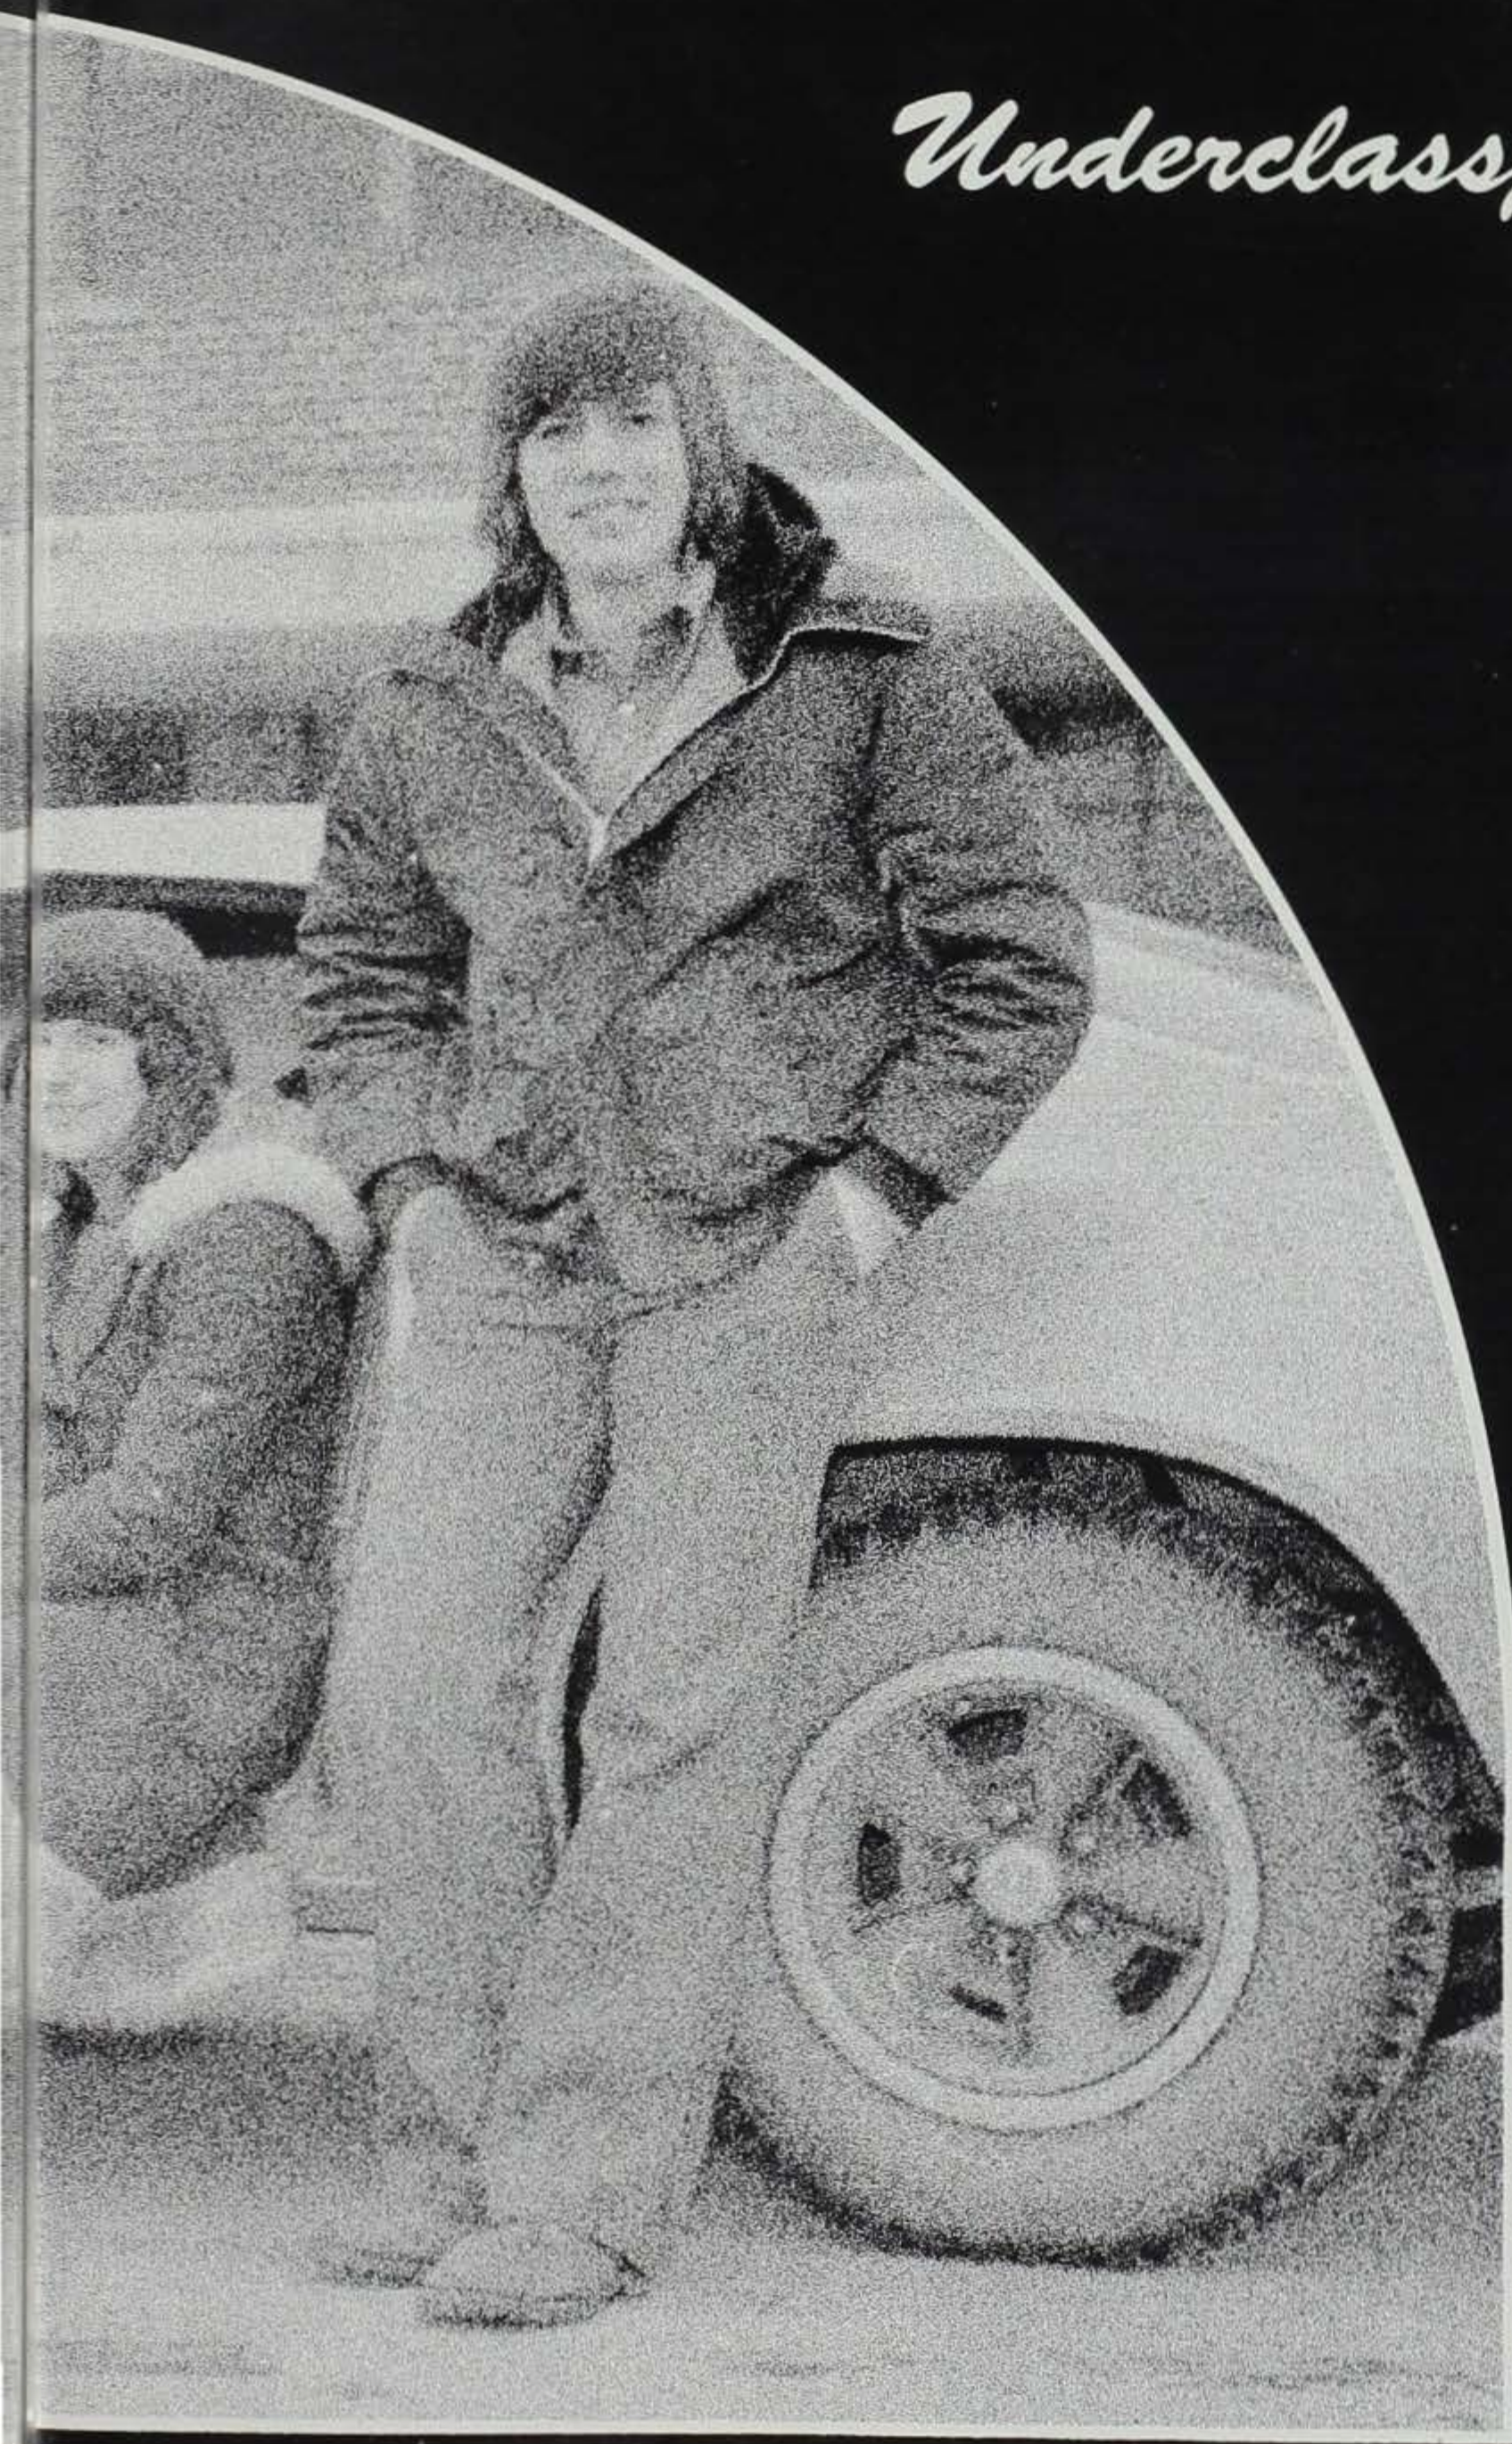

Candid Camera, where are you? Yes, we know whose smiles radiate from a crowd. Marcie Metheny and Daryl (Smiley) Ross have the cheesiest smiles around; just ask the Ultra-Brite man.

Is life getting you down? With Mindy Swartgager and Tom Polito, life can't possibly be boring. If anything rowdy is going on, we can expect these two seniors to be there. Look out world, here comes the class of 1975!

JOHN DEERE DES MOINES WORKS

The food produced by Iowa farmers will play a leading role in helping the world meet its growing food requirements.

So will the farm equipment manufactured in Iowa.

In addition to producing major quantities of food, Iowa also ranks as one of the world's leading producers of farm equipment.

From John Deere factories in Iowa come major quantities of the large tractors, forage harvesters, balers, hay cubers, stack wagons, grain drills, sugar-beet harvesters and many other products that farmers throughout the world will need in the fight to feed the growing world population.

Today there are nearly 25,000 Iowans producing farm tractors and equipment at John Deere factories in Waterloo, Des Moines, and Ottumwa, and industrial and construction equipment at the John Deere factories in Dubuque and Davenport.

We're proud to be a part of Iowa . . . and proud to be part of the effort to help the world meet its food needs.

Julie Thorpe, Carol Kamphuis, Cindy Nelson, Elma Glover.

The responsibility of being editors of the annual has made us learn more about other people as well as the technical skills of putting together a yearbook. We would like to thank Mr. John Hunter who guided and entertained us, stood behind us, argued with us, and put up with us this year. We would also like to thank Julie Thorpe and Cindy Nelson, our assistant editors. We couldn't have done it without their help and moral support. Our production manager, Patty Gales was also irreplaceable. Jill Scheppler and Patty Syverson, our typists, saved us a lot of time and frustration. Finally, we wish Cindy and Julie as much success for next year as we feel we have had this year.

Sincerely,

Editors of the 1975 Hawk

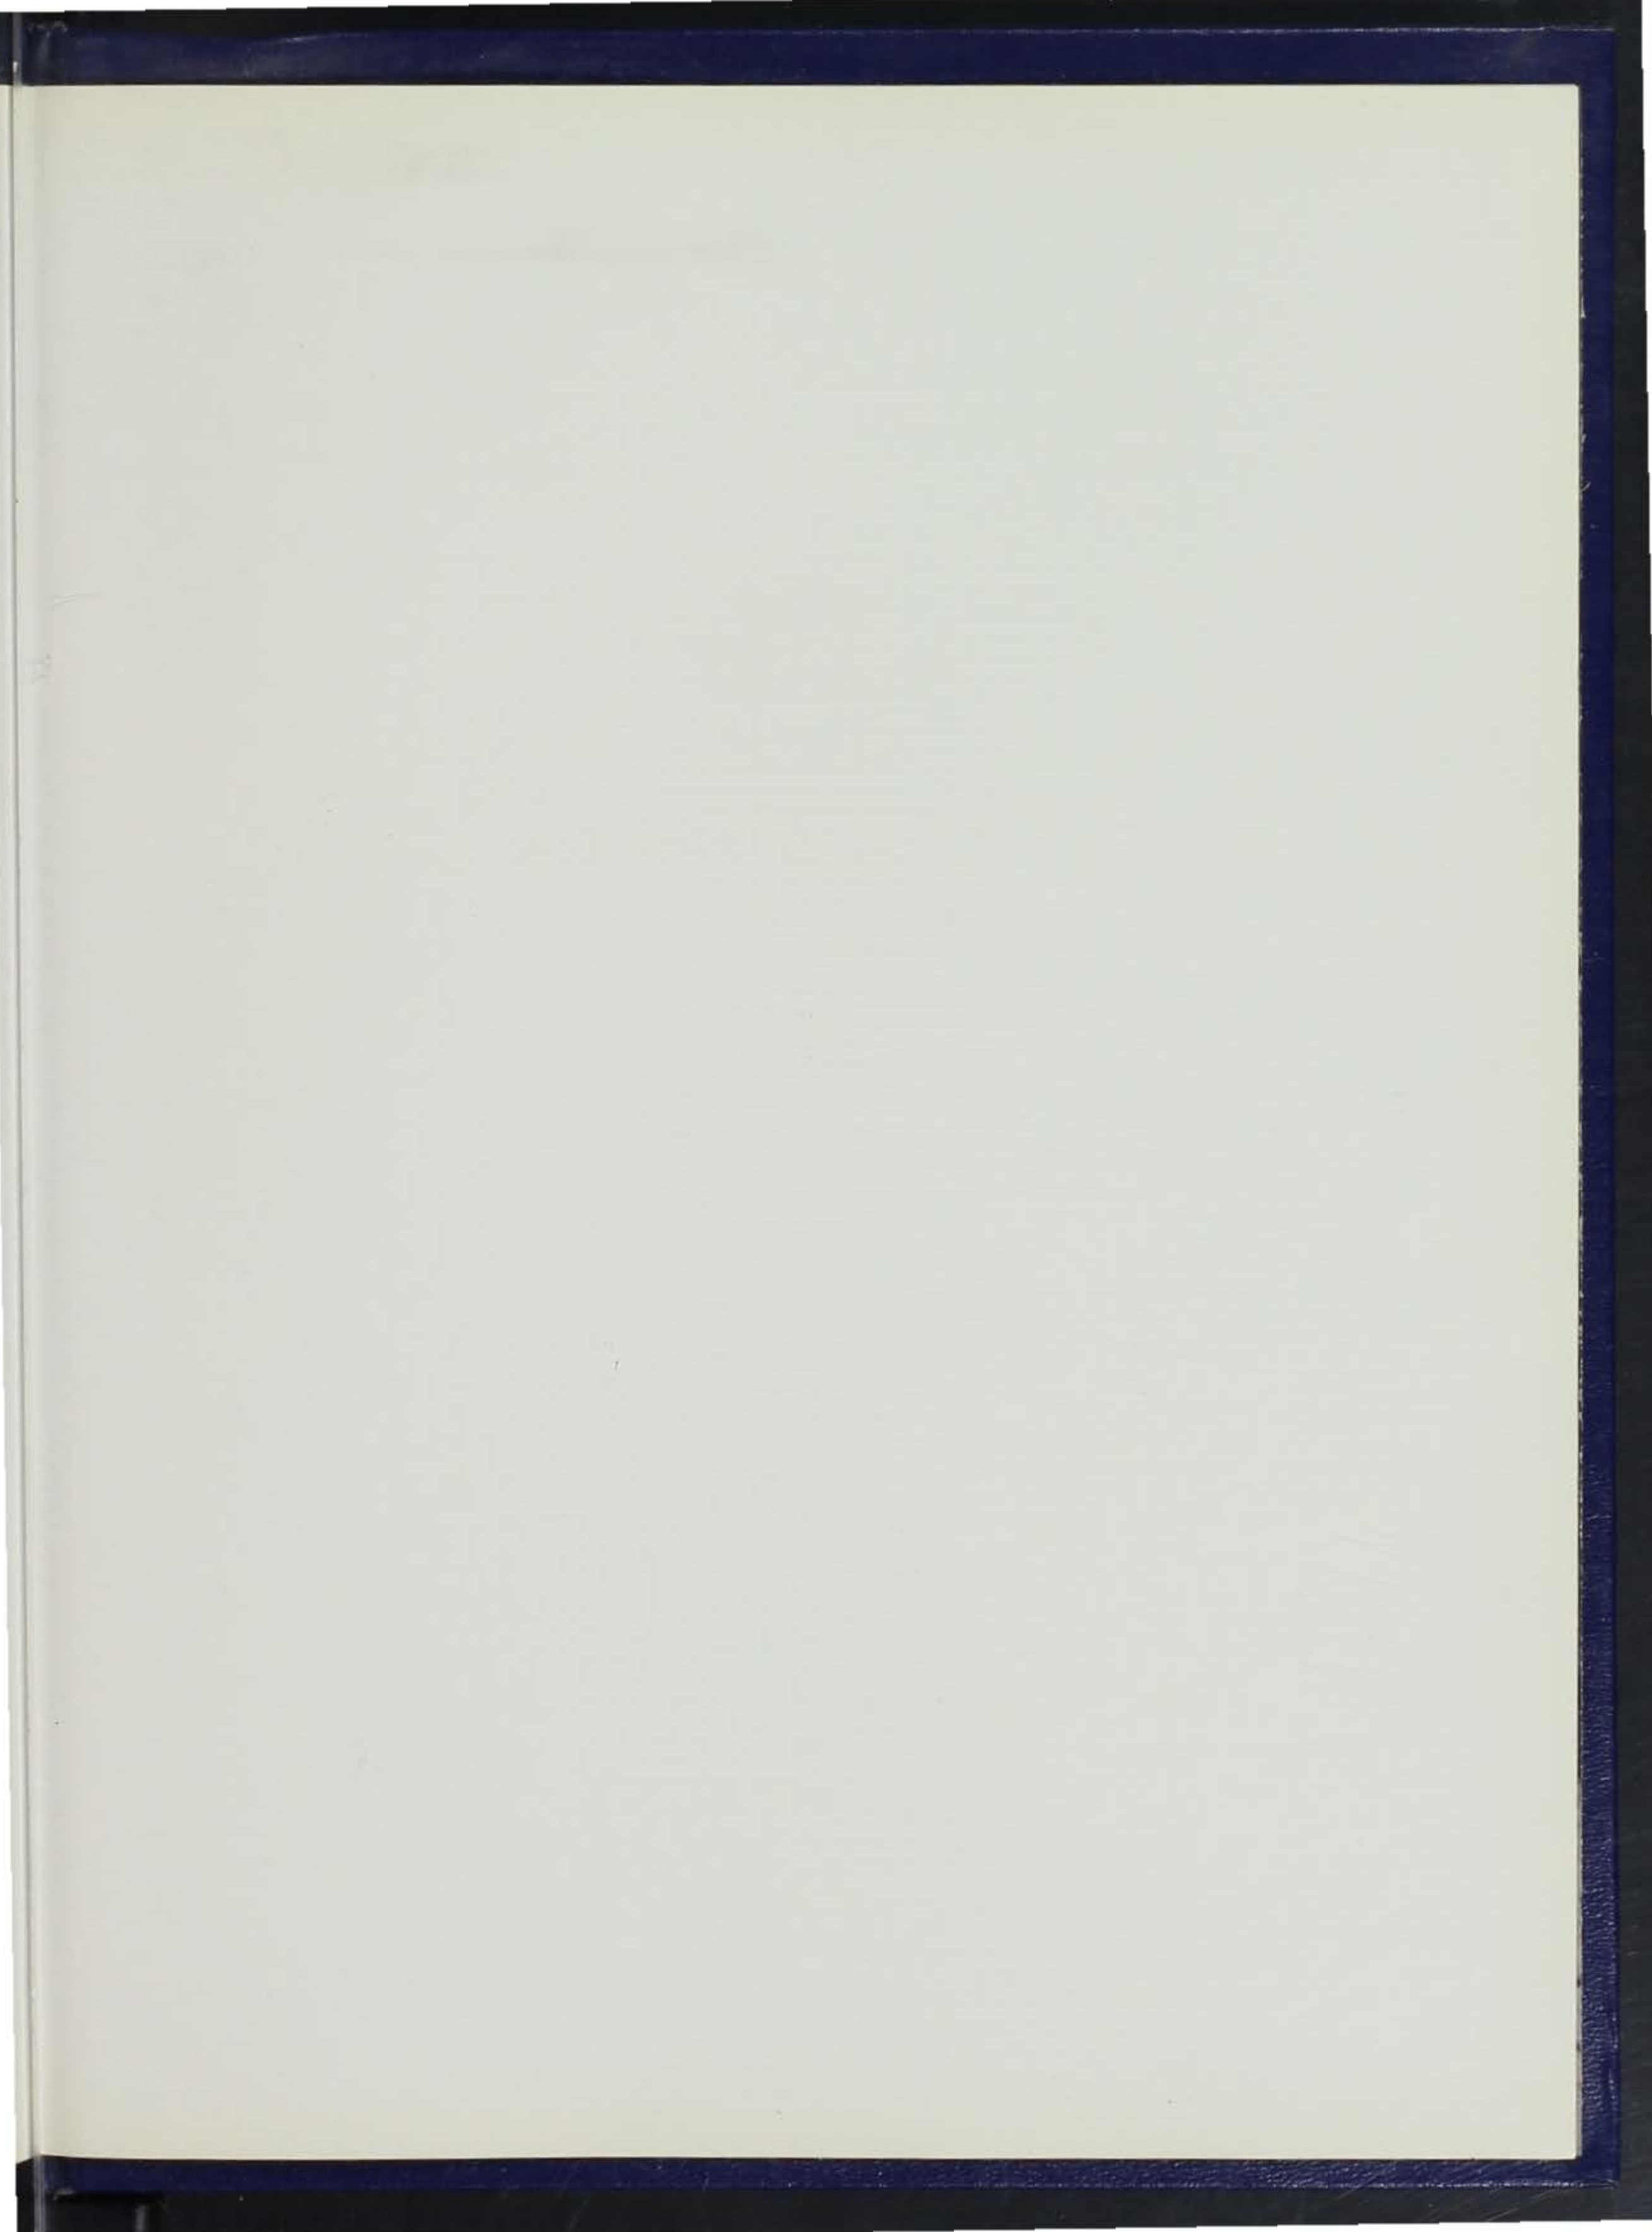

Carol Kamphuis
Elma Glover

In Memoriam

We would dedicate this yearbook to two young men who contributed to AHS in very special and individual ways while they were here.
