

TO JUDGE ENTRANTS IN

Queen of The Furrow

CONTEST HERE FRIDAY

Seven girls from Hardin county will be honored at the annual "Queen of the Furrow" contest to be held Friday, at Blanche and Ethel's Tearoom, Eldora.

Luncheon will be served at 1:30 p.m. recognizing the entrants and it will be followed by judging of the contestants. Two girls will be selected to represent Hardin Soil Conservation District at the regional contest at the Boone County Fair Aug. 11. Candidates for the contest are Sharon Kay Hall, Karen Dass, Avis Lettow, Alden; Lucinda Liittschwager, Buckeye; Sarah Ann Cain and Karen Bright, Eldora; Linda Clemons, New Providence.

The "Queen of the Furrow" contest is co-sponsored by the Soil Conservation Districts of Iowa and American Fence dealers. The contest is designed to further acquaint the public with the importance of soil and water conservation.

Judging the contest will be the Hardin county ASC committee; Dewey Eller, Hubbard; Ray Lake, Iowa Falls and J. C. Whitehead, New Providence.

A 21-jewel wrist watch will be awarded the regional winner and a chance to compete in the state finals at the Roosevelt Hotel in Cedar Rapids on Sept. 7.

The winner of the state contest will be presented a glamorous wardrobe and will reign as Queen of the Furrow at the Iowa State Soil Districts Field Days and Plowing Matches to be held in Washington County on September 12.
