Conservation speech winners

Susie Wyatt was named the winner of the Davis County Soil Conservation District Speech contest last week. Flanking her are the two other place winners in the contest, Lonnie Horn (left) and Steve Altheide.

Miss Wyatt wins speech contest

Miss Susie Wyatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wyatt won the Davis County Soil Conservation speech contest, which was held in the high school auditorium last

Wednesday, May 16, 1973

Along with her, the second place winner was Lonnie Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dean Horn and third place winner was Steve Altheide, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Altheide. Beth Wix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wix, was also in the contest.

Prizes of $10, $7.50, and $5 were provided to the first, second, and third place winner respectively. Clifford Foster, of the Hubbart Insurance Agency, represented the Grinnell Mutual Reinsurance Company who provides the prize money for the speech contest on the Regional and State levels.

The local Soil Conservation District provides plaques to the winners, which will be presented at the fall banquet of the District Cooperators.

Miss Wyatt will represent Davis County in the Region Nine contest in July.
