Pioneer German Called to Reward

Frederick Hilleman Died Saturday Evening After A Long Illness

Frederick Hilleman, one of the pioneer German settlers in Marshall county, died at his home in this place at 6:45 Saturday evening following a long and tedious illness resulting from paralysis.

The end of Mr Hilleman has not come suddenly or unexpectedly. He had passed the biblical limit of four score years, and the day of life was gradually drawing to a close.

A paralytic stroke which he sustained about a year ago had almost deprived him of the use of his physical and mental faculties. At first there were periods of seeming recovery, but they were only of short duration. It became more and more apparent that his malady was incurable. The man that was once rock and oak had withstood many a storm- two falls from a barn, a tumble into a basement and an operation - had at last become as helpless as a little child. His pitiful condition was the cause more than once for prayers for a speedy delivery from his suffering, and death has finally come to him as a blessed relief.

Frederick August Hilleman was born December 17, 1830, at Balshausen, Brunswick, Germany. He was united in marriage to Miss Christine Hennis May 25, 1862. To this union five children were born. They are Mrs Anna Yingst, Mrs Augusta Osterson, Mrs Emma Pfantz of State Center, Mrs Emma Reinhart, of Early. Frederick, the only son, died in an accident about thirteen years ago. Besides his wife and four daughters he is also survived by one brother, Henry Hilleman, of this place.

The departed has been a consistent member and liberal supporter of the Lutheran church. He has served the French Grove and St Paul's congregations in various capacities. Faithfully and conscientiously he discharged all duties which devolved upon him, and his memory will be cherished in the community.

The bereaved family has lost a loving husband and an indulgent father, and the community one of it's prominent pioneer citizens, the family having lived in the vicinity of State Center for nearly fifty years.

Rev J G Oltmann conducted the funeral serve at St Paul's Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon. Interment was made in Hillside cemetery.

September 24, 1914 State Center Enterprise.

Mrs Christine Hilleman Died Tuesday Evening

Mrs Christine Hilleman, widow of Fred Hilleman who died in 1914, passed away Tuesday evening at ten o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs W W Yingst.

Mrs Hilleman was born in Alfeld, Germany, on July 18, 1838, coming to this country with her parents while a young girl. For a time they had lived at Somonauk, Illinois. On May 25, 1862 she was united in marriage to Fred Hilleman, coming to State Centre in 1866 to make their home about five miles northeast of town. In 1892 they moved to town.

Five children were born to Mrs Hilleman of whom four survive. They are Mrs W W Yingst, Mrs S A Osterson and Mrs Emma Pfantz of State Center and Mrs John Reinhard of Spirit Lake, Iowa. A brother, Henry Hennis and a sister, Mrs August Funke survive Mrs Hilleman.

The funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon at 1:30 at the house and at 2:30 o'clock at the St Paul's Lutheran church. Interment will be in Hillside cemetery.
