

Minn-559 - C. F. Reverud farm, Spring Grove, Minn. 9/29/37. The products from a one-acre TSI area. Thirty-nine percent of the basal area was salvaged and thinned. Twenty percent of the basal area consisted of dead trees. Eight cords of good oak cord wood, 2.5 cords of aspen, and partly decayed wood (suitable for home use), 6.75 cords of pole wood, mostly oak, from tops and branches, and two red oak logs 8'x10" cut from the two best trees cut were the products obtained. There was a total of 17.25 cords of fuel wood and two logs containing 55 board feet of lumber.