

IN MEMORIAM

We pay tribute to the memory of those young men who have given their lives in the service of their country. Though we can never repay them for the sacrifice made we can so live as to bring love, honor, and respect to the memory of our loved ones.

My life is but a weaving,
between my God and me,
I do not choose the colors,
He worketh steadily.
Oftimes He weaveth sorrows,
And I in foolish pride.
Forget He sees the upper,
And not the underside.

Not till the loom is silent,
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Will God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why.
The dark threads are as needful
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.
