

Conservation Tour For Minister June 16

Fifty ministers from all parts of Hardin county have been invited to an afternoon tour of soil conservation practices Monday, June 16 at 1:30 p. m.

The Hardin Soil Conservation District is sponsoring the event in connection with Soil Conservation week, June 15-22. The tour will be conducted on the Bernard Reece farm, New Providence and the Harold Marsh farm, Union. Soil conservation problems and methods will be discussed and observed in the field.
