FREDERICK FRICKE

ELIZABETH MINNIE WOLKEN

born April 15, 1874
died September 1, 1961

born September 19, 1880
died April 4, 1968

Married August 26, 1900

Frederick was born at State Center and Elizabeth at Dillon, Ia. They were married at Dillon. ~~They~~ died at Marshalltown, Iowa. He died on the farm. She Frederick Fricke was the ninth child of Christian and Caroline Schaper Fricke. He met Elizabeth Wolken when she came along with someone who delivered lumber to his parents' farm.

They married August 26, 1900 and lived on his parents farm. In 1917 they built a new home, which featured six bedrooms and a bathroom with running water, and even had an elevator type cooler which could be pulled from the basement to the attic. Many a piece of cake or pie was swiped from it when the grandchildren pulled it up to the attic for a snack.

They were thirteen children born to this couple.

They have forty-four grand-children one hundred nine great grand-children and (as of 7-3-82 and is thirty eight great great grand-children. subject to change)

They raised shorthorn cattle and won many ribbons at the county fair.

Renetta married John Jacob, who came to America from Switzerland. They farmed near Baxter and Melbourne before retiring to Melbourne. They have six children. Their sons own and operate a lumberyard in Melbourne. Two daughters are married to farmers, one to a career army man and the youngest lives in Arkansas.

Ida married Clarence Frohwein, whose family were neighbors. They have two daughters and a son. Their oldest daughter farms near Laurel, Ia. Their son farms the Frohwein Farm, and the youngest daughter lives in Marshalltown. She works as a secretary at a church and her husband came from Holland as a boy.

Edna and her husband had no children and are both deceased.

Phoebe married Harley Schuler, who is deceased. They had three sons and one daughter. Phoebe and her two oldest sons live on the farm across the road from Frohweins. Her daughter lives in Marshalltown, as does her youngest son, who works in a factory.

Marie married Ervin Eggers. They had five sons and a daughter. They farmed near Colo for years. Their oldest son works at the U.S. Animal Disease Lab at Ames. Their daughter is married to a plumber. One son works as a butcher and another is a meteorologist. The two youngest sons farm. One owns the Fred Fricke farm.

Leland Fricke is deceased. His wife lives in Pensacola, Florida. They had no children.

Hiram Fricke's wife is deceased and he lives alone in Tama County, Iowa. They have three sons. The oldest was a policeman and lives in Marshalltown. The second son works at a factory in Marshalltown. The youngest lives in Loveland, Colorado, where he works in a factory.

Laura married Ernest Nehring. They have four living children. They retired on their farm near Colo. Their oldest son is a farmer. Their daughter is a teacher. One son is a laborer and one a jeweler.

Frederick married Nadine Warner. They have two sons and two daughters and are now retired on the farm near Baxter. One son is a mail carrier. Their oldest daughter and her husband farm part of his parents farm. Their sons farm the rest. The youngest daughter is a beauty operator and the youngest son works at a factory.

Inez married William Henze and they had two sons and four daughters. Farming, until they retired to State Center. William is deceased and Inez is now married to Cleve Badger, who is in real estate. Her sons work for the railroad. One daughter lives in Washington state, one in Esterville, Ia. and one lives in State Center and the youngest in Colfax, Ia.

Elmer married Dorothy Muschick. They have four sons. They farmed the Fricke home place until moving to Marshalltown. He works at the Thunderbird restaurant. Their oldest son is a professor at Concordia College in Ann Arbor, Mich. One son builds farm buildings, one is a salesman for Lennox and the youngest is a lawn care specialist.

Kenneth married Mary Branan. They have three children. He farmed in Tama County, Iowa then moved to Florida. Their oldest son gardens and the second son works in a supermarket; he was a professional bowler for a while. Their daughter works in a fast food place.

Morris Fricke is deceased and had no children.

Aviation Machinist's Mate 3/c Morris Fricke lost at sea on bomber control flight off coast of New Foundland on Apr. 8, 1942.
