Notes:

Miss Crandall Weds Fischer

Miss Helen Jeannette Crandall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Crandall, of 217 South Sherwood street, exchanged nuptial vows Sunday afternoon with George E. Fischer, son of County Commissioner and Mrs. Ernest Fischer.

The marriage ceremony took place at 4 p. m. in the Mitchell Memorial room of the Methodist church. It was performed by the minister, Dr. Gilbert Cox, before 55 guests.

Bride in Blue

The bride wore a blue chiffon gown, fashioned with a tight fitting bodice and a full gathered skirt, brief puffed sleeves and sweetheart neckline. She wore a dainty Dutch cap of matching blue chiffon from which hung a blue finger tip-length veil. Her gauntlet gloves were of matching chiffon, and her only jewelry, a carved gold cross, was the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. In her slipper she wore the traditional lucky sixpence, and her handkerchief was "borrowed" from Mrs. Anne Thompson.

Mrs. Laurence Crandall, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of pink chiffon, styled like that of the bride, and with it a Juliet cap of fresh flowers. She carried tea roses.

Reception

Alvin Hoerlein, life-long friend of the bridegroom, was best man, and James Fischer and Ollie Rogers were ushers. Tall candelabra were used at the altar. John Crandall, brother of the bride, sang, accompanied by Mrs. Waldo Riffenburgh, who also played the nuptial organ music.

A reception followed, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crandall. Later Mr. and Mrs. Fischer left for a honeymoon trip to Yellowstone National park. The bride chose a brown and white printed suit for traveling, with which she wore white accessories.

After June 15 the couple will be at home at 338 Pitkin street.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. J. M. Jones of Salt Lake City and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Robinson of Boulder.

Notes:

Couple to Wed In December

Wedding bells will ring in December for Miss Gretchen Gwen Fischer and David Lee Osborn, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fischer of 612 Elizabeth Street.

Both Miss Fischer and her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborn of 1518 Mathews Street, are graduates of Fort Collins High School. She attended Colorado State University and is working for the L. C. Wilson Agency. She plans to continue her college studies in California after her marriage.

David Osborn is a second year law student at Stanford University. His social fraternity is Sigma Chi.

Osborns' Grandson Is Married

David Lee Osborn, grandson of Mrs. O. C. Osborn, 1228 Woodward Ave., and his bride left for a trip to Carmel, Calif., following their Nov. 25 wedding in St. John's Lutheran Church, Fort Collins, Colo.

The bridegroom, who was born in South Bend, is the son of former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborn, Fort Collins. His bride, the former Miss Gretchen Gwen Fischer, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Fischer, Fort Collins.

The bride wore a candlelight sheath gown of silk peau de soie fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and adorned with re-embroidered Alencon lace, seed pearls and crystal beading. The skirt extended into a chapel-length panel train.

Her veil fell from a pillbox of matching peau and lace and was accented with a teardrop at the forehead. She carried a crescent bouquet of gardenias.

Mrs. Kenneth Hunter, Fort Collins, was the matron of honor for her sister in a floor-length, A-line gown of verdi green moire. Her pillbox headpiece held matching veiling.

William Osborn, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Finley Cook and Jack Vahrenwald.

A reception was held in the Long's Peak Room at the Colorado State University Student Center, Fort Collins.

The couple plans to live at 1900 Clark Ave., Apt. 1210, Palo Alto, Calif., where the bridegroom is a second year law student at Stanford University. He received his undergraduate degree from Stanford and is a graduate of Fort Collins High School. He also attended Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N.H.

Mrs. Osborn is a graduate of Fort Collins High School and attended Colorado State University.

Virginia Kroll To Wed May 3

Miss Virginia Kroll revealed the date of her approaching marriage to James Fischer to friends at the Kappa Alpha Theta chapter house last night when she passed a box of candy. Attached to an heirloom wedding ring on the box was an original poem by Miss Kroll telling that she will be married May 3. Purple and yellow, Sigma Alpha Epsilon colors and Theta's black and gold were used in wrapping the box.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Kroll of 317 South Sherwood street. A graduate of Fort Collins High school, she was active in the Order of Rainbow for Girls. She received a BS degree in home economics in December at Colorado State college where she was affiliated with the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

At Church

Mr. Fischer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fischer of 319 South Grant street, was graduated from Fort Collins High school and attended Colorado State college before entering service. He was studying mechanical engineering and was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. At present he is attending officer candidate school at Fort Sill, Okla.

The couple is planning an 11 o'clock wedding May 3 at St. Luke's Episcopal church. Friends of Miss Kroll and the prospective bridegroom are invited to attend the wedding.

James H. Fischer

James H. Fischer, a lifelong resident of Fort Collins, went to meet our Lord and Savior on May 8, 2006, after a short illness. Mr. Fischer was born in Fort Collins on Easter Sunday in 1922. Jim was a product of Colorado, being born, raised and educated in Fort Collins. He went through grade school, high school (Fort Collins High) and Colorado State University (then Colorado A&M), obtaining a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering. During college, he was an active member of the SAE fraternity and served as treasurer of its Alumni House Corporation for many years.

FISCHER

During World War II, he served in the field artillery and infantry and was with the 1st Infantry Division in Europe. On his return from Europe in 1946, he finished his college education and was briefly employed by an engineering consulting firm in Kansas City in 1947. In early 1948, he returned to Fort Collins and found employment with the Beet Sugar Development Foundation as a mechanical engineer. In 1951, he became the research manager for the Foundation. The Foundation's national research office remained in Fort Collins until shortly after his retirement in April 1987. For several years after retirement, he continued to work as a consultant to the Foundation for its Beet Sugar Institute, a continuing education program at CSU. For his service to the beet sugar industry, Jim received the prestigious Savitsky Award in 1985, and the equally prestigious Sugarman of the Year award in 1986. Jim was listed in both "Who's Who in Science" and "Who's Who in the West."

Jim was a Boy Scout leader for 25 years and received the Scouter's Key, Honorary Bronze Bighorn and a Meritorious Service Award from the Longs Peak Council. He was the founder of Troop and Explorer Post No. 96 at St. John's Lutheran Church and served on numerous district and council committees. His proudest scouting achievements included guiding 11 boys to the rank of Eagle Scout and helping to obtain the donation of land for the Ben Delatour Scout Ranch. In addition to his service to scouting, he was an active participant in community organizations including being an active member of the Fort Collins Lions Club for more than 50 years, where he was a past president. For his work with the Lions Club Eyeglass Program, he received the Lions Foundation Humanitarian Award. He was active in the Poudre School District, serving as a member of the Advisory Committee for eight years and chairman for three terms. In the Fort Collins Chamber of Commerce, he was a director and was treasurer from 1957 to 1959. Jim was the director of the Fort Collins United Fund for three years and director of the Fort Collins Centennial Commission and a lifetime member of St. John's Lutheran Church and at his passing, had the longest term continuous membership in the church, that was founded by his father, Ernest Fischer.

Jim was an avid CSU Rams football fan and served several years as chairperson of the Fort Collins High School 50-Year Club. He is an Honor Alum of Fort Collins High School.

In May 1944, Jim married his college sweetheart, Virginia Kroll, who preceded him in death in 1972. He married a second time to Mary Witkop, who preceded him in death in 1986. Jim was also preceded in death by his father, Ernest, who was a Larimer County Commissioner for 20 years; his mother, Ida; two brothers, George and Elmer; and one sister, Gertrude.

He is survived by two sons, James L. Fischer of Fort Collins and Dennis G. Fischer of Centennial; five grandsons; three great-grandchildren; and a special friend, Clara Alley.

Services for Jim will be at 2 p.m. Friday at St. John's Lutheran Church, 305 E. Elizabeth St., with interment to follow at Grandview Cemetery.
