

Above is a Conservation Reserve Program Shallow Water Area on the Ted Werner farm in Scott township. Ted constructed the wetland to promote wildlife habitat on his farm. This wetland has attracted many birds including turkey, pheasants and even heron. Many four legged creatures enjoy this wetland too.