Classes of 1969, 1970 and 1971:

The citizens of the Ankeny Community School District have provided you with the facilities, the curriculum, the staff and the extra-curricular activities to help make you a well-rounded student. It is my hope that each of you has and will take advantage of these necessities of life that have been provided for you. It is impossible for us to teach you all there is to know. We would like to think that your curiosity might be aroused and stimulated to dwell deeper and longer in the areas of your assignments.

Good luck to you—young people of the Ankeny Senior High School!

The Past Forever Gone

Altogether, there were 44 who took the big step in 1956. This step marked the beginning of a long journey—a journey which would last for thirteen years. There would be others who would join this group, and there would be some who would leave, but this would be in the future, and these 44 were concerned only with the present. Dressed in their newest outfits: Raye Lee Ahlberg, Janis Bair, Margie Blair, Michele Conway, Roxie Hick, Annie Harkin, Sheila Hutchins, Mary Lundell, Susie McKenna, Shelly Mynatt, Suzie Reynolds, Isolena Medici, Vicki Rice, Bev Scholes, Bonnie Stubbe, Pammie Williamson, Billy Adams, Rich Albaugh, Joe Begg, Kenny Beougher, Al Buenz, Duane Buster, Dave Carr, Tommy Downey, Craig Durham, Bryce Halbrook, Roger Heston, Brian Hokel, Kelley Johnson, Alan Jones, Lee Lundstrom, Doug Mann, Mike Medici, Dave Miller, Stevie Moeckly, Jimmy Monaghan, Lance Morningstar, Herbie Ober, Davy Parrish, Neil Schultz, Bruce Swartfager, Gary Thornton, Dougie Tomlinson, and Eddie Udovich entered the building and became a part of the system that would have such an influence on their thus far sheltered lives. Some gazed about in awe, some strode boldly down the hall to their room, some fought back tears, and some let the tears fall freely. But after meeting their teachers, each one knew there was no reason for fear, and school became so much fun that they were surprised to see how fast the year had gone.

The experienced 44 were joined the next year by Sheryl Albaugh and Kathy Christensen. By the end of their second year of schooling, the forty-six first-graders had become such authorities on nap-taking and Spot and Puff books that they were well-prepared to enter the second grade.

Becky Borgstrand, Lois Sellers, and Lesley Martin added some extra sugar and spice as they joined "THE GROUP" in second grade. More new arrivals included Larry Wooten, Jim Sanger, and Larry Adams. These six were readily accepted by their other classmates, and together they awaited the time when they could pass into the third grade.

The third-graders were destined to lose their first classmate. Mary Lundell moved and, although her absence was felt, it was offset by the arrival of nine new members: Judy Graber, Cinda and Linda Shawhan, Rich Brinkman, Merlin Christians, Gail Pedersen, Keith Rudd, Ed Saner, and Roger Tschertter. (It should be noted that the arrival of six new boys was not considered a tragic event by the third-grade girls.)

The fourth grade was finished in the company of four newcomers: Laura Graham, Chuck Engstrom, Jennifer Ladman, and Mike Neely. It was at the end of this year that Sue McKenna transferred to another school.

Their days as elementary students began to be numbered as the fifth-graders saw the sixth grade rapidly approaching. They realized the sixth grade would be the end of one phase of the journey; so, with the addition of Janice Anderson, Jill Burkard, Barb Johnson, Gina Lorenzano, Debbie Martin, Cheryl Russell, Fred Anderson, Larry Crowell, Roger Froegle, Gary Herring, Mike Klootwyk, Dennis Rice, Larry Waite, and Steve Yates, they awaited the sixth grade with mixed feelings. Maybe the mixed feelings were justified! The sixth grade brought Judy Beavans, Steff Lennard, Mary Lundell, Lonnie Marsh, Denise Martin, Vicky Murphy, Barb Steege, Laura Van Horn, Greg Meyer, Randy Westrom, and Jeff Pickett. Although it was with some apprehension, the sixth-graders met the end of their elementary years, and they were successfully prepared for any new situations.

Besides adjusting to a new building, new teachers, a new routine, and the loss of their recesses, the seventh-graders had to adjust to eleven new students: Carol Davis, Pat McCampbell, Janet Yarlott, Kim Brown, Rich Dixon, Larry Handley, Steve Ryan, Dave Smith, Verl Smith, and Bob Stackhouse.

The eighth-graders the next year were not destined to be the "top dogs" yet. Because of a switch to a 3-year junior high program, they faced their ninth year of schooling under the all-too-familiar, ever-watchful eyes of the class of '68. It was also in this year that Sue Catron, Jane Chittick, Mary Dockstader, and Peggy Wenig arrived.

Diana Chance, Linda Danielson, Sue McKenna, Bev Mishler, Kay Olofson, Marv Buck, and Steve Knapp arrived in time to help the freshmen assume their responsibilities as leaders. But there is a time to lead and a time to follow, and the time to return to following came sooner than most expected.

Back to the halls of their elementary days they went—to halls filled with past memories and new faces. It took some effort to recall the days when the lockers seemed so huge and the drinking fountains so high, yet stooping for a drink of water was a constant reminder of such days. In this group of sophomores, Connie Barnhill, Carol Button, Carol Howard, Maria Kershner, Jean Nettleton, Fred Barrell, Glenn Beckwith, Gary Beckwith, Robert Lowery, Randy Starr, and Doug Willey faced the first year of high school in a new school system.

As juniors, the class was kept busy penny-pinching for a sensational Prom. Suzie Ball, Anne Basham, Donna Boucher, Kent Boucher, Ovida Stong, Sally Vaughn, Scott Vaughn, Beth Ranney, Bill Moravek, and Dan Murphy arrived in time to participate in the activities. The junior girls showed off their physical prowess by defeating the sophs in a Powder Puff football game and their creative talents by making paper flowers. Through their efforts and the help of various other classmates and the patient guidance of Mr. Troxel, the '67-'68 Prom, "Younger Than Springtime" was deemed one of the most successful dances ever.

With their long-awaited class rings came a pleasant thought that the time to lead was fast returning. As seniors, Jo Reeves, Jeanne Preston, John Brink, Rod Buland, Dave Laukat, Larry Matijevich, Jerry Thompson, and Kathy Porter joined the group on the last portion of their journey. Where their journey would take the '69ers from here cannot be written, yet always before they had met uncertainty and challenges boldly. The future would be no exception, for, though the past forever gone, the future still their own.

They say Fred has the freshest mouth IN town.

S E N I O R S

Kelly—in the LIBRARY?!?!

I N

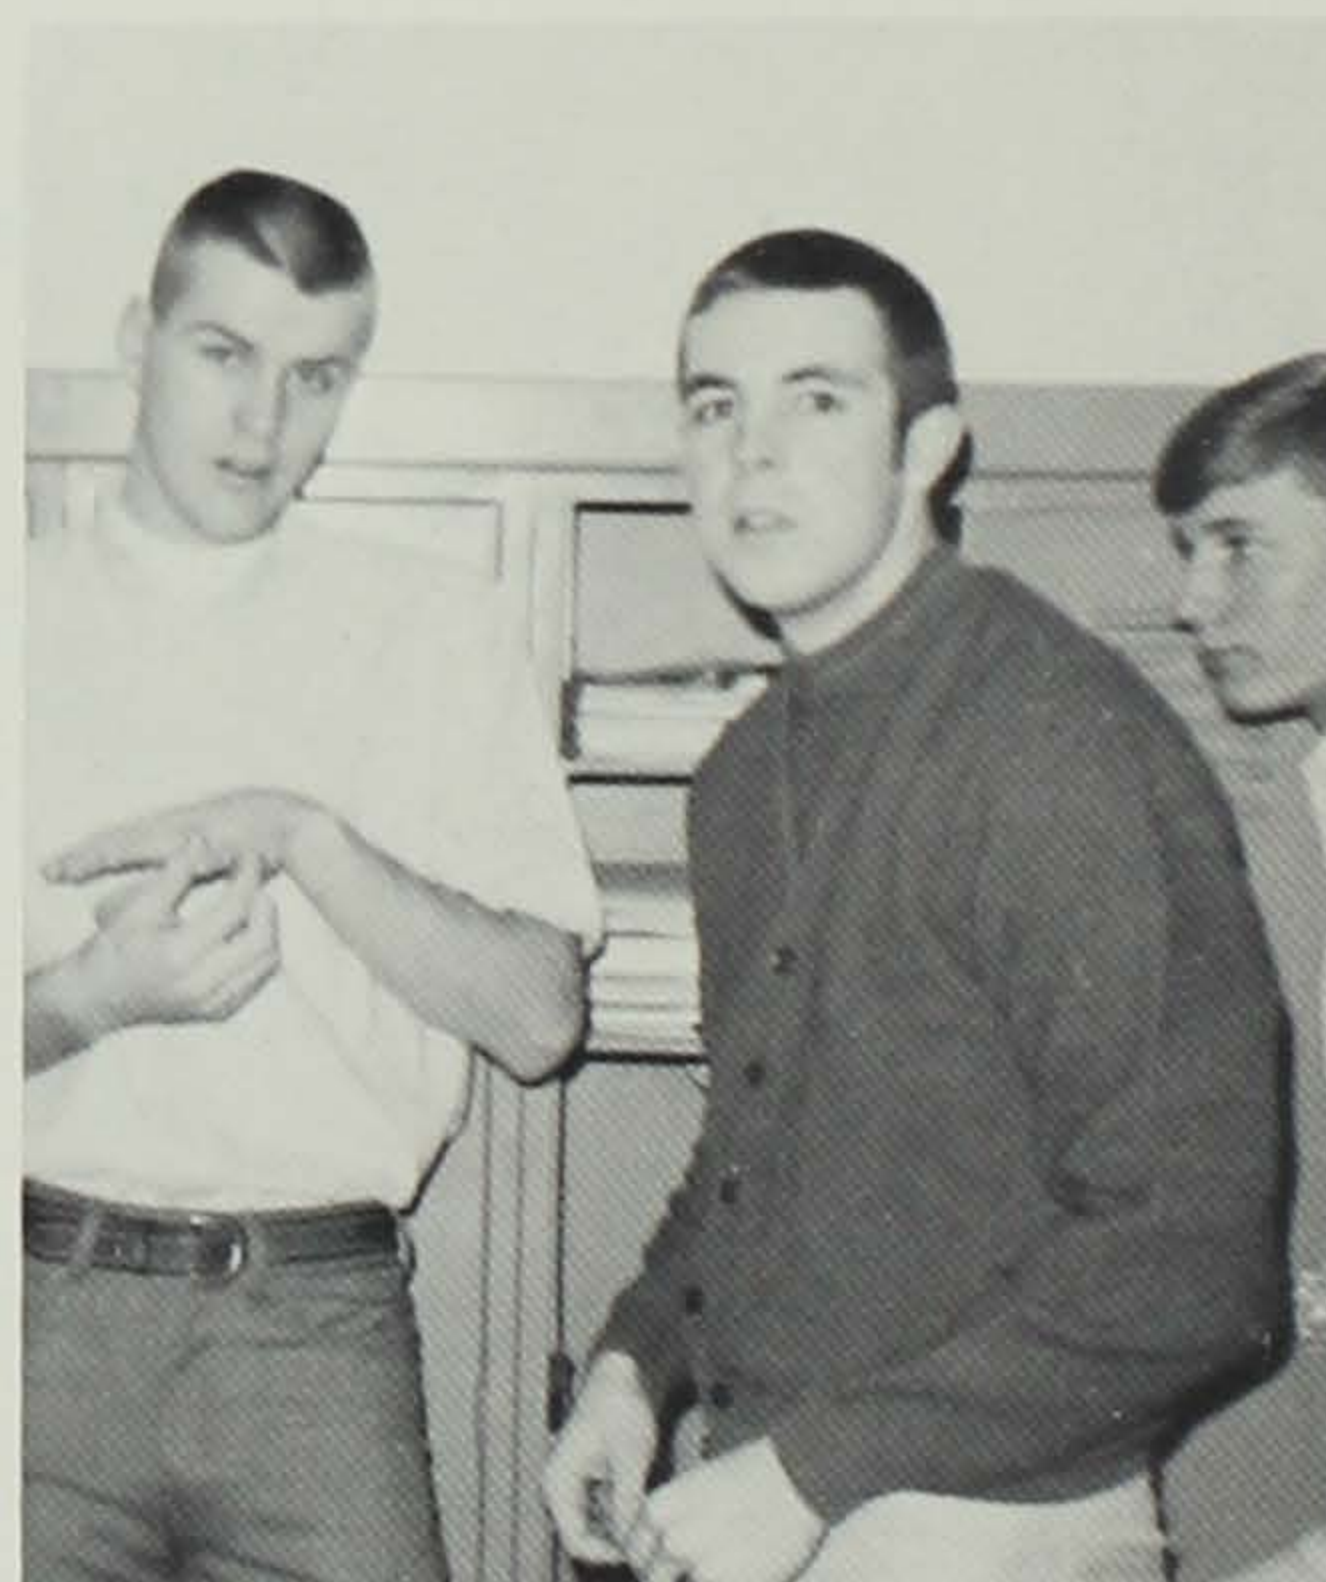

Seniors are always bright-eyed and bushed in the morning.

"My breath is NOT bad enough to kill a moose."

A C T I O N

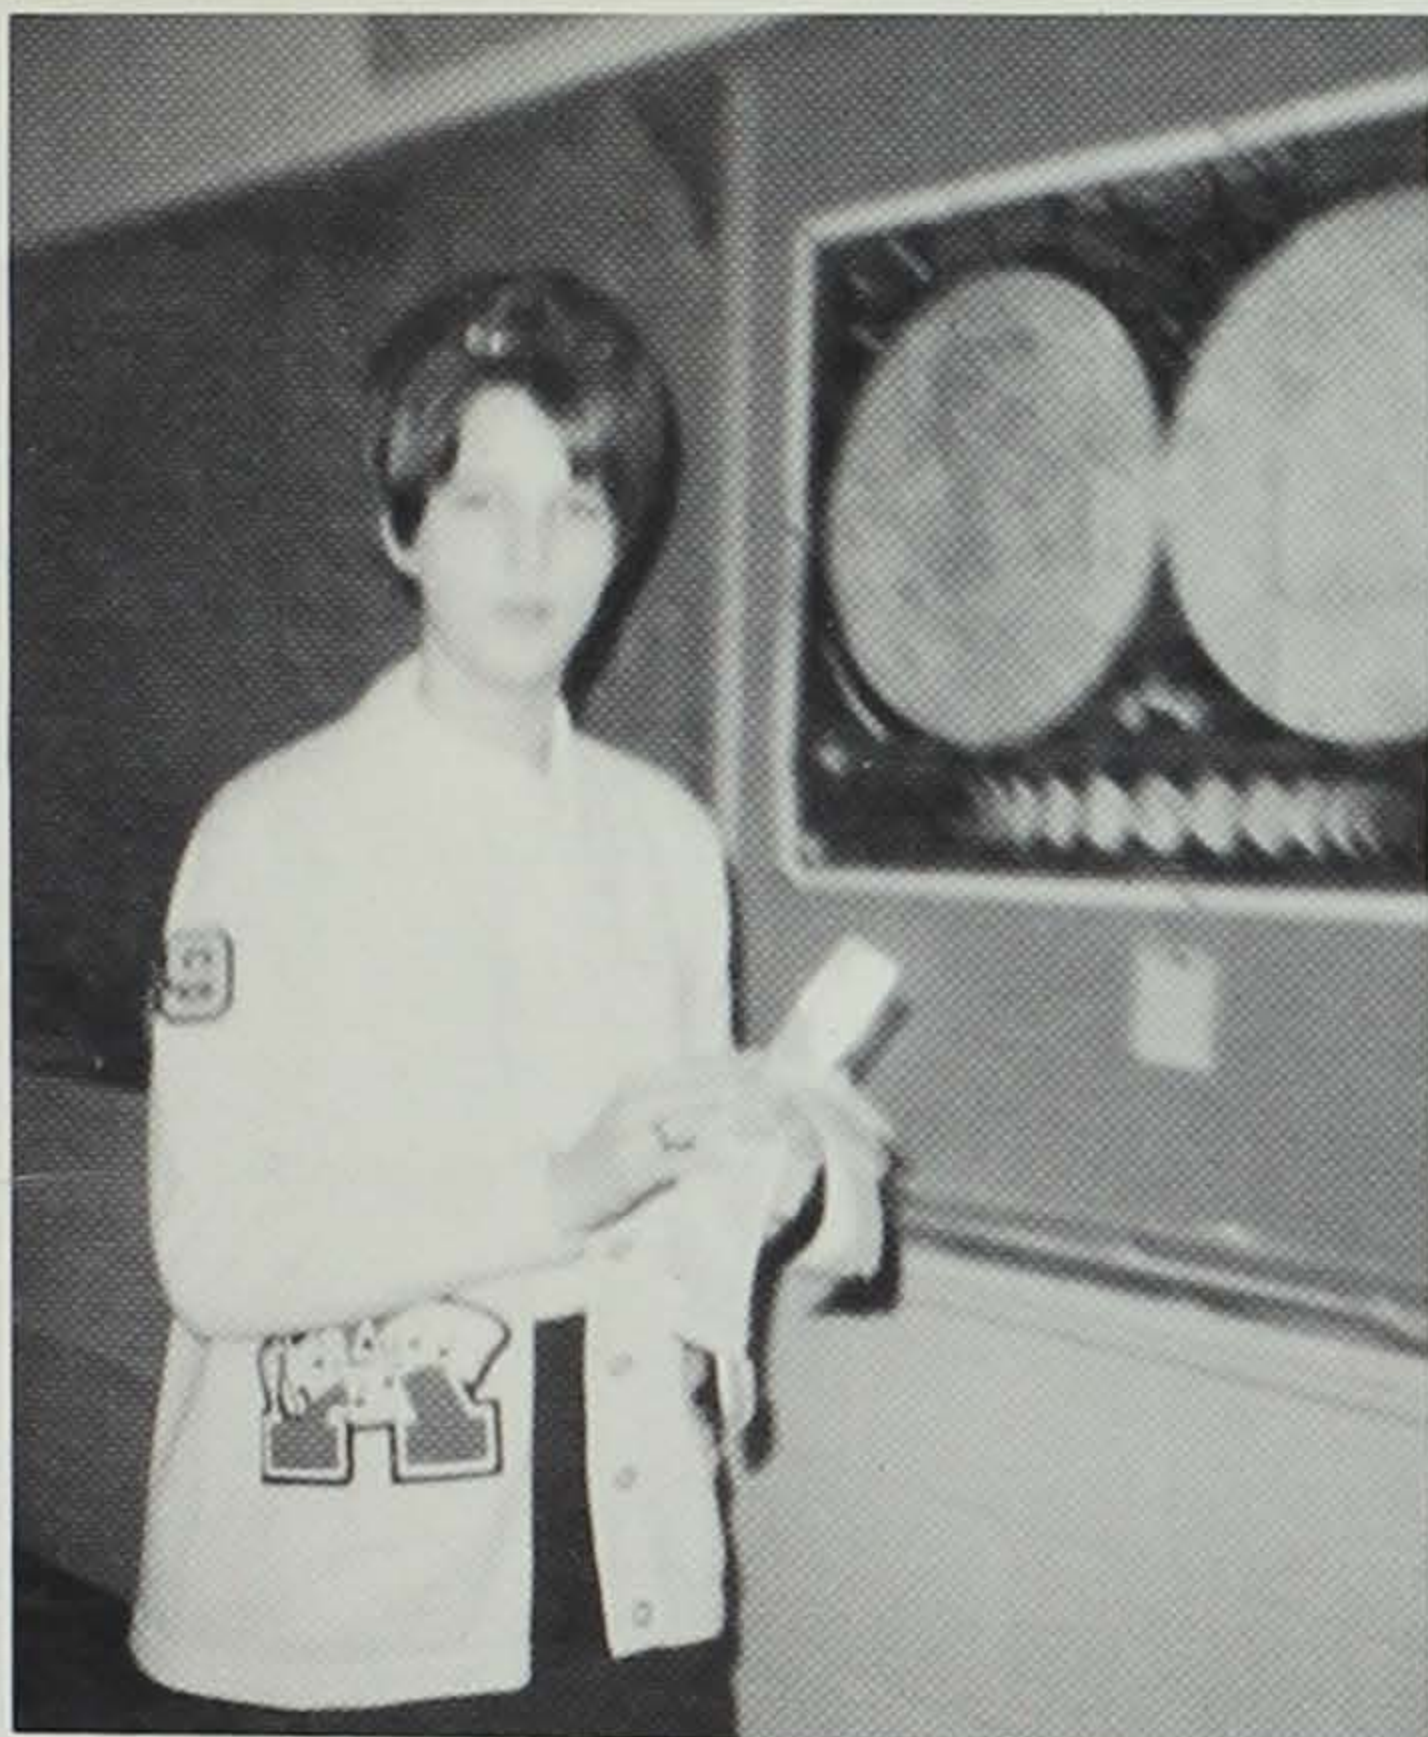

"I have more brains in my little finger than you have in your whole head!"

"Just call me Tina the Ballerina."

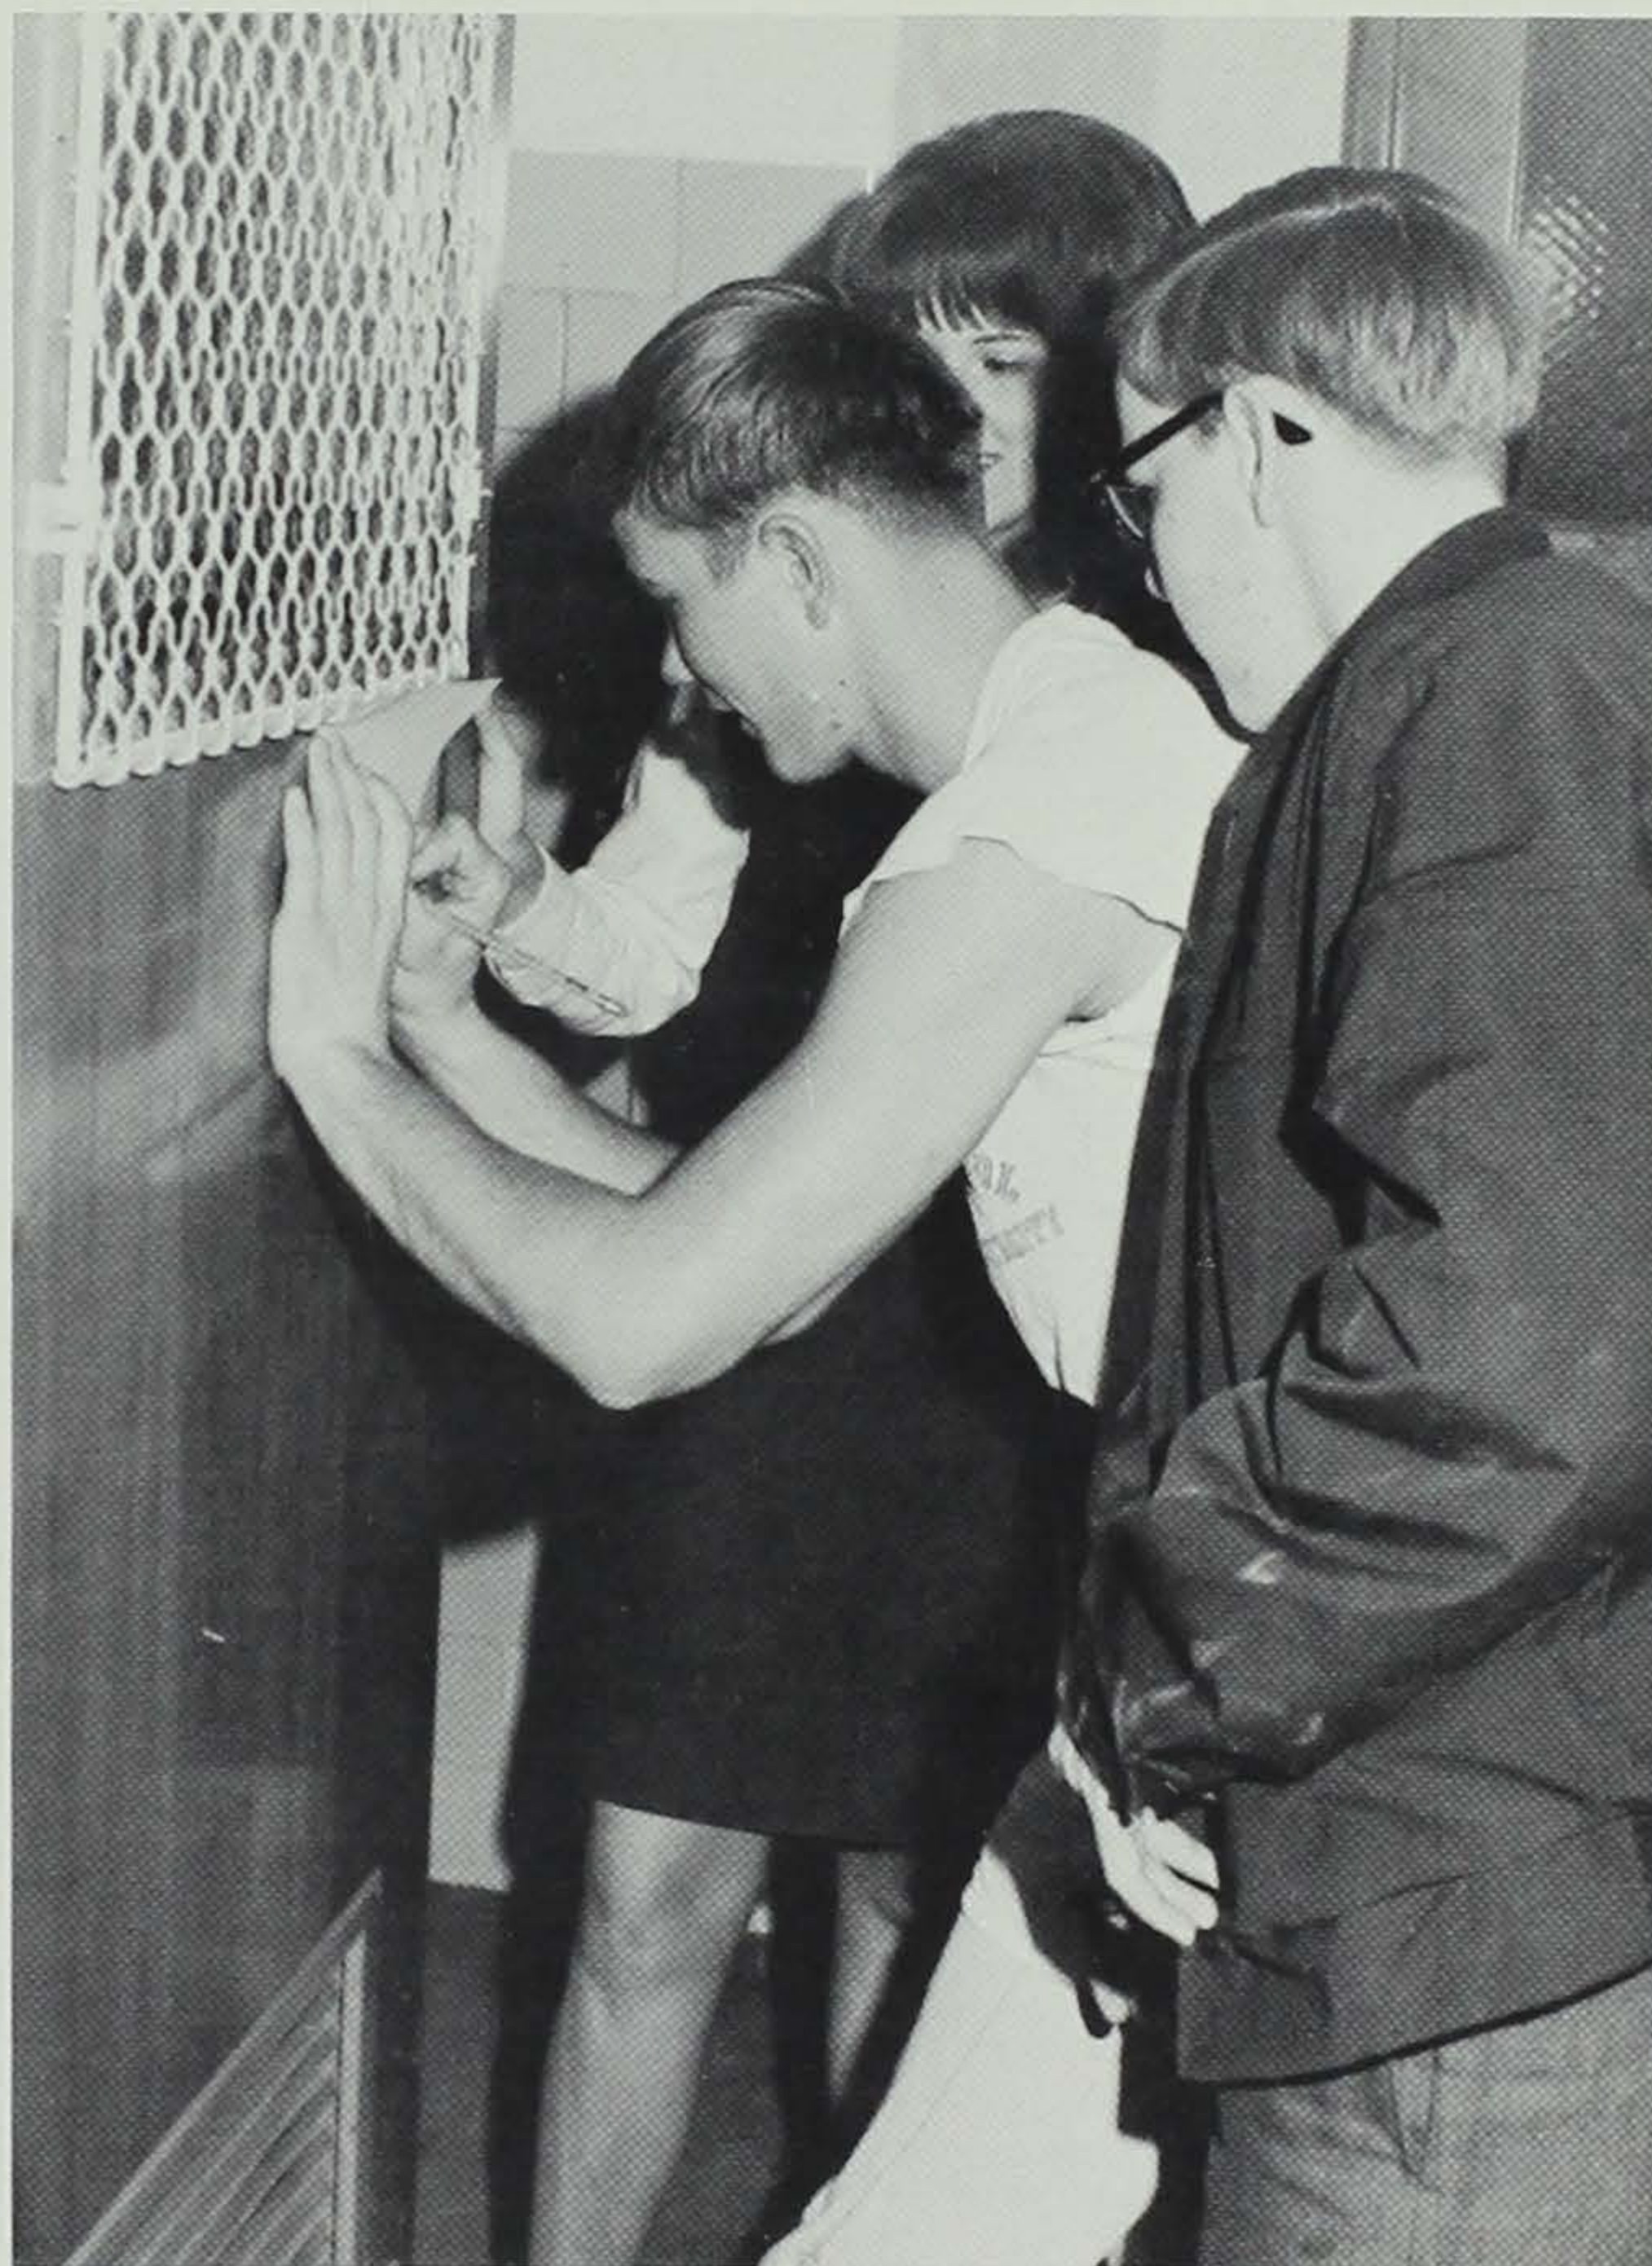

"The holes in the Senior parking lot are this big!"

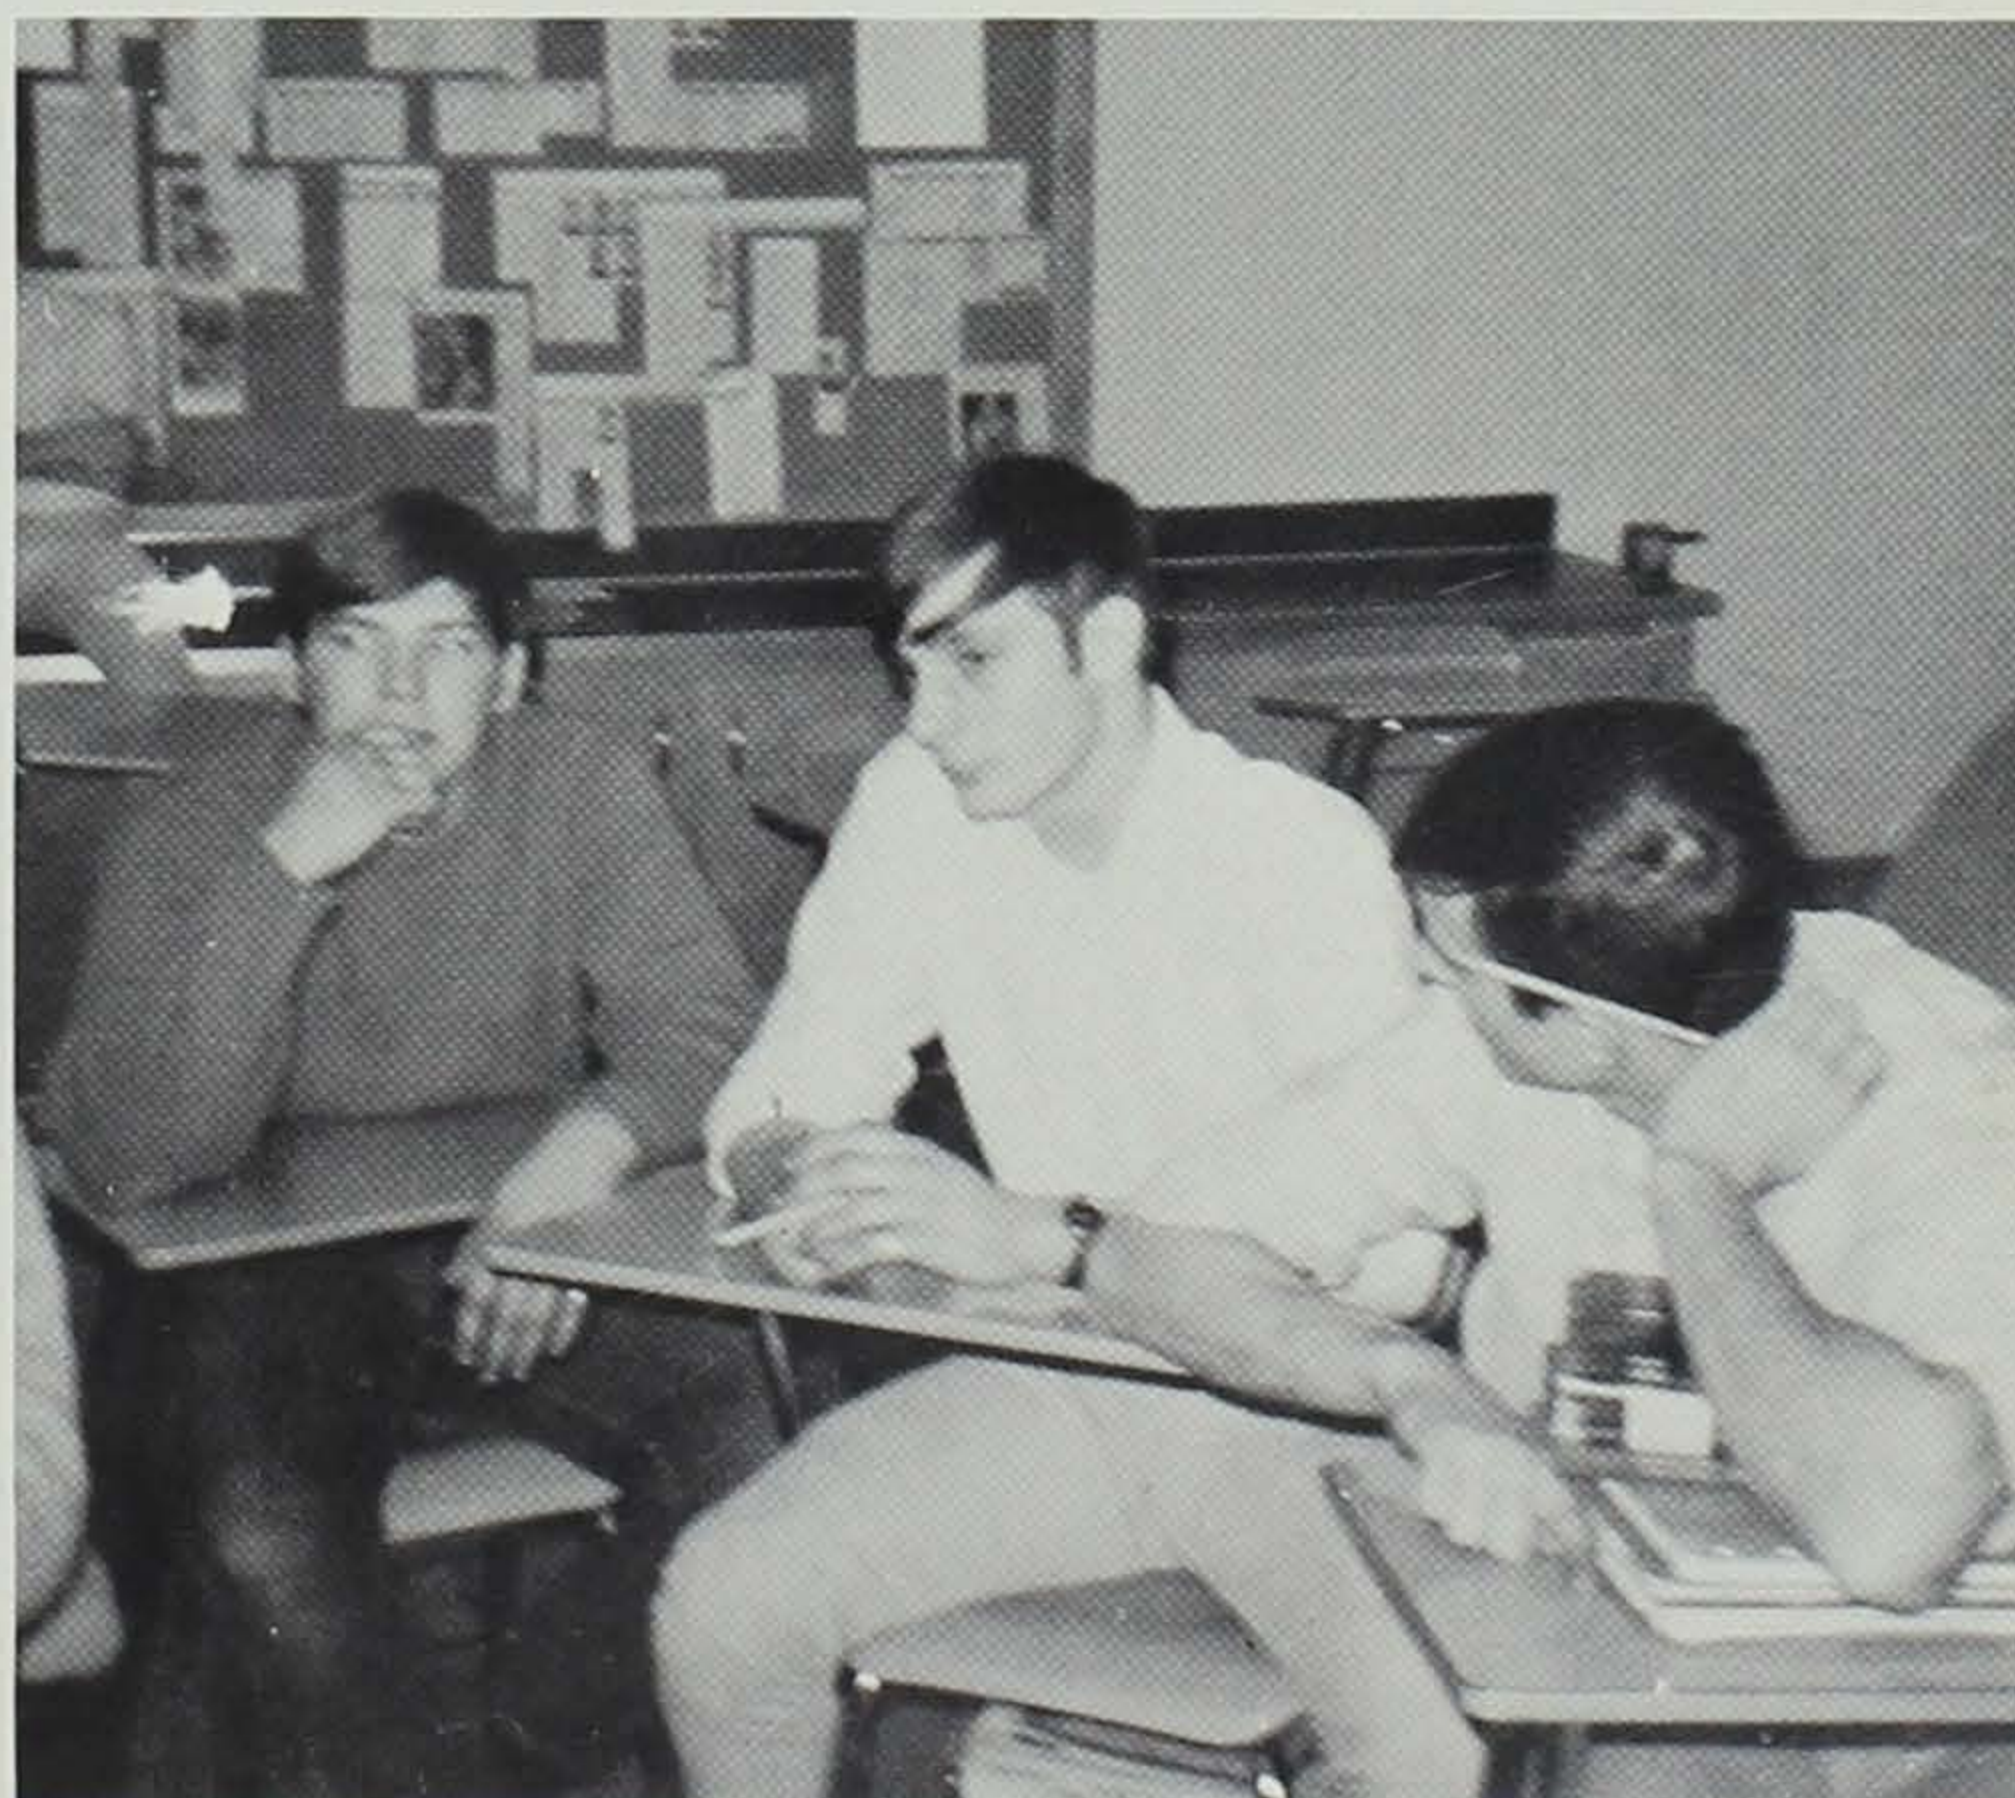

And now for the weather report—Here's Raye.

I'm so great. I use a putter on the fairways!

Seniors asking a Junior for his autograph?!?!?!?

Let's see, the bell rings in 5 minutes. It should take us about 2 minutes to get to the ice cream machines.

"We take our hats off to the Seniors of '69."

"I always get stuck on the clean-up committee."

"What do you mean there's a Pep Rally today?"

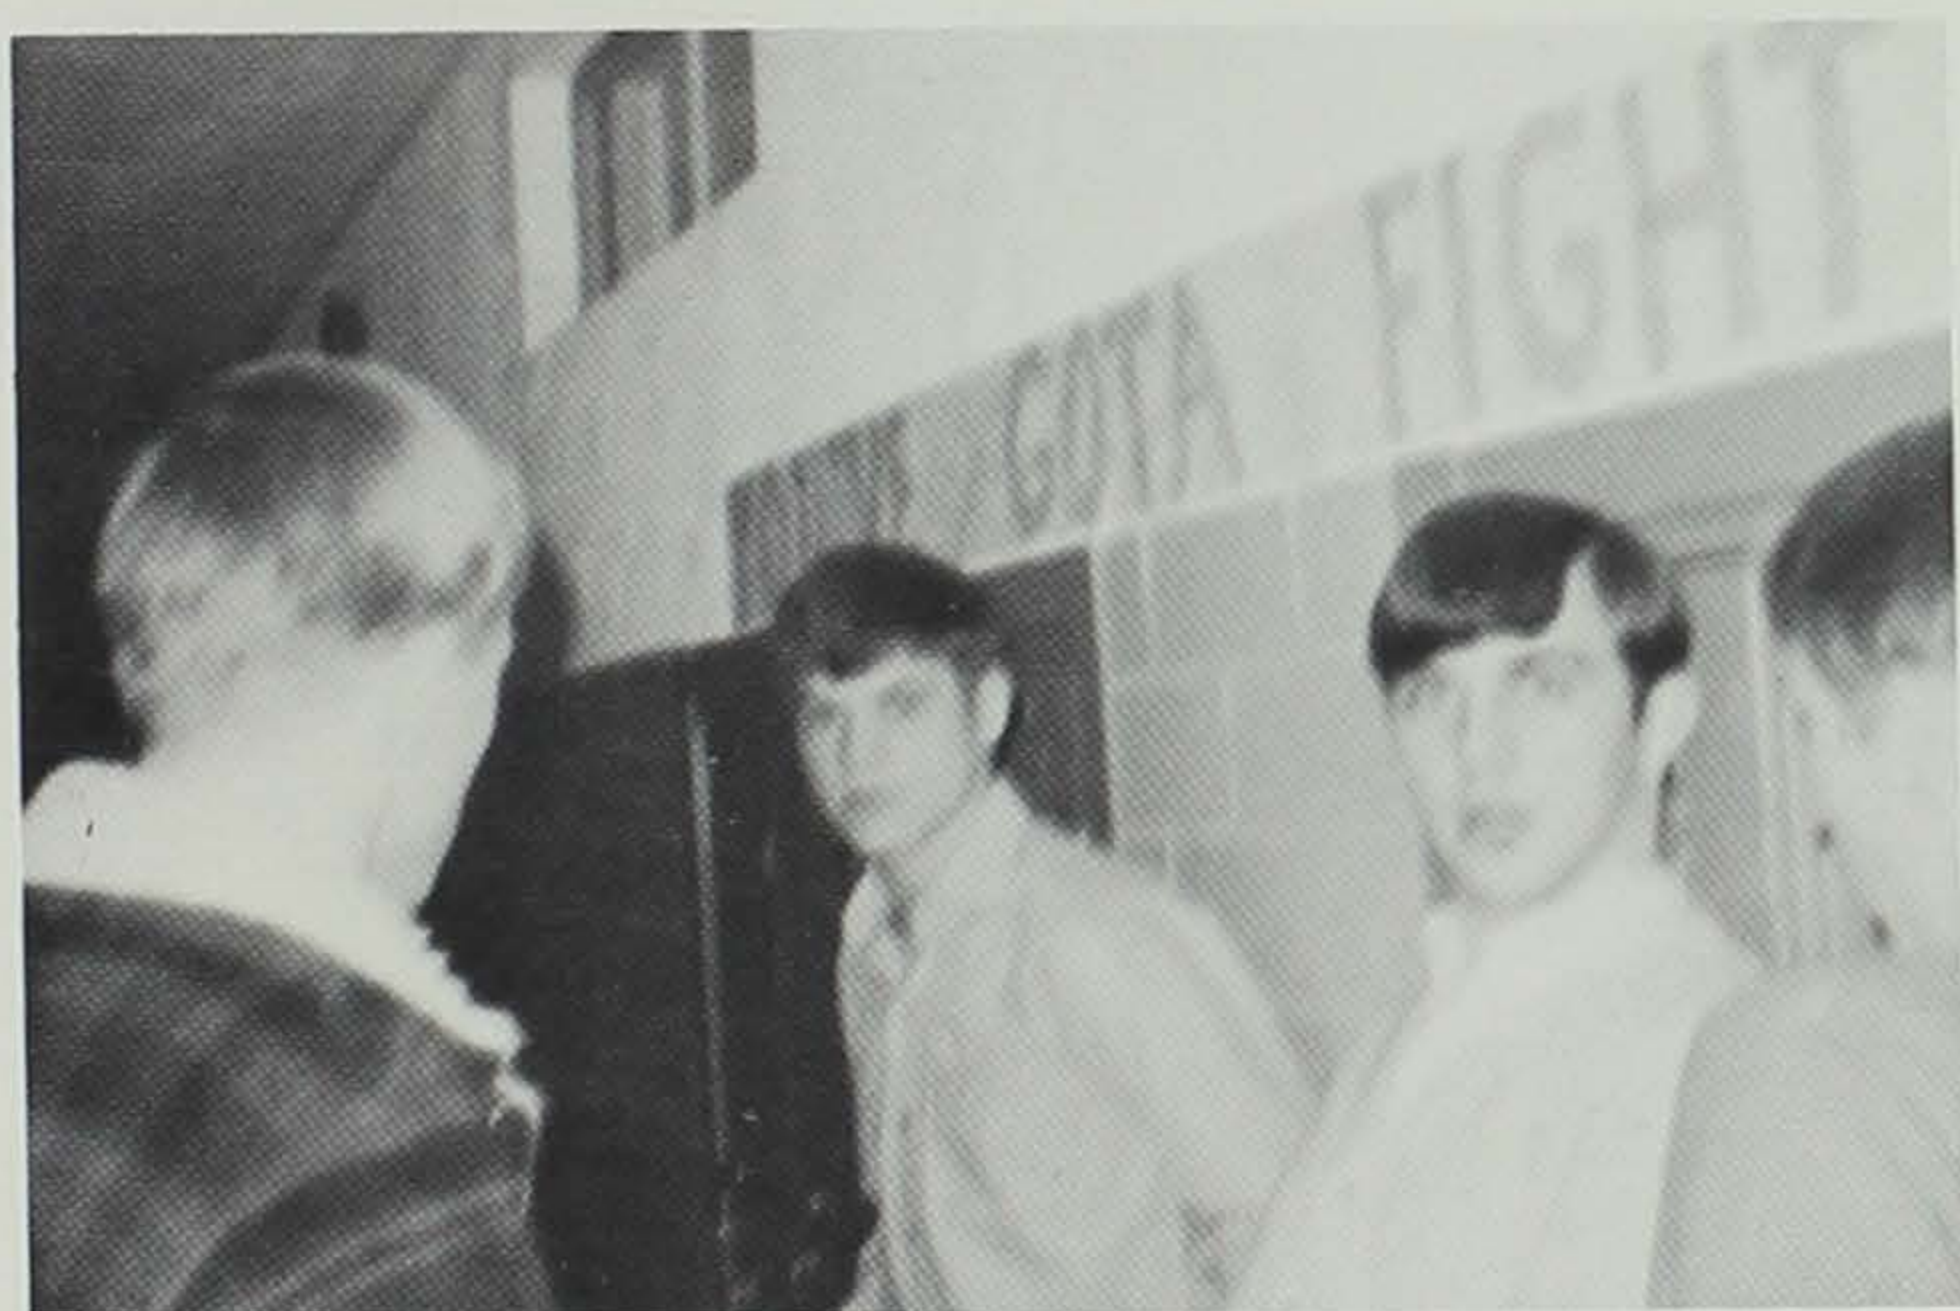

Can't you just smell all that Home-cooked food coming from the Home Economics room!

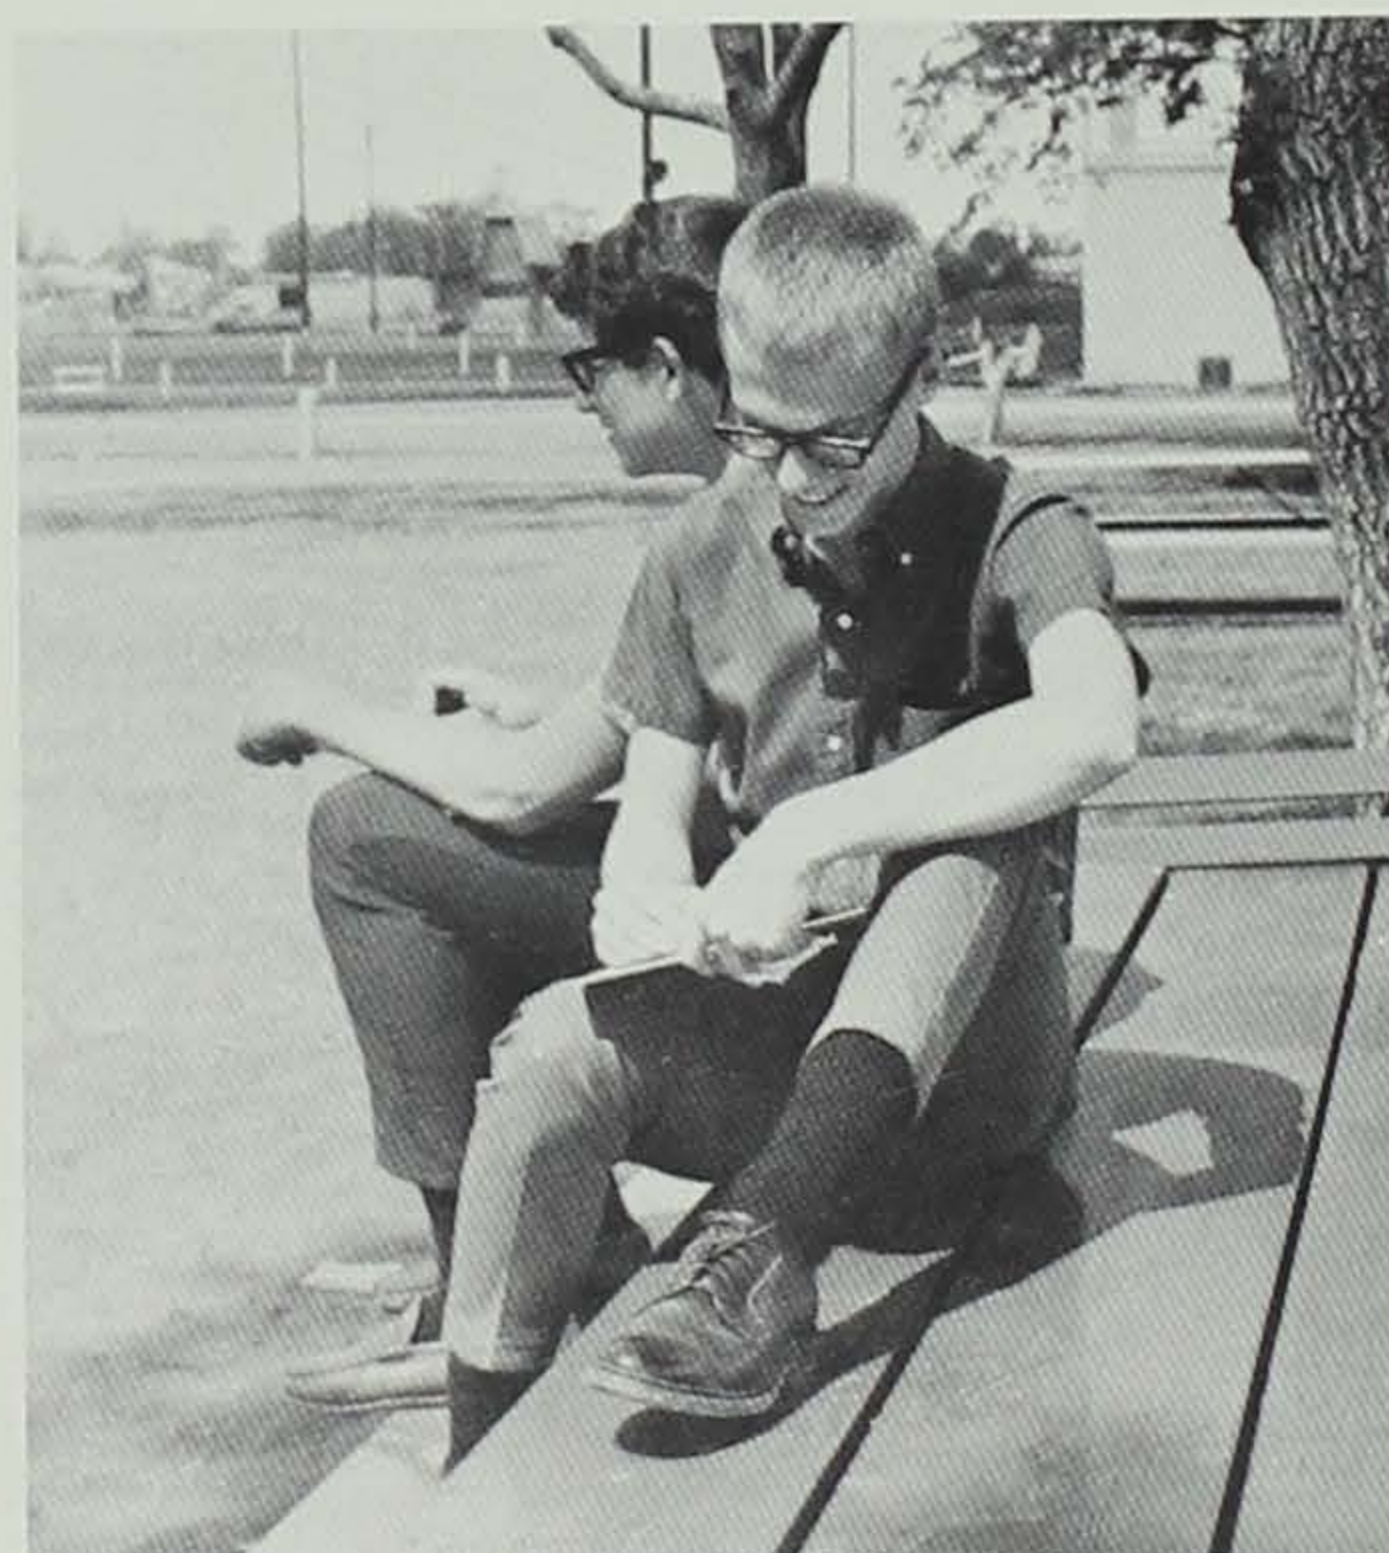

Being high is one of their common virtues.

You call this ACTION? Boys on one side and girls on the other.

"Who's gotta fight?—Us??"

"I'm drawing the yellow fuzzy caterpillar."

Seniors are always on the top of things.

It's amazing how long a fire can burn (2 a.m.)???

"Mr. Boyd's joke couldn't have been THAT funny."

"TODAY we tell her!"

"I thought for sure I took all my rollers out before I got to school."

"Our cute little corn seeds died."

"Pretty please Kathy, Can't I have a LITTLE bite of your cookie."

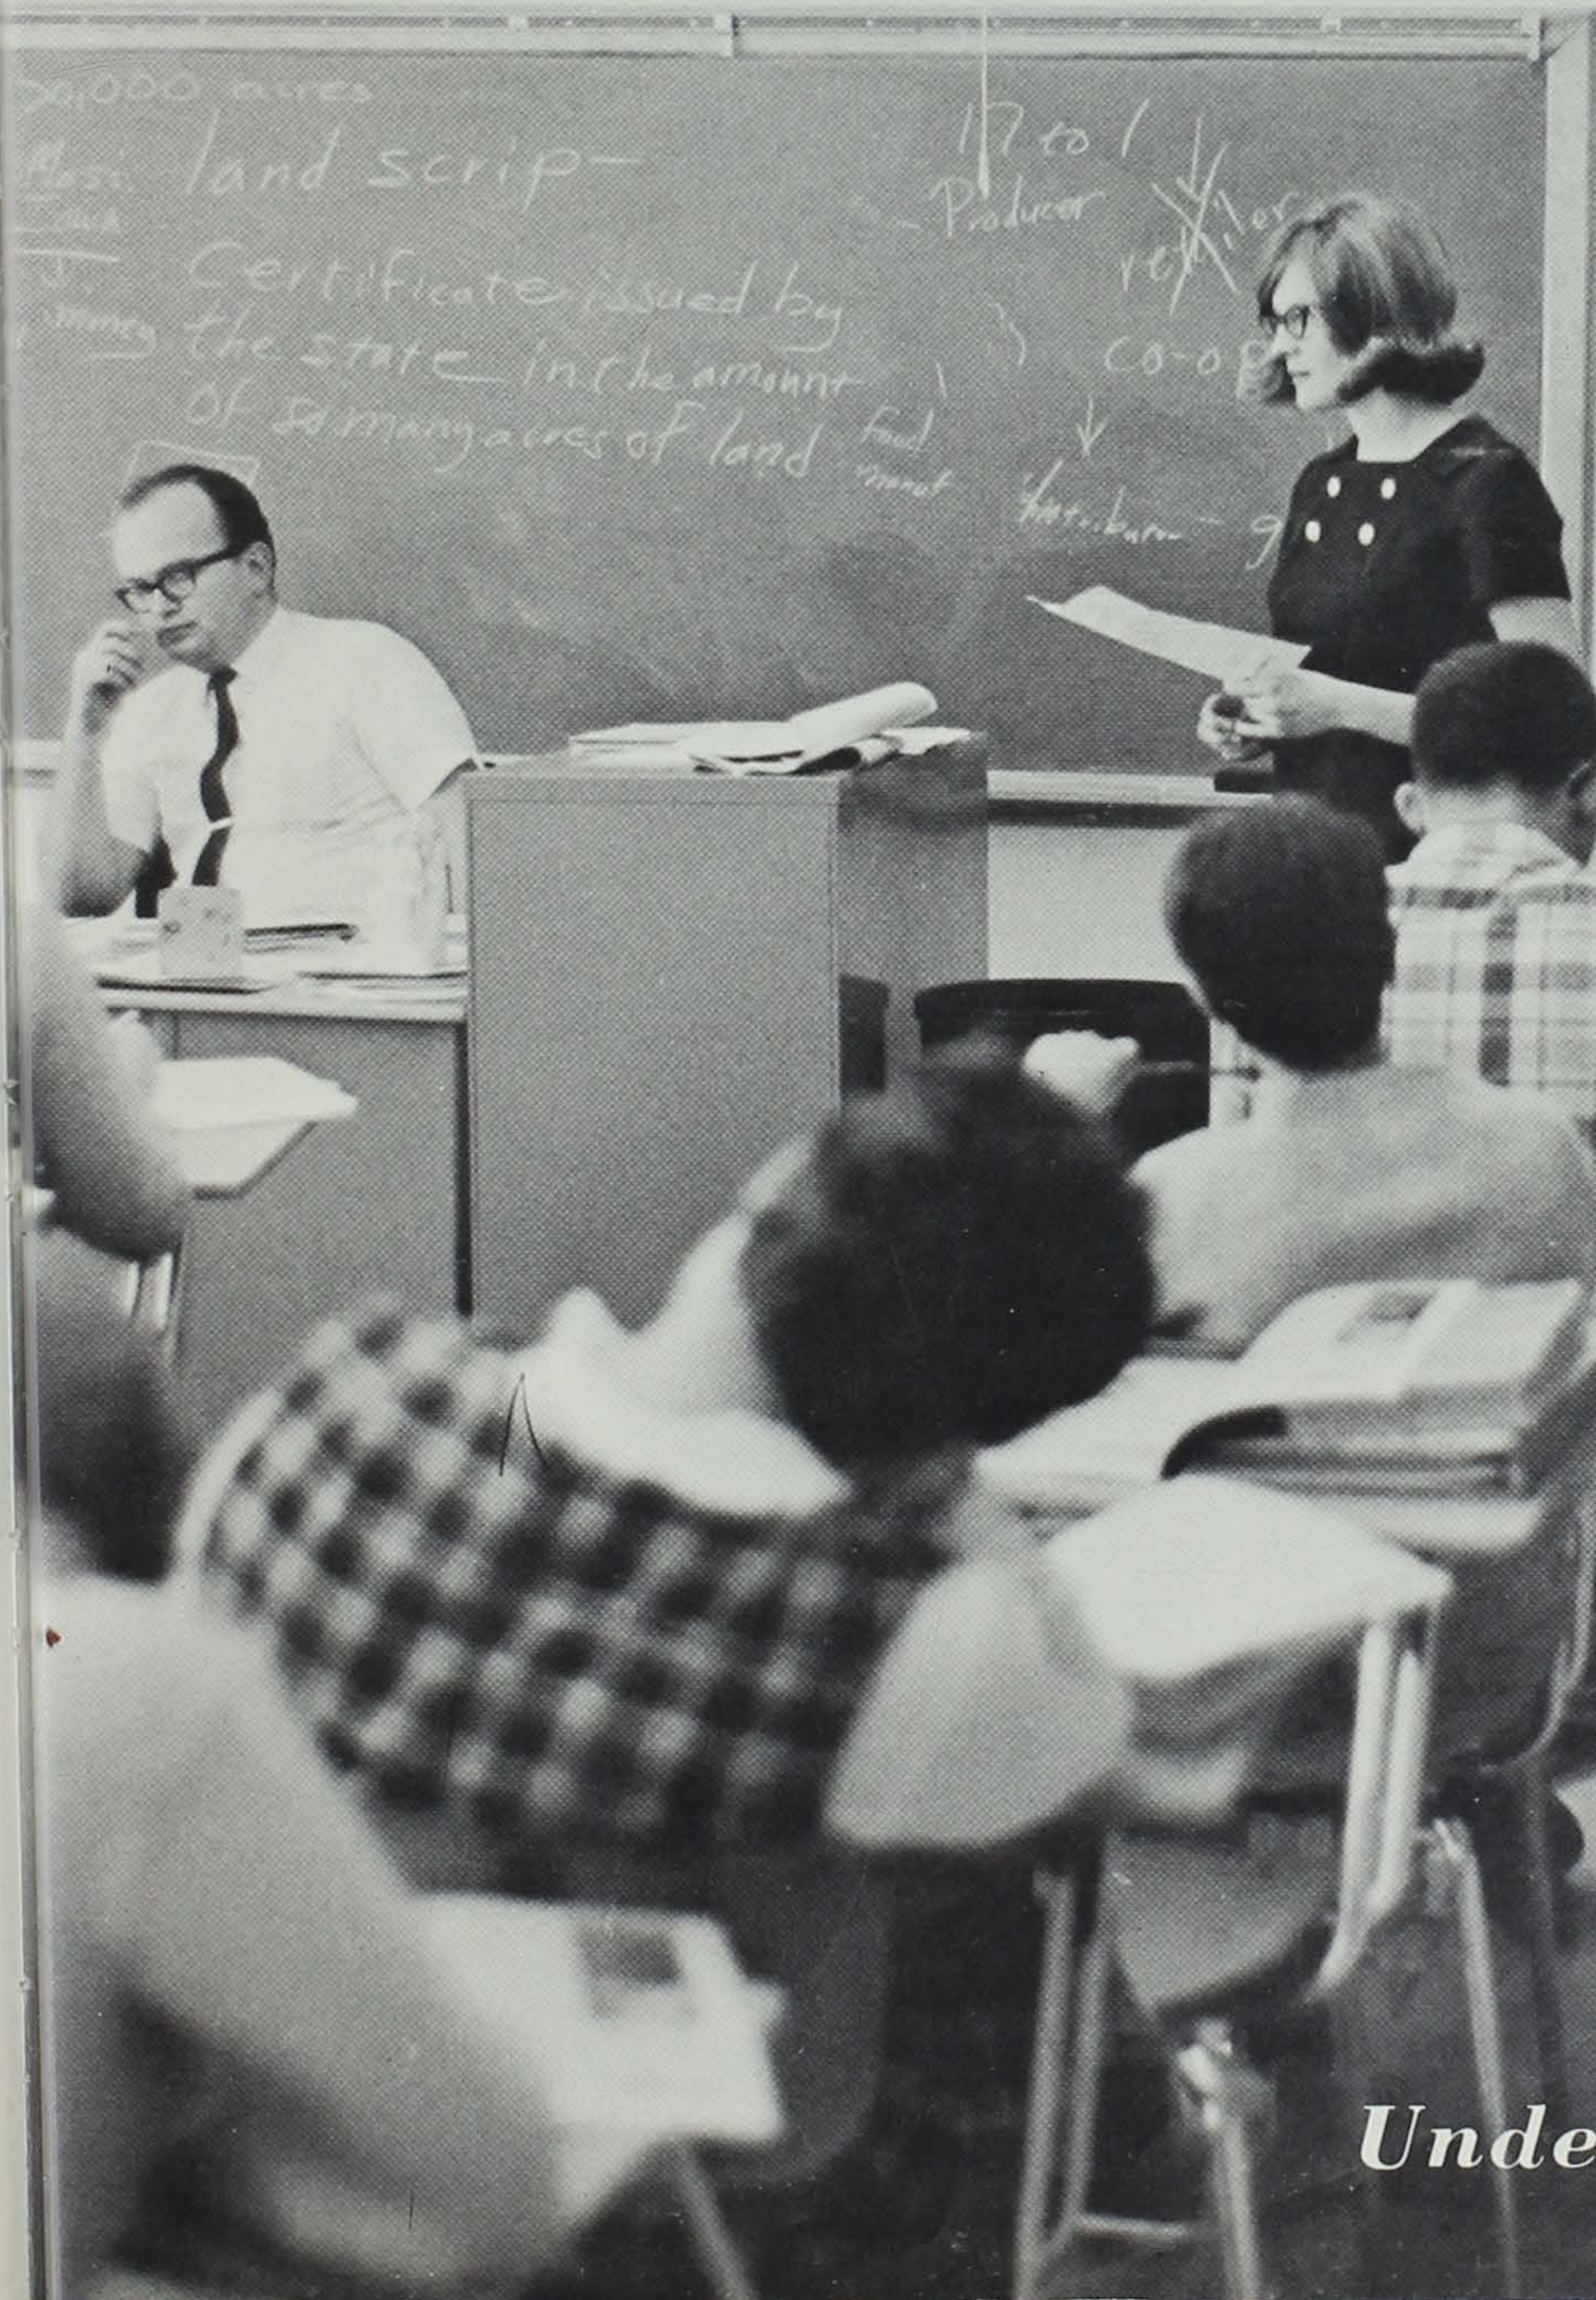

"I better erase all those extra CURVES before Mr. Sharp comes around."

"I could take on all ten of them with one hand tied behind my back."

To win the Powder Puff game

To raise money towards the

Junior-Senior Prom in 1970

To adjust to High School life

To live up to the high standards of the Upperclassmen

Candid Snapshots

There's a boy I'd like to know.

He's got that Ankeny pep and go.

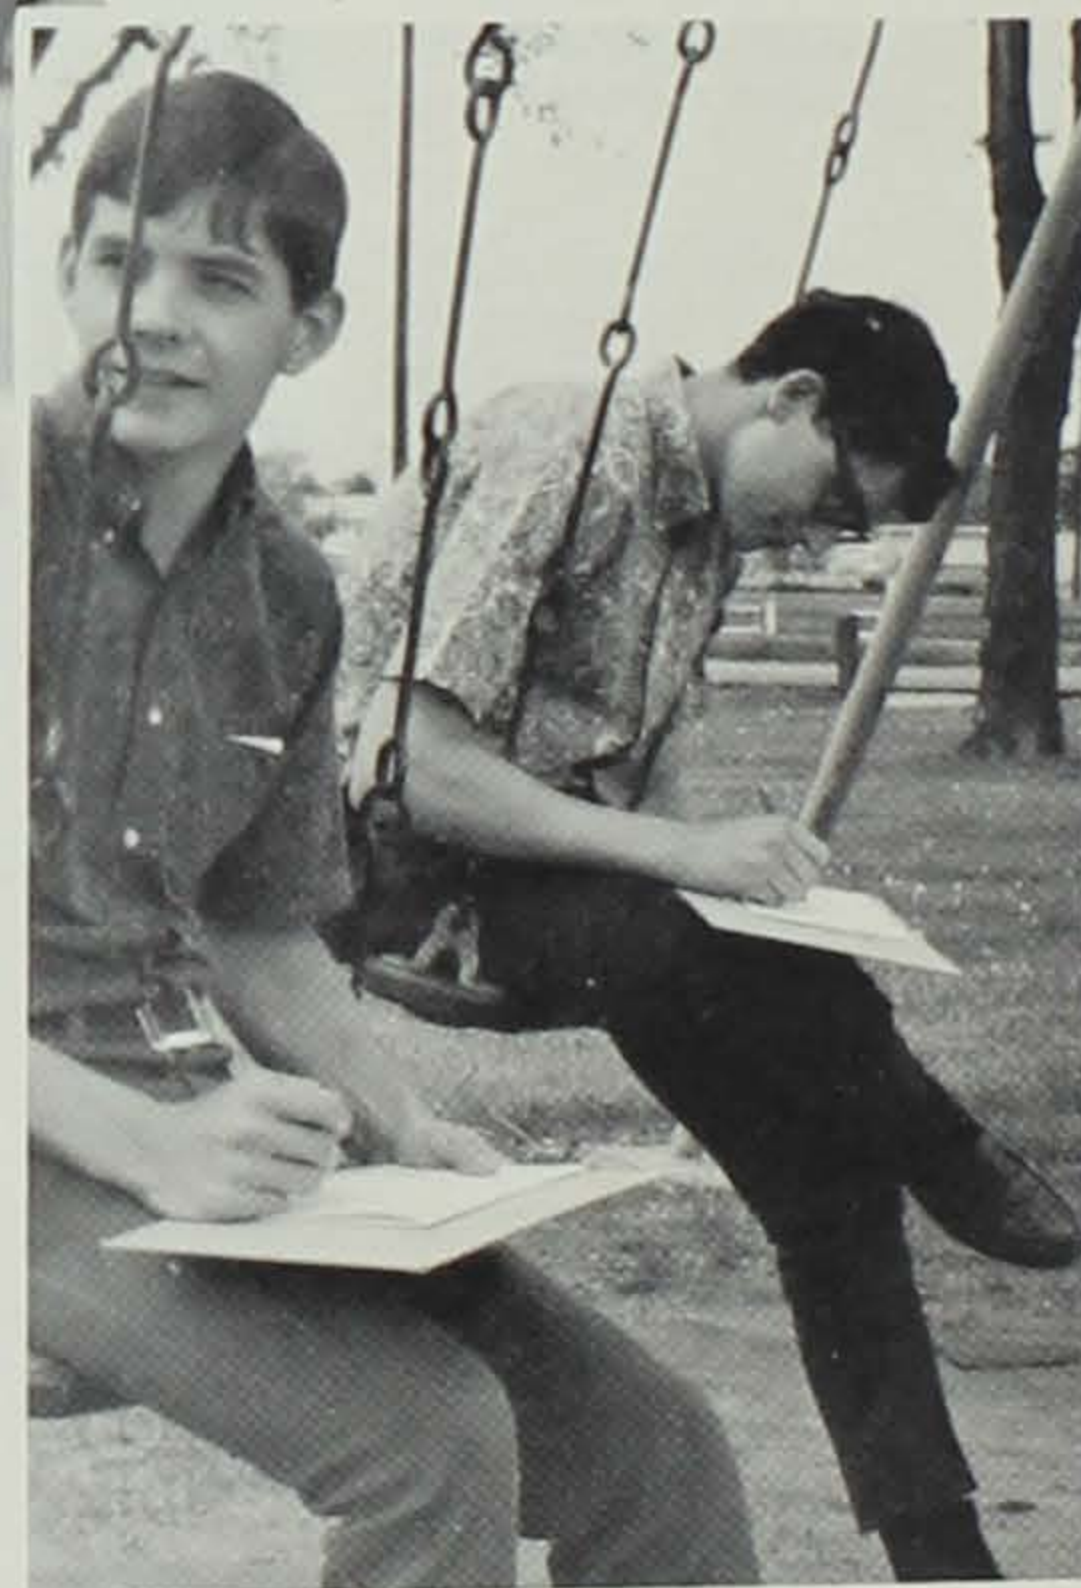

Pep and go?

He sure is sweet.

He's quite a treat.

Sure is sweet!

The Ankeny boys.

Ankeny

The Ankeny boys!

"There were 3 of them and one of me!"

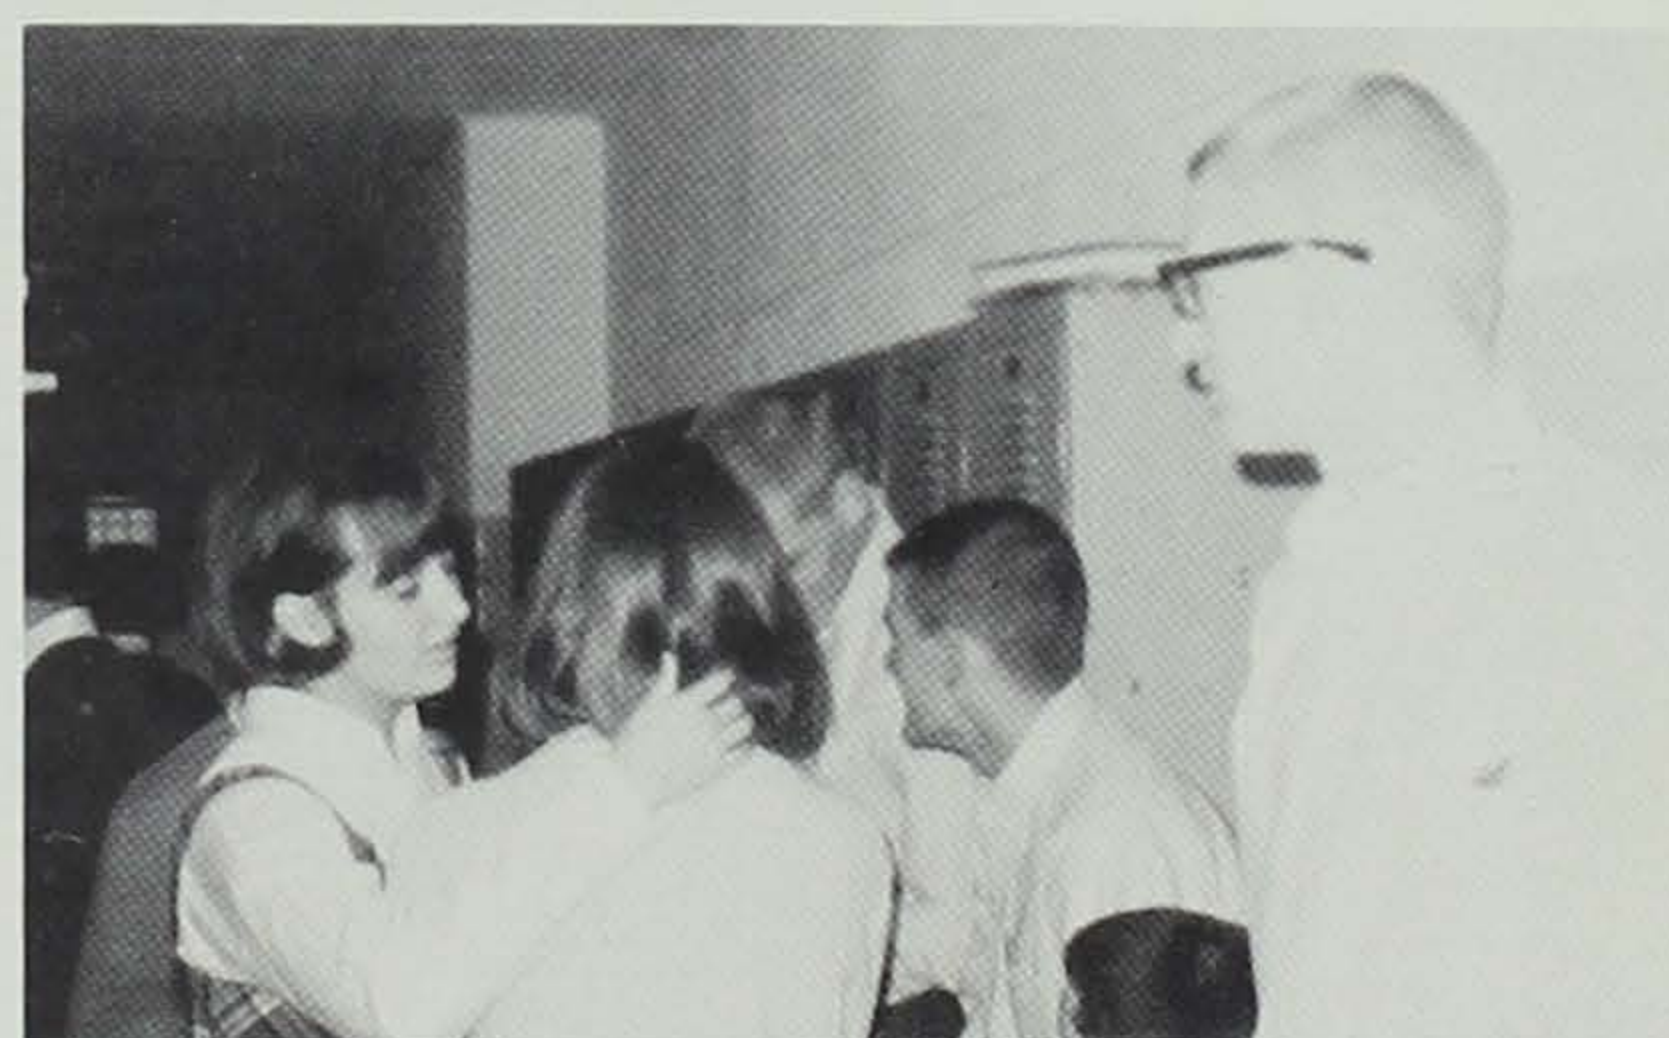

Excedrin Headache No. 13—School Lunches!"

"If I use Ultra Brite, will I have sex appeal?"

"This is the only way to get rid of my jungle rot!"

"If I blow in your ear, will you follow me anywhere?"

"Scratch the other side, will you?"

Juniors always look up to seniors.

Debbie? Diana?—Deb!

No more turkey jokes!

"Darn! Tripped again!"

"Mirror, mirror, in my hand,
Who's the fairest in the land?"

"You guys shouldn't throw Mrs. Lyon up like that! Now we'll have to catch her!"

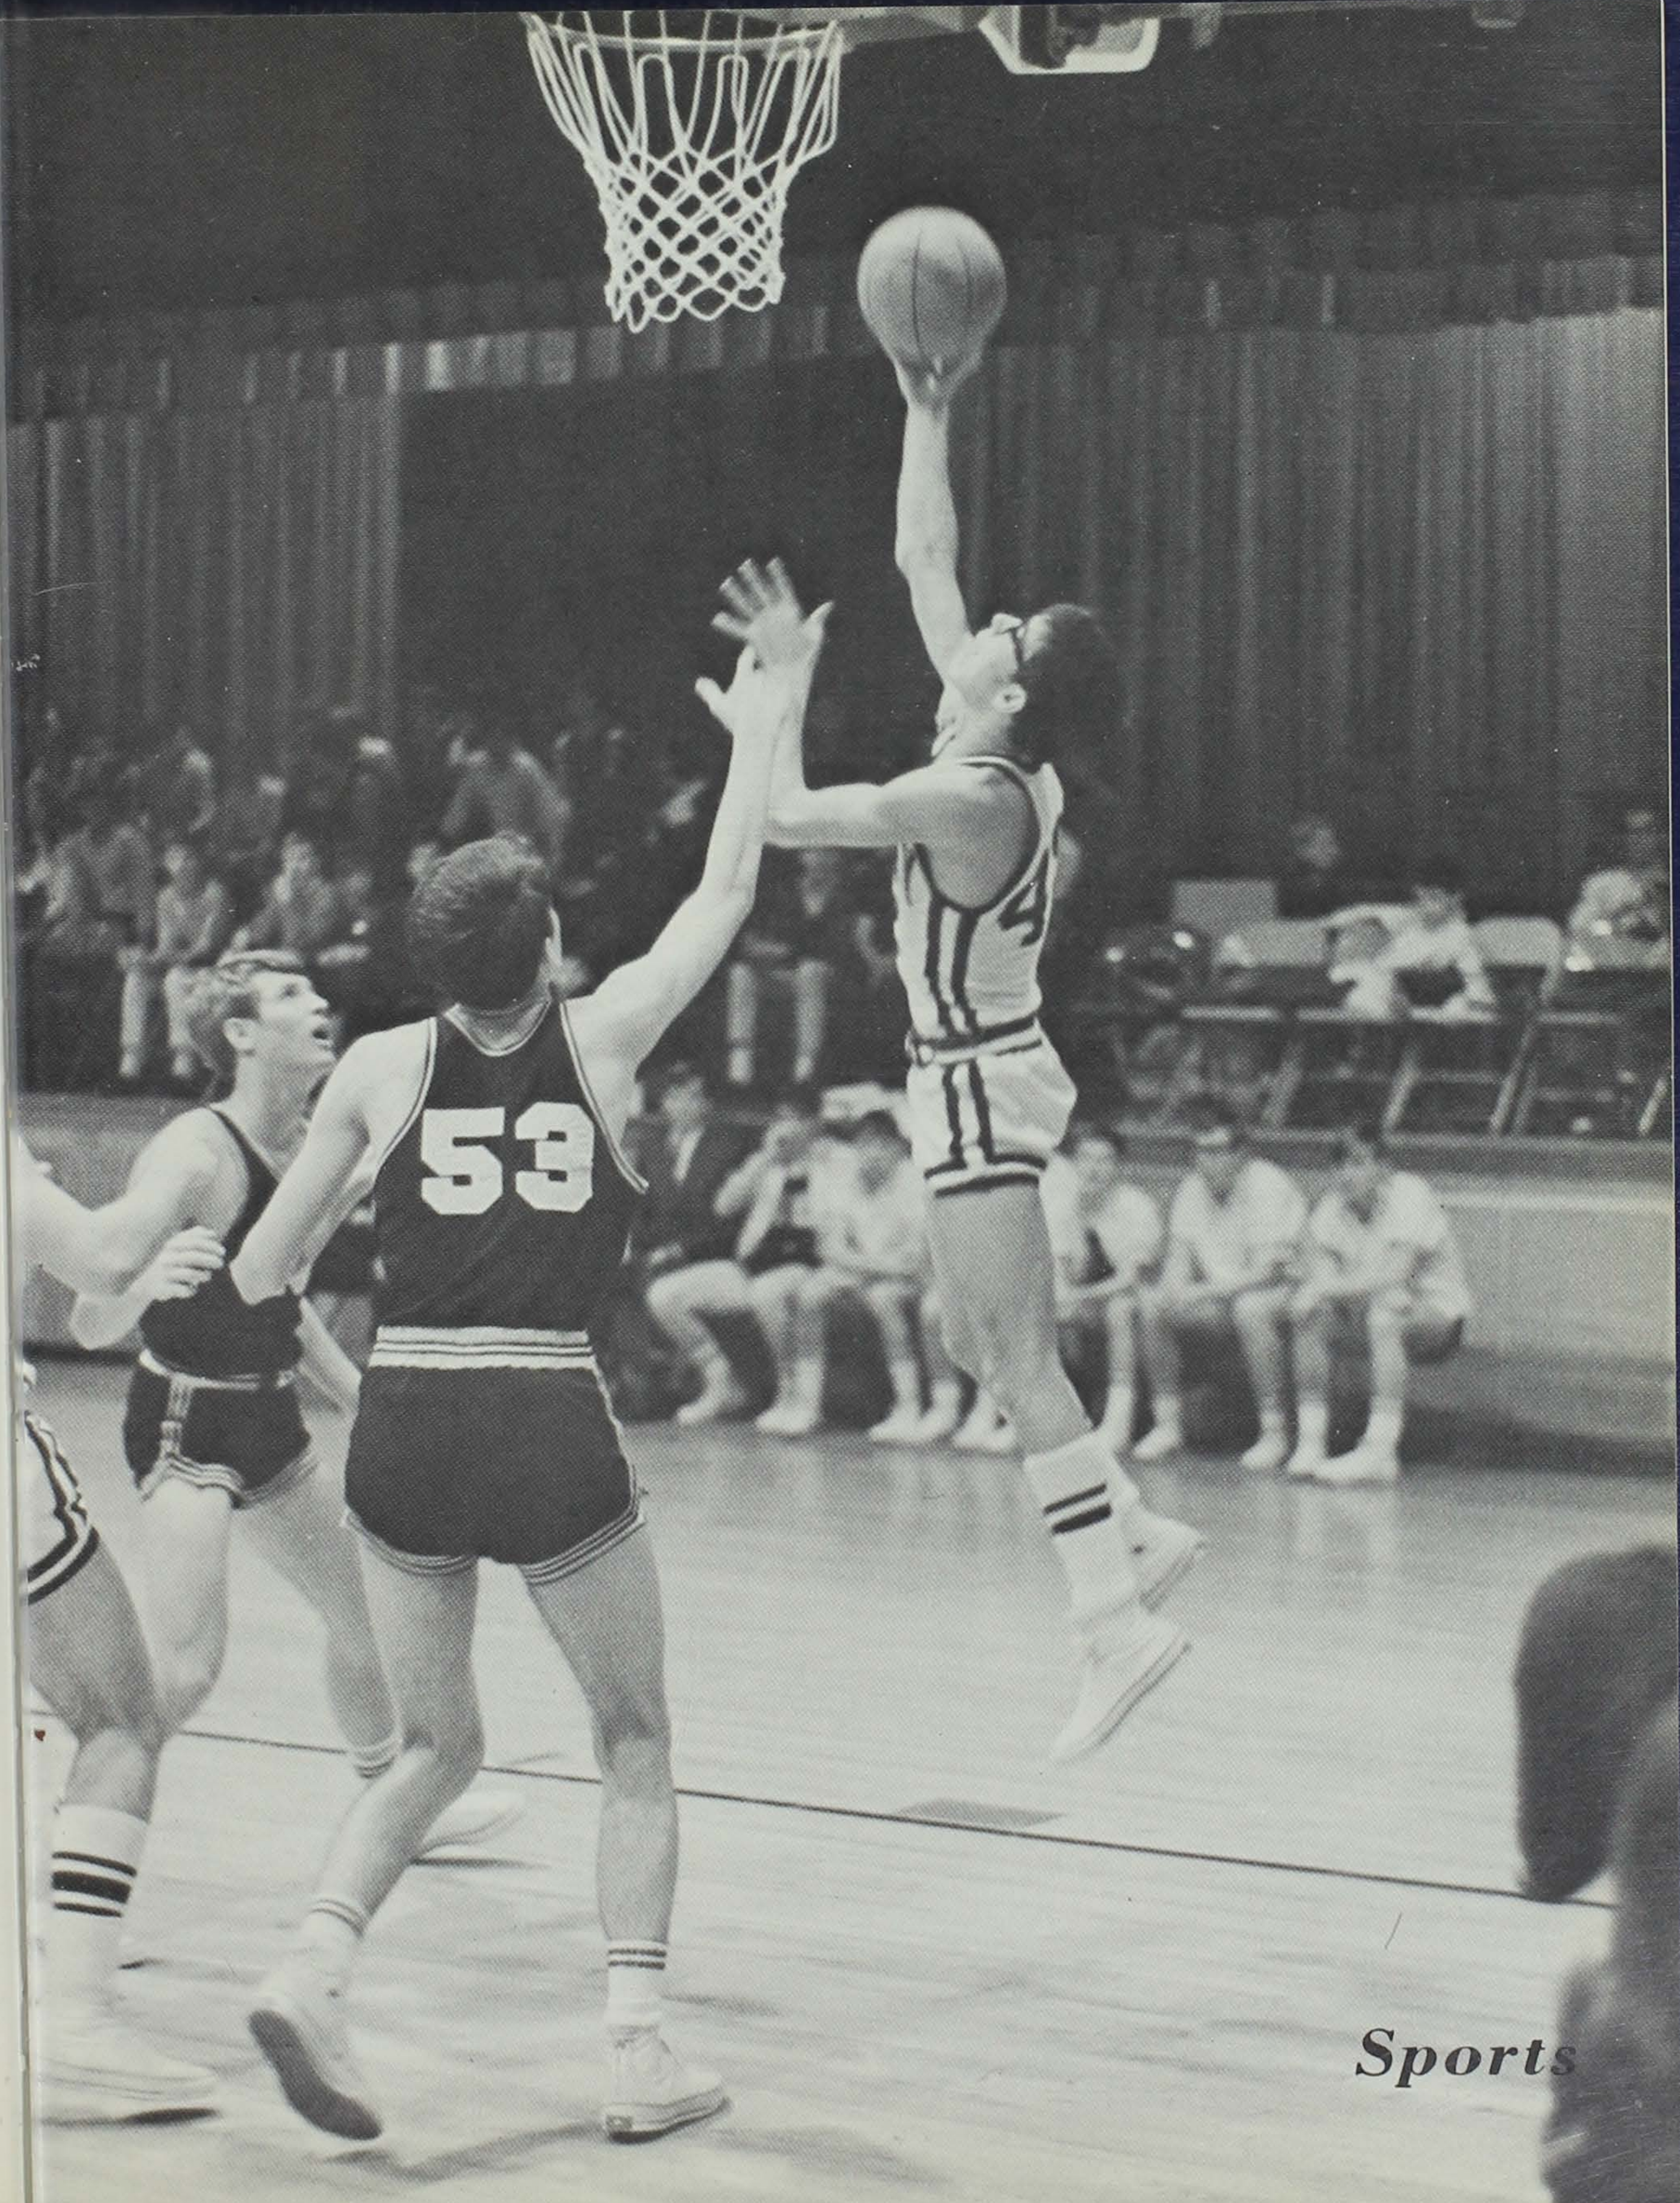

"Oh, no, I brought my lunch."

"Let's see—pink for the elephant."

"Dear Abbey, I have a problem . . ."

Hondo Hawk

Hondo plays an important part in the spirit of our school. He is present at all home athletic events. The person wearing Hondo's suit is usually a member of the Pep Club, and varies from week to week. All of the school is proud of Hondo and the fine example he is of our school spirit.

Why did I ever sign up for this!

Each year it has been tradition for the Junior class to finance and plan the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom and the past prom was no different. With the help of Mr. Troxel, faculty prom adviser, many members of the Class of '69 spent many diligent hours after school preparing yellow daisy nut cups, pale green centerpieces with candles, crepe-paper flowers, a bridge and a wishing well several weeks before the prom. All their efforts were not in vain, because the finished product, "Younger Than Springtime" was a huge success.

Student-Teacher Cheer

"How do ya like your cabbage—slaw, slaw, slaw,
How do ya like your beefsteak—raw, raw, raw,
How do ya like your honey—sweet, sweet, sweet,
Ho do ya like Carlisle—BEAT! BEAT! BEAT!"

The Teachers' Sophisticated Chants

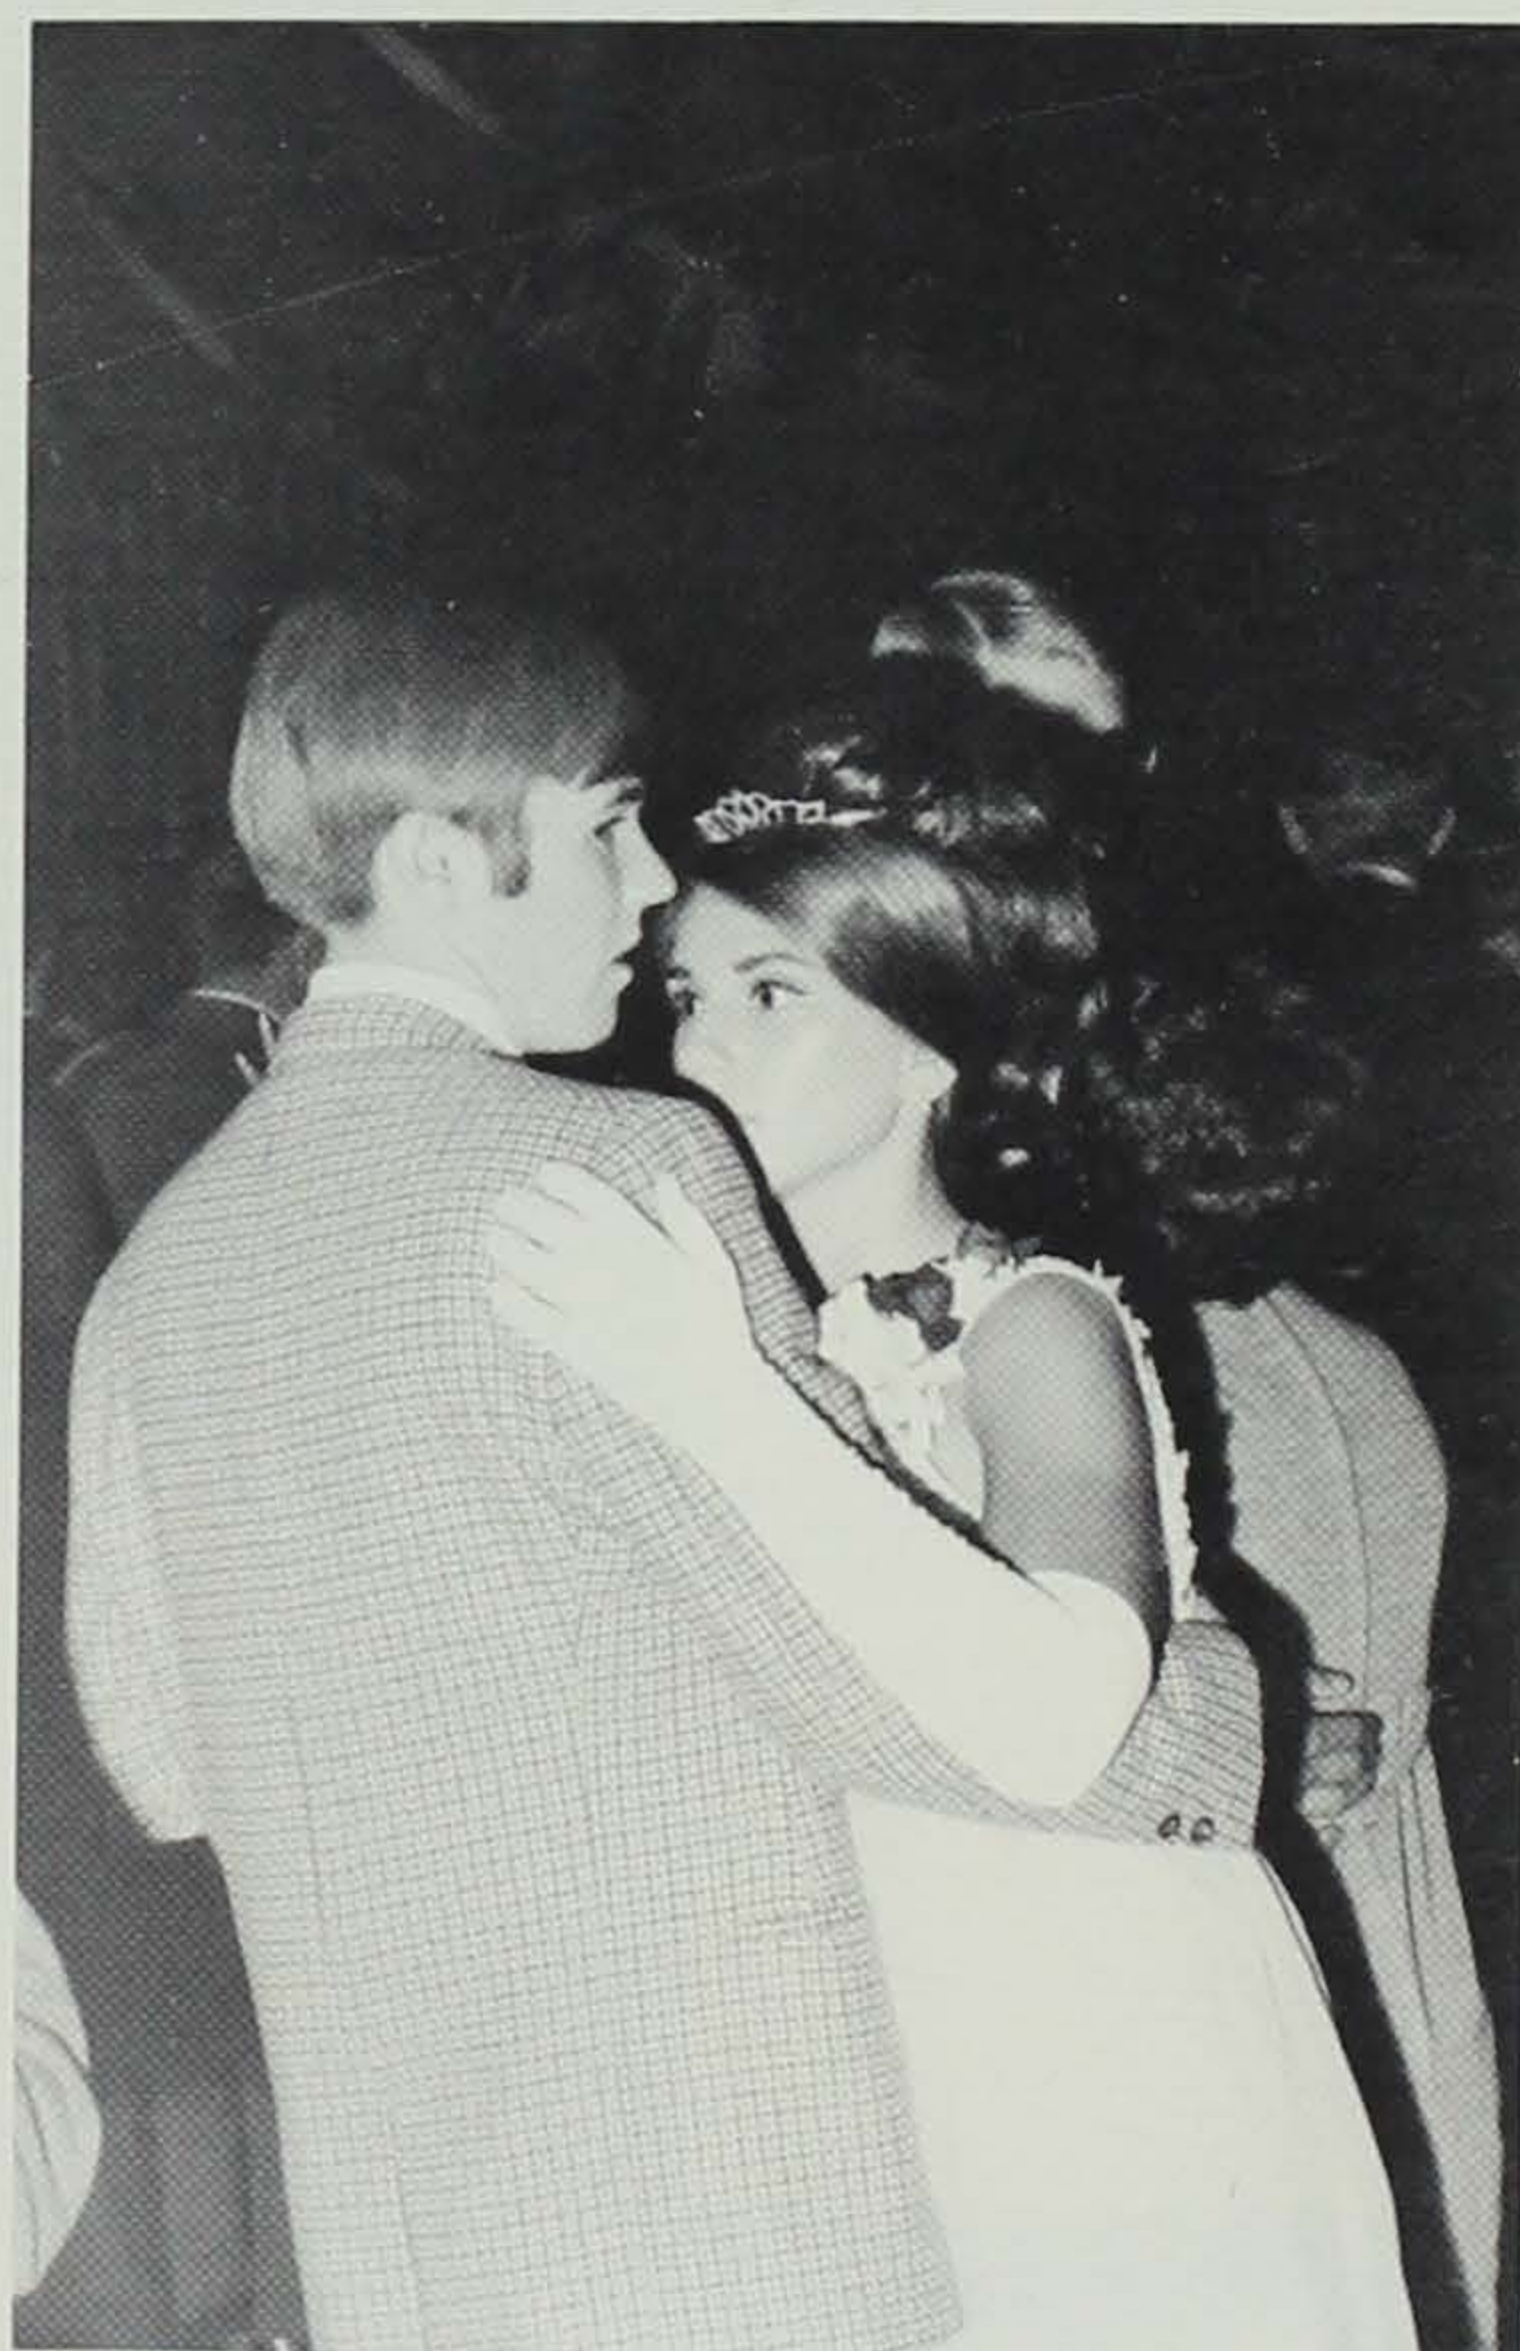

"We want a fumble-bumble!"

"Emulate, emulate, emulate over the turf!"

The Hawks won our first Homecoming game in seven years defeating Carlisle 26 to 13. The half time festivities included the crowning of the Homecoming queen while the Ankeny High School Marching Band played "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

The Homecoming dance started at ten o'clock with Ray Faubus and his orchestra. The Junior High Gym was decorated by the Student Council with the traditional school colors of maroon and gold.

Shades of Blue was the theme at the annual Crystal Ball. The dance, sponsored by the senior class, was held Saturday night, January 18, 1969. Mr. and Mrs. George Friedmeyer were the sponsors at the dance. Larry Crowell officiated as the master of ceremonies.

During the middle of the dance Kelly Johnson and Mary Beth Lundell were crowned king and queen of the Crystal Ball. The junior prince and princess were Ted Leverenz and Paula Marvin, while Tad Leverenz and Randy Sanger were the sophomore representatives.

Graduation

Three years is a long time

—too long to forget.

We look around and ask

—where did it go?

We worked, we played

—but for three years?

Then we look the other way

—into tomorrow.

Suddenly we're not so tall

as we thought we were

And not so smart.

But we find that somehow

We learned a decisive lesson at Ankeny:

something we wouldn't have had without the teachers and administration,

without our fellow students

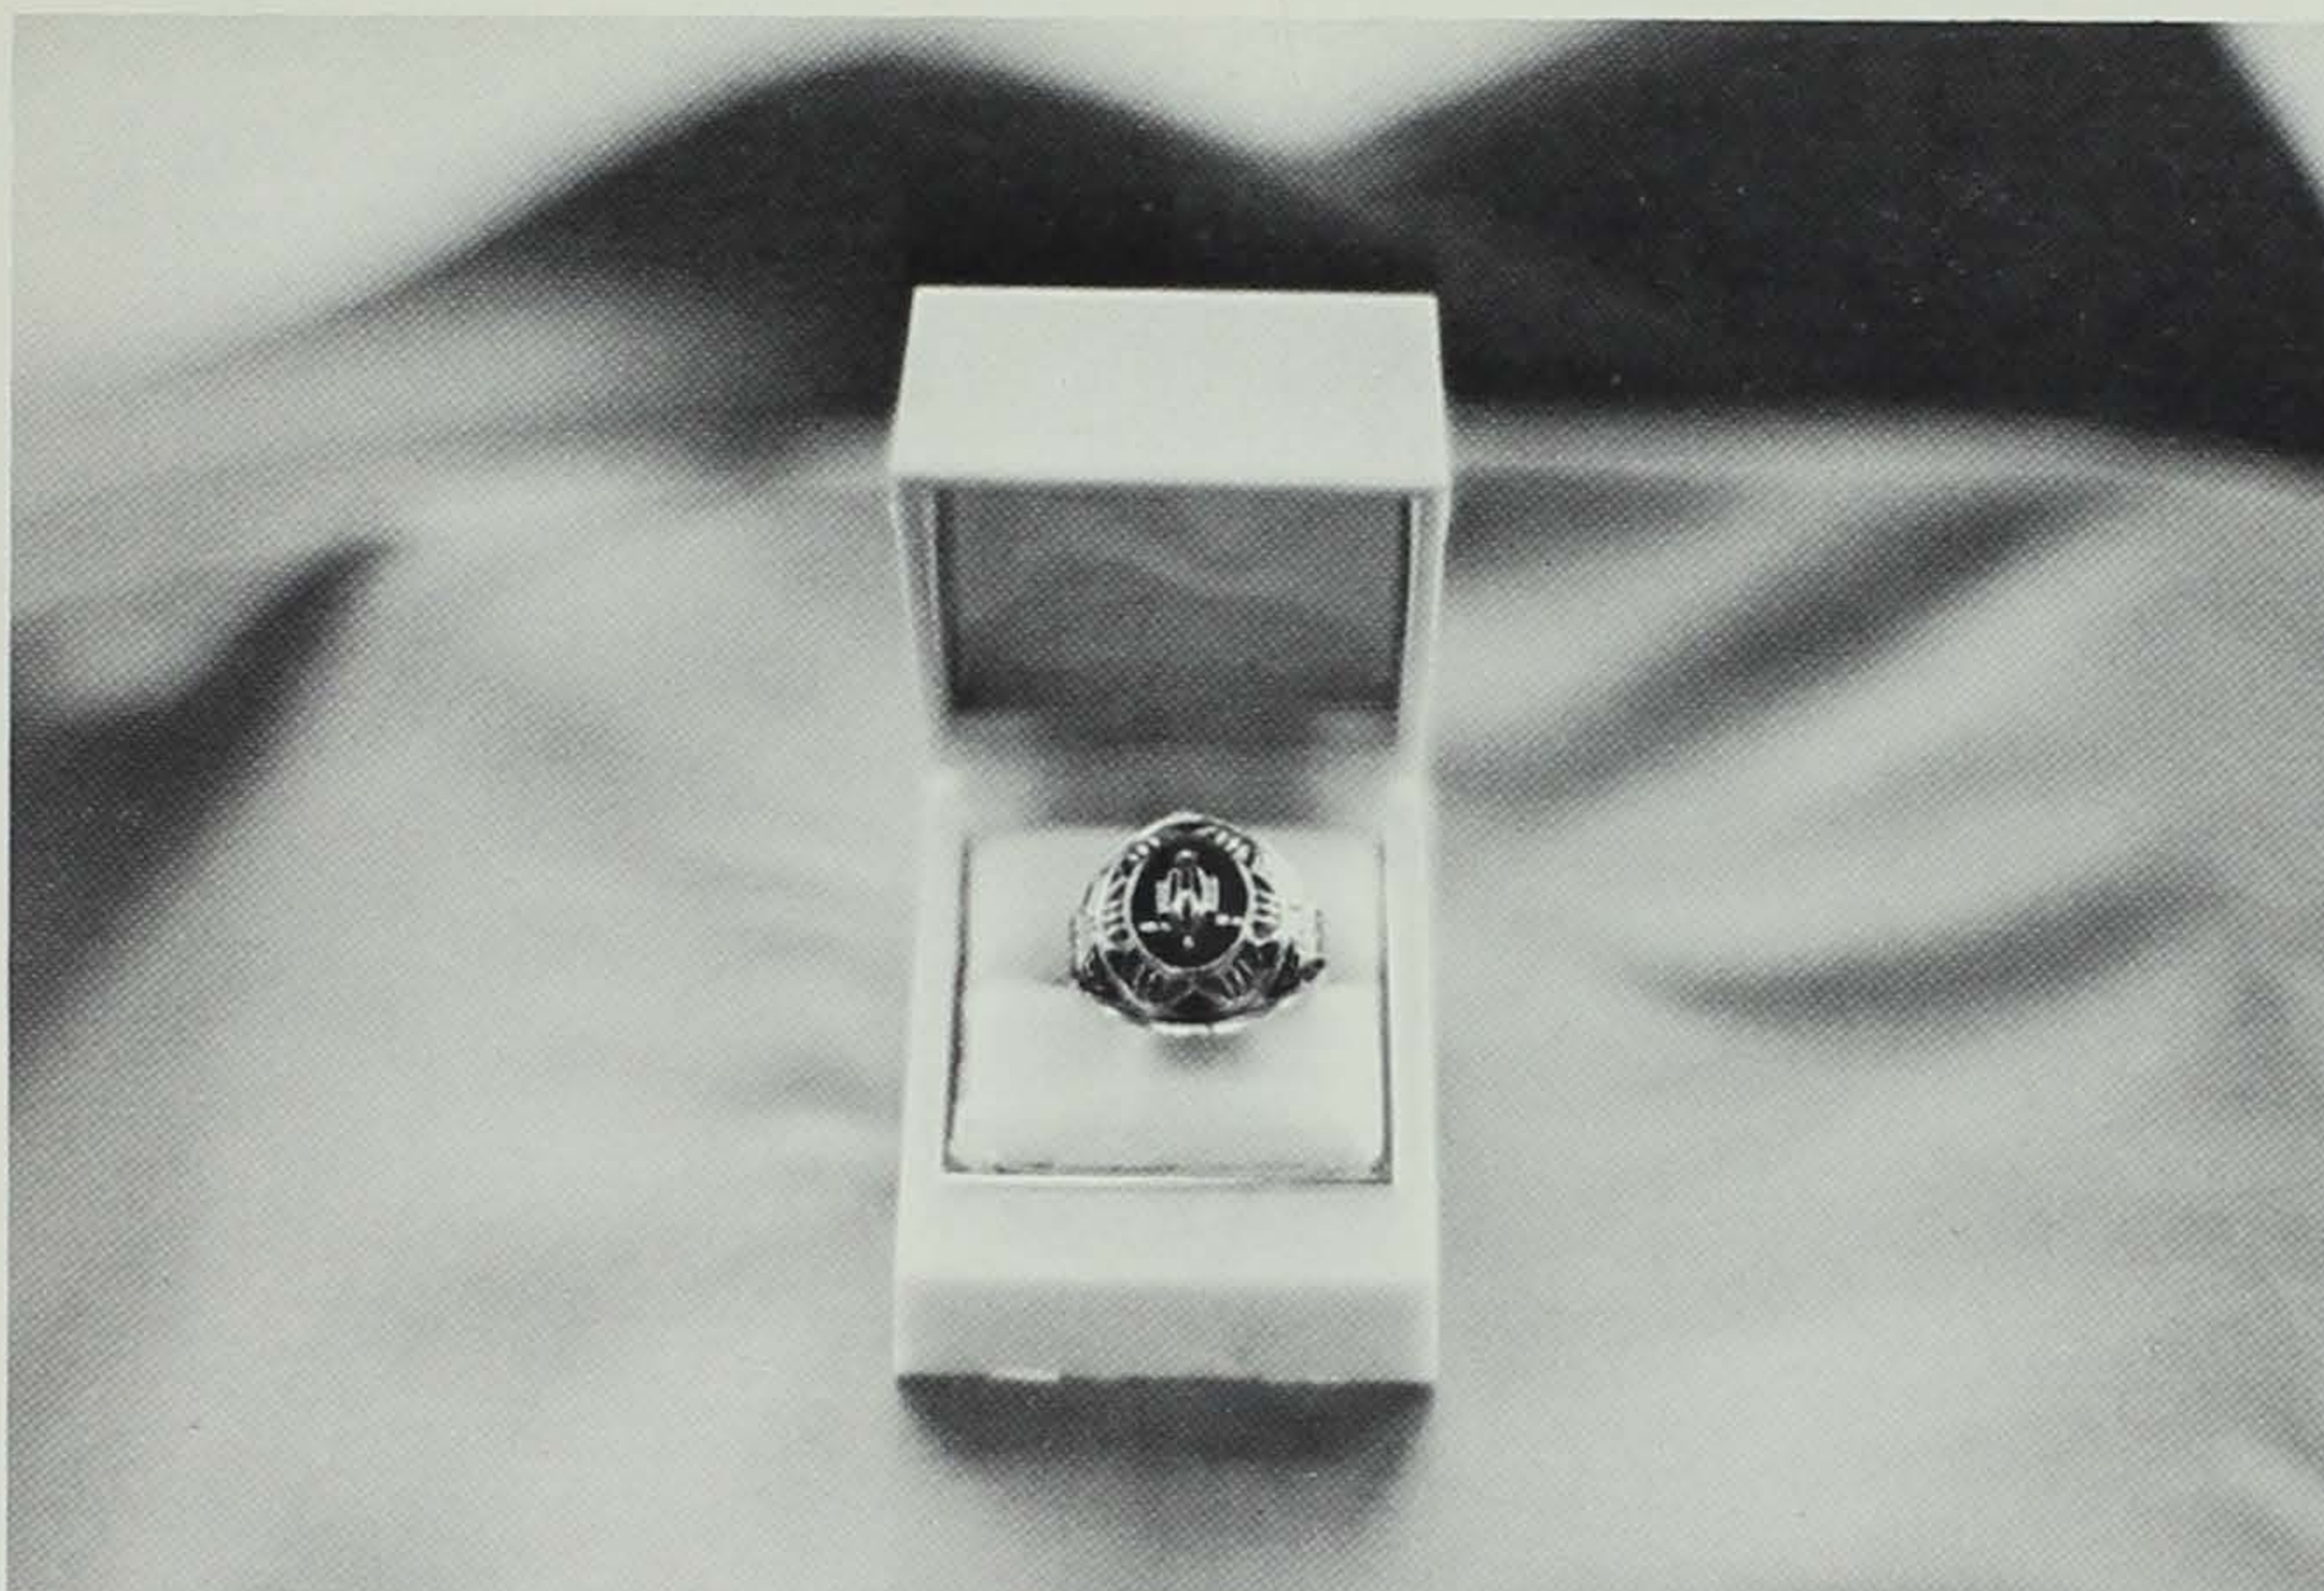

—a direction into that uncertain tomorrow.

It can never be so dark again

Though the world may change

and the times change

and we change.

Assemblies

At the beginning of the year Chuck Nidl visited Ankeny High School. He owns a snake ranch in Wisconsin. Being bitten eleven times by poisonous snakes he tells students of the dangers involved with handling snakes and spiders.

The famous Maestro Rubinoff and his $100,000 Stradivarius violin presented a thrilling concert at Ankeny High. This poem was engraved in a watch presented to Rubinoff by his friend the late Will Rogers.

The Clock of Life

The Clock of Life is wound but once
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop,
At late or early hour.
Now is the only time we own
Love, live, toil with a will,
Do not wait until tomorrow
For the Clock may then be still.

Ronnie Munn presented an assembly displaying trampoline skills and the new game Spaceball. He was the United States Trampoline Champion twice, and held World Trampoline Championship and Pan American Games Championship.

The Drama Club—whose banner, designed by Dan Laurinas, featuring comedy and tragedy masks as a motif—was organized to advance the standards of excellence in the dramatic arts. The club encourages students to attain a better mastery of language, to develop poise and self-control, and to appreciate dramatic literature and its technique.

The members participate in various dramatic activities at regular meetings throughout the year. The club produces at least one one-act play each year—THE CHRISTMAS CAROL and LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON this year—and provides a great deal of help for the two full-length all-school plays produced each year. The club makes several field trips a year to see plays like HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS and YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU at the Des Moines Community Playhouse and at other nearby theaters and goes to annual drama conferences at Iowa City and Cedar Falls.

SUMMARY

OUR TOWN is considered a different type of play because it does not incorporate the typical techniques that most of us are familiar with. Instead of colorful and fixed scenery there is a Stage Manager who moves about and arranges the stage by words before our eyes. The scenery is left to our imagination.

The story supposedly takes place in the early 1900's in New Hampshire, but it could be our town today in which the action occurs. The play is about two principle characters, Emily Webb and George Gibbs, who grew up together, married, had children, and died, but the main theme of the play is to make us realize just how valuable life really is.

Pure As The Driven Snow

On a dark night Purity Dean, the heroine and a working girl with a secret, seeks shelter from the storm and comes to an inn. She has been forced to give up her work because she cannot endure the attentions of Mortimer Frothingham, the villain. Alone and penniless, Purity is seeking employment. When they offer her work as a maid at the inn she accepts. She and the brave Leander meet, and love begins at first sight. The rest of the play is Mortimer's plots and vicious deeds to attain Purity, but naturally virtue triumphs in the end and Mortimer gets his.

The annual staff, like sports and cheerleading, is very time consuming. The editors and co-editors meet every night Monday-Thursday after school from 3:45-5:30. They are responsible for the page layouts, planning, organization, identifying pictures, write-ups, and designing of the annual.

The yearbook and ad salesmen raise the money for the annual while the business manager keeps track of the incoming money in her books and writes the letters to different companies. No annual would be anything if it was not for pictures. Throughout the year the photographers are called upon to take pictures of different events. Last, but not least, the typists' job is to correct, proofread, and type all the printing needed to complete the annual.

Art Club holds a meeting once a month. Its main purpose is to achieve a deeper knowledge in the appreciation of Art in all fields. To become a member, one must first take art as a course and attain a B average in the course.

The activities for the year usually include a picnic, speakers, films, and field trips. This year the Art Club visited the Art Center and also decorated the school in an attempt to get all in the Christmas Spirit.

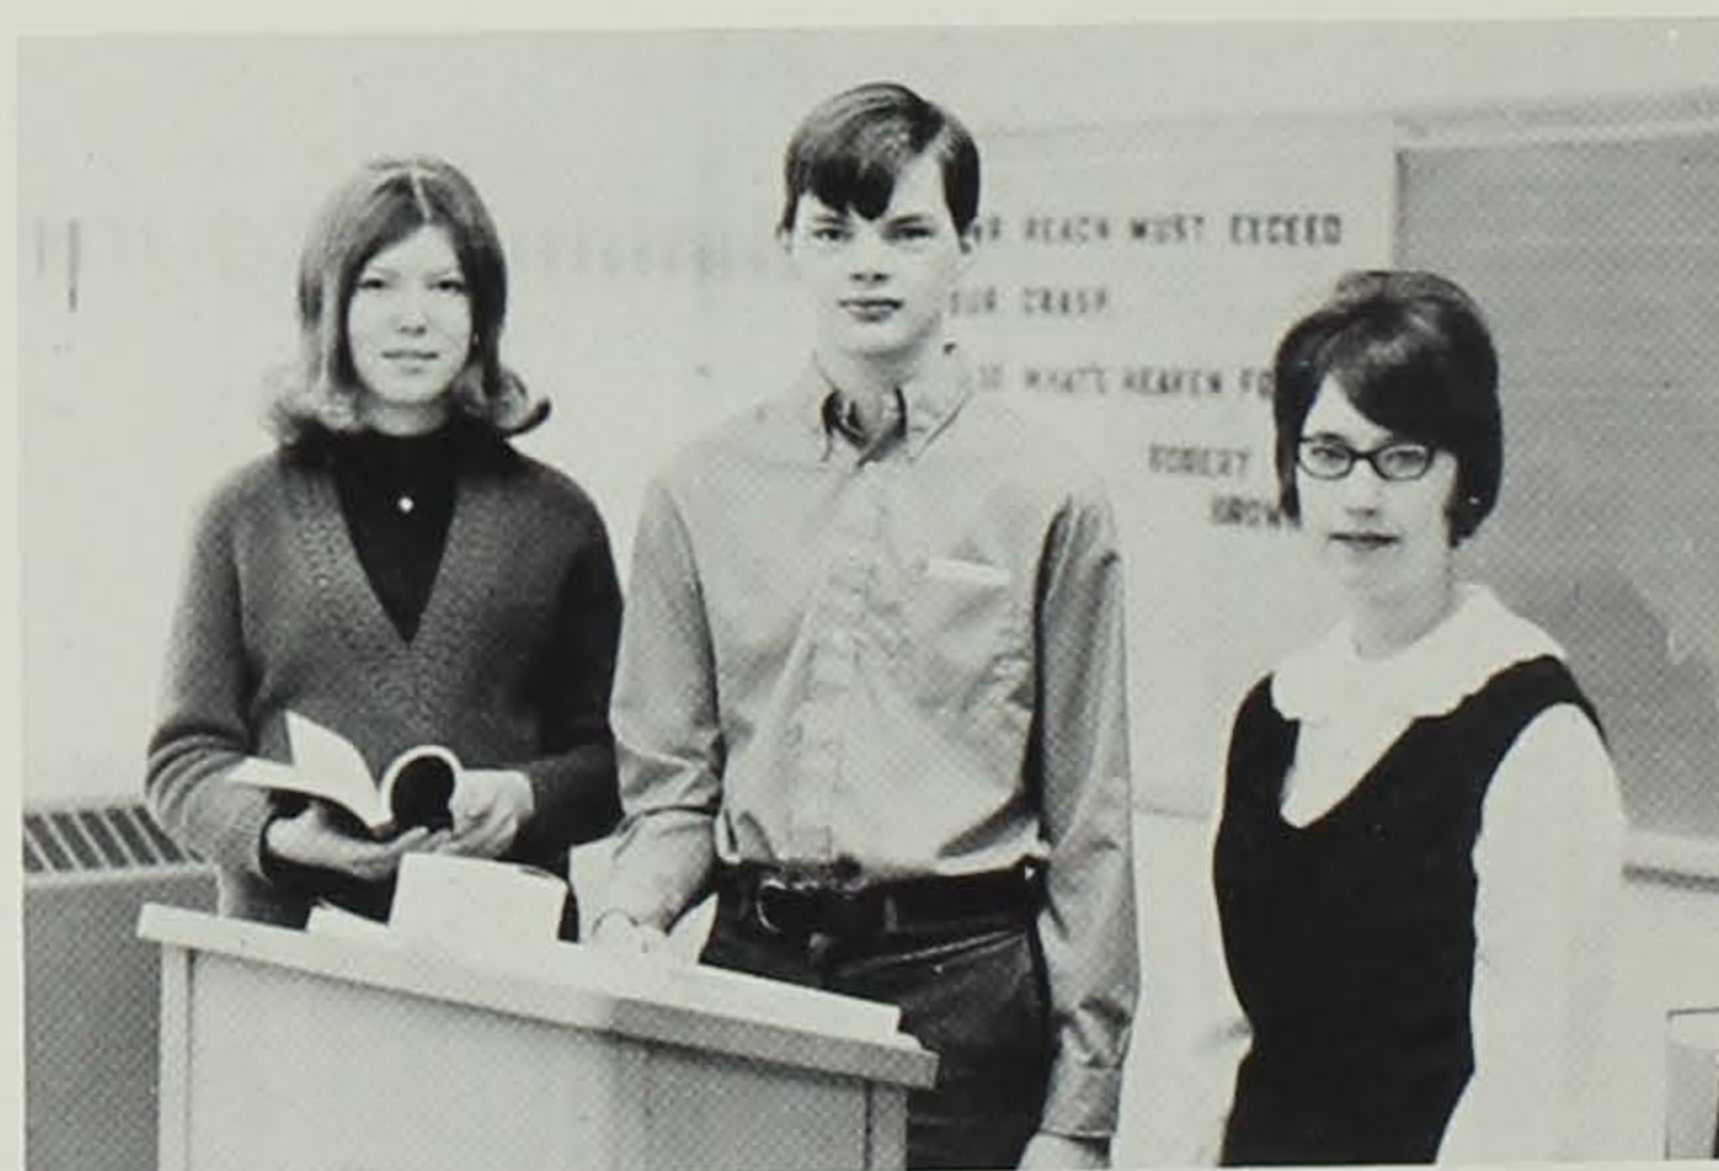

Debate

The debate topic for this school year has been: Resolved—that the United States should establish a system of compulsory service for all citizens.

Debate is designed to teach the students to research a topic well, and then to either defend or oppose the contention in the debate resolution. In the process of debate the student learns to speak as he feels and to use logic and the evidence that he has gathered to put across his point of view.

The 18 members of the Distributive Education Club participate in the program by working at approved training stations in the community. They work afternoons for city businesses engaging in the selling of goods and services.

Members develop leadership and other personal traits useful in the business world.

Activities include fund-raising projects, community and school services, and improvement of job skills and attitudes. The organization sponsors a special Employee-Employer Banquet in the spring.

The French Club is one of the newly formed organizations at the high school this year. In order to participate in this activity one must be taking French. The club meets on the first and third Fridays of every month. During first semester, French Club met during class time but with the start of second semester, the meetings were scheduled in the afternoons following school.

At the meetings the members watch films, play French games, and try to speak as much French as possible. During Christmas vacation, they held a French party. Refreshments included all kinds of delicious French pastries.

Future Farmers of America is an organization of young men who are learning the new ways of farming. They learn many things such as welding, cutting, feeding ratios, importance of fertilizer, etc. They are an organization that accomplishes a lot of hard work, but like other organizations, they have fun too. They have a banquet every year, which occurs during national FFA week. The organization rents a chapter farm where members themselves work on and learn how to produce a crop. This is also the main income of the FFA chapter in Ankeny.

All high school students interested in learning more about health careers are welcomed to join this club. H.C.C. meets twice a month on the first and third Thursdays. The events planned for the club this year included a Christmas Party for the patients at Younkers Rehabilitation Center, a Broadlawns Clothing Drive, a field trip to Woodward State Hospital, the annual Senior tour to Iowa City to visit the University and Hospital, as well as a tea sponsored by the Polk County Medical Society Auxiliary where each member is presented with a H.C.C. pin.

Each year a scholarship is given to one member of the graduating class who is in H.C.C. This scholarship is contributed by the local professional people in health related fields.

FHA Christmas Party.

FHA is an organization for any high school girl who has had one year of previous home economics training or is a freshman presently enrolled in the home economics curriculum. The purpose of FHA, to learn to live better today in order that their lives and those of their families may be better tomorrow, is best expressed in their motto, "Toward New Horizons." FHA meets once a month in the evening. Their activities throughout the year include Christmas caroling, district and state conventions, field trips, parties, and recreation nights. Also this year the members sold Christmas cards.

The basic goal of Future Teachers of America is to make the future teacher more familiar with his one day profession—teaching. During several of their meetings this year they have watched films, which deal with new methods used in modern teaching. These films have helped them to better understand what experiences they will cope with in their own teaching careers. Guest speakers, field trips, and being student aids all help these students understand what teaching is really like.

Action from the volleyball tournaments.

GRA is one of the most popular clubs at AHS. It has a membership of over 75 girls. It's success can be attributed to the fact that it has an activity for everyone.

This years activities included:

- The bike hike
- Volleyball tournaments
- Food Drive
- Pizza Party
- Going to the Girls State Basketball Tourn.
- 6:00 a.m. picnic.

Junior Municipal Council is an opportunity for Ankeny High students to become involved in city affairs. Working closely with the Mayor and Councilmen twice a month gives students meaningful insights into the functions and problems of city government. Jr. Council members also serve as informers to the rest of the students when they report their findings from regular council meetings back to their individual history classes. Also each Jr. Council member has the opportunity to accompany a city head of a department for a day to see what his job actually involves.

Goals of the Model U.N.

This year the members of the MODEL U.N. at Ankeny High are representing the countries Costa Rica and Guinea in the Iowa High School Model United Nations held at the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls during April 11-12. On October 24, the Ankeny delegations attended the Governors United Nations Day which was held at the Capitol Building in Des Moines. The theme for the day was Human Rights at Home and Abroad. The program consisted of workshops and speakers.

Each delegate to the MODEL U.N. faces a challenging task. He must study carefully and be prepared to state, briefly and clearly, the positions actually held by the country he represents on one or more major world issues. He must understand the views held by other countries on these issues, and be ready to defend and sometimes modify his positions in public debate.

Journalism is a course that broadens the student's mind in our society. It also gives one access to the various organizations at Ankeny High School and a chance to learn and meet people.

The school newspaper, HAWK SQUAWK, is written by the journalism class. Style and technique are developed by each student as he progresses.

We've had a lot of fun as well as trails, such as trying to put together the special column, "Behind the Feathers". Each year we hope the HAWK SQUAWK and enthusiasm for our school paper continues to grow.

¡Hola amigos! Join the Spanish Club and learn the impressing history and culture of the land of the "Hispanics" and the "Conquistadores" who opened the Western Hemisphere to the Old World.

We listen to the Latin music by the trio Los Panchos, Tijuana Brass, Los Churumbeles, Mister Pachanga, the "queen of the gypsies" Carmen Amaya, and Pablo Casals. In addition to the Latin music, we learn of the many forms of Latin-American dance styles, such as Mambo, Merengue, Cha-cha-cha, Rumba, and Tango.

Come and join us at our Christmas Piñata Party and enjoy the taste of Mexican tacos, tamales, Spanish rice, and Cuban black beans. You are all invited!

Student Council helped make the vending machines a reality.

“With the right purpose, the student council has an important role in a school. Yet, with unreasonable goals, student power can be cruel and unjust.”

Every year the student council fights for purpose. Last fall the addition of vending machines exemplified that a council can have a role. This role is to represent the student body as a whole. Yet, it must be remembered that this representation is sometimes merely a voice of student’s opinion.

Throughout the year many opinions were voiced and everything possible was done to accomplish these suggestions.

I've a future I must build

There are plans that I must draw.
Then let this timid hand of mine
Be guided, line for line,
With that steady, certain trueness
Of the Hand that planned
This universe.

There are materials I must choose.
Then let this casual mind of mine
Choose with the wisdom of the Mind
That fixed the substances
Of things like grass and trees
And mountain peaks.

There are decisions I must make.
Then let me make them with that sureness
That divided land and sea,

And day and night, the birds that fly
And beasts that roam the field.

There's a determination I must have.
Then let me bind myself unto such things
As principles, and truth, and right
With that same permanence
That holds in their celestial places
The sun, and stars,
And all the heavens' gems.

I've a future I must build.
So, let me build it with such care,
such tools, such wisdom,
And with such a rugged firmness,
That all the fiercest thrusts
Of host or elements
Cannot destroy it.

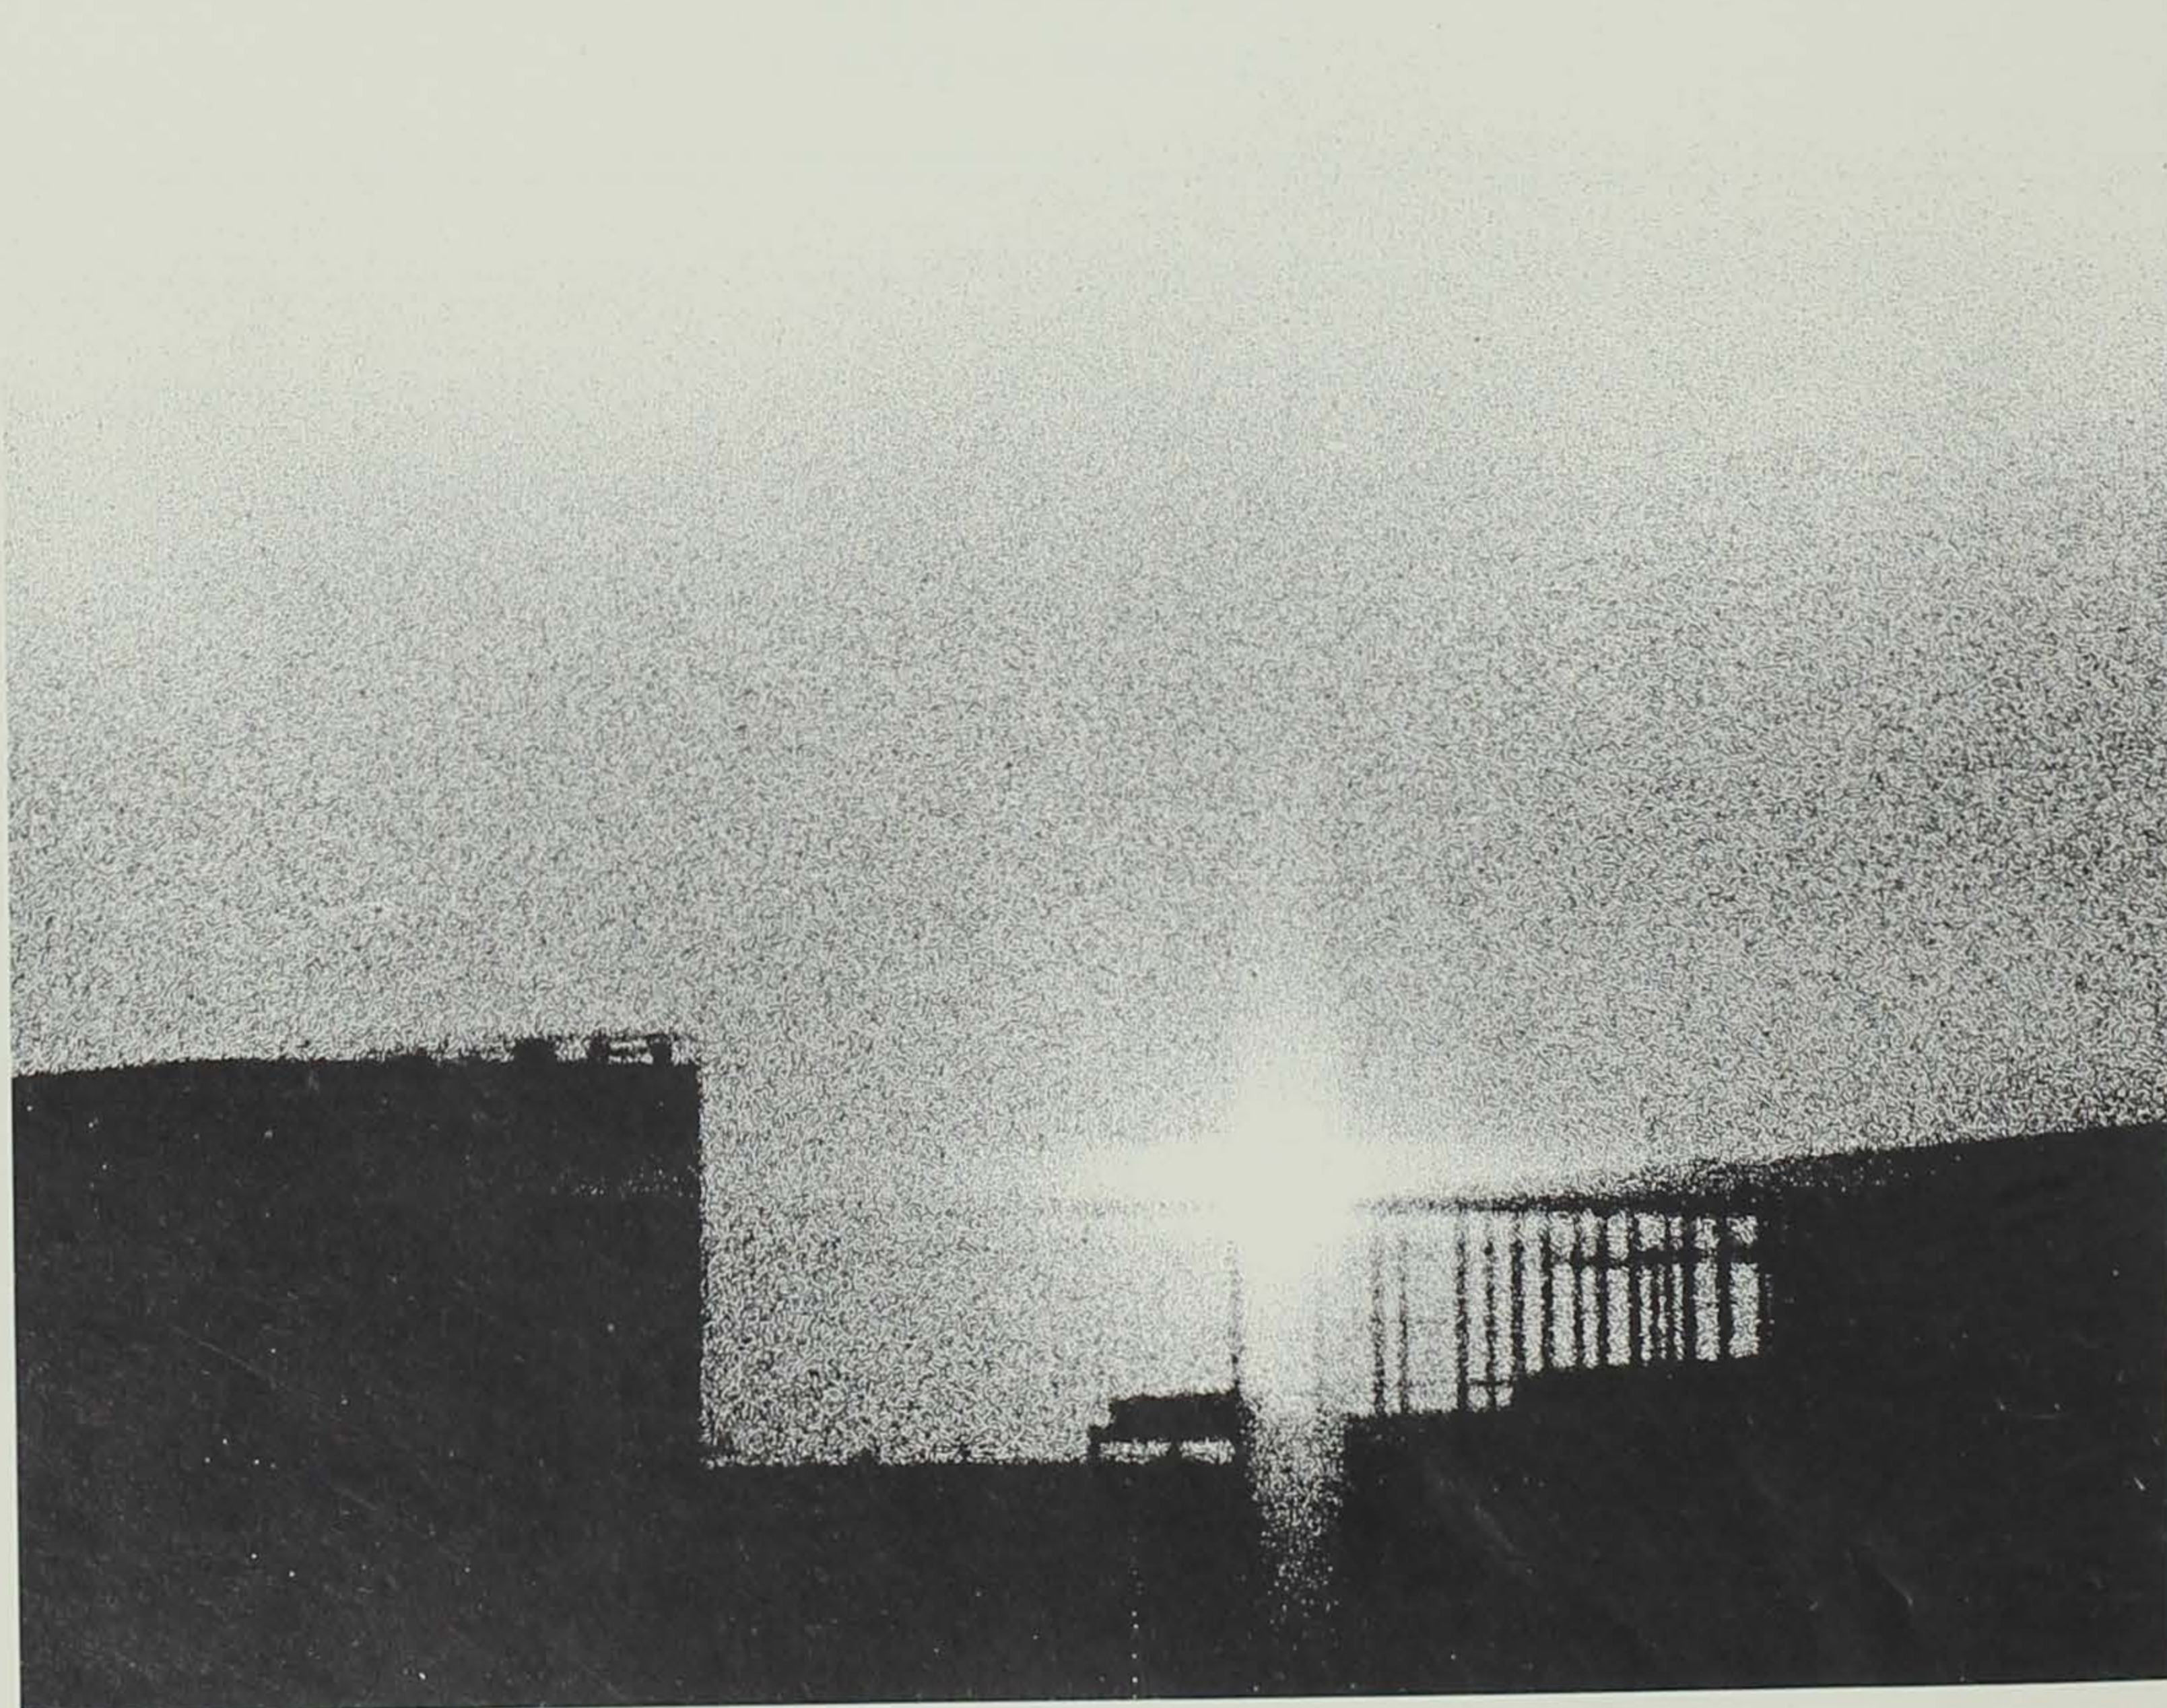

Aye, I've a future I must build . . .
Let me rise, then, to the task!

The End

This is the end of the 1969 HAWK, and although we have tried to recapture some of the fun and events of the past year, the action of AHS will continue on. It is also the close of a chapter of life for the Seniors. Even though the fun of their high school years are over and gone, the memories will linger on.

At this time we, the editors, would like to thank all the people who have helped make this annual possible, including our co-editors, Jeanne Houge and Liz Nielsen for their exceptional and diligent help, the typists, photographers, ad and yearbook salesmen, and the businesses who have bought ads to help finance the annual. A special thanks goes to Mr. Hunter, our advisor, who when it seemed like the chips were down came through with his good ideas, emergency photography, and his BIG smile.
