

WE REMEMBER BATAAN AND CORREGIDOR. The Story of the American and Filipino Defenders of Bataan and Corregidor and their Captivity.

Gateway Press, Inc., Baltimore, MD 21202, is pleased to announce the publication of WE REMEMBER BATAAN AND CORREGIDOR by Mariano Villarin, a gripping account of the defenders in the Philippines in the early part of WW II, and their vivid description of untold sufferings while in captivity.

The book includes chapters on the Death March, prison camps, Bataan and Palawan massacres, the Hell Ship "Oryoku Maru," guerrilla warfare, role of the Asiatic Fleet, life during the ruthless Japanese occupation, author's participation as a prosecution witness in the Tokyo Rose trial (he actually saw her speaking into a microphone at Radio Tokyo), intriguing events involving Filipino hostages in Japan (the author was one of them), etc. Coming from the viewpoint of a Filipino who served there, this hard-hitting, factual story is a refreshing change from the commonly known version presented in U.S. history books.

"You have done a great service in giving me and others an understanding of the horrors experienced by our fighting men in the Philippines. This has to be one of the most powerful pieces of war literature I have read."
