the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are undernourished has increased from 600 million to 800 million (FAO 1996).

There are a number of reasons why the world's population is becoming more undernourished. First, the world's population is growing rapidly. The world population is projected to increase from 5.5 billion in 1990 to 7.5 billion in 2020 (United Nations 1994). Second, the world's population is becoming more urban. The world's population is projected to increase from 30% urban in 1990 to 50% urban in 2020 (United Nations 1994). Third, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% dependent on food imports in 1990 to 20% dependent on food imports in 2020 (United Nations 1994).

There are a number of reasons why the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. First, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports because of the increasing demand for food. The world's population is projected to increase from 5.5 billion in 1990 to 7.5 billion in 2020 (United Nations 1994). the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation, 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of people with mental health problems. The Department of Health (2000) has set out a vision for the future of mental health care, which includes a commitment to 'improving the lives of people with mental health problems'. This vision is based on the principles of recovery, which focuses on the individual's strengths and abilities, rather than their diagnosis. Recovery is a process, rather than a destination, and it involves working with the individual to develop a plan for their future. This plan should take into account the individual's needs, wishes, and preferences, as well as the support and resources available to them.

PRESENTING

Our 1951 Argus Annual . . . a symbol of our year's pleasant experiences at Otumwa High School . . . a record of happy memories that we have shared. The dreams of our school life will linger in our minds for years to come . . . this book will preserve those dreams.

We see the familiar faces of our schoolmates and teachers . . . the fun we had in our well-known clubs . . . the exhilaration our athletes felt as they strove to win games for our school . . . the joy we had as many of us once more brought honor to O.H.S. in all the phases of our activity.

We will always remember our high school days . . . the fellowship that we had will lay a foundation for our future experiences. We do not know what that future may hold for us . . . we hope that peace may come to the world.

Now as we wander through the pages of our annual, we shall dream of the people we have met, the places we have gone, and the games that we have played.

A typical chemistry class scene—Weldon Thalacker, Marlana Jones, and Larry Chidester perform an experiment while Mr. Tallman gives advice.

Miss Eighme helps Patsy Larabee and Pete Cornell sort out pictures for the art exhibit.

George Clark and Coach Smith watch Herbie Klontz line up an iron shot.

We are dreaming of . . .

Our teachers their friendly smiles and genuine interest in us . . their patience and effort even though we often complained about our long hours of homework.

Our schoolmates . . . their friendship and loyalty to us their honest striving to attain knowledge and grow in character and personality.

Our classrooms . . where we had the satisfaction of doing our best . . the sincerity of our instructors in teaching us . . . the co-operation of our classmates in learning . . . each of us participating in lively discussions . . . each respecting the other's opinion. All these are symbolic of the freedoms that are practiced in our democracy.

To a fellow senior looking back on your years of high school life

We, the class of 1951, are at last nearing the goal which we set forth in our class yell as sophomores. We seniors have come upward through our years at O. H. S., but we still have hopes of moving ever onward to meet the challenge of future activities.

Our first two years were spent in learning how to fit into the school life here. Now as upperclassmen we can see the value of the experience and knowledge we have gained while in high school.

This year, our last at O. H. S., we can look back upon the years when we were striving to make our places as leaders in classes and extra-curricular activities. We have reason to be proud of the leadership qualities which our class officers, representatives in Student Council, and members of Torch Club have shown. We also may be proud of the members of our class who have made fine records in athletics, music, and dramatics.

It is with regret that we leave the place where we have made many friends and learned to work with them toward a common goal, the receiving of our diplomas.

We could not have done this successfully without the help of our teachers, advisers, and counsellors, to whom we owe a great deal of thanks. To our class adviser, Miss Florence Fast, we are deeply indebted for her guidance and help at O. H. S.

MISS FAST,
Adviser

Senior Class Song

Janice Silcox

Music by Janice Silcox

Words by Doris Bruch

Here as the evening shades are falling
And gone is every care of day,
We gather and the school halls echo
With laugh and song of students gay.
Then down the aisle of recollection
Come glorious thoughts we'll ne'er forget
Of happy school days all recorded
And all the good friends we have met.

But high school friendships all must sever
And fade as does the dying day
And closest kinships all are broken
As out in life we go our way.
And yet whatever be life's fortune
Tho' mem'ries fail and friends be few,
Of O. H. S. we oft are thinking
Filled with a love that's always true.

Doris Bruch

This image shows a handwritten musical score on eight systems of staves. Each system consists of a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The music is written in a key with three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and complex chordal structures. The handwriting is in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The score appears to be a single melodic line with a harmonic accompaniment, possibly for a piano or guitar. The eighth system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Democracy in Action

A group of alert Ottumwa High School seniors, cognizant of the pending crises that our generation shall be obliged to face, has organized a new club under the direction of Mr. John Killian. The purpose of our organization, appropriately named the Democracy in Action Club, is to acquaint us with the operation of the various institutions of our community, state, nation, and of the world; and to train us for active, responsible citizenship in a democracy. The club meets bi-monthly, and at every other meeting an outside speaker is featured. Although there are only thirty-six of us who are actually members, our group endeavors to present our programs to all interested seniors.

The officers, whom we chose to lead us in our activities, are: Carl Garrison, president; George Kides, vice-president; Pat Weeks, secretary; Geneva Clark, treasurer; and Janet Schooley, corresponding secretary.

*"Success and knowledge is our cue,
We're the class of '52."*

It was but two years ago that we were "preps", nervous and excited at the idea of entering O. H. S. Now we, the Junior class, have become well acquainted with the school. We have proved ourselves in the extra-curricular activities of the school, for many of its dramatic stars, outstanding athletes, and excelling debators have come from the ranks of our class. We have found our studies more difficult and requiring more of our time, but we have received compensation in knowing that we have done them well. As juniors, we have presented a successful Junior-Senior Prom in honor of the graduating seniors. Much credit for the success of the undertakings of our class is due to our competent class officers and to Miss White, our class adviser.

We look forward seriously and with eager anticipation to our senior year when we intend to do our best to fill the place left by this year's seniors. As we look into the future we see that a sound education and healthy mind as well as a strong body are going to be primarily important factors in determining the continuation of our democracy and way of life. By striving to develop each of these we shall not only become a stronger class while in school but better citizens after our graduation and shall continue to live up to our class motto.

MISS WHITE,
Adviser

Sophomores 1953

*"Heading for success are we,
We're the class of '53."*

When we sophomores entered Ottumwa High School a year ago, we had the very same dreams and aspirations as our predecessors. But, again, our futures were to be overshadowed by another world conflict, which would inevitably change many of our lives. Our hopes and desires might never be realized.

Since we students entered our sophomore year coming from the various junior high schools in the city, as well as from rural districts, it necessarily took us some weeks to make an adjustment, and to understand and know new personalities. But in the past year, with the capable assistance of our adviser, Miss Eighme, we firmly established a place for ourselves and built a worthwhile reputation. We not only promoted honesty and loyalty of character in our high school friendships, but built a firm foundation for our future relationships. We made an effort to be tolerant, fair in our dealings with our teachers, and to promote democracy in our classes.

Our class is composed of ambitious students, hoping to make a place for themselves in sports, music, drama, and in all the other activities. We are very sure, if the class of '53 shows the same drive and initiative during the next two years, it shall be as outstanding as any class Ottumwa High School has produced in the past.

Student Council

"Shining Celebrities"

The O. H. S. Student Council is a shining example of democracy in action. As a governing body, it exists to help students to live happily together as one big family.

Election to the Council is one of the greatest honors that can come to any student and affords an excellent opportunity for service to the school, as well as for personal growth.

One of the most important functions of the Council is to operate the reserve system, whereby students are placed in strategic places to maintain order and quiet in the halls during class periods. Hall commissioners co-operate with these reserves each period.

The Student Council maintains a student court to interpret and apply the rules and regulations of the school. The Council also publishes the O. H. S. handbook, operates a lost and found bureau and a check room at school activities, and is responsible for the club room. Miss Rose Miller is the adviser.

"Asleep? . . . Never!"

The Argus "all-seeing" News, a publication of the students, by the students, and for the students, is issued at the beginning of each month during the school year. It is a four page paper containing general school news, gossip, club news, and sports. Excellent work by every member of the staff makes the paper lively and interesting.

In addition to the Argus News we compile the Argus Daily which is read every day over the school speaking system. It includes notices and news of the day which is essential to the entire student body of O. H. S.

The staff is grateful for the help and interest shown by Miss Dorris Creswell, our efficient and able adviser.

Orchestra

Through the persistent, well directed efforts of Mr. Logan Zahn, the O. H. S. orchestra is growing in numbers and improving steadily in musicianship. The summer school music program plays a major part in preparing students for intensive work in orchestra throughout the year.

The O. H. S. orchestra plays for a number of important functions in our school during the year such as Open House, various Dramatic Club productions, Baccalaureate, and Commencement. It also represents the school at various contests and festivals and has the added pleasure of various out of town trips.

It should be the aim of every music student to take advantage of the opportunity afforded by our orchestra for growth in musical experience, repertoire, technique, and poise, as well as to earn a high school letter and Torch points.

Band

The Ottumwa High School Band is a meticulous organization. Our aim is to maintain the highest possible perfection in marching and in playing, to represent O. H. S. at its finest and best.

To achieve this perfection, many hours of diligent preparation, as well as much individual work, are demanded not only on the field but in the rehearsal room.

But the thrills of participation at football and basketball games, pep assemblies, various school functions, contests and festivals, compensate for long hours of preparation. The opportunity to earn the coveted O. H. S. letter and Torch club points are a further consideration.

Under Mr. Zahn's leadership, the O. H. S. band is steadily improving and upholding the high traditions of our school. Membership in the organization is on the basis of willingness to prepare and perfect.

TRIO:

Norma Howells, Mary Ann Slutts, Clara Templeton, Helen Johnson, Accompanist.

With a select personnel of eighty voices, the A-Mixed Chorus, under the very capable direction of Miss Aas, has figured prominently this past year in seasonal programs in high school as well as appearing before many city organizations and conventions.

We developed and perfected many types of music, such as spirituals, religious themes, and folk songs, using many Fred Waring arrangements as well as choice selections by Bach and other equally fine composers, building a splendid repertoire for our public appearances.

The A-Mixed Chorus has always enjoyed a fine reputation for interpretive ability and precisional attacks and releases. This past year was no exception and we are proud of the high type programs we have presented.

"Snappy Chatter"

SPEECH CLUB OFFICERS:

J. Sisk, A. Sigel, J. Terry

One of the busiest clubs in high school is the Speech Club. The members sell food at the football and basketball games and help with the different ticket sales.

We have several parties during the year, not for entertainment alone but for educational purposes as well.

No special training is needed for Speech Club although we do some radio work besides giving dramatic and humorous readings.

Under the capable direction of our sponsor, Mr. Hamley and our president, Arnold Sigel; vice-president, Joan Terry; secretary-treasurer, Jeanne Sisk; and program chairman Phillip Biddison, we feel as though we have accomplished and progressed to a large extent in speech work as well as service to the school.

"Never Fail or Lose"

Mr. Hamley coaches Dorothy Anne Hart for her radio speech.

The National Forensic League, better known as N. F. L., a national honor society, is really a club within a club. Its members earn individual honor completely by points. We work for these points in a variety of ways. We gain points by working on debate teams, radio work, interpretive reading, declam, original readings, also city and state contests.

The N.F.L. awards several degrees of membership. When we earn twenty points, we receive the Degree of Merit, and a certificate with a white seal; when we have fifty points, we are given the Degree of Honor, also a bronze seal, and with 100 points the Degree of Excellence, a silver seal.

Mr. Hamley is our capable adviser.

"Trojans"

Thespians, the national honorary society of the Dramatic Club, is the goal and ambition of every member. Admittance to this organization is evidence of the student's previous ability and desire to excel. One hundred points are essential to a membership into this top group. After this is obtained, we may climb to even higher degrees of honor by earning more points, and becoming a Star, Double Star, or Honor Thespian.

The chief responsibility of the Thespians is to choose the new Dramatic Club members. We are proud of the records which have been achieved by our members, and hope that they may serve as an incentive to others, who soon may follow in their paths of success.

"Debuts . . . Cues"

"Lights! Curtain! Action!" Another production of the O. H. S. Dramatic Club is commencing, and again great achievements are being accomplished by many of our members.

We believe our Dramatic Club is one of the most profitable and beneficial organizations in O. H. S. Not only do we members gain from its activities, but also the student body, the faculty, and the entire community profit.

Our club offers a very wide field of opportunities; consequently, we open our door to a variety of students. Try-outs for the organization are not difficult, thus making it possible for almost any student to become a member if he has sufficient interest. We don't have to be actors, for a production requires much more than what is seen on the stage by the public. Each play requires a great deal of preparation, which is carried out by the numerous crews. The most vital groups of the organization include the paint, make-up, costume, property, furniture, stage, and other crews. Those behind the scenes are just as essential as those before the footlights.

Through its activities we gain much more than the honors that are publicized. Leadership, self-confidence, co-operation, and the development of our talents all emanate from the Dramatic Club.

"Pose . . . Candid"

We benefit greatly from the information we receive in the form of motion pictures in our various classes. It is the duty of our group, the Projectionists' Club, to show these movies and to care for the projectors. Members of our organization must be taught the operation and mechanics of the projectors. In order to fulfill our jobs well we must have a thorough understanding of each.

This has been a successful year for our club and with Jacqueline West as our president, we have maintained our high position in the ranks of O. H. S. clubs. We owe much to the excellent instruction and leadership of our sponsor, Mr. Cassill. We are grateful for the assistance of Mr. Crozier, Mr. Tallman, and Mr. Osborne during Mr. Cassill's illness this year.

"Wistful Clan"

Beverly Beman, Geraldine Day and Dorothy Anne Hart watch as Joy Hatfield types her latest story.

Our Writers' Club consists of high school students who are especially interested in writing. At our bi-monthly meetings, we read and discuss each others' written work. We have found that this practice greatly improves our creative writing.

Nearly every member has a different field of composition in which she or he is interested. This variety in composition provides a background for many discussions which are interesting as well as helpful.

We are very proud of the four members of our group who last spring won the awards in creative writing given by the "National Scholastic Magazine." These coveted awards show the work put forth by our members to attain success.

We are very grateful to Miss Jamison, who has given her fine leadership and advice to the club.

"Learned Circle"

The members of the Librarians' Club help maintain one of the most valuable assets in our school, the library. We help the students and faculty in finding books for which they are looking. Whether it is fact or fiction we are able to supply their needs with our many magazines, books, and newspapers.

Although the library is one of the busiest corners in the school, it is also one of the best organized and quietest spots.

Each librarian gives his time freely to library work. Our duties which are to take care of library slips, type, file, and check out books are efficiently supervised by Miss Irene Gallanar, director of the Librarians' Club.

Our officers are: Forrest Davis, president; Maxine Harper, vice-president; and Jo Louise Buck, secretary and treasurer.

"Saludos Companeros"

Membership in the Spanish Club is open to all students who have studied the Spanish language. The purpose of our organization is both social and educational. It also enables the group to get a better understanding of Spanish-speaking people. Our monthly meetings include lectures, movies from Spanish-speaking countries, discussions, Spanish music and dances, and social activities. This year there are twenty-nine students in the first-year class, fifteen in the second-year class, and nearly all of us belong to the club.

Much of the success of our club is due to the time and effort of our sponsor, Mr. Hamley, in co-operating with our officers. Our officers are: Glenda Doggett, president; Martha Field, vice-president; Tom Trenneman, secretary-treasurer; and Jane Cloyd, program chairman.

Membership in this organization is open to all students studying the language. Aside from the relaxation and enjoyment which is obtained from the club, we find for ourselves a new world through its social and educational program. Meetings are held in the club room, where we participate in singing, presenting French plays, and telling stories. Picnics and parties are also on the agenda for the year.

The purpose of the Commercial Club is to supplement the work of the class room with informal discussion of problems and opportunities in the business world, and to encourage a feeling of fellowship among the members of the club.

A knowledge of business is a help to any student regardless of his goal. The opportunities in the business world are so many and so varied as to challenge both the college preparatory and non-college preparatory group.

Membership in the club is open to all students who are taking or have taken at least two commercial subjects. Each year awards are presented in honor assembly to students of superior achievement in typing and shorthand.

This year's officers are: Betty Box, president; Carolyn Tully, vice-president; Barbara Knox, secretary; Jo Ann Palmer, treasurer. Mrs. Wilson is the sponsor.

"Useful Course"

Ushers' Club has risen to an important position in our school's extra-curricular activities. There are conscientious students, who are members of our club, at all school athletic events and dramatic productions and at many programs sponsored by various local organizations.

The benefits of ushering are numerous, the most important one being the personal experience gained in dealing with people tactfully and efficiently. The courtesy, tact, and cheerful helpfulness which is shown by each usher reflects on the club and helps to make it the outstanding organization that it has become.

Much credit for the success of our club is to Mr. Tiede, our adviser, and to Margaret Kautman, our head usher, both of whom have devoted much time and effort to work in our club.

DON NEWELL

Since the arrival of Coach Newell in 1929, Ottumwa has turned out some unbeatable football and track teams. As head coach of the bullpup basketball squad, he possesses a marvelous record; 33 won, 3 lost. As long as Don is coaching O. H. S. teams, we can expect nothing but the best.

FRED MAASDAM

Since Coach Fred Maasdam was appointed head basketball mentor in 1947, O. H. S. has had, and should continue to have some very successful and victorious ball clubs. Since that time, Fred has already led one team to a state championship, and all but one team managed to make the state tournament.

DANNY SMITH

During the two years that Coach Danny Smith has been the golf supervisor, O. H. S. golfers have enjoyed good seasons. With plenty of promising young talent appearing from the junior highs, we feel certain that Danny can produce some state champion four-somes. Best of luck to Coach Smith's club-swinging boys!

GABBY WARE

O. H. S. is indeed fortunate to have a former football star and O. H. S. graduate back in the role of sophomore football coach, Harvey "Gabby" Ware. During school hours Gabby is a science instructor at the Stuart Junior High School. It appears that Gabby is destined to turn out some good teams.

"Fightin' Bulldogs"

The O. H. S. football team completed a successful season this year with but one conference loss and one tie. After their first game in the hands of non-conference Newton, the Bulldogs recovered to roll over Ft. Madison and Washington and to tie with Fairfield. The Bulldogs then defeated both Keokuk and Centerville only to be toppled by a pepped-up Burlington eleven who were performing before their own homecoming crowd. They came back, however, to trounce Muscatine in their own homecoming game, but were defeated in a hard-fought final game by Oskaloosa, another non-conference foe.

Much of the credit for the fighting spirit which the Bulldogs showed this year is due to coaches Don Newell and Fred Maasdam.

“Foul Ball!” There may be a foul ball, but there is never any foul play demonstrated by a G. A. A. member. The Girls’ Athletic Association’s chief purpose is relaxation and enjoyment. While participating in its activities, however, we are also learning—learning how to lose and win, learning how to lead, and learning the general rules of fair play and good sportsmanship.

While taking part in such activities as volleyball, baseball, and basketball, we are also gaining points toward the awards given in G. A. A. By earning a sufficient number of points we may be awarded a G. A. A. letter, pin, or the annual senior award, depending on the number of points merited.

The Executive Council this year includes: Maxine Keasling, Norma Patterson, Marilyn Cobler, Mary Dorn, and Margaret Allen.

Among the few organizations dealing with girls' swimming is the Shark Club, which is an honor aquatic society. It consists of girls who have passed the rigid try-outs held each fall for all prospective members. These try-outs are made up of strokes and stunts designed to show our grace and swimming ability.

The highlight of our club's activities is the annual water pageant. The show planned along a definite theme, has careful blending of costumes, decorations, and music. Included in the performance are fancy diving, synchronized swimming, humorous stunts, and relays.

We also are required to pass our senior lifesaving tests; thus enabling us to act as lifeguards and assistants in local pools and lakes.

We are much indebted to our new instructor, Miss Eleanor Kolar, for her help.

B. Smith, D. Swensgaard, J. Tyler, Miss Kolar, J. Burke.

Home

In the afternoon an hour long pep assembly was held. The faculty gave a skit on "The Life of Don Newell". D. Smith was Don as a schoolboy; A. Clark, his one and only sweetheart; W. Krafka, baby Don; E. VerHuel, JoEllen Newell; I. Lathrop, the teenage Don; J. Killian, narrator; A. Tallman, master of ceremonies; C. Enoch, JoAnne Newell.

The Sophomore skit—Don Beer, J. Albertson, J. Blome.

The Junior skit—D. Lingle, a page, introduces four of the homecoming candidates—L. Scarbrough, B. Upson, D. McGee, B. Vaughan.

The Senior skit—"Down Through The Ages" or "We'll Play Heck With You, Father Time"—In the Flapper Era the "trio" is B. Beman, S. Loerke, H. Stoltz. J. Coleman judges E. Hornbeck, Miss Muscatine, and J. Reedquist, Miss O. H. S., in the Charleston. Of course, Miss Ottumwa wins.

oming

The cheer leaders lead the pep assembly in a send-off cheer. Front row—C. Templeton, T. Fisher. Back row—T. Curtis, H. Bennett, B. Humeston, and B. Rankin.

The event everybody has been waiting for, the crowning of the queen, between halves of the game. David Lundeen crowns Toni Fisher, escorted by Joe Ferguson, as Jackie Swanson, Jane Hanrahan, and the band look on.

Everybody's happy—Ottumwa won its homecoming football game over Muscatine 32-14. The queens and their escorts lead the grand march at the homecoming dance. Second attendant, Jeri Burke, escorted by B. Rankin; first attendant, Glenda Doggett with R. Fitzsimmons; queen, Toni Fisher, with Joe Ferguson.

Do Something Better!

You graduates, like everyone else in today's upset world, wonder what is ahead. Plans cannot be made with a full degree of certainty. Personal ambitions may be sidetracked by demands of national service. Of this much you may be sure—what you have taken unto yourselves from your high school life will benefit you in the future. It is up to you to use it for the greatest benefit, to you and others. The older generation is not proud of what it hands you, but you can depend on being strongly supported in your efforts to do something better.

In this fast changing world, graduates want to find security for themselves.

Boys and girls are very much concerned about their world and themselves.

They worry about their appearance, their complexions, their manners, their clothes, what the opposite sex thinks of them or whether they will be invited to the next party. Boys and girls have a great lot to say in the average home about important purchases. Your purchases are important, too.

Remember Sears when next you pick and choose for better quality at lower cost—Ottumwa's largest Department store.

MANY'S the time, in the early eighteen hundreds, that the famous inns of England resounded to the gay laughter of hale fellows come to eat fine foods. Those were the days when Morrell meat products first became famous for fine flavor. . . . setting a standard of Morrell Quality which has come down through the years to this very day and hour.

The skill of more than a hundred years is behind the rare flavor of Morrell Pride Hams and Bacon.
