The "A" Club is an organization which devotes itself to school service. Its members are those select boys who have qualified for a varsity letter in one of the major athletic fields.

The funds for the club are raised in various ways but primarily from the concessions' sales at any tournament games which may be sponsored in Ankeny. Since we have entertained several tournaments the past few years the income has been above average.

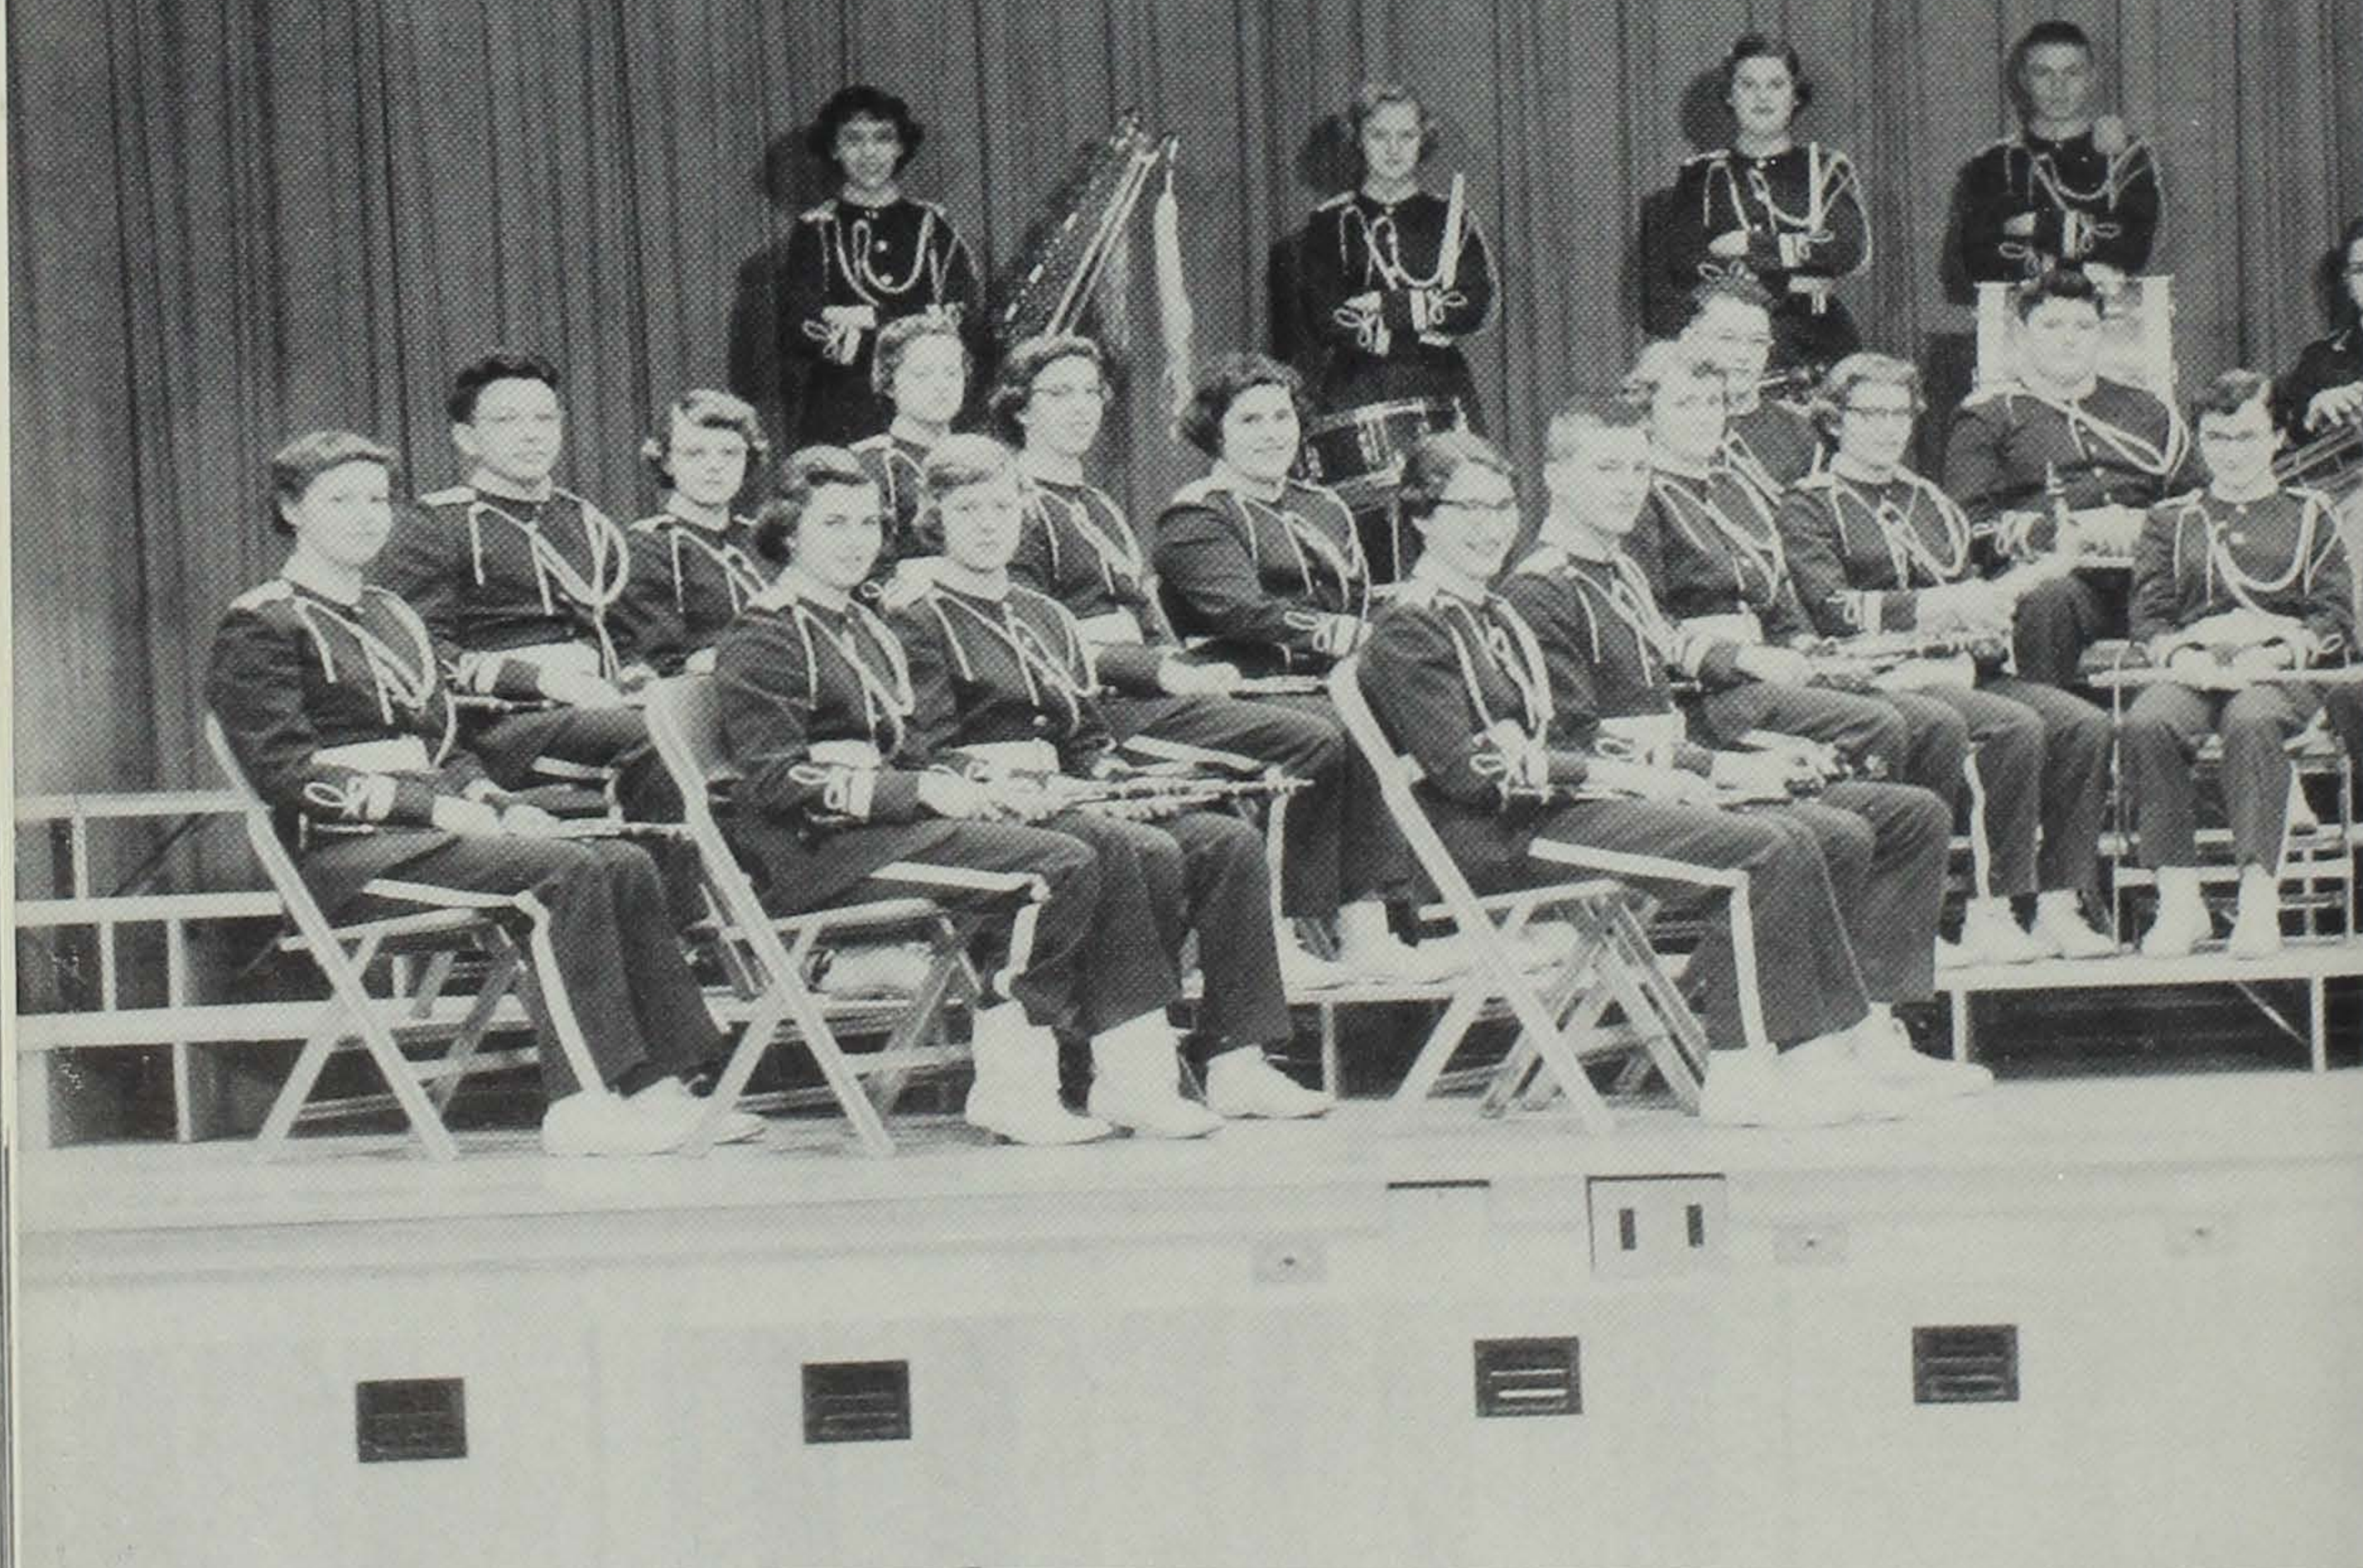

These are some of the items which the "A" Club has donated to the school.

- (1) Trampoline
- (2) Two tumbling mats
- (3) Twelve badminton rackets and birds
- (4) Thirty dollars donation to the cement slab
- (5) Twenty-two sideline capes for football
- (6) Twelve new warm-up suits for basketball
- (7) Viagra Vibrator for football bruises
- (8) Volleyball standards and nets

STUDENT COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: F. Kochheiser, P. Jarvis, L. Fontana, B. Thimmesch, S. Jones. SECOND ROW: B. Harrison, R. Bachman, M. Hildreth, B. Floto, Mr. Begg, Sponsor. THIRD ROW: M. Griesert, J. Rogers, K. Bjaastad.

The purpose of this newly founded organization is to promote better student-teacher relations. It gives the students a fair chance to present their ideas and problems. Students also have the responsibility of participation in self-government as far as it is advisable. It gives the students more training in self-control. The Student Council helps to better school spirit and citizenship and to promote the general welfare of Ankeny High School.

There are two representatives and one alternate from each class with a Senior as president and a Junior as vice-president. With this set up there is a fair representation among the four classes.

The Student Council also provides for training in citizenship and government among its members and the student body.

HISTORY WILL AND PROPHECY - 1955

HISTORY

One decade and three years ago seven boys and four girls of our present crew boarded the ship and set sail on the Sea of Education. They were: Max Brewbaker, Don Smith, Bob Spahr, Louie Fontana, Ronald Gaulke, Verdel Johnson, Kay Woods, Ramona Jorgensen, and Marilyn Hildreth.

We journeyed on to Port One and picked up Barb Bachman and Ed Griesert. As we were pulling out of Port, Louie Fontana fell overboard and was washed ashore and picked up at Port Three.

Steaming on to Port Two, we took aboard Larry Phelps, Phyllis Hargis, Norma Goff, and Mary Randolph. Ronald Gaulke was swallowed by a whale and coughed up at Port Seven.

Passing up Port Three, we stopped at Port Four and took aboard Bob McRae, Sue Wheeler, and Jo Anne Carlson.

In Port Five we shanghaied Maurice Miller, Marlene Chesnut, Jo Ann Reynolds, and Merrill Harvey.

Steaming past Port Six on to Port Seven we took aboard a ship-wrecked crew among which were: Charles Hultman, Gary Shoeman, "Sam" Brow, Louise Brugioni, Lettie Packard, and Joyce Hastings, who left and was picked up again at Port Twelve.

Midway between ports, on an island, we saw a little DEER who turned out to be none other than "Moose" Baugher.

At Port Eight we fished aboard Peg Jarvis, and Liz Uehling.

After nine years of smooth sailing we entered the Stormy Seas of High School and stopped at Port Nine where "Sheik" Hildreth and "Huff" McBride forced their way aboard. Also Garold Quick.

The storm was so bad we missed Port Ten and sailed on to Port Eleven where we picked up Lee Smith and Carl Foster flew in from the "Land of Sky Blue Waters."

As we now complete our journey, the crew, of 1955 Seniors, bids farewell in the hope that the other ships will some day reach Port Twelve.

WILL

We the Seniors of the Class of '55 being of sound body and - - - - - Mind????????
Do hereby bequeath the following to the juniors.

Monte Baugher wills his ability to be on time promptly to Ron Halbrook with hopes that it will benefit. Monte will never miss this outstanding trait.

Marvin Hildreth bequeaths his bulging little black book to Edward "Liberace" Parmenter. Enough said.

Peg Jarvis wills her measurements to Joy McBride. Shall we repeat them Peg????

Max Brewbaker wills his Baritone voice to Kenny Purdy with hopes that it will keep him on pitch.

Lettie Packard wills her "Hickies" to Barbara Henderson. How did you get them Lettie, I'm uneducated.

Bob Spahr wills his flirty eyes to Jon Ross Le Juene and Keith Springer, maybe it will get you what he's got.

Ron Gaulke wills his store teeth to Bill Carpenter, four are better than one, Bill.

JoAnne Carlson bestows her ability never to argue with Miss Keeler, to Rita Roberts. It makes Government more interesting.

To Dan Burke, Lee Smith wills his ability to bore his fellow classmates, this is to keep you from winning the popularity contest, Dan.

Norma Goff leaves her ability to eat and grow thin to Sandra Jones. Wish we all had that ability Norma.

Carl Foster wills his church key to Cynthia Brumble, with hopes that Dirty never sees it again.

Ramona Jorgensen wills her black hair to Nian Davis in the hope that it won't see peroxide.

To Douglas Smith, Claudine "Sam" Brown wills her track medals. She got these for being the fastest girl in town, Doug.

WILL

Eddy "Ernie" Griesert bequeaths his luck in bookkeeping class to Doyle Seley. It got Eddy through this year let's hope it still has the charm next year.

Louie Fontana wills his KATZS K-A-T-Z-S ability to Bob Thimmesch. Is KATZS corner where he found you, Sandra?

Marilyn Hildreth wills her jerkiness "soda" that is, to Karen Morr.

Bob Johnson wills his obvious ability to copy to Gretchen Thompson. Maybe she too can acquire that roving eye.

Elizabeth Uehling bequeaths her Rock to Fred Stemler in the hopes that he will find a girl who will take it.

Quinn McBride wills his Herculean Physique to Jack Tracy. It will make the girls swarm around you Jack.

Maurice Miller wills his duo pipes "smoking that is" to Ken Howell. Think they will fit your car Ken???

Verdel Johnson wills her BRAINS to Tom Hickie so that he can further his education without trouble.

Bobby McRae wills his Mennen after shave lotion to Ron Benjamin so that ladies will ask him to "Come a little closer." So that's the way you get them, Bob.

Larry Phelps and Jo Ann Reynolds will their favorite parking spot to Carol Humbert and Larry Torrence.

Joyce Hastings wills her cowboy boots to Phil Bjaastad so he can ride Kay's horse.

Louise Brugioni wills her blanket to Shirley Ogilvie and Sheryl West so that their parties will be as cozy as hers.

Merrill Harvey bequeaths his ability to make snow in the summer to Leona Chamberlian.

Barbara Bachman wills her Sammy Kaye records to Georgiana Reynolds in hopes that she also can Swing and Sway with Sammy Kay.

Garold Quick wills his way with Merna to Al Moore and Steve Jones so that English will be more orderly next year.

Kay Woods wills her lost love to Sandra Foust. She hates to admit it might keep Fangs warmer than it did her.

Charles Hultman wills his old faithful flame V. J. to Don Taylor. Never trust a women with your ring Don!!!

Marlene Chesnut bequeaths her front door steps to Judy Harvey for that last Goodnight kiss. Better to reach you with aye Tom?????????

Donald Smith wills his golfing ability to Jane Dutcher. It will develop your muscles for you Jane.

Mary Ann Randolph wills her position at the Fertilizer company to Jo Anne Badger and Charles Kovacevich.

Gary Shoeman wills his way with women to Lloyd Bidler and Bill Parrish. Gary wants you to take over where he left off as he's not going to be here next year. Do a good job boys, Gary always says if you can't do it right don't do it at all.

Sue Wheeler wills her flighty temper to Jacqueline Brown. We hope that the hair and temper mix Jackie.

Duke Gable wills his Sherlock Holmes accent to Faye Kocchesiser. Something to remember him by Faye.

Phyllis Hargis bequeaths her pull with the teacher to Roger Nichols as if he needs it.

To Mr. Jorgensen we will the quiet halls which will no longer have the SOFT footsteps of the Seniors.

To Mr. Begg we will the quiet Senior section of the study hall that is still ringing with senior catcalls and his whistles.

To Miss Agnew we will all our unpaid bills and blank checks. Money is scarce.

To Mr. Whiteley, our patient sponsor, we leave our broken ear drums with the hopes that he can patch them up and use them to help his future football players.

To all the other teachers we will any initials you may find on desks, and the answer books, now that we are done with them.

PROPHECY

Listen, my children, and you shall hear of the Ankeny Grads of the "55" year. Let us hope and pray, that alive, are all, and have come to New Orleans' gala ball. Midnight is here, and the ball has begun, here come the Grads, one by one.

Here's to Joyce Hastings, on her horse, she rode it to the ball, of course.

Gary Shoeman isn't making shoes, he's in a night club singing the blues.

Here's Ramona, making her Fame, she made her millions in the ping-pong game.

Ronald Gabel, known as "Squire," can really set your heart on fire.

Sue Wheeler has us all in stitches, she still is driving in the ditches.

Now here's a lad named Maurice Miller, in school he was known as a "Lady Killer."

Marilyn Hildreth was a friend to all, she did our typing when we did call.

Don Smith, the basketball star, is still shooting baskets from afar.

A nightingale was Kay until she met her man, now she sings her songs to the old frying pan.

Driving along the road is Chuck, when you see him you'd better duck.

Letty won a scholarship to go to college, now her head is full of knowledge.

Here's to Lee Smith, the Plymouth lover, when pedestrians see him, they run for cover.

And here's Mary Ann, who loved Lee's car too, she's still sitting beside him with a heart so true.

Monte was a track man in his senior year, He still looks quite handsome and runs like a "Dear."

Elizabeth Uehling really isn't fooling, she went to Ankeny to get her schooling.

Ronnie Gaulke, a star on wheels, he turns corners with squeaks and squeals.

As we see Peggy in later life, we see her as a fire chief's wife.

Here comes Bob Johnson, who always knew the score, he now wears the suit of the Army Air Corps.

Norma Goff is quite a nurse, all her patients leave in a hearse.

Bob McRae has grown up at last, instead of running, he chases girls fast.

JoAnn Reynolds who dressed so neat, now does the "Mambo" in the street.

Eddie Griesert does the old soft shoe, in school he was known as "Eddie the Poo."

Marlene Chesnut, the sugar-cane gal, known to all as a top-notch pal.

And here's to Carl Foster, Tarzan that's all, he swung on the trees to come to the ball.

Phyllis bought a sewing machine on the installment plan, if she can't make it no one can!

And here's to Merrill, the magic man, he feeds "Harvey" out of a pan.

Barbara Bachman is an aunt, who is the uncle? I think it is Grant.

Larry, the president of Reynolds Wrap, JoAnn his secretary, on his lap.

Sophisticated is the word for dear Louise B., when she passed me on the street she didn't wave at me.

"Way Down Yonder in New Orleans," we see Garold, who raises beans.

Claudine Brown is never wrong, she's still singing "Sam's Song."

Max Brewbaker has quite a high rank, he is the president of Ankeny State Bank.

JoAnne Carlson known as "Snoz," is collecting pennies for the "Cause."

Here's to Quinn McBride, often called Quill, if he won't do it nobody will.

Here's a boy we think is fine, so he got an extra line.

Bob Spahr had a car when he was in school, he hauled all the girlies around. But now that he's old and not quite so bold, he keeps his feet on the ground.

In the play Verdel had a dramatic part, this got her off to a real good start.

And here is Marvin, often called "Sheik," he has just been chosen man of the week.

We see Louie as President of the U. S. A., you never know he might be some day.

Me thinks as I check my old class scroll, that we've met everyone who was young long ago.

Let's hope that we'll all meet again somehow, at another New Orleans' Mardi Gras!

PIONEER Corn and HY-LINE Chicks

Farmers planted 440,000 more bushels of Pioneer in 1954 than just two years ago. And 30 million Hy-Lines were hatched in 1954 compared to 21 million in 1953. That's proof that farmers like this profit making team.
