

Larry Krueger, SCS Dist. Speech Winner

Larry Krueger, a sophomore in the Radcliffe community school, was named winner of the Hardin Soil Conservation District speech contest, according to Mrs. Dean Kelsey, Iowa Falls, of the ladies' auxiliary.

RUNNERS-UP in the contest were Dale Orton, Radcliffe community school; Marilyn Calkins, Alden community school; and Elinor Miller of the Union-Whitten school.

Larry's winning speech was "How soil conservation affects my future." He will advance to the regional contest to be held this summer. The regional winner will advance to the state contest to be held during the annual state conference of soil district commissioners at Mason City in September.

LARRY HAS BEEN active in the Radcliffe FFA chapter. He is a member of the FFA state chorus, served as delegate to the district convention and is reporter in the local chapter. Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krueger, Radcliffe.
