

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 6, 1983

To the Citizens of Rhodes:

I am pleased to join all those gathered to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Rhodes and to send my warm congratulations.

The spirit which has built and sustained your community reflects the energy which has forged America into a land of wonder. As a community held by fellowship and goodwill, Rhodes has become "home" to many who love it dearly. Further, it stands as an example of the blessings of liberty and freedom to those around the world.

Again, my hearty congratulations on this proud, historic occasion and my best wishes in the years to come.

Ronald Reagan
