Dedication

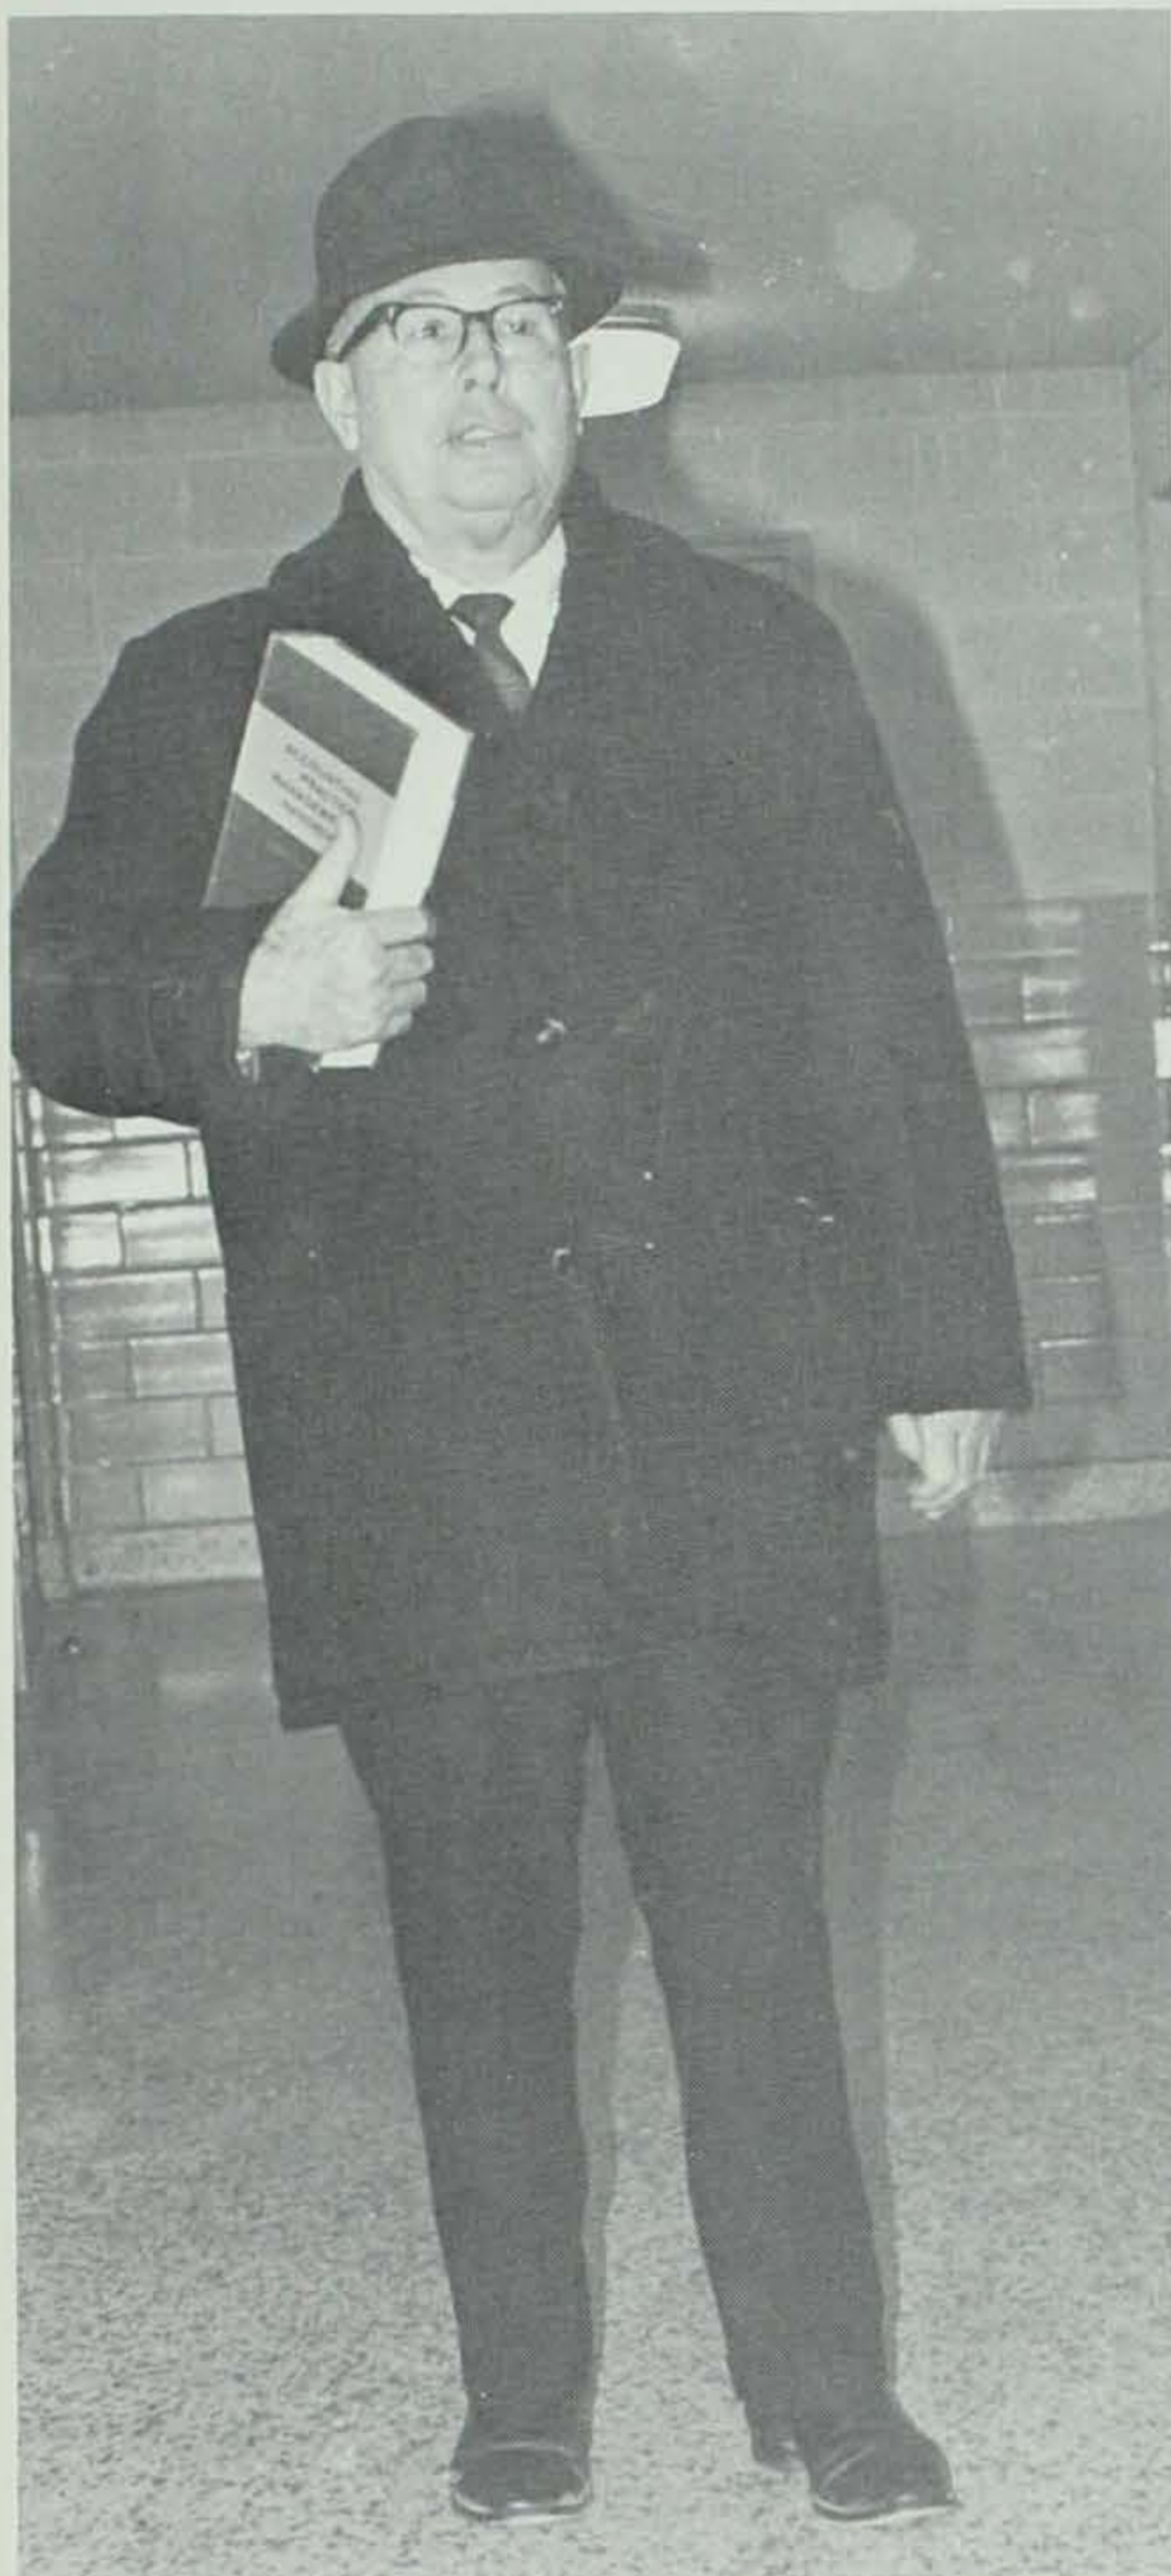

Every college has its own variety of cultures and from these cultures comes the color exhibited in campus life. Buena Vista has its share of color which stems in part from Dr. Felix Cruz, the accounting and related areas professor.

Dr. Cruz was born in Havana, Cuba and is married to Florence Cruz who teaches Spanish at Buena Vista College. He has a son and a daughter who live in the United States.

Dr. Cruz went to school in Havana and transferred to school in New York. He later went back to Havana and attended a graduate school. After graduation, he became a certified public accountant and at the same time was Secretary of one of the University of Havana's thirteen colleges. He also taught at the university where one of his classes was at 12 midnight. He later became manager of a textile mill to fill in the spare time. He gave up the mill and continued to teach at the university until 1961 when he was forced to flee the Castro regime. His wife and children had gone on ahead of him to the United States so he moved to Storm Lake and began teaching here.

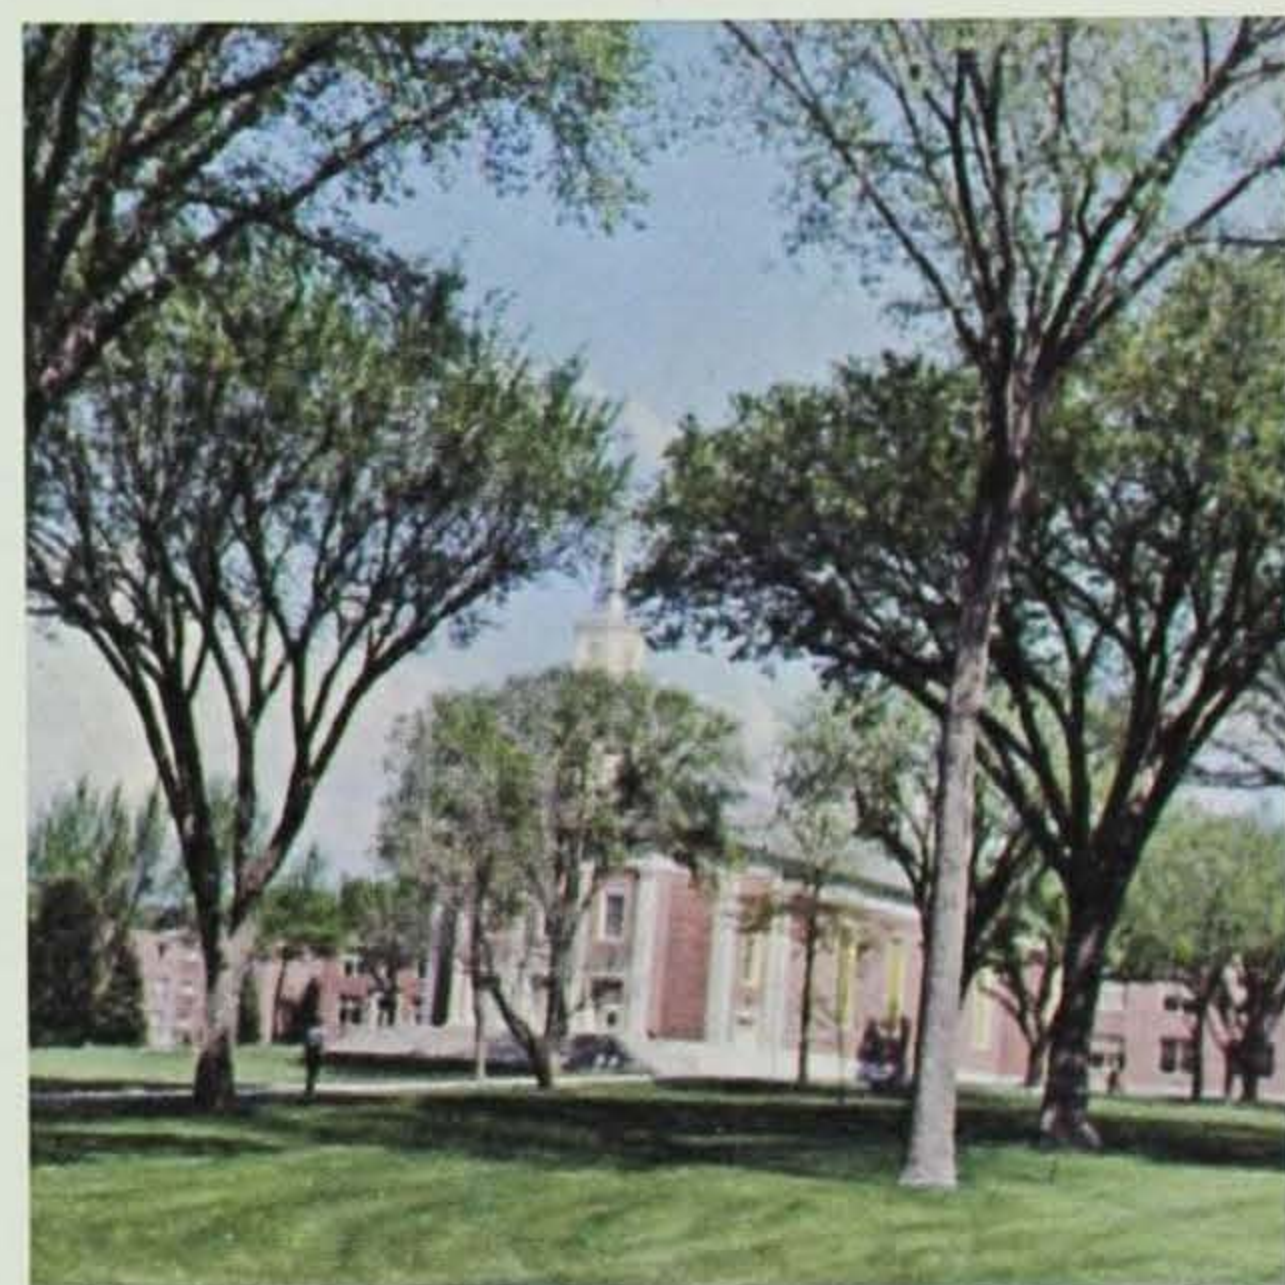

In 1967, Dr. Cruz was the last of his family to become naturalized as a citizen. He still hopes to be able to return to Cuba sometime for visits but plans to retire this year and live in Florida to do just what he wants to. Buena Vista's loss is felt especially by the students who had him for several classes and know him as Mr. Accounting.

Student Life

The college life is colorful and at best easy going in the fall, extra cold in the winter, and hectic in the spring. Excitement runs high in the fall. "What did you do over the summer? She's engaged! Boy, do I hate coming back to school after a swinging summer! What is the boy-girl ratio like this year? Is he back? Is she back? Get a load of the new freshmen! Who has the beanies?"

Always it is thus. Excitement dying into existence in the winter and flaring into life in the summer when going down to the beach is common and playing baseball and driving around the lake become daily rituals. Going to the D.Q. for a sundae or out to the show for a time-killer or to impress that new freshman you want to get to know better.

You go to all the games and cheer for the team. You go to the Homecoming parade, game, and the dance and maybe meet that new girl or boy you saw in the hall. You study hard and find classes are too long or dull. Books weigh more in the fall. Cars are out running around and you are having fun by night and being educated by day. The crowds of kids are out and life seems to be here! Occasionally it rains and you think about school.

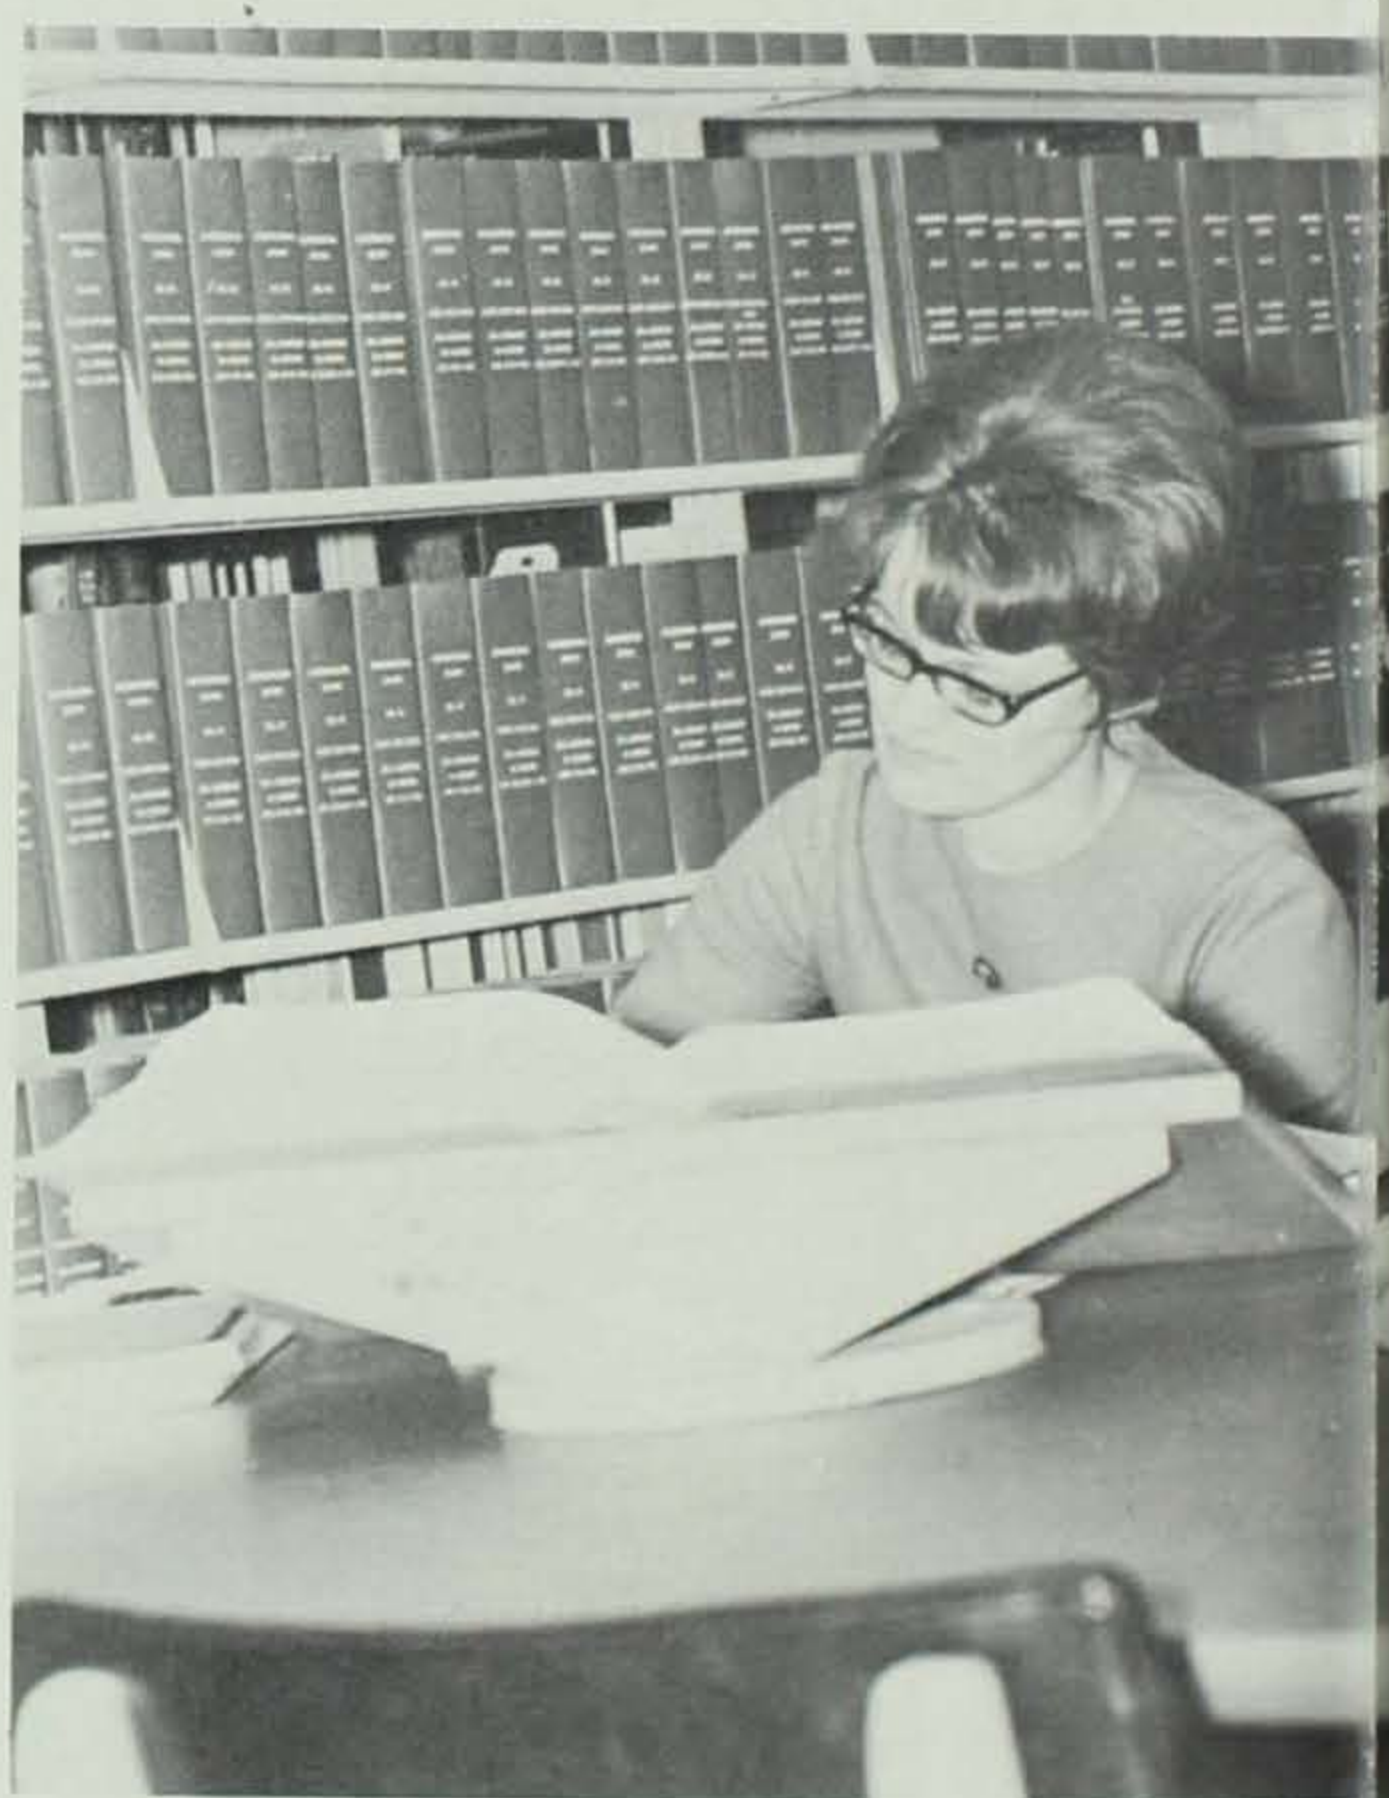

Then the snow falls. Now fun is trouble. The streets are like sheets of ice and staying in the dorm becomes fashionable. No cars are running around now and walking is crazy. It snows some more and you play records to pass the time. You call over to Swope Hall to talk to your girl.

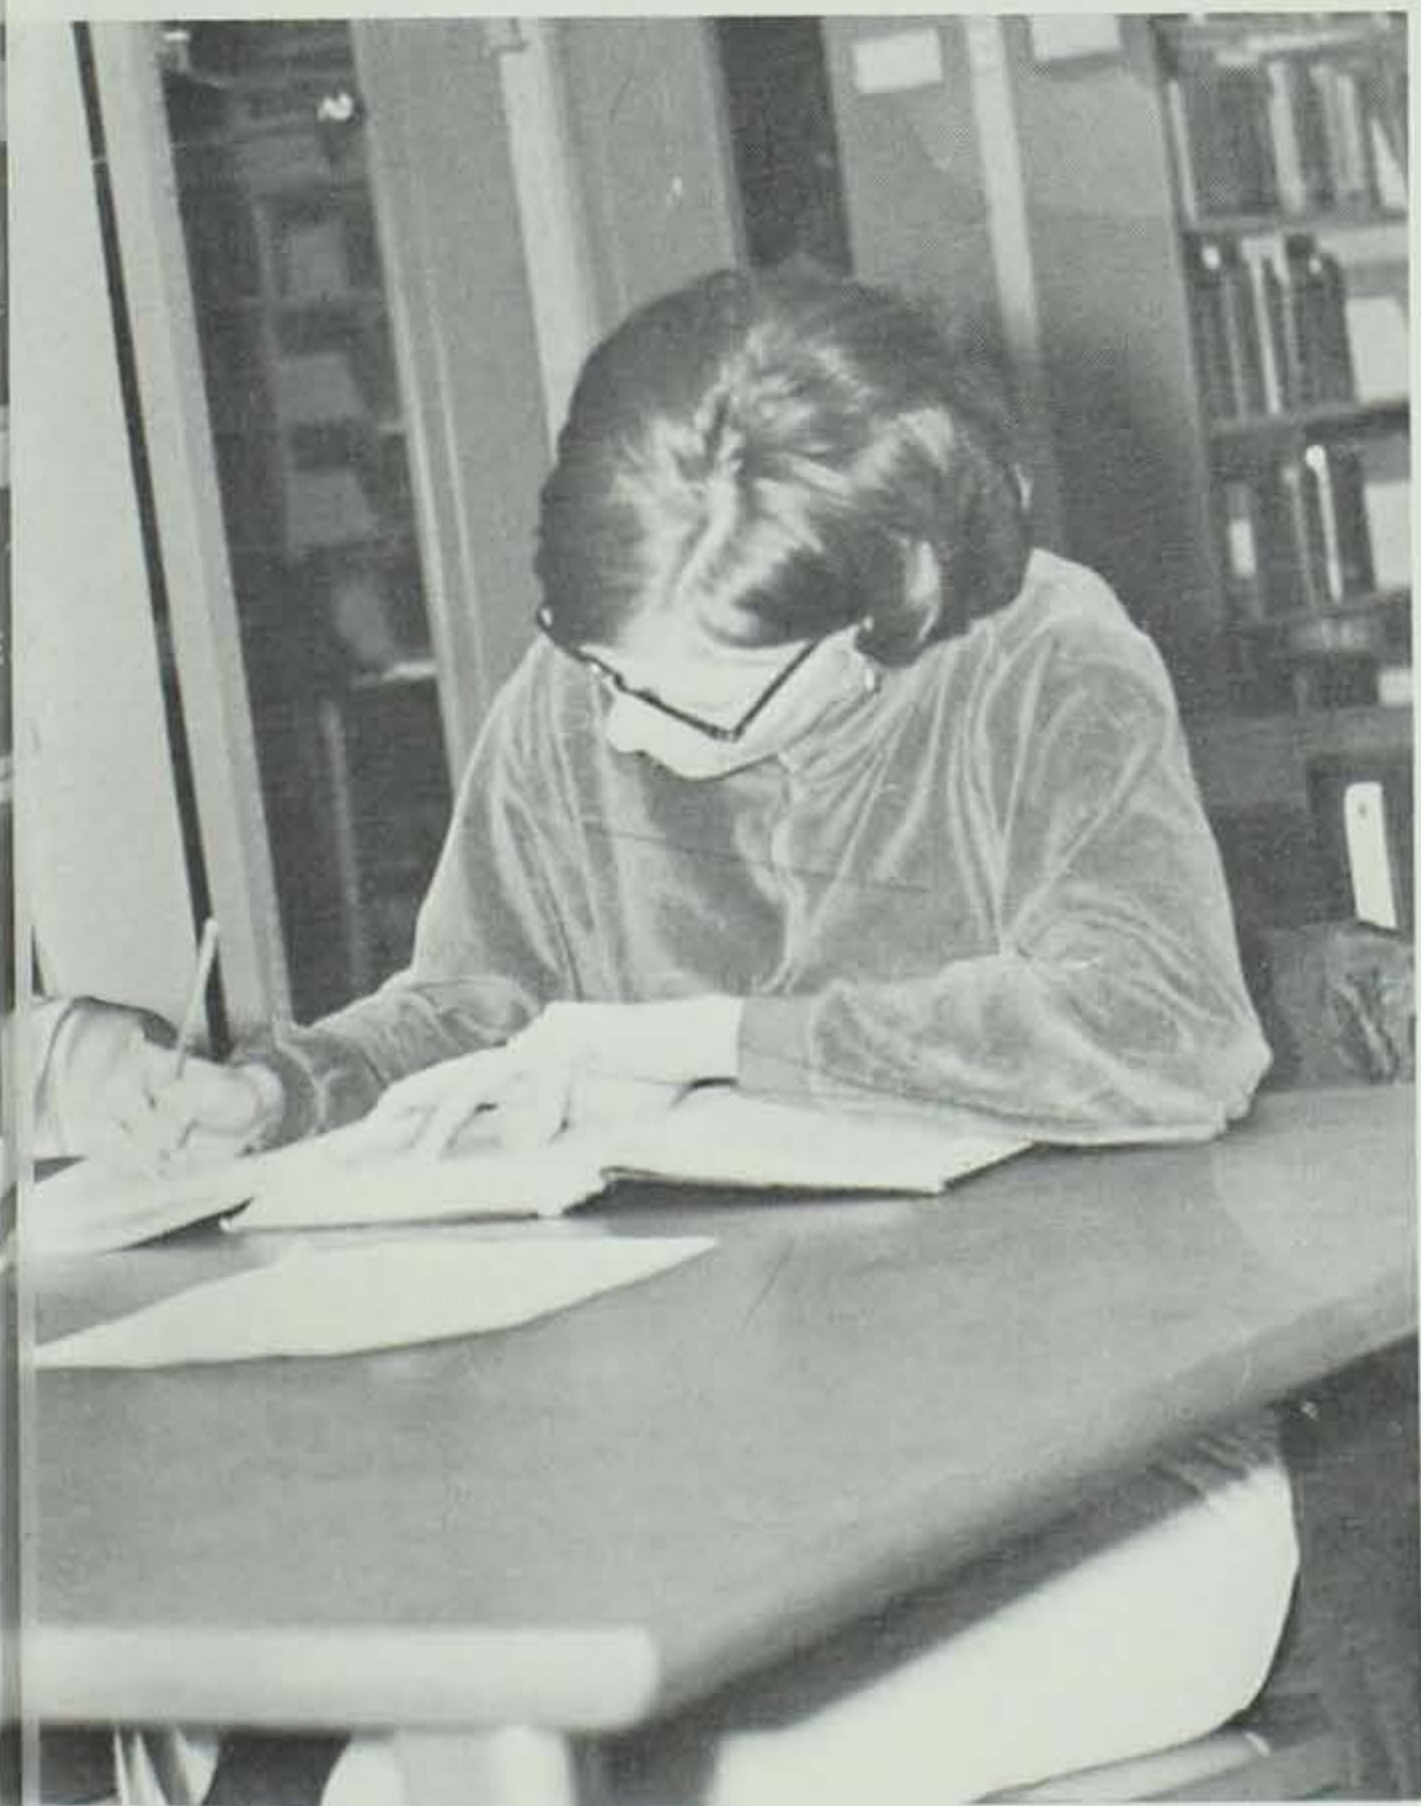

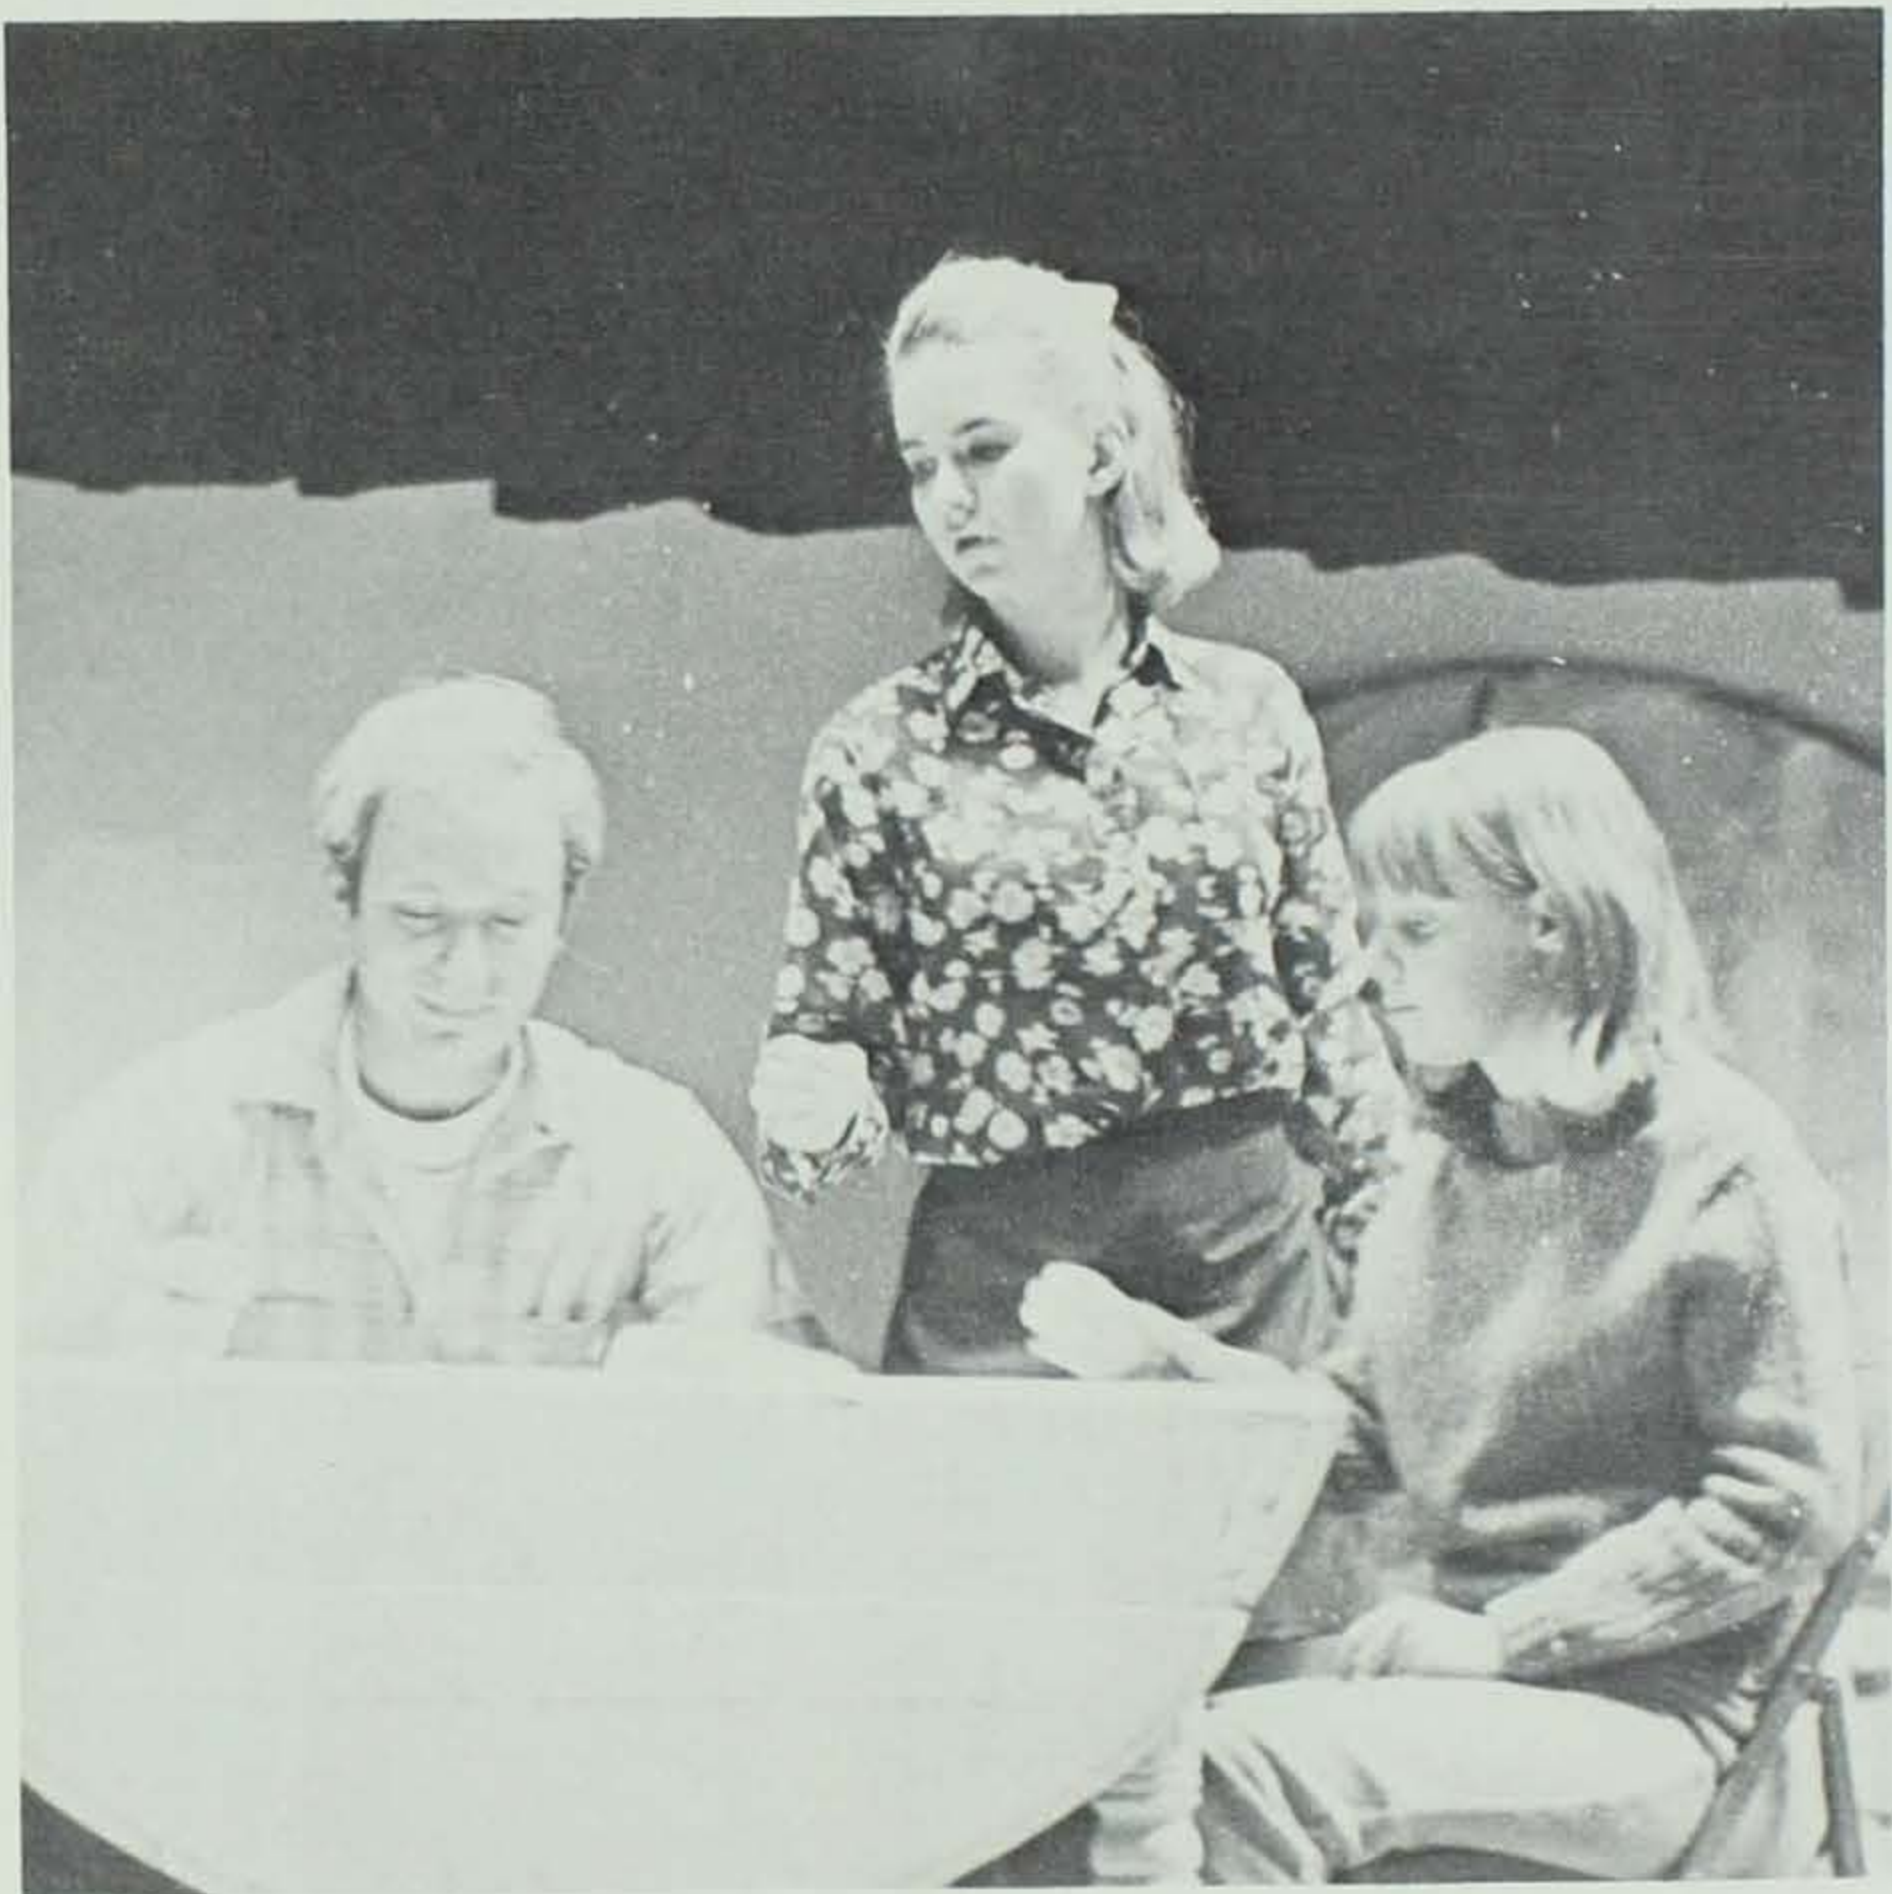

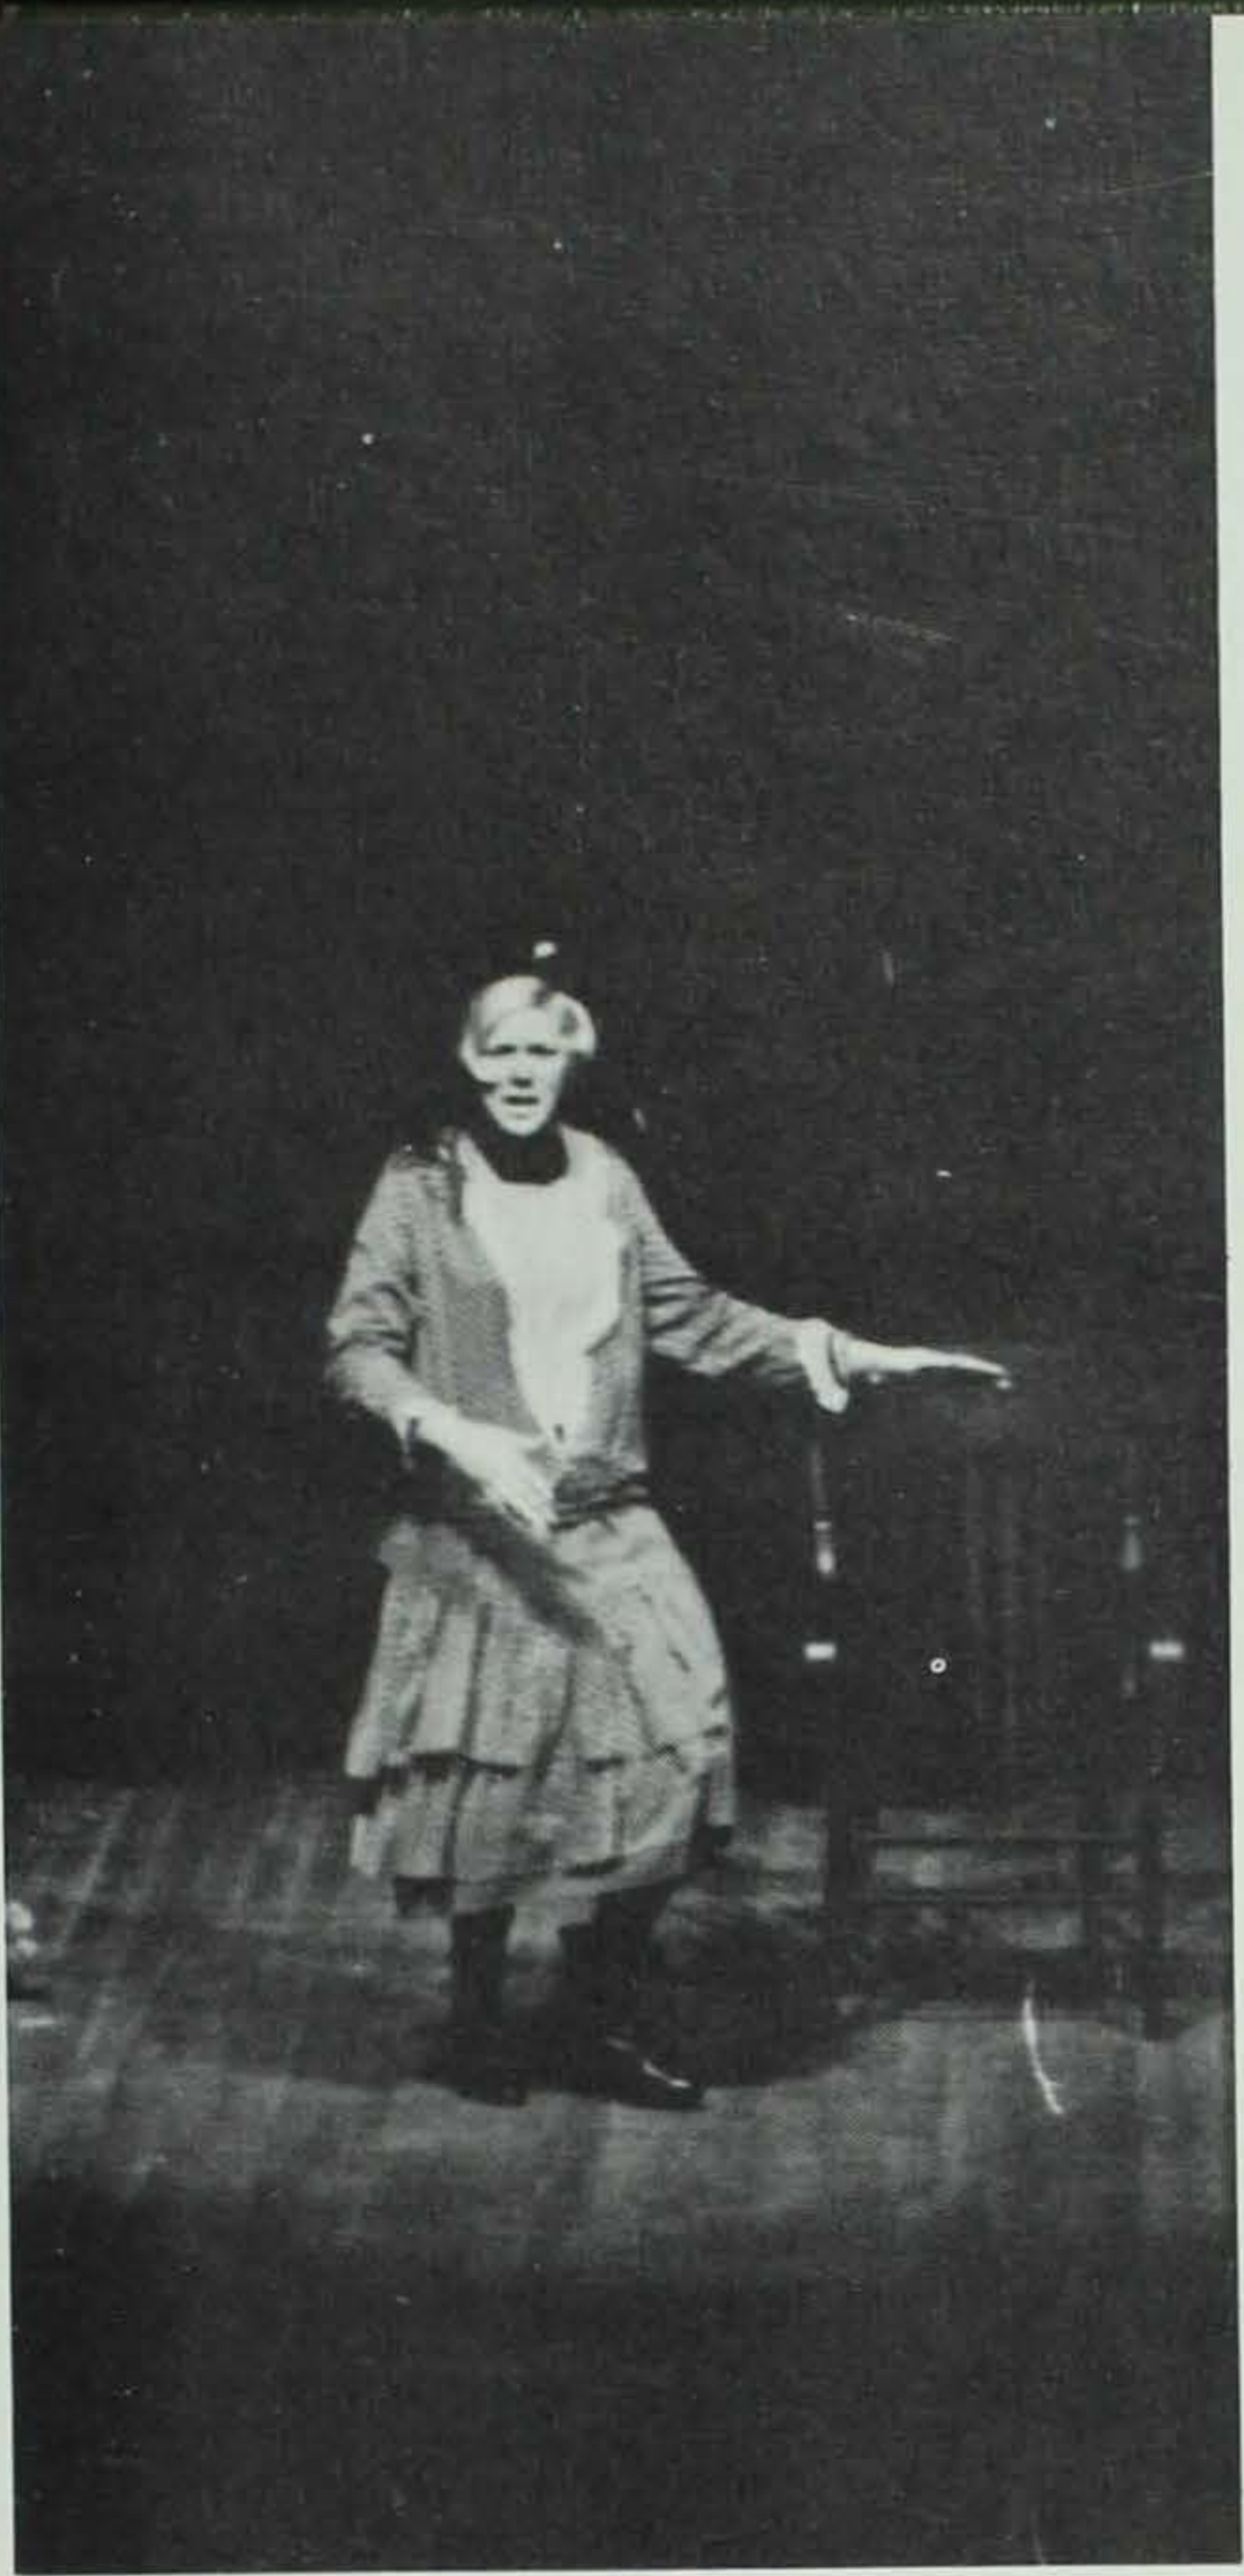

Spring comes at last. The snow melts slowly and you see green grass for the first time. It is wet and muddy but warm and it feels great to see the sun. Trees have leaves on them and there is a new feeling in the air. You do crazy things and classes are suddenly dull and long again. You wish you were out of school and long for summer.

Now it is graduation and your friends are leaving. You wish suddenly that school would never end but it does.

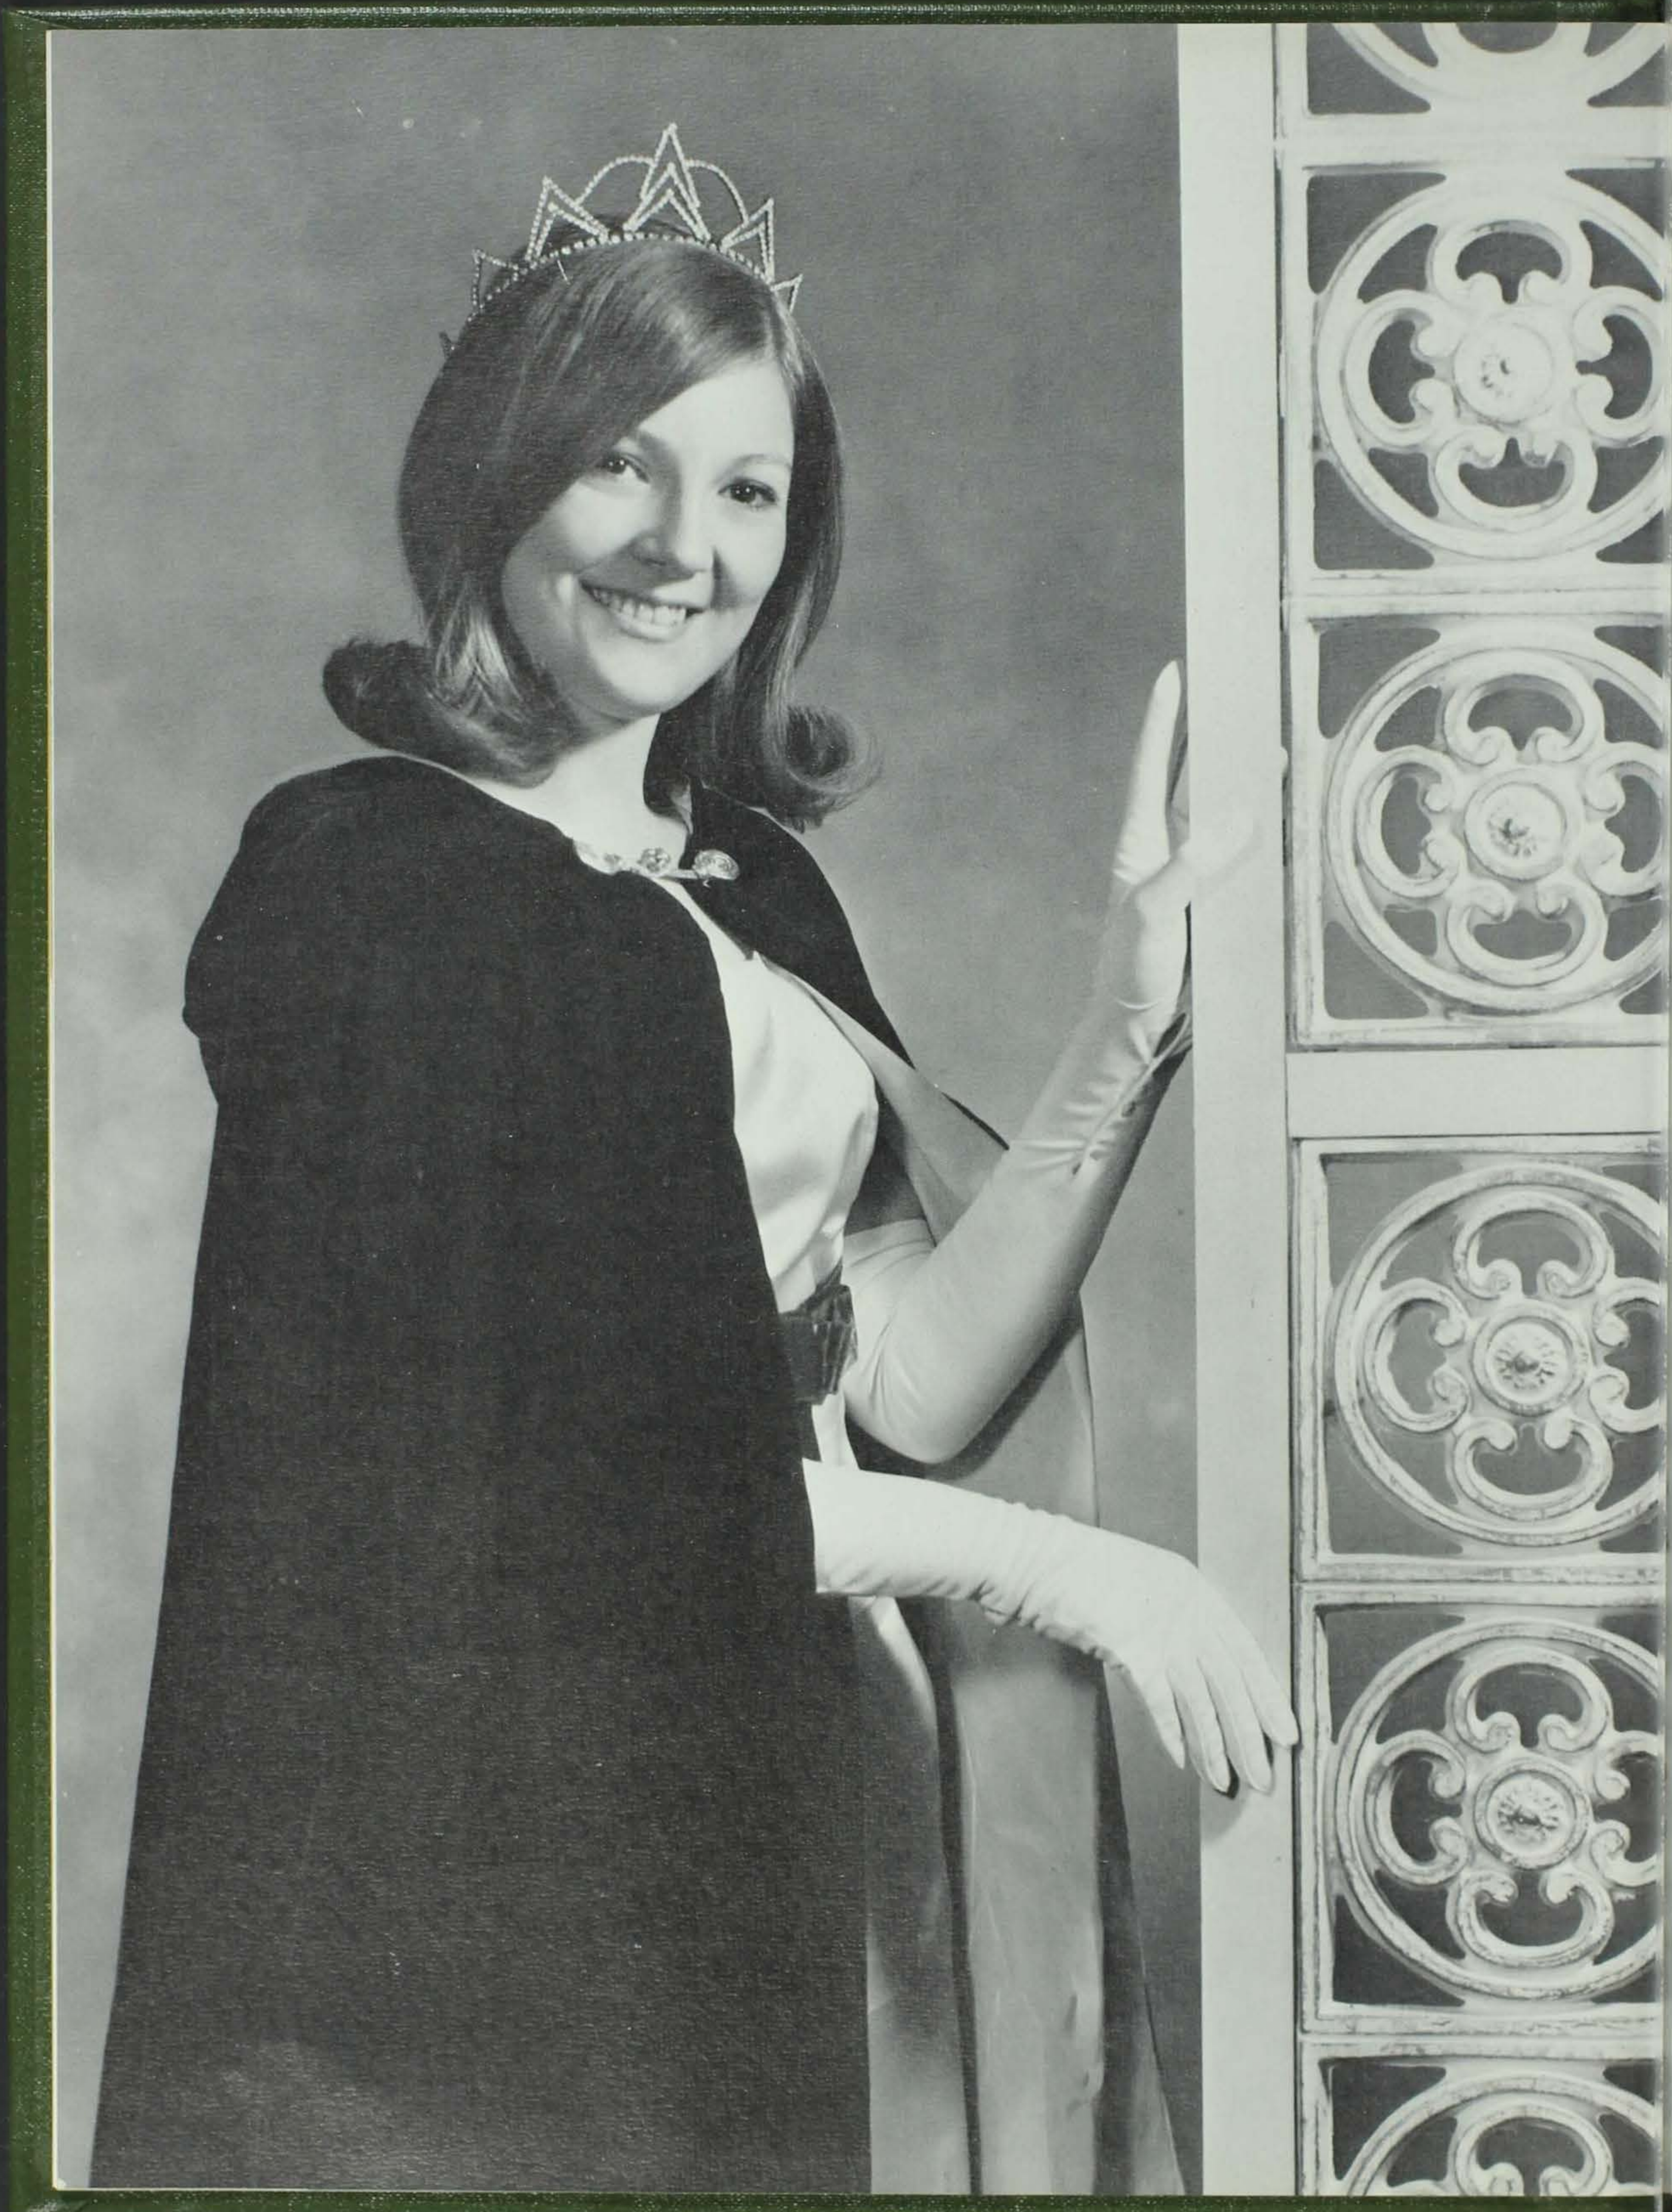

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming 1968

Homecoming Royalty

This year's queen was Wanda Wood, a 20 year old junior from Spencer, Iowa. She majored in social science and was sponsored by the Delta Phi Rho Fraternity.

Her court consisted of Margaret Barber, a senior from Elmhurst, Illinois; Jane Berglund, a senior from Marcus, Iowa; Marilyn Buchinsky, a senior from Harrisburg, Pa.; Kitty Hardgrove, a junior from Algona, Iowa; Diane McCabe, a senior from Storm Lake; and Linda Weik, a senior from Spirit Lake, Iowa.

"Twas the Knights Before Wartburg"

The variety show this year was colorful as demonstrated by the outfit worn by MC "Doc" Daniels. Doc was assisted by Jenny Talmage and Art Beaulieu as he "moved right along." Prizes were awarded to the contestants in two categories.

In the talent category, first prize was awarded to Ned Fleming, who sang two selections to the accompaniment of the Phi Mu Alphas. As always he was the hit of the evening and was supported by everyone as the winner. Second prize for talent went to Steve Richardson and Al Parker, who also did very well singing to their own pluckin' of the strings. Third prize was shared by Linda Goebel and the duet of Mary Pitstick and Don Patton.

In the theme category the first prize winner was Kappa Tau Delta fraternity and their "Laugh-In." Second prize was captured by Delta Phi Beta with a skit entitled "C'est Moi," and third prize went to "Twas the Knights Before Wartburg" as done by Phi Alpha Pi sorority.

The evening was climaxed by the crowning of Wanda Wood as Homecoming queen by football co-captains Dave German and Steve Bodholdt.

The theme of this year's Homecoming parade was "Camelot." Judges for the parade were Mrs. Don Krupke, Herb Andrews, and Jeff Emerson.

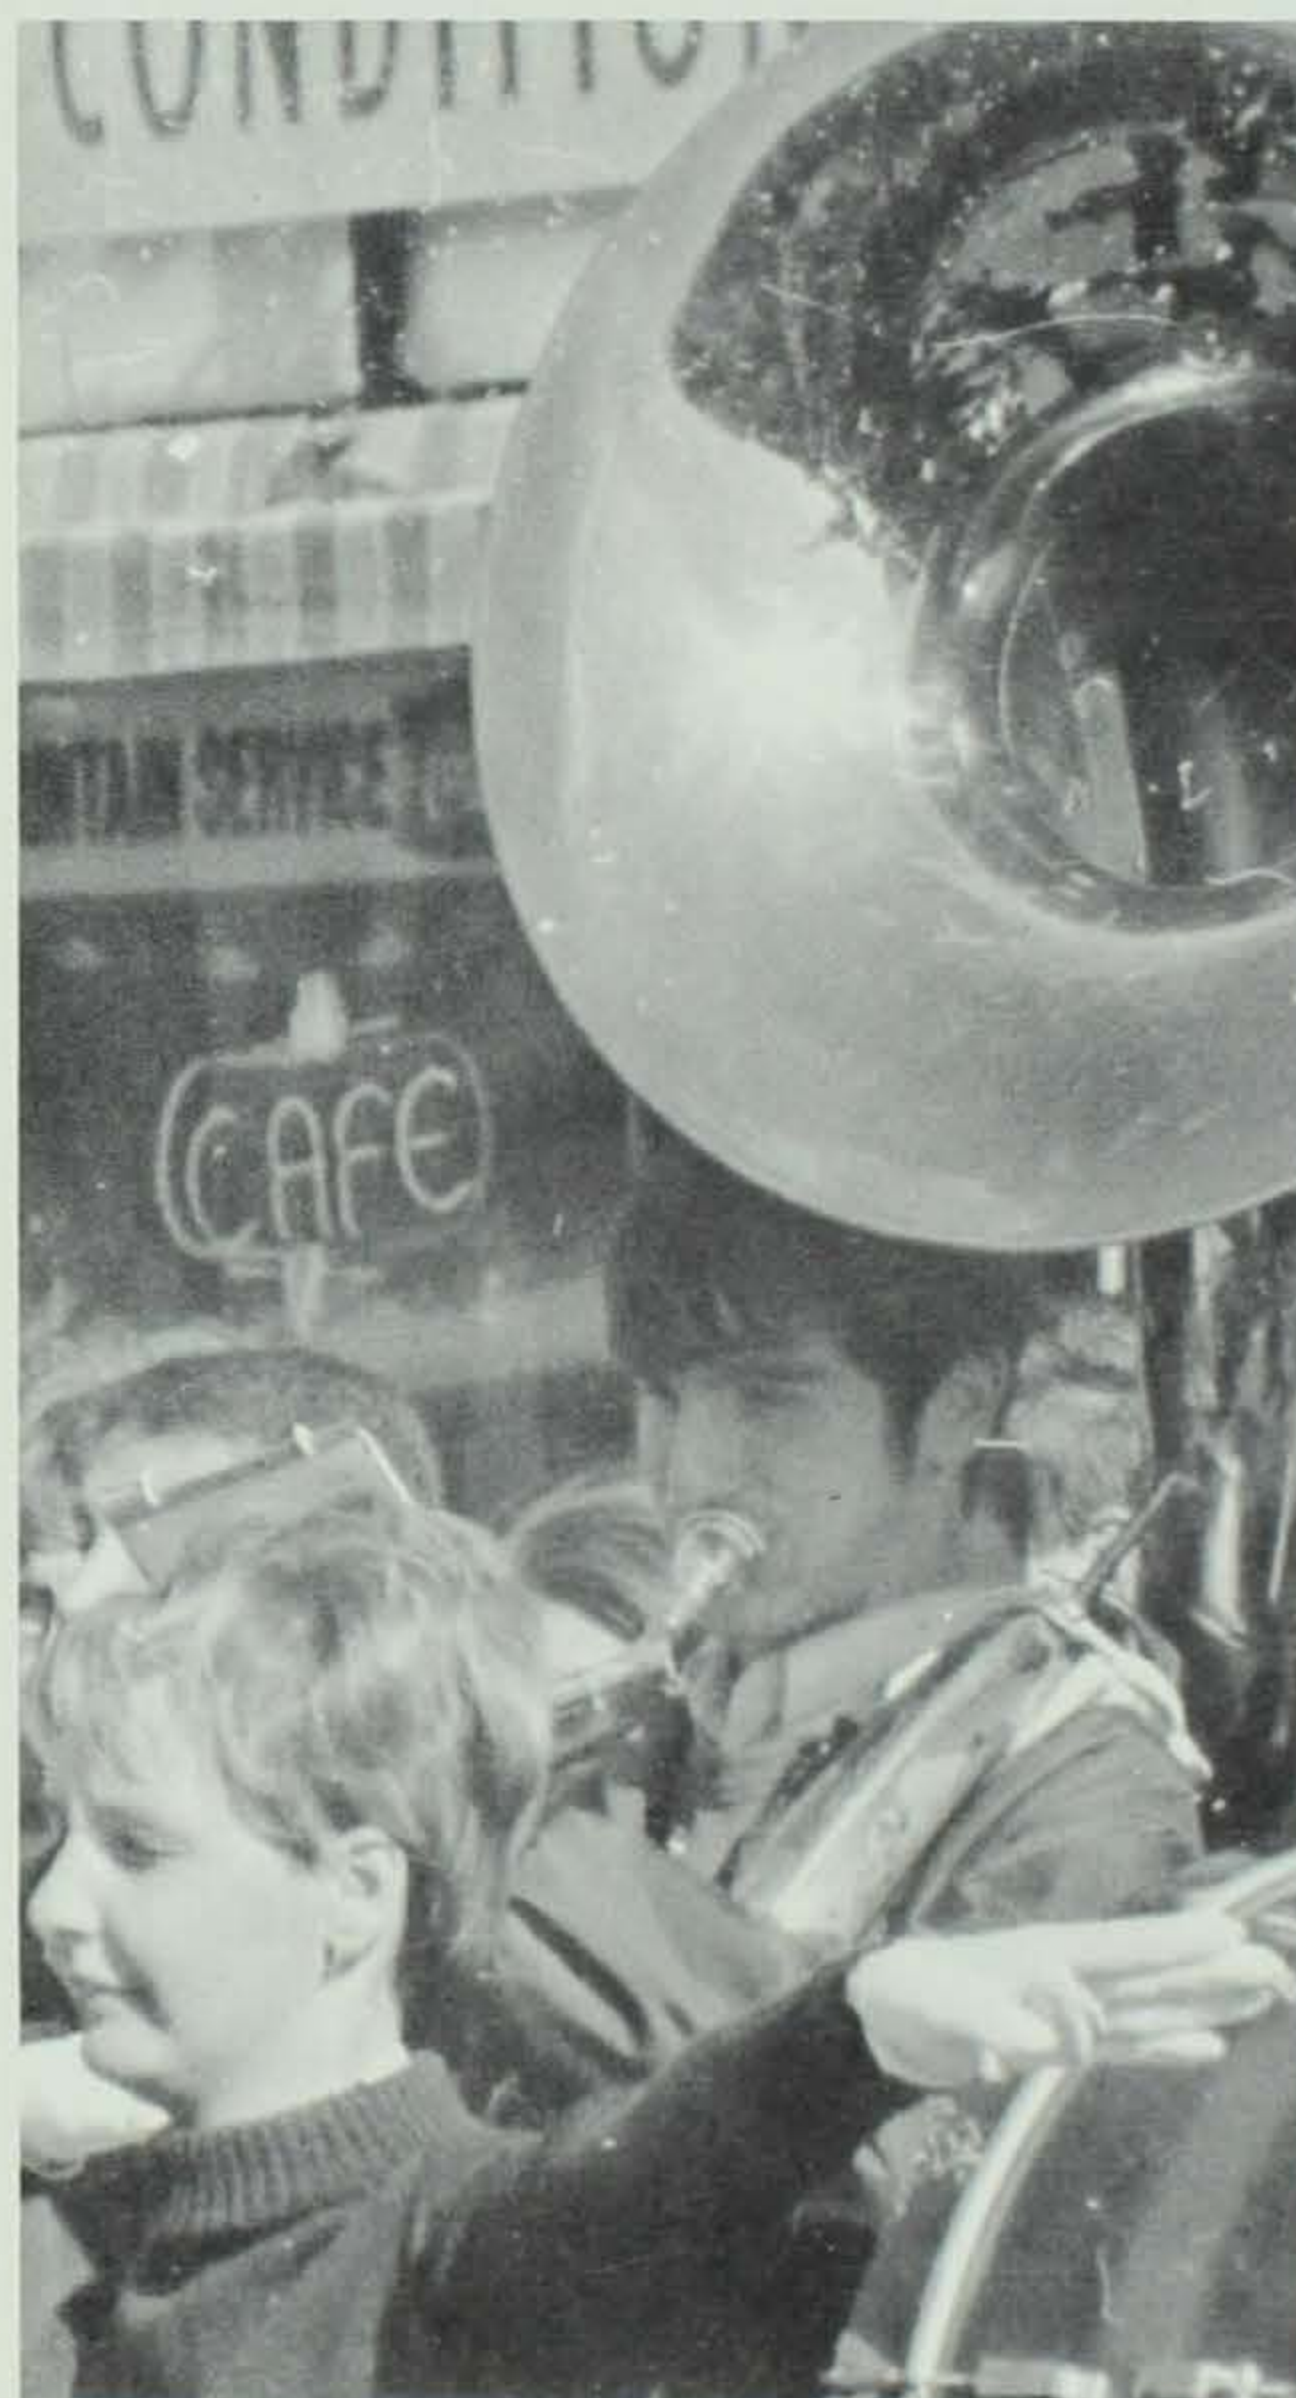

The Sweepstakes Award was won by Delta Phi Beta sorority, whose entry entitled "Give Them the Lance-e-lot" featured a beautiful lady on a white charger driving a lance into Wartburg. Organization float winners were Phi Alpha Pi sorority for their float "Sweet Victory, No Sweat" and Kappa Tau Delta fraternity for "Nip Them in the Bud."

In the school spirit category, first prize went to Delta Phi Rho fraternity for "Toasting the Beavers," and second prize was captured by Gamma Sigma Phi fraternity for "Give Them the Royal Shaft." Both of these floats featured giant beavers.

The parade also had twenty-three bands from area high schools passing in review and was led by the Buena Vista marching band. W. C. Jarnigan, editor of the Storm Lake newspapers, was grand marshal. Other dignitaries present included Roger Jepsen, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor; attorney general Richard Turner and his opponent Dan Johnson.

The Homecoming parade 1968 was indeed a colorful and exciting event. Much enthusiasm and school spirit was displayed by everyone involved. Every spectator agreed that the parade was a fine success.

3 Productions by

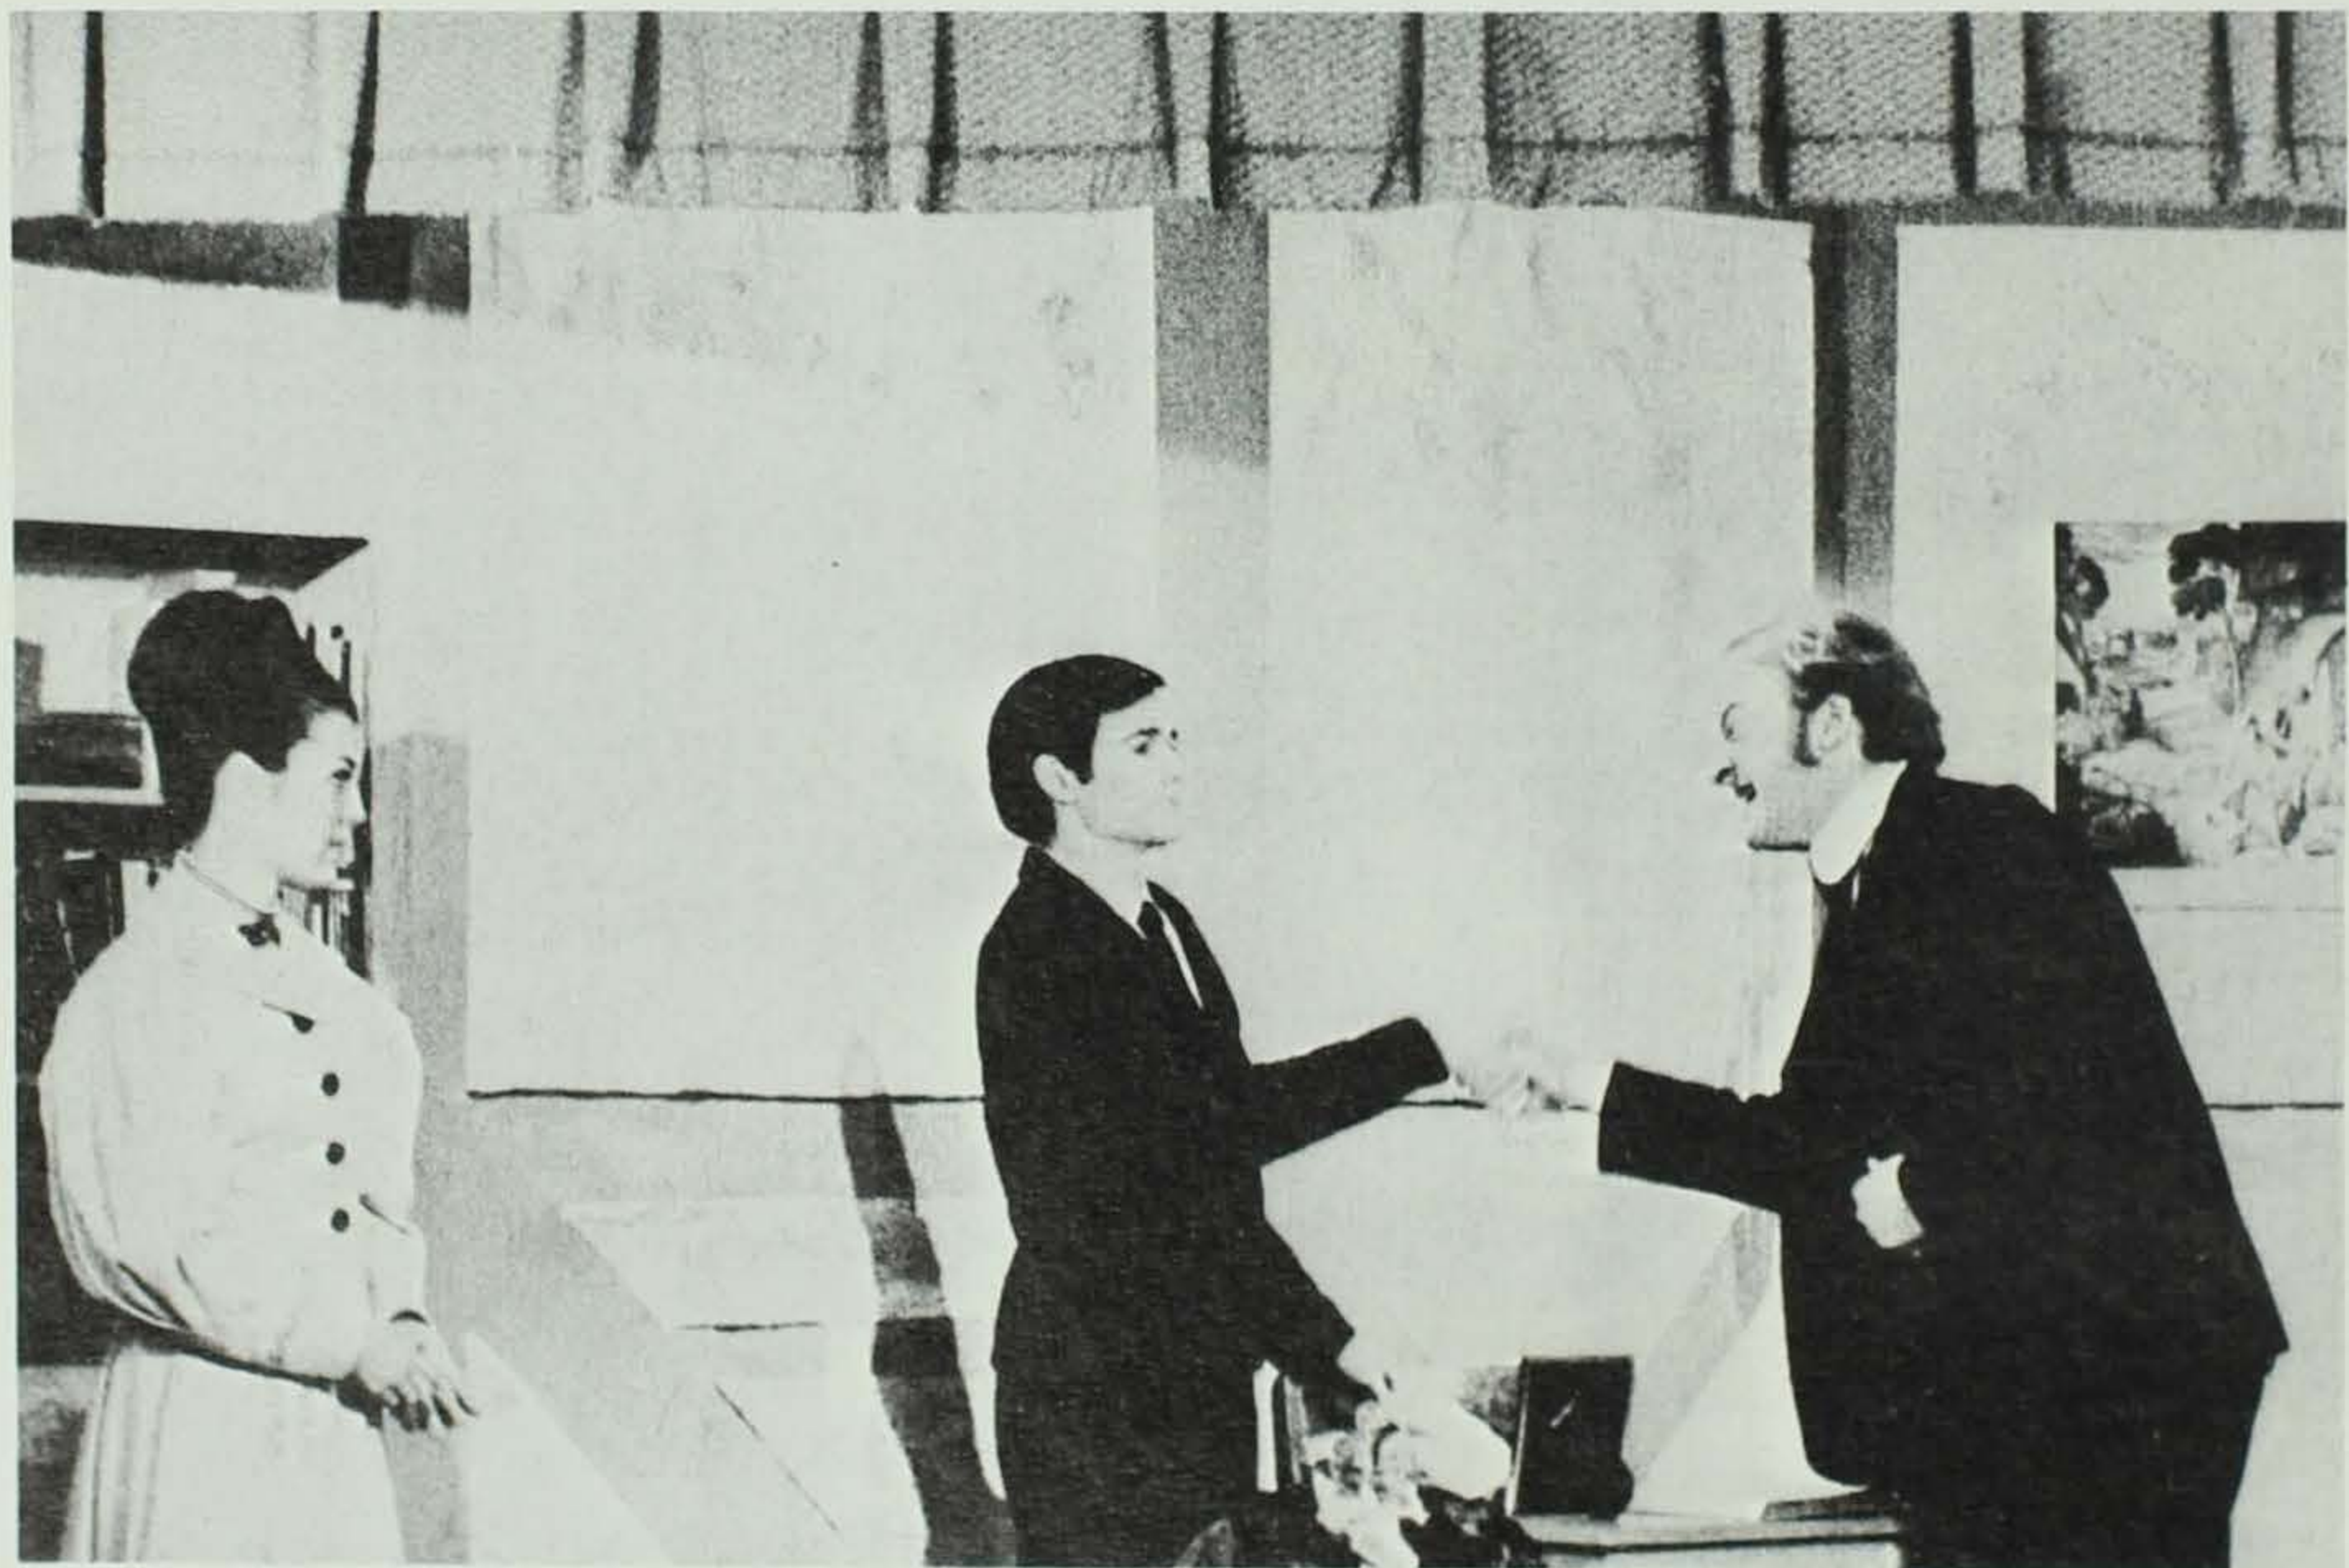

The Buena Vista drama department produced three plays during the year—"Our Town" by Thornton Wilder, "Candida" by George Bernard Shaw, and "The Miser" by Moliere. The casts and director Travis Lockhart did a fine job in every case.

Spring Carnival

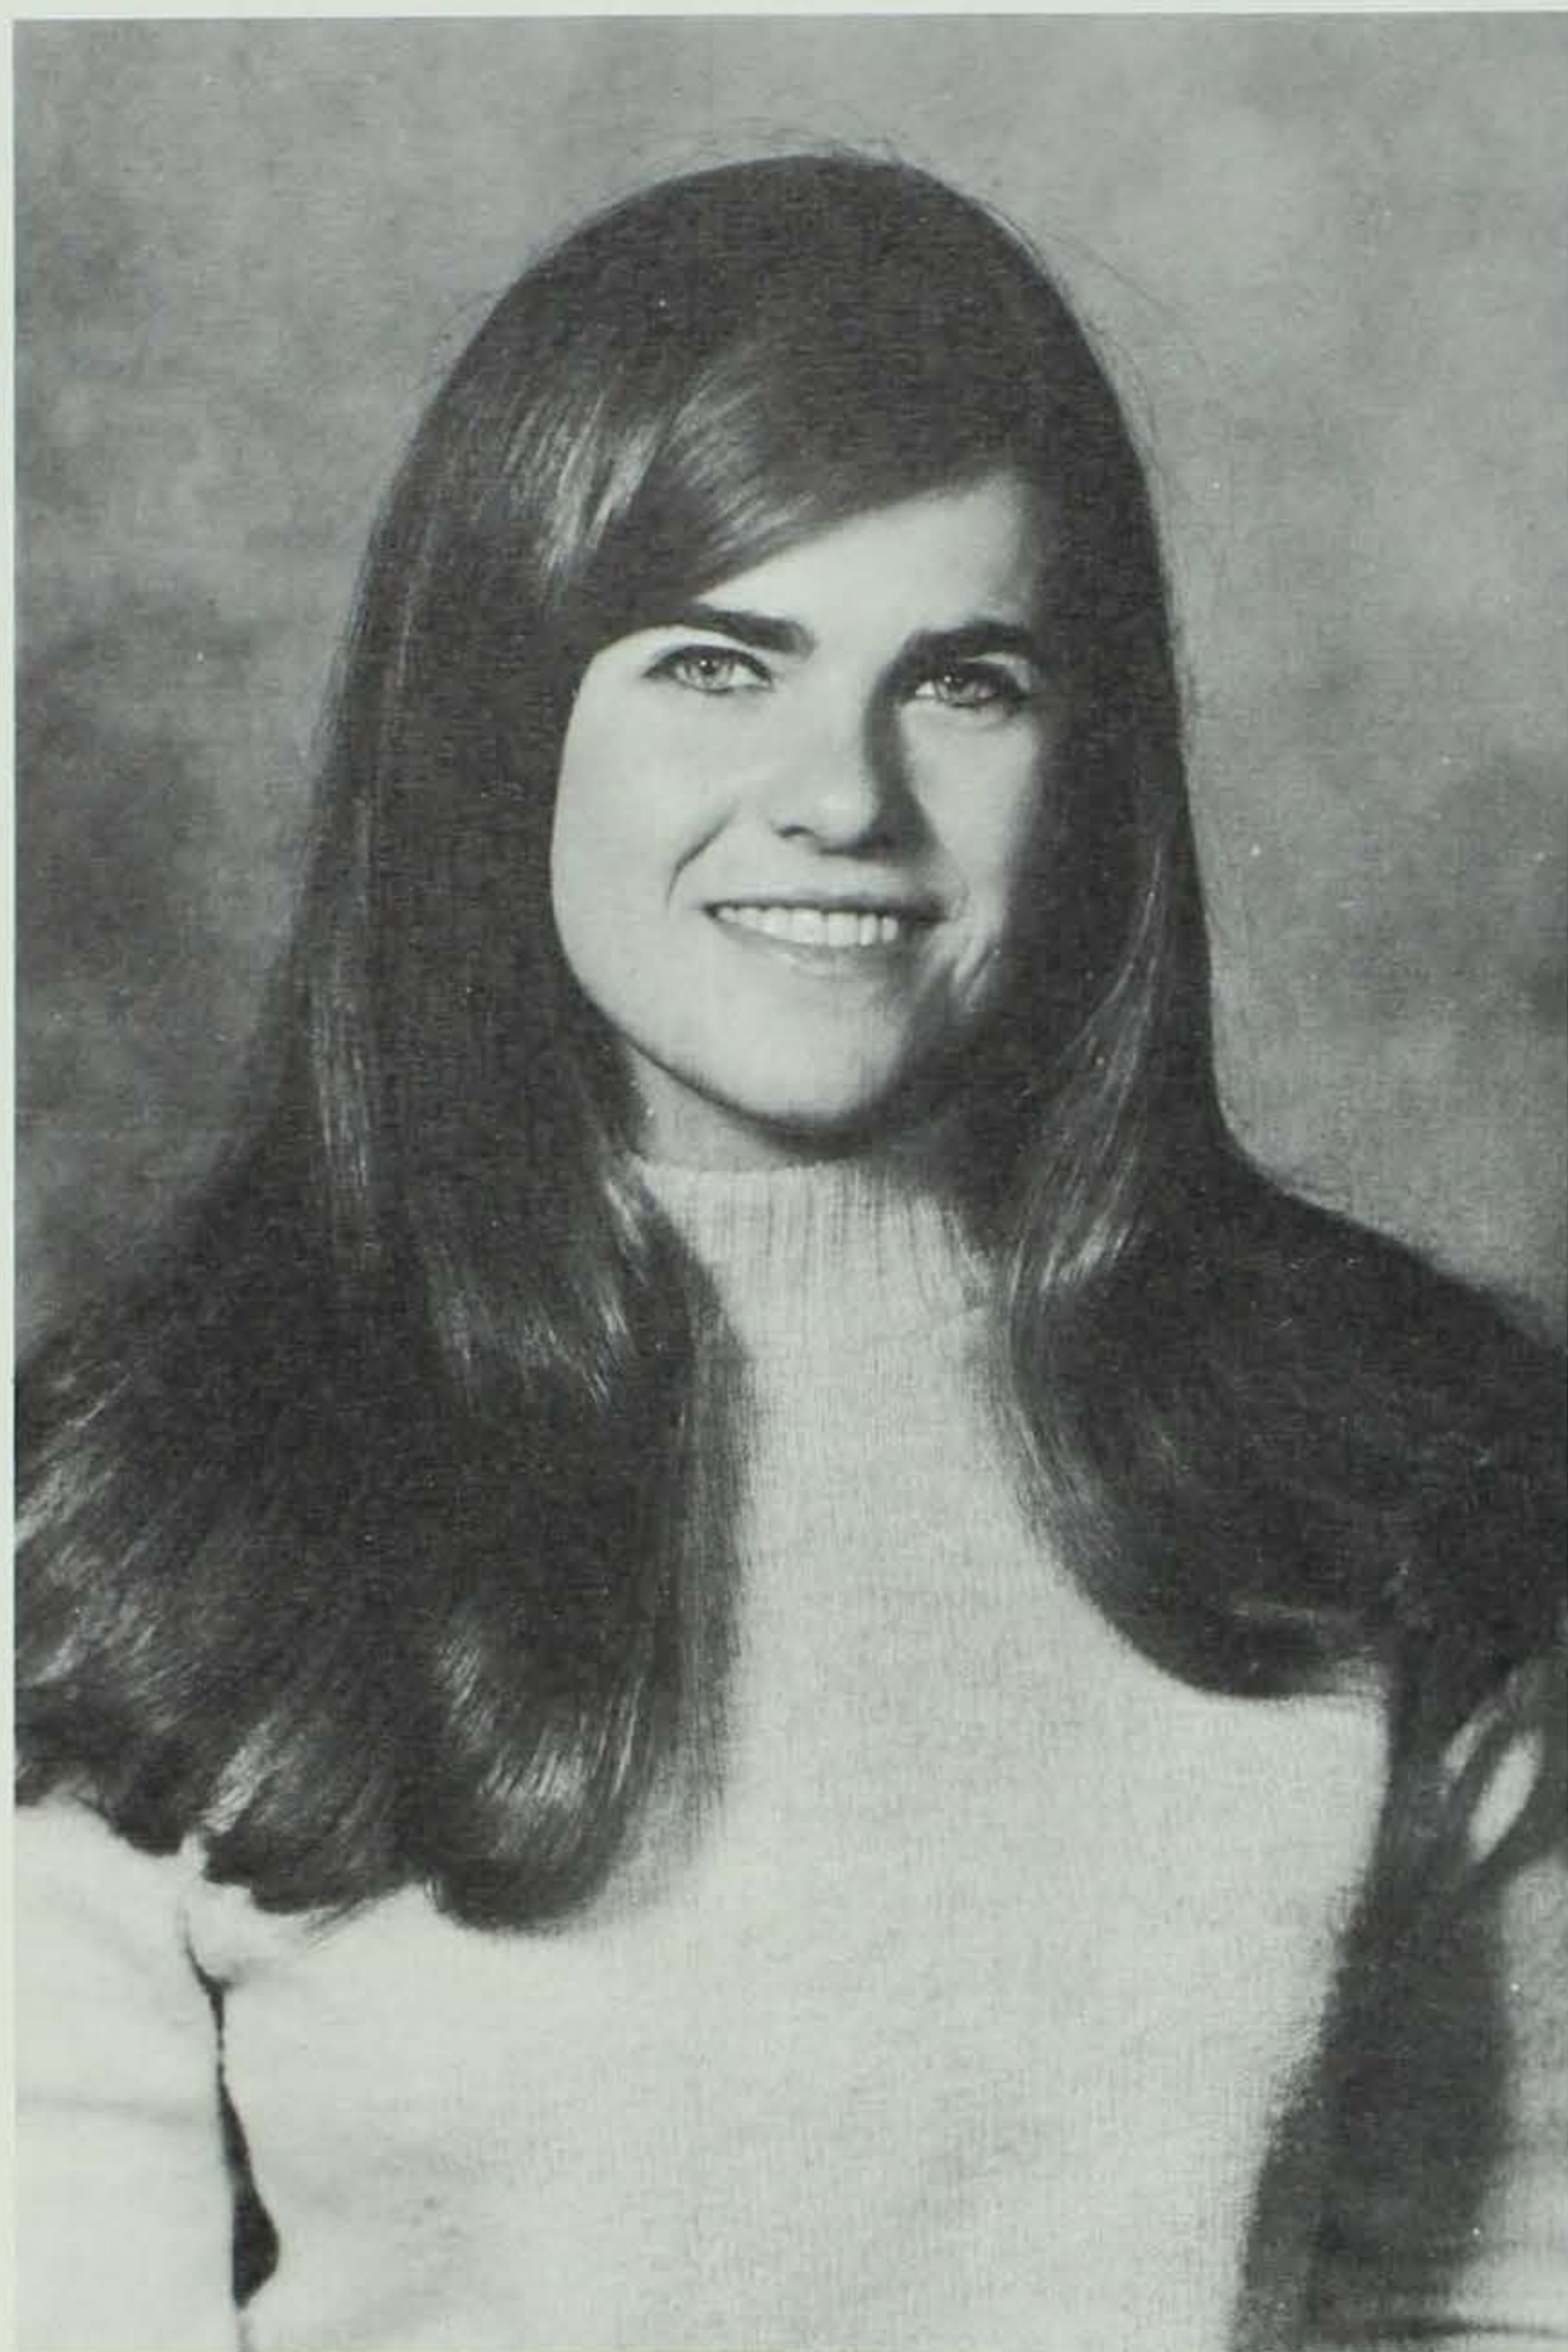

The annual Buena Vista College carnival was marred this spring by rain. The stands sponsored by various organizations on campus were not set up, but the pre-carnival day games were held in spite of the weather. Prizes were awarded for such games as a tricycle race, a gunny sack race, an egg toss, a pie eating contest, a tug-of-war, and a greased pig catching contest.

Even though the carnival was not a huge success, enough students had fun to make it worthwhile. It is hoped that next year the weatherman will see fit to cooperate and help to make the festivities more enjoyable for everyone.

Special

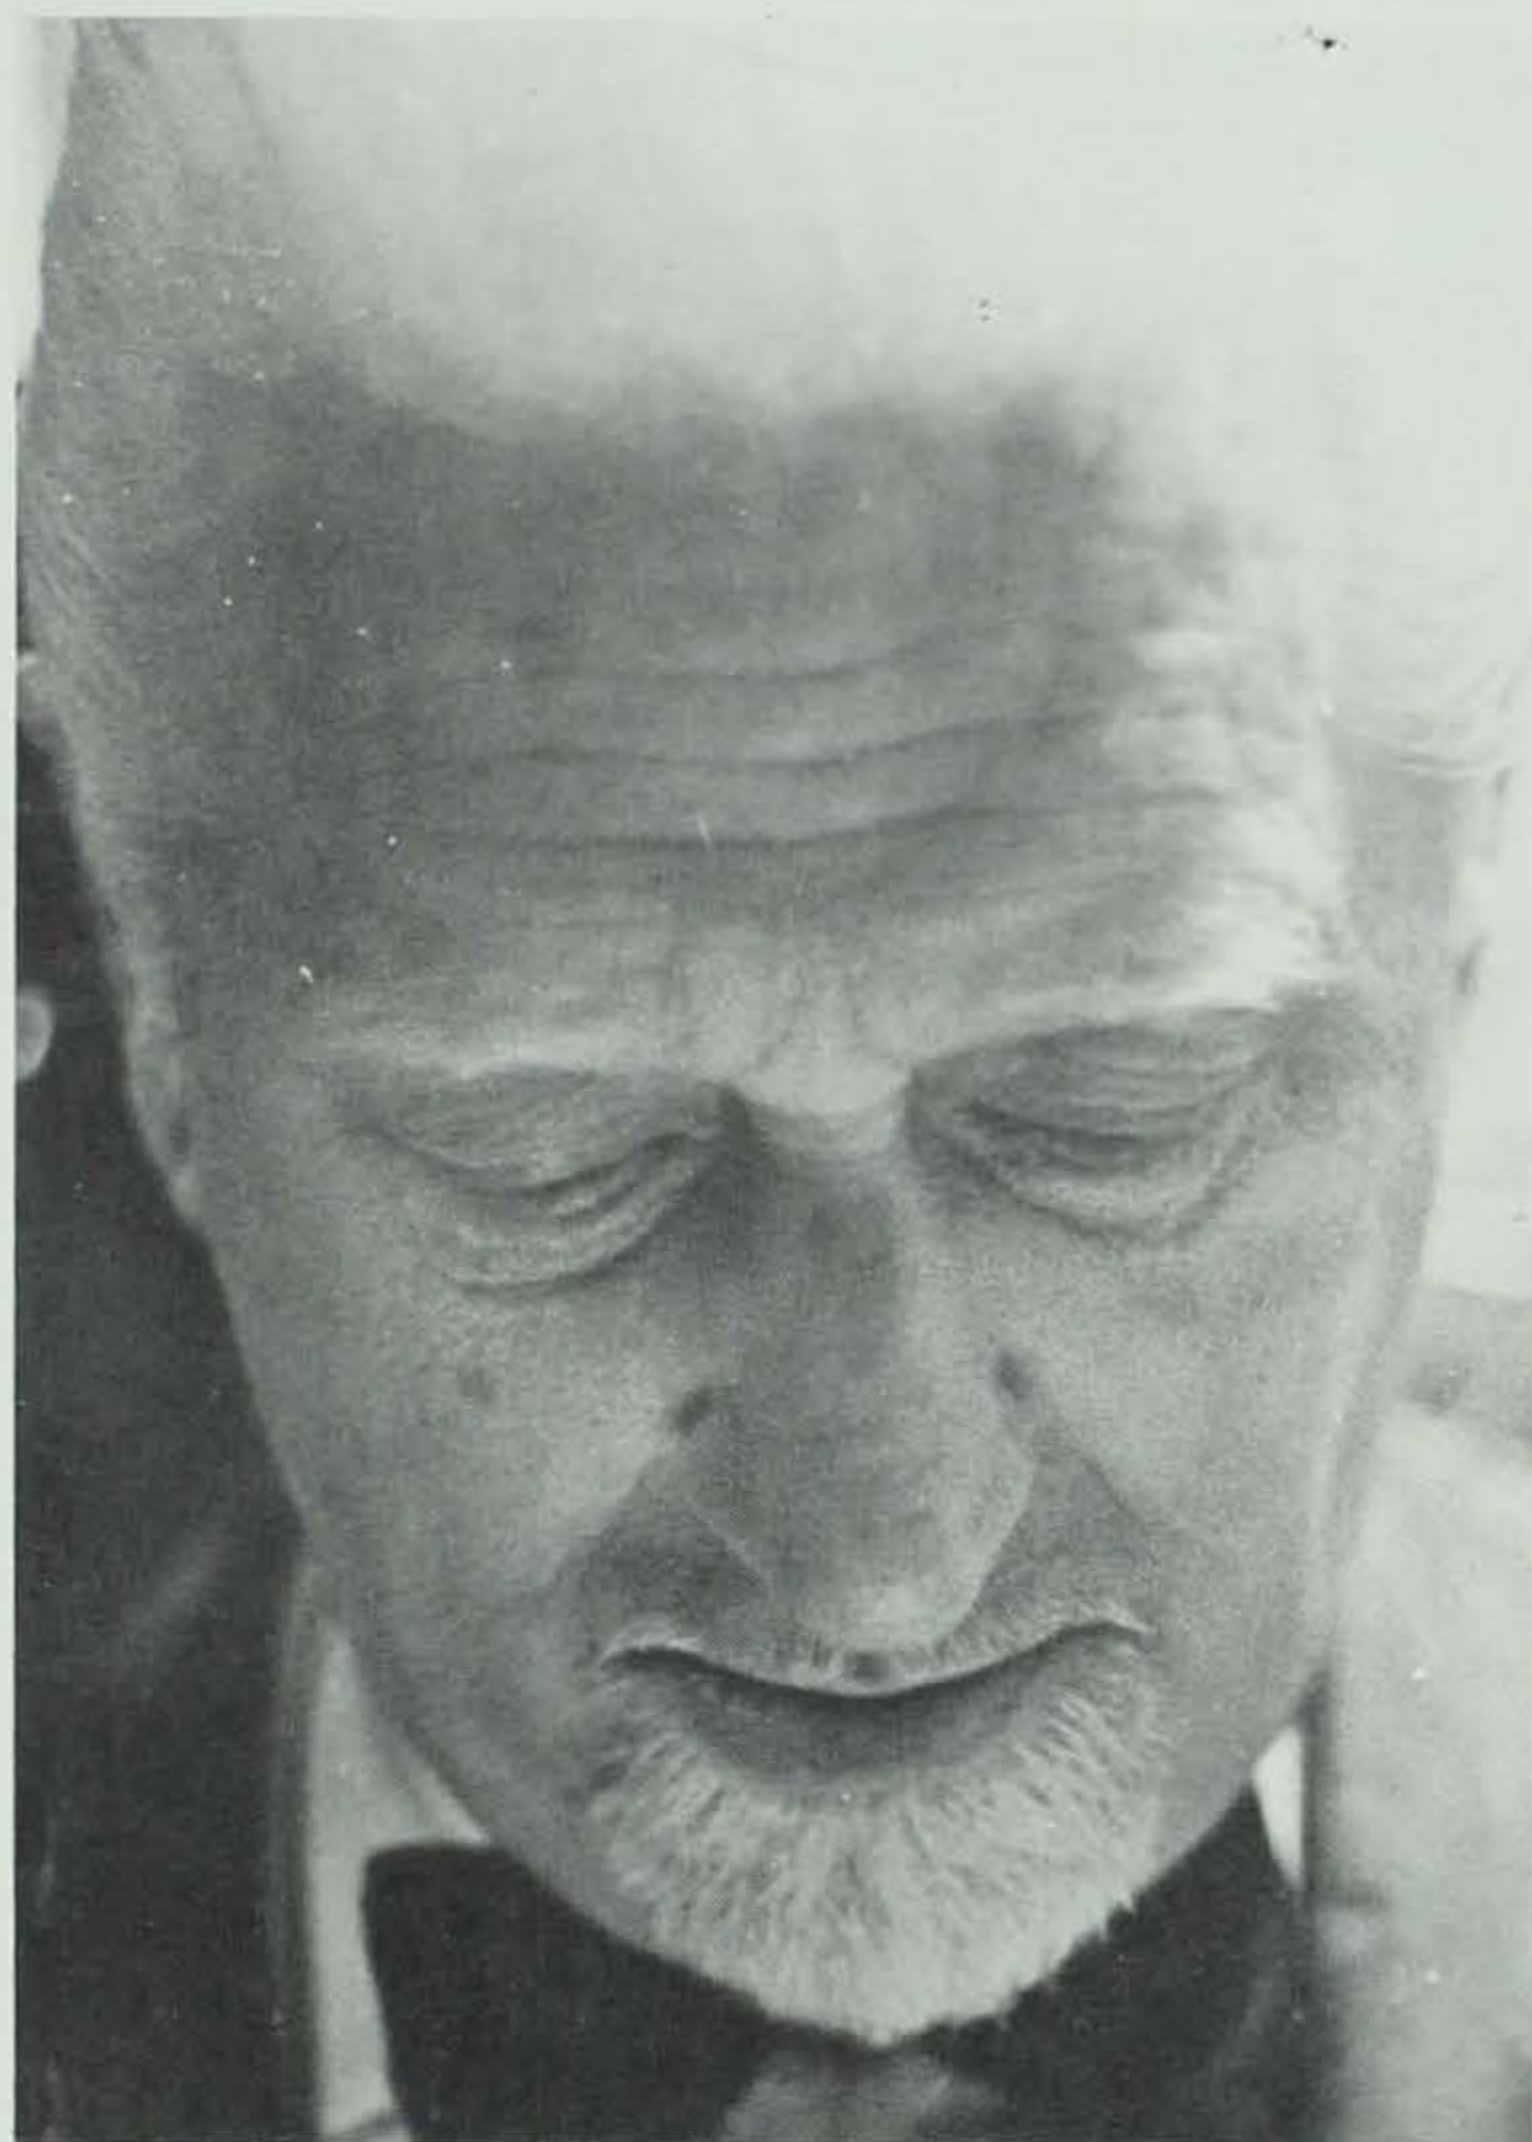

Dr. Clifford Merrill Drury, who graduated from Buena Vista fifty years ago and has since become a noted historian and educator, was honored at the Homecoming festivities as the recipient of the Alumni Association's first Distinguished Service Award.

Val Grey Ward, a Black dramatist, visited our campus in the spring.

Events

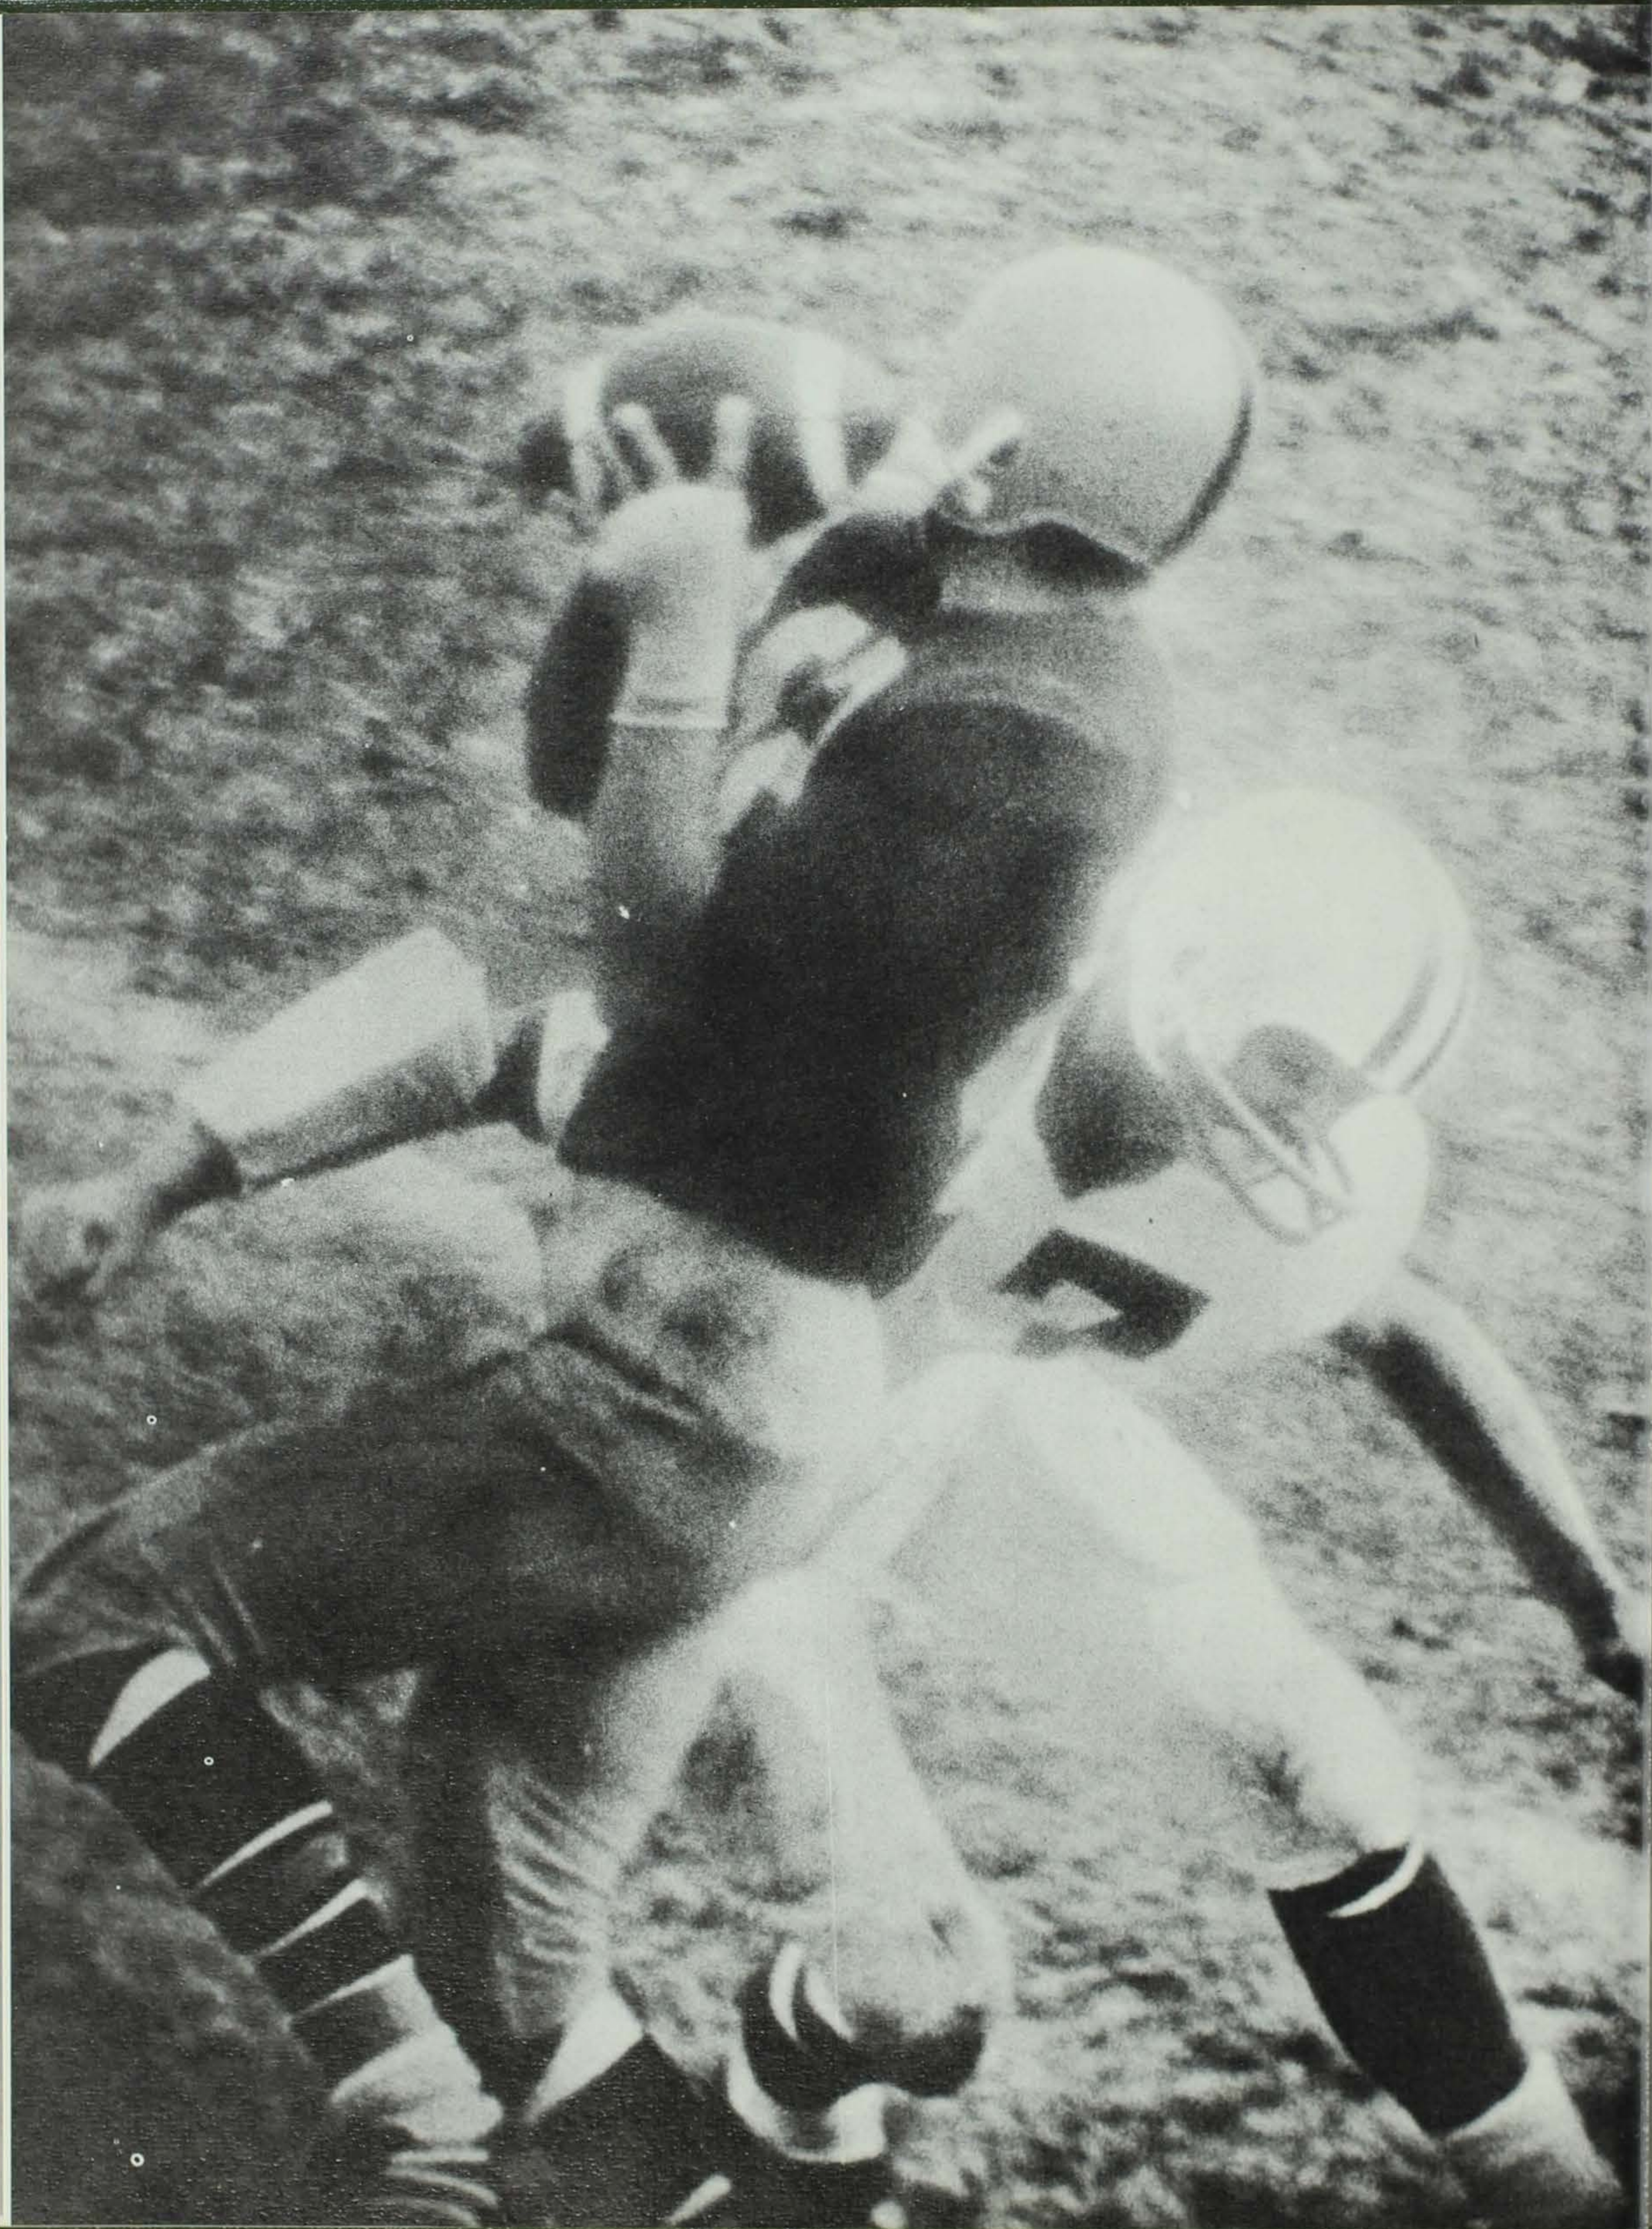

Ruane, the hypnotist, brought the house down at three performances.

Portia Laughlin was elected Iowa College's Young Republican Queen.

Band Took Spring Tour

Ken Pollitt directs a brass ensemble.

The Buena Vista College concert band toured this year into Iowa and Minnesota during the month of March. Their program was selected from all types of music and featured some of the band members as soloists.

A highlight of the tour was a stay in the Radisson Hotel in Minneapolis, where the band was entertained by the Golden Strings in the hotel's Flame Room.

The band embarks on tour.

Christmas Concert and

The men's octet performed throughout the year.

The Christmas concert began with a trumpet fanfare.

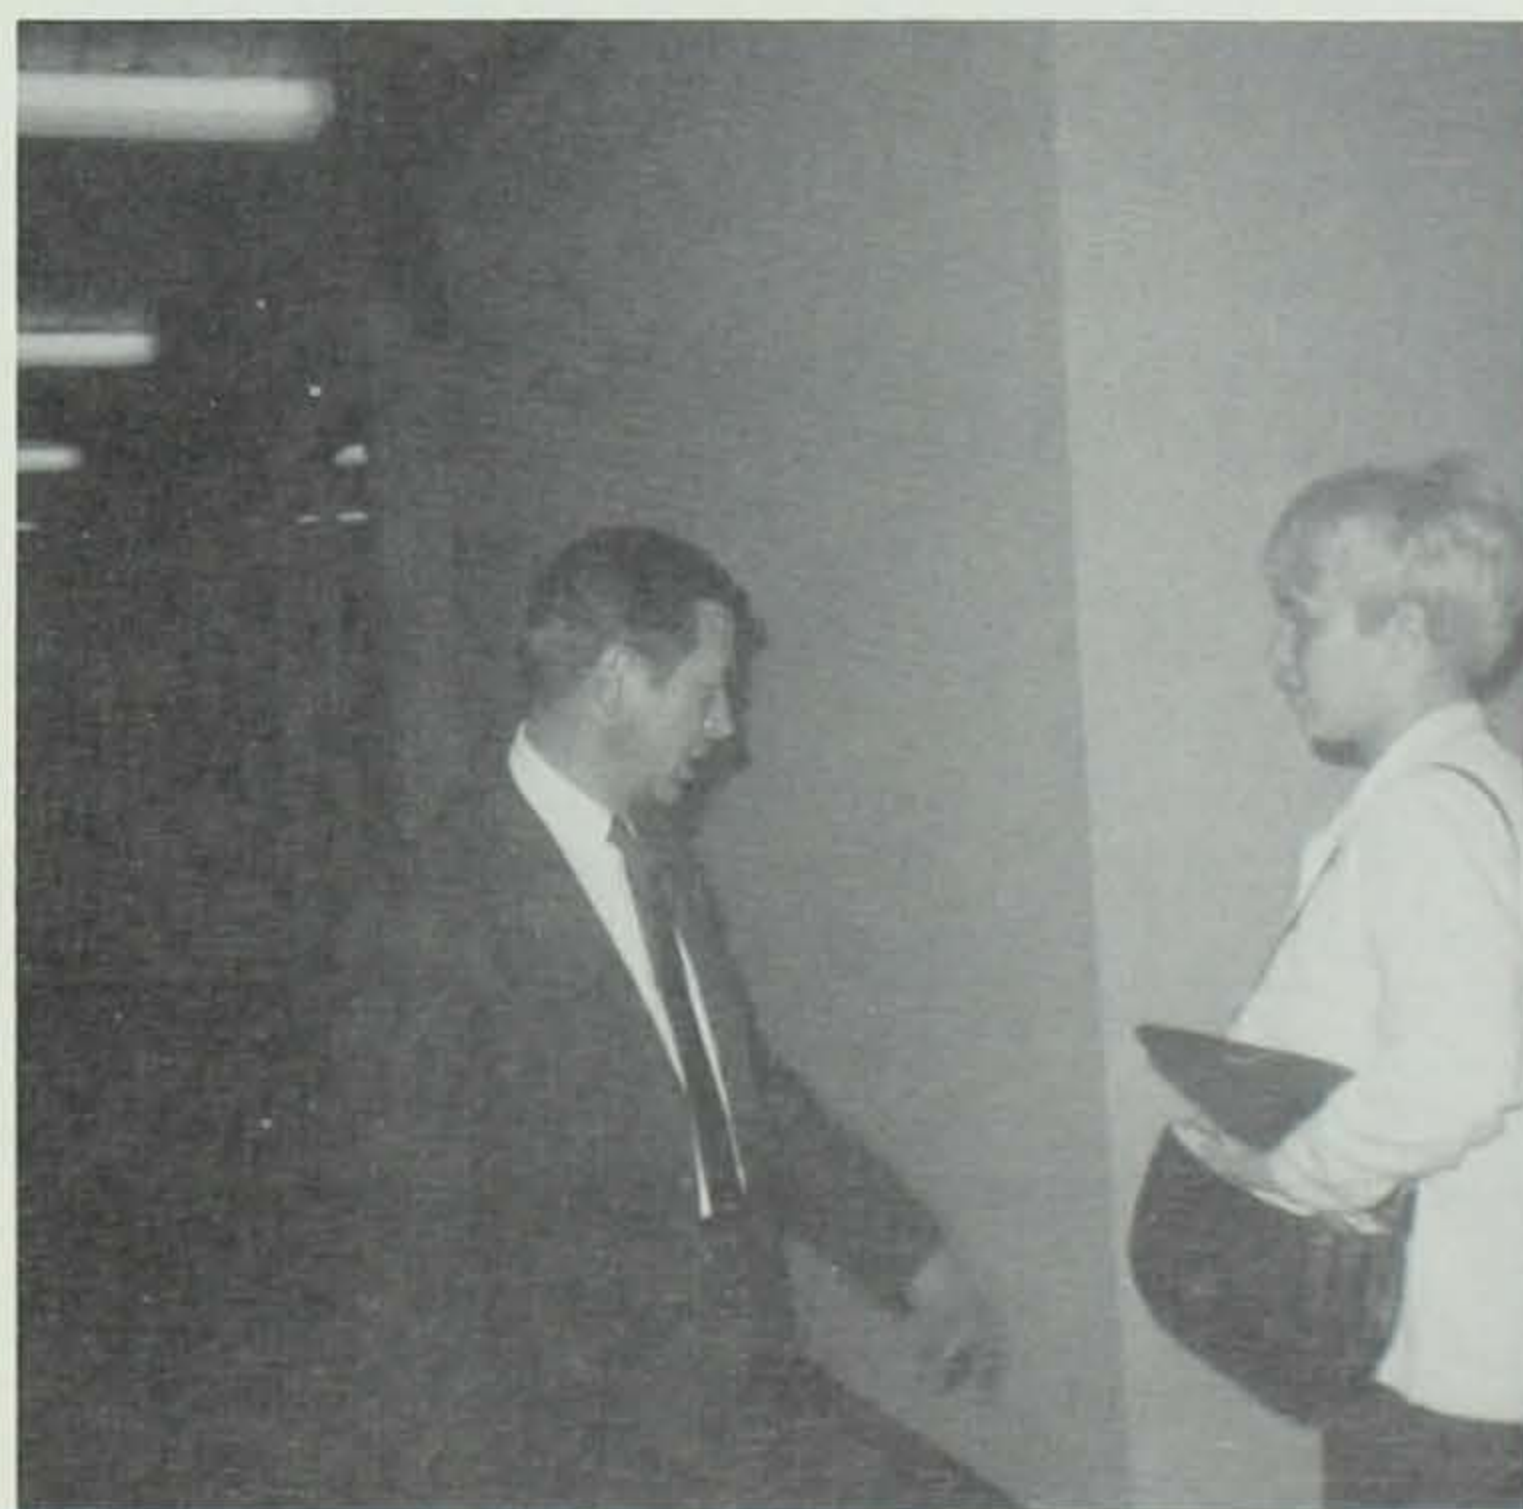

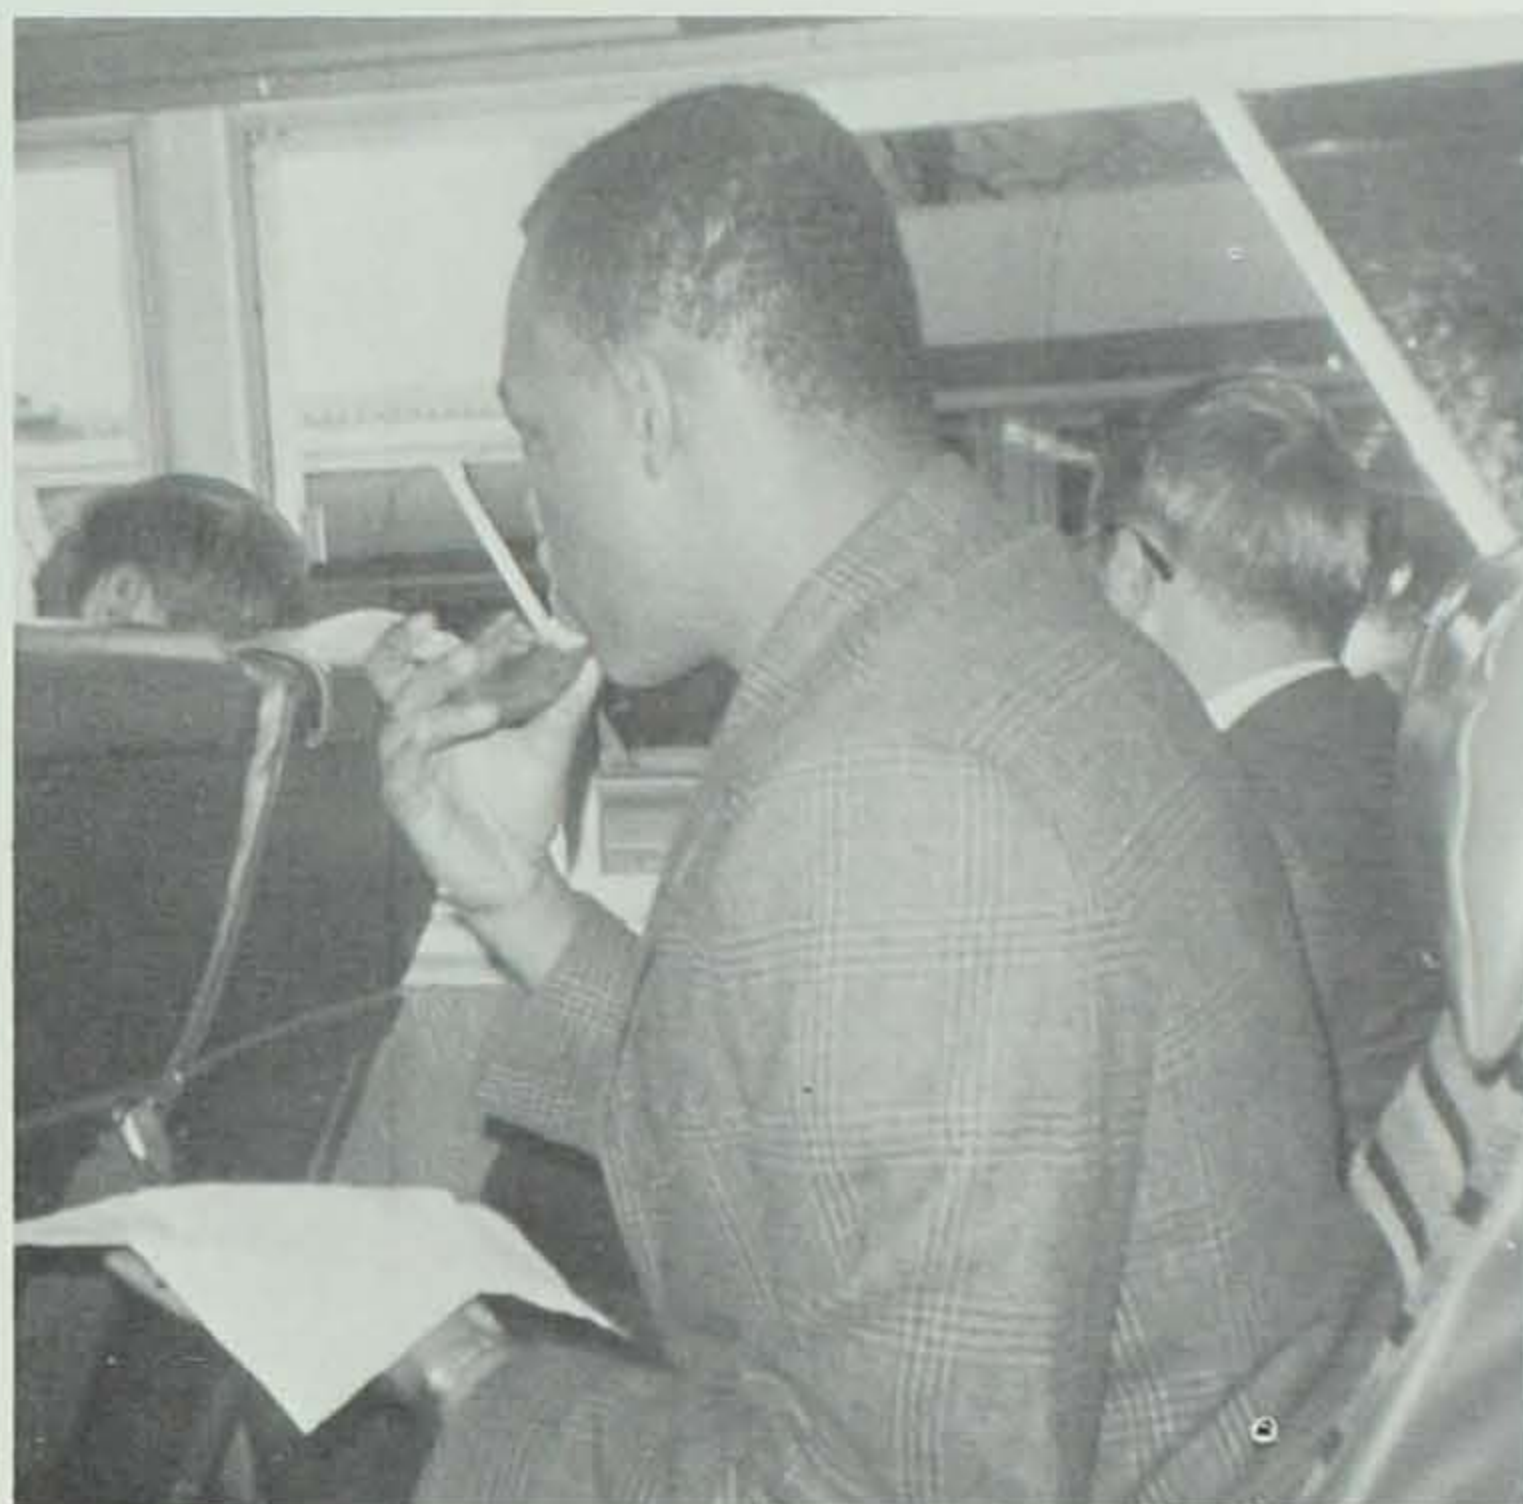

The a cappella choir was a vital part of campus activities this year as it is every year. The choir's Christmas concert was a fine display of pageantry as well as music.

In April the choir took its annual tour, this year to the Chicago area. The choir was privileged to perform in many churches and schools in Iowa, Illinois, and Indiana, including the high school of choir president Ned Fleming.

The final concert of the year was performed in Schaller Memorial Chapel at the close of the tour.

Tour Highlight Year

The Student Council had another successful year. We worked with the faculty and administration to develop the joint conference committee made up of students, faculty, administration and members of the Board of Trustees. The Student Council organized the Homecoming activities in the fall. By using proper communication channels and responsible action, we were able to reduce night courses to three nights per week. We also successfully attempted to improve academic pursuits by expanding our honors system. The council held a gripe-in, giving students an opportunity to express their criticisms and complaints. We have set in motion plans to install a commuter room in Dixon-Eilers Hall and we are presently working with ACTION—a group working to lower the voting age to 18.

The council co-sponsored a confrontation on "The Voice of the Black Man in America." We allotted one-half of our funds to the Student Union Board which planned social activities. The remaining funds were used in student government, hopefully reflecting those aspects on which the students desired improvement. The Student Council is also working to revise its constitution.

In general, the Student Council had a sincere attempt to be an active and responsive voice for the student body of Buena Vista College.

Student Union Board

The Student Union Board is in its second year of operation and, under the leadership of its president, John Racine, it has established a good foundation for future years.

The two main activities sponsored by the Student Union Board this year have been the weekly movies and the numerous dances. The movies have ranged from drama to adventure, from serious to comedy, with such titles as "War Wagon," "Guns of Navarone," "Chamber of Horrors," "Wait Until Dark," "Laurel and Hardy," and Abbott and Costello. The types of bands and dances have also varied from rock and roll to soul. The biggest events of the year were Ernie Terrell, the hypnotist Ruane, and the Spring Formal, held at the Cobblestone at the finale of the Spring Weekend.

The work has been difficult and time-consuming, at times rewarding and other times successful. But the enthusiasm of the Student Union Board members has done a lot to improve the outlook for the future. With increased student ideas and participation, and with an increased budget, the Student Union Board is looking forward to a much more successful and exciting year next year and hopes to have more of a variety of activities planned for Buena Vista's students.

Women's Dorm Council

The governing body of Swope Hall is the House Council, composed of one house representative from each of the ten houses. The House Council makes and reviews all the rules and acts as the disciplinary body of the dormitory.

The Executive Board is composed of President Jan Anderson, Vice President Linda Dettbarn, Secretary Kitty Hardgrove, Treasurer Linda Friedrichsen, and the Committee Chairmen, Ann Anderson (Social), Connie Bruns (Scholarship), Patti Fahey (Recreation), Mardean Morey (Publicity), and Cindy Rice (House Standards).

Swope Hall residents have been very active this year and have seen many improvements. The events included the traditional Big-Little Sister Banquet, a Christmas party, the Yule Log Service, a slumber party, and the Senior Farewell Banquet. In effect now are a new sign-out system and extended hours for the girls; the constitution of Swope Hall has been completely rewritten; and there are plans for physical improvements for the main lobby, the downstairs recreation room, and the individual house lounges.

Through their representative body, the House Council, the girls have brought many changes and have taken a more active interest in the governing of Swope Hall.

Men's Dorm Council

The Men's Dorm Council has tried this year to make the dorms more pleasant for the men who inhabit them. To this end we pledged money to remake Pierce Hall basement for a recreation room and a new TV room. We redecorated White Hall lounge and received many nice compliments on our work.

We tried to run the dorms as we felt the men wanted them run. It is hard to please everyone, but we feel we did a good job.

Our Spring Carnival was not quite the success we had hoped for due largely to the weatherman, but because many students had fun despite this hardship we considered it a worthwhile part of our year.

Pi Kappa Delta

Pi Kappa Delta is a national honorary fraternity for debaters, orators, and forensic speaking. The society strives to promote free speech, as well as high ethics and standards in public speaking.

This year the debaters were invited to the Eastern Invitational Tournament held at Southern Connecticut State College in New Haven, Connecticut. They also journeyed to Omaha and Colorado. At all times the debaters represented Buena Vista College very well.

Sigma Tau Delta

Williams, Suzanne Courtright. 3rd ROW: Nancy Ferry, Steve Weeks, John Siefer, Kathy McLaughlin.

Sigma Tau Delta is an honorary English fraternity whose aim is threefold—to promote a mastery of written expression, to encourage worthwhile reading, and to foster a spirit of good fellowship among students interested in literature and the English language.

The Nu Delta chapter at Buena Vista College enjoyed a year of increased activity. In October the fraternity welcomed five new members. Later in the month the group sponsored an entry in the Homecoming parade. In December a Christmas party was held at the home of Miss Stolee. Mr. Cashore spoke on Albert Camus and his works at our annual open meeting held in January.

During March the fraternity was pleased to have Dr. Russell present a program of his poetry. Later that month we welcomed Dr. Robert Hough, a Twain scholar from the University of Nebraska. We closed the year with our annual banquet at the Embers where we installed our officers for next year. Dr. Peck presented the program.

The papers presented by the members during the year were collected, and it is hoped they will be printed in some form for distribution next year.

Alpha Psi Omega

Emerging from the dark shadows of the theatre, Alpha Psi Omega appeared once again in the spotlight of campus activities. Under the direction of its officers—Alan Parker, president; Frank Skweres, vice-president; Kitty Hardgrove, secretary; and Art Beaulieu, treasurer—this honorary dramatics fraternity initiated into its ranks the following new members: Bill Durling, Jay Friedman, Ingrid Halverson, Dave Shors, and Sid Strong. We also initiated our new faculty sponsor, fresh from the Tyrone Guthrie Theatre of Minneapolis, Mr. Travis Lockhart. The ceremonies were performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Gustafson, to whom we are very grateful.

Alpha Psi Omega is proud of the part it played in the three performances this year, "Our Town," "Candida," and "The Miser." All of them were well attended and gratifyingly successful.

The Buena Vista chapter of S.I.S.E.A. (Student Iowa State Education Association) experimented with different types of programs this year. A panel of six high school seniors from Storm Lake discussed their views of student teachers. The members also enjoyed films and various speeches. Activities included attending the fall regional meeting at Fort Dodge, and the spring regional meeting was held on the Buena Vista campus. Election and installation of the regional officers was on the agenda plus several discussion groups. Two members of S.I.S.E.A. also attended the state conference in Des Moines.

The purposes of S.I.S.E.A. are many. It strives to develop among the members of the organization a local education association which offers its members all the opportunities, responsibilities, and privileges of associate membership in the National and Iowa State Education Associations. It also strives to develop a program designed to acquaint all students with the history, ethics, and program of the organized teaching profession, showing them the importance of membership in a professional organization.

Phi Alpha Theta

Phi Alpha Theta is an international honor society in history. Among its aims are the promotion of historical research, advancement in the teaching field, and communication of ideas and thoughts on history. Under the advisorship of Dr. George Reynolds and with the aid of Dr. William Cumberland, the Kappa Chi chapter has attempted to aspire to these aims.

The fraternity was honored to have as speakers Mr. Cecil Reed with a discussion on current racial problems, and Dr. Francis Bowman who is an authority on 17th and 18th century history and the Balkans. In March, our chapter participated in a regional meeting at Iowa State University, at which time Daryl Beall delivered a paper.

Membership requires a minimum of 18 completed hours in history with at least a 3.1 average, and a 3.00 GPA in two-thirds of all completed college work. We are proud to have initiated 8 new members this past year.

Art Club

The Art Club of Buena Vista College, the Fauves, is a newcomer to the field of campus activities and is open to anyone interested in art. The club seeks to provide opportunities in which enthusiastic students can utilize their talent in serving the campus where art work is needed to stimulate a greater appreciation of art by discussions and club projects.

The year's activities for the club included making an art film presented at the Homecoming Variety Show, exchanging art shows with Westmar College, and helping secure and make improvements on the new art gallery.

Officers for the year were as follows: president—Marilyn Buchinsky, vice-president—Diane Adams Shipley, and secretary—Mary Steiner.

Log Staff

The job of the "Log" staff is to produce a yearbook, which at times proves to be an almost impossible task. This year's staff was headed by editor Linda Cullison and assistant editor Steve Weeks who also wrote the copy for the yearbook.

The "Log" staff was aided by a great many people including Mr. Johnnie Powell who did so much to produce the pictures necessary to any yearbook. The staff wishes to thank these people very much. We hope they enjoy the yearbook in a special way because of the part they had in making it possible.

The "Log" staff is responsible for your memories of the past year. We hope that in some small way we have made it possible for you to remember the last year and say you enjoyed it.

Tack Staff

This year's "Tack" was, at best, hurried. The "Tack" started off the year with Joel Francis as editor, but at the second semester the lead was turned over to Bob Boylan and his assistant editor Jim Walde. Under this illustrious pair, the paper prospered and grew. The humor exhibited in every issue was greatly enjoyed and reached a climax in the "Stoned Sober" issue of the paper.

This year's "Tack" staff took an active interest in student affairs and tried to represent the students as much as possible. It is hoped that this policy will be continued and extended by next year's staff.

M.E.N.C.

Heusinkveld, Sharon Musgrave, Allan Amandus, Mark Swartz.

Music Educator's National Conference is an organization for students studying in the field of music education. M.E.N.C. provides the student with a look into the future and what he can expect in his chosen profession as a music instructor.

This year's membership included sixteen students. M.E.N.C. was privileged this year to have some of its own members speak to the organization about their impressions of student teaching. The group joined in a Christmas caroling party and attended the many concerts and recitals held on campus throughout the year.

F.C.A.

Spittal, Barry Beekmann, Giles Struck, Paul Boock, Steve Heikens.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes was organized over ten years ago as an interdenominational, inter-racial, nonprofit fellowship dedicated to the worthy task of confronting athletes and coaches—and through them the youth of the nation—with the challenge and adventure of following Christ in the fellowship of the church.

The Buena Vista chapter of F.C.A. strove to achieve this purpose through their activities this year. The group sent out teams to area churches to provide worship services for the congregations. They were also pleased to act as hosts for Max Stratton, the regional director of F.C.A., who was a guest speaker on campus in the spring.

PEMM Club

Mrs. Peterson, Patti King, Sheila Bonsall. 3rd ROW: Elaine Parris, Ann Anderson, Linda Weik, Miss Henry, Sherry Hanson, Jan Bottin.

PEMM (Physical Education Majors and Minors) Club is an organization that provides a professional association for the majors and minors in women's physical education at Buena Vista College. It was organized in 1962 and later in the spring of 1963, the group received a charter from the American Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, thus giving it a national affiliation.

The activities began in September with an informal picnic for the freshmen and returning members. At Homecoming, we took part in the variety show and sponsored a queen candidate. For the annual Christmas Party, the club went caroling to the Buena Vista County Home and the Methodist Manor Nursing Home. A banquet for the installation of new officers was held in May to close out the year.

PEMM Club officers for the 1968-69 year were: Jan Bottin, president; Jeannie Patterson, vice-president; and Linda Muench, secretary-treasurer. Faculty sponsors were Miss Harriet Henry and Mrs. Elizabeth Peterson.

Lettermen

The Lettermen remained as one of the foremost groups on our campus this year. The goals strived for by the group were better relationships with the entire faculty as well as our staunch athletic department.

Initiation of two fine groups of men was accomplished as well as the job of running concession stands at our athletic events.

The Letterman Club looks forward to making progress in making better relationships and attaining a higher point of recognition from the entire student body in the forthcoming year.

Drill Team

ton, Mary Brewster, Teri Woodward, Sandra Ackley, Colette Koobs. 4th ROW: Lois Anderson, Linda Goebel, Jan Anderson, Linda Leonard, Michele Nicholls.

The twenty member Buena Vista Drill Team added color and pep to the football and basketball games as well as the Homecoming parade. Their superbly executed, fine-precisioned pom-pom routines were performed at the half-times of the games and were a delight to all the spectators.

Cheerleaders

One of the most anticipated events of the early school year was the election of the cheerleaders. The committee of faculty members and lettermen who chose the cheerleaders picked five regulars and two alternates. Mitzi Kotval was the captain and Miss Harriet Henry was the advisor.

Sports events would not be the same without the enthusiastic support of our beautiful cheerleaders. Their organized cheering led the teams to some victories, while they encouraged the entire student body to back the teams in their efforts. They led the cheers for the Homecoming pep rally uptown, sold Homecoming buttons, rode in the parade on Saturday, and yelled and cheered for the Beavers in the afternoon. In short, this year they were more active and better than ever.

Circle K is an international college men's service club sponsored by Kiwanis International. One of its major objectives is to develop leadership through service. The Circle K Club of Buena Vista College was the 13th club chartered in Circle K International. Since then it has had a distinguished history, winning several international awards.

This year has been a busy one for Circle K with over 3,000 man-hours of service to the campus and the community. One of the big projects for the year has been our work at the Cherokee Mental Health Institute. At the institute the men of Circle K tutored, helped in woodworking, aided the elementary teacher, planned musical programs and worked in recreation. Over the second semester 600 man-hours of work were put in on this project and over 3,000 miles in driving back and forth to Cherokee. We won the Nebraska—Iowa district single service award with this project.

We have also had several other large projects during the year. In the fall we picked a test plot of corn for the De Kalb company. This took several weekends, but aided the club treasury. In the spring we had a tandem bike race against the Gammas from Storm Lake to Des Moines. Along the way both organizations collected money for the Heart and Cancer Funds and for Biafran Relief. Circle K was the winner by virtue of collecting the most money.

Celtic Cross

Patti King. 3rd ROW: Linda Conklin, Gloria Pauluk, Phyllis Sacks, Elaine Uittenbogaard, Jean Kluver.

Celtic Cross has tried to provide an experience in growth and communication for the students on campus who are concerned about their lives as Christians. Students and faculty joined in seeking answers to the questions of identity and responsibility in the Church and world.

Deputation teams, campus worship services, and varied meetings were used as means of expressing the Christian message and achieving more unity in faith and action.

Young Democrats

The Young Democrats was a small but active organization. On campus we organized a confrontation with a speaker for the Black man. We initiated a proposal to have a discrimination week on campus which will occur during the 1969-1970 year. We are developing plans for a symposium on human relations in order to enlighten students on various social problems.

We campaigned for the liberal Democratic candidates in the fall and have engaged ourselves in letter writing to our Congressmen. At the state convention Steve Heikens was elected to the state executive board. Presently we are planning actions pertinent to some of the resolutions passed at the state convention. We are petitioning each Iowa college to lower its flag to half mast until the Vietnam war is ended. We are organizing boycotts against California grapes to help the migrant workers secure adequate living conditions. We are co-ordinating activities with other liberal groups to lobby in the Iowa legislature for 18-year-old voting.

The Young Democrats choose to be a speaking voice for liberal ideas. We worked to promote interest in government and party work but our greatest aim was to acquaint voters with issues and candidates and to actively work to improve human relationships among people everywhere.

Young Republicans

1st ROW: Portia Laughlin, Dale Collins, Jane Dixon, Kathy Roufs, Karen Larson, Char Badaracco. 2nd ROW: Nick Stamat, Phil Wells, Gail Meckstroth, Margy Barber, Bill

Griswold, John West, Dr. George Reynolds. 3rd ROW: Ken Mirabella, Scott Achtner, Ken Lembrich, Phil SiligmueLLer, Robert West, Jack Zadow.

The Young Republicans had an exciting and very enjoyable year. This year was highlighted by the election of Jack Zadow as president and Frank Charlet as vice-president; the conventions for college Young Republicans in Des Moines where Portia Laughlin was elected queen for the Young Republicans of Iowa; and the door-to-door collection for funds to be used in the campaign and for the activities of the organization.

The Young Republicans wish to thank Dr. George Reynolds for all his fine work in sponsoring and helping the club.

Alpha Mu Omega

Alpha Mu Omega, women's music sorority, was newly organized this year. The sorority's goal is to provide sisterhood for those women interested in promoting the enjoyment of music.

The group worked hard to write its constitution, and to lay the groundwork for a spring pledge period. Three pledges dressed as mice for "Dissonance Day" and finished their pledge period by entertaining the actives with a recital to prove their musical abilities. The Carlson House provided an excellent setting for the activation ceremonies and installation of the new officers.

Phi Mu Alpha

Phi Mu Alpha is the largest professional honorary fraternity in the world with over three hundred chartered chapters. Mu Omega chapter at Buena Vista College was founded in 1965. We are a brotherhood of men with a common interest—a love of music. We welcome any man who genuinely displays a keen liking for music. We are not exclusively music majors, but rather have virtually every major field represented in our fraternity.

Each year we participate in the Homecoming parade, the Variety Show, caroling parties, and our annual American Composers Concert. Within our organization we have a men's chorus and the Phi Mu Alpha sextet featuring Ned Fleming. We strive to perform only the best in music as professionally as possible. We pride ourselves in our ideals and fellowship among men with a like interest.

Delta Phi Beta

Homecoming activities and the annual Parents' Day Tea started off another busy year for Delta Phi Beta. The Betas actively participated in Homecoming events as their float, "Give them the Lanc-e-lot," won the Sweepstakes award, and their skit, "C'est Moi," from "Camelot," took second place honors in the Variety Show. Betas Margy Barber, Jane Berglund, and Marilyn Buchinsky were candidates for Homecoming queen, and the Betas attended their annual Alliance Luncheon on Homecoming Day in Storm Lake.

Winter activities included Christmas caroling and a Christmas party. The Betas also journeyed to Sioux City for a weekend of movie going and Christmas shopping.

In February Miss Dorothy Skewis of Storm Lake was made an honorary Beta for all of the time she has devoted as a patroness of the sorority. Later in the month Queen Lois Wilkens and King Denny Bock reigned over the annual Beta Heart Hop.

Spring found Delta Phi Beta engaged in numerous activities including an ice cream social rush party, an inner-sorority style show and the traditional Senior Farewell, which was a progressive dinner at the homes of sorority sponsors and patronesses. Of course, not to be forgotten, is the spring pledge period and Hell Week, which found six "Beta Bandits" terrorizing the Beta actives.

Officers for 1968-1969 were: Mitzi Kotval, president; Ronette Yarger, vice-president; Jane Berglund, inter-sorority president; Sue Green, secretary; Linda Friedrichsen, treasurer; Karen Rounds, historian; Elaine Parris, reporter; Shari Strader, inter-sorority representative; and Marilyn Buchinsky, pledge trainer. Under their direction Delta Phi Beta added another successful year to their list of accomplishments.

Phi Alpha Pi

The Phi Alpha Pi sorority had a very exciting and active year in 1968-1969. Our sponsors were Mrs. Richard Cook and Mrs. Carl Larson. Our officers were: president, Marjo Pomplun; vice-president, Wanda Wood; secretary, Jana Martin; and treasurer, Marlene Groenewold.

The fall activities began with Fall Rush. An ISC informal party was held in the cafeteria with the theme patterned after TV's "Laugh-In." Our banquet was held at the Embers after which six of the rushees took the Phi Alpha bid.

After Rush activities our attention went to Homecoming. We entered a skit in the Variety Show and received 3rd prize for it. Saturday's parade contained two of our floats, one by the pledges and another by the sorority. The Best Organization Award went to the sorority float. The climax of the weekend was the crowning of our sister Wanda Wood as Homecoming queen. Diane McCabe, another sister, was a member of her court. Our alliance luncheon at the Steak House was attended by about thirty members.

At Christmas we made cookies and collected toys to be given to orphans and underprivileged children in the area. We then held our annual Bootie Exchange.

Our Activation Banquet was held at the Embers. After this, Spring Rush was beginning. We started it off with an informal ISC Tea held in Swope Hall lounge. Our informal party was done with the theme of Phi Alpha Isles. Later our Rush Banquet was held at the Embers. We then retreated to Fort Dodge for a very successful Slumber Party. Hell night and a swimming party was enjoyed by almost everyone.

We ended the year with an Alliance and Patroness Tea at which we installed our officers for next year.

Gamma Sigma Phi

Gamma Sigma Phi has enjoyed a year rich in experiences and fun. We added a total of nine young men to our fraternity this year and look for more fine years with them as future leaders.

The Gammas enjoyed many parties this year including our Homecoming alumni tea, our annual Thanksgiving dinner, a Halloween party, and a Christmas party. We also had great fun building our float and preparing for the Variety Show.

This year also saw the first issue of the "Horn," an alumni newspaper, which will continue as a tradition.

We enjoyed entering the football, baseball, and basketball intramurals even if our success was less than fastastic.

Our annual charity bike ride took on a new flavor this year as we raced Circle K on tandem bikes to Des Moines. Lots of fun was had by all the fellows, and in spite of many sore muscles, all survived. We were able to collect a good sum of money.

The Senior Farewell Banquet topped off a successful year. At this time we said goodbye to Ron Baumann, Jack Gerlovich, John Glasgow, Rick Lampe, Ken Mirabella, Rick Morton, Pete Scarano, Frank Skweres, Steve Weeks, and Dick Welton.

A special word of thanks goes to Dr. Kline and his wife for acting as our sponsor this year. It's not easy to be a fraternity sponsor but Dr. Kline did a very fine job.

Kappa Tau Delta

The year 1968-1969 was without a doubt one of the best in the history of Kappa Tau Delta. The fall semester began with the pledging of twelve men, all of whom became actives that same semester. Due to the efforts of these pledges and the ten actives from the previous year, the brotherhood of Kappa Tau Delta won first place in the school spirit division in the Homecoming Variety Show. The fraternity also captured second place with their float in the Homecoming parade.

The Kappas were proud to have their president Tom "Doc" Daniels serve as president of the Student Council as well. Vice-president Ned Lenox held that same office on the Student Council and was elected president of the Student Council for the 1969-1970 school year. Dan Patera and Kevin Uden, both fall pledges were elected co-captains of next year's wrestling team.

The brotherhood of Kappa Tau Delta is always sad to lose such fine brothers as Hasan Akbar, Rufus Staton, Kevin Christel, Ed Schoenenberger, Phil Ross, Greg Clawson, John Langhout, Don Reinken, and Dave Naughton by graduation and transfer. We are, however, looking forward to another good year in 1969-1970.

Delta Phi Rho

The Gamma chapter of Delta Phi Rho fraternity enjoyed a successful and gratifying year. Homecoming 1968 saw the Delts entry in the float contest, "A Toast to the Beavers" take the first prize money. The brothers and alumni, who attended an alumni coffee just prior to the Homecoming game, were delighted to see Miss Wanda Wood, the Delt candidate, win Homecoming queen.

Christmas was a special time, not only for the brothers, but for twenty orphans at the Midwestern Christian Children's Home as well. The children were the recipients of the Christmas for Orphans drive which was climaxed by the handing out of gifts by Santa Claus at a spectacular party at the orphanage.

Other on-campus activities included winning teams in football, basketball, and softball; "Election dinner" at the cafeteria; weekly hot dog sales; and participation by members in over a dozen school organizations.

Delta Phi Rho is a social fraternity, and parties this year were too numerous to mention. Highlighting the season this year were a weekend Winter Formal in North Sioux City, a weekend lake party at Okoboji, a pheasant fry, a woodsie, and a number of live band parties.

Officers for this year were: Steve Spark, president; Bart Figg, vice-president; Dale Strohmaier, secretary; and Terry Frediani, executive-at-large.

Board of Trustees

The members of the Board of Trustees are the men who are held legally responsible for Buena Vista College. These men are nominated by the Board itself and elected to staggered three-year terms by the Synod of Iowa. The Trustees handled a number of very difficult problems throughout the year including plans for the expansion of Buena Vista.

The Board meets several times each year on the Buena Vista campus, and functions effectively under six standing committees.

President Halverson

Dr. Wendell Q. Halverson became the fifteenth president of Buena Vista College in 1961. Prior to coming to Storm Lake he had filled several pastorates in the states of Illinois and Ohio. He once held the position of General Presbyter in New York. President Halverson holds a bachelors degree from the State University of Iowa, and received his B.D. from Union Theological Seminary in New York City. He has done additional graduate study at Oberlin University, the University of Oslo, the University of Chicago, and the Chicago Lutheran Seminary.

Vice-Presidents

Dr. William D. Wesselink serves as Vice-President in charge of Student Affairs, a post created in 1966. His office is in charge of coordinating and overseeing the work of the Dean of Women and Dean of Men and assists students in guidance in areas of personal and academic problems. Dr. Wesselink is also in charge of the committee which allocates student aid. He also assists many campus organizations in solving many difficult problems.

Dr. Wesselink received his B.A. degree from Central College in 1931 with a major in mathematics. In 1932 he was graduated from the University of Iowa with a major in education, and since then he has done additional graduate work at the University of Iowa and Minnesota University. In 1960 he received an LL.D. from Central College.

Dr. Wesselink served at Buena Vista as Vice-President of Academic Affairs from 1961 to 1966 and was acting president of the college from 1953 to 1954.

Mr. Charles J. Zalesky has served as Vice-President of Business Affairs since coming to Buena Vista in 1959. He was previously employed by Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. Zalesky has a wide variety of duties and responsibilities as Vice-President. He estimates the income of the college and helps to set up a budget for each year. His office is in charge of keeping the accounts of all the campus organizations, as well as keeping all of the financial records for the college and preparing financial statements for the Board of Trustees and other groups.

Mr. Zalesky received his B.A. degree from Washington State College in 1938, and he has done graduate study at the University of Omaha.

His activities include membership in the Elks, Rotary, the Association for Higher Education, the National Association of Educational Buyers, the National Association of College and University Business Officers, and the College and University Personnel Association.

2 Williams in Top Jobs

Mr. Lester Williams came to Buena Vista College in 1954. He serves in the position of Executive Assistant to the President. Mr. Williams performs a variety of duties which aid President Halverson in many ways.

He received his B.A. degree from Ursinus College in 1931, his B.D. from Yale Divinity School in 1934, and his M.A., from the University of Pittsburgh in 1948.

Mr. John P. Williams holds the position of Dean of the Faculty. He came to Buena Vista in 1966. One of his functions is the making of decisions on student petitions of an academic nature.

He received his B.A. from Marion in 1944, his M.A., from Western Reserve University in 1951, and his Ph.D. from the University of Michigan in 1961.

2 New Deans This Year

Mrs. Corrine Vint came to Buena Vista this year as Dean of Women. Her duties were many and varied in this position.

Mrs. Vint received her B.A. in 1955 from the University of Northern Iowa. After teaching music for a time she returned to UNI for graduate work. She earned her masters in music and education in 1968.

Mr. David Palmer, Dean of Men, was also new to Buena Vista this year. He had previously been a residence hall director and academic counselor, as well as an instructor in orientation for college freshmen in Columbus, Ohio.

He earned his B.A. in 1965 from Hanover College, Hanover, Indiana. He received his M.A. from Ohio State University in 1967 and has done additional work toward his doctorate there.

Language Department

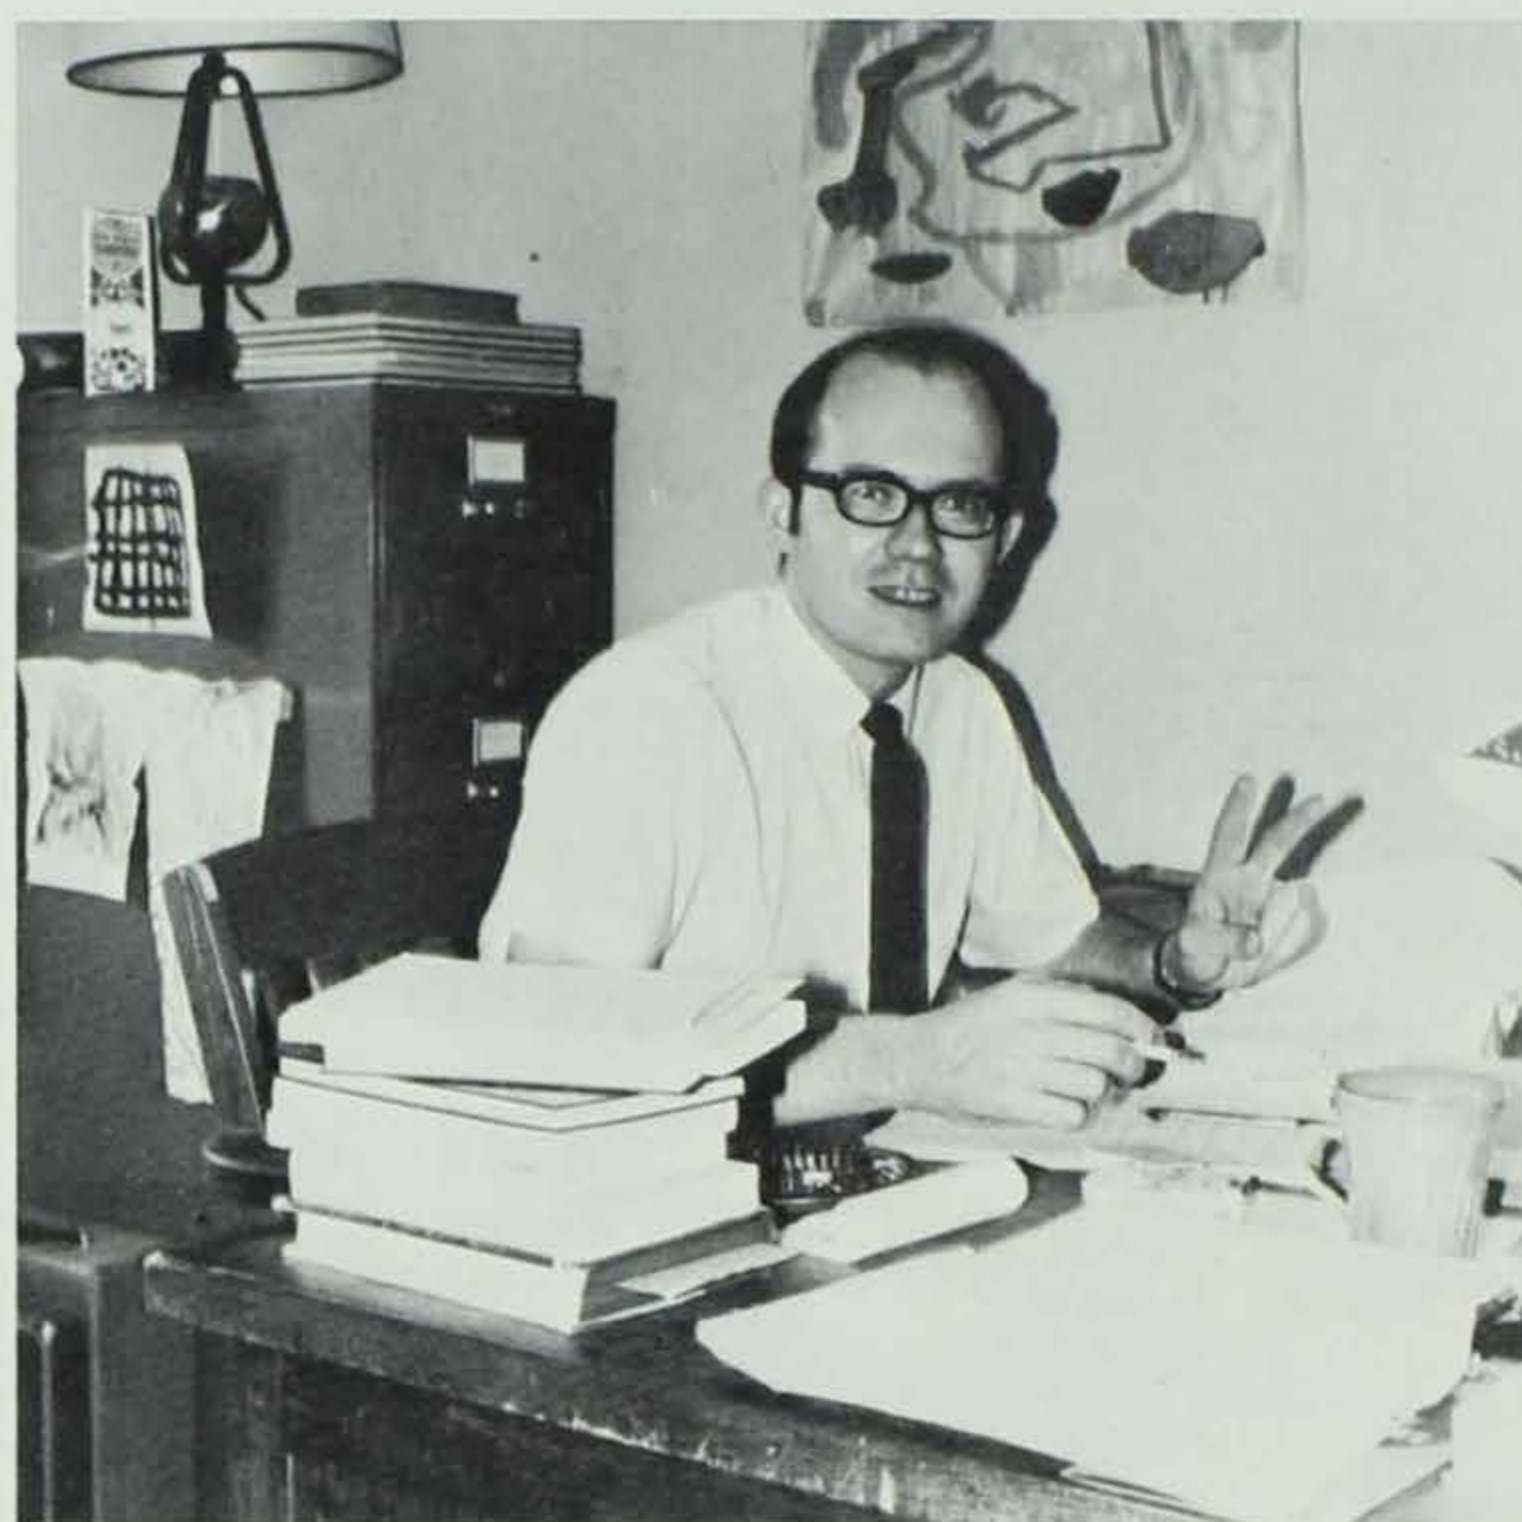

Dr. Leonard Martz serves as chairman of the Division of Languages and Literature.

A foreign language is required for graduation, and at Buena Vista College a variety of languages is offered. Spanish, French, German, Greek, and Russian have been offered and possibly more will be added.

Learning a language can be frustrating as many students have found out, but to make matters much easier, the college has a language laboratory which can aid the student with his pronunciation and in learning his vocabulary. Spanish students may also take part in the Classroom in Mexico. This involves about three weeks of study in Mexico, and much fun is had by everyone as they study and play in sunny Mexico.

Many students take part in drama and speech as part of the English curriculum. Every student is also required to take at least one year of English and a semester of speech.

Mr. Carl A. Adkins, instructor in English.

Mr. Karl Lichtenecker will return to Austria next year.

Mr. Darrell Peck received his Ph.D. this year.

Miss Ingeborg Stolee, assistant professor of English.

Mr. John Francis, instructor of speech and drama.

Mr. Travis Lockhart directed the plays this year.

Mrs. Florence M. Cruz, lecturer in Spanish.

Mr. James Lockhard, instructor in German

Mr. Anthony Stone, assistant professor of Spanish

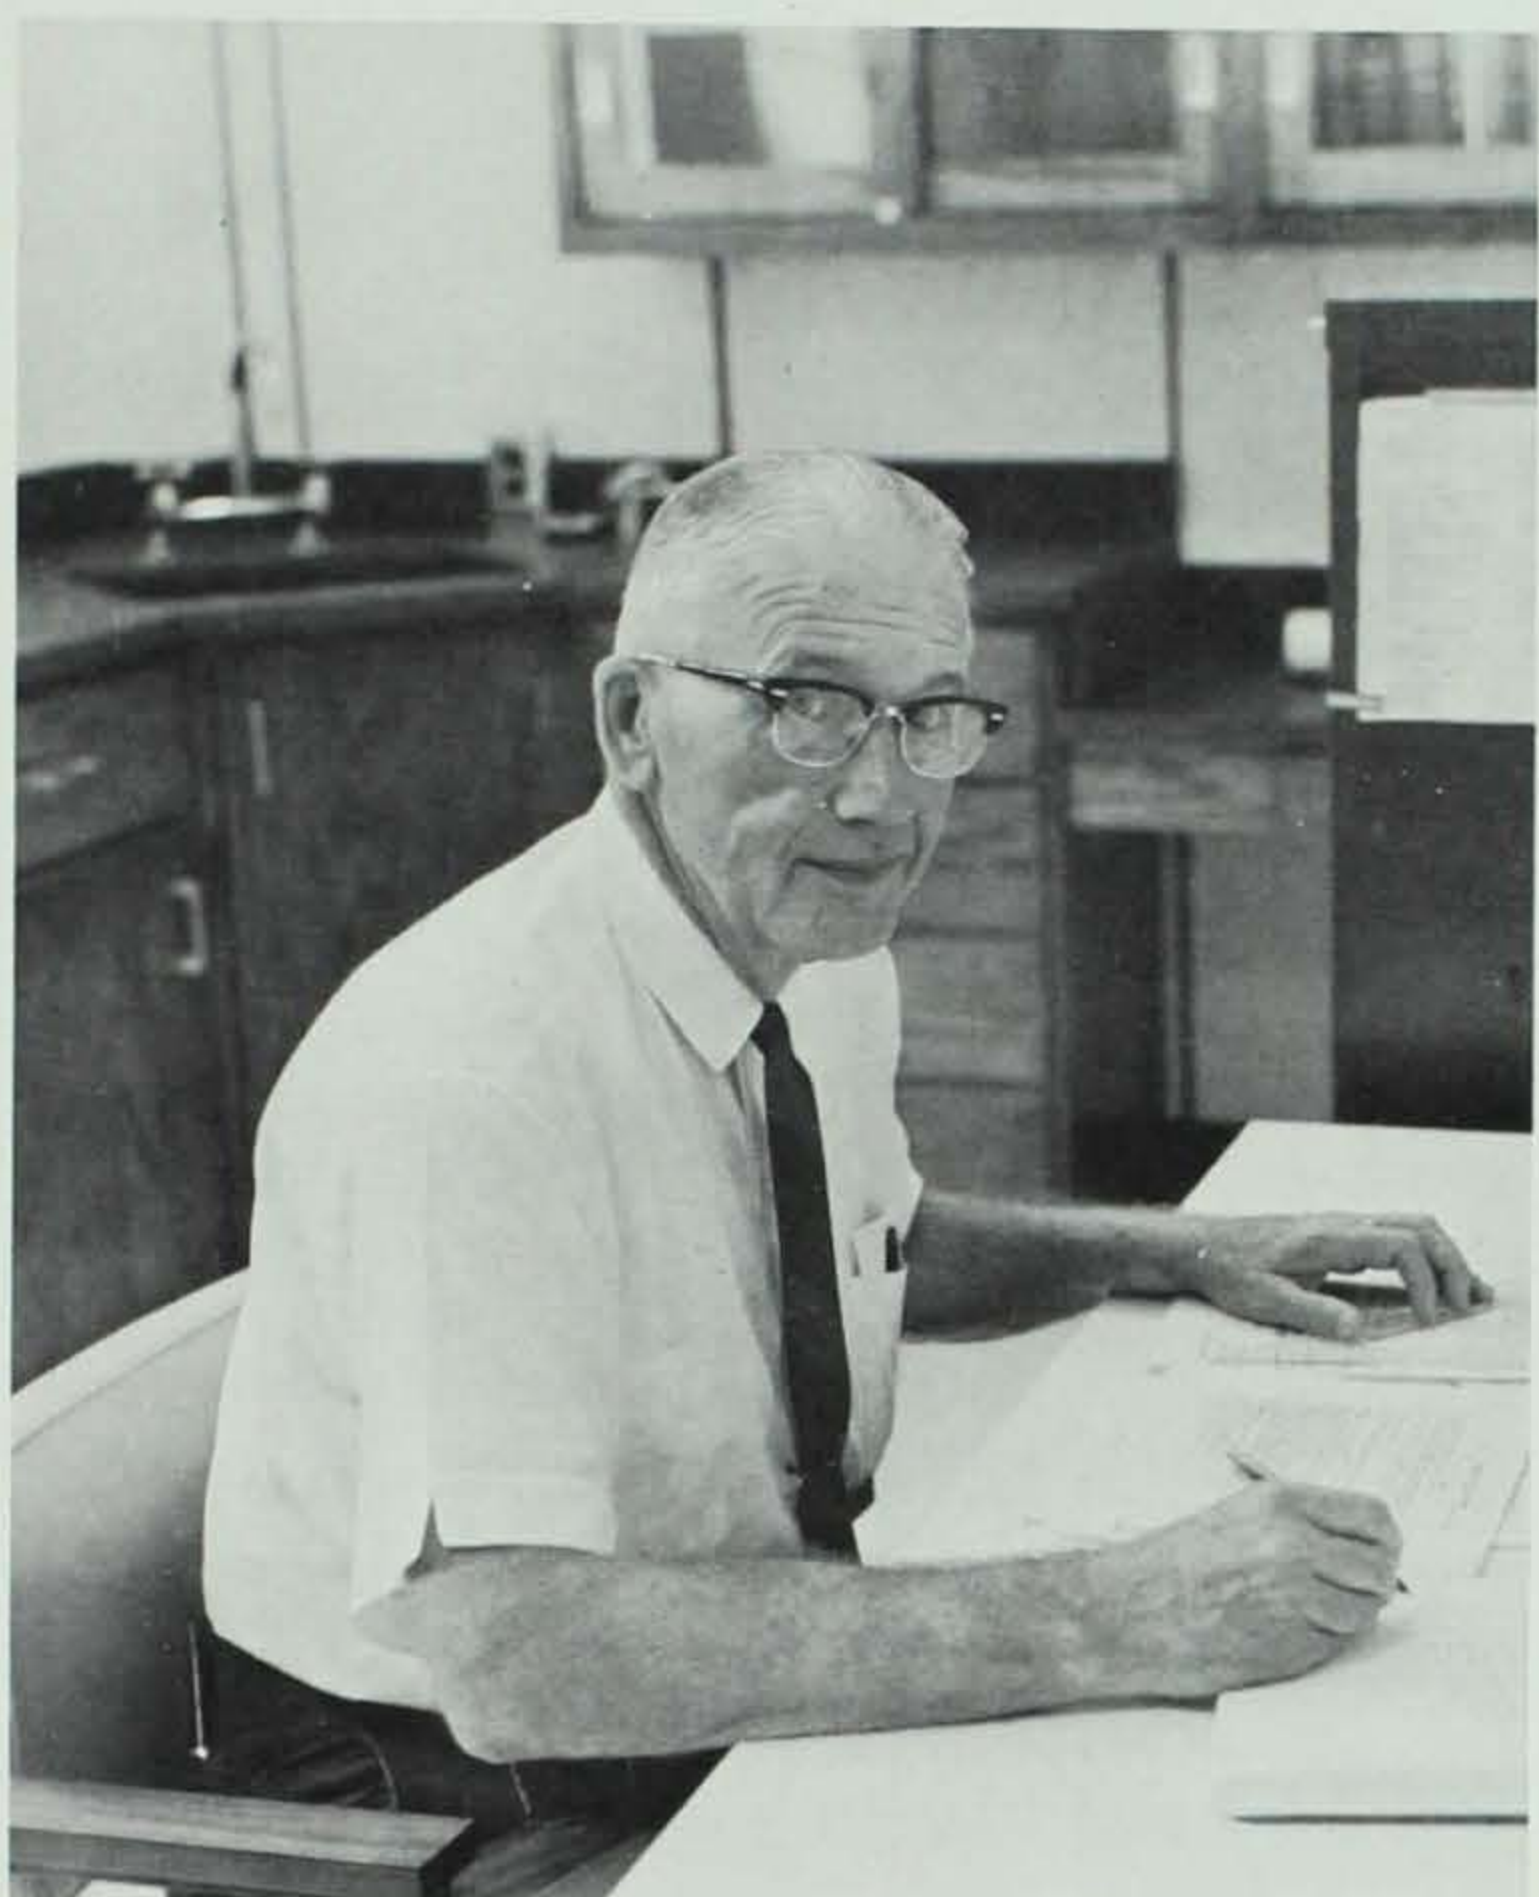

Science and Math

The new Science Center was dedicated in the fall.

Much additional laboratory and storage space was made available.

Dr. Festus L. Minnear is chairman of the Division of Science and Mathematics.

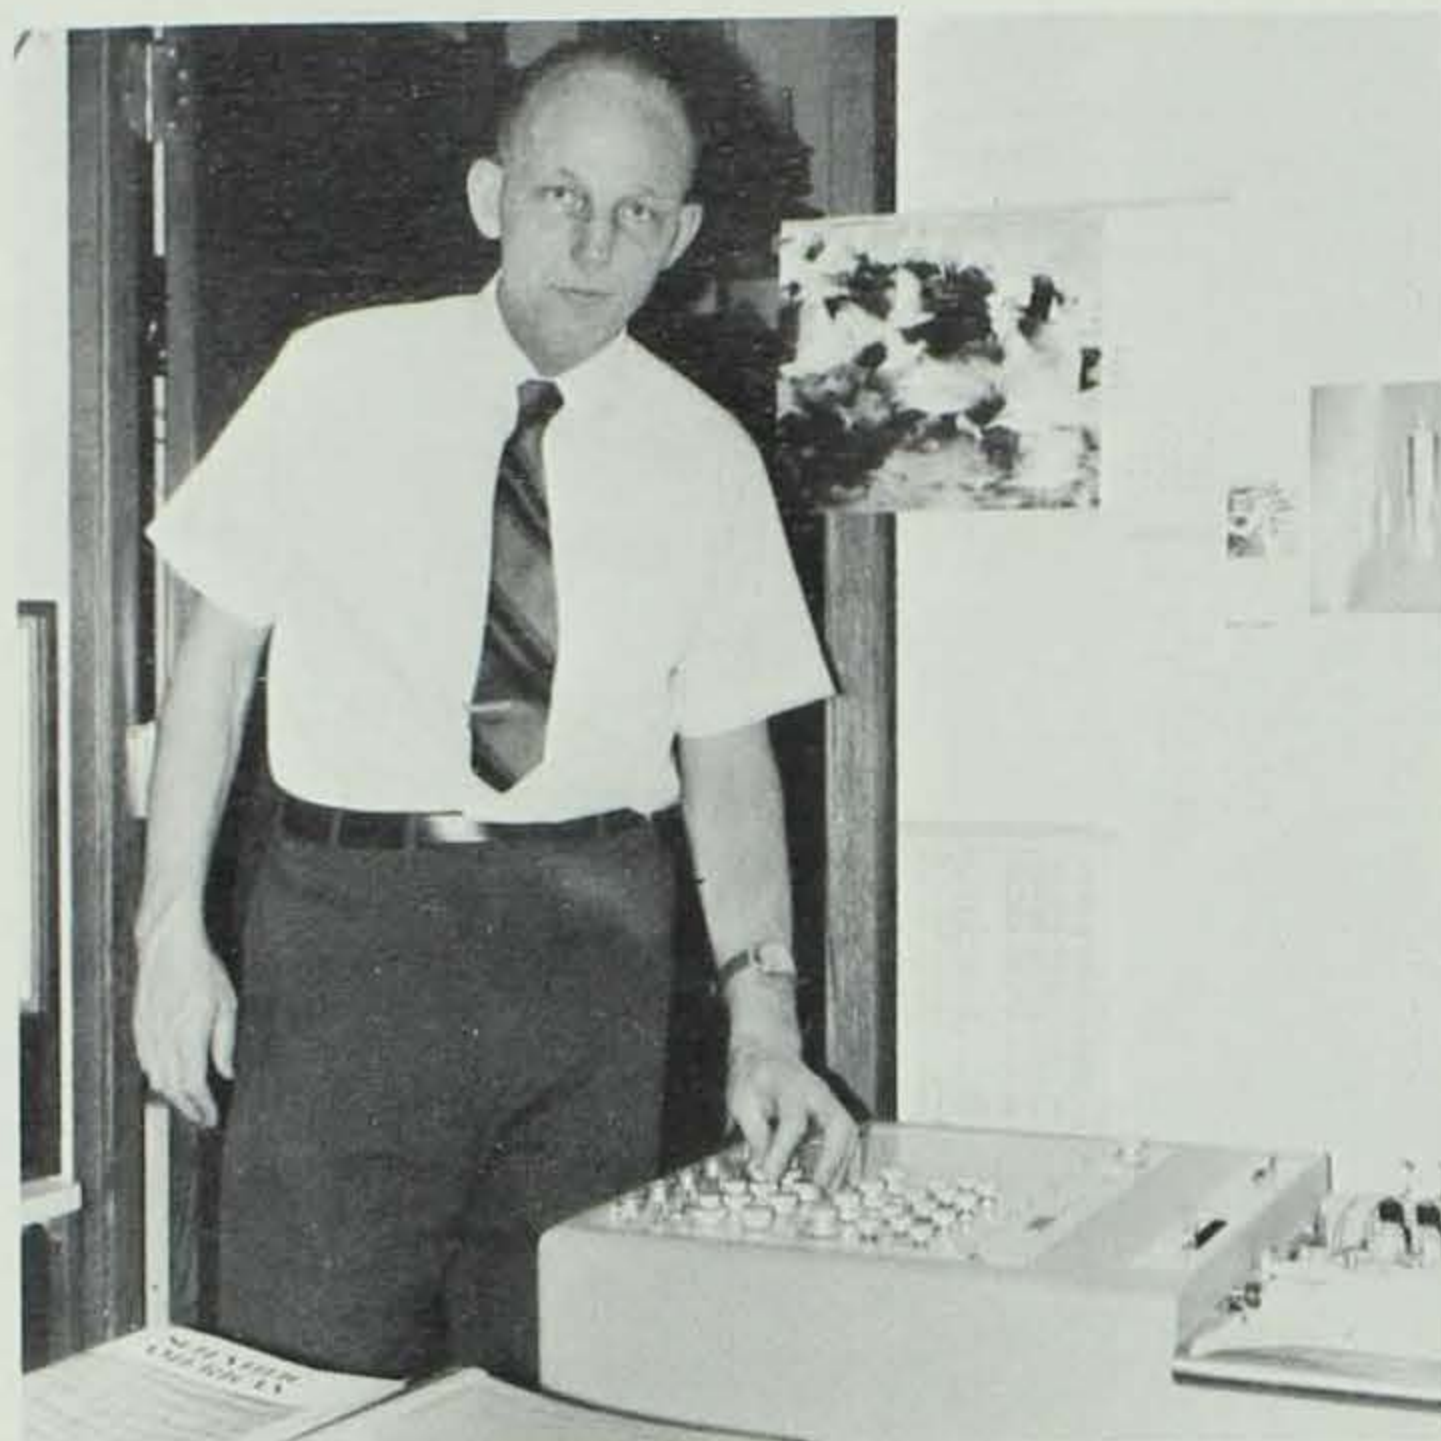

The science department has had a wonderful year in their new building. This building had been needed for quite some time, but now it is possible to have increased laboratory and classroom space. All year new equipment has been arriving and still more is coming. The gleaming new metal and chrome accent the new facilities and make the work seem easier. This fine new building points out the progress of the college.

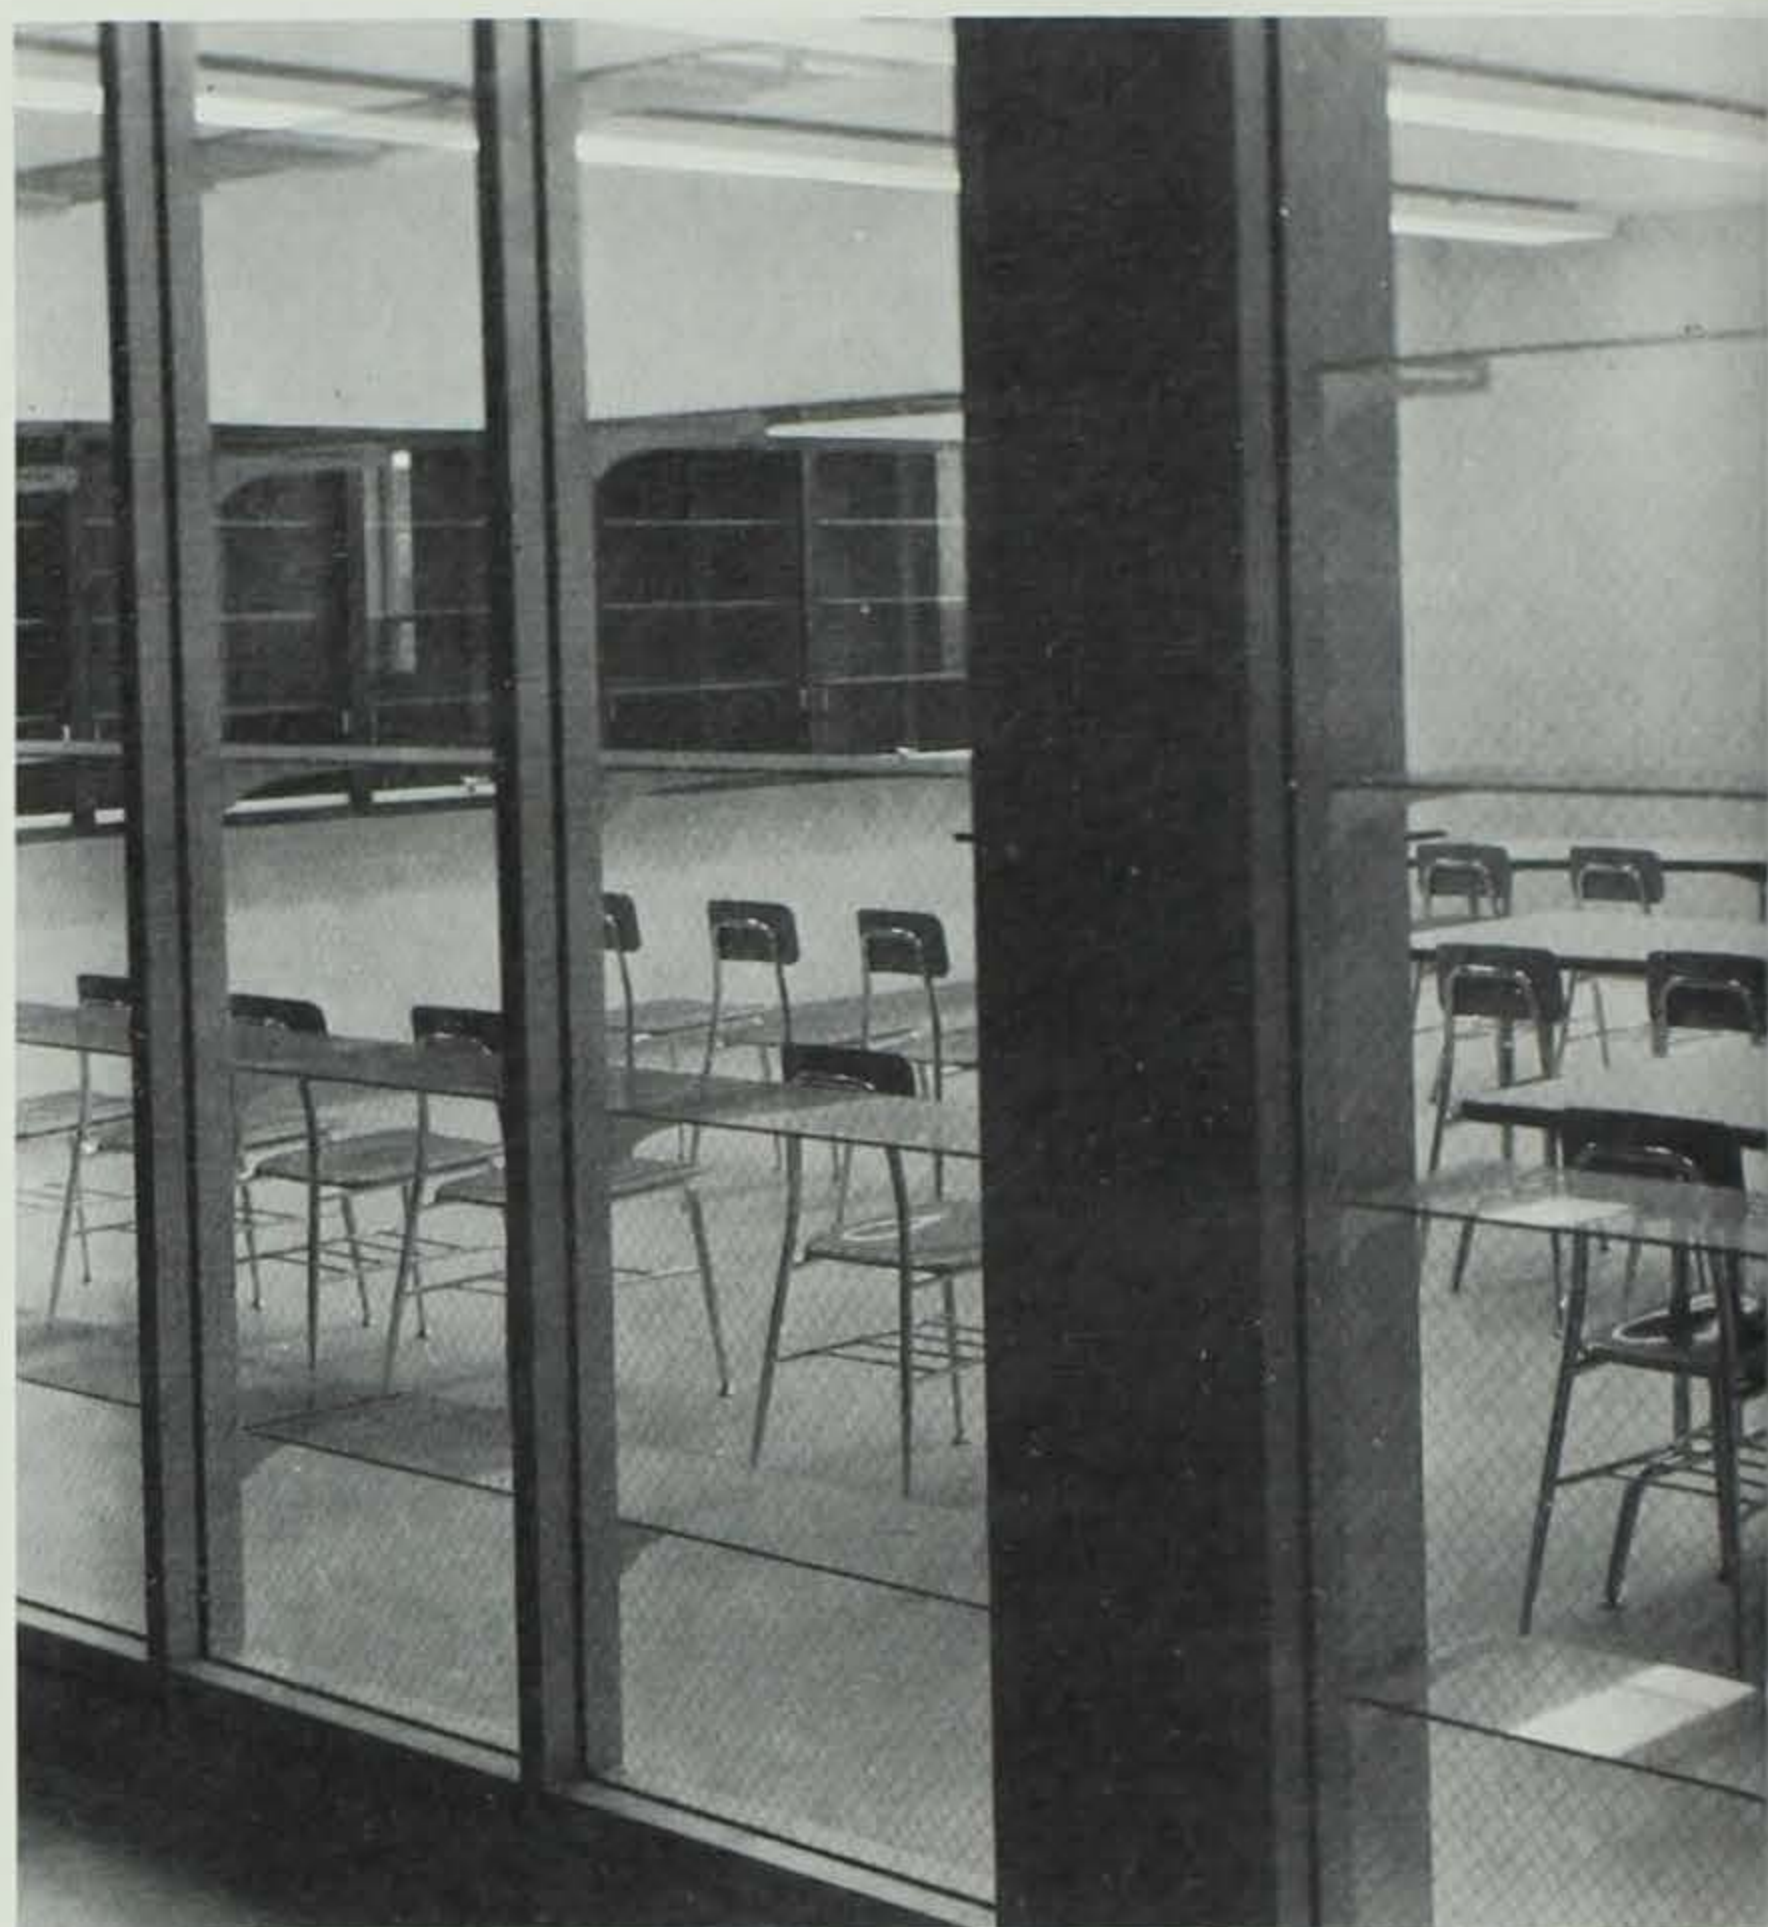

Mrs. Vilas serves as alumni coordinator as well as instructing math.

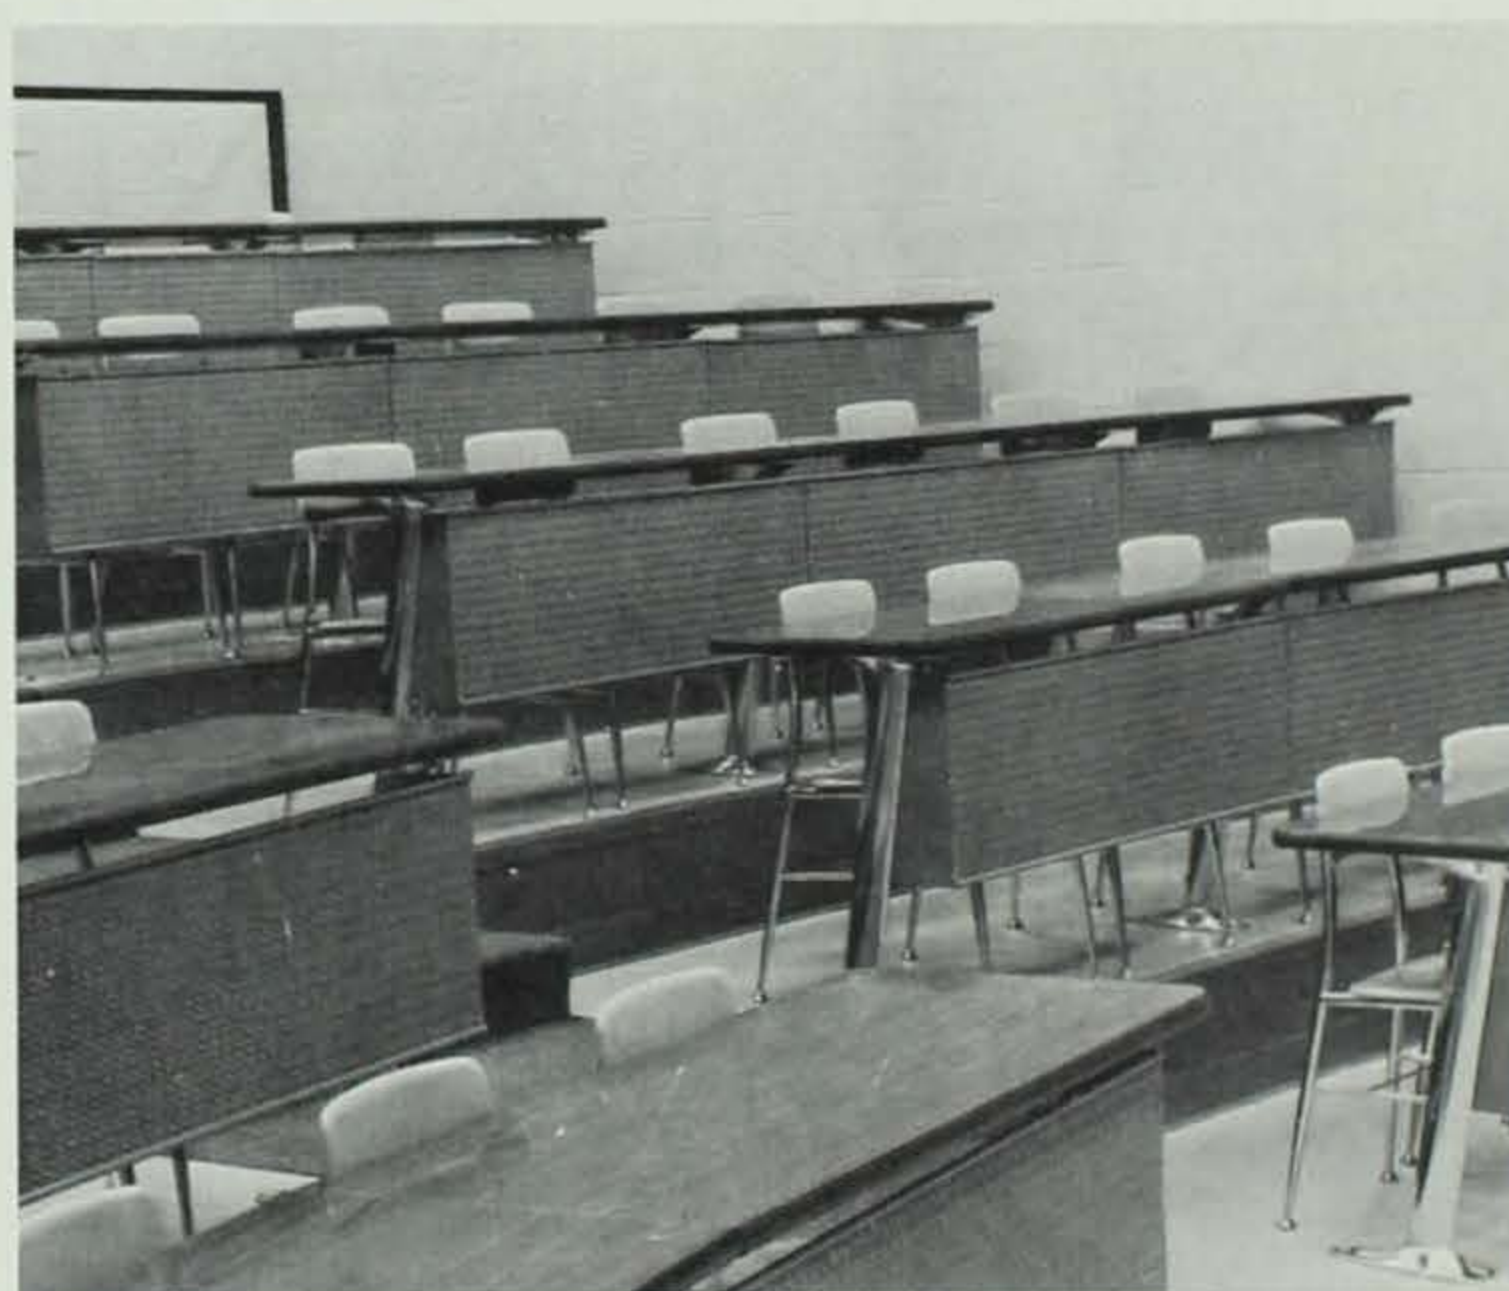

Mr. Otto Petsch, assistant professor of physics

Mr. John C. Sinclair, associate professor of biology

Mr. Iftikhar H. Bhatti came to Buena Vista from India.

Mr. James B. Christiansen, professor of chemistry

Social Sciences

History

Dr. George Reynolds, professor of history and political science

As students were making history in 1969, so were they studying it. The professors of history tried to relate past history to that of the present in hopes of making students aware of what might happen in the future. Many topics were discussed in all areas.

Mr. Soon Kang, assistant professor of political science

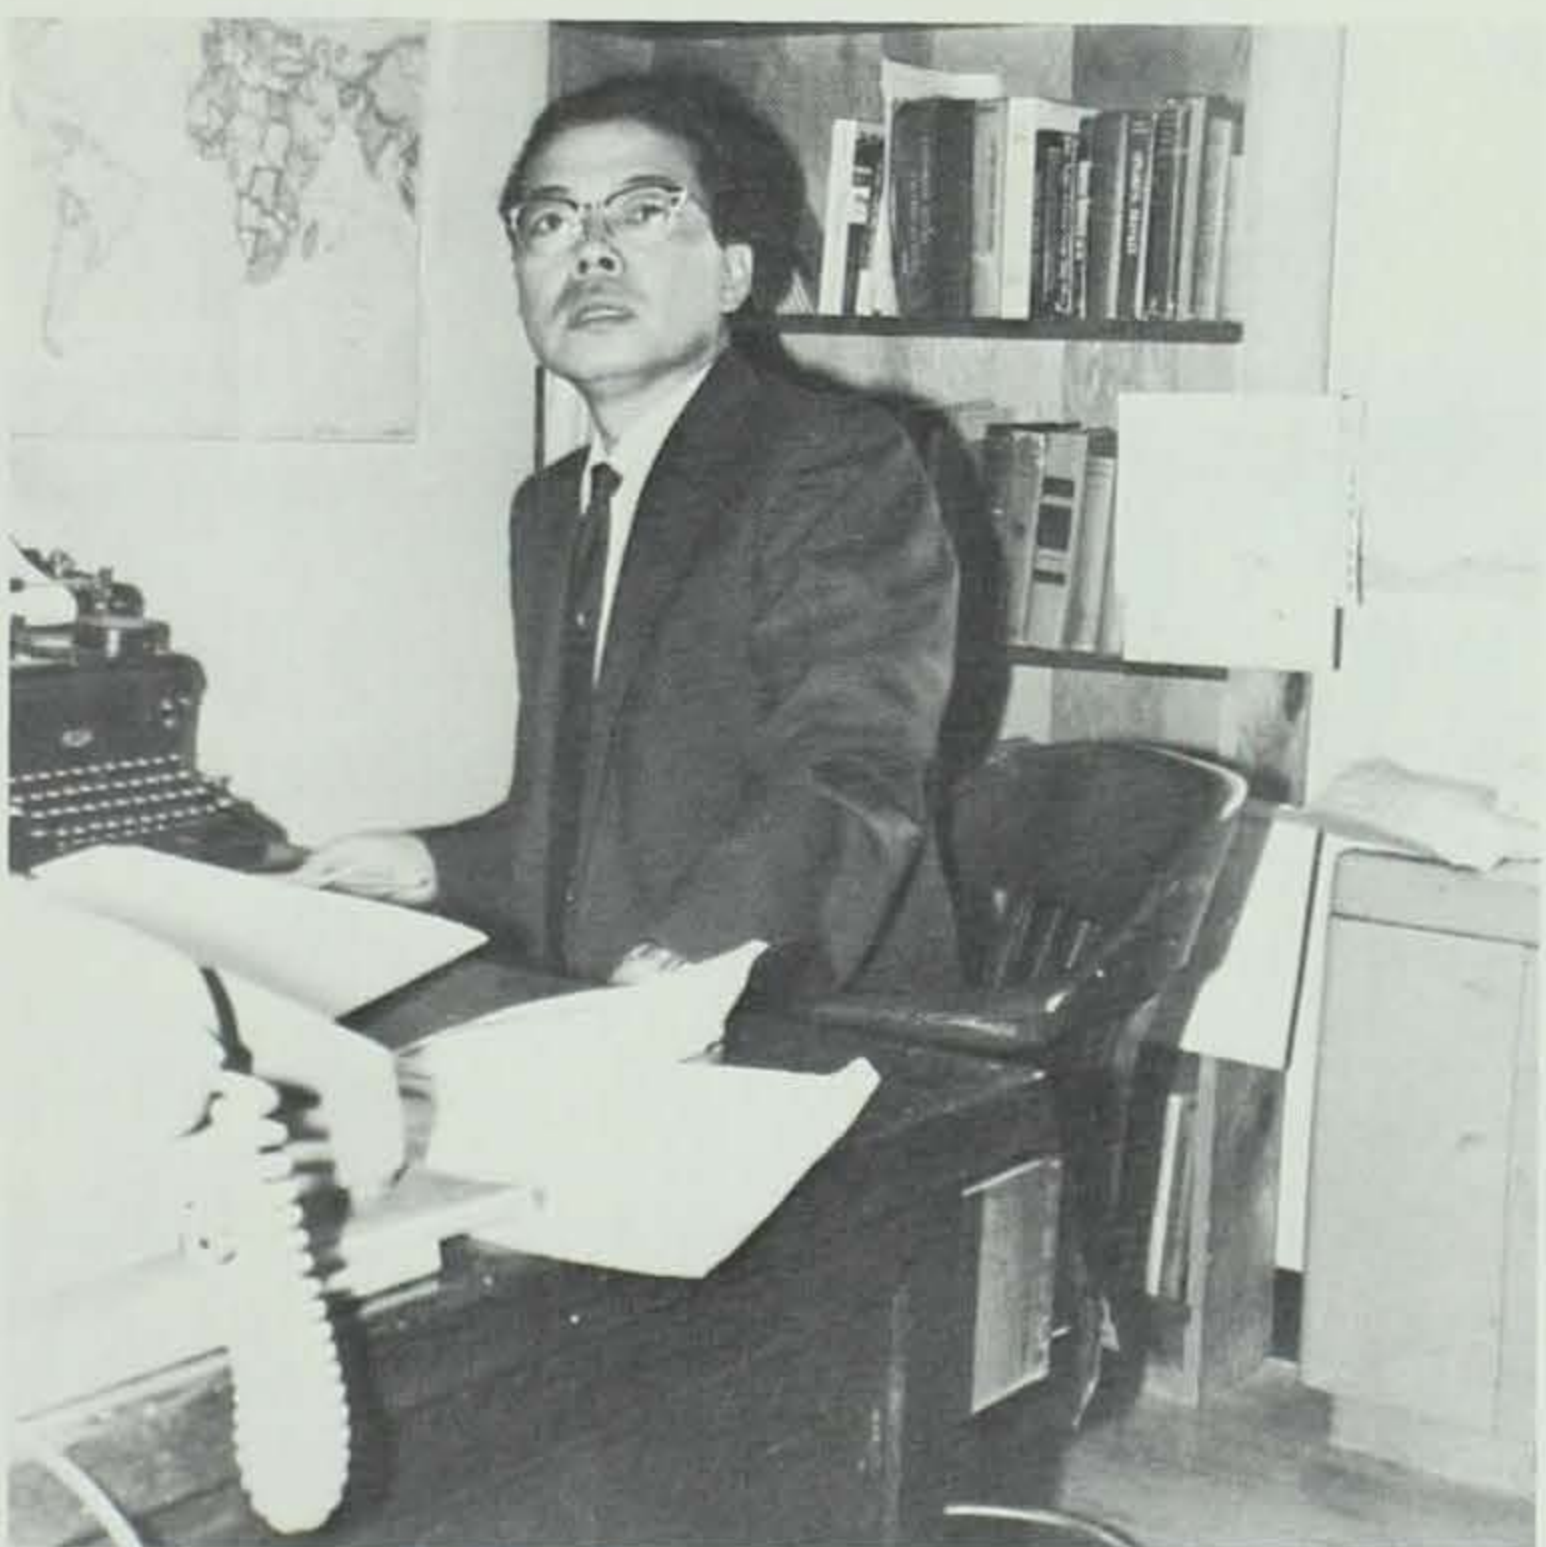

Dr. William H. Cumberland is chairman of the Division of Social Sciences.

Mr. Aquilino Layague, lecturer in Asian studies

Psychology and Sociology

Mr. James H. Claycomb, instructor in sociology

The study of man and his relationships with others and in groups is the concern of the psychology and sociology classes. These are areas where vast amounts of new materials are being published every year, and ones of vital importance to all of us.

Mr. Loren Kline, assistant professor of psychology

Mr. Atukathil Thomas, assistant professor of sociology

Business

Mr. Everett Shafer, assistant professor of business administration

Mr. Norman G. Bonnema, assistant professor of business administration

Mr. Paul Russell did graduate work at Missouri last summer.

Mr. Felix V. Cruz, professor of accounting

Religion and Philosophy

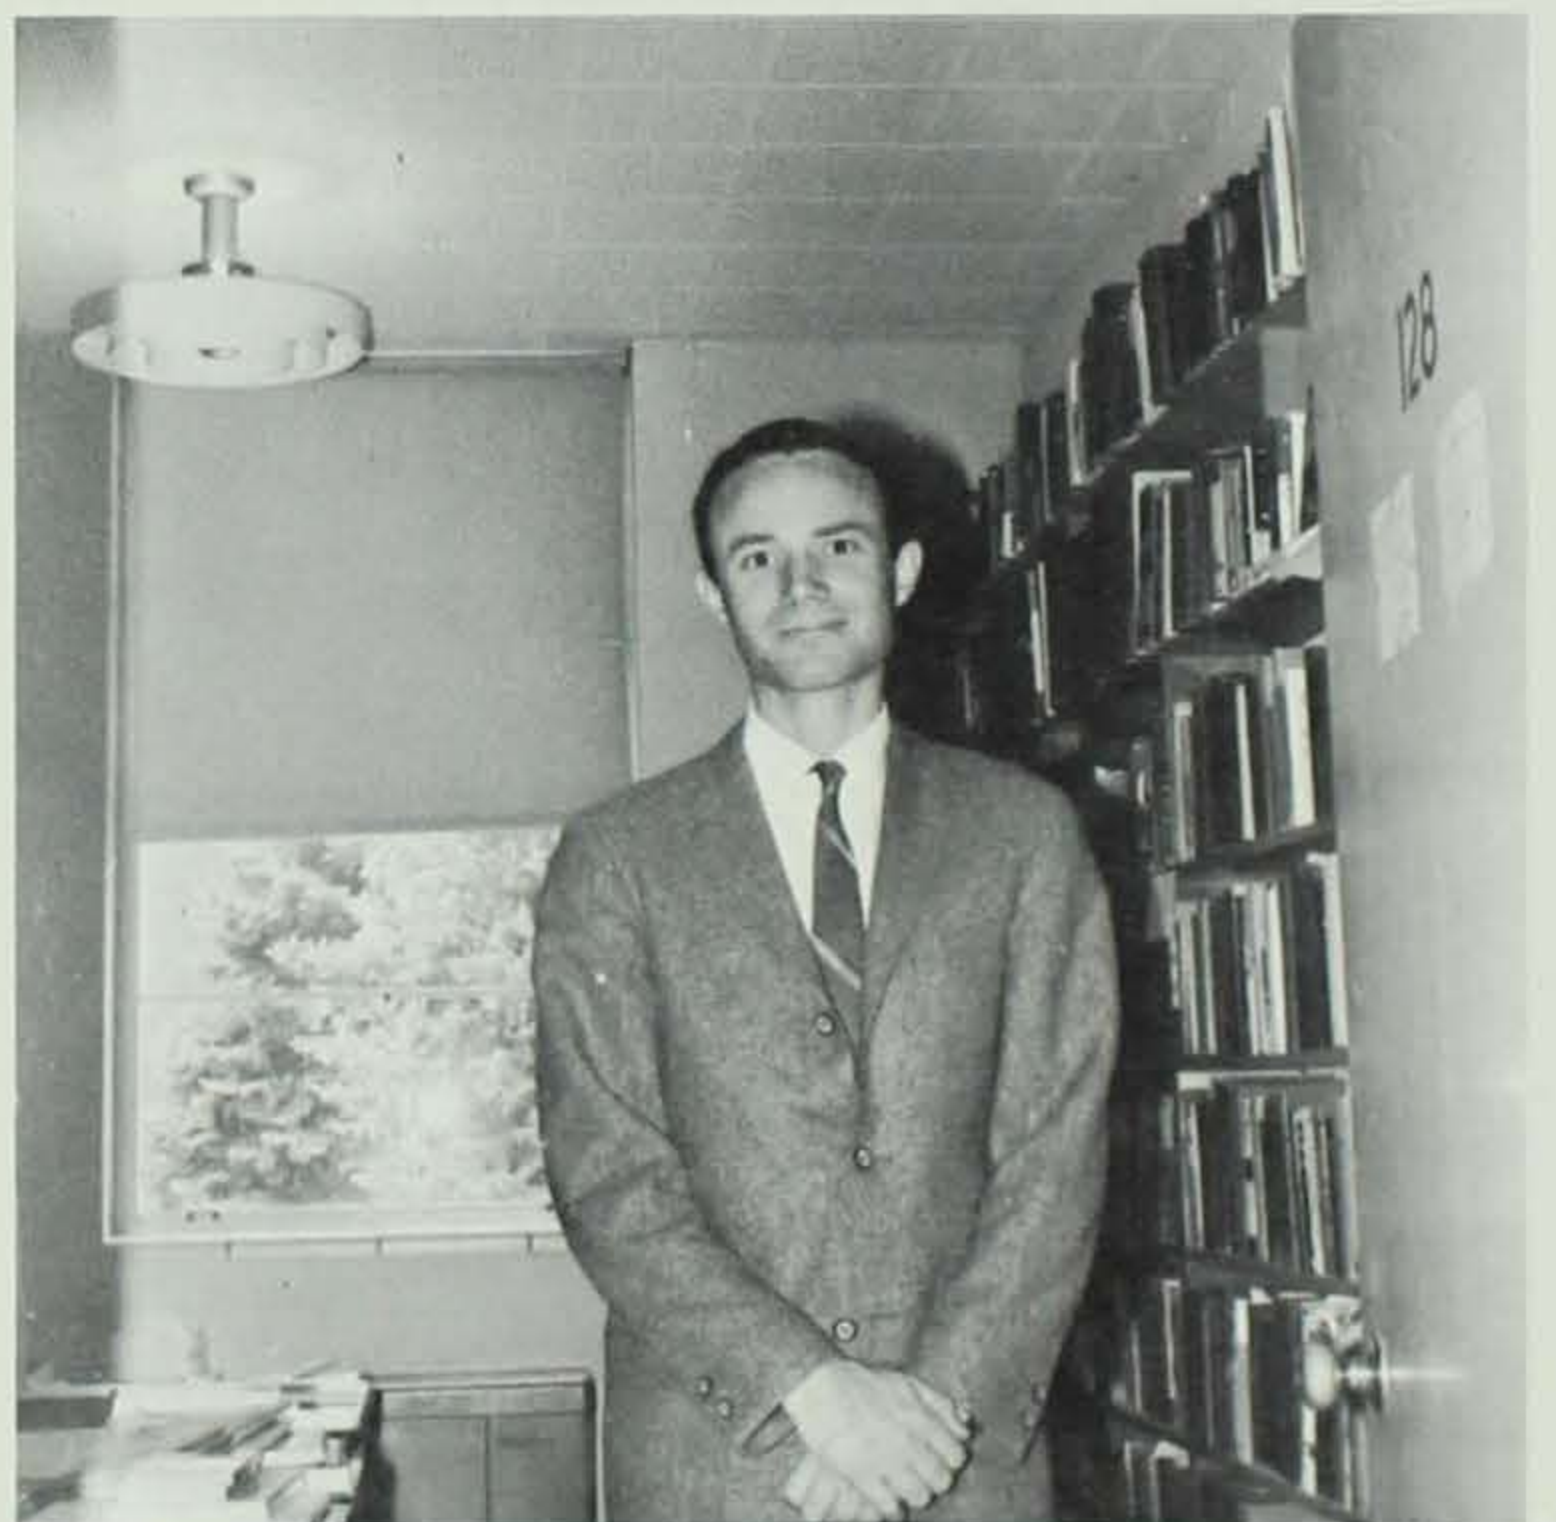

Religion and philosophy courses are an important part of the instruction of every Buena Vista student. As a freshman he encounters his first religion course. Philosophy is required of all sophomores, and another semester of religion is taken in either the junior or senior year. Discussion groups are an integral part of this final course. Topics of relevance to today's world are carefully examined by both instructors and students.

Dr. Robert Tollefson is chairman of the Division of Religion and Philosophy.

Mr. Henry Eggink, professor of religion and philosophy

Mr. Joseph M. Cashore, interim assistant professor of philosophy

Education Department

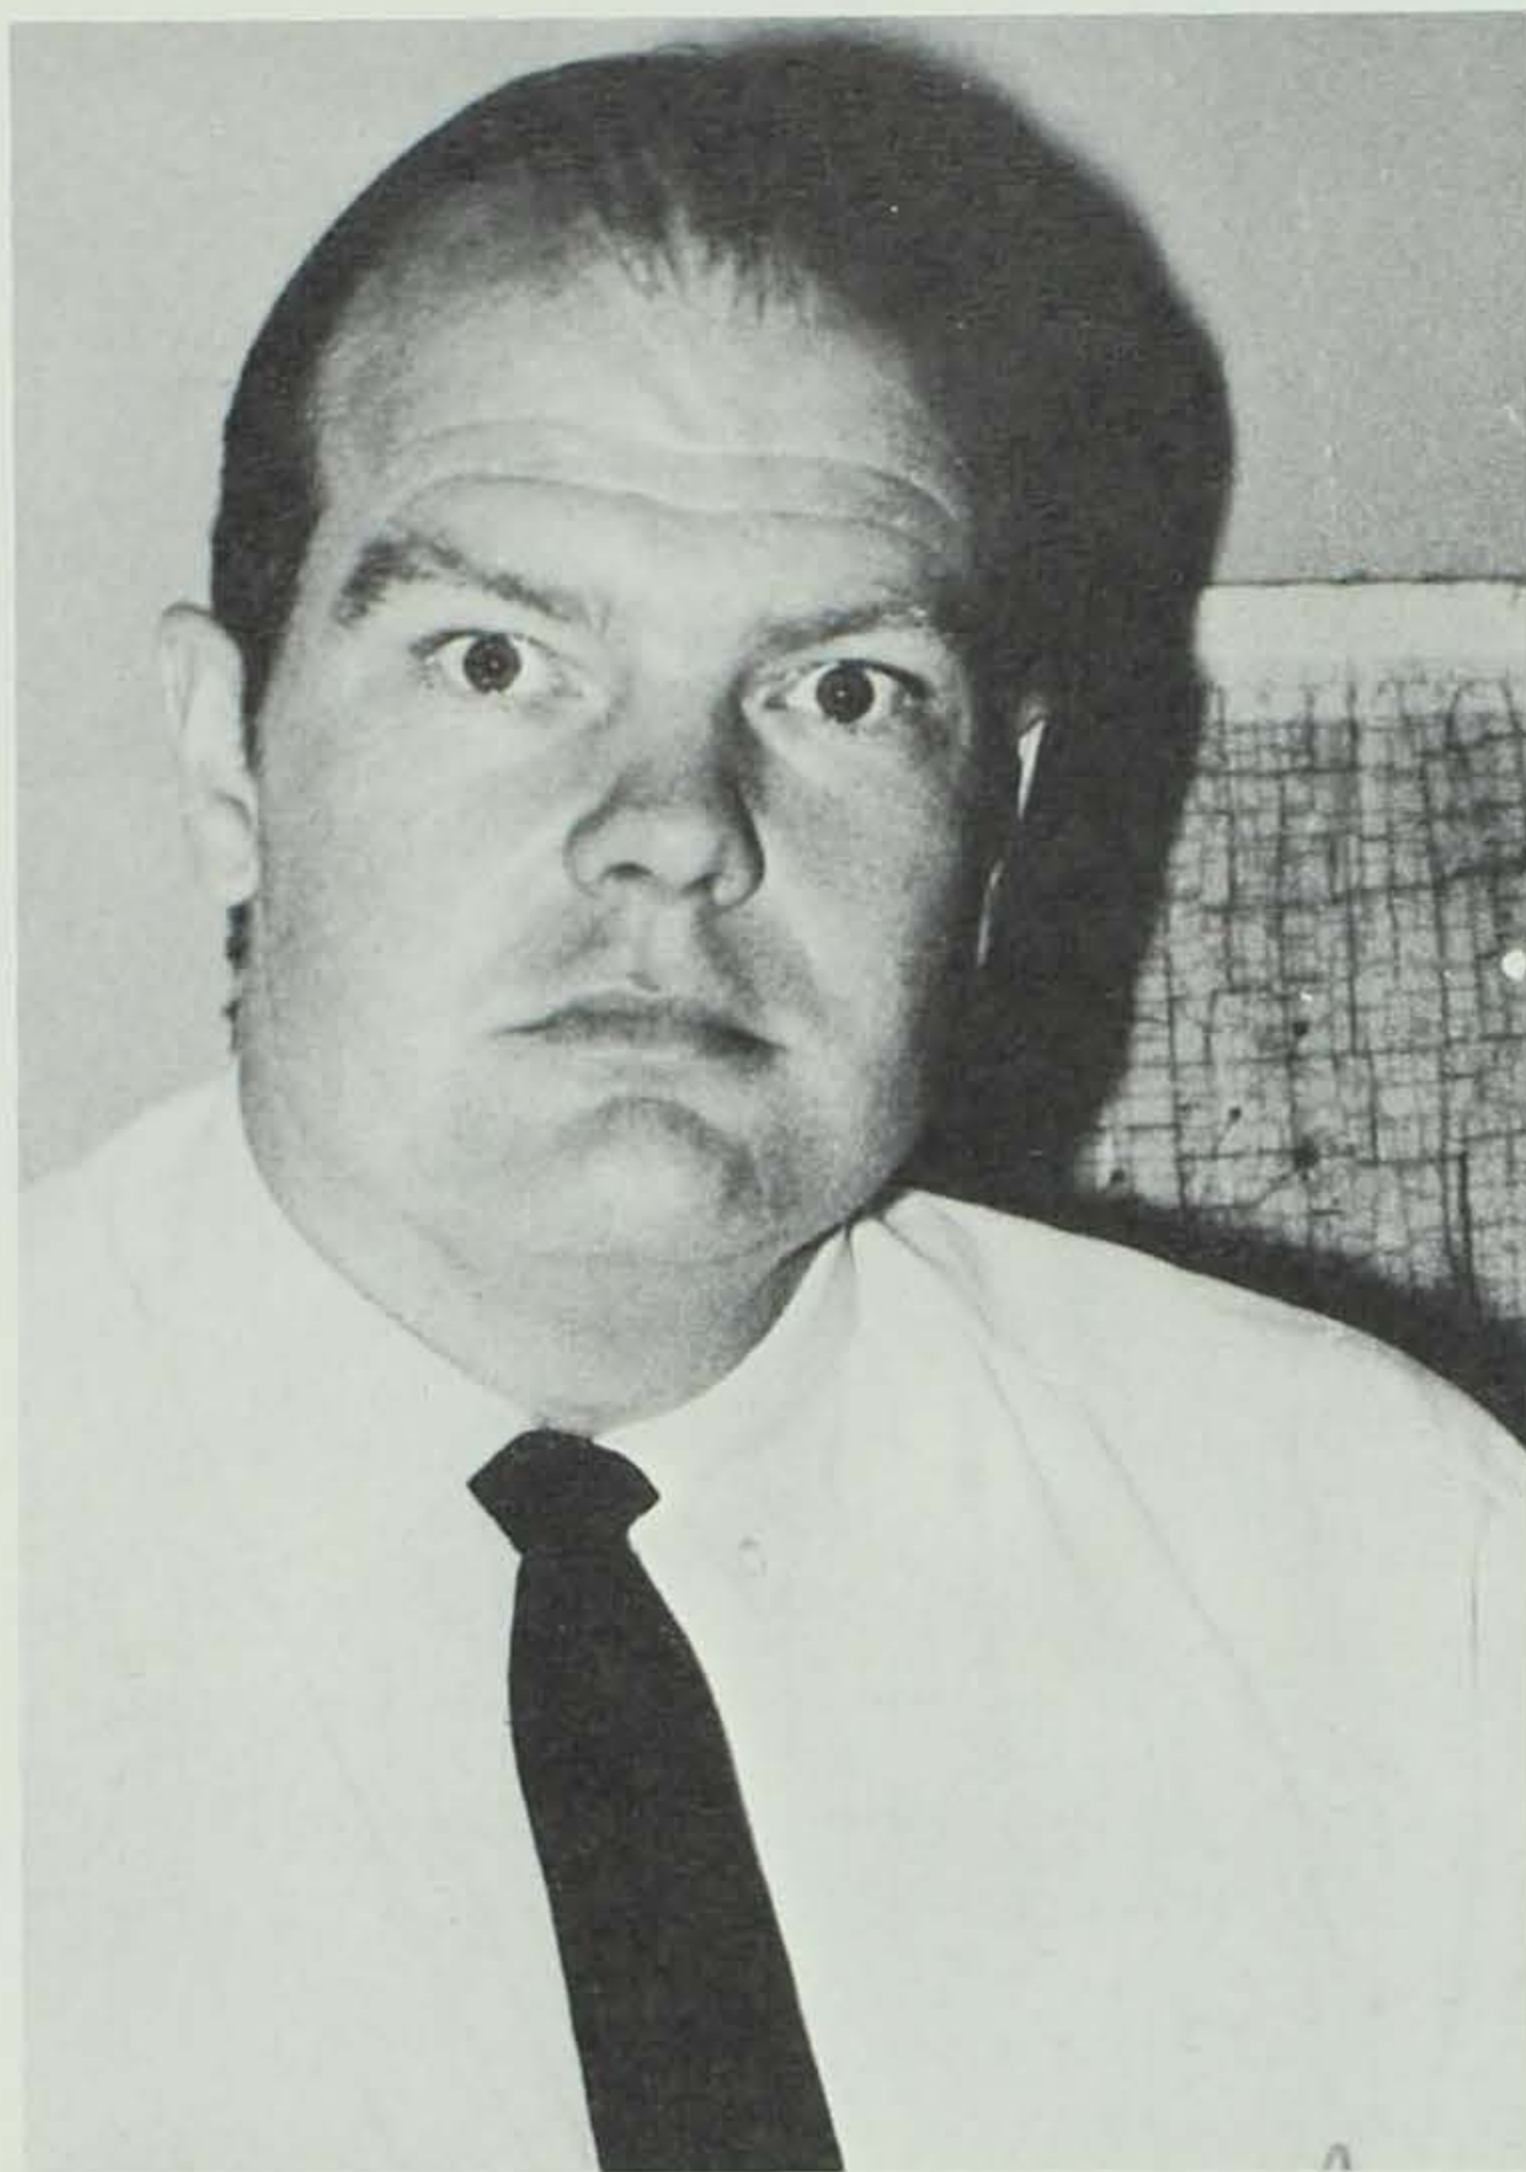

Dr. Carl Larson is chairman of teacher education.

Mrs. Anne Nicholson, assistant professor of education

Elaine Uittenbogaard was one of the elementary student teachers.

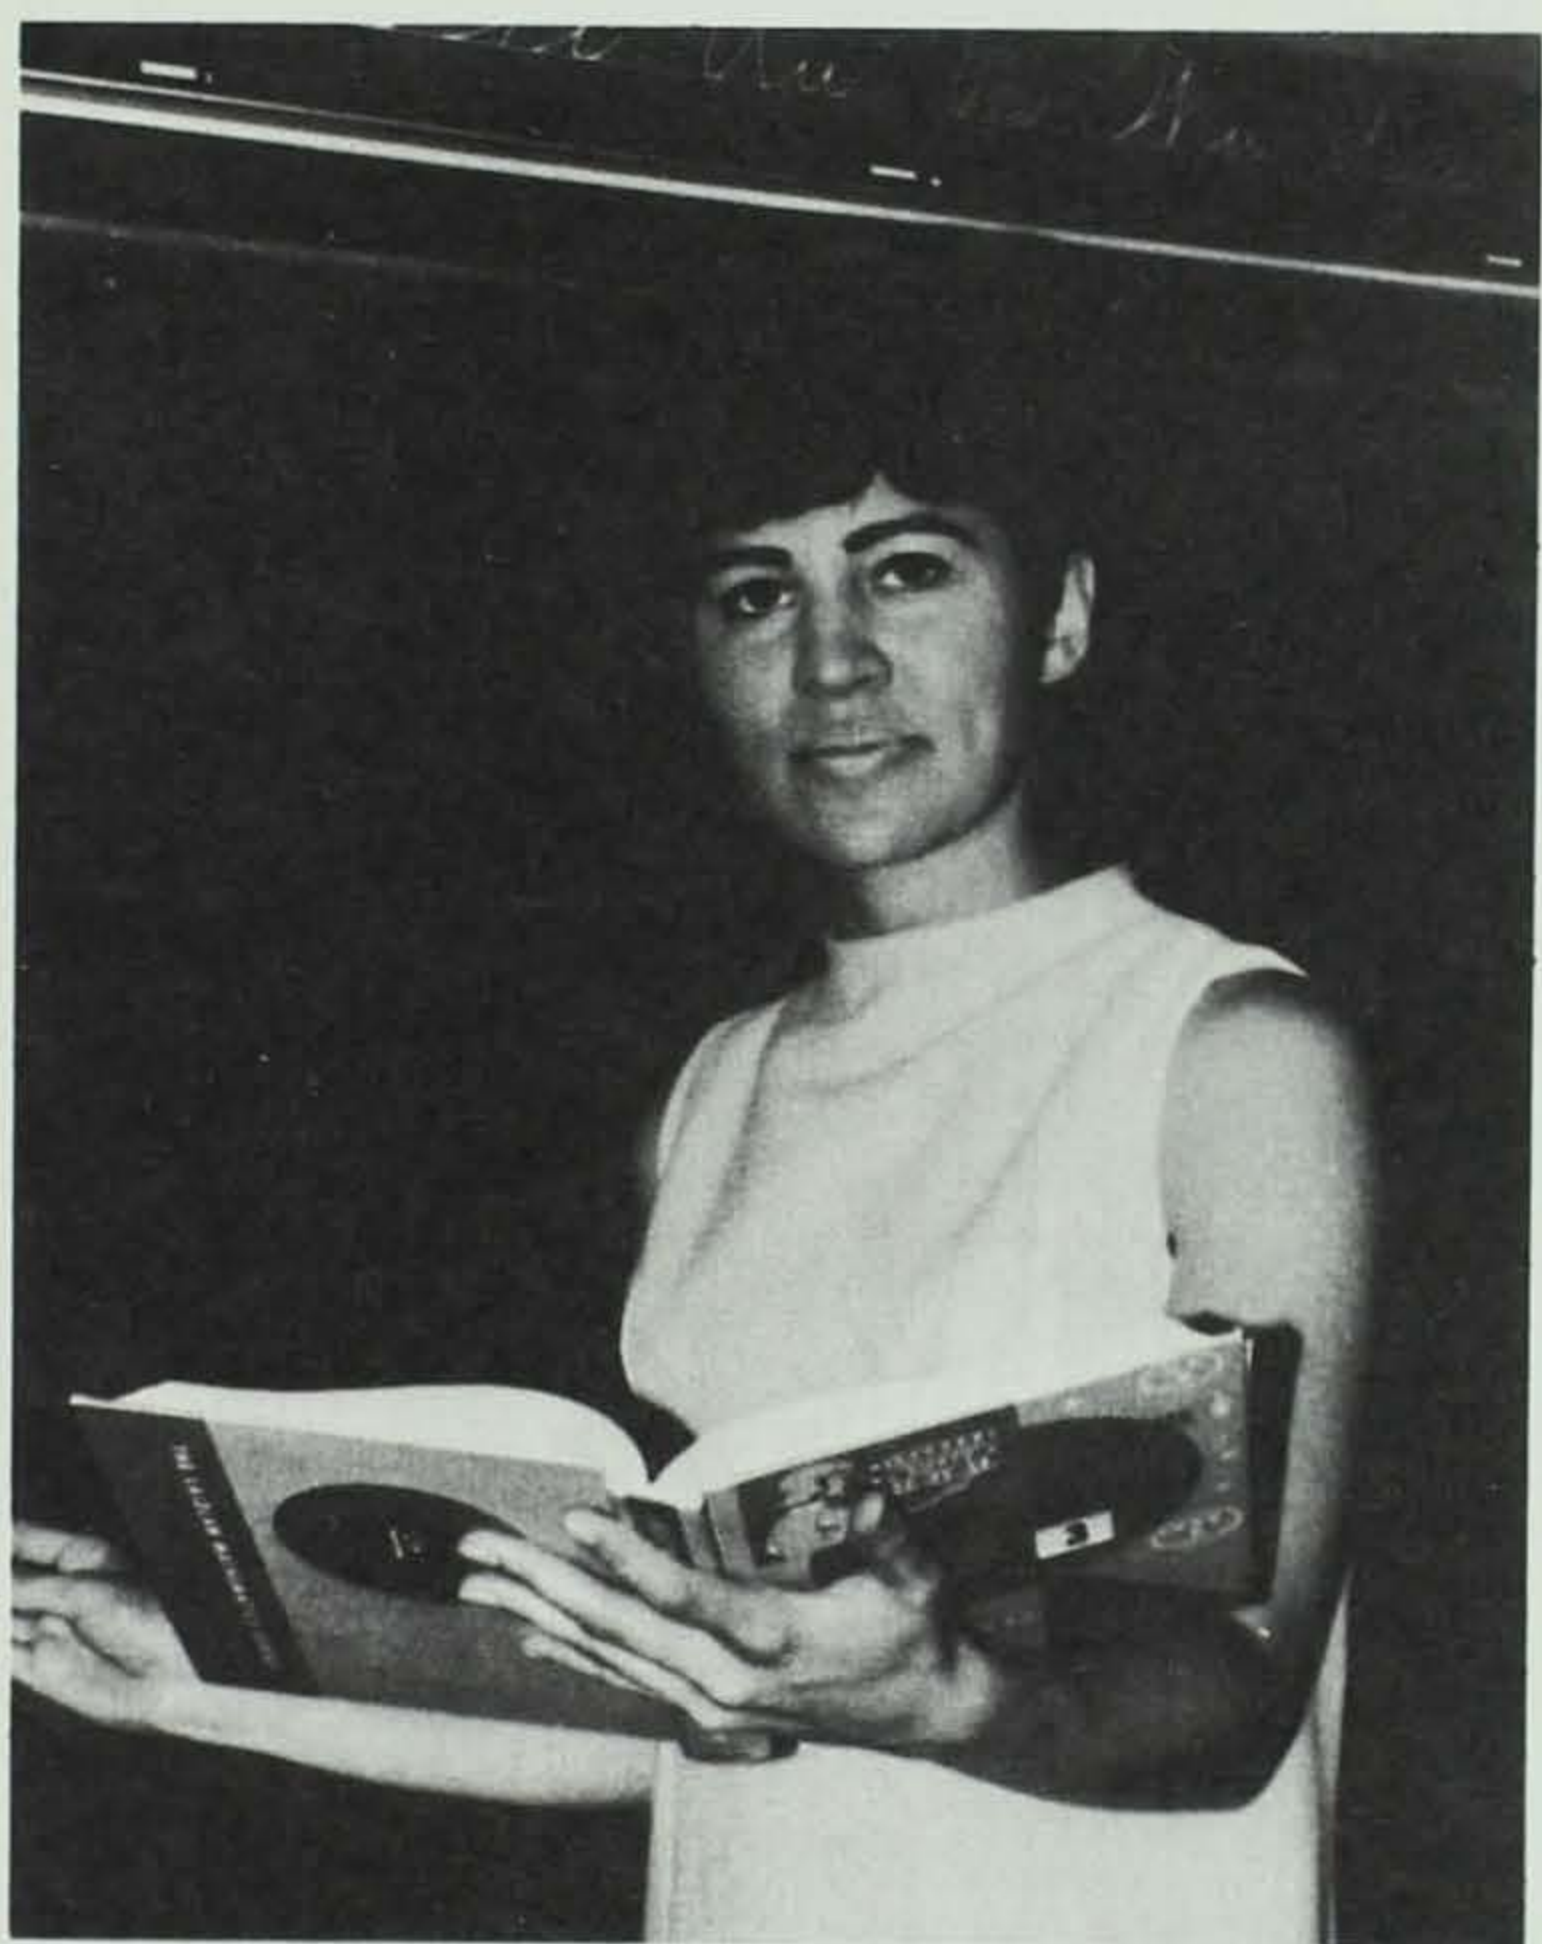

Dr. Grant Berggren, assistant professor of education and director of student teaching

Mr. Brian L. Gustafson, lecturer in education

Elaine prepares to speak to her class.

Jean Kluver aids a student.

Fine Arts Department

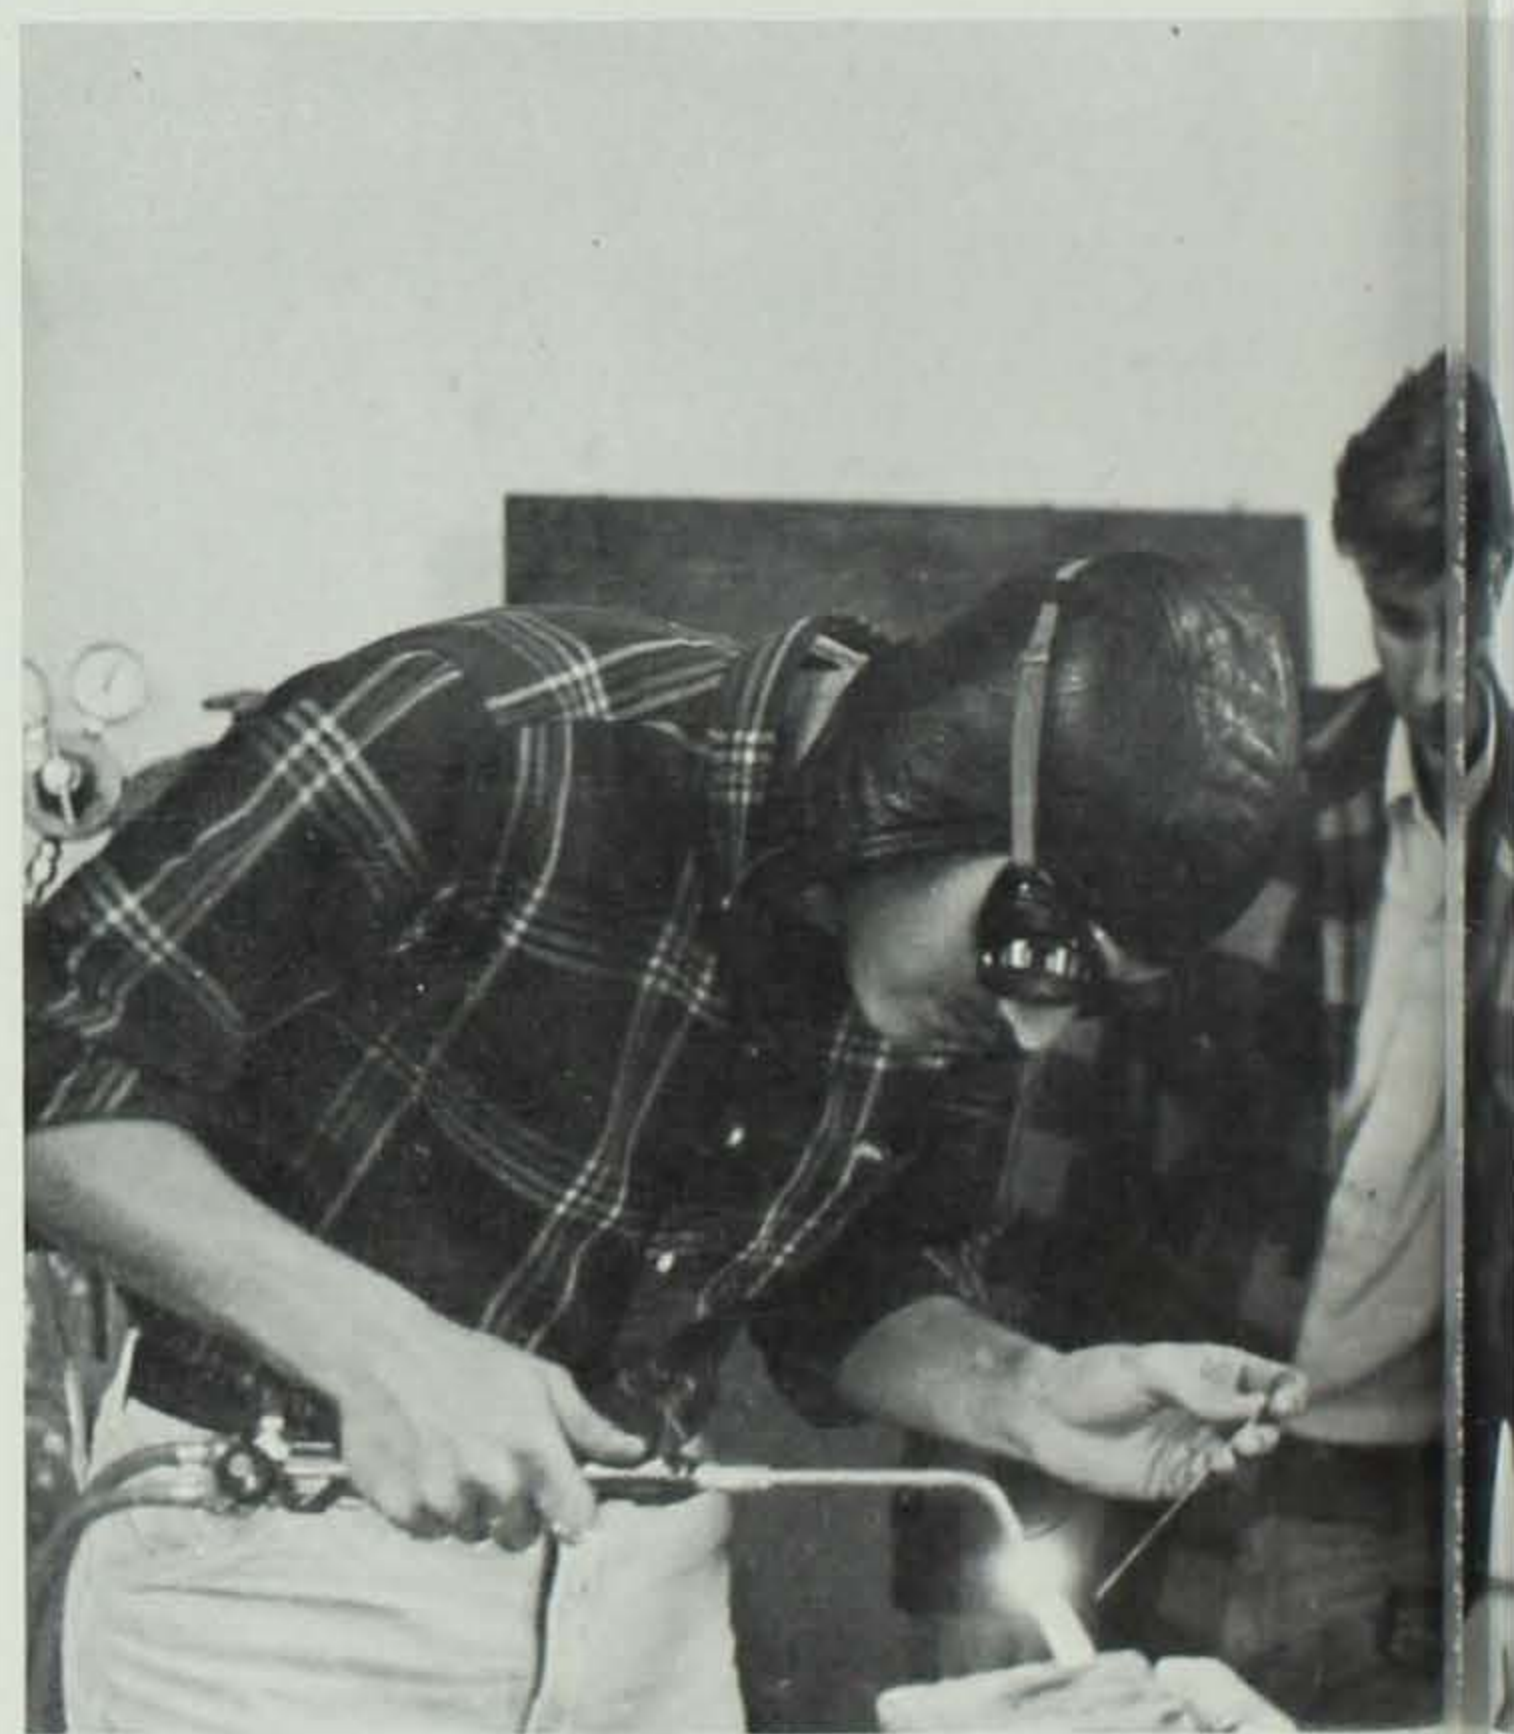

Art

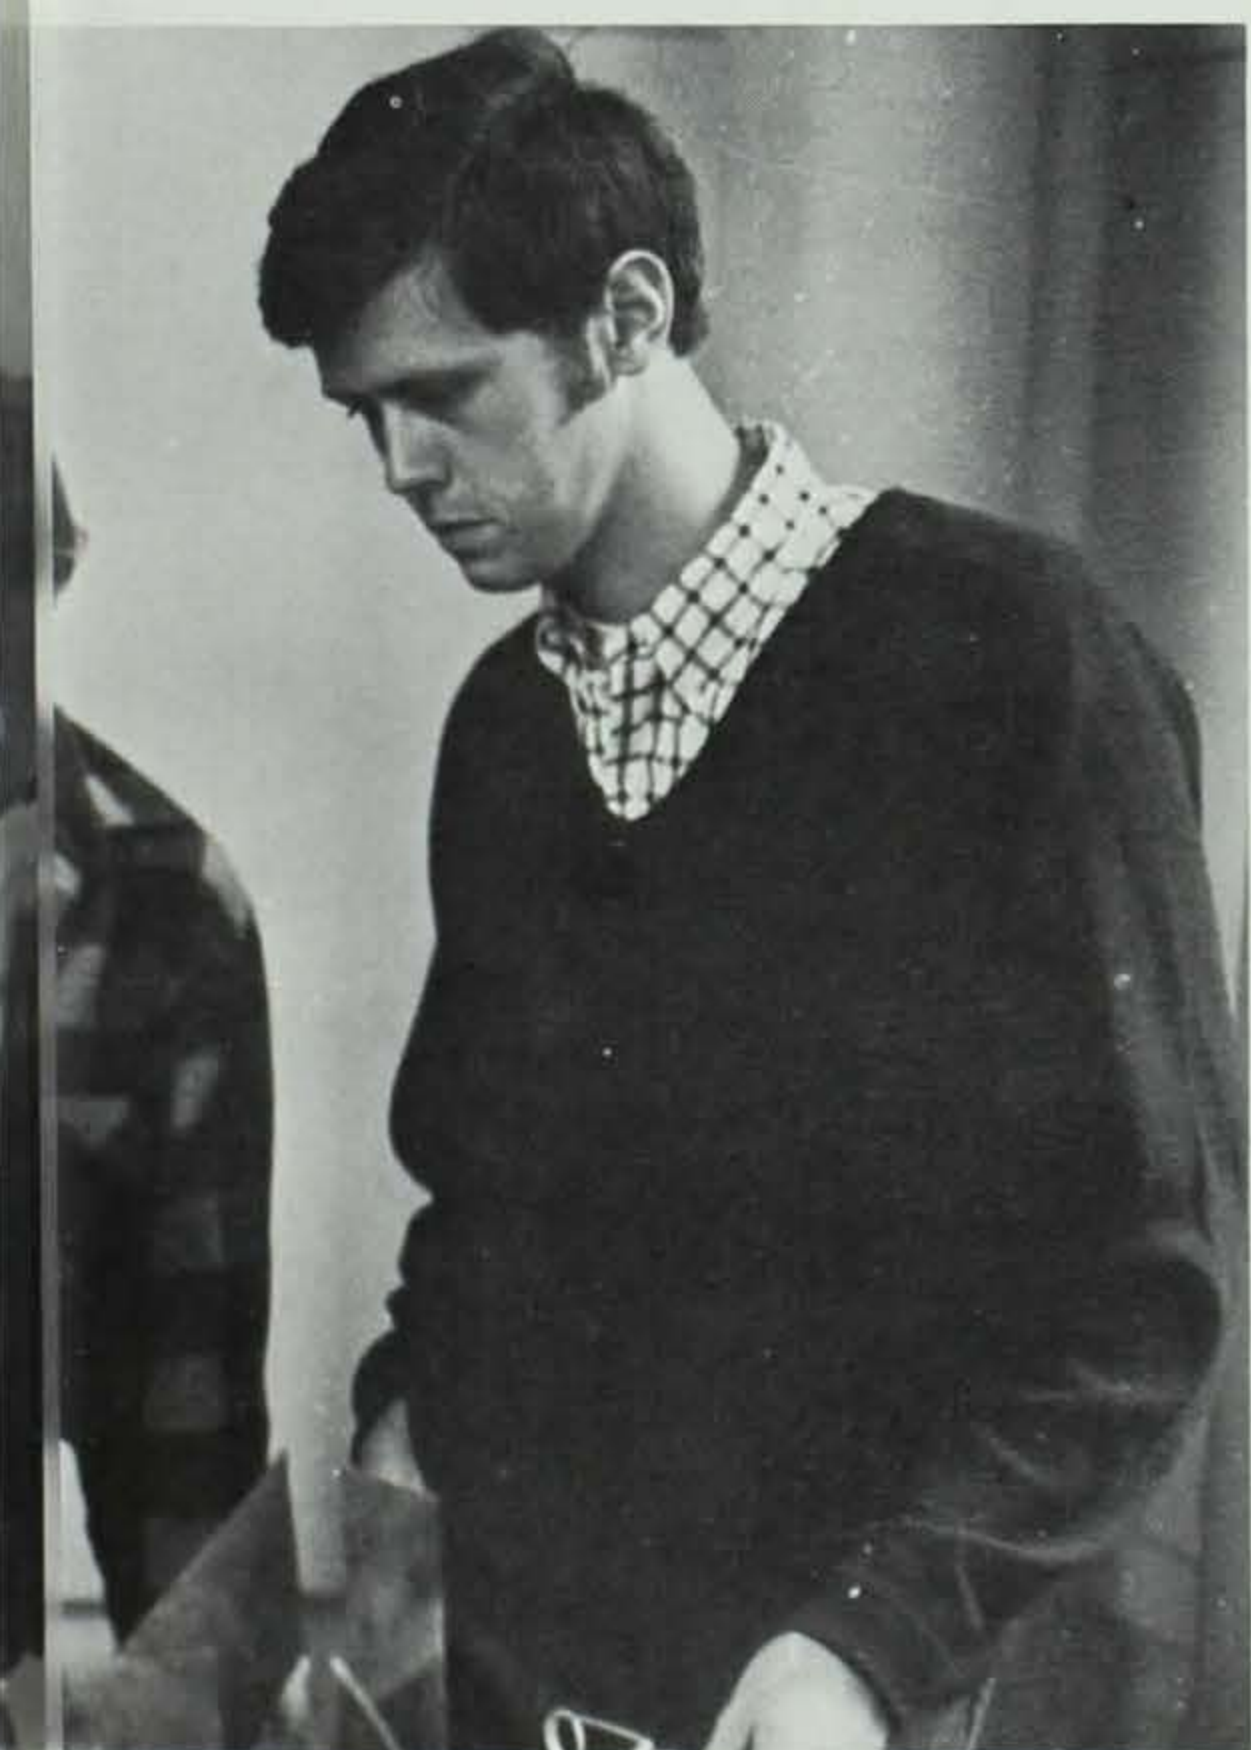

Mr. Phil Hitchcock, instructor of art

The art department made giant strides forward on campus with their numerous art projects which included the "Santa Express" train at Christmas time, the Spring Art Festival, and the art exhibits shown by both faculty and students in the library and in the halls of Dixon-Eilers Hall.

The art taught this year was more along the lines of contemporary art and expressed what man thinks and feels. Many people were puzzled or startled by some of the exhibits, but, on the whole, they showed great promise and were enjoyed by everyone.

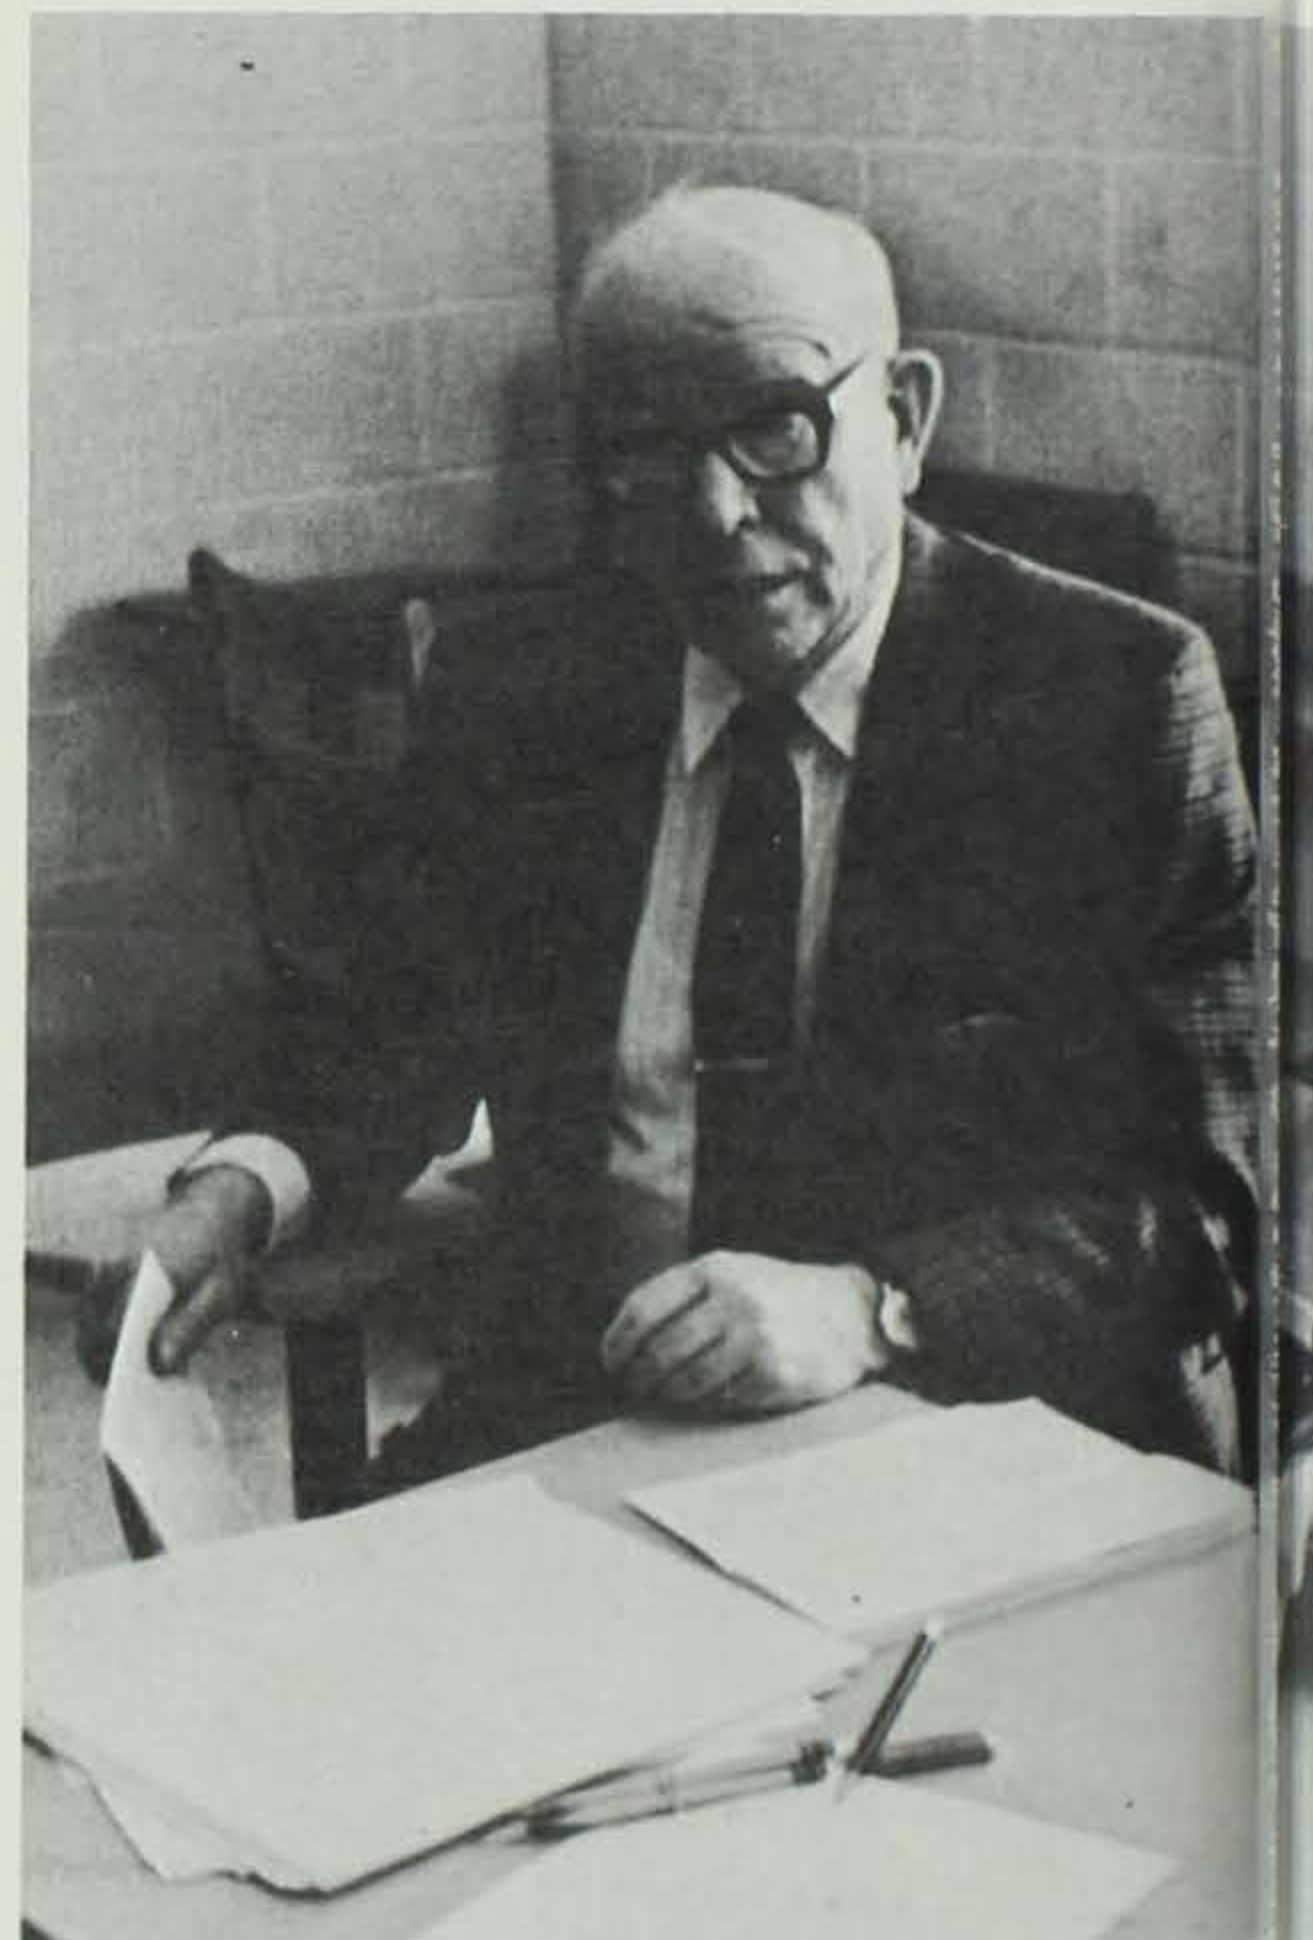

Mr. Frje Echeverria, interim instructor of art

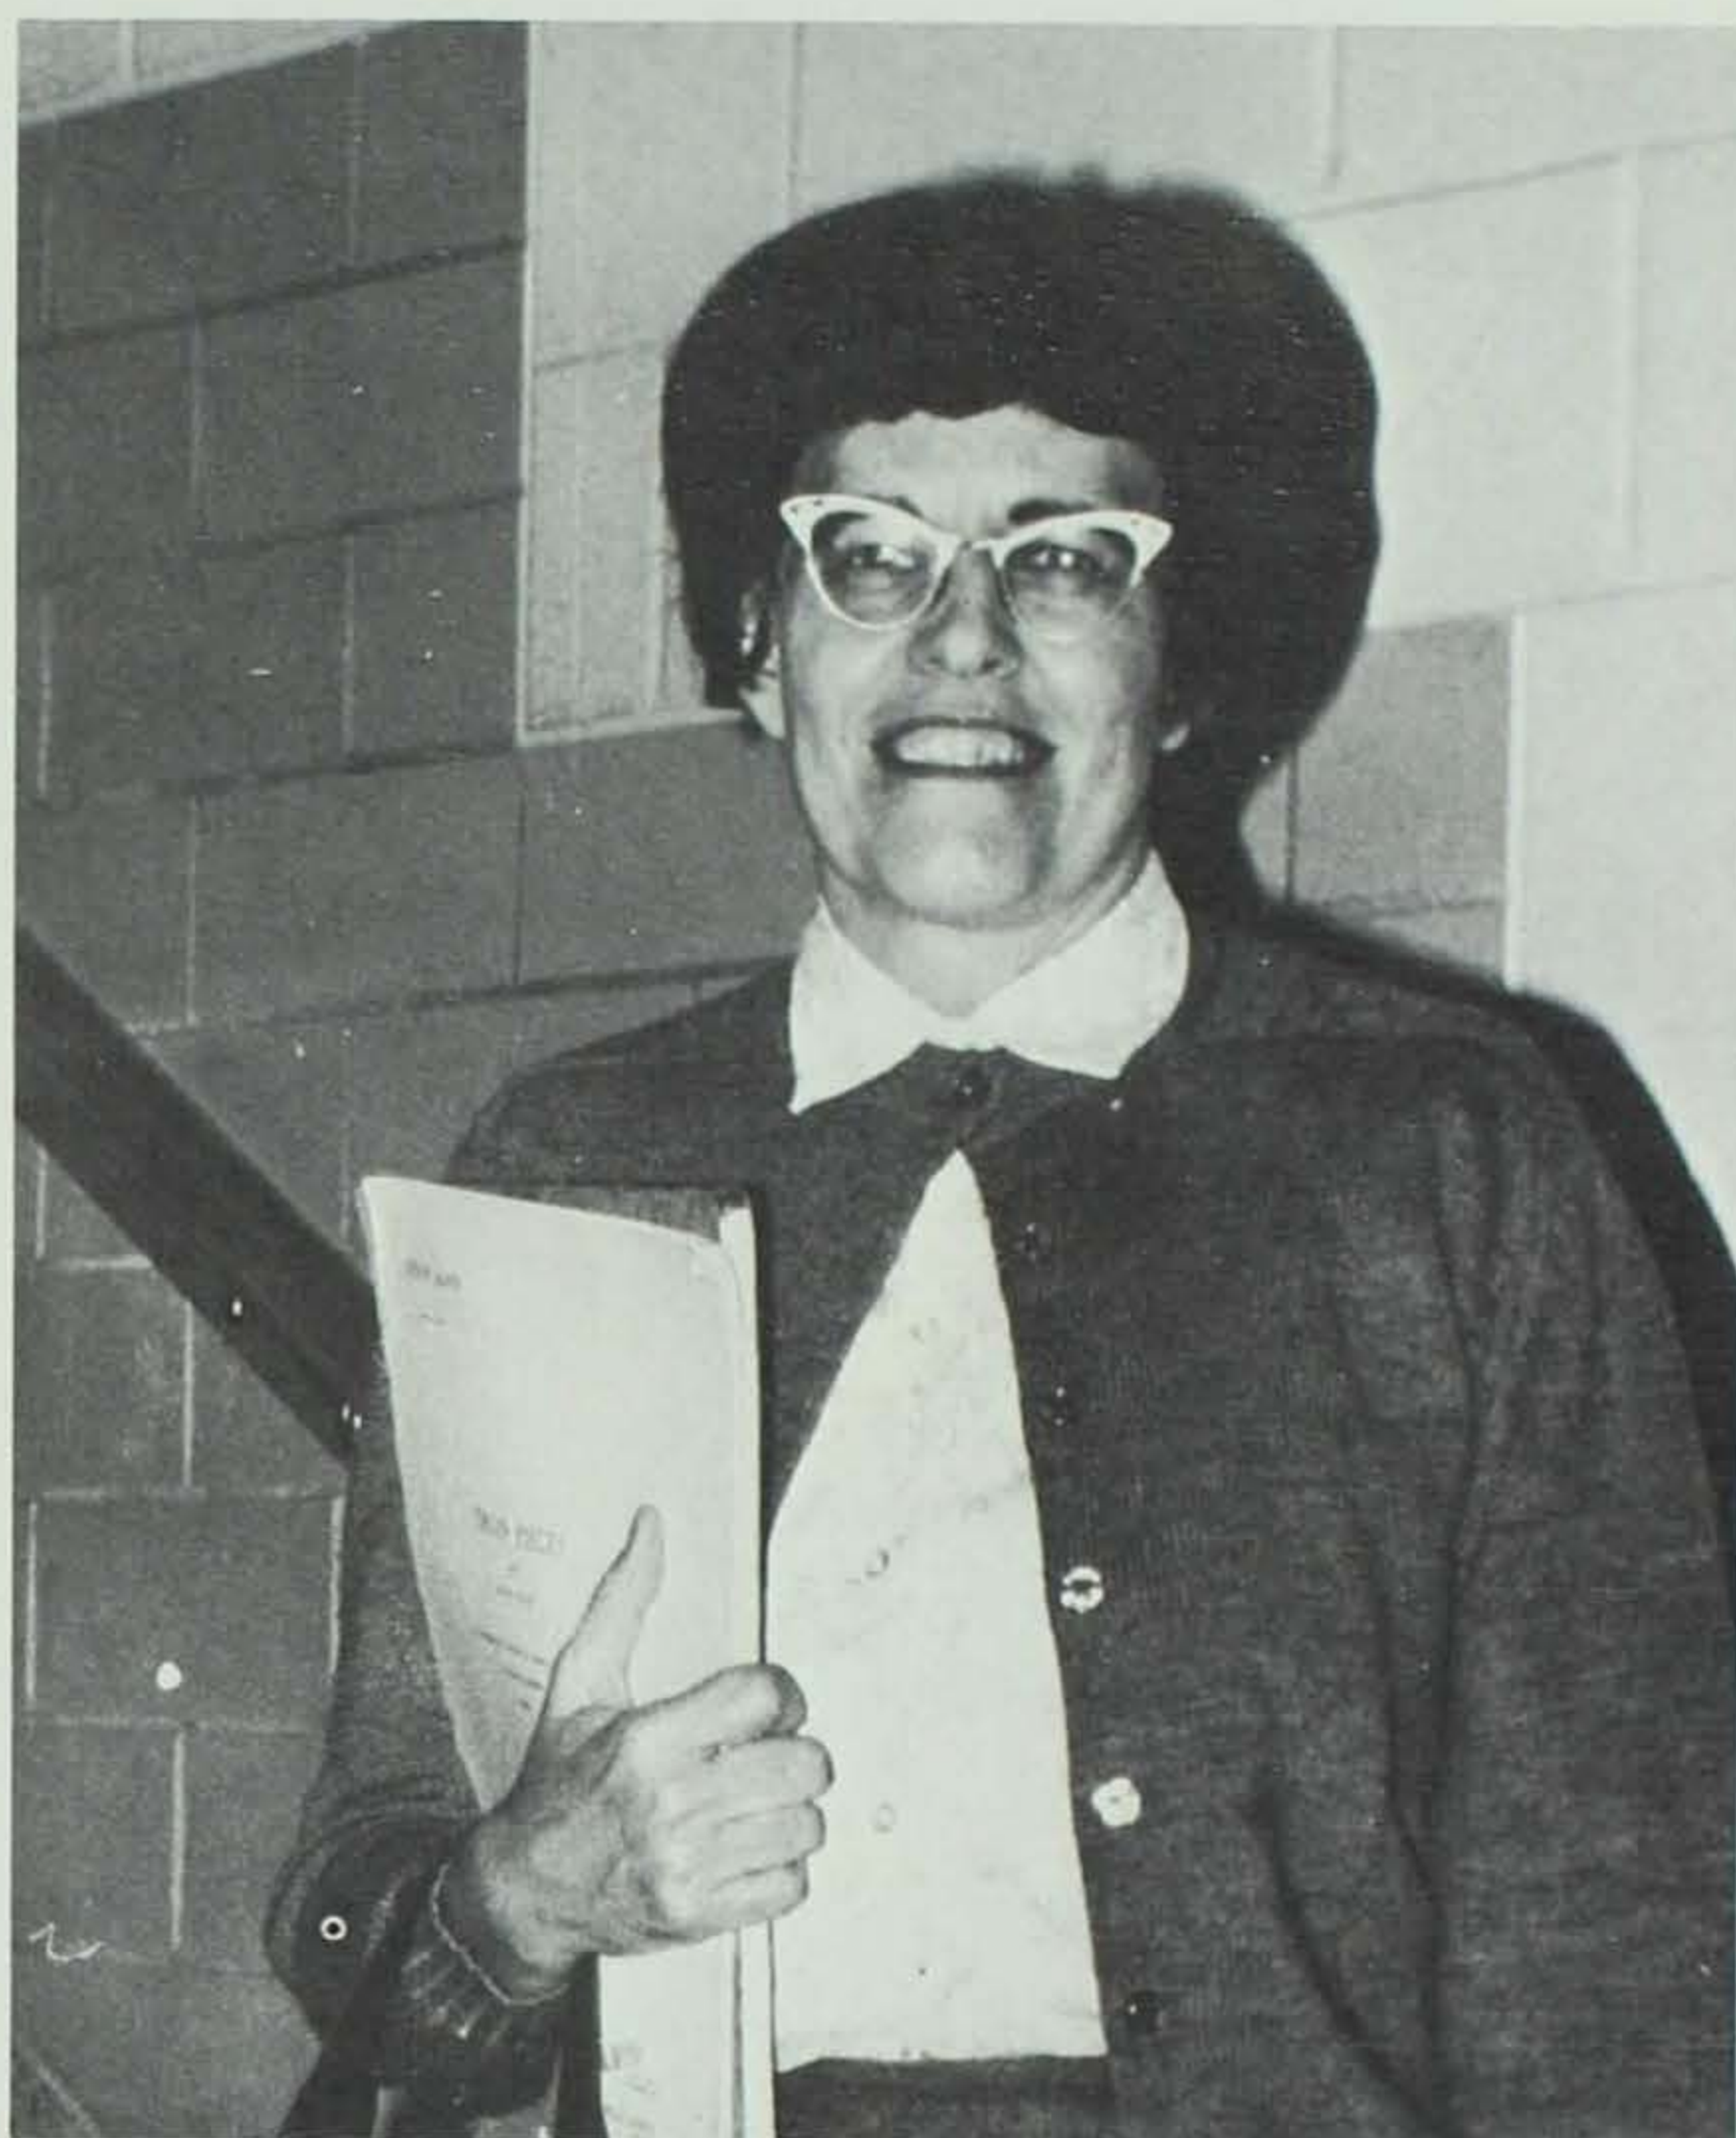

Music

Mr. Will B. Green is chairman of the Division of Fine Arts.

The music department enjoyed an exciting and worthwhile year. Both the band and the choir went on tour in the spring as well as presenting concerts and recitals on campus. The department took special pride at the installation of a new pipe organ in Schaller Memorial Chapel.

Miss Frances M. Heusinkveld, associate professor of music and college organist

Mr. Robert D. Pfaltzgraff, associate professor of music and choir director

Mrs. Cook performed the dedication concert.

The new organ was installed in January, 1969, and was made possible by a generous gift from Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Hansen of Storm Lake. It was designed and built by the Reuter Organ Company, Lawrence, Kansas, to fit the specific acoustical and aesthetic requirements of this auditorium.

It is a 35-rank instrument containing 2,048 pipes, played from a three manual console. Incorporated in the organ is a set of Schulmerich electronic chimes, the gift of Mrs. Miriam E. Bender of Titusville, Florida, in memory of her husband and father. Provision has been made structurally for the later addition of an echo organ in chambers at the back of the balcony.

Dr. and Mrs. Hansen and Mr. Cook look on as Mrs. Cook, daughter of the Hansens, prepares to play.

Physical Education

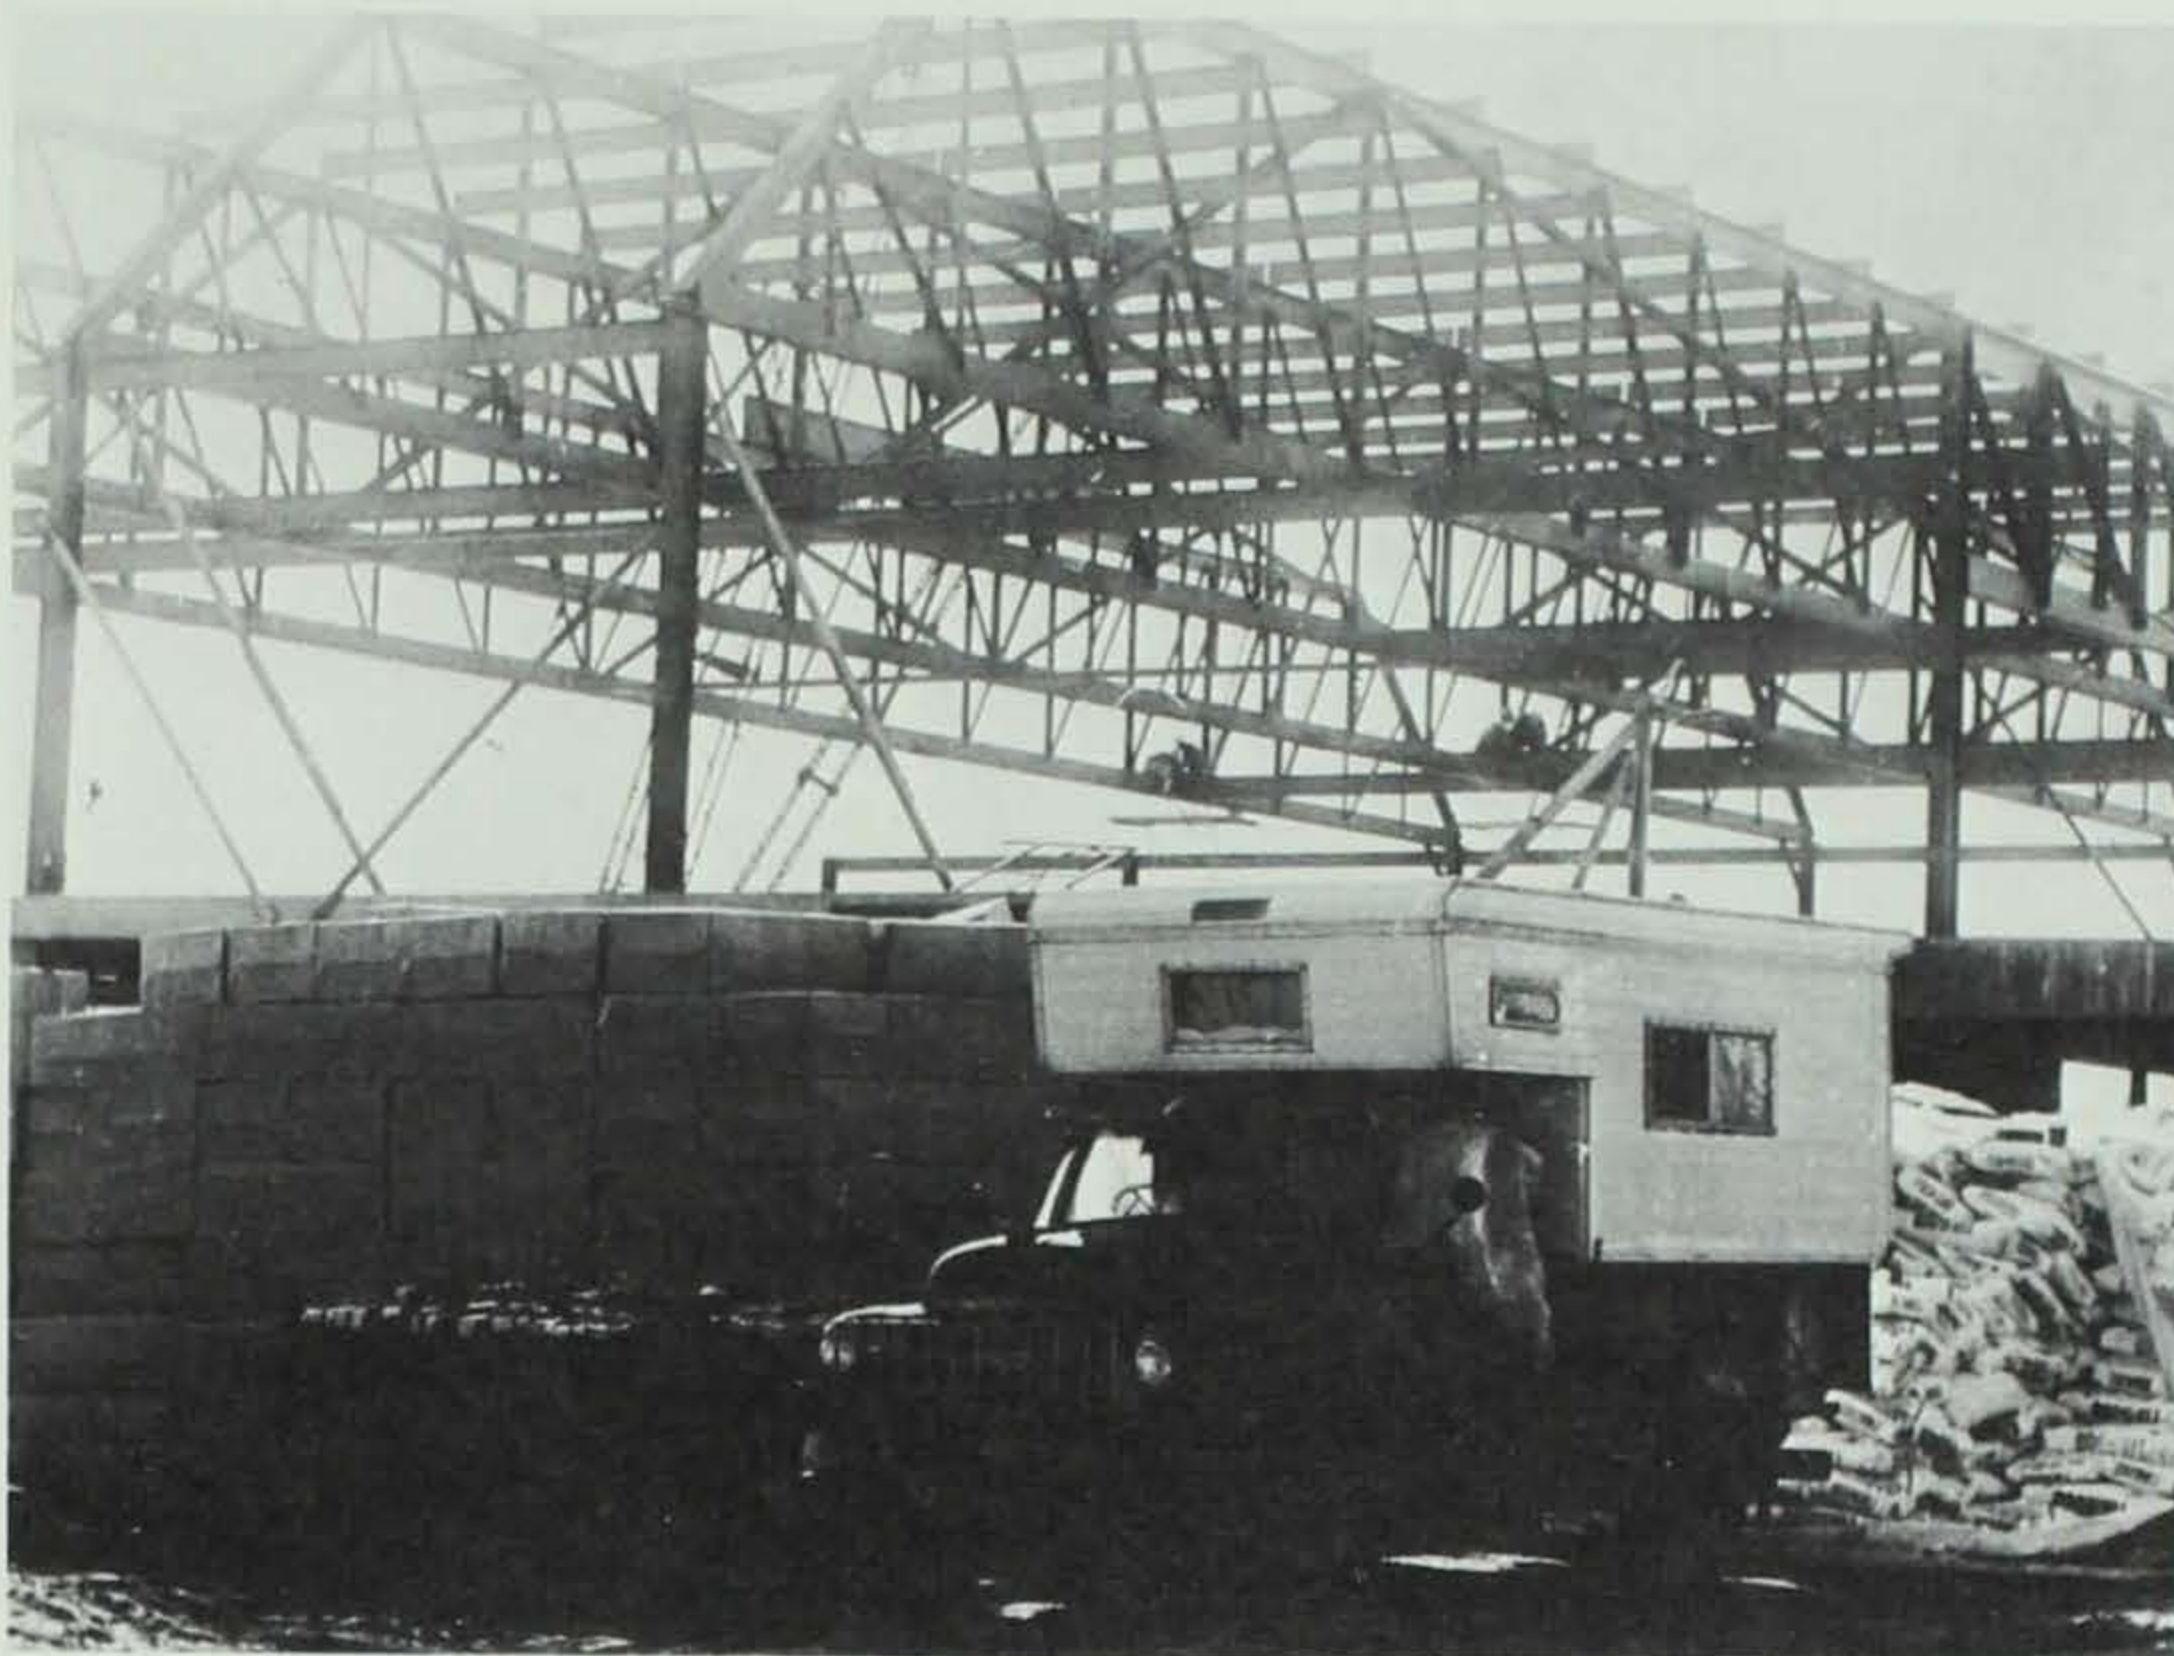

The physical education department points with pride to their forthcoming fieldhouse. It promises to be a remarkable building with basketball courts, handball courts, an olympic-size swimming pool, and classroom space. The building will be able to seat a great many people, and will provide a fine place for concerts and meetings.

The college and students will be greatly rewarded by the new building, and all look forward to the day when it will at last be ready for use.

Graduation

Exercises

The traditional march through the Victory Arch.

The seventy-eighth annual Baccalaureate and Commencement services at Buena Vista College were held June 1, 1969, at Schaller Memorial Chapel.

Baccalaureate speaker was the Reverend Albert Fay Hill, Pastor of the Montview Boulevard Presbyterian Church of Denver, Colorado. His sermon was entitled "The Dreams of the Old: The Visions of the Young."

The Commencement address was given by Willard L. Boyd, Jr., Dean of the Faculty and President, Designate of the University of Iowa.

A total of 112 seniors received their degrees. An honorary Doctor of Divinity degree was presented to Reverend Hill, and an honorary Doctor of Laws degree was received by Dean Boyd.

Awards

The seniors pictured opposite were named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Other awards were presented at the annual Junior-Senior breakfast and at the Awards Convocation. Steve Bodholdt received the Most Valuable Player award for football, and Peg Egan was honored as the senior in Swope Hall with the highest cumulative grade point.

At Commencement, Marguerite Vandagriff was named Salutatorian, while Mary Beth Summers and Anita Hallquist tied for top honors as Valedictorians.
