

Bolin named ⁶⁻⁶⁻⁶⁸winner in speech contest

Phillip Bolin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bolin, was named the winner of the Davis County Soil Conservation Speech contest held Tuesday evening.

Doug Archer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laddie Archer placed second in the contest. Both he and Bolin spoke on the subject, "Soil—Our Important Legacy."

Bolin, who received a check for $10 for winning, will represent the county in the Region 9 contest to be held in Ottumwa on July 24. Archer received a check for $7.50 for winning second.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. Hilda Weede, local elementary teacher, and William Byers, County Extension Director.
