

November nineteenth 1938

My dear Miss Wilson -

Owing to my having mislaid a lot of bookplate items, your letter with your bookplate, your interesting bookplate, just came to light yesterday, Thank you for the addition to my collection - and I enclose a copy of mine by Robert Eunson - it was a plate he designed for my mother - The windmill was an ancestral "Motley" family one near Lincoln, England - and the

Return To
Mrs H. Strong
700 Allen Creek Rd.
Rochester, N.Y.

Miss Helen Wilson
909 E. Washington St.
Washington
Iowa

morning glory her September flower.

I also enclose plates by W. J. Enright for Kelly + Rae -

Let me know what varieties or artists you specialize in, as my duplicates are many -

Return to
Mrs H. Strong
700 Allen Creek Rd.
Rochester, N.Y.

Miss Helen Wilson
909 E. Washington St.
Washington
Iowa

