FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Susanne Thor, our foreign exchange student.

"When will they teach me to type in Swedish?"

"Here we are: me and my American sisters--Glenda and Janis."

Ankeny's second foreign exchange student is Susanne Thor from Sweden. Susanne, being a typical Swedish girl with blue eyes and blonde hair, has lived with her parents all her life in Stockholm, Sweden.

Susanne came to Ankeny through the organization of Experiment in International Living. She arrived by plane last September and will stay in Ankeny until June. After school is out Susanne plans to visit other parts of America.

Susanne's father is a tourist director and her mother works in a post office. She has two older sisters, both of whom are married.

During her stay in Ankeny, Susanne has been staying with the Hefte family. On December thirteenth Susanne dressed in the traditional Swedish costume celebrating St. Lucia Day, which begins the Swedish Christmas, and served tea and pastries to her American parents.

Besides many school activities Susanne has spoken to many organizations telling about Sweden and some of the differences between her country and ours.

Susanne has traveled in England, France, Germany, and many other countries, which has given her an opportunity to learn the languages of these countries.

PROPHECY

It was in '63 that it all happened. Back in the good old days when ghouls were ghouls and seniors were just plain seniors. Let's travel back to the "good old days" on route '63 and see how things were, instead of how they really are.

For instance, NOREEN ANDERSON has just plain had it with all the shootings, civil wars, and all. She's decided to form her own do-it-yourself club and abolish all the abolitionists.

GLENDA BREDLOW is quietly sitting twiddling her thumbs and trying to decide between two war generals; GUSTAFSON, for the Union, and LUTTON, for the Confederacy. "Oh, woe is me, why do I always have to be the one who has to choose between the big whigs?"

Meanwhile, back in the alleys of Washington D.C., JOHN Wilkes DAVIS is fiendishly plotting against the mighty Abraham Lincoln MADOLE, who right at this very moment might even be planning a preliminary Emancipation to free the slaves of Ankeny High.

Here and there, scurrying about in front of an immense audience, is the girl's basketball team of 1863! A tremendous uproar of applause is emerging from the crowd as CATHY HULL makes a tremendous hook shot. LELA HOUCHIN is also playing a magnificent game. Her ability to rebound and then get the ball back across the court to SUZY CARLSON is amazing!

A wiley man, who is good at making speeches, JESSE SMITH displayed his talents by writing all of President Lincoln's homely orations.

Reverend JAMES PARRISH, while preaching his weekly sermon on temperance was unaware that some members of his saintly flock, RON ODGAARD, SUE TAYLOR, STEVE CONWAY, and DRUE HATHAWAY were underhandedly engaged in moonshining.

FOREST (Woody) GROVE, the Edgar Allan Poe of the juvenile set, was eagerly tending his business when he was rudely interrupted by JEAN VAN CLEAVE who had just crash landed while flying in from Salem.

As members of the Sanitary Commission, forerunner of the Red Cross, LUCRETIA SPRINGER, BARB MILLER, CHARLENE MARTIN, and JACKIE MINOR were always prompt in answering to the calls of General MARK JOHNSON and his company.

ROBIN and CAROL HULL, in their always quiet manner, were honored to find that they had been asked to sing their beautiful operatic notes to the unfortunate troops of JERRY CARLSON.

Meanwhile, the Confederate troops, under the leadership of HARKIN and GORHAM, were busily defending Vicksburg, Mississippi. No wonder it fell! Approaching the fort, DICK FONTANA was anxiously yelling to four of his smarter privates, LYNN DE LAPP, JERRY NOWELS, MIKE DOTSON, and DAVE COY, "Attack, attack! Not me, you Idiots!"

At Brandy Station, the Union Calvary, led by MIKE MOORE, held their own against ROBERT'S Confederates for the first time. As they found out, it only took courage.

Back at the river, Confederate steamships, the SS GARY JONES and the SS SCHROEDER, ran the Union blockade and retook the city of Galveston, Texas.

JIM JONES, a usually unlucky man, thought his luck would change when he decided on hoarding all of his Confederate money until it was very valuable. Such is the life of a hoarder.

Those two Southern "Belles", SHIRLEY SWANSON and MARY DUTCHER, were used to having large gala parties, but the War cramped their style.

But back in the far North, MARY CARLSON, SIOUX WARNER, and CORRINE BRUCE were being menaced by the Indians who faithfully attacked their cafe for trinkets or anything they would give them.

In the gold regions DAN BENGES, and ROGER RUFFCORN were hunting frantically for a little trinket which would tide them over until their "famous ship came in".

JOLENE FUQUA and ALICE VAN DORN are busily putting on an exhibition of trampoline techniques. Oops! Jolene just fell off and broke something very vital. Oh, oh!

Mayor of a very important town in central Iowa is RUSS GABEL.

"Satchamo" DANNY RYAN played a rousing war song on his trumpet to encourage men to sign up for the draft. Such unwilling subjects as RON TERRELL, RON TORRENCE, TOM TYLER, and JOHN WEIGEL were attracted by Danny's pied piper tooting and merrily skipped to the nearest recruiting station. There, they found, but also too late, that they had been underhandedly tricked.

School teaching in 1863 was a frantic mess. Miss RUDD, a grade school teacher, was having a terrible time keeping one of her 18-year-old sixth graders, EVELYN HOWARD, in line.

JUDY SCHMITT, the great dancing instructor could be heard counting, "1-2-3-slide" to two of her less talented pupils, LINDA WALL and BARB WEICHERT.

Meanwhile, on the frontier, while Indian chief PAUL EVANS was attacking the fort, General CARZOLI was found on the reservation trying to steal one of the squaws.

DENNY DEN ADEL, owner of the town cafe was caught snatching crackers out of the General Store's cracker barrel.

TOM CLARK woke up one night because his chickens were making a racket. Much to his amazement, he found his old chicken plucker friend GARY ARGETSINGER in the chicken coup.

Starting a do-it-yourself printing ship in Conney Broke, Maine, is LONNIE STEEGE. She's found it much to her liking to have all the men come in and give newspaper articles to her!

Well, will wonders never cease? MARCIA McARTHUR and SUSANNE THOR have been named beauty queens of the state yo-yo tournaments.

KATHY ROGERS and LINDA HALBROOK, quite reserved in their high school days have turned into quite ravishing gals. They've found that it pays to be quiet and then become quite--well, we all know.

Here we find KATHY KOCHHEISER running a beauty salon for all the elite of Richmond. My, my, so that is why you took sociology.

The chief JUSTICE of the Supreme Court was busily darning his toeless socks when in walked #627476, JACK PEDERSEN, who was soon to be charged for bounty jumping.

Very few people realize that the 3-D camera was made available only by the help of the 3 '63'ers. You would never guess that as the war progressed, DAVE McBRIDE, DICK JORGENSEN, and DAVE PACKARD, the 3-D's, had been developing the 3-D all the time.

The class of '63 is here,
But cannot excel the class of next year.
Now that this big mess is through,
We hope we haven't offended you!

HISTORY

One decade and three years ago fifteen girls and eleven boys hopped on the bus of education to the route of '63'. The passengers were: GARY LEE ARGETSINGER, CORINNE MARIE BRUCE, JERRY VERNON CARLSON, MARY KATHRYN CARLSON, SUSAN CAROL CARLSON, STEVEN C. CONWAY, RONALD LEE CARZOLI, JOHN ALBERT DAVIS, MARY MARGARET DUTCHER, LYNN ALLEN DeLAPP, RICHARD PAUL FONTANA, RUSSELL ALLEN GABLE, LINDA LEE HALBROOK, STEPHEN JOHN HARKIN, LELA MAY HOUCHIN, CATHY LEE HULL, CAROL DEE HULL, MICHAEL JOHN JUSTICE, JAMES FENNER JONES, KATHLEEN ANN KOCH-HEISER, CHARLENE MARIE MARTIN, MARCIA DIANE McARTHUR, BARBARA KAY MILLER, KATHRYN ANNE ROGERS, JUDY ANN SCHMITT, and ALLICE RUTH VAN DORN.

On our first stop we picked up: LUELLA SUZANNE TAYLOR, and JOHN CHARLES WEIGEL.

We journeyed on, gaining: NORENE MARIE ANDERSON, DANNY LEE BENGES, DENNIS LEE DEN ADEL, DAVID NEWELL PACKARD, BARTON G. LUTTON, DONALD LAVERN MADOLE, LUCRETIA MARIE SPRINGER, and SIOUX ANNETTE WARNER.

A short stop was made in third grade. We picked up JAMES DONALD PARRISH. RICHARD PAUL FONTANA jumped off.

The doors opened quickly to pick up FRONIA JOLENE FUQUA and MICHAEL EARL MOORE and then sped on until it came to a rolling fifth stop where it loaded: FOREST R. GROVE, LARRY W. GUSTAFSON, RICHARD ALBERT JORGENSEN, DAVID EVAN McBRIDE, ROGER DEAN RUFFCORN, and DANNY E. RYAN. The bus was pretty loaded then so CHARLENE MARIE MARTIN got off to make more room for others.

A quick stop was made to pick up JESSE LEO SMITH. RICHARD PAUL FONTANA came aboard once again.

In seventh grade we stopped to pick up TOM LESTER TYLER and TOM GEORGE CLARK.

Venturing on we hesitated only a moment to pick up three more passengers, MARK RAYMOND JOHNSON, DAVE LANCE COY, and RON WAYNE ODGAARD.

Hustling on down the road, we were willing to make our ninth stop to pick up eight hitchhikers: GARY HAROLD JONES, JERRY LEE NOWELS, JACK EDWARD PEDERSON, GUY L. SCHROEDER, JANICE LEE RUDD, SHIRLEY DIANE SWANSON, RONALD HOWAND ROBERTS, and BARBARA JOAN WEICHERT. We also stopped long enough to pick up CHARLENE MARIE MARTIN who had decided to join us again.

We traveled on until we came to our tenth destination picking up: MIKE J. DOTSON, DRUCILIA ANN HATHAWAY, ROBIN LEE HOPKINS, EVELYN MARIE HOWARD, JACQUELYN LYNETT MINOR, RONALD DEAN TERRELL, BELVA JEAN VAN CLEAVE, and LINDA JO WALL.

On the last leg of our journey we gained GLENDA H. BREDLOW, and PAUL LOUIS EVANS while GARY HAROLD JONES stepped off.

Traveling on to our last but not final halt we picked up LONNIE KAY STEEGE and SUZANNE THOR, and GARY HAROLD JONES once more joined us.

Now we are ready to join the big free-way which will lead us to our many destinations in life.

WILL

To whom it may concern: We the seniors of 1963 do hereby and forthwith bequeath to all of our most honored and esteemed teachers and to our friends and enemies in the underclasses the following useless, mangled, and trivial articles which we have collected during our travels down highway '63' to our final goal. We hope you will be able to make some use of the relics we hereby bequeath.

MR. HOPKINS: we will a big bottle of spot remover to keep the sweat spots (from people called into his office) off his carpet.

MRS. GREEN: We leave a vacuum-sweeper to keep Mr. Hopkin's carpet clean.

MR. BEGG: we will a pair of tiny booties for that new addition.

CARLA JACOBSON: we will a mink collar for her pet skunk, "Sweet Pea".

MRS. MADISON: we leave all our unpaid lunch money for those meals she let us starving seniors charge.

MR. KRAMER: we leave all the old "Senior Scholastics". We are sure you'll enjoy the jokes section and "Boy Meets Girl."

MRS. CERETTI: we will thirteen new typewriters guaranteed not to run, ravel, or wear out at the heels.

MR. JAMES: we leave more colored chalk (so he can get colored chalk dust on his pants.)

MR. VANDER LINDEN: we will nothing, because he has everything?

MR. WILLIAMS: we leave a polka-dot basketball to match your polka-dot shorts.

MRS. ZUCK: we will all senior "Get up and Go" that we didn't use (especially the alto section).

MISS TAYLOR: we leave twenty-five big laps around the gym.

MISS COOK: we will the ability to think up one-hundred new tests with which to torture people.

MRS. PRATT: we will her her wish that all the freshmen take Spanish next year.

MISS YATES: we leave a gilt-edged, jewel-encrusted, silver-bound, original copy of 'Daniel' Webster's Dictionary.

MR. TROXEL: we leave him a recording of the Gettysburg Address said backwards and in pig-latin.

MR. OLSON: we leave all those old term papers complete with footnotes and shoe size.

MR. PEDERSON: we leave him three empty rooms in which to place all talkative seniors in his study halls. (They won't be empty long).

MR. SHICKELL: we will all the numbers up to infinity and nothing more.

MRS. SCHRIBER: we will to her tons of colored paper for her beautiful bulletin boards.

MR. CARLSON: we leave some new unbreakable test tubes to whip up some new sweet-smelling wonder drugs.

MRS. BROWN: we leave a recipe explaining how to burn a cake in one easy lesson.

MR. SCOTT: we will a magnificent shop apron made from the latest in blond wood shavings.

MR. KRAMME: we will the '63 - '64 Conference Trophy.

MR. HUNTER: we leave job number 3286 to carry on with next year.

MR. SHARP: we leave a diet book entitled "How to Lose Thirty Pounds in Two Days" compliments of the wrestling boys.

MR. CROSSET: we leave another television set for World History Classes.

MR. KAUZLARICH: we leave swinging and falling scenery; it's bound to happen with the seniors behind the scene.

MR. MEYER: we will two-hundred acres of unpicked corn.

MR. ALEXANDER: we leave a closed circuit TV so he can see what the teachers do behind his back.

DICK FONTANA leaves PAT CONWAY Jane Houser's measurements as they were most kindly bequeathed to him last year.

JERRY CARLSON and RUSS GABEL leave a stong sense of humor to SUE CORNWELL, KATHY CURRAN, and PAT BEHYMER.

GLENDIA BREDLOW wills her ability to get along with the opposite sex to JEANNE DAWSON.

CHARLENE MARTIN, LONNIE STEEGE, and BARTON LUTTON leave to RONAELE WILHELM, DAVE THOMPSON, and LYN DANN their out-of-town interests.

DRUE HATHAWAY wills to NANCY MADOLE her interest in older men.

LYNN DeLAPP leaves all the things he hasn't YET done to RICK LOGLI along with his artistic ability.

GUY SCHROEDER and DENNIS DEN ADEL will to BOB BAKER, MAX BECHTOL, GENE KNOX, and GENE HILL their positions as senior cheerleaders.

JACK PEDERSON leaves to RON COOPER and ED GOOCH his wrestling ability.

RON ODGAARD leaves to his brother DICK his carefully corrected Government tests.

ALICE VAN DORN wills to JON STRUTHERS a box of pencils so he won't have to prove his strength by breaking hers.

CAROL and CATHY HULL will their basketball ability to MAGGIE FISCHER, JUDY DOUBLEDAY, CONNIE GONNER, and LINDA SODERSTROM to be distributed among them as they see fit. All extra is to be given to the sophomores and freshmen.

TOM CLARK and JIM GORHAM leave to CHUCK HUNTER, JIM LOGAN, and CHUCK TRIPLET their football ability.

MARCIA McARTHUR leaves TERI DAVID and CAROLYN RUTAN her good looks even though they don't need them.

JUDY SCHMITT and EVELYN HOWARD will their abundance of height to SHELIA DILLON and CHRISTY SELAND.

SUE TAYLOR leaves to MARY WARNER her highly perfected Pom-Pom routines.

LELA HOUCHIN leaves her 'shy giggle' to anyone who is brave enough to claim it.

JOHN WEIGEL leaves his curly locks to JIM CERVOGLI with an admonition that no one but his hair dresser will know.

LARRY GUSTAFSON leaves his affection for trig. and all sorts of figures to BILL MARVIN.

JOLENE FUQUA wills her cheerleading ability to LINDA MATHIS.

LINDA HALBROOK and PAUL EVANS will their quiet manners to MARTIN KNOX.

SUZANNE THOR leaves her Swedish blond hair to JANIS HEFTE.

SIOUX WARNER leaves her nudist camp sign to TIM RECTOR.

JIM PARRISH wills his M.C. position at Spanish parties to JOHN SYSTER.

DANNY RYAN leaves a hot horn and his worn out music to DICK PELTZ.

JOHN DAVIS wills his basketball smile to STEVE TSCHERTER.

DAVE COY leaves his magnificent tenor voice to DANNY ALBAUGH. (We know you're a bass, DANNY, but wouldn't you like to try tenor?)

BARB MILLER leaves her petite figure to SID CONKEL.

LINDA WALL wills her friendliness to JUDY ANDERSON.

SHIRLEY SWANSON leaves her neat dressing habits to CAROLE DAVISON.

JEAN VAN CLEAVE wills DOUG HENDERSON a long winter walk up the wind swept lanes of Triplett Village.

TOM TYLER leaves his huge amount of self-confidence to CAROL THIMMESCH.

DON MADOLE leaves his skill for getting out of study hall to TOM BALLARD.

MARK JOHNSON leaves his position of leadership in the fifth hour PE class and his hobo hat to DUANE NOELCK.

STEVE HARKIN wills his secret of how to sleep through English class to LARRY CORY.

ROGER RUFFCORN leaves some of his faults to BETH ROBERTSON who seems about perfect.

JESSE SMITH leaves his muscles to his brother JEROME.

JERRY NOWELS leaves nothing to KENNY WARINGTON: he's taking it all with him when he leaves.

RON TERREL couldn't afford to leave anything so he leaves BRYCE HANKE nothing, since he has about everything anyway.

FOREST GROVE wills ten-hundred feet of old broken film to be spliced to MARVIN DAVIDSON, FRED GERHART, and HENRY WILKINS.

NOREEN ANDERSON leaves her place in the senior class to DAVE SEXAUER.

BARB WIECHERT and KATHY ROGERS will their clerical abilities to MIKE EGGERS, RICHARD SPRAGUE, and RANDY MILLER.

LUCRETIA SPRINGER leaves JANE ADAMS and PATTY VANDERAH her position as secretary in the councilor's offices.

CORINNE BRUCE and MARY CARLSON will a book on how to stay up all night and make it to school the next day to CONNIE ROBERTS and JEAN BEAMAN.

RON ROBERTS leaves JOHN DeMOSS a bottle of 'greasy kid's stuff' for anything but his hair.

MIKE MOORE leaves his V.W. knowledge to CLAUDE RUFFCORN and TWILA BECHTEL.

DAVID McBRIDE wills his farm know-how to TERRY ADAMSON.

KATHY KOCHHEISER leaves her job of picking up dirty towels and keeping those complex records to JANE COY.

SUZY CARLSON wills worn books on parliamentary procedure and winning arguments to anyone who is sucker enough to be a club president.

ROBIN HOPKINS leaves JEANNE PAULLIN and JIM HOWE a Diet Book.

JACQUELINE MINOR leaves detailed instructions complete with MIKE DOTSON'S infinite drawings on how to do anything to SANDRA GRAY, KENNY CAIRNS, and JOHN ROBINSON.

RON CARZOLI leaves DENNY ROTTINGHAUS a big square, round, hard, soft, something or other to walk, run, or fly with.

MARY DUTCHER leaves DARLENE ALBAUGH and SANDIE JOHNSON a very special book on how to catch a man and keep him.

GARY ARGETSINGER leaves his mechanical skills to MARY McDONALD and MICHELE MICHAEL for use in any way.

"Big" MIKE JUSTICE leaves "Little" MIKE MARTIN his name to help towards fame next year.

JIM JONES leaves late because he can never seem to make it before that 8:35 bell.

DAN BENGS wills DOREEN McCLEARY his host fabulous dancing steps.

STEVE CONWAY leaves slightly used motorcycle parts to LARRY VIGNAROLI and DENNIS OLMSTEAD.

DAVE PACKARD leaves LARRY AUNSPACH and MIKE FORSBERG the Ankeny girls.

DICK JORGENSEN leaves MIKE GRABER and DICK OBER one mutilated, slightly torn art folder complete with half drawn pictures, broken pencils, and smashed chalk.

GARY JONES wills a big smile and his great talents to BETTY MONAGHAN.

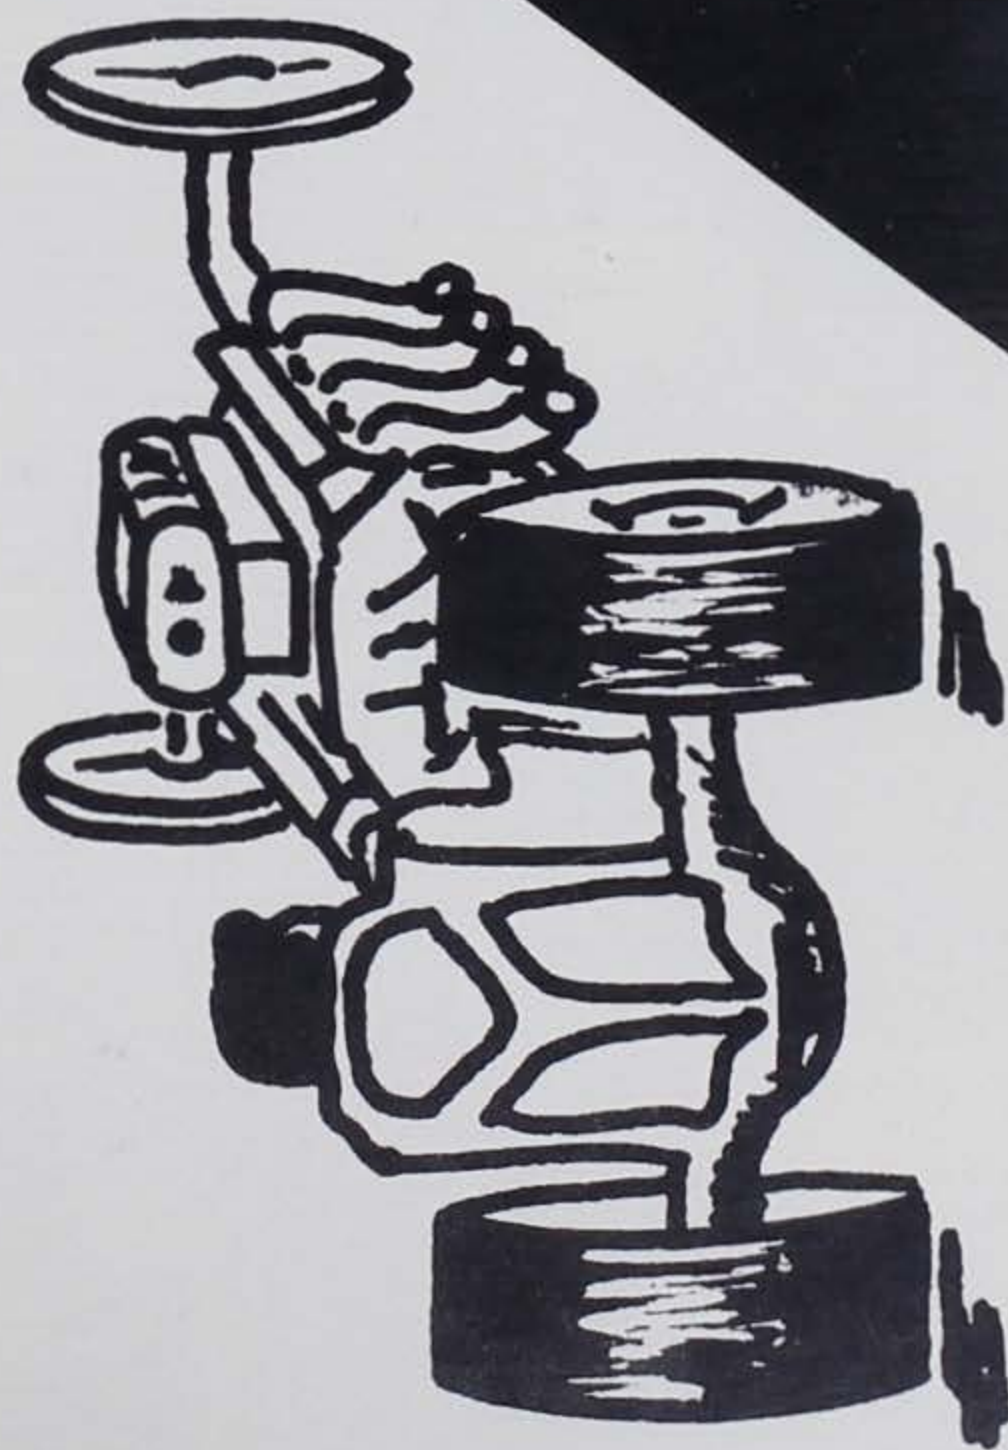

JANICE RUDD leaves DIANE DILLON her very vivid imagination.

We ask you to please take good care of these small cherished keepsakes and to keep them for us as we travel on towards life's goals.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Our main activity of the year is Homecoming. We also try to hold one other special dance such as the "Roaring 20's Dance" we had last year.

Some of the projects that the Student Council provides for the school are selling book covers, buying of a pencil machine and this year we sponsored a faculty basketball game between Ankeny and Saydel.

We also sponsor Dad's Night at one of the football games.

The Student Council is in charge of picking the assemblies for the year and introducing them. This year we put on a special flag assembly. We are also in charge of the awards assembly every year.

At the end of each year we have an annual Student Council picnic and clean out the trophy case.

We meet every other Wednesday alternating the periods each time.

The first Student Council was started in 1955 and there were twelve members. It was started for the administration to find out how students felt about happenings in school and for representatives to voice other student's opinions and feelings. The first Council started with two or three representatives from each class.

For the election of president we vote in the middle of the school year, usually in January. The person is elected from the Junior representatives. The person elected serves as Vice-President during the remainder of the year. During the election each candidate gives campaign speeches and students are given a chance to vote during that day.

Quo Vadis?

THE final echo of the old school bell signals far more than just the end of four years of diligent study. It is a fanfare, heralding an altogether new life in a competitive and demanding adult world.

The school has done a big job conditioning young minds for this moment. And, properly, these minds are eagerly receptive to the challenge. But there's more required than a mental reservoir of facts and figures and a willingness to apply them in a practical way.

There is another item that is every bit as important or perhaps more so. It is the human heart. For, it must still be acknowledged that it is the heart that can direct these other attributes in such a way as to add to mere material success the quality of satisfaction—a quality that comes from using knowledge and wisdom and skill not only to improve oneself but to make a better world for all who dwell in it.

Rightfully, then, it's proper to pause here and ask oneself, "Whither goest thou?" And then to choose the way that invites this unbeatable partnership of mind and heart.
