THE CURE OF THE LAME MAN IN THE TEMPLE

Going up into the Temple to pray, Peter and John encountered a man lame from birth, who sat every day at the Temple gate asking alms of the devout. Peter said to the man: "Silver and gold I have none; but what I have, I give thee. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, arise and walk." And the cripple was immediately cured.

SALOME WITH THE HEAD OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

Herodias had long wished for the death of John the Baptist because of his outspoken condemnation of her unlawful marriage to Herod. Therefore, when Herod sought to reward her daughter Salome for her dance in his honor, she caused the girl to demand the head of John the Baptist.

JESUS CURING THE BLIND MAN

Jesus was leaving Jericho for Jerusalem when two blind beggars, one of whom was Bartimeus, cried out to Him: "Son of David, have mercy on us!" He asked them: "What will ye that I do to you?" and they said to Him: "Lord, that our eyes be opened." Jesus cured them and they followed Him.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

When the Scribe asked our Lord whom he was to consider his neighbor, Christ replied by telling this famous parable of the Jewish priest and the Levite who passed the wounded man by, and of the despised Samaritan who gave him help. Our Lord then dismissed the questioning Scribe with the words: "Go, and do thou in like manner."
