MARRIED AT VANCLEVE.

Wedding Recently Celebrated at Home of Bride's Aunt, Mrs. George Appel.

At the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. George Appel, of Vancleve, was recently celebrated the marriage of Miss Alice Emeline Stott of Rogersville, Mo., to George Riemenschneider of State Center. The bride wore a gown of blue grey basket cloth, trimmed with lace and velvet. The parlor decorations were ferns and carnations. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Earl Monger, a three-course luncheon was served by Mrs. Appel and Miss Clara Owings. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to the serious illness of the bride's grandfather, William Owing. The couple left for their home at State Center, where the groom is engaged in farming.

which deal with land and land transfers, it is imperative that the documents be recorded properly and readily available to the public and other county offices. The office must be service oriented and customers must be treated with the highest respect."

Question 3: Would you be in favor of the recorders office sharing duties with other departments?

Kathy Baker: "The concept of a one-stop office for county services is a natural one, making those services more convenient and accessible for county residents. Although there are various regulatory reasons for the current separation of the auditor, treasurer and recorder's offices, there aren't restrictions on the physical location and which employees perform the duties of the offices. I would be highly in favor of co-locating the offices and sharing staff and other resources to benefit the citizens of Marshall County."

Gene Beach: "Treasurer Deane Adams has already discussed with me the possibility of "sharing" the duty of registering ATVs, snowmobiles and boats. I believe that such a move would make it more convenient for Marshall Countians by providing one-stop shopping for them. They would be able to register their trailers and ATVs, snowmobiles and boats in a single office. I would continue to look at and evaluate other ways of improving the responsiveness of the office to the people who use it."

Question 4: Why should you be County Recorder?

Kathy Baker: "I'm the clear choice as the most qualified candidate. In my 26 years in education and community service,
